Callahan Crossley & Brownie Bi Bogie Dominate Canadian Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Callahan Crossley and her ageless wonder Brownie Bi Bogie, age 20, dominated the Canadian Finals Rodeo, held for the first time at the Westerner Park in Red Deer, Alberta, Oct. 30-Nov. 4. The duo from Hermiston, Oregon, won four of the six rounds and finished second in the other two to earn a $73,575 CFR Championship and the title of Canadian Champion Barrel Racer.

After entering the Finals in fourth with $25,615, Crossley never expected to surpass Carman Pozzobon, who was the regular season standings leader with $44,079.

"When I was driving up there, I was looking at the standings, and I made a joke that I only have to win $24,000 to be tied with Carman (Pozzobon), because she just had an amazing year," mused Crossley. "That's not a lot of money when it pays $10,000 a round, but there's a lot of great girls. I would have been happy to be placing in the rounds. I definitely didn't think I had a chance. I never even thought I could win it. It wasn't until after the sixth round. I couldn't believe it!"

Crossley, 24, got started going to the Canadian rodeos when Judy Kessler called her to invite her to compete at the invitational rodeo in Cloverdale, British Columbia, in 2015.

"I had never ever even been to Canada," she said. "I thought that was an amazing opportunity to get to go to Canada and to an invitational rodeo. That rodeo was amazing. I didn't hardly win anything but I had so much fun. I thought 'Wow, Canada is just fun.' That year I won the average at my circuit finals, so I got to go to Florida. I ended up winning second at the [RAM] Finals. Ivy Conrado won and she was already qualified for Calgary. On my way home, I got a phone call that I got to go to Calgary. I had no idea. As soon as I got that phone call, I decided that I was going to go to Cloverdale, Calgary and try out all their rodeos. I had no expectations. I just had a lot of fun and good luck and made it to their finals. That just sucked me in for the last two years to keep going up there. It's been awesome getting to qualify for Calgary, so I just kept going back up."

Crossley and Brownie started off their third CFR with a second place finish before winning the next three rounds, including the fourth round with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 13.454. They were second in the fifth round and concluded their rodeo with another victorious 13.4 in the sixth and final round.

"It was all new because it was their first year (there in Red Deer)," noted Crossley. "It was really deep. They had only brought the ground in the day before. The times were a little slower and a lot of horses had trouble with how deep the ground was. It got better throughout the week as it got settled."

Brownie is known for his prowess on short courses, having run at eight College National Finals Rodeo in the crackerjack box in

Frenchmans Guy, Casey Tibbs Foundation 2018 Honoree

The 29th Annual Casey Tibbs Foundation Tribute Dinner was held on Saturday, November 3, 2018. Now in its 29th year, the Tribute Dinner is an opportunity for friends and families in the ranching and rodeo communities to celebrate and honor the accomplishments of South Dakota cowboys, cowgirls, families and animals. This event is an annual fundraiser for the Casey Tibbs Rodeo Center. The social begins at 6:00, with dinner at 6:30 and the program to follow. Walk through the museum and see the honorees table's where they will have many of their items on display. We congratulate the following who are our 2018 Tribute Dinner Honorees!

Rodeo Animal Athlete: Frenchmans Guy owned by Bill and Deb Myers of St. Onge

Frenchman's Guy is a 1987 Palamino Stallion that sired many great performance horses and rodeo champions with progeny earnings exceeding eleven million dollars. His owners, Billy and Deb Myers are the leading breeders of arena performance and rodeo champions. Though he lost his right eye as a yearling, Frenchman's Guy became a highly competitive arena athlete in the barrel futurity, derby and PRCA/amateur rodeo circuits. He was a finals qualifier PRCA Badlands Circuit and South Dakota Rodeo Assn, Northwest Rodeo Cowboys Association Reserve Champion and Finals qualifier PRCA Badlands Circuit and South Dakota Rodeo Assn, just to name a few. He is known as an elite competitor especially for his extended stride and speed. Frenchman's Guy is now 31 years old and resides on the Myers ranch in St. Onge.

Rodeo Cowgirl: Kristi Lensegrav-Birkeland of Dupree

Kristi is a six-time, year-end Goat Tying Champion from 1999-2006 and three-time NIRA champion. She is a nine-time SDRS Goat Tying Champion from 1996-2007. In 2002 and 2004 she was the NRCA Finals Champion. Seven times between 1993 and 2012 she was the "fastest time tied of the year."

Rodeo Cowboy Great: Jake Rinehart of Highmore

Jake has represented South Dakota in high school, amateur and professional rodeo in the United States and Canada.

Past Rodeo Great: Steve Mowry of Presho

Steve has participated in all levels of Rodeo from Little Britches to the PRCA. He spent a decade being a rodeo clown and bullfighter. He competed for five years as a Pro Tour Bull Fighter capturing many first place wins. In 1983 and 1984 he was runner up to the World Champion Bull Fighter, In the middle 1980's he was a Champion College NFR bullfighter.

Rodeo Promoter: Raymond W. Sutton Sr. of Gettysburg

Raymond grew up outside Agar with brothers John and James. The Sutton Ranch hosted rodeo competitions from 1926-1936 which included entertainers like Lawrence Welk. Raymond partnered with George Fairbank creating the Sutton/Fairbank Rodeo Company.

The nominee's photos and biographies are added to the permanent "Wall of Fame" each year, located in the Rodeo Center.

Tribute Dinner tickets are $35 for all tickets and can be purchased beginning the first week of October, phone or by visiting the Rodeo Center. It is recommended to purchase advance tickets as seating is limited. Contact the Casey Tibbs SD Rodeo Center at 605-494-1094 for ticket information or at www.caseytibbs.com. Interested parties may turn in a nomination in by June 1, 2019 for next year's Tribute Dinner.

WCRA to bring 1/2 a Million Dollar Rodeo to the Lazy E

World Champions Rodeo Alliance is excited to announce that the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK will play host to WCRA's five-day $500,000 Semi-Finals November 14-18. The five-day event will feature over 600 of the world's top rodeo athletes going head-to-head for over a $500,000 purse and their chance to qualify for WCRA's $1 Million Major Rodeo (Windy City Roundup) in January at All State Arena in Chicago.

The three main events will begin on Saturday, Nov. 17 with two progressive rounds (1 p.m. and 7 p.m.) followed by the final round on Sunday, Nov. 18 at 1 p.m.

Contestants in eight events—bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding—will compete for their piece of the $500,000 purse. Athletes in each discipline—including both headers and heelers in the team roping event—will compete for more than $55,000.

Eight athletes in each discipline with the highest scores or fastest times will advance to Windy City Roundup in January. The one-night, $1 million rodeo will be held in conjunction with the PBR's January 12-13 Elite-Tour event, creating a full weekend of western lifestyle sports in one of the world's largest mainstream markets.

Prior to the progressive and final rounds, WCRA will host a barrel race jackpot on Wednesday, Nov. 14 followed by two days of timed event jackpots and preliminary rounds starting at 8 a.m. daily.

WCRA will also host a trade show in the main arena, beginning on November 15 starting at 8 a.m. and concluding at 6 p.m. daily. For more trade show information, please visit laze.com.

To purchase tickets to the WCRA Semi-Finals, fans can visit Ticketmaster. A full list of events and trade show information is available at www.wcra rodeo.com.

Casper, Wyoming, with only two hit barrels. He carried Crossley to the National Championship in 2015. The following year, he carried her to a reserve championship in the Canadian Pro Rodeo Association after finishing third at the CNFR in Edmonton, Alberta, on another short course.

"I've always had fun running him indoors on little patterns," she said. "Our circuit (Columbia River) finals used to be 12-second patterns, and he seems to like those most of time."

Bred by her uncle and aunt, Butch and Mary Lynn Knowles, Brownie is by Columbia River Circuit Champion and NFR Finalist Bogie Biankus out of Chet's Babe, Chet Young 89er.

"He didn't get started until he was 6," Crossley explained. "He was just a ranch horse out at my mom's family's ranch. My aunt Mary owned him. She just rode him with the cows and she loved him for that, but she thought he was going to waste being a ranch horse. So, she dropped him off at our house. My mom trained him and he probably wasn't entered in a rodeo until he was about 8."

Brownie carried the load for Crossley, running at every rodeo, other than Calgary.

"Sometimes, when I run Brownie outside, the first barrel can be an issue," she explained. "I've tried to run him there two years before because who doesn't want to run their No. 1 horse? He just never did good there. This year, I was like, 'I'm just going to leave him at home so I'm not even tempted to ride him because I know when I get there, I'm going to want to be on him.'"

Her sister Jordan (Minor) loaned her another family homebred, Ciscos French Mirage ("Lori Darlin"), the Knowles Frenchmans Guy stallion Frenchmans Falcon out of Joes Genuine Copy, a daughter of Joes Genuine Doc that carried Maureen, Crossley's mother to the Columbia River Circuit Championship.

"Jordan actually gave me Lori to run," said Crossley. "There were a couple of good circuit rodeos that weekend and she had a chance at the time to win the circuit. She was winning everything on her.

Brownie Bi Bogie, "Brownie" 15.2 h. 1, 150 lbs.

BIT: Combination

SADDLE: Cactus trophy saddle from their Northwest Region Championship

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Fastback on all four; plus bells

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four "I have to thank my horseshoer, Mike Boswell. He's the only person that Brownie will let shoe him. Brownie is a handful to shoe and Mike's the only one he'll let do it without causing problems."

FEED: Purina Equine Senior

HAY: Alfalfa in front of him 24/7

SUPPLEMENTS: Ulcergard, Horse Guard Trifecta (a probiotic mix) and Super Weight Gain. "I use that on him a lot when traveling to keep weight on him."

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: None. "I have a lot of magnetic blankets and things that I've won, and I'm so excited because I love them, but anytime I try to use them on him, he totally freaks out or he shows me he doesn't want any of that stuff. He doesn't get pampered quite as much," Crossley laughed, saying that Brownie's tough demeanor keeps her from being "too much of a barrel racer."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "He can't ever have a break, at this age especially," noted Crossley. "I have to keep riding him because I know the moment I stop; he'll be done. I don't ever work him. I try not to ride him in the arena. At my house, I ride him up the road to keep him exercised. With him being this old now, he's not the type of horse you can just exercise. I have to go run him to keep him in running shape."

We Raise 'em, Ride 'em & Run 'em!

She and my other sister (Jade) actually came up to Calgary to cheer me on and watch me run Lori. I don't know many people who would just drop everything and give you their No. 1 horse just to watch you win and be just as happy to see you win as they would be to see themselves win. I owe a lot to my family." Crossley said her family forced her to keep going when the season wasn't going so well.

"This year was a little different because I changed circuits," she explained. "The Columbia River Circuit Finals was going to be at the same time as the Canadian Finals. I didn't want to have to choose if it came down to it. So, I switched to the Montana Circuit. Then in March, they Columbia River changed their dates. Now the Columbia River and Montana circuit finals are the same weekend in January.

"That changed a lot this year, because I had finally figured out which rodeos I could go to and not go to down home and what I could go to up in Canada. This year I had to go to 20 rodeos in Montana, so I went to a lot of rodeos that I had never been to and didn't know how he would do. I didn't have a great year up in Canada so I had to go to more rodeos up there than I'm used to the past couple years. He got a lot of rodeos this year."

The tide turned for Crossley the last two weekends of the season, and she was able to qualify for both the Canadian Finals and the Montana Circuit Finals.

"It definitely didn't feel like I had a good year," she said. "I felt like I wanted to quit, and my family was like 'Keep going.' He would give me that one good run and keep me latched on. About the last two weeks of the season for both the circuit rodeos and Canada, I don't know what came over him, but he was back to 16-year-old Brownie. It was fun."

At 20, Brownie is proving to be an iron horse.

"I've been pretty lucky with him as far as bone and joint issues," she said. "He's never been lame. I've been so lucky; I don't know how to explain that because I know a lot of people don't have that.

Johnson and Tres Mesas' First Moon Flash Duo Dominate at BBR Southern Territory & Isabella Fall Classic Futurity

The Tres Mesas Horses' First MoonFlash geldings were back in the winner's circle in Bryan, Texas. With Wenda Johnson in the saddle, the duo won $17,177 between the BBR Southern Territory and Isabella Quarter Horses Fall Classic Futurity.

Dreams First Flash, a 7-year-old gelding out of the First Down Dash mare First Down Dream, won every race he was entered in, earning $7,569. He won the warmup race and then topped the derby with the fastest time of the event, a 15.291, that won the Open and BBR Xtra with a carryover.

MacGyver Moonflash, a 5-year-old gelding out of Touched By The Moon, Black Moons Rising, was the big money winner, capturing a $7,351 futurity champion, plus $2,257 on open carryovers for total earnings of $9,608.

BRR: Where was your last competition with the dynamic duo before Bryan? What had the horses been doing in the meantime? How did Thursday's warmup runs play into your plans?

Johnson: The previous event we competed at was in the WPRA World Finals in Waco. Mac was third in the Futurity. Flash ran fast and hard; however, we added a plus-five both days. Between the races, both horses continued their exercise regimen, completed by Tres Mesa's Barn Manager (Luis Hernandez). Once we arrived at Bryan, we utilized the Thursday warm up race for a tune up, placing first on Flash with a 15.60 and third on Mac with a 15.66.

BRR: Tell me about Flash's run in the Derby, which pretty much swept the entire event?

Johnson: On the day of the Derby, Flash felt great and warmed up quiet and happy. The best part of the run is the start, he takes off so fast and it is a thrill. As we run, my focus is to work towards consistency and helping him to be in the right position every time. The time carried over to the Open BBR Southern Territorial Finals as well resulting in the fast time for the event.

BRR: You're using a unique lifter bit on him, a Les Vogt maybe? It's not typically seen in the barrel pen. How did you come by it and why do you use it?

Johnson: The bit I am currently using is a Les Vogt Elevator bit and it is a great training and schooling bit. Originally, I had no intentions on using it during a run. It is best utilized at slow and controlled speeds to maximize performance, but with added speed the likelihood of the elevator being used incorrectly increases. However, I am using it during runs at this time. Ultimately to gain and maintain shoulder control through the turns. With each run I consciously strive to keep my hands as quiet as possible and utilize appropriate timing around the turns. Flash typically responds well, and because of the 1:1 ratio (the purchase and the shank are equal measurements) and a very loose curb strap. My husband and I have had this bit for a long time and used it in various situations on different horses.

BRR: Tell me about Mac's runs? Did you make any adjustments for the second run, or stick with the original game plan?

Johnson: Mac ran solid runs through the weekend. Initially, (he) ran a 15.6, then two 8's and finished with the 15.33. With a young horse, adjustments are always needed to help them do the best they can do. After watching my runs from the first three days, I worked towards maintained speed throughout the run and explosive speed out of the barrels. He ran hard and we took the paint off of two and three, but the last run ultimately led to the average win.

BRR: What races do you have coming up for the dynamic duo? What big goals are on their horizons?

Johnson: Our next race is the JBQH Futurity and then the Revolution Race Finals. Our goals are to continue to go to barrel races, prepare for the Semi-Finals (for The American), and go to some open rodeos.

BRR: Tell us about your unique crew and how y'all make the situation work?

Johnson: The owners, the barn manager, and myself work together to help both horses to be happy and successful. We adapt to the needs of the horses and work towards keeping them healthy in and out of the barrel arena. Any time I am around the horses, I utilize the time to further develop their skills and our partnership. Our situation has worked well because we all have the same goal, to help both horses be successful. I am so proud of both horses and the success we have had this year.

Morgan and In Firewaters Honor Hot at NBHA World Finals

By Amy Wilson

After nearly 2,900 runs at the 2018 NBHA World Championship, held October 29 – November 3 in Perry, Georgia, McKenzie Morgan and In Firewaters Honor “H2” earned the 1D World Championship. “I was definitely wearing my lucky red shirt,” Morgan said with a laugh. “I’ve had that thing since I was 10 or 12. Some say I need to retire it, but I love the shirt and it has brought me lots of luck.” The 16 year old also won the NBHA Youth World Championship earlier this year for the second time, so she and her 12 year old palomino have a lot of confidence running at the Georgia National Fairgrounds and Agricenter. They won the Sweepstakes with a time of 14.783 seconds to collect $2,185. They also won the Open 1st round with the fastest time of the week, 14.579 which was worth $2,353. Since that run qualified them to the Open Finals, she had the option to scratch for the 2nd round. “We thought long and hard about running him in the second round, but decided not to. Being there a week is just hard on them sometimes, and I wanted to let him rest up for the finals,” Morgan explained. She also said, “Trying to get four clean runs is kind of hard to do on him too.”

As Morgan has gained experience in pressure situations, she’s learned to approach each run the exact same – like it’s just another barrel race. “I wish I would’ve had that mindset when I was younger,” she admitted. “Chuck Fletcher helps me a lot and keeps me very calm and collected. He always tells before I go in the gate to do good and not fall off. It’s kind of a joke we have and it makes me laugh,” she added.

The excitement built during the Open Finals because of the clean slate format for the 242 qualified runners. Morgan and H2 shut the clock off in their typical style with 14.581 seconds to take the lead, which would end up holding for the win worth $4,706, lots of prizes, and of course, the World Championship title. “My brother, my boyfriend, and Chuck were the first ones to me. My grandma got to come and my little cousins. They were all so excited,” Morgan said. She added, “It’s fun when you have all your family there with and exciting things like that happen.”

What made the prestigious win even better was the $10,000 bonus she was awarded thanks to The Adequan 2D Challenge. They also presented a $10,000 bonus to the 2D NBHA World Champion, Kurt Sears, who rode Kaycrosschance to a time of 15.09. “That’s phenomenal that we can go to a barrel race where H won about $20,000. I don’t think I’ve ever been to a barrel race where I’ve won that much money. I’m super thankful they did that – that’s crazy money, and it really hasn’t set in yet,” Morgan said.

H2, who loves sweet tea and warm French fries, has proven to be a miracle super-horse – he survived a bad wreck on the way to The American where he was trapped upside down for hours, to a battle with colic where the vet recommended putting him down and gave him only a 5% chance to live. “I’m just super thankful for every time I get to run him because we’ve had so many scares with him. He’s definitely my heart horse and my once in a lifetime. It’s been a wild ride with him for sure, and I’m so glad to still have him here,” Morgan said sincerely about the palomino gelding her family bred and raised.

This December, they’ll head to Las Vegas for the Jr NFR. “I was kind of sweating how we were going to get to Vegas, but like my grandpa always said, ‘God will provide’ and He definitely did,” Morgan said. And after their big payday at the NBHA Open World Championships, she decided to enter the All In Barrel Race, which also takes place in Las Vegas. “I’m kind of tight when it comes to money,” she said laughing. “It’s because we work hard for it. I’m super thankful for H – if it weren’t for him, I wouldn’t get to go the places I get to go to. My other horses work good and try really hard for me, but he’s my superstar and pays my way.”

It was all obviously meant to be, because her trip to the NBHA World Championships came about after what seemed like a disappointment at the time, but turned out to be a blessing. “I was running at the SRA rodeos and trying to make their finals, and I ended up being one out of qualifying. It was something that I had set a goal for, but like I said, God always provides even if it’s in a different way and I’m thankful now that we ended up at the NBHA Open World,” she explained.

Morgan also wanted to express her gratitude for those who are part of her barrel racing journey, “I’m thankful for my sponsors and everything they’ve done for me and continue to do for me. And I’m thankful for my parents – they do everything they can to make my dreams come true.”

Congratulations to Morgan, Sears, and all the NBHA Open World Champions including: 3D – Joyce Hanes and Marry Me Fame, 4D – Robyn Cook and My Four Oh One Kay, and 5D – Wynter Eddy and Okie Runnin Cinch.

In the Senior, which is for contestants 50 years old and older, Edwin Cameron won the 1st round 1D on Born Ta Fame with 14.635 and the 2nd round 1D on Hoosier Fame with 14.684. Anita Randle on Eysa Topaz won the Senior Finals 1D with a time of 14.794. Cameron also won the 1D in the Super Senior, which is for contestants 70 years old and older, on Born Ta Fame with 15.091 seconds.

Fallon Taylor & Flos Heiress Add AQHA Senior Barrel Racing World Championship to Resume

By Tanya Randall

Fallon Taylor of Collinsville, Texas, and her homebred mare Flos Heiress ("Babyflo") became just the third WPRA World Champions to win a coveted AQHA Barrel Racing World Championship with their victory in the Senior Barrel Racing at the World Show in Oklahoma City.

They join World Champions Mary Burger and Rare Fred and Martha Josey and Sonny Bit O Both with the rare honor. Josey and Sonny Bit O Both were the only ones to win their AQHA and WPRA titles in the same year. Burger and Rare Fred missed it by one—winning their fourth AQHA World title in 2005 and the WPRA World in 2006 after finishing reserve at the World Show.

"My goal for the last three years has been to make it to the World Show and come home with a globe of some color," said Taylor, who won the 2014 WPRA World Championship with Babyflo. "I have dedicated 900 days of my time to this particular goal. Not a lot of horses have won a WPRA World Championship and an AQHA World Championship. That was my focus. She's won a lot for my family and it was something that I didn't want to go her whole career without giving her a really good shot at trying to win. We finally got it done, and I was really excited."

The victory also served as a birthday present for her mother Dian, who attended the event with Taylor's dad Shelton. Dian is listed as the breeder on the 12-year-old daughter of two-time WPRA World Championship Sire Dr Nick Bar out of Taylor's first NFR mount Flowers And Money, On The Money Red.

Taylor and Babyflo qualified for the Senior Barrel Racing Finals after finishing fourth with a 16.092. They picked up the pace in the Finals with a 15.833 turned in last on the ground.

"She was great," said Taylor, who was competing in just her second World Show. "I know that there were places that she could have been faster, but I also know there were other people who thought the same things about their runs. But, on that day, I feel like she handled it very, very good and gave me the best run that she could. Some days that means an AQHA World title. Other days it means we're just out of placing. We're just really happy with how it turned out."

Taylor has cutback on Babyflo's performance career, saving her for the premier events, while she starts campaigning the mare's offspring.

"I want to go to a lot of rodeos and season the next generation," said Taylor. She'll be riding a 4-year-old daughter of Babyflo—Lotodaflo ("Lolo" or "Babylo"), Blazin Jetolena, whom Taylor calls Babyflo's clone. "Babyflo has won enough to not go to smaller things anymore. I don't want to see her have to run in really adverse situations. I feel like it's the time in her career that she doesn't need to make a lot of runs for no reason. So, we're going to the bigger stuff with Babyflo and having new experiences with Babylo."

She also has more offspring of Babyflo coming along including a Slick By Design and Shawne Bug Leo.

"We've kind of focused on stuff that really gets my parents excited and behind the pedigrees. We're loving the bloodlines that have strong ties to the horses that we were successful with in the 90s. Like we're loving Shawne Bug Leo because of the success we had with Shawne Bugs."

Taylor's goal for next year is to have both Babyflo and Babylo

Sarah Zaleski & WindowDownAndCruisin Crowned AQHA Jr Barrel Racing Champs

By Tanya Randall

Sarah Zaleski of Tuttle, Oklahoma, and her 5-year-old gelding WindowDownAndCruisin ("Cruiser") took home the AQHA golden globe in the $8,835 Junior Barrel Racing at the World Show in Oklahoma City.

"It was a big surprise. I'm super grateful and blessed. It's been a long time. It's been 17 years since I won that," said Zaleski, who won the 2001 AQHA Senior Barrel Racing World Championship on Hot Rods RBI in 2001.

The duo had the fourth-fastest time, a 16.433, to qualify for the Junior Finals.

"If he's going to do anything (wrong), every once and while, he'll get by the first barrel," she noted. "He got a little deep behind the first barrel. I was cautious around that second barrel. I put an inside leg in him to make sure I left it standing. Other than that, it felt pretty smooth and pretty solid. I felt like I was cautious because I was making sure I left those barrels standing."

In the Finals, Zaleski and Cruiser's 15.917 just edged the 15.922 of Pete Oen and Valarie Smith-Rebholtz's SR Moonshine OnRocks for the championship.

"He was Johnny on (the spot at) that first barrel," said Zaleski. "He wrapped his second and third. His run was super nice. 'I didn't even know I had won! I thought it was on the average. People were saying 'Congratulations,' and I didn't really understand that!"

Bred by David and Rebecca Lowry of Wellington, Missouri, Cruiser is a full brother to Hall Of Famer, a multiple futurity finalist trained by Zaleski and now ridden by Ivy Hurst. Both horses are by Dash Ta Fame out of the Streakin Six mare Kels Sixieme Jeter.

Zaleski purchased Cruiser as a late yearling or early 2-year-old.

"Not broke," she chuckled. "Backed the trailer up to the round-pen and shushed him out!"

Zaleski knew she had the potential for a good one on her hands when Cruiser kept getting hurt. "He's tough. I sent him off to be broke and somehow in a 12 x 12 stall, he broke his jaw. Brought him home, and in 2015, a tornado came through my house. He had chips in his hocks and had to have surgery to remove those. I figured he was going to be a good because he kept getting hurt!"

Cruiser did alright as a 4-year-old futurity horse, Zaleski said.

"He kind of got to running through me a little at the first of the year, so I sent him to Cody Bauserman," she explained. "He ran him April and May. I got him back after Fort Smith and went to the local stuff."

Cruiser has proven he can run with the top aged event horses, making the finals at the Old Fort Days Futurity, BFA Futurity and Championship Round of the JB Quarter Horses Futurity, but sometimes tipped barrels have kept them out of the money.

"He's really turny, really bendy and sometimes it's hard to get his hips by them," she said. "He just really comes back hard."

rodeo. It's a really cool thing to be able stay closer to home and really enjoy this sport and have to chance to run at a Finals that gives such amazing prizes with such a professional staff. It's nice to not have to go to 90 events to be able to go a Finals. I'm very grateful it exits."

"All in all, he's been pretty decent. I love his style. Him and Hall Of Famer kind of sit in the backend, rock their hips and get round and bendy. I love that style. That's why I bought him.

Zaleski, who is a computer specialist for FAA working with their applications for tracking aircraft, said she'll probably rodeo on Cruiser a little more and finish out his derby career next year.

A cradle cowgirl, Zaleski grew up in a rodeo family. Although her brother didn't stay hooked, she and her two sisters—Carol Waters and Barb Zaleski—all still compete.

"We all have horses. We all barrel race. We all breed and raise some," noted Zaleski. In fact, Water's good horse Speedin For Cash is by Zaleski's stud Got Caught Speeding, a son of Dash Ta Fame out of the Lanes Leinster mare Speedy Petitti. Got Caught Speeding is a half-brother to multiple arena record holder and 2018 Old Fort Days Derby Champion A Cornerstone, owned by the late Sarah Attea Griffin and ridden by Brandon Cullins.

"I have a really small place, and Carol had a mare. I said why don't we breed her? She's the only one that has babies out there. She's allowing me to ride her 3-year-old in the Super Stakes and Juvenile. I'm excited because I finally get to run a Got Caught Speeding baby, but I get to run him and then give him back! I still have to wait on mine. I have five yearlings by him, so I have quite a few years to wait until I get to run one of my own. They're super smart, super laid back, very easy to train. Just halter-breaking my babies, they're so easy. They're 'Oh, OK. Whatever.' It's kind of neat. I'm very excited about them."

Zaleski also has some frozen semen that she collected from Cruiser before he was gelded.

"I'm hoping to breed him a little bit next year, on one or two mares," she noted.

Triangle Sales Fall Sale Roundup

The 39th Triangle Fall Sale which was held October 26 & 27, 2018, at the Heart Of Oklahoma Expo Center in Shawnee, Oklahoma had a total 545 horses cataloged. The overall high seller and the highest selling barrel horse was a gorgeous 2017 gray filly, Hip 232 – Bar B Fame N Bling. The yearling filly, who is by Frenchmans Guy and out of the Dash Ta Fame mare, Miss Mitos Whiskey, was consigned by Bar B Ranch of Lufkin, Texas, and purchased for $40,000 by Ray Hill of Kirbyville, Texas. “Overall the entire performance horse business is strong”, said Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Sales. He continued “Our theory with barrel horses is this: we’ve pushed and promoted the yearling market, which is different from other sale venues. I believe that is the future...as you can’t expect all breeders to breed, raise and train them. That is just too much for a breeder in any industry to do.” In an effort to encourage the yearling barrel horse market, Ware believes the cycle needs to start over sooner, so Triangle Sales rewards three year olds by offering the John Read Foster Challenge incentive, and plans are in place to continue to make it bigger. The John Read Foster yearling prospects averaged $7,800. Another high-selling barrel horse yearling was Hip 237 – Frenchie Bug. The 2017 sorrel filly by BHR Frenchies Socks and out of the Blazin Jetolena mare, Ms Blazen Bug, was consigned by Vaughan & Mary Watkins, Madison, Mississippi, and purchased for $15,000 by Myra Deen, Tennyson, Texas.

The barrel horses in all categories averaged $5,300. Hip 192 – Feature For You, a 2004 bay mare by Feature Mr Jess and in foal to Eddie Stinson, was consigned by Ware Racing & Ranching LLC, Millsap, Texas, and sold to Denis Winn, Agent, of Shawnee, Oklahoma, for $17,500. Four supplemental embryos by Dash Ta Fame averaged $12,150. “It’s like in any other discipline right now, the market is pretty sire-sensitive,” Ware commented.

The JB Quarter Horse Dispersal, from the South Texas ranch, averaged $4,300. The high selling JB Quarter Horse was Hip 166 – Ms Bay Dillon. The 2005 bay mare by Confederate Leader, in foal to MrJbfirstandfamous, sold for $16,000 to Mary Helen Lett, Brooklyn, Mississippi. Hip 222 – Mr Jb Im Famous Too, a 2012 sorrel gelding by Dash Ta Fame and out of the Fire Water Flit mare, Miss Jb 055, was purchased by Brett Clark of Grand Saline, Texas, for $13,000.

Among the horses at the Triangle Fall Sale, there were also cutting horses, reining horses, Shawnee horses (ranchers, riders, and ropers), and paints. The high selling cutting horse was Hip 135 – Mamas Royal Smoothie, a 2013 sorrel gelding by Smooth As A Cat, who was sold by John Mancuso, Plantersville, Texas for $29,700 to Wade Ray of Groveton, Texas. For the cutting horses, the trained horses under saddle averaged $12,960 and the overall cutting horse category average was $10,080. The high selling reining horse was Hip 277-Maximus De Oro, a 2011 palomino gelding by Boon San O Lena, consigned by Mozaun & Sarah McKibben, Whitesboro, Texas, and sold to Chris Ulrich of Cuero, Texas, for $36,200. The trained reining horses under saddle averaged $14,320 and the average for all reining horses was $10,040. For the Shawnee Horses which included ranchers, riders, and ropers, the high seller was Hip 430-Captain Cat, a 2010 sorrel stallion by High Brow Cat, sold by Matt and Wendee Wood, Purcell, Oklahoma and bought by the Danny Hern Family of Abilene, Kansas, for $29,000. The Shawnee Horses average for trained horses under saddle was $7,150 and the overall average was $4,200. The high selling Paint was Hip 294-Mark This Rocinante, a 2007 bay/tobiano gelding by Mark This Spot, consigned by Mozaun and Sarah McKibben and sold for $33,000 to Mark Teel, Wilson, Oklahoma.

In summary, buyers were from 30 states and Mexico; 81 percent completed sales; 53 horses entered the Triangle Sales Top $10,000 Club for 2018 and all geldings under saddle averaged $9,800. “The overall sale was really, really good,” Ware said. “When you sell as many as we do and as many types of horses as we do, it’s easy to realize we had another Fall Sale with a really strong average.” Those averages include: total average $5,900, Top 10 average $25,900, Top 20 average $20,800, Top 50 average $15,500, and Top 100 average $12,050.

The next Triangle Sale will be January 25 & 26, at the Heart Of Oklahoma Expo Center in Shawnee, Oklahoma. The deadline for entry is December 7, and the nomination form is posted for download on www.trihorse.com.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Dear friends, it is our job as ambassadors for Christ, to be an example of His great love to those around us. How are you doing? How am I doing? I can tell you that, for me, loving Jesus is the easiest thing I've ever done. Loving people, not so much. And I'm the pastors' wife! Why is the love walk hard for us? I'm beginning to know that we all judge others on what they DO and ourselves on our good INTENTIONS!

The old "speck in our brother's eye and the board in ours" account in the Bible. Read Matthew 7:1-5. When we do that, God calls us hypocrites. Krikey!!

How many times have you had someone tell you that they don't go to church because it's full of hypocrites? If that's true, and it is, there is plenty of room for them! Let's just slide our little bottoms over and have them set with us. This week I read this statement, "You have to be smaller than a hypocrite to hide behind one."

Personally, I don't want to be a hypocrite. I want to take the high road in every circumstance. I want to walk in love with everyone. Am I successful? Not always. But if I shoot for 100 %, I'm more apt to reach it then if I don't try at all.

Let's go for the "do what's right, because it's right and do it right" goal. This week you may have to walk in love with someone who can be difficult...ME! LOL! Blessings on you!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
