Sabra O'Quinn & Slicks Lil Amigo Crowned NBHA 1D World Champions

By Tanya Randall

After smoking the first and second barrel of the Open Finals at the NBHA Circle Y Open & Senior World Show, held October 25-November 2 in Perry, Georgia, Sabra O'Quinn just knew she messed up a great run when she adjusted her hands on the reins going to the third barrel on her great horse Slicks Lil Amigo.

"When I turned the second barrel, my rein felt weird in my hand," said O'Quinn, who severely injured her left hand in a roping accident in 2021. "I felt like I needed to grab my right rein and get my left hand in a better position. As I did it, I thought, 'Dang it!' because he felt it."

The miscue caused Amigo to take a big bow off the third barrel. "When he blew off I thought, 'Well shoot! I messed that up!'" said O'Quinn. "I turned to look at the clock because I didn't hear my time. I couldn't see because I didn't have my glasses. Mike and Talmadge are at the gate and they're just smiling. I said, I don't know my time. They're like, 'You ran a 14.5.' I'm like, 'Oh that's awesome!'"

Their 14.586 gave O'Quinn her second NBHA 1D World Championship and total earnings of $10,509. Her first was in 2016 with Bring It On Guys, the dam of her second finalist this year Bring It Lincoln, by The Red Dasher.

"I felt emotional because I had just got home and I had only taken him to three things," said O'Quinn, who returned to her native Florida this summer. She now shares a fenceline with her brother in Fort White, Florida. "I didn't have expectations. I know my horse can win first but that's not my mindset. I just want to do my job and not fail him. When it was all said and done and he won it, it was like full circle. It's good to be home. It was just good."

A multiple aged event winner and WPRCA circuit champion, O'Quinn has had a busy non-competitive year. Along with producing three barrel races at the World Equestrian Center—including the upcoming Fiddlers Turkey Run—O'Quinn was building her new place and training two futurity horses for 2026.

She purchased a few Wild Card entries—a few of which she later raffled or resold—to the NBHA World on the off chance that she might be able to go.

"It's three hours from the house," she said. "When I first entered, I didn't enter the Sweepstakes because I couldn't be gone that long. When NBHA put out an announcement that there wasn't a late fee to enter the Sweepstakes I thought, 'Well, Amigo has never ran there and Lincoln is green as a gourd. I'll enter the Sweepstakes and run my first round and go from there.'"

Amigo, 11, clocked a 14.592 to take second in the Sweepstakes to earn $2,269.

"Amigo did great in the Sweepstakes, and Lincoln loped," she deadpanned.

O'Quinn said she barely got around the first barrel on Amigo in the Sweepstakes, so she made sure he took an extra step in the first round. Amigo qualified for the Finals after placing ninth with a 14.866 and Lincoln qualified in the 2D with a 15.133.

Both horses made the Finals, so she opted to turn out of the second round and go home. She drove back up Friday night for Saturday's Finals.

"Kudos to the NBHA, they've really stepped up their game," she said of the event. "They did a great job. It was a good show. The ground was great! I hadn't been there in a while, and they've got nothing but positive going their way."

She was equally happy for the Senior 1D World Champion Brett Monroe, who won aboard Felice Seis, owned and trained by Leslie Willis, who was injured earlier this year.

"I was so happy for Brett and Leslie," she said. "That was so good!"

Slick By Design's Richest Offspring

Slicks Lil Amigo was bred and raised by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin. The 11-year-old gelding is from the second crop of their late stallion Slick By Design and out of their homebred Bully Bullion mare Bough Chicka Wowwow who goes back to Rods Last Ladybug in her maternal line.

Sabra O'Quinn started riding Amigo, who belonged to the late Melody Mixon and her daughter Deanna Mixon-Pietsch, as a 3-year-old.

"As a futurity horse he did quite well," she said. "He fell at the third barrel in Salina, Utah, and shattered my ankle in August. I couldn't run him the rest of the year."

O'Quinn bought him as a 5-year-old.

"They allowed me to buy him," she said. "(Melody) knew we had a connection and knew that horse loved me. Not only can he win, but he is also a connection to friends and family."

Amigo had lifetime earnings of $431,116, according to QData, prior to the NBHA World Championships. He is Slick By Design's richest offspring.

Katelyn Scott Sweeps Turquoise Circuit Titles, Wins Finals with Justa DTF Frenchman

By Tanya Randall

First-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Katelyn Scott won her second consecutive Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship, October 31-November 1 in Cave Creek, Arizona.

Scott dominated the rodeo, sweeping all the rounds and securing the year-end championship as well. The sweep was worth $9,886, which will count toward the 2026 World Standings but won't show until all circuit finals are completed.

She rode her Justa DTF Frenchman, owned by her sister Lorissa Merritt. He came from Jessica Anderson with the barn name "Peanut" but became "Peanut Seed" in reference Matthew 17:20 "... if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you."

Scott and Peanut won the three-run aggregate by almost seven-tenths of a second.

"He was so good," said Scott of the 10-year-old gelding, raised by Anderson's parents and by Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of Madeline Spade 410 by Justa Hickory Spade.

Since Scott went into the rodeo as season standings leader, she and Peanut had top of the ground for their first run. They made the most of it with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 15.35, to win the round.

"He made an awesome run," she said. "It felt really good. When they called my time out – I hadn't been to Cave Creek since they changed the arena; it was a walk-in setup the last time I ran, completely different—so I wasn't sure what a good time was. My husband let me know that it turned out even better than I expected."

The matinee performance on Saturday afternoon was reverse order, so Scott and Peanut had bottom of the ground. They still topped the round in 15.52.

"I'm not one that overly looks at the ground," she said. "But when I looked up in the back of the alley way, I thought, 'Oh it looks deep out there.' Peanut Seed handled it awesomely. It didn't phase him one bit. I'm thankful to have a horse that will trudge through any kind of ground."

Scott was 10th out, fourth after a drag, in the final round, Saturday night. She and Peanut had another victorious 15.52.

"He was feeling so good. He handled it so great. He slipped a little bit on the back side of the first, but it didn't bother him. He was awesome."

She almost got on another horse for the last round, but with 10 runs in a row looming ahead in Las Vegas, she took the opportunity to make three consecutive runs on Peanut.

"I did think about getting on Streak N Liza," she explained, "but I haven't made three runs in the same place on Peanut, so I thought this might be a good place to make three runs back-to-back. I personally don't like running them twice in one day, but it does happen sometimes."

Ironically, Peanut may have been her biggest winner on her first NFR qualification, it was the remainder of her string—Streak N Liza ("Twiz"), Heaven Sent Fame ("Kian") and Watch The Freak Fly ("Baby Cakes") that won her circuit money.

"I don't think I ran (Peanut) at a circuit rodeo and placed," Scott admitted. She didn't start riding the gelding until the start of the summer run after Twiz came up sore. One of their first runs together was at Prescott, Arizona, but they hit a barrel. "Kian won me quite a bit of money. Twiz placed at Albuquerque. Baby Cakes placed at both Scottsdale rodeos and the first round at Prescott."

As a non-resident of the circuit, Scott has to go to more rodeos to be eligible to compete at the circuit finals. But, in all honesty, most rodeos, even if she chose the Texas circuit, are a long drive from her West Texas home in Odessa.

THANKS: Mother-in-law Judy Scott, who "sacrifices her life" to feed all her horses and dogs at home, dad Henry Lide for all the little extra support, her sister Lorissa Merritt for letting her "ride the little Peanut Seed," husband Cody Scott for "driving me all over the universe," and mentor Jana Bean

"I love going West," she said. "I love Arizona. I love the girls out there in the Turquoise. I love their rodeos out there. They fit me and my horses, or at least this set of horses that I have. I'm thankful to do it. They make me work for it. I'll drive a long ways for a smaller rodeo to get my rodeo count, but I love it."

She was fighting for the NFR this year, Scott also had to make a few special trips to get her runs in this year as well. After Hermiston, Oregon, she flew back to run Kian.

"That was kind of funny," she chuckled. "I was in slack at Hermiston, but when I booked my flight, I was unaware they were going to do the guy's slack first. So I had to cancel that flight and book a later one. I only slept 20 minutes and then went to the airport! Thankfully, I was able to exchange that flight and get another one."

Scott also caught a ride back for the second rodeo in Scottsdale, Arizona.

"At that time, I knew I needed at least one more rodeo," she said. "At Salt Lake City, I hopped in with a girl, and she drove me and Baby Cakes down to Scottsdale, and then I flew back up for Pendleton."

Scott has her NFR preparations done early as she is going on a 10-day church mission trip in early November. Her horses are heading to her sister Lorissa Merritt's in College Station, Texas, for the remainder of their pre-NFR conditioning.

"I'm heading overseas to serve other people," she said. "We've been planning this trip for several years. I always say I don't believe in coincidences. I believe in God incidences. I can't help but know that this was His timing. It kept getting pushed back. Why not now? Two big moments in my life? Only God could do that in the same year."

Pedone, Hall, Karkula-Warnock and Wherrell Claim AQHA World Titles

By Tanya Randall

Barrel racing in the OGE Coliseum kicked off the Markel AQHA & Adequan Select World Championship Show, held October 30 through November 19 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

Junior

Multiple aged event champion and National Finals Rodeo qualifier Ryann Pedone topped the Junior Barrel Racing World Championship aboard her homebred 5-year-old mare The Sting Queen (“Mia”). Their time of 15.660 in the Finals was worth $3,449.30.

“It’s a pretty classy title to win,” said Pedone, who won the junior barrel racing title in 2022 with Mister Tres. “The trophy is cool because it’s a globe. And it doesn’t pay bad. You get a lot of recognition, and it puts a lot of black type on your horses.”

Mia, who is by Feel The Sting, who qualified Pedone for the 2020 National Finals Rodeo, and out of another successful horse ridden by Pedone, Streakin Queenie, by A Streak Of Fling.

“She’s special to me,” said Pedone, who trains barrel horses out of Thackerville, Oklahoma. “She’s from horses that I trained, ran and had a lot of success with.

“It was just really cool. She’s had some success here and there. She had an injury her futurity year but came back in the fall and did pretty well. She’s been a little inconsistent, but she’s had some very shiny moments. She’s starting to get more consistent.”

The World Show did present a little extra challenge with their headgear regulations.

Pedone was forced to switch from the mare’s preferred headgear—either a stop and turn or a steel nose combination—to one a Kerry Kelley Hemi with a rubber noseband tiedown.

“I tried a tiedown and bit that I had never used on her,” Pedone said. “In the long go, she pulled a shoe and didn’t clock that well. In the Finals, she had a really fast first barrel. She got a little strong at the second and third. I guess it was just my turn that day.”

Senior

Dusky Lynn Hall won her third consecutive AQHA Senior Barrel Racing World Championship. She won her first in 2023 on Troublenvrlooksogood (“Dexter”) and has claimed the last two on Aint Seen Famous Yet (“Wally”).

Hall and Wally, both 11, were third in the preliminary round with a 15.525 and topped the Finals with a 15.616 to win $5,335.46.

“We had a better run the first day than the second day,” said Hall. “We didn’t have an arena to work barrels, so I only got to work him on the barrels the day before I ran in (the prelims). That was the only work he had since Pink Buckle. We were a little rusty, but he still did really good.”

Bred by Josh and Kaylee Little, Wally is by Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of A Nasty Chick, by Its Royal Time. The Halls purchased the gelding in May 2023 from his trainer Amelia McCumber.

Wally is Aint Seen Nothin Yet’s first millionaire with QData earnings of $1,043,462, prior to the AQHA World Show. The gelding and Hall have won $279,619 this year alone.

Amateur

Veterinarian Ricci Karkula-Warnock claimed the Amateur World Championship aboard her family-raised Dash Of Pixie Dust (“Tinkerbell”) in 15.767 for $2,739.39. She and Tinkerbell also took the Reserve Championship in the Level 2 for another $1,788.32.

Karkula-Warnock’s parents Rick and Leah Karkula raised both Tinkerbell and her mother Marthas Bullion (“Pixie”). Their breeding program was one born of necessity as she has three sisters who also competed.

“In the ‘90s we were getting into junior and high school rodeo,” Karkula-Warnock explained. “My dad decided he needed to raise some horses because buying barrel horses for four girls was going to be an expensive endeavor.”

Marthas Six Moons was a leading barrel horse sire at the time, so her dad purchased Six Moons Martha, by Six Fols out of Lady Bugs Martha, in 1998. Pixie, by Bully Bullion, was born in 2005.

“We ran barrels on (“Pixie”),” Karkula Warnock continued. “She was starting to come on her futurity year, but she was pretty quirky in her younger years. When I got into vet school in 2011, Pixie was 6 and we decided to go big and breed her to Dash Ta Fame.”

Sadly, they lost Pixie six weeks before the AQHA World Show. "One of her quirks was everything had to be her way and one her own terms," said Karkula-Warnock, who works alongside her surgeon husband Weston Warnock at Brazos Valley Equine in Navasota, Texas. "She just laid down in knee-high grass and decided that was it. Pixie has been my heart horse—the horse that I've loved more than anything. Her deciding on her own terms when her time would be made it a lot easier on me—to not have to make that decision."

Winning the World Championship on Tinkerbell has helped Karkula-Warnock ease the sting of Pixie's loss.

"Losing Pixie was tough and getting to run her first offspring at the World Show was special in itself," she said. Tinkerbell having her own plans and making a really nice run was just icing on the cake and made it that much more special."

Tinkerbell, she said, was always special. She was trained and futuritized by Danyelle Campbell until a slab fracture at the Patriot cut her year short. She was later seasoned by Taci Bettis and won her first pro rodeo check on her first pro rodeo run at the Calgary Stampede.

"This just proved it to me," Karkula-Warnock said. "I was able to jockey her to this."

Select

Sissie Wherrell of Norman, Oklahoma, won her second straight Select World Championship with her 8-year-old homebred Good As Bully Gets ("Annie"). Their 15.938 earned $2,149.37 in the class specifically for amateur contestants over the age of 50.

Annie, a daughter of As Good As Nick Gets, is the orphaned foal of Dial Three Four Four, by Bully Bullion.

She and Wherrell also have three Paint World Championships to their credit.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Names. We name everything. Horses, dogs, kids, cats, birds. Why do we pick the ones we do? Well, several years ago, my friends' granddaughter needed to get rid of some of her kittens or, the parents said, they would get rid of them! Yikes!

After listening to her sweet voice asking if I needed any, (I didn't), much to Mike's dismay, I said, "I'll take two!" Her grandma drove her immediately to my house, before Mike could change my mind, with two cute little kittens. She pulled the gray one out, having named him Turbo. Then she pulled the yellow one out, holding him to her shirt. She named him Velcro. She said, "Do you want to know why I named him Velcro?" Then she tried to pull him off her shirt. "Cuz he sticks to everything!" Perfect name!

There's a better name, a more perfect name, a name with authority... Jesus. Phil.

2:10-11 tells us that at that name, every knee will bow! That name, Jesus, gives us authority over every evil.

We pray to the Father, in the name of Jesus. He promises in John 14:13-14, that whatever we ask in His name, He gives us! What a blessing! Have a blessed week!
