Extra Gravy -- Carlee Otero Banks $33,421 at Fiddler's Turkey Run

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Carlee Otero went east to spend Thanksgiving with family and came home $33,421 richer after an incredible weekend at the Fiddler's Turkey Run, held November 21-26 at the luxurious World Equestrian Center in Ocala, Florida.

Otero already had plans to spend Thanksgiving with her husband Michael's family in Montgomery, Alabama. With one of her favorite veterinarians, Daniel Weldon, DVM of Southeast Equine Veterinary Services in the vicinity, she thought bringing the horses along for a pre-winter rodeo once-over would be a good idea.

Having gone out the week before, she won $7,662 at Unadilla, Georgia, the weekend prior and almost skipped Fiddler's.

"I'm so thankful we decided to go instead of coming home," said Otero, who won $21,348 on Blingolena ("Sly") and $12,073 on KL Touch Of Heaven ("Dove").

Her in-laws were in full support of her decision to go to Ocala. "Luckily, they were very understanding," she said. "They were like, 'Let's have Thanksgiving early and y'all go ahead and drive down there!' It was perfect!"

So was Otero's first experience with the WEC.

"That place is unbelievably beautiful," Otero said of the facility. "People say, 'Oh! It's like Disneyland.' For real, it's like Disneyland for horse lovers! It was amazing! You really didn't have to leave the property for anything! They had a little grocery store, all the restaurants and shopping. They had everything you needed."

Otero also took advantage of every lucrative option at the race including the Pumpkin Pie Slot Race and Xtreme Mini Million sidepots. She won three checks on four runs in the Mini Million

THE RUNDOWN w/Carlee Otero

Blingolena ("Sly") 15 hands (rounded up), 1,097 lbs.

BIT: L&W four-inch shank with a two-piece twist mouth and very little gag

HEADGEAR: None. "I just took the tiedown off of him at the WPRA Finals.

Those were his first runs without one. I felt like he was getting a lot more seasoned and solid, so he was backing off it a little bit. So far, I'm loving him without the tiedown, but I do warm him up with the tiedown to keep him together and collected, and then I take it off right before I run."

SADDLE: Coats — SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Partial rims behind, regular steel shoes on the front

FEED: Purina Senior Active — HAY: Free choice alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety powder and oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "I fell in love with the Spectra Laser over the summer.

I like that you can just leave them on them and go walk off as they go through their cycle. After a run, I love to put my BEMER on them as well. I'm big on icing legs. If I can't ice when I get to the trailer, I always use an ice tight of some sort. Without their feet and legs, we don't have them."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING: "It's hardcore. I feel like athletes need to be in tip top condition, so they don't get hurt. I usually ride at least five days a week. I don't work the barrels at all. I'll walk around for five or six minutes. I set my timer and I'll trot about 20 minutes and then I'll lope for 10. I'll walk around for 10 minutes to cool them off and rinse legs."

SPONSORS: CSI, Equinety and Spectra Therapy

THANKS: "My husband—He's amazing. I honestly couldn't do it without him. It's funny because he's my biggest cheering section. Even this weekend at Fiddler's the girls in the office were like Michael gets a vest for being the ultimate horse handler. I can literally jump off one and hand it to him. He knows my routine and handles it all for me. My family—they've always been super supportive. As busy as I am with work and everything, if I do have to leave, they're the ones that I count out. They make sure things keep running correctly. My family deserves a huge thank you. A super big shout out to Dr. Daniel Weldon and Southeast Equine—He's been my vet with Sly since Day 1. He's been great so we started taking everything to him.

"All the glory—though the good and the bad—to God. I couldn't navigate this life without God leading our directions. Even when times are bad and I want to be angry, I feel that God's got something bigger than what I had planned ahead. I'm super thankful that God gave me the ability, the structure and the goal to keep moving forward with everything."

and went one, two with Sly and Dove in the Slot Race as well as the American Contender qualifier.

She said the amount of money available to win was simply "ridiculous."

"With the incentive races and everything, it's silly not to go to these races that have all these options," said the realtor from Collinsville, Texas. "You would run your wheels off going to these little weekly jackpots, which are great if you're a trainer, but for the horses like I have that don't need that, it makes it all worthwhile. When we can't rodeo, I'm winning enough to fill in those gaps."

Otero made two runs on Sly, a 5-year-old, Busby Quarter Horses-bred gelding, by Blazin Jetolena out of Dash of Bling, by Dash Ta Fame. She purchased the gelding in the spring and nearly qualified for the NFR in his rookie year on the road.

She said she was surprised that Sly took to rodeo so well given his temperament.

"He's really, really immature to be around," she said. "He's just full of himself and doesn't pay attention, like would walk into a wall if you didn't tell him there's a wall there! So, I thought this would be a couple of years of letting him figure out where to put his feet and pay attention, but once he zoned in... I think he loved the crowd and the attention. He just took to it like it was easy for him. It fit him. It fits his personality. He handles any kind of ground really well."

They finished 19th in the WPRA World Standings with $79,056. Sly also qualified Otero to the Canadian Finals Rodeo, where she debuted her newest acquisition—Dove, whom she got from his owner, trainer Kassie Mowry after the Ruby Buckle in Memphis, Tennessee. Their very first run together won a round at the CFR.

"I hadn't even taken him to a little jackpot to get to know him," she mused. "I've been telling myself to find a little, local jackpot to go to, but then again, I don't want to waste a horse like that at a $30 jackpot either. So, I'm just winging it. I feel like we're a little inconsistent, but we'll get there. When it's good, it's really good, and he and Sly are neck and neck, but it took me some time to figure out and jive with Sly too."

Dove, a 5-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of Karma Loftin's great mare Junior Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr, is also Sly's polar opposite. Whereas Sly is small and a little spacey to be around, Dove is large and sweet.

"He is so docile, almost like a kid's horse," she said. "I've been lucky enough to ride several after Kassie, and she has them so responsive and so broke and easy. He has a feel to him...he's so strong and so powerful. He's like a rocking horse when you're riding him around but when you get him in that alley ready to go, you can just feel his chest blow up. He's so strong in his turns."

"I feel like I have to ride him a little heavier handed than Sly. I have to remind myself to keep him in my hands and make sure I'm right where I need to be the whole time. I think that will get better over time. If you watch Kassie ride him, it's just fingertips. I think it's just time and a learning curve that I have to get through."

The solid foundation that's a hallmark of all of Mowry's horses shone through in Ocala when Dove's headstall broke, causing a commotion as Otero was getting ready to run down the alleyway on Sly.

"I ran both of mine in the American, and I think there were only 12 of us that entered, so I was seven runners apart," Otero chuckled. "Right before they called my name for Sly, I saw Dove running to me. He's got no headstall on. I thought, 'Oh my gosh! He's going to follow me into the arena!' Luckily, he just stopped and stood in a corner until Michael got to him."

With no time to fix or change out the broken headstall, Otero threw the only bit she had available on Dove for his run.

"I ran him and won second on him with a bit that had never been in his mouth before," she chuckled more. "I was just praying, 'Please, don't look like a fool. Just make three nice turns!' Of course, of all horses the one that it happens on is the one I'm not the most comfortable with! That was super high pressure! I have no idea what people thought when they saw him come running straight to the arena with nothing but a saddle on. We got through it. He performed like it was no big deal."

Otero is very excited to tackle the winter run with her young team of geldings.

"I feel like I have a fantastic team," she said. "I feel like they complement each other. They're honest. Of course, they're both coming 6-year-olds, but they've gone enough now that they're ready."

Having finished high enough in the 2022 World Standings, Otero will get into all the lucrative, limited-entry winter rodeos.

"I would love to have a good winter and pick and choose where I go this summer and spend more time on Dove getting him rodeo experience," she said. "That's my goal, but if it doesn't work out that way, we'll just go with the flow and see what happens."

Taylor Manning Sweeps Maple Leaf Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

2022 Canadian Champion Barrel Racer Taylor Manning made a clean sweep of the Maple Leaf titles, after winning the Circuit Finals, held November 22-25 in Regina, Saskatchewan.

The Yellowhead County, Alberta, barrel racer was riding Little Sexcee Cowboy ("Archie"), her little pen specialist. The big gelding only dropped one round, when he and Manning placed second in the third, en route to the rodeo championship, worth $6,989.

"At the CFR I knocked a few barrels, and it was pretty costly, so my goal at Regina was to make sure I got my first barrel and keep the barrels up. He worked amazing!" said Manning.

Manning purchased Archie as a weanling from his breeders Grant and Rayel Little. The 7-year-old gelding is by Guys Casanova Cowboy, out of the Merridoc mare, JC Simply Sexcee.

"He was one of the first futurity horses that I trained that started good," said Manning. "He's really started doing good now. He loves indoor pens and deep ground."

Manning was without her star Bringin The Bling for half of the season and was forced to take Archie out of his comfort zone a little more.

"He's really come on the last couple of years," she said. "It took him a little while to grow up. He's a bit of a stiffer horse, especially on the left side. When he was futuritying, he went to the right and the past two years we switched him left. He seems to like it quite a bit. I like my horses really soft, so I struggled with that a little bit, but now we have it more figured out."

Manning finished third in the Canadian Standings for the year, earning the right to compete at the Calgary Stampede which generally overlaps the NFR Open, which she has also qualified for via her Maple Leaf titles.

THE RUNDOWN w/Taylor Manning

Little Sexcee Cowboy ("Archie") 15.3, almost 16 hands, 1,100-1,200 lbs

BIT: Carol Goostree long shank

HEADGEAR: Leather tiedown

SADDLE: Rylee Racer

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine BioFit

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine boots on front, Classic Equine polos on rear

SHOEING: Eventers on front, rims on rear

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, Acuscope therapy from Jill Vandergust, Revita Vet cap, Katie Munn for chiropractic, osteopath care, nebulizer treatments. Veterinary care from Beckwith Vet and Energy Equine CONDITIONING/TRAINING: "I do a lot of pole bending on him to soften him up and he gets round penned. Some days during the week I'll take him to the fields just to go for an easy, relaxing ride."

SPONSORS: Vault Construction, Back On Track Canada, Frontier Western Shop, Vetline Equine Canada, RenoVo Amnion Solutions, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, Anchor C Performance Horses

THANKS: Her sponsors and her mom Shelly—"For always helping and supporting me and bossing me around and making sure I do things right!" Grant and Rayel Little for their "amazing" breeding program and for taking the time to help her.

"My mom and I were just talking about that," said Manning, who was headed south for the warm-weather barrel racing in Arizona.

"We'll just have to see what happens when we enter. Our friend Bradi Whiteside made the NFR Open and Calgary last year and she made it work."

Manning, who is in Arizona from December through March, plans on running at a few of the stateside pro rodeos this winter.

"I'll see how the horses are working and I might go to Texas for some of the bigger rodeos, if I can get in," she said. "I have 14 horses down there that I will be riding, so I'll be training and going to a few futurities too."

Western Fortunes Barrel Racing Incentive Program crowns 2023 Year-End Champions

The Leading Offspring title goes to Nickersdownisamoon, 2018 gelding by Nickster x Pepinics Moon Chic owned by Carly Longo and ridden by Andrea Udal. It turned out to be very profitable for owner, Carly Longo to leave this great 5-year old in Canada under the capable hands of trainer/rider, Andrea Udal. Andrea & "Rhen" proved they were the program's toughest barrel racing team winning $1,257.25 throughout the season and pocketing another $1,500.00 in a Hi-Point Cash Award bringing his Life Time Earnings to over $30,000!

Miniota, Manitoba Breeders, Dean & Debbie Fenty claim the 2023 Western Fortunes Leading Breeder Award! Their 2023 accomplishments also included 2nd in the Leading Sr Stallions with a son of the legendary Sun Frost, PC Sir Azure Frost. Together, this couple have gathered some of the finest broodmares and their breeding program dominates the charts year after year due to a keen eye for confirmation, pedigrees and bloodlines!

The Leading Broodmare title goes to Pepinics Moon Chic sired by Fast Moon Chic x Pepinics Miss Peppy owned by Nancy Lawrence-Naylen. Nancy brings a wealth of knowledge to her breeding program and selects all her mares on performance, confirmation and pedigrees!

Leading Jr Stallion, Nickster owned by Chelsea Driedger edged out some of the best by winning $1,147.65 in Stallion Incentives repeating his 2021 Leading Jr Stallion win from 2021! The 2012 son of As Good As Nick Gets has already produced progeny with earnings of over $350,000! Nickster not only sired the 2021 WF Reserve Champion Offspring, Buck Nickid & the 2023 WF Leading Offspring, Nickersdownisamoon but he is the sire of the 2023 Royal Crown Canada Derby Champion!

Leading Sr Stallion, Ninety Nine Goldmine reigns supreme again in 2023! The 2022 WF Legends inductee has laid claim to this award in 2018, 2019, 2020, 2022 and was runner-up in 2021. Not only does "99" continue to be a sire of champions but is proving himself as a broodmare sire with the 2023 Pink Buckle high selling horse, Blackout, who sold for $875,000 USD. Congratulations to all the WF incentive winners in 2023 and we look forward to 2024!

A Streak Of Fling Makes New Home Lazy E Ranch

The $9.2 million sire A Streak Of Fling has moved to the Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie, Oklahoma, bringing the top-producing living stallion in barrel racing to the premier breeding facility in the United States.

A Streak Of Fling, the 1999 son of Streakin Six out of Moon Fling by Fast Fling, is owned by South Dakota's Fulton Performance Horses, producing offspring like Jake Clay's two-time BFI Champion and Head Horse of the BFI, Streakin Sun Dew, Garrett Tonozi's two-time WCRA Champion Head Horse Streakin Disco and fellow Lazy E stallion Oz Ona Hot Streak, who won the first Calgary Stampede team roping with Ross Ashford.

"This is a positive move for Streaker for a few reasons: Number one, he's moving closer to us," owner Lisa Fulton said. "We're at the Lazy E a lot, and we can see our guy more. Two, we do all our repro work at the Gragg Ranch/Oklahoma City Equine Center 5 miles away, as we have for 13 years. And three, there's so much visibility at the Lazy E—every time you walk down the hall to the concession stand, you see all those photos on the wall. With the stallion tours, all of the people who come to the E for so many of the largest events in all of the industry will get to meet Streaker and enjoy him."

Lazy E Ranch will handle all booking and contracts for A Streak Of Fling, whose stud fee is $6,500 in 2024 and is available for cooled semen and ICSI only.

"Adding A Streak Of Fling to our lineup of stallions is absolutely in line with keeping the best performance and race horses in the nation at the Lazy E," Monty McNair, Lazy E Ranch manager, said. "Our staff is primed to keep Streaker at the top of his breeding game, with the best veterinarians and staff possible to serve every mare owner at any location."

Dr. Carly Turner-Garcia is the Lazy E's managing veterinarian, overseeing the stallion's breeding on-site. Dr. Turner-Garcia worked with long-time Fulton vet Dr. Brian Carroll and Dr. Dee Gragg at Oklahoma City Equine Center, adding to the Fulton's confidence in the Lazy E's services. Dr. Carroll was the long-time vet at the James Ranch, where A Streak Of Fling stood for the first time after moving to a full-time stallion station in 2010.

"To us, Streaker is Brian," Lisa said of the horse's relation to her late husband who qualified for the NFR in both the tie-down and steer wrestling. "Brian's the one Streaker had to fit when we got him home. He wanted a stud he could ride and rope and do everything on. Streaker brings back all of those wonderful memories—those bring smiles and happy thoughts. He was what we were looking for to go forward with. A lot of the youngsters didn't know him, and didn't know what Brian did, but Streaker was bought for the roping and bull dogging end of the arena. Where the market is today, this is our chance to bring him full circle. Brian had him knot-roping down the wall in eight weeks. It's all come about full circle to see so much happening in the roping, and bringing Streaker to the E will continue that circle."

For more information on A Streak Of Fling, contact Monty McNair at Lazy E Ranch, 405-368-8924, email ranchinfo@laze.com, or visit lazyeranch.com.

Leading Canadian barrel horse incentive now being offered to America

Brand new incentive format to the states, tried, tested and proven in Canada, the barrel horse breeders and stallion owners incentive offering whole herd eligibility without foal nomination fees and huge payouts at a stand alone annual event.

The breeders elite incentive was first founded in 2021 in Alberta Canada. Helen Nowosad along with friends Christine Drisner and Colin Balan brought the incentive to life with a very different approach. Instead of being just a stallion incentive like most they incorporated all the breeders offspring regardless of sire. What this meant for breeders is that they are now not limited to breeding to a certain stallion for incentive eligibility, simply all horses they bred were now eligible for huge incentive payouts. Opening doors for their entire breeding operation for as long as they have been breeding horses. But it doesn't just stop there, there are no foal nomination fees and all of the offspring of their nominated stallions also get a crack at the incentive purse. The Breeders Elite 2023 Futurity sweepstakes champion alone earned $37,000 and over $11,000 of that was paid to the breeder and stallion owner! The American Breeders Elite has been structured with the same principles. Huge incentive purse for all your horses to be able to run for it at an economical investment for all.

After 3 years of proven success for The Breeders Elite incentive in Canada and payouts closing in on three quarters of a million dollars, The American Breeders Elite incentive has been launched under the guidance of Helen Nowosad. The new program is limited to 200 breeder slots and if bought in before the January 1st 2024 deadline, the fee is $5000 per breeder slot which includes all the horses you've bred and all the offspring of one stallion, additional stallions the breeder owns can be nominated for $1500/stallion.

With all breeder slots sold The American Breeders Elite projects an $800,000 weekend payout before entries. And yes all payouts grow with entries! One big annual event with a concentrated big check payout has classes for all, the biggest payout class is the Open 4D so every horse can compete for it but there's also a 2D Futurity, 2D derby and 3D youth, all with substantial payouts for not only for the owners but for the breeders and stallion owners as well, projecting over $400,000 breeder and stallion owner payout! The American Breeders Elite is on a mission to pay back to the breeders and stallion owners who make the incentive possible, and providing international recognition for their dedication to the industry.

The American breeders elite incentive inaugural event is booked at Circle T Arena in Hamilton Texas April 4-7, 2024 with north Texas barrel racers favorite Colton Dugan prepping the ground for the elite group of horses that get the privilege to compete.

Remember, Event eligibility comes from one of three ways; bred by a nominated breeder, sired by a nominated stallion or be a nominated stallion himself!

Follow The American Breeders Elite on Facebook & Instagram for event updates and if your breeding barrel horses or own a stallion the slots are limited so get in while you can and have your whole program eligible today to compete for the elite purse in April 2024!

WPRA Announces 2023 Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year

The backbone of any rodeo is no doubt the rodeo committee and their countless volunteers that donate their time and skills to put on a good show for the fans. While the contestants and animals are the stars, they would never shine if it were not for the work of a large supporting cast of volunteers that come together, working for a common goal of making the event a success.

In 1948, the Girls Rodeo Association, now Women's Professional Rodeo Association was Built For Women By Women by 38 strong female leaders in the western industry. In honor of them and in partnership with Montana Silversmiths, one female committee member/volunteer that has gone above and beyond in their local community to make the rodeo a success and/or who has been a staple of the local rodeo for numerous years keeping the tradition alive is being honored with the WPRA Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year for 2023.

This year's recipient is Tammie Hiatt representing the Jim Shoulders Living Legends

Rodeo in Henryetta, Oklahoma.

Tammie Hiatt epitomizes the exceptional standard of an outstanding rodeo committee woman. She has been a rodeo competitor, is a community leader having served four terms as the President of the Chamber of Commerce, a businesswoman and a founding member of the annual Labor Day Rodeo in Henryetta, Oklahoma, 30 years ago. Five years ago, the rodeo received PRCA and WPRA sanctioning. She brings her expertise and familiarity of these diverse roles to direct the production of this small-town rodeo.

"Wow what a great honor to receive," stated Hiatt upon learning of the award. "I never dreamed this award would go to someone at a small rodeo like ours. This is very exciting for me and our rodeo. I am so humbled and thankful for this honor."

Hiatt has been a proponent of the WPRA and its members from the beginning and implemented tractor drags during the performance for the barrel racers long before it was requested. The rodeo also added breakaway roping with equal added money the first year the event expanded to any PRCA rodeo interested in having the event.

She and her husband Mark Hiatt are affiliated with REMAX Double Diamond Properties and she is co-owner of Hiatt Window & Glass. Through her personal businesses she has stepped up and has sponsored the breakaway roping at the RAM Prairie Circuit Finals every year it has been part of the circuit finals.

The WPRA received over 35 nominations for this award and was excited to have received so many great stories of the many outstanding women out there. As an Association, we are excited to continue to grow this program and recognize an outstanding committee woman on an annual basis.

Tammie Hiatt will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration with the Top 15 barrel racers on Thursday, December 7 at the South Point Hotel and Casino and will receive a custom made Montana Silversmiths buckle.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you are a Tombstone movie fan, you might remember Val Kilmer saying, "My hypocrisy only goes so far!" If there was a book written about the excuses people use for not going to church, hypocrisy may be in the top 5. Have you heard that? Have you SAID that? Yikes!

Matthew 23:27-28 tells us, "On the outside, you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness."

Hypocrisy means you claim to have a moral standard or belief that your behavior doesn't reflect. Groan. This is getting worse! But honestly, we've all been hypocrites. Forgive us Lord! We can be guilty of lots of things. But God will forgive us if we ask Him. I John 1:9.

I'll give you an example of being a hypocrite. One of the prayer challenges we asked of the people in The Barn, was to pray safety and blessing on a policeman, a soldier, or a firefighter when you see them. Man, I did that for a loooooong time.

But, I like to speed. I'm always in a hurry. Not surprisingly, one day I realized that instead of praying for that policeman's safety... I WAS PRAYING FOR MERCY! I'm a hypocrite...

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
