Tiany Schuster & Show Mance Seize NBHA Open 1D World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Tiany Schuster and Show Mance's red hot summer that carried them to a second berth to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo has continued through the fall with an Open 1D Championship at the NBHA World Finals, held October 24-31 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds & Agriculture Center in Perry.

"It's one of my favorite shows and I don't go there just to barrel race. It's my favorite show because I go to visit friends that I rarely get to see. We get the same RV spots every year and visit with a handful of friends whom I truly enjoy their company. We eat, drink win and make fun of each other. It's just a fun thing," said Schuster, who wanted to thank her longtime sponsor and NBHA Corporate Partner, Professional's Choice and applaud the herculean efforts of the NBHA, the state of Georgia and the Georgia National Fairgrounds & Agriculture Center and its staff to have the event. "Without their efforts, none of this would have been possible." Schuster and Show Mance's victorious 14.676 in the Open Finals came after running half the pattern with the reins on one side of the 10-year-old First Smart Money gelding's neck. It was the second time during the NBHA World that it happened.

"Never ever have I ever had reins flip over on this horse!" Schuster exclaimed. "In the Sweepstakes, I come in thinking I gotta chance to win this sucker. Then he runs in, sets really hard and the reins flip over his head at the first barrel. I go to my second barrel and all my reins on my left side. I try to be cool and he halfway commits to it, and then the next thing I know, we're running back to the first barrel and then out the gate!"

Having had it happen with another horse that liked to over tuck his head in the turns, Schuster knew to use a shoestrapping to prevent that side of the reins from flipping over the horse's head.

Their first run in the Open, a 14.717 for third in the round, got them back to the Finals, so Schuster opted out of the second round. However, while she had taken precautions to prevent the rein from flipping over Show Mance's head around the first barrel, she never dreamed it would happen at the second barrel too.

"I think he stepped on a shoe and that little hitch caused enough hesitation for that rein to flip," she said. "You can see the rein flipping over his head as we're turning the second barrel. I'm thinking, 'Well, isn't this lovely! This is where it's all about to go wrong.' "Lucky, my hand was in the right spot because we were already into the turn at the second. I normally run my horses one-handed to the third barrel so I'm not moving my hand as it is. I was in the proper position and setup as I should have been. Now, I'm just hoping that I don't pull too much or do the wrong thing with that outside line that's flopping around in the wrong spot.

"I run him down there to the third, praying to Jesus as I go. We get a little bit by it, just trying not to screw things up, but I did have to say, 'come here' a little and that outside rein did catch a little bit, but it caught in all the right spots."

Schuster says she was grateful the rein fiasco happened at the NBHA World rather than the WNFR in Arlington this coming December. She's sitting fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $55,060.

The NBHA World, a show that she says is one only show that she goes to simply to enjoy and visit with friends, also helped her get her horses ready for Arlington. She was particularly pleased with MarysMoonshineBandit, a 5-year-old Justaheartofawarrior, Merri-doc gelding she acquired this summer.

Trained by Tracy Toops and ridden by her daughter Kynder Starr and Hilary Swanson, Bandit caught Schuster's eye last year. "I saw him run a few times and tried to buy him last year," she explained. "I kept watching him and kept liking him."

After Bandit and Starr finished third in the Old Fort Days Derby in Fort Smith, Arkansas, Schuster inquired about the gelding again. "I texted her mom and asked if she was ready to sell him and she said no," she said. "A few days later she texted me back and said she would sell him."

Schuster had the gelding several months before she ever ran him anywhere.

"I wanted to make sure it was a perfect fit because when we do go I want to win," she said. "The first time I went somewhere it was good and I got a check. We went to Denton to the pro rodeo. He took the lead and then in the last perf he got bumped to third. They won it 17.14, there was a 17.15 and he was a 17.16. We were all pretty tickled."

At the NBHA World, Bandit placed in the Sweepstakes with a 14.995 and the first round of the Open with a 14.838 before running a 14.883 in the Finals to place eighth, earning $2,973 total.

"He slipped really bad in the short go at the NBHA World Show," she explained. "If you would have been betting me beforehand I really felt confident that horse had a good shot to win it. He had the better draw and was running strong.

"That horse is like a little baby Show Mance. He runs very similar to him. He's easy for me to ride. He's just still a baby. I think when he's 7 or 8, you're going to see his name a lot. It's just all in time. We've all got to start somewhere and I think we're off to a good start."

Version Six, who place in the Sweepstakes, will also likely go with Show Mance, MarysMoonshineBandit and A Dash Ta Glamour, Edwin Cameron's NBHA Super Senior Winner, to the WNFR.

All totaled, Schuster won $11,204 at the NBHA World.

"I'm so excited for the opportunities that the NBHA has brought to us," she said. "We won good money, a trailer to keep, lots of awards, and they provide a SAFE, CLEAN AMAZING facility with fantastic ground.

"All this helps build confidence for both myself and my horses coming up for the dream of barrel racing...the NFR!"

Edwin Cameron Repeats as NBHA Senior 1D World Champion with Famous Mic Guy Ver

By Tanya Randall

Canadian Edwin Cameron captured his second straight Senior 1D Championship at the NBHA World, held October 24-31 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds & Agriculture Center in Perry. The Tatamagouche, Nova Scotia, barrel racer was aboard the 5-year-old Frenchmans Guy, Dash Ta Fame gelding Famous Mic Guy Ver, who also carried him to third in the Open 1D Finals.

"I work hard at it, but a lot of people work hard at it too," admitted Cameron. "Sometimes the stars just seem to line up for you."

Cameron started off the week winning the Super Senior—his third title in that category—with his favorite horse the JL Dash Ta Heaven, 8-year-old gelding A Dash Ta Glamour, who carried him to his first NBHA Senior World Championship in 2019. However, it was Mic Guy Ver, a horse he'd only run once before that would be his big winner in Perry.

"I only run him once before we got to Georgia and that didn't turn out too well," he said. "I had one practice run on him and I knocked. It was just awful."

Things weren't looking much brighter when the week started. "His first run in the Super Senior he didn't get much done either," Cameron recalled. "He was lollygagging around and gawking, but he turned it on when it counted."

Mic Guy Ver jumped up and won second in the first round of the Open with a 14.716. He came back with a 14.961 to win the second round of Seniors. He topped the Senior Finals with a 14.752 before taking third in the Open Finals with a 14.742. All totaled, Mic Guy Ver won Cameron $6,950.

Cameron actually qualified all four of the horses he took to Georgia to the Senior Finals—A Dash Ta Glamour, the 6-year-old Tres Seis stallion MS Trucoseix, the 6-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding Heavens Got Credit and Mic Guy Ver. All four won checks throughout the week for total earnings of $8,314.

Although travel restrictions, namely the 14-day quarantine period when returning to Canada, limited his trips Stateside to run his horses, Cameron was happy with the horses he picked to take to Perry.

“We have 27 geldings and 1 stud,” he said of the Krum, Texas-based herd he has with Tiany Schuster. “We had them all tied to the fence, trying to decide which eight we were taking to Georgia. In most cases, it looks like we picked the right ones, but it looks like we could have made a couple of substitutions and it would have come out better.”

Cameron fully committed to barrel racing 22 years ago. A horse lover from his early childhood on his family’s small Nova Scotia farm, Cameron rode anything he could, even if it meant flying around the countryside on the neighbors harness horses. He became enthralled with barrel racing at the local county fairs.

“I remember going to all the county fairs and they’d have barrel racing,” he explained. “It was usually the last event and everyone else wanted to go home and I would have tantrums, just crying and having a fit, if we weren’t allowed to stay and watch the barrel race.”

As he explains it, Cameron had the time but not the money to partake in his horse habit in his youth. Yet after university and starting an internationally successful business, Fitness Depot, he had the money, but not the time. At age 41, he finally had both the time and money to devote to his passion.

“At 41, I sat on my first registered Quarter horse and went around a barrel,” he chuckled. “By that time, I had the time and money and I decided that I was going to be the best that I can. I was competing in powerlifting at the time and was well over 200 pounds. I got my body weight down to 150 so I could be somewhat competitive with these little girls. I’ve been doing it as much as possible the last 22 years.”

Cameron typically spends much of the year traveling around the world for business and dropping down into the States to enjoy his

That schedule changed this year thanks to COVID, but the NBHA World was worth dealing with the 14-day return quarantine in Canada.

Epic Leader Moves Into Pink Buckle

Lance Robinson and Kristi Schiller have announced that they have entered into a partnership on their respective stallions, Guys Eye Paint and Epic Leader, that will result in Guys Eye Paint moving from the Pink Buckle to the Ruby Buckle beginning in 2021 and Epic Leader will transfer to the Pink Buckle for 2021. Robinson stated "Kristi and I have been talking back and forth for quite some time and we recently came to an arrangement that benefits both partners".

Schiller echoed Robinson's comments "the excitement is mutual and the partnership comes at the right time in Epic's breeding career because all will benefit from his inclusion in the Pink Buckle portion of this wonderful program that Chad Beus and Lance conceived and brought to reality. The Pink and Ruby Buckle programs are "game changers" and have resulted in a new vitality for the barrel racing industry and those that are participating in them are befitting financially in a way most could only dream".

In 2020 Epic Leader moved to Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie, OK and Butch Wise there noted: "it is very fitting to have Epic Leader in the Pink Buckle program as he is now standing next to the home of the Pink Buckle finals-Lazy E Arena. Wise added: "Epic Leader is blowing by all the previous set standards for a young horse this early in his siring career. With very limited performers to date, he is already over $1,000,000 in earnings and adding to it every weekend. When his next 3 large crops hit the pen – look out".

Guys Eye Paint will continue to stand at Robinson Ranch in Spanish Fork, Utah in 2021.

WPRA Announces 2020 Committee and Contract Awards

The WPRA is pleased to announce their contract award winners that work tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen and keeps the Association alive and well, especially during this very trying 2020 rodeo season. Each winner will be officially recognized at the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame in Fort Worth, Texas during the Wrangler NFR festivities.

Honored this year with the WPRA Announcer of the Year award is ProRodeo Hall of Fame announcer Bob Tallman. During a career that has spanned more than five decades, Tallman has announced rodeos large and small across the United States, Canada, Mexico, Australia and New Zealand. Tallman, of Poolville, Texas, will work his record 26th Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in 2020 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas. Tallman last won the WPRA Announcer of the Year in 1998. He has also been named the PRCA Announcer of the Year a total of 10 times and was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2004. He will be honored this year by the ProRodeo Hall of Fame with the Legend of ProRodeo Award.

Fans never see them but they are key to a successful rodeo. They are known as rodeo secretaries and are tasked with organizing and disseminating information to contestants, judges, stock contractors, announcers, committees and media. This year's WPRA Mildred Farris Secretary of the Year is Sandy Gwatney. This will be the second time Gwatney of Marquez, Texas, has received this honor, the first being in 2016. She has also been named the PRCA Secretary of the Year twice (2016 & 2018) and is nominated for this prestigious award again in 2020.

One of professional rodeo's longest partners, Wrangler, will be honored with the WPRA Corporate Partner of the Year award for the second consecutive year. Wrangler remained a strong partner in 2020 especially in the breakaway roping being an integral part in helping fund the $200,000 purse for the inaugural Wrangler National Breakaway Roping event, which will take place Dec. 8-10 at Globe Life Field.

"As a longtime supporter of the WPRA and PRCA, we are thrilled the talent and excitement of breakaway roping has landed for the first time at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo," said Jeff Chadwick, Director-Western Special Events for Wrangler, when the announcement was made regarding the NFBR. "While the WPRA has crowned World Champions in breakaway roping for many years, this will be the first time it will crown a World Champion on ProRodeo's grandest stage. A big thank you to the PRCA and the WPRA in coming together to make this happen. Long Live Cowgirls!"

In 2019, the WPRA Board of Directors launched a new award category titled Breakaway Trailblazer and the War Bonnet Roundup in Idaho Falls, Idaho, was the inaugural recipient. This past February, the Fort Worth (TX) Stock Show and Rodeo stepped up in a big way for the WPRA by not only including women's breakaway roping in their legendary rodeo but they offered equal money and was a key event for many of the Top 15 breakaway ropers. As a result, they were named the 2020 Breakaway Trailblazer award winner.

Rodeo committees have long been the backbone of the rodeo industry and that was never more apparent during the 2020 rodeo season as we all dealt with the challenges of COVID-19. Without the hardworking rodeo committees, the industry would have a hard time existing.

The WPRA would like to congratulate each of the award recipients as well as those that were nominated for these prestigious awards.

Wrangler® NFBR tickets on sale Nov. 2

Fans who want to see the inaugural championship for breakaway roping can buy tickets to the Wrangler® National Finals Breakaway Roping (NFBR) starting next week. Pre-sale tickets will go on sale at www.texasrangers.com/nfr on Monday, November 2, 2020, with a special code. The public on-sale date is Friday, November 6, 2020.

The NFBR performances will be held at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, at 10 a.m. (CT), December 8-10 – the same arena used for the Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo. Cowgirls will compete for a record-setting $200,000 purse at this three-day event. The prize package will also include the world champion gold buckle custom crafted by Montana Silversmiths, the world championship saddle created by Cactus Saddlery, a POLARIS Ranger utility vehicle, and other great prizes. For these contestants, the $200,000 payout is the largest purse ever offered for a breakaway roping competition sanctioned by the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA).

"This event is a big deal," said George Taylor, chief executive officer of the PRCA. "These breakaway ropers competing at NFBR are going to be in the spotlight and making history in this sport, and they'll be well rewarded with a prize package like this. This is rodeo and roping you do not want to miss."

Breakaway roping is one of the hottest events sanctioned by the WPRA. The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and the WPRA have worked together for the last year to promote breakaway roping and grow the sport. In sharing the venue with the NFR, breakaway has earned an important place in the greatest event on ProRodeo's calendar.

Tickets for the NFBR will range from $35 to $45 per seat and will sell in groups of four tickets for single performances.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever asked, or heard someone else ask, "What is the will of God for me?" Well, let's let God help us with that.

1 Thess. 5:14-18. "Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all. See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all. Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks, FOR THIS IS THE WILL OF GOD in Christ Jesus for YOU!"

Now. What can't we understand about that? Our very good God is a pretty 'with it' God! I can see very clearly that these instructions can benefit us greatly in these days we live in. I can also say that a lot of the time, a good slap up beside someone's head would make me feel better, as opposed to exhorting and warning and comforting and for being patient!!!!

BUT! Those are my natural tendencies and God isn't interested in what I can do in the natural. He's interested in what He can do THROUGH me in the Spirit! I have even asked Him if I can smack someone! The answer was no. If it's ever yes, I'll let you know!

In the meantime, let's just practice His Word, one day, one step at a time until we see Him and He says, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
