1D Champion Sabra O'Quinn Cashes In at NBHA World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Ocala, Florida's Sabra O'Quinn came away the big winner at the NBHA World Championships in Perry, Ga. The former Southeastern Circuit Champion and multiple aged event winner added an Open 1D World Championship to her resume, thanks to the efforts of Bring It On Guys ("Nosey"), owned by Tom Clark.

"My whole game plan going up there was to stay consistent and have four "Nosey" kind of runs," said Quinn, who pocketed $9,269 with the 6-year-old mare. "I've hit some expensive barrels, leaving them. She's so darn quick behind a barrel. I just wanted to have consistent runs and let it be what it was."

O'Quinn got tapped off right, winning the 21 Race, a sweepstakes for riders over the age of 21, for $2,117 with a 14.852.

"The first round of the Open I was the third rider from the beginning of the barrel race," she explained, "so they had just wet it and ripped it. She struggled a little bit with the ground."

She and Nosey ended up 12th in the first round for $370 with a 15.092, their slowest run of the week. They came back with a solid run of 14.828 to place second in the second round for $1,849.

"When I saw the draw for the short round, I was like '200? Is that the last runner?' They were like 'Yeah, you're last.' I told myself it is what it is and I'll make the best of it. I needed to stay consistent with what I'd done all week. I knew I needed to tighten up my first barrel a little bit, but other than that I just wanted to ride her consistent."

O'Quinn said that Nosey really listens to her and she had been holding her out a little too long going to the first.

"I just wanted her to move over a step and when she did," O'Quinn explained, "she just nailed the first barrel. It felt really good after that."

Their winning time was a 14.635, the fastest time of the event.

Nosey, who was bred by Bill and Deb Myers, is by Frenchmans Guy out of the Full A Irish Whiskey, by Paddys Irish Whiskey out of a double bred Doc O Dynamite mare. Clark purchased the mare as a 2-year-old and had been heeling on her, when O'Quinn stole her on a break from the roping pen.

"She was at a break in her heeling training and I told Tom just to let me dink around with her on the barrels," O'Quinn laughed. "It couldn't hurt her or anything. Now that's her career."

Nosey still gets heeled on occasionally.

American Pharoah romps to 1st Grand Slam

On Halloween, American Pharoah “tricked” the competition and pulled away to an easy 6 1/2 length victory in the Breeders Cup Classic at Keeneland. After winning the Triple Crown, of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness Stakes, and Belmont Stakes for 3 year olds, American Pharoah took on older horses for the first time in the Breeders Cup Classic to complete what is being coined as the “Grand Slam”. The Breeders Cup Classic race was started after the last Triple Crown winner was crowned so American Pharoah was the first Triple Crown winner to have a chance at the Grand Slam.

After bouncing out of the starting gate, American Pharoah strolled through the race, running the competition off their feet, and then when asked for his run on the home stretch he quickly put 6 1/2 lengths on the competition at the finish line in a track record time of 2:00. Effinex ran second and Honor Code came in third.

The win pushed his final race record to 9 wins, and a second from 11 starts and earning of $8,650,300. In a Bloodhorse article, they stated he had traveled an amazing 28,000 miles this year going back and forth to races along the way. After the race American Pharoah, owned by the Zayat family and trained by Bob Baffert, was retired to Coolmore’s Ashford Stud.

Edmonton saddles-up for a Wild Ride from November 7-15

On October 27, Northlands along with special guests 2015 CFR competitors, Miss Rodeo Canada Contestants and Chad Brownlee kicked-off the 42nd annual Canadian Finals Rodeo and Farm-fair International taking place on the Northlands grounds from November 11-15. The second annual Rodeo Week will encourage Edmontonians and visitors to take a walk on the western side from November 7-15.

“We understand the impressive value that the CFR holds for Edmonton and our visitors,” said Tim Reid, President & CEO, Northlands. “Every year, our city saddles-up and gets ready to celebrate our deep-rooted connection to our western identity and tradition,” said Reid. “We encourage Edmontonians to rally behind the rodeo and celebrate with activities throughout the city and a visit to Farmfair International and the CFR at Northlands.”

The second annual Rodeo Week will run in conjunction with the Canadian Finals Rodeo and Farmfair International from November 7-15 and will provide Edmontonians with the opportunity to engage in western-themed activities in bars, restaurants, hotels and other public spaces. For nine party-packed days, celebrate with events including the Rodeo Week Chili Cook-Off, United Way’s Wild Wagon Showdown, the Miss Rodeo Canada Pageant and more. “We are excited to celebrate the 42nd annual CFR in Edmonton,” said Maggie Davison, Vice President, Edmonton Tourism. “This is an important event for our community, for Edmontonians and visitors. We would encourage those visiting to participate in the many Rodeo Week activities set to take place throughout the city. Take a walk on the western side for this year’s CFR.”

As the largest annual indoor rodeo in Canada, the Canadian Finals Rodeo attracts the best rodeo athletes, stock and personnel in the country to Rexall Place for six adrenaline packed performances. This year, 108 competitors will descend on the city of Edmonton to vie for national titles in seven major events and more than 1.5 million dollars in prize money. Collecting points at rodeos across the country all year, the CFR competitors represent the 12 best athletes in each event. With humble beginnings, the first edition of the Canadian Finals Rodeo drew 24,000 dedicated rodeo fans to the Edmonton Gardens. Now, more than 90,000 guests come to Rexall Place to enjoy the CFR annually. --Courtesy of www.RodeoCanada.com.

"Tom will go practice on her some," O'Quinn said. "Honestly, she loves it. She's so intense about everything she does. It's good for her to do different things."

When O'Quinn's main rodeo horse Wonders Oro got hurt, she turned to Nosey who did most the money-winning to qualify for the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo.

"We didn't rodeo on her a whole lot," she noted. "We went to maybe 20 to 25 rodeos on her. She's done pretty good. I'm looking forward to this (upcoming) year."

O'Quinn said she plans on going to more rodeos in 2016.

"Wonders Oro is back swimming and getting in shape," she said. "I really plan on trying to rodeo more on those two next year. I don't have any colts for next year; I have them for the following year, so that all works out."

Another bright spot for O'Quinn at the NBHA World was 4-year-old Bugs Bunn Knee's second-place finish in the 2D.

"I was super proud of him," she said. "He almost ran the exact same time three times in a row, so that was pretty exciting."

She said the second place finish, worth $3,182 "freaked out" her co-owner Paul Stanley. She and Paul purchased the Famous Bugs gelding, out of THR Fwenchmns Wabbit, as a long yearling from his breeders Bo Hill and Jeff Switzer.

"Hindsight being 20/20, we probably should have run him as a 5-year-old," she said.

Bunn Knee placed in the 2D in the 21 Race and came back with a 1D time in the first go of the Open to earn his way into the Finals.

Although the gelding will probably be for sale, since Wonders Oro is the only gelding allowed to stay on her place, Bunn Knee has a special place in her heart.

"I love him," she said. "He's just a trip. Honestly, once he gets it all together, he's going to be a freaking blast!"

Mike Green Wins Second Straight NBHA Senior 1D World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Pelzer, South Carolina's Mike Green won his second straight NBHA Senior 1D World Championship in Perry, Ga. He was riding family favorite Tastefully, better known as Bam Bam.

"I feel like it's more the horse than the rider," said Green, who rode Sheza Dime to the 2014 title and Nutin But A Hounddog to the 2008 title. "This one is special because of him. Me and him, both, are getting kind of old. It's a senior horse and a senior rider!"

The 18-year-old gelding is the longest tenured horse in the barn at Mike and his wife Janelle's Southern Rose Ranch.

"I've had that horse longer than any horse I've ever had," laughed Green. "I've had him 15 years and I've never had one that long! I hate to have them around that long, especially a gelding."

One of the fun rides in the Greens' barn, Bam Bam gets to run when he feels like up to it. To save his legs, Green skipped the 21 Race to focus mainly on the Seniors.

"He made a good run, it wasn't the best, but it was good enough," Mike said of his Senior Finals winning run of 14.933, which was worth $1,116.

Green, who has technically surrendered Bam Bam's ownership to his 7-year-old granddaughter, purchased the gelding as a 3-year-old from Joe Glass. The son of Some Dasher out of The F Sixteen, by Sticks An Stones, was a stakes winner on the track, having won the Manor Downs Laddie Futurity [G3], and had ran out $29,889 on the track.

"When we first got him, we just played with him a little bit," said Green. "We didn't take him to any futurities or anything. He had so much speed and want to that he'd get a little hot and run by the barrels. We just played with him. I'd show him a little bit and then give him off a little bit. We just never sold him to anybody. He got to running really good. Janelle showed him a little bit and Madeleine showed him a little bit. He's won for everybody that's been on him."

Some of Bam Bam's many accomplishments include two North Carolina NBHA State titles with Green's daughter Madeleine, he's won the 21 Race, the first go of the Open and first go of the Seniors with Mike, and he's won rodeos with Janelle.

"We had given him a rest for about a year," noted Mike. "He's always given us a little problem with his feet, but he acted like he felt good and wanted to go, so we brought him back up again. If he wants to go, I'll take him. He's done probably as good this year as Green, a longtime director for the NBHA, said Bam Bam's next run will be an attempt to qualify for RFD-TV's The American, this weekend in Fletcher, N.C.

"It would be neat if he did," said Green. "I'd love to run him out there."

Karsyn Daniels Dominates CC5D Finals

By Hope Sickler

Karsyn Daniel's last couple weeks of chasing cans has pretty much gone like a dream, claiming championship titles at the WPRA Finals and this past weekend at the CC5D Finals. She and her two fabulous horses, Cookie Bar Nibbles and ZZ's Jetting Muffin, have pretty much left a trail of destruction in their wake at every barrel race they have been entering.

Daniel's winning streak started at the Win$More in Glen Rose a few weeks back where she and ZZ's Jetting Muffin "Muffin" ran the fastest time on Saturday by 2-tenths of a second. Then came the WPRA Finals; Once again, Daniel's and "Muffin" had a stellar showing and ended up winning the average in the junior division as well as ending the year as the Reserve Jr. WPRA World Champion and the Texas Circuit Champions in the Junior Division as well.

This past weekend in Stephenville at the CC5D Finals, Daniels piloted Cookie Bar Nibbles "Cookie" a 13-year-old mare by HF Mazjor Clabber Bar. "Cookie" used to be an "outrider" horse in the chuck wagon races as well as an accomplished head and heel horse before coming into the hands of Daniel's.

"Cookie" was feeling really good warming up and I knew if I could ride like I know how, it would be a great run. I told myself not to get in her way and just to let her work and she did just that," said Daniel's.

Daniel's posted smoking fast times all weekend, winning the open on Friday and Saturday as well shattering the previous arena record with her mind-blowing run of 14.834-seconds.

"I am still in shock. This record is so special to me because of the awesome ladies and athletes who have held the record before me in that arena.

Daniel's collected checks all weekend for not only her wins in the open races but as well as her average win with a total time of 29.867 seconds on two.

With such a fun and exciting last couple of weeks, Daniel's only hopes her luck and success continues over into the American Qualifier in Glen Rose this coming weekend.

"I am running both "Cookie" and "Muffin" in the qualifier. My plan is to not get nervous and instead, go out there and make two good runs. It has been my goal all year to make it back to the semi-

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A famous horse trainer encourages people to ask yourself, "What happened before what happened, happened?" When things fall apart in our arena with any horse, Mike and I needle each other with that question. I always like it when it's ME asking HIM and not the other way around.

Horses will tell you stuff. They will tell you they are scared, unsure or mad. Are we listening? Or did you go to the barn with a bad attitude, family issues or a number of other things and then try to teach your horse something whether they are ready or not? I've done it both ways. The day I walked behind one of our two year olds and she kicked me across the arena was one of those times that I wasn't really in the moment. I am a famous multi-tasker. I PRIDE myself on being able to get a lot done in a short amount of time.....sigh. I need to PAY ATTENTION!!! And the Bible tells us that pride goes before a fall. There's an answer!

So, are you a famous multi-tasker? When God is talking to you in your heart to do something or not do something, do you weigh out whether you have time to do it or do you check in with YOUR-SELF to see if "in your experience" that would be the right thing to do or not? Friends, if WE (mostly I'm talking to myself here) would just be quiet and listen to what God is telling us and how He is directing us, we could eliminate so much fence fixing in our lives. I want to let myself be led by the Holy Spirit and stay out of the cycle of going around the same mountain again and again and expecting different results.

Let's wait on the Lord and His direction. If we do we won't have to fix anything. It'll be done RIGHT the first time!
