It's Finally Here, the 2016 WNFR

It is the most wonderful time of year... For all of us rodeo junkies, that means it's just a few long days until the first round of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (WNFR)!

For the second year in a row, the WNFR pays a record $10 million and the barrel racers are running at an amazing $1.1 million. The huge boost in prize money led to 5 barrel racers winning over $100k & 8 barrel racers winning more than $80k at the 2015 WNFR.

This was the toughest year in history to make the WNFR in barrel racing, in fact it took a record $79,068 just to make the Finals, this was almost $20k more than in 2015. On top of that, world leader Mary Burger became the all time regular season earnings record holder and became the 3rd barrel racer to wear the #1 on her back with her $190,977 in 2016 earnings (others are Charmayne James, 1987, Sherry Cervi, 1995). So it really was a record breaking year in 2016.

On that note, Mary Burger will set another record when she runs down the alley Thursday night as being the oldest NFR contestant (either male or female) at 68 yrs old. This year's crop of WNFR barrel racing qualifiers contain a mix of fresh faces and veterans; from the 6 first time WNFR qualifiers all the way up to Sherry Cervi who qualified for her record tying 19th WNFR (tied with Charmayne James). The horses they all plan to ride show a similar pattern; a mix of up and coming young horses and experienced veterans who have been down that alley so much they know every nook and cranny of the Thomas & Mack.

Every year we have fun bringing you a little preview of the Top 15 and pointing out some interesting facts and info about each rider and horse, along with whatever information we feel might affect the race for a World Title.

2016 has been the year of Mary Burger and Mo (Sadiefamous-lastwords)! They won Rodeo Houston to finish out their winter and then went up to Canada in the summer and won Calgary too. They just kept placing everywhere in between on their way to a record breaking regular season haul of $190,977 and the #1 spot in the World. The $75k lead they have on the field going into the finals will definitely give Burger a leg up towards a 2nd world title, her last was in 2006 on Rare Fred. However, with each round paying over $26k and the average title paying over $67k, it is still anyone's game.

Last year, 8 different barrel racers won over $80k so Burger will need to keep winning over the 10 days to keep out in front. Although, Mo is only 7 years old and coming off a slight injury, he and Burger have been incredibly consistent all year and he seems to just get stronger the more he runs in one arena. This was true at Houston & Calgary both, so the 10 rounds should work in their

Want more rodeo action? For the second year in a row, Boyd Gaming is bringing back the CINCH Boyd Gaming Chute-Out at the Orleans Arena, December 8-10 (@2pm) for three days of electrifying, action-packed rodeo with an all-star lineup of cowboys and cowgirls competing for the Championship title.

Some of the world-champion rodeo talent that will be competing in the event includes five-time world champion Luke Branquinho, and Wade Sundel, who made headlines in the rodeo world with his $1 million win at the RFD-TV The American rodeo earlier this year.

Also confirmed to compete for a competition purse totaling $200,000 are Joe Beaver and McCoy Profili, and Clay Tryan and Jade Corkill for Team Roping; Steven Peebles for Bareback Riding; Cort Scheer for Saddle Bronc; Chandler Bownds for Bull Riding; and Lindsay Sears for Barrel Racing. A total of 64 participants will compete during the afternoon rodeo event in a series of contests: Bareback Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping, Saddle Bronc Riding, Tie-Down Roping, Barrel Racing and Bull Riding.

The Boyd Gaming Chute-Out app will return with exclusive videos, real-time interaction with the riders, and live scoring results! It's unique, affordable, and will get you as close to the action as possible without getting your boots dirty.

More action-packed news, including the competitor roster for the CINCH Boyd Gaming Chute-Out, will be announced throughout this year.

The barrel racing roster: Jana Griemsman, Taylor Jacob, Taylor Langdon, Christine Laughlin, Shali Lord, Katelyn McLeod, Nellie Miller, Lindsay Sears

PRCA Announces International Live Streaming of 2016 Wrangler NFR

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association has announced the international live streaming of the 2016 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Polaris RANGER. International ProRodeo fans this year will be able to watch the Wrangler NFR live and on-demand by visiting WNFR.TV and following the link to the paid viewing platform.

The 58th annual Wrangler NFR, which will run Dec. 1-10 at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, this year features an international field, including French bareback rider Evan Jayne, who last year became the first European-born cowboy ever to qualify for the WNFR in any event, and world leaders in three other categories of competition. Brazilian Junior Nogueira leads the world all-around race, and also the pack of team roping heelers in his trademark event. Nogueira's countryman Marcos Costa leads the world tie-down roping race.

This year's Canadian contingent - at eight strong - is the largest to ride for the Maple Leaf in 15 years, and is comprised of bareback riders Orin Larsen and Jake Vold; saddle bronc riders Zeke Thurston, Clay Elliott and Jake Watson; and team ropers Kolton Schmidt, Levi Simpson and Jeremy Buhler.

To access the international live coverage and limited re-airs of all Wrangler NFR performances, visit WNFR.TV and follow the link to visit the paid viewing platform to subscribe to watch.

The 2016 Wrangler NFR will be broadcast live nightly in the U.S. on CBS Sports Network for the run of the NFR, Dec. 1-10, at 7 p.m. PT and 10 p.m. ET. It will re-air nightly at 10 p.m. PT and 1 a.m. ET.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame to Induct WPRA Members

Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Commissioner Karl Stressman announced at his State of the PRCA address on Nov. 29 that, starting in 2017, the ProRodeo Hall of Fame will include Women's Professional Rodeo Association inductees.

"The PRCA and the WPRA have been longstanding partners in this great sport, and we look forward to an even closer working relationship moving forward," Stressman said. "Including the WPRA in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame is a natural extension of that relationship, and it just makes sense to honor and recognize rodeo greats in every event."

The WPRA is equally ecstatic about this historic news.

"I am beyond thrilled to see this partnership come to fruition - not only for the WPRA and its members, but for all of rodeo," said WPRA President Doreen Wintermute. "I can't thank the PRCA and the ProRodeo Hall of Fame enough for making this happen." The ProRodeo Hall of Fame, which is a popular Colorado Springs attraction for rodeo fans and tourists alike, has already inducted 250 people, 27 rodeo committees and 31 animals - including the legendary Scamper, who was Charmayne James' partner in 10 of her 11 world championships. Scamper was enshrined in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 1996.

"The ProRodeo Hall of Fame is thrilled to have the opportunity to induct WPRA champions, who make up another popular segment of professional rodeo that deserves to be recognized," said ProRodeo Hall of Fame Executive Director Kent Sturman. "The PRCA and the WPRA are great partners, so this is a next step that just makes sense for the entire sport. It will be the ProRodeo Hall of Fame's honor to include the stories and history of barrel racing's true legends, which the museum tells through its exhibits, displays and educational programs."

The WPRA will implement its own selection process, and WPRA inductees will join the PRCA at the annual Hall of Fame inductions starting with the Class of 2017.

Ganter. She gained a lot of experience in her 2nd year on the road and all 4 of her horses are well rested and ready for action. Although, all 4 of her horses deserve to run at the Thomas & Mack, she will probably decide between her two veterans, Guys French Jet & Recent Release. Ganter & Guys French Jet were the Reserve WNFR Average Champions last year and she won $85,462 overall on Jet in the 2015 WNFR. Last year's WNFR experience will come in handy as she gets ready for Thursday night. In Ganter's first WNFR last year, she rode like a veteran and you can assume with even more time and experience it will be more of the same this year. Throughout 2016, she just determinedly placed along almost everywhere she went. If she does that at the WNFR and stays up there in the average like she did last year, she will push Burger to keep winning all week long and put herself in the title race!

In the #3 position, is 5-time WNFR qualifier & 2012 World Champions, Latte (Perculatin) & Mary Walker. During the 2016 season, Walker became the WPRA's 7th millionaire along with her horse Latte. Again in 2016, Walker quietly won along all summer long and pushed her way all the way up to #3 in the world. This season she was able to ride her backup horse, A Frosty Please, at some rodeos and rest Latte more, so Latte should be rested and ready to fire on all cylinders. Latte won over $146k in 2012 & over $92k in 2013 at the WNFR, so he has proven he loves the Thomas & Mack. Latte is one of the veteran horses at the WNFR, is feeling and working great, and Walker and him are just due to have great WNFR in 2016, so keep an eye out for them!

Coming in at #4 is the first of the WNFR Rookies, Ivy Conrado. Her mount is one of the young guns coming into the WNFR this year, Cfour Tibbie Stinson or Tibbie as she is more commonly known. Throughout the year, Tibbie's blazing fast style has turned heads wherever her and Conrado go. Just a few years removed from a very successful futurity year, Tibbie & Conrado have matured together and they have performed well at every size set up and arena in 2016. Conrado only entered 57 rodeos and Tibbie ran in less than that so she will be rested and ready for the WNFR. This team set an arena record running a 16.65 on a standard set in Spanish Fork, UT, so this may be a team to watch to maybe scare the arena record if they get tapped off right. Tibbie, like so many of these great horses at the WNFR, gets stronger with more run, so she should get stronger as the week goes on.

In #5 position, comes the "gritty" pair of Foxy (Tkw Bullys famous Fox) and Kimmie Wall. They won several rodeos throughout the year and then came in Reserve Champions at several of the biggest rodeos of the year including Reno & Pendleton. Wall raised Foxy and they make a great team, they are just as the first sentence says, gritty and they like to go fast! They are both rookies to the WNFR, but you can bet they will come in there and go for it every night for 10 nights. Wall is another cowgirl who didn't go to as many rodeos (only 53 total) so Foxy should be feeling foxy going into Vegas. With Wall raising Foxy, they know each other well which will help them throughout the ten rounds and tricky setup. This will be a fun explosive team to watch that you won't want to overlook.

Following in the #6 position is another WNFR rookie, Stevi Hillman. Hillman had a breakout year in 2016, riding her pair of talented mounts to big wins over the summer. She started off her big run over the summer winning Reno on Truck (Cuatro Fame) and finished it by winning Pendleton on Martini (Morning Traffic). She will have a tough time choosing between these two amazing horses because although they each won on bigger patterns, they have also both won on smaller 13-14 second setups similar to the WNFR. Both horses possess round winning type talent so either way she picks it will give her a chance for first. This is Hillman's first WNFR, but she is a veteran rodeo & futurity competitor and is also used to running in similar setups to the WNFR so she should take to it pretty quickly. The toughest part of her week will be deciding which horse to ride!

In #7, comes a pair of veterans, Louie (An Oakie With Cash) and Lisa Lockhart. Everyone who has watched barrel racing in recent times knows this will go down as one of the greatest pairs of all time. Louie & Lockhart have won around $1.7 million together since 2010 with over $660,000 won at the NFR alone! They were Reserve World Champions in 2014 & 2015 and have finished in the Top 5 in the World every year since Louie came into the picture in 2010. This year Lockhart only went to 38 rodeos and Louie went to even less as Lockhart stayed home and enjoyed more family time. The pair ran really well at the ERA Finals a couple weeks ago winning 2nd in one round and 3rd in another. So Louie should be fresh and sharp and he is one of the most successful horses of all-time at the Thomas & Mack so it will be fun to watch. As a fan of the sport, you just have to pull for this pair to win their 1st World Title together to cap an amazing career. Although they are coming in $90k behind, Louie & Lockhart will be determined to try to get their hands on that gold buckle and with the prize money available this year it could just happen!

After wowing the crowd at the WNFR last year, the team of Bling (Fame Fling N Bling) and Sarah Rose McDonald make their 2nd trip to the WNFR in the #8 position. Bling & McDonald won 3 rounds at the 2015 WNFR and were the high money earners, winning $139,827. They put everyone on the edge of their seats each time they came out the mouth of the alleyway! They grew up together back east running in all the small indoor setups just like the WNFR and they are an electric pair. Although, this team comes in over $100k behind Burger, with their chemistry and their proven winning ability in the Thomas & Mack; if they get on a roll, win a couple rounds and are tough in the average later in the week, they might give Burger a run for the world title.

In #9, comes 4 time NFR qualifier Michele McLeod riding the infamous stallion, Slick By Design. Slick By Design recently passed the $500k mark in lifetime earnings and shows a lot of love for the Thomas & Mack. Last year, Slick & McLeod won over $138k and were the #2 earners of the WNFR. They won 2 rounds and placed in 6 rounds total. Slick has a cool style, he never looks hurried always looks smooth as silk and always, always stops the clock! Slick & McLeod are a team in every sense of the word and know each other so well and that should really work to their advantage at the Thomas & Mack as the rounds progress. Slick is running as good as he ever has and coming off of a great 2015 at the WNFR, look for this team to be tough in the rounds and stay in the average throughout the 10 rounds.

In #10 rides Rookie of the Year, Cayla (Melby) Small. Small won on several different horses throughout the year including her 3 NFR Mounts, Shameon U, Docs Frosty Blue Bar, & Brookstone Jo. All three are really talented horses that have won in a variety of setups, so whichever one she decides to ride, she is on a winner! Small comes from an NFR pedigree. Her mother, Jane Melby, qualified to the WNFR in 2011 & 2013. Small & her mother both are fierce competitors who know how to win. You can bet if they show up, they are going for the win and will win! Although Small is a Rookie, she has been competing her whole life at all sorts of different rodeos & futurities and she will enjoy the challenge of the WNFR.

In #11 Jesse (Sheza Smooth Flight) & Pamela Capper qualified to their first WNFR. If you follow the sport of barrel racing close, you know this pair well. Since 2011 this team has been winning a lot in the northwest; in fact they finished in the Top 25 in the World from 2012-2015 with mainly only going to the northwest rodeos. This is another team that knows each other very well since Capper raised her main mare, Jesse. Capper is another veteran competitor and although it is her first trip to Vegas, her and Jesse should feel at home right away. They are very consistent & talented together and this may be a team to be after that average title at the end of the 10 rounds.

The #12 qualifier needs no introduction, Sherry Cervi is making her record tying 19th trip to the WNFR. She is the winningest cowgirl in WPRA history with over $3 million in earnings and also holds 4 world titles. The only difference this year? She will ride Arson (Dash Ta Diamonds) instead of the little yellow rocket, Stingray (Mp Meter My Hay). Stingray will be there, but as a backup horse this time. Over the last several years we became accustomed to Cervi & Stingray running out of the alley and changing the leaderboard but now Stingray gets to slow down her schedule a little and enjoy more time in her fresh shavings! Cervi is well know for her ability to win on a number of different horses and she has already ridden Dash Ta Diamonds to several wins over the last couple of years. In fact, Cervi ran the fastest time of the 2015 WNFR (a 13.55) on Dash Ta Diamonds. Dash Ta Diamonds has won at every level with several different riders and is a very talented individual. Cervi is of course rock solid, so this could be a pair to watch through the week, they have the speed to win rounds and the consistency to be in the average which gives them a realistic chance to climb the ladder and win a 5th world title for Cervi.

The #13 qualifier is 2-time WNFR qualifier Carley Richardson. Richardson rides two great horses, Radio (Doda Flit) and Money (Flit Money). Richardson is another tough competitor and after her experience at last year's WNFR, she should be ready to roll when she hits that alley Thursday night. Richardson has the ability to get hot and win in bunches; winning around $20k both last year and this year during the 4th of July runs. She only entered 65 rodeos and used two horses for most of the rodeos, so her horses are fresh and ready for the WNFR. If her and Radio & Money get on a roll over the ten days they could be a force to be reckoned with.

In #14 comes the late season surge master, Jana Bean. Bean is headed to her 3rd straight WNFR. It has become customary for her to have to win in September to make the NFR and each year she thrives under the pressure and makes her way to Vegas. Bean is going to start off the WNFR on Chick (Dashing Klee), who is a very explosive, fast horse. This team should get in there for a bunch of round money. Bean is a veteran competitor and has 20 rounds of experience in the Thomas & Mack so it should be fun to watch these two!

In #15 runs Paige (Cp Dark Moon) and Amberleigh Moore. They started out the year with no plans of the WNFR but as the year went on and the wins racked up, Moore switched gears and qualified to her first WNFR. This is another pair that know each other well and they have won in small indoor setups in the north-west so the Thomas & Mack should fit Paige's smooth, easy style around the barrels. Paige & Moore's smooth style should help them win along in the rounds and stay deep in the average.

This year's WNFR is shaping up to be a doozy! With a $75k lead over #2 Ganter, It could be as simple as Mo & Mary Burger place in the rounds stay in the average, stay way out in front, finish out her fairytale year and drive back to Oklahoma with a gold buckle. However, if something happens along the 10 rounds to open up the title race it could really turn into a dogfight! There is only $37k separating #2 from #15, which is just a round win and 4th place in a round difference. So if Burger falters at all, with the money up at the WNFR & the talent level of the horses & riders again this year, this could turn into an all out battle for the title.

According to the 2016 WPRA ProRodeo standings, there were 751 money winners at the WPRA rodeos in 2016, and now we are down to 15, the best 15 in the World. We say this every year; but it is true every year, this is the most talented bunch of horses we have seen compete at the WNFR. All the horses running down that alley have won money at rodeos during the year against the "big dogs" so it really just depends on what horses are feeling best, get tapped off, and like the new dirt in the Thomas & Mack, If one of them gets on a roll this year we could possibly see a $200k earner at the WNFR alone!

Anyone who competes themselves, knows just how talented these horses & riders are to make it this far, so make sure you just enjoy the awesome display of talent December 1-10!

Make sure you have CBS Sports Network on your TV package or can tune into ProRodeoLive on Rural Radio Sirius XM Channel 147.

On a personal note, the Barrel Racing Report would again this year like to congratulate each and every barrel racer in the Top 15. To make it to the NFR this year, you had to outrun the most talented horses to ever grace the barrel racing world. We would also like to thank each of you for taking the time out of your busy schedules to get back to us for stories, horse information, and whatever else we needed from you. As a fan reading this at home, you should know that at this year's NFR you are represented by a group of wonderful people who happen to also be very talented barrel racers. I wish everyone had the chance to get to talk to these fine women because they truly are all very special people.

WPRA: Describe your horse's running and turning style and how they will do with the Thomas and Mack set-up

Burger: Mo has done well in all situations this year. He still is immature and gets sloppy and not super solid yet. He is very capable of doing very well. Just a matter of if it is my turn or whether he likes that pen at that time. One of those things where I know he has done well and just hope he can finish well. (At) Houston we had

Conrado: CFour Tibbie Stinson (Tibbie), 7 yr old little sorrel mare with a white face, LTE $300k+, owned by Kelly Conrado and I

BRR: Favorite Motivational Quote.

Conrado: It's not over until I win!

BRR: Music on your iphone/ipod?

Conrado: Mostly alternative rock and hip hop/rap.

BRR: Song you listen to when you are getting ready to run?

Conrado: Anything Rihanna!

BRR: Favorite bit?

Conrado: Anything with a chain mouthpiece.

BRR: What Celebrity would your horse be?

Conrado: Simon Biles or Misty May-Treanor because she is crazy athletic!

Contestant Quick Minute (courtesy WPRA)

WPRA: Top two highlights (excluding qualifying for NFR)

Conrado: Winning Ft. Worth to kick start my season and competing in my first Calgary Stampede.

WPRA: Most looking forward to doing/experiencing in Las Vegas

Conrado: Running down the alley 10 times on Tibbie.

WPRA: Describe your 2016 season.

Conrado: A Dream Come True!

WPRA: How do you think you will feel coming down the alley for the first time at the Thomas and Mack?

Conrado: Hopefully focused.

WPRA: Describe your horse's running and turning style and how they will do with the Thomas and Mack set-up Conrado: She runs mock 12 and then bellies down as soon as you think about turning. She loves fences and shifty ground. She's so quick footed and gritty. I would think she would love it but you never know until you are there.

confident yet insecure horse, but he is such a lover, gives me 110%, gritty and loves his job. I definitely have figured out what makes him happy and that is key with him. When he's not happy, you will know. Owned by Jason and Melissa Mouton

Morning Traffic (Martini), 5 year old palomino mare by Frenchmans Guy, 14.3 hands LTE $91,000. She is a little ball of fire, perfect words to describe her (lol) but she is a diva, and very prissy, she hates to get wet. She is the most gritty mare, and so FAST, very sure of herself in the arena. She is super sensitive, quick and catty feet, don't have to ask her twice. She has really become a sweet mare this past year and loves the rodeos, it's neat to see that her confidence has grown so much. Owned by Cody and Michelle Darling Traffic Guys Pay Day (Medusa), 6 year old buckskin mare by Traffic Guy, 14.2 hands LTE $41,000. Medusa is the grittiest horse ever, she tries so hard and wants to do good. I love this little mare's heart. She is a pill to warm up, she likes to take the reins out of your hands the whole time, so annoying (lol), but you just don't pick on her. She is very confident in herself and could care less about what you think, she thinks she can do it all on her own. Owned by David

& Jewel Davenport and Matt & Mandy Cupp

BRR: Favorite Motivational Quote.

Hillman: "Discipline is choosing between what you want now and what you want most."

"Your talent is Gods gift to you, what you do with it is your gift back to God." Leo Buscalgia

BRR: Music on your iphone/ipod?

Hillman: All kinds, Christian, country, rap, rock, 80s, etc I just love music and motivational clips

BRR: Song you listen to when you are getting ready to run?

Hillman: Mostly, Fearless Motivation on Sound Cloud.

BRR: Favorite bit?

Hillman: Whatever feels good on my horse! I have a Kathy James 2 piece twisted, Spur Up Dave Elliot, 3 piece short shank Perfect bit and I love Kerry Kelley bits!

BRR: What Celebrity would your horse be?

Hillman: Truck would be a cross between Mark Wahlberg and Will Ferrell.

Martini would be cross between Paris Hilton and Pink.

Contestant Quick Minute (courtesy WPRA)

WPRA: Top two highlights (excluding qualifying for NFR)

Hillman: Winning Reno, which was my biggest career win at the time and the Pendleton win, because it's one of the most challenging and most unique rodeos. What a dream to win them both this year on two different horses.

WPRA: Most looking forward to doing/experiencing in Las Vegas

Hillman: Getting to go down that famous alley as a competitor. I am going to enjoy every moment of it.

WPRA: Describe your 2016 season.

Hillman: Exhilarating, rewarding, humbled, blessed, emotional, exciting, thankful, faith, perseverance, challenging.

WPRA: How do you think you will feel coming down the alley for the first time at the Thomas and Mack?

Hillman: Incredibly exciting! There have been enough challenging and stressful moments this year, I feel like this is the most fun part of it. We made it. Now go enjoy this opportunity.

WPRA: Describe your horse's running and turning style and how they will do with the Thomas and Mack set-up

Hillman: Truck has proven in the past he can win in small pens, if his jockey is all there (ha, ha). No doubt he can be good. He's super turny, so it'll just be like driving a race car. Martini is so consistent and honest. She'll run out there and just do what I ask and proved this year she can win in small ones. I am very confident in both of my horses.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I don't know about you but sometimes I just have a bad day! There are days when nothing seems to go right. And there are days when I just don't like people. Any people. Not big ones or little ones. That's kind of scary when you're the Pastor's wife. After all, we are supposed to be perfect. (Ya right.) Always up. Always in prayer. Ready to drop everything and run to the aid of whoever. I want to be that way, but sometimes I'm not. I get tired, scared, sad and mad just like everyone else. So what do we do when those times come?

We don't have to stay there. We find our answers in the Word. Psl. 144:15. "Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord." Why? Because God has the answers. No matter what we are facing, God is there. He loves us. He leads us and guides us. It might be over, under, around or through, but He'll be in the lead and we'll get to the other side in great shape! Made myself happy just writing this!!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
