Brooke Wills & Fames To Blame Capture Canadian Barrel Racing Championship

By Tanya Randall

Going into her first Canadian Finals Rodeo, ranked fifth in the standing, Brooke Wills expected her tough mare Fames To Blame to rise to the occasion, but "winning Canada" was more than she expected.

The Kamloops, British Columbia, barrel racer picked up $35,640 at the CFR, held October 29 through November 3 in Red Deer, Alberta, to finish the year as Canada's best with $60,657.

"I'm very grateful," said the 24-year-old. "I can't believe it happened! I love Famey! She is amazing! It was a great week! I could have gone a couple of more rounds, I think. I wasn't quite ready for it to end."

Wills and Famey didn't have the start to the CFR that they hoped, tipping two barrels in the opening round.

"I wasn't really too worried," she said of her opening night miscues. "It did take me out of the average, but they were really small mistakes. Like I kind of sent her too far up the pen. She just wanted to work so hard, she hit second coming out. I wasn't really discouraged or anything because I knew they were really minor fixes. There was so much money to be rounds that just kind of changed my game plan. I thought, 'Well, I just go for the rounds, now.'"

After just missing a check in the round, Wills and Fame caught

Fryar & Some Streakin French Dominate Inaugural Blue Collars Breeders Incentive Futurity - Win $50K

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Stephanie Fryar made history by sweeping the inaugural running of the $189,250 Blue Collars Breeders Incentive Futurity, held in conjunction with the Outlaw Equine Futurity and BBR Southern Territorial Open, November 2-3 in Bryan, Texas. The BCBI Futurity awarded $50,000 to the breeders of the entered horses, while contestants ran at $139,250 for just a $500 entry fee.

Fryar and Some Streakin French ("Frank") collected $50,000 for winning both rounds and aggregate of the BCBI Futurity, while the gelding's breeder Fred Hartley collected $15,000.

"It was a complete blessing," said the barrel horse trainer from Waco, Texas. "God's timing is amazing."

Fryar and Frank were incredibly consistent even though their game plans for each run were completely different. They won the first round of the incentive with a 15.48 and won the second with a 15.481.

"The first run felt amazing," she said, "then we were headed to the third barrel and I panicked. I cut him off and he blew off it. I guess he smoked the first two fast enough that it was okay.

"The second run, I'm not going to lie, I was a nervous wreck! It was one of those don't be stupid runs. Be smart. He did great. He listened to me and took a safer route around the barrels to make sure we were clean. He just listened to everything I told him to do. It was in God's plan that we came out on top."

Cowboy Up For Cale Benefit Barrel Race

The Cowboy Up For Cale Benefit Barrel Race held in Perryton, Texas brought in an overwhelming $19,172 to help in the cancer treatments cost for 17 year old Cale Morris of neighboring Balco, Oklahoma. Cale was diagnosed last month with Ewings Sarcoma that had a large bone tumor found in his leg.

"We were shocked and saddened to hear of Cale's illness so we thought we would put on a benefit barrel race and silent auction to hopefully offset some expenses. Our original idea was to donate a buckle get 3 more buckle donors with a goal to hopefully raise $1000 from the event." stated Sabrina Devers event coordinator. "We posted on social media our plans and within 23 minutes we had the buckles we requested with more donors offering to sponsor more awards. So we expanded the event to a 2 day race, the generosity of the donors was simply an unexpected blessing." she said.

Donors from Nevada, Kansas, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Washington spoke for awards and silent auction donors from all over the U.S. gave items that amassed an overwhelming $14,000 in silent auction donations in the final tally.

"Everyone came together for this young cowboy. We even had office help fly in from Hawaii to Perryton, Texas.

We had 141 barrel entries run even with a flash flood hitting the arena pouring down 4 inches of unexpected rain.

However, the rain could not dampen the goodwill of the rodeo community and supporters of the event.

The local community, such as the Perryton Rodeo Association donated the facility. Area merchants, families and friends sponsored the event and barrel racers from four states competed to make it successful for such a worthy cause. It was the largest barrel race Perryton, Texas has ever held and it was all for Cale Morris, who was on hand to give out the awards.

"I cannot thank everyone enough for making this event an overwhelming success that surpassed our expectations by 200 percent." stated Devers.

Mr. Morris' treatments that started at MD Anderson were moved closer to Oklahoma City and will continue for the next several months. He is responding well to the treatments.

WPRO Announces 2019 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

Every year since the early 1990s the Women's Professional Rodeo Association and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits that have went above and beyond to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRO about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

Each year the WPRO membership recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits as well as the most improved ground committee in each circuit, which puts forth the extra effort to ensure their rodeo has the safest most consistent ground possible for barrel racing. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $350-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an addition $1,500 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRO Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 5 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees and the WPRO thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

Badlands Circuit: Roughrider Days Rodeo, Dickinson, ND

California Circuit: California Rodeo Salinas

Columbia River Circuit: Farm-City Pro Rodeo, Hermiston, OR

fire. They were third in the third round, won rounds four and five and placed second in the last round, placing fifth in the aggregate.

Wills says she hadn't thought about a chance at the title until right before the last round.

"It wasn't until the start of the sixth round that I heard I had a shot at winning it," she said. "I knew going into the finals, the girl who went in No. 1 had a $10,000 lead and then she won the first round. I was like $20,000 behind. I didn't really even think about the numbers. I knew I needed to win a lot of money to have a chance. It wasn't until right at the end that it was 'Holy crap! I actually have a shot at this!' I didn't really pay attention too much until I heard someone say something and I was like 'Wow! I didn't even know that was a thing!'"

Knowing how tight the race was, Wills didn't change her game plan and still went for the round win.

"I didn't really change anything at all," she said. "I was just going in to make the same run. It was a pleasant surprise.

"I couldn't even believe it. I had a lot of faith in my horse that she was going to do really well. It was never a question of not being able to win Canada, but at the same time, you never really expect it. There are so many tough horses. Everything just fell into place. I was just really happy. My family was there and it was really cool that they all got to see it happen."

Although her mother Brenda didn't rodeo, her father Jeff grew up competing, mostly in team roping. Their four daughters—Brooke and her three sisters, the triplets Lane, Brett and McKenzie, followed their dad into the arena, working their way up the ranks from Little Britches to the amateur and pro rodeos.

Wills rodeo game stepped up with the purchase of Famey last August. Bred in a partnership between Stephanie Wheeler and Carisa Shearer, Famey is an 8-year-old daughter of Lions Share Of Fame out of the great mare SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy. Famey helped spell KN Fabs Gift Of Fame for Conrado in 2018 and CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "When I'm at home, I usually lope a fast-paced lope around the field for one lap and then I'll trot a lap. This summer because I was staying where I didn't have to travel as much, I just exercised her in the arena because I couldn't ride her out very much. When I'm at home, I try to get her out in the field as much as possible." Famey doesn't do much barrel work. "Usually just the day before I go somewhere," said Wills. "I'll usually trot her through once and walk her twice. She's very correct and knows her job. It usually for your own peace of mind."

helped her qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

"She text me out of the blue that her uncle, who owned Famey, wanted to sell her, and if I knew of anyone that would be interested or if I would be interested because she thought we'd be a perfect fit. She knew I would give the mare a really good home," Wills said. "At first, I was like no. I wasn't even looking for a horse, but then I thought this is way too good of an opportunity to pass up. She's an incredible horse. We just made it work. We just had to have her."

Conrado was right, the fit was instant.

"My first run on her was at our amateur finals about an hour from where we live and she won all four rounds of that," Wills recalled. "I went south for the winter and won our next three rodeos. It was the best match. It was really instant."

Thanks to the Canadian Championship, Wills will get into the Calgary Stampede next year.

"Calgary was a huge goal," she said. "I really wanted to get into Calgary."

With Calgary counting toward the WPRA World Standings, it makes traveling south for the winter rodeos much more appealing.

"I think I got into some winter rodeos, so I'll come down probably in January and go to some rodeos," she said. "I'll just see how it all goes. If I have money won and it seems to be going well, I'll keep going down into the States and possibly try to run for the NFR. If not, I'll just stick up here in Canada. We have some really good rodeos up here too."

Wills wanted to thank her sponsors Finning Cat and Sharp Edge Equine Supplements as well as her family and friends, saying, "I couldn't do it without them."

Stacey Ruzicka & Known To Be Wild CS Win CFR Average

By Tanya Randall

Dental assistant Stacey Ruzicka and her 15-year-old mare Known To Be Wild CS (“Bay Kaye”) captured championship honors at the Canadian Finals Rodeo. The duo from Bluffton, Alberta, were the only barrel racers to make six clean runs at the CFR, held October 29 through November 3 in Red Deer, Alberta.

The aggregate win nearly doubled Ruzicka’s season earnings. She went into the CFR third in the standings with $25,997, collected $29,835 at the CFR and finished the year Canadian Reserve Champion Barrel Racer with $55,832.

“She likes those kinds of arenas,” Ruzicka said of Bay Kaye. “Our amateur finals are always in similar pens like that, smaller. Diane Skocdopole rode her there (at the CFR) last year as a backup horse. She placed third in the last round, so she helped her get second in the average as well. She had been there before but just not with me.”

Ruzicka was also the Canadian Rookie Champion Barrel Racer, having received her permit last Christmas as a present from her boyfriend and biggest supporter Kyle Rock, a former bareback rider.

“I was just toying at it,” she said. “I didn’t think I was good enough to go. I was hemming and hawing. When I got it for Christ-

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: “I mostly do a lot of long trotting. I live up a road that has a nice hill, little incline. I think that’s just made her really strong this year. She looked really good this year and she stayed looking good. Most horses at the end of the year get tucked up. I think the mineral, feed and everything helped.”

mas I was like, ‘I guess I have to go now!’”

At her first CFR, Ruzicka and Bay Kaye got a good start, placing in the fifth in the first round and second in the next, but then went cold for the next three. She said she could hear her mentor WPRA World Champion Connie Combs’ voice in her head before the final round.

“I can hear her southern drawl when I was warming up the last day,” she said. “Things weren’t clicking and I couldn’t get my first barrel. Then I heard Connie’s voice in my head and I was like okay. Get after her and let her do her job. She was a little fireball the last day. She had a pep in her step. Everyone was like what happened? I got after her in the warmup pen and was like, ‘Hey, let’s do this! We’ve got to win some money!’”

They ended up placing third in the last round.

Although she had a hunch that she was leading aggregate, she didn’t look at the placings going into the final round.

“I never go look at the times at the rodeos,” she chuckled. “I don’t want to know who is winning it. I don’t need the pressure. Just go make your best run, that’s how my concept is. I started doing that about four years ago. Everyone goes to the office and looks at the times. What’s that going to matter? You still have to go run your best no matter what. You can’t gauge how fast or slow you’re going to go, so just go. We’re here to win. Go fast. When they say you’re the new leader it’s a great feeling.”

However, it was hard not to at least have some idea.

“People were texting me and I kind of heard something on a replay,” she admitted. “They said, ‘She’s leading the average.’ The back of my mind I didn’t want that pressure, but I wanted money. I needed money. I don’t just want money in the average. I want money in the round too.”

Ruzicka grew up showing Percherons, but followed her uncle, a team roper, into the world of rodeo. She was forced to take a break from the sport when the horse she grew up riding passed and it wasn’t until her late 20s that she got back into the sport.

“I just started dabbling and getting a couple horses going and rodeoing a little bit here and there,” she said. Then she got Bay Kaye 12 years ago. The now 15-year-old bay mare is by Known For Dash out of William Gaugler’s mare Running Wild Annie, by Page Oh Bobby.

“This horse has been with me for a long time,” she said. “She’s the one that I made my first amateur finals and then won two of them.”

Ironically, Ruzicka put the Bay Kaye up for sale after winning her first amateur title. Something wasn’t right with the mare, but she was going broke trying to figure it out.

“She just wasn’t herself,” she explained. “I had her worked on and took her to the vet. She was fat and depressed. She was irritable to touch. Like you would go to put her winter blanket on and she’d nip at you. Everywhere you’d touch her, she was just pissy. Everyone was like that’s just a mare and I said no its not. I’ve had her for 10 years this isn’t right.”

With no potential buyers, Ruzicka was about to turn Bay Kaye into a broodmare when her friend Bailey Stanton, DVM, talked her into seeing a specialist. While Ruzicka balked at paying $400 for another blood test, she did acquiesce to treatment that was much cheaper. The specialist she saw believed that Bay Kaye had a thyroid problem. Just three weeks into the medication, Ruzicka knew her horse was coming back.

“She was feeling herself again, looked good, lost the weight and went back to winning,” she said. “The CFR is such an emotional thing. I almost let her go back to have a baby. Somebody upstairs was taking care of me. I think it was my mom. She passed away in 2002 and she took me to my rodeos when I was young. Everything happens for a reason and no one took her away from me.”

Ruzicka wanted to thank her boyfriend for starting her on this journey and always encouraging her, her mentor Connie Combs, her hauling partner and rookie mentor Skocdopole, Bailey Stanton of Stanton Veterinary Services, Bronco Feed & Supply, Evergreen Co-Op, Jenny Massing with Complete Equine Performance (CEP) Canada, Brooke Robertson with Seven Saddles, Crystal Creek Equine Products by Integrity Ranching, Jessa Galloway with her MagnaWave and Murry McGonnigle, chiropractic therapy.

It was Fryar's biggest win to date, even surpassing her 2008 NFR qualification on Sail On Lena ("Salena").

During the awards presentation, PixelWorx photographer Cree Futrell and Blue Collar Breeders board member Latricia (Duke) Mundorf were shocked to learn that it was Fryar's biggest win.

"I've never won one of these big fancy checks," she laughed. "They didn't believe me. I'm like really no. This is like a bucket list thing. I get to put one of these checks on the wall. It was very, very exciting. It's the first big futurity thing that I've ever won."

Frank also placed fifth in the $15,000-added Outlaw Equine Futurity, earning an additional $1,850, and they placed in 2D of the BBR Southern Territorial for another $2,689.

Bred by Hartley, Frank, a 4-year-old sorrel, is by Frenchmans Fabulous, an all-time leading barrel horse sire, out of Some Streakin Chick, a race winner of $46,006 on the track, by Some Dasher. Fryar got Frank in late February in a trade with the gelding's trainer Corbin Pinyan. She had always taken a fancy to the gelding, who was still a colt when she first saw Pinyan ride him at her house a year ago.

"I never even swung a leg over him until I traded for him," she said. "I liked him from the first time I saw him here at the house. He just looked like he'd fit my style."

When Pinyan tried to sell Frank, Fryar told him that she wanted the horse but didn't have the funds to buy him outright. Pinyan suggested trading.

"I gave him pick anything but my old NFR mare and Mazi (The Red Maserati)," she said. "My open horses were off limits. I gave him free rein over anything young, and of course, he picked my Traffic Guy, Salena 3-year-old."

Fryar and Frank were a pretty instant fit, making the finals at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Futurity about a month after she got him. They also made the finals at the Old Fort Days Futurity. Their last futurity will be the BBR's OKC Futurity the first week of December in Oklahoma City.

Since qualifying for the NFR, Fryar has been training horses, although lately she's stepped up her presence in the futurity game.

"I love every part of barrel racing," she said. "You could send me to playday and I'm still going to try to win it. Rodeo will always be my heart, but I've really grown to love the futurities and training part of it. I've learned a lot from these colts. It's awesome to train and win on them at the futurities and derbies, but at the end of the day, I want them all to go on to be awesome solid rodeo horses.”

She says everything has started to come together in her program recently. Her futurity horse for next year is by Firewater Canyon out of Mays Bunny, by Sail On Bunny, making it a half-sister to her NFR mount. She’s also got Salena’s yearling by Lions Share Of Fame and an RR Mistakely out of Salena, currently incubating in a recip mare.

She wanted to thank her family and friends, who have always believed in her even when she didn’t believe in herself as well as the Blue Collar Breeders Incentive.

“I like all of them—anything that promotes the barrel racing industry is awesome to me, but the Blue Collar is really cool that you don’t have to remember any nominations. Just pay your entry fee and show up and run, makes it nice. They changed my world and made my dreams come true.”

A few of the other big winners from the Blue Collar Breeders Futurity were Brittany Tonozzi and her two horses, Reserve Champion A French Babe and Born In A Hot Lane. Between the rider money and breeder money for her since she raised her winners, she took home over $40k. Imaslickbug ended up winning $18,000 for rider, Will Lear, and owner Morris Pollock and another $7,500 for breeder Wayne Kerr for a total of $25,500 from the Blue Collar Breeders Futurity.

"You can rest assured knowing your horses are in the most knowledgeable & capable hands. My mares and babies have come home in outstanding shape every time! They will treat your horses like their own, which is so important to me." -- Kara Large

We highly recommend Dunn's! They are so easy to work with. Our mares and foals came home looking fantastic and most of all, in foal in a short time! -- Kenyon Barrel Horses

Terri Wood-Gates & Smooth Movin Lena Sweep Wilderness Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Terri Wood-Gates and Smooth Movin Lena swept the championship titles in the WPRA's Wilderness Circuit. The West Jordan, Utah, team capped off their impressive year with the circuit championship and the aggregate victory at the Wilderness Circuit Finals, held October 31 through November 2 in Heber City, Utah.

"I've always been so grateful to make it to the circuit finals and then to win it, just seems surreal to me," said Wood-Gates, who won her fourth year-end title, having won it before in 2000, 2003 and 2007. "I can't even believe it happened. It's been a whirlwind of a year. I'm so grateful and so thankful."

Wood-Gates is also very thankful to still be here. In late January, while turning Lena out for the day, the mare accidentally kicked Wood-Gates in the right side of her forehead, leaving her with a severe concussion, the effects of which still linger today.

"January 29, I never would have imagined this," she said. "I'm getting better every day. Now it's only two to three days a week that I don't feel great. My memory isn't great, but so many things are getting better. We're just trying to focus on the positive."

THE RUNDOWN w/Terri Wood-Gates

Smooth Movin Lena "Lena"

BIT: Carol Goostree Simplicity II (the Egg bit)

HEADGEAR: None; will tune on her at home with different headgear as needed

SADDLE: Double J Pozzi

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Polo Wraps, usually blue or navy

SHOEING: Rims

FEED: Nutrena Safe Choice

HAY: Alfalfa and grass hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen products

ALTERNATIVES THERAPIES: Back On Track wraps. "I love everything Back On Track."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "I keep her rode most every day, even between runs. I don't want her to have any issues like tying up, so I keep her rode every day. I'm one of those weird people that do slow work on the barrels all the time. A lot of it is we need to get to know each other, but I do slow work with all my horses. I think that's more me. I like to know where each horse is going to go because they're all a little different."

SPONSORS: South Valley Veterinary Clinic, Dr. Beau Beck!

The injury forced the very active competitor and trainer to cutback on what is usually a year chalked full of futurities and pro and amateur rodeos. Even though she lives only an hour away from Heber City, Wood-Gates chose to stay there rather than do all the extra driving to and from home. It reduced her stress load and allowed her time to relax and recover between her three runs.

"It wasn't too bad at all when we were there," she said. "I was so emotional Saturday night and Sunday, and I think that takes a lot out of you. I was pretty wiped out Sunday. I didn't hardly do anything."

At Heber City, Wood-Gates and Lena were second in the first go and won the third round to win the aggregate and $6,652. They won $38,406 on the year. Excluding her circuit finals total, Wood-Gates finished 38th in the WPRA World Standings without having hardly left her circuit.

"It's been the craziest year with so many highs and lows," she said. "I remember a lot of the frustrations of it and the fear of it, especially at the first of the year. There were a couple of runs that I don't really remember the details of, but I remember wondering if I would ever be able to keep up with that mare because she is so quick."

Wood-Gates has had Lena a little over a year, having purchased her in August 2018 from Hailey Woodward. Lena, 8, is by Dash Ta Fame out of Sheza Leapin Lena, by Sir Cashanova, and is a full sister to Wood-Gates' 2004 Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion Maine Dash Ta Fame ("Spence"). Both horses were bred by Allene Christensen and came to the barrel pen through Spencer Peterson.

"She's just taken care of me basically," said Wood-Gates of Lena. "She's a lot like Spence. She's more petite because she's a little mare. She's smaller in a lot of little ways, but as far as running her, she has a lot of similarities to him. I think that's helped me. It's just a natural thing to ride her.

"I can't even begin to express how grateful I am to be in the position and have the opportunity to ride this horse. She's like my unicorn."

Unfortunately, it doesn't look like Lena will get a chance at the same title as her older brother.

“I’m not sure I’m going to haul her to Florida,” said Wood-Gates. “Since she’s a family owned horse, my mom was like, ‘I want you going back there, but I’m not sure I want the horse going.’ I might see if I can find a horse to borrow for the weekend. We haven’t really talked about it much. I’m excited about the opportunity, but I just don’t know about taking her. We’ve got a little time to decide.”

Wood-Gates wanted to thank her mother Norma Wood, husband Stewart and all of her family and friend for their support and encouragement during this challenging year. She also appreciated the support and friendship of South Valley Equine’s Dr. Beau Beck and his family.

A Special NBHA Championship for A Special Team

At the NBHA World Championships in Perry, Georgia, Brandon Cullins teamed up with A Cornerstone "Stoney" for another big win. "He's got a motor that's for sure," Cullins said about the 7-year-old gelding as he described their final run of 14.762. "I set him up pretty good and then left him alone. He had a real good first and second. I felt like we were ahead of the game going to the third so was trying to be a little bit safe." He continued explaining their wide third barrel turn, "That was my fault. I thought we had almost lost it, but he's fast enough that he pulled through and took over." Now, Cullins and Stoney are the 2019 NBHA Open World 1D Champions and earned $4,192 for their final run.

Many who knew Stoney's owner, Sarah Attea Griffin, commented on social media that she was smiling down as the win happened close to November 4, the day that a year ago her barrel racing dreams were cut short. "It's bittersweet," Cullins said. "In a perfect world it would be her on him, not me."

Cullins decided to make the trip to Georgia – his first time to compete at the NBHA World Championships since they moved from Augusta to Perry – since he and Stoney didn't make the finals at Congress. "We went to Congress and had a bad run the first round. Second round he would've won it and been the fastest time of the week, but barely got the second," he explained. Cullins also competed on a couple 4-year-olds at Perry, including THG ZZ Royal Hammer, won ran a 14.795 to place third in the second round.

It's the young horses that continue to keep Cullins focused on barrel racing instead of being able to pursue roping. "I got a dummy and roped the sled a little bit, but I couldn't find anywhere to go and then I got busy with all the colts," he said. "I was able to team rope a little bit because my horse shoer ropes. That's the only thing I was able to do a little of, but I had so many 3-year-olds that it was hard to get away to do that."

On the other hand, Stoney wasn't very busy before this past weekend and now he gets another break. "He hasn't had many runs this year. We've been back home and there isn't a whole lot to run at, so we just gave him time off," Cullins said about being in Maryland. And now Stoney will have more time off before getting ready to compete at RFD-TV's The American Semi-finals in February. He helped Cullins qualify in Pendleton, SC and he won the qualifier in Ardmore, OK with Cullins' girlfriend, Emily Efurd. Cullins will be riding Stoney at the semi-finals and Efurd has another horse lined up – a decision Efurd made. "It would have been good with me either way, but I think she was feeling bad taking my only horse for it since that's all I have for an open horse," Cullins said. Last year, Cullins and Stoney got second at the semi-finals and advanced to The American, but then didn't have the run he'd hoped for. They've also won the Buyback round in the past.

Cullins got Stoney as a 5-year-old and described a run on him, "He's extremely fast. He kind of has a different style – he runs around the barrels a little bit – but he's really easy if you just leave him alone. He's real reactive – if you do something, he reacts so you just have to sit still and give him his head."

He's always humble, but Cullins is a great trainer and jockey, and now gets to add another success to his resume with the NBHA World 1D Championship on a special horse, Stoney.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Our walk with God is ever evolving. It's like when you are a baby, you have everything a human being has.....it's just smaller and not developed.

It's the same way with being a Christian. When you ask Jesus to be the Lord of your life, everything He has is downloaded into you. Your mission, if you choose to accept more than just heaven when you die, is to go on a treasure hunt and find all those blessings.

How? You study the Bible. You listen to good Bible teaching. Sometimes when a person receives Jesus, they will hop into the "First Church of Jesus or What Makes Me Feel Good".

This would be like buying the first "barrel horse" you find on the Internet. "THE PERFECT 1D HORSE FOR A MERE $500!" Ya right.

How do you know which church is for you? You listen to your heart/spirit. When you go, if they don't open the Bible, gird up your loins and run! You do NOT want a man's opinion, you want to know God.

Would you buy a barrel horse from a mule outfit that advertises that their mules run barrels? Doubt it. Be wise. Pray and ask God where you should go to church. You'll be glad you did!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
