Lynette Brodoway & SR Boots On Fire Capture First Canadian Barrel Racing Championship

By Tanya Randall

Season standings leader Lynette Brodoway held off all challengers at the 49th Canadian Finals Rodeo, held November 1-5 in Red Deer, Alberta, to claim her first Canadian Championship.

"I've been trying for this since 2016 on three different horses," said the 62-year-old from Brooks, Alberta. "It felt amazing and very rewarding. When you work that hard for something, and at my age...I'm just grateful, very grateful."

Brodoway and her 9-year-old gelding SR Boots On Fire ("Cowboy") and their $19,329 lead for the title dropped to $200 through the CFR. They started out placing third in the first round, but the dark, narrow alley and noise was unsettling Cowboy.

"I had a bad run the second go," she admitted. Their 14.13 finished out of the money. "He had a bad first barrel on me, but he got really bothered about going in and kind of got away from me, so I put his ear plugs in for the last four go's."

She also used the early morning practice time to focus on the alley.

"He gets strong in the alley, so I focus on the alley and keeping him calm," she said. "As far as the barrels, I might walk and trot him through, but he knows his job."

They came back to place fourth in the third round but tipped a costly barrel in the fourth round.

"He was just working," she said of the fallen can. "If he'd been an inch over that wouldn't have happened."

Meanwhile, defending champion Taylor Manning and Blake Molle were gaining ground in the aggregate. Brodoway had been

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Carlotta Weerstra sees Cowboy every Monday or Tuesday following a weekend of runs. "She is really what's behind his soundness," Brodoway said. "I did all of that last year with one horse. When I talk about this, I don't really believe it. It's just unreal. He is as sound as he was going into this, but that took a really good team. I have a really good vet and farrier as well. But Carlotta, herself, works on him every Monday or Tuesday after he's run. She knows his tissues and when there's big changes in that we know the farrier needs to do something or we need to go to the vet. We try to stay ahead of lameness. We don't deal with soreness after, we try to stay ahead of it. The way I do that is through her. That's what allowed me to do what I did last year on one horse."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: Based on Weerstra's findings and what Brodoway believes he needs. "We focus his conditioning around his muscles," Brodoway said. "If his glutes feel a little soft, I'll do hill work. If his air isn't as strong as it should be, I'm going to breeze him. My exercise is built around what's going on with him physically as well. It varies with what he needs, but he for sure gets rode five out of the seven days, minimum. We try to target areas that may show as being a little weak. We do exercises to target those areas. When we're really trying to get him fit, we've got a hill and I'll zig zag it. I'll trot up it; I'll back up it. . . whatever his muscle tissue is telling us he needs; we develop around that. It's pretty cool. I do head on him behind a sled. He loves that. I have a cutting flag, and if we really want to build some muscle up behind or get him really underneath himself, I'll work that flag as well. He is the kind of horse that can get bored really easily, so he likes all of that. I try to do as much of it out of the arena as possible during the week."

THANK YOU: "Ken, he drove me around a lot this year; My family for all their support—They're the ones that see you through the highs and lows of rodeo; My brother Dwight helped me a lot with my mental game. All my friends that cheer us on nonstop and Cowboy's team and my sponsors."

in this position before in 2016—her first of her six CFR qualifications—when a tipped barrel ceded the title to Justine Elliot.

A third place finish in the fifth round set the stage for Saturday's night showdown in the final go.

"I knew Saturday night that I had to lay down a good run," she said. "The girls behind me, for whatever reason, hit barrels, so that cinched it for me."

Brodoway and Cowboy turned in their best run of the Finals, taking second to eventual CFR Champion Karlie Cowie and her mare Queen Flingtima.

They finished third in the aggregate for total CFR earnings of $25,016 and a championship total of $72,831.

Cowboy was her mount for every single penny. He won checks at 28 of 42 rodeos this season.

"He was just super consistent," she said.

Brodoway had purchased the gelding as a weanling from his breeders Douglas and Carol Schaffer of Sandy Ridge Stallion Station in Bassano, Alberta. Cowboy is by Root Beer Boots out of JDS Wind River, by Sun Wind And Fire, a son of Zevi (IB).

The Schaffers had actually sent Root Beer Boots, a multiple reining futurity winner, to Brodoway for barrel training following his show career.

"I took him with me to Arizona and was running mid to high 17s (on a WPRA Standard) with very little training," she said. "He just had so much desire to work, so much desire to win, but he was a little short in the speed department. I called them and told them, 'Breed him to the fastest mare you've got.'"

That resulted in Brodoway's first CFR qualifier SR Root Sixty Six ("Freeway"). Her second CFR qualifier was SR Effort InMy Boots ("Rocket"). Cowboy is the third Root Beers Boots to take her to the CFR.

Cowboy actually made his rodeo debut at the 2021 Calgary Stampede. Now, she'll be making her third trip to the historic rodeo in 2024.

"The first year I went, Cowboy hadn't even been to a rodeo because of COVID," she said. "That was his first rodeo at Calgary. The second time I went to Calgary was the year Kassie (Mowry) won it in 2022. It was a lot for him. The stands were full that year. He was a little fractious after that. I'm hopeful that he's more seasoned now and he'll handle that better."

Brodoway, who actually grew up team roping—her brother is three-time Canadian Champion Heeler Dwight Wigemyr, started her barrel racing career by retraining her head horses. Later, when she and husband Ken started their family, she opted to train futurity horses because it kept her closer to home more often than rodeo.

"I enjoy training," she said. "I just train for myself. I'll have two futurity horses for next year, two derby horses, so I'll have a pretty full year."

She also plans on making the 50th CFR, which will be back in Edmonton, Alberta, next year. But for now, Cowboy is getting a well-deserved break as Brodoway opted out of entering the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals.

"I didn't know this was going to happen this way, but when entries opened three weeks ago, I really felt that Cowboy had enough, so I didn't enter," she said. "I'm really glad I did it that way. I wore the No. 1 back number. We made the most amount of money (during the regular season) and usually that's held by someone in the all-around because they're working two events. I won the Pro Tour series. He was Horse With The Most Heart, and he won the (championship). That was enough. One horse did all of that in one year! I'm so glad I made that decision. He's turned out and he'll be turned out probably 'til the New Year. It's well deserved."

Keeping It Clean -- Karli Cowie & Queen Flingtima Win Canadian Finals Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Karli Cowie and her gritty mare Queen Flingtima ("Fling") had an amazing first year on the professional circuit, winning the coveted Canadian Finals Rodeo Championship for making six swift, clean runs at the Red Deer, Alberta, event, held November 1-5.

"It went amazing!" said Cowie. "I was never expecting that! Six clean runs in that arena...there were only two of us that got around them all six rounds. I'm really happy to be in that group!"

The Mankota, Saskatchewan, barrel racer pocketed $40,336 for the average championship and finished second in the Canadian Standings with $59,476 won on the year. She was also Canadian Rodeo's Rookie of the Year in barrel racing.

"My goal going into the weekend was that I wanted to win a go-round buckle," said Cowie. "I took two belts, and one was for a go-round buckle. Never did I dream that I would come home with the average buckle too! It's amazing!"

Cowie and Fling placed in all but the first round and won their go-round buckle in the sixth and final round.

"All I wanted to do was keep the barrels up," Cowie said of her final run. "I knew as long as I kept the barrels up that she'd be fast enough, and we ended up winning the round."

Cowie used early morning practice to keep Fling working great. "She's very honest, but I made sure I got up every morning and went to practice," she said. "I just worked her slowly to bring her back down and relax her. I think that helped a lot to keep her honest and confident, keep her relaxed in the alley."

During her slow work, Cowie focused on keeping Fling using her hind end correctly.

"What I did in morning practice with Fling, especially the last in line with the barrel and back her up with her hip in to make sure I kept her on her hind end. I knew as long as she stayed on her hind end, she would not hit a barrel,” she explained.

Cowie couldn't have been happier with her young mare, who really didn't have a whole lot of experience prior to the start of the season.

“I've had her since 2021,” she explained. “I bought her as a 4-year-old, but had some health issues with her, so I didn't get to make my first run on her until last fall. I've only been riding her for just over a year.”

Bred by Lisa Fulton, Fling is by $9.2 million dollar sire A Streak Of Fling out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Queen Fa Tima. Krystal Grad had taken Fling to a couple of futurities before Cowie purchased the mare from Cornelius and Maria Weibe in April 2021.

Fling had the rest of 2021 off and most of 2022 while she recovered from several surgeries to repair the displacing soft palate and epiglottic entrapment that was impairing her breathing. Cowie was finally able to start riding the mare again in August 2022.

They started their rodeo career together in the Canadian Cowboys Association that fall.

“Her very first rodeo was at Whitewood in September,” recalled Cowie. “I clipped a barrel to win third and she won her next rodeo. I took her to her first pro rodeo this winter in Yuma, Arizona, in February and she won a check there. I ran her at three pro rodeos when I was in Arizona this winter and she placed at all three.”

With her first pro card now in hand, Cowie started out at the Canadian pro rodeos this past spring.

“She started out good, but she's only 6 so we went through a seasoning phase, learning the ground at the rodeos and all that,” Cowie said. “June wasn't a good month for us. We hardly won anything. August and September were amazing. She placed at every single rodeo that I ran her at except for two of them.”

SUPPLEMENTS: Complete Equine Performance (CEP) supplements

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER twice daily for the CFR

CONDITIONING: I work her on the pattern or just a barrel quite a bit. I’ll do all rights and lefts. I’ll work her probably four days a week and exercise her the other two in the fields.

THANK YOU: “My vet Ty Corbiell, none of this would have been possible without him. He’s helped me out a lot the past couple of years with Fling, especially at the CFR. He looked her over every day and gave me the go ahead. It was really awesome that I had that peace of mind. Alliance Equine, one of my sponsors, jumped on right before the CFR. They have really awesome support boots, bell boots and blankets. My family—they’ve all helped me out so much. My parents are so supportive. They came to the CFR and cheered me on all week. I think they had as much fun as I did. I’ve got to give a shoutout to Rene LeClercq. She’s my good friend, and when I thought I needed a back up for the CFR, she was the first person I called. She pulled her good horse back up out of the pasture and started riding her again. I’m glad I didn’t have to get on her, but I had a pretty awesome backup if I needed it.”

The turning point was the Royal Crown Race in Rock Springs, Wyoming, in early August.

"We did really well there," Cowie said. "I won about $25,000. I came home after that and it was just crazy, like a switch had been flipped. All of a sudden, she was a rodeo horse. I ran at 14 rodeos after that and placed at 12, one of them I tipped a barrel to win it." Cowie, who splits her time between training horses and working at her family's businesses, didn't grow up in a rodeo family.

"My mom grew up with horses, but never rodeoed," she said. "They just had them on the ranch to use. When I was younger, I just fell in love with horses and wanted to ride. I started riding and then I wanted to barrel race and never quit. I was probably 11 or 12 when I started going. I started going to the high school rodeos and then the amateur rodeos and here we are now!"

Seaton and Bean Both Have First-Time Wins At Turquoise Circuit Finals

By Britany Diaz

The Turquoise Circuit Finals was held on November 3-4 at Camp Verde, AZ. The two cowgirls that came out on top, will be making their inaugural NFR Open appearances in July at Colorado Springs, CO.

Madison Bean placed second in the first go-round, third in the second go-round and made a smooth run in the final round, completing the cloverleaf pattern faster than any other cowgirl in three runs with a combined time of 52.65 seconds. Bean's consistency won her the Turquoise Circuit Average Championship title and added $5,601 to her year-end winnings.

Tara Seaton, from Dilkon, AZ, placed fourth in the first go-round, won the second go-round, and tied for fourth in the final go-round, finishing tied for second in the average with Sabrina Ketchum with a time of 52.85 seconds. Seaton added $4,711 to her earnings, securing her the year-end championship title of the Turquoise Circuit. Both Seaton and Bean have never won an average or year-end circuit title, which adds to the excitement.

Seaton's horse, Zoomin Hi Hand, better known as Wag Rez-Rocket, Wag for short, is an 8-year-old gelding. Seaton shared, "I've never won the circuit year-end title and it has been my goal for two years. This is my first qualification for the NFR Open and I am looking forward to competing at that rodeo!"

The season is long, but Seaton knows how to keep her horse winning.

"When I got Wag in November 2022, he wasn't as fit or as healthy as I like my horses to be. He was 150 pounds underweight and hardly had any muscle. I started him on a hefty feeding program, consisting of 24/7 access to alfalfa hay. I added Bluebonnet Intensify Omega Force Feed and Complete Equine Performance supplements to his diet as well. I started him on a workout program in the sand dune hills by my home. We have a 30 minute workout program we do three days a week, consisting of climbing up and down hills at either a walk, trot or lope. It took three months for me to get him to where I felt he was ready to run barrels. Soon after, I did slow barrel work two times a week for about a month to tune him up before our first jackpot. He did awesome our first competition run and won the 2D out of over 300 entries! I kept up with my feed and workout program and he just kept getting stronger and faster. Kingman, AZ was our first pro rodeo, and he won it! This summer was meant to be our seasoning year, but he excelled fast. I truly believe the time I took to ensure he was healthy and fit is what helped him excel this summer."

Bean from Clint, TX, rode two horses to help qualify her for this year's Turquoise Circuit Finals. Throughout the summer she rode, Famous Georges Speed, known as George, raised and trained by Jana Bean. At the finals, she chose her 8-year-old gelding, Mountain Moon Flash, better known as Moon. Bean has owned Moon for a year after purchasing him from Ivy Hurst. Bean shared how she made her decision, "Moon is off of the track. He was raised in that Arizona dirt. When I got there and seen the setup and the ground, I knew he would love it. He loved Prescott, which was similar. He is big and stout. He is so easy, he just goes in there and works. I am a pretty light-handed rider, so I let him go in there and find his first, then sit there and kick. For as big as Moon is, he is a super shy horse. He is so sweet and a gentle giant. Since day one, he has been amazing. The first week I got him, I took him to a Texas college rodeo and he won the short go and won me the all-around trailer.

We just clicked."

Bean finished her first year to ever really make a run at the circuit finals with success. "This was my first year to qualify for the circuit finals. I went to 17 rodeos total. Last year when I started I only had George. He was ready to go, just not seasoned. I took him to Scottsdale and we had a weird run. He stumbled and slipped but still ended up clocking. He also won Monte Vista, CO. From there, him and Moon just teamed up amazing." Bean explains her circuit finals experience, "I didn't know what to expect. I am still pretty shocked by it, because there are all those girls that have been doing this forever and they have tough horses. I was very blessed and this is exciting. It has been a rough year on me and my family, so this is all God's timing and God's plan for this to happen. Moon did it all for me. This experience was all a blessing." It will be fun to watch both of these first-time NFR Open qualifiers in July in Colorado Springs!

Abby Phillips & Savannah Bennett Split Wilderness Circuit Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sue Smith dominated the circuit with an insurmountable $51,719 going into the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 3-4 in Heber City, Utah. Yet, it was a pair of upstart first-time qualifiers who ended up dueling for the aggregate title.

Savannah Bennett and Abby Phillips made the most of their first appearance at the WCFR by splitting the aggregate. Bennett, a former Salmon, Idaho, resident, now living in Corvallis, Montana, pocketed $5,277, while Phillips, who hails from Marshall in deep northeast Texas, collected $4,707 for their identical times of 46.78 on three runs.

"It was a surreal experience," said Bennett. "I didn't grow up in a rodeo family, so I wasn't going to things like the circuit finals or the NFR. I wasn't raised doing that, so I had to figure out how to get there all on my own. So being there was a little bit of a surreal experience. It was a dream and goal that I chased for years. Now I can move on to my next goal in life."

Bennett rode two horses to take the title: Hez A Cool Breeze ("Leo Leo") and Fabulous JJ, both horses were bred by Bill & Cheryl Kennedy, although Leo now belongs to Bennett. She ran Leo in the first round and then ran JJ during the matinee performance on Saturday. Leo got the victory in the final round that Saturday night.

"The first round, they had a TV schedule for us that said we'd run about 9 o'clock and we actually ran about 10," Bennett explained. "I'd been sitting around on my horse for about an hour because they got so far behind. The first round I think Leo was a little tired and not quite on his game. The next round I ran JJ because I figured she'd like that setup. She ran solid and consistent like she always does. She's a pretty easy mare and always does the same thing. I came back in the last round and ran Leo and he made more of his normal run."

Bennett was so happy to be at the circuit finals—her first—that she wasn't even keeping up with the standings to know how she was doing.

"I was so unbelievably happy and grateful to be there," she said. "All those girls are so awesome. They're all tough and ride really great horses. They're all cowgirls and really great people. It was such a big deal for me to be there and compete against girls of that caliber. It was just really cool."

Bennett wanted to thank the Kennedys for her horsepower. She purchased Leo, now 9, from the Colorado couple when the gelding was 4. The Dash Ta Fame gelding, out of Ought To Be Breeze, by Ought To Be First, was a late bloomer and too immature for the futurities as a 4-year-old.

"He needed time to grow up. He wasn't mature enough to handle the futurities," she explained. "I rode him for quite a while, just doing quiet stuff like moving cows. I just eased him back into running."

The Kennedys sent her JJ, a 6-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Fabulous out of the Dash Ta Fame mare J Quick Fame, about a year ago to rodeo season. She also rode the multiple aged event champion Tinys Stormy Weather to win the first rodeo of the season before the mare went back to the Kennedy's.

She said having the opportunity to ride the caliber of horses that the Kennedys' have raised has really stepped up her game as a horsewoman.

"Bill Kennedy gave me the opportunity to own Leo, and about three years ago, he gave me the opportunity to ride some of his finished horses,” she said. “I think that really pushed me from being a barrel racer to going to the pro rodeo level. Learning to be that fast and riding that caliber of horses is what’s really pushed me and taught me.”

Moving forward, Bennett would like to make the circuit finals again as well as rodeo a little bit more in hopes of making the cut for the building rodeos in 2025.

Abby Phillips is hoping she has the horsepower now to do the same. After tragically losing her great horse Crown Ta Fame, Phillips almost called it quits, but she was in for a huge surprise when her problem child VF Expensive Taste (“Andi Anderson”) qualified her for the WCFR in her first summer of rodeo competition.

“She’s got a big personality,” said Phillips, who named the mare after the female lead in the movie “How To Lose A Guy in 10 Days.” “She’s probably tested me more than any colt or horse that I’ve ever trained. For her to be the one that’s made it this far has been super exciting for all of us. It’s been a little bit of a shock because we had such a rocky training period together.”

Phillips’ parents had purchased Andi as a 2-year-old while she was gone for the summer rodeoing. Initially, she wasn’t impressed with their purchase of the Victory Farms’ bred daughter of Eddie Stinson, out of Expensive Crystal, by Southern Cartel, and rightly so. The green filly had a habit of running off when she was scared or confused, which was a serious problem when she didn’t understand how to stop.

“She just was a lot of horse,” said Phillips. “I knew what she was capable of, even when she was younger. You just have to make her think everything is her idea. Now that she’s 6, I can’t believe how solid she is. In a way it doesn’t surprise me because once she learns something she’s got it. It’s really hard to teach her something because she’s very opinionated but once she’s got it, you never have to show her again. She’s been awesome.”

Her friend, Kellie Jorgensen had convinced her to designate the Wilderness as her circuit, and rodeoing with her from her Malad, Idaho, home proved to be the best thing for Andi.

“I went to 24 rodeos this summer, just enough to get my circuit count, which was perfect for her,” Phillips said. “She’s young and a little on the hotter side. She’s never rodeoed so it’s a whole new world for her. I feel like it was the perfect way to bring her along. She got to experience the chaos, but she also had a home base to go back to. We got to go to really good rodeos two to three hours from her house and then come home.”

Although she didn’t do much at the few futurities and derbies she went to, Andi took to rodeos. “When she hit the rodeo world this summer, she took it by storm,” she said. “She got her first pro check at her second rodeo. After she ran her first fast time on a Standard (Pattern), she never looked back.”

Megan Swint & ZingZing Its Talent Win NBHA Open World Championships

The 2023 NBHA Open & Senior World Championship held in Perry, GA from Oct 29-Nov 4 concluded with Megan Swint and her speedy bay, Zing Zing Its Talent, winning the Open 1D Championship. The NBHA World has been a cornerstone event in the barrel racing industry for many years with the 2023 event paying out over $440k+. Zing and Megan Swint won it the hard way qualifying to the Finals through the Redemption Round. We caught up with Swint to ask her about her hard fought win and her super fast bay gelding.

BRR: Can you walk us through winning run at the Xtreme Million Las Vegas?

Swint: Zing and I caught barely caught the first both goes so I decided to give it one more try in the redemption round, with some luck on our side we got around the barrels and won the round, I knew we belonged in the Finals we just had to get there the hard way. Coming into the finals, I knew we just had to be fast and clean to have a fair shot at it. So I tried my best to ride hard and stay out of his way.

BRR: The NBHA World is always tough event to win with the best in the world there, what was it like running in that environment?

Swint: It's definitely a super tough race with lots of talented horses and riders. I've always felt like when you're around good horses and great riders it pushes you to be the best you can be as well.

BRR: Can you share with us about your gelding; where your gelding came from and her career up to now?

Swint: I've had Zing A little over two years now. He came to me with some trust and confidence issues, I knew he had what it took to be winner he just lacked confidence. It took a while to really get him to trust me but once he did he started being the winner I knew he could be. Him and I get along really good but since he's stepped foot in my barn I have never let anyone set on his back but me. Sissy Novak and Brenda Raley trusted me to make him into the horse we all knew he could be.

BRR: What are a few things you did with him to have him at his best for the NBHA World Show?

Swint: With him it's just about keeping him healthy and happy. He doesn't require much barrel work anymore just riding and I always try and get him to Dr Ford before his runs to make sure nothing is bothering him.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about how you started barrel racing and your barrel racing career up to now?

Swint: I've been riding horses since before I could walk. I started in my teenage years riding project horses and fixing horses with issues. And it slowly turned into a business. I've always gotten along with the problem horses, and horses that people gave up on. So when they do start winning it just makes it that much more rewarding. I've been blessed to win the NBHA FL state show, several rodeos and slot races but have also wanted to have the NBHA world show on that list.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023 year?

Swint: I'm not much of a bigger planner. I like to take it weekend by weekend as long as he's healthy and happy we plan to hit as many big shows as we can. We have the slot race in December in the same pen as the world show and another slot race in Jackson so hoping to do good at those then decide what comes after that.

THE RUNDOWN w/Megan Swint

Zing Zing Its Talent (Zing) 15.3, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: Loomis

SADDLE: Martin Stingray (literally the only saddle he likes.)

SADDLE PAD: Farm Chic Saddlery pads

LEG GEAR: Ortho Equine splint boots

SHOEING: just regular steel shoes

FEED: Tribute Kalm Ultrap

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Core Nutrition Products, Gut X, Equinety and Tribute Oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: He loves his adjustments by Dr Ford. The Bemer blanket, Magna wave and Spectra lasers

CONDITIONING: We don't work barrels that much just lots of riding and keeping him in shape. He can be a little fresh so he doesn't get many days off! LOL

THANK YOU: All my friends and family definitely couldn't do the things I do without their support.

SPONSORS: K & N Equine Solutions, Farm Chic Boutique, Tribute Feed, Ortho Equine, Bradley Bits

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like that prior to entering the arena?

Swint: I honestly try not to think about it too much just tend to the horses and hope all the training pays off when it counts. I had ran the weekend before and didn't have a very good weekend so I told myself that it was because there bigger things around the corner; can't win them all

BRR: For the readers that have never been to the NBHA World

Show, can you tell us a little about the event & experience?

Swint: It's a great show, from the staff to the riders and horses there it's truly all of the best in the business.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Swint: My dogs, the support of all my friends and family and lots of spare tires! LOL

Beckstrom & MJ Swift Lane Maximize at Mini Million

This past weekend the Xtreme Las Vegas Mini-Million handed out over $300k. Gracie Beckstrom rode her family raised MJ Swift Lane to the big win in the Mini Million. The pair ran the fastest time of the event for a 15.115. We caught up with Gracie to talk to her about her big win and The Goodbye Lane, the $6.8 million barrel sire, that her family owns.

BRR: Can you walk us through winning run at the Xtreme Million Las Vegas?

Beckstrom: During my run on Sunday I was really only thinking about being clean and getting her by her barrels. Running to her first I was thinking to myself get above it and don't get in her way. Heading to the second I just pushed her hard up into it and kept her straight and she turned it great then up to her third I drove her past it and when she made the turn I knew it was clean and push her across the line. When they announced my time I was thrilled with hearing that not only was she winning the round but she had ran the fastest time of the week.

BRR: What is it like running at the Xtreme Las Vegas event?

Beckstrom: Running in The Las Vegas Xtreme event was a fun atmosphere and was ran by a great team. The Xtreme team always has great ground, great payouts, and great prizes.

BRR: Can you share with us about your mare; where your mare came from and her career up to now?

Beckstrom: My Grandma and Grandpa ( Mark and Linda Jarvis) raised her. My aunt Marcie trained her and futurityed her in 2022 as a 5 year old. After her futurity year I started riding her in January of 2023. We had some great runs earlier in the Year but Juanita really showed her talent this year when I took her to most of the rodeos this summer. She placed in her first pro rodeo and placed in many more after that. We went to the Pink Buckle where she won $18,500 Winning the 2nd round of the Non Pro, placing in the Derby 2nd round, Derby average, owner rider, and Round 2 of the open. She was the fast time of the weekend winning the Sweepstakes race at The Top Shelf and was the fast time of the week at the Xtreme Las Vegas event to win the Mini Million.

BRR: What are a few things you did with her to have her at her best for the Xtreme Million Las Vegas?

Beckstrom: Making sure she was in her best shape by riding her and tuning her on the barrel pattern. I also used the Bemer or Magna wave the week before leaving to help with the trip and any muscle soreness.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about how you started barrel racing and your barrel racing career up to now?

Beckstrom: My mom and her 3 sisters grew up running barrels and having horses so we grew up being around horses and riding. I started running barrels when I was 7 and haven't stopped since. I rode Tufs Flakey Jake when I was 7 then moved on to Stacy Glause's semi retired rodeo horse Wiley when I was 9. When I was 13, I moved onto a mare named Sassy that I ended up Jr High school rodeoing on. I rode Slingshot Lane my sophomore and junior year and moved onto CM Waitin On Lane my senior year (high school). I now ride CM Waitin on Lane and MJ Swift Lane.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023 year?

Beckstrom: I have a few barrel races and rodeos coming up that i'm planning on going to. Las Vegas prorodeo, Patriot Las Vegas, and some winter rodeos.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like that prior to entering the arena?

THANK YOU: Thank you to My Grandma and Grandpa, Mom and Dad, my aunt Marcie and my little sister Morgan.

SPONSORS: OE Nutraceuticals

Beckstrom: I just try to stay calm and listen to my horse. I like to keep my mind clear and only think about what I need to do in my run. I always tell my horses to turn tight and run fast before every run.

BRR: For the readers that don't know, your family owns The Goodbye Lane who sired your horse. Tell us about the experience of having The Goodbye Lane in the family,

Beckstrom: Having The Goodbye Lane in our family has been so exciting. It so fun to hear about all of his offspring and the success they are having. It's been fun training and riding his offspring and being able to do it with my family.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Beckstrom: I can't leave without a good vet box, the Bemer or Magna wave and OE Revive electrolyte.

WCRA CEAT Specialty Division Youth Showcase Champions Crowned

In Fort Worth's Cowtown Coliseum on Saturday evening, 12 youth rodeo athletes from around the country were crowned champions at the $55,000 WCRA CEAT Division Youth (DY) Showcase. Each Champion took home a minimum of $2,000.

The 2023-24 WCRA Division Youth (DY) Series annually features four CEAT Specialty WCRA Division Youth Showcase events. The Cowtown event capped off the 2023 edition, with the next stop in Guthrie, Oklahoma, during the WCRA Stampede at The E.

Mollie Jo Compton (Cleveland, Oklahoma) set the bar high for the pole-bending event, starting a day of lightning-fast runs. She found herself in a close competition with Rylie Edens (Hillsboro, Texas). Both ladies expertly navigated the course, but Compton's time of 20.863 pushed her to the top of the leaderboard and made her the event champion. Edens came in second place, trailing Compton by a little less than two seconds, with a time of 22.366.

Kashton Ford (Sturgis, South Dakota) delivered the only 80.0+ performance in the Bareback riding. The WCJR event champion found himself earning the highest-marked ride of the night, outscoring Payton Blackmon's (Andrews, Texas) and Triston Flinn's (Hico, Texas) 73.0 scores.

Sawyer Bell (Stamps, Arkansas) was unstoppable in steer wrestling. The No. 7 ranked athlete on the WCRA DY Leaderboard ran the only time under eight seconds, distancing himself from WCJR champion (Jasper, Texas) 8.09-second time.

A fiercely contested race in the goat tying began as 2023 WCJR (World Championship Junior Rodeo) All-Around Cowgirl Amy Ohrt (Victoria, Texas) and Tawni Kaye Shelton (Gonzales, Texas) tied for first place, both landing a remarkable 6.24-second time. Ohrt also captured the breakaway roping title, stopping the clock at 2.27, defeating Chloe Schoenberg's 2.57 seconds.

Jacob Stansbury (Santa Fe, Texas) stood out in the team roping. Bridger Ketcham (Yeso, New Mexico) and Stansbury delivered a 6.36-second run to win the top spot as one of only three team roping pairs to deliver a qualified run. Stansbury also earned the No. 2 spot after logging an 8.09 with Zane Starns at the heels.

As the Saturday matinee continued, Colt Bass (Statesville, North Carolina) and Jase Stout (Decatur, Texas) were the only riders who reached the required 8.0-seconds. Bass captured the event title and the accompanying $2,000 payday after an 81.5 score. 2023 WCRA DY World Champion Kyan Wilhite (Clovis, New Mexico) was the undeniable star of the tie-down roping after earning another WCRA under his belt courtesy of his 9.02 time. Wilhite came ahead of Bryce Ehlinger (Manvel, Texas) who ran a 10.39.

As the event continued, a hotly contested race in the barrel racing began. Savannah Sanders (Willis Point, Texas) and Laynee Massey (Willis Point, Texas) finished the event edging each other's times. Sanders navigated the course with ease sitting atop, BUGGING ME BABY, and ran the fastest time of the day with a 13.526-second time, edging out Massey's 13.728-second time. Jesus Villa Jr. was the only bull rider to earn a qualified time. The Texas athlete went home with $2,000, courtesy of his 72-point score.

Barrel Racing Results:

1 Savannah Sanders, 13.526, $2000; 2 Laynee Massey, 13.728, $1500; 3 Brylen Beicker, 13.756, $1,000; 4 Emily Askew, 13.846, $500

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I've been spending time learning more about the love walk... I need all the help I can get! I can go along for a while and do pretty good and then WHAM, someone gets in my way.

When I'm by myself, I don't even notice if I'm being a pickle. But Mary Lou was with me the other day and she hit me three times! Does it bother anyone else out there, when people sit through a light for 1 second too long???? LOL! It does me obviously! I honk. Just a little toot, not a long drawn out blast! She kept trying to forgive those people for their little delay in going, or turning with the green arrow... or NOT GOING WHEN THE LIGHT TURNS YELLOW! Three more of us could get through on yellow for pete's sake.

Well, you can see the problem here. But God. I was listening to a great message on the love walk and the pastor said, "When you come to church, or read your Bible, expect it to make a positive change in you.

In your thoughts, your BEHAVIOR, and your response. Let it take you to a higher level!" Sigh. Okay. I want to go to a higher level.

Examine your own heart. It may not be road rage, but is there something you could change that would take you up, up, up to a higher level in Him? It's the best place to be!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
