Duncan Tops American Qualifier on 4-year-old

By Julie Mankin

The BBR Oklahoma/Texas Regional Finals over Halloween weekend was one of the most anticipated barrel races of 2014 for fans and competitors. For 25-year-old Courtney Duncan, it began as a comedy of errors.

"On Friday, I was going to exhibition Baybay," Duncan said, talking about Streakin Easily – her father's filly that Jolene Montgomery has been campaigning at futurities all season. "I bent down to put her splint boots on and my pants split up the back. It happens! Anyway, it was very breezy, but I thought, 'I'll just get on and exhibition and then go get another pair.'"

During the exhibition, Baybay was working well but the third barrel was slick from so many exhibitions having taken place.

"She planted hard and slipped and fell completely down," Duncan said. "I bailed and she got up and went streaking out of the arena."

So I'm running, trying to catch the mare with my pants split up the back. That's pretty much where I was mentally – we fell down in the exhibition and I have split pants!"

What's more is that not only had Duncan never run Baybay in competition; she'd only been on her back one other time for a slow exhibition. Montgomery trained the filly for Duncan's father, Dale Rankin of Abilene, Texas, who owns both the sire, Dashin Is Easy (standing in Brazil), and dam, Streakinlikaglass by Streakin La Jolla.

"Her mama has been the best producer we have," said Duncan. "I remember the day we picked her up – my dad and sister and I went to the Heritage Place Sale to look at racing rejects and Dad liked Streakinlikaglass. Every single baby she's produced has wanted to turn a barrel and be really good."

Baybay, who placed second at the 2013 BFA World Championship Juvenile Futurity and holds the arena record at the Roper Futurity in McCook, Neb., is the toughest barrel horse the Rankins have on the road at the moment. So it was natural that Montgomery suggested Duncan try to get qualified for the American on her.

"I just kind of laughed," said Duncan. "I knew that Glen Rose would be the absolute toughest qualifier. This was where every incredible, amazing barrel racer with a huge resume came to try to qualify, so I went in there with very little expectations. I just wanted to make the best run I could."

Duncan said she was not about to get greedy after watching the action all day Friday and Saturday. She would run late in the draw Saturday night, past 11 p.m.

"I was hoping to run a clean, smooth 15.3 and just not screw up this futurity colt," said Duncan, who has jump-ridden lots of horses over the past few years before moving back to Texas from Brazil in 2013. "A lot of people would say, 'Hey, go run this horse for me.' Some people give you plenty of details about what the horse is going to do and what you can do. And certain people don't tell you anything, so you have to really feel and try to anticipate."

Montgomery told Duncan just the right amount.

"She said, 'If you sit really quiet, the mare runs harder,'" Duncan relayed. "If you ride too hard, it won't work for her. And don't touch her going to the barrels; just bump her face coming out. So I tried to execute that – help her where she needed help and get out of her way where she needed that."

Montgomery obtained an American semi-finals berth at the qualifier in Lincoln, Nev., in October on KN Famous Czar. In Glen Rose, Duncan not only made the top 10, but won the barrel race by two-tenths of a second with a 14.5. The race was so competitive that only two-tenths separated second through 10th places. Mary Burger had been winning the race all evening with a 14.7, and would wind up second on 5-year-old Sadiefamouslastwords.

"I knew mine was a really smooth run, but when I saw the clock, I thought the timers had broke," Duncan said. "This was the toughest barrel race I've ever entered – there were just so many NFR girls and so many top futurity trainers and so many high school and college rodeo girls; I mean, it was tough."

She forgot to mention the little girls who handed it to the big

Another American Semi-Finals Qualifier Added

The Better Barrel Races has added one more qualifier to the Semi-Finals for The American. There will be an 11th Barrel Race Qualifier added to the qualifier roster. It will be held in conjunction with The Classic Jurassic that Win More Productions will be hosting January 31-February 2, 2015 at Glen Rose, TX. Details will be available on the Better Barrel Races website (go to www.betterbarrelraces.com and click on The American logo) later this week. The 9th qualifier is coming up November 29, during the Fiddler's Turkey Run in Jacksonville, FL and the 10th qualifier is Saturday, January 24, during the PacWest Futurity & Open Barrel Race in Buckeye, AZ.

Louie coming back at CFR for Lisa Lockhart

If all goes as planned, Lisa Lockhart will be back on her great horse Louie (An Oakie With Cash) this week at the CFR. Look at our CFR preview farther back in the BRR to see what horses everyone is riding at the CFR this week.

dogs in Glen Rose. Two 9-year-olds and a 10-year-old placed in the money in Glen Rose, including Karsyn Daniels and Chayni Chamberlain of Texas and Sarah Parks of Arkansas (on a horse that was started on the barrels less than two years ago). Duncan also credited the good luck of her draw position.

"I think the ground got a lot faster as the race wore on, so I feel very lucky that I was late in the draw. Well actually, when I saw my draw, I thought, 'It doesn't matter; I have no shot anyway because I'm on a 4-year-old that I've never ridden before.'"

Duncan earned $4,824 for winning the American qualifier on the run, which also won Saturday's Open and the BBR Member Sidepot. She took $7,811 home to Cypress, Texas, where she's been busy training 3-year-olds for next year's futurities.

"I'm by no means the best at it, but I really enjoy riding colts," she said.

Baybay will finish out the futurity season with Montgomery at the BFA World Championships in December, after which Duncan will once again team up with Baybay.

"I'm really excited to get to compete with this mare more next year," she said. "It's so nice to have a horse you absolutely click with and understand and that was trained so incredibly well. It speaks volumes about Jolene's training, in my book, for a 4-year-old to be so honest that somebody can jump on and do that. That's awesome training."

While Duncan wouldn't mind hitting the NFR trail at some point in the future and thinks Baybay has what it takes to "go the full distance" at the American Semi-Finals, she's realistic about her own competitive streak, which sometimes affects her performance.

"If this is as far as Baybay and I go, that's fine with me," she said. "I'm really proud of her and excited that I didn't mess up when I ran her. I get nervous every single time I ride up the alley, even in exhibitions. I'm intensely competitive, and I think you have to be to run barrels. But I don't necessarily have icewater running through my veins. I need to work on chilling out a little!"

Just three qualifiers remain – the Fiddler's Turkey Run in Jacksonville, Fla., on Nov. 29 and the PacWest Futurity and Open in Buckeye, Ariz., on Jan. 24. Along with these the BBR has added an 11th qualifier in conjunction with The Classic Jurassic that Win More Productions will be hosting January 31-February 2, 2015 in Glen Rose, TX.

JILL LANE BARREL HORSES WILL TAKE YOU TO THE PAY WINDOW

JL Roc A Bull (JL Sirocco x Lil Bits Of Bullion)
Has 30+ days under saddle. Big, strong colt with good feet and bone. Well bred with Dash Ta Fame on the top and Bully Bullion on the bottom. Currently VGBRA and 5 State eligible. He will be two in 2015.

JL Goodnight (Firewater On The Rocks x CS Dee Light)
By the popular FWOTR out of a full sister to CS Flashlight. This pretty, gray filly has 30 days under saddle. Very nice mover. WPRA PESI enrolled. She will be two in 2015.

Destri Davenport & Peppys Little Dash Sprint to NBHA 1D World Title

By Tanya Randall

Destri Davenport, Stephenville, Texas, made her first trip to the NBHA World Finals a memorable one, taking home the Open 1D World Championship aboard Peppys Little Dash ("Buddy"), owned by Loeghan Young, Little Rock, Calif.

"I want to thank the NBHA for putting on a great show," said Davenport, 23. "I want to thank my family for all their love and support, and I want to wish everyone the best-of-luck down the road."

Texas-born Davenport grew up in the southern California horse haven of Temecula before barrel racing returned her to the Lone Star State. The burgeoning trainer and broker had Buddy in her barn as a consignment horse for Young.

"She high schooled rodeoed on him and did really well on him," Davenport said of Young's history with Buddy. "She did good on him at the pro rodeos too."

Buddy, a 14-year-old gray gelding, was bred and raised by Sue Rogers, DVM, a tough West Coast barrel racer who has been sidelined in recent years by Parkinson's disease. (Thankfully, a medication change has allowed Rogers to return the saddle a few weeks ago.) Buddy is by the Peppy San Badger son Peppys Little Ripper out of Dab O Dash, by Romeo With Cash. Dab O Dash is a three-quarter sister to Rogers' tough mount Bed A Romeo.

Davenport said she had a rough start to the NBHA World as she was plagued with hit barrels on her two horses Buddy and Naturally Nikki. The only bright spot was placing fifth in the 1D in the 21 Race (only open to riders over the age of 21) on Allie Chouest's Buddy Rose. She hit barrels on both her horses in the first round of the Open as well.

"I was struggling with my head on the second barrel," she said.

Davenport took full blame for Buddy's tipped cans.

"It wasn't his fault; he was just trying to work," she explained.

"He's one of those horses that runs straight to his point and snaps hard and gives all he's got in the turn. It was my fault. I just picked my hand up a little and moved him over--he was just doing his job. The second round I safety'd up and ran him by all his barrels, and he ran a 14.9."

Their 14.969 was good enough to place fifth in the 1D and earn a spot in the Saturday night short go.

On Saturday morning, Talmadge Green, the defending NBHA

1D World Champion, led his crew in prayer.

"We all said a prayer that if it was in God's will that one of Team Talmadge would take home the title, then we would; if not, we were already blessed," said Davenport, who wanted to thank her sponsors Jeff Swenson and Louis Nunez with Formula 1 Noni and Lenzie Walker with Lam-A-Away poultice. "We had already had a great week. Max (Chouest) had run the fastest time of the week and Allie (Chouest) had done really well. Either way, we were really blessed, and we just left it in His hands. We had nine horses back to the finals and seven in the 1D."

Davenport said her own prayer of thanks before her Final's run.

"It was all or nothing," she recalled. "I couldn't safety-up. I was going to ride my horse like I needed to ride him and give him the opportunity to work to the best of his ability, and let the clock stop itself"

Their victorious time of 14.632 was worth $4,826.

Next on tap for Buddy is the Elite Extravaganza in Waco, Texas, followed by the Jacksonville, Fla., Qualifier to RFD-TV's The American.

Mike Green & Sheza Dime Win NBHA Senior 1D World Title

A Perfect 10 -- By Tanya Randall

Longtime NBHA Regional Director Mike Green picked up a second NBHA Senior 1D World Championship with his daughter Madeleine's horse Sheza Dime. The duo also won the Super Senior for total event earnings of $3,272.

"She was on this weekend," said Green, Pelzer, S.C. In the Senior Finals, they had their fastest time of the event, a 14.887. "She came up the alley and kind of got a little strong on me. I set her down and made her wait on me. I don't like them to get in the alley and take off, so I set her down. After that she was perfect. She went all the way up into her holes. All I had to do was stay out of her way."

Dime, a 5-year-old futurity mare, was raised at the Greens' Southern Rose Ranch. She is by the late leading sire Famous JR, whom the Greens owned in partnership with John Read Foster, and out of their all-time leading futurity horse, the great Sissys Little Coin, by Packin Sixes out of Queens Coin, by Pocket Coin (TB).

Green had purchased Sissy sight-unseen and Madeleine, who wasn't yet a teenager at the time, automatically picked her out as her own—because she was a blond (Palomino) too.

"I wanted to sell (Sissy) when we were offered a bunch, and Madeleine said no," laughed Green, who noted his daughter claimed Dime pretty quick too. "I'm not really a person who wants to raise babies. I'm always in a hurry and I think it takes too long. Madeleine made me keep her, and I thought 'Oh man, is this a mistake!' It's worked out."

Unfortunately, Dime is the only Famous JR that they got out of Sissy before the stallion died, and "now I'm regretting it," noted Green. Yet as great as Sissy was in the arena, she's proving to be as equally great in the broodmare band. She's produced Janelle Green's barnburner This Dames A Fame (who also carried Madeleine to the International Finals Rodeo Finals Barrel Racing Championship) as well as slot race champion Sissys First Title.

"They've all done great," said Green. "We've got a Blazin Jetolena that we've held over for next year. It seems like all her babies do better if you hold them over. They grow up a little bit more, and it's such a rush to get them ready for Oklahoma City—the slot race for 3-year-olds."

Green said like all of Sissy's babies Dime was a natural from the beginning.

"We held her over too," said Mike, who noted that Madeleine has been running Dime at rodeos too this year and doing well. "She was super easy to break. Once you start them on the pattern, about all you have to do is work on their basics and get them really broke."

While Green did a lot of the mare's training, he wasn't above letting others put some time in on her as well.

"Brett (Monroe) rode her a few months for me," noted Green. "These colts get used to me and my hands, and I like to let other people ride them and let them get used to different people. I let Trey McFarland, who was working for me, ride her. I'm not really picky, but I know who I want to let ride them. When you get to know your colts, you might know when to be still and stuff like that, then someone else gets on them and doesn't know that and it scares them, so I like to get them used to other people riding them."

At 62, Green can still ride and train with the best. "Horses have been good to me," said Green. "We've been blessed that way. Sissy has really been a blessing. Her babies are going to spoil me."

In fact the only time Green really showed his age is when it came to naming Dime. He wasn't a fan of "Sheza Dime."

"I tell Madeleine 'I don't like this name,'" he laughed. "She says, 'Daddy, you're getting old. That means 'She's a 10!' I don't understand this young people language anymore!"

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Are you happy? Ask that question to different people and you might be surprised at all the different answers you get. Answers like: "I will be when I can afford a better horse." "I will be when we're done remodeling." "I will be when I get a better job, or my kids are grown...when we get to take a real vacation...etc."

Most of the answers you'll get deal with the transitory pleasures in this world. But, look at the Hollywood stars and big celebrities who seem to have it all...money and fame. Yet, so many of them are so miserable that they turn to drugs and alcohol to find a little peace and joy. They don't know that a person cannot have true happiness and peace without the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.

Lasting contentment only comes when you've made Jesus the Lord of your life and ask Him to take control of your life. Then He will come and live in you to guide and protect you so you can have the "abundant" life He died to give you. It tells us in 1 John 4:4 that

He who is in us is greater than he who is in the world. Romans 8:28 says all things work together for good for them that love the Lord and are called according to His purpose.

Psalm 37:4 says if we make the Lord our joy, He'll give us the desires of our heart. God wants us to be happy, healthy and prosperous. See Jeremiah 29:11 and 1 Peter 5:7 which says to cast all our care on Him for He cares for us.

Ask God to help you to be content with who you are and where you are. He'll never let you down and before you know it, you'll find enjoyment in the little things that you hardly noticed before. With God, all things are possible!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
