Championship Titles Shine on Taylor Manning & Bringin The Bling At Canadian Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Canadian teenager Taylor Manning and her precocious futurity horse Bringin The Bling raced their way to the Canadian Finals Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship and the title of Canadian Champion Barrel Racer.

"It feels amazing! It doesn't feel real to be honest," said the 18-year-old from Edson, Alberta.

Going into the CFR, held November 2-6 in Red Deer, Alberta, Manning didn't think she had a shot at the championship because Bayleigh Choate was so far ahead in the standings. She was third going in with $31,200, while Choate had $48,901.

Manning was also on a young horse.

"I didn't really expect it to work that way because she's a 5-year-old, it's a really big deal and she had six runs to make," admitted Manning. "She worked amazing. I couldn't ask her to do any better for me."

Manning and Bling got tapped off right, winning the first round with a 13.70. They placed in all but the sixth and final round, where they were two out of the money.

"I tried to stay away from it all in the beginning," she said. "On Saturday, I knew I needed to make good runs and keep my barrels up, and Bling worked amazing. After Saturday night, I knew I was leading the average and going in (to the Final Round) No. 1. I got really nervous."

Manning called the family's barrel racing mentor, Rayel Little, one of the all-time great Canadian Champions, for advice.

"We made a game plan of not to worry and whatever happens, happens," Manning recalled. Then during her Sunday run, Bling slipped and almost fell into a barrel. "It was intense!"

After making her last run, Manning went back to the warmup pen because she decided, "I didn't want to know until it was over." She learned that she won her titles while getting a hug from her mother, Shelly.

It was her mother's horse that took Manning to her first CFR. Manning was just 13 when she started going to the Canadian Pro Rodeos in 2017. She has made every CFR since.

Manning isn't the first in her family with a Canadian Championship. Her father, Jay, is the 1996 Canadian Champion Bull Rider, and twin brother, Tristen, is a Canadian champion too with titles in the Boys Steer Riding.

She has stellar mentors in Grant and Rayel Little as well. "We'd call them every morning when we went to go ride," Manning explained. "They'd help us decide what kind of work we were going to do just to get her ready for the next round. My mom has been my main teacher, but everything my mom learned was from Rayel. I wouldn't be anywhere with my horses without them."

Although she started the 2022 rodeo season aboard the Grant Little-bred gelding Just Moves Like Jagger, it was young Bling that did the heavy lifting.

Manning purchased Bling as a coming 3-year-old from her breeders Cody and Luann Johnson of Twisted J Ranch in Dublin, Texas. The Johnsons raised the daughter of Blings Smooth Guy, a son of the late A Smooth Guy out of the great mare Fame Fling N Bling, out of a Dr Nick Bar, Marthas Six Moons mare they also raised, Six Moons For Nick.

“a little pushy” at times.

“When I go to lead her, she just drags me around,” she said. “She’s a super confident mare. She loves the crowd, loves anything super loud. Nothing really scares her.”

Bling started her career a year ago in Oklahoma at the first futurities of the 2022 season. Running as a first run 4-year-old against yearlong campaigners, the mare almost made the finals there. After tipping a few barrels to do well at the Arizona futurities, Bling found her stride in Canada.

“In the spring we went back up to the Canadian futurities and she won a couple of them,” said Manning. “Then, we just took her to the rodeos. We weren’t sure if she was really ready, but we thought it would be a good chance to season her.”

Bling made her rodeo debut in June at Raymond, Alberta, where she tipped a barrel to be second. After the Ponoka Stampede at the beginning of July, Bling became Manning’s primary rodeo horse.

“She’s just amazing,” said Manning. “She’s kind of a freak.”

Gray and Guys On Firewater Win the NBHA World Open Championship

By Britany Diaz

The National Barrel Horse Association held their 2022 NBHA Open & World Championships at the Georgia National Fairgrounds in Perry, Georgia on October 30 through November 5. When the dust settled, Chloe Gray and her horse, Guys On Firewater, better known as Cross, found themselves out on top. The duo finished first in the open 1st go-round with a time of 14.666, earning them $3,072. This first place win secured them a spot in the final go-round. Chloe and Cross smoked a 14.483 in the finals, the fastest run overall of the whole weekend, earning them the championship title and another $5,576!

The NBHA Open & World Championships added $85,000, plus had numerous awards. The total payout at the event was $375,588! The top 25 from each of the two open go-rounds, advanced to the finals. The contestants also had a chance to enter a redemption round if they did not finish in the top 25 in the first two go-rounds. From the redemption round, the winner of each D advanced to the finals. The field started with almost 600 runners and was run in a 5-D format.

“You run at the NBHA shows all year to try to qualify for the finals. I had one spot qualified and ended up using my two wild-card entries for the other two. It is a big event, probably the biggest event on the east side of the United States and is held in Georgia. The NBHA is always good about following the rules. There is nothing out of the blue popping up. Everything is run very thorough and the ground is very good and consistent. It has great announcers, has a very family-friendly environment and is very organized. They give away awesome prizes and treat the contestants good. It is a super event held basically in my backyard,” said Gray, the Yatesville, Georgia cowgirl. “I have been running there for several years now. I actually won the NBHA Teen World Finals back in 2012.”

Gray got Cross in as a 3-year-old to train. He is by her stallion, Frenchmans Six Dash. Frenchmans Six Dash stands at their place, called High Hopes Farm & Reproduction in Yatesville, GA. He is by Frenchmans Guy out of The Stylish Baby. He is also a new Ruby Buckle stallion. “I have been riding Cross for the last five years now and just recently got the chance to purchase him within the last few weeks. This win was very special getting to call him all mine. We are super excited to have him,” shared Gray. “Cross is a really big horse. The arena in Perry is a medium-sized arena, but we get to run there all the time. He has done really well there in the past. He likes the ground because it isn't really deep, but soft enough for him to stay on top of it and slide in and slide out of his turns. He was bottom of the ground right before a big drag.” Gray laughed, “he is kind of a ground snob. He is big, about 16.2 hands. His weak link is his first barrel. He sometimes isn't able to get up under himself, but Perry gives him a really good approach to the first barrel. That is why I think he does so well in there.”

“The previous owners have been so good to me. We raise our own and usually don't buy geldings. This win just sealed the deal that it was definitely meant to be. He is exactly where he was meant to be.” Gray said, “A big thanks to Kelly and Maddie Gail Carver for trusting me with Cross the last five years and giving me the opportunity to call him mine! Glory to God!”

Gray plans to rodeo some on Cross. “He has dabbled in the rodeos some and done well. He was able to build his confidence at them”, said Gray. She took him out on the rodeo trail a couple summers ago. Gray and Cross have two slot races coming up. The first one is at the Jingle Bell Classic, also held in Perry, GA. The other in Ocala, FL. Both are incentive slot races, so the duo is going to focus on doing well at those before heading out to more rodeos.

We believe horses deserve the same access to holistic products that we as their owners do. Breaking down barriers long guarded by pharmaceutical companies, and allowing people to choose what's best for their equine partners. If natural is best, that's what we aim to provide.

Gray got into barrel racing a lot different than most. Gray shared, "My dad actually grew up working on a dude ranch up in Pennsylvania. He has always liked horses. I actually got into English riding lessons when I was 7 or 8-years-old. I really didn't like to go fast. I would start crying when my pony would trot, so speed events were not my thing at first. I got a little more comfortable with it as my dad got more horses and eventually fell in love with it. We ended up going to the pro rodeo in Perry, GA and I saw the barrel racing and was hooked. We got a flyer in the mail for junior rodeos, so we started going to those. I started out on not so trained horses and had to make do with what we had. Then dad started buying me more finished horses and my confidence built from there. When I was 15, I started training horses and just fell in love with the process and seeing the whole thing through. I graduated high school and didn't go to college. I knew what I wanted to do. I knew I wanted to train horses and give lessons. Here recently, we have started to get into the breeding. My sister and I took some classes and are now doing our own breeding and flushing embryos."

Gray rides Cross in a Masters Saddle. She goes back and forth between a 5 Star and a CSI pad. She runs him in a 5 Bit, medium twisted wire. Chloe rides almost every horse in this bit. She keeps Cross's legs protected with Ortho Equine protective boots. Cross gets fed free choice perennial peanut hay. If he gets a supplement, it is Gut Check or ulcer preventatives.

Gray is thankful for all the special people that support her, including her family and friends. She couldn't do this without these amazing sponsors as well: Master Saddles, Ortho Equine, Crazy Cowgirl Shop, Hangover Haynets, Complete Equine Performance and Kimmies Cocktail.

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

Kristy Yerrington & Meka Farr Earn Titles at A Salty Wilderness Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

When it comes to tough competition, the Wilderness Circuit has rightly earned the nickname The Snake Pit. The circuit's best threw down at the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 4-5 in Heber City, Utah.

Just .02 separated newly crowned Circuit Finals Champion Kristy Yerrington and Meka Farr, who used her reserve championship finish to capture her third year-end circuit title.

"Oh my gosh! It was unbelievable really!" said Yerrington. "It was so tough. I'm still in shock!"

She and her 8-year-old mare A Dynamite Goodbye ("Fish") were just out of placing in the first round with a 17.22.

"The first run was great," said the mother of two from Carey, Idaho. "I feel like she was just a tick timid and maybe me too. I feel like her run was really good, but she didn't run really strong. We clocked a 17.2 but didn't end up placing. They paid four and we were fifth. I was completely happy with it."

They were the first runners through the gate on their second run and made good use of the top of the ground.

"The second go she ran so strong in there, super confident," Yerrington said. "She kind of stepped off the second but she clocked a 16.8 to win the round."

They had the average lead by .14 going into the third and final round.

"I knew she could do it. I always feel like if I'm top of the ground, I'm bulletproof. She was fifth on the ground which isn't terrible. I felt like she tried and gave everything. She clocked a 17.0. Meka, who was right behind me, ran a 16.9. We were back there figuring and figuring. It was just so cool, the horse race to come down to the wire."

This was Yerrington's second qualification to the WCFR and her first aboard Fish, who made her rodeo debut in 2021.

"I went to a few rodeos on her last year as a 7-year-old," she explained. "I won a teeny bit of money and I think I went to 10 rodeos just to go get the experience. This year it was like she was in her element. She's given it to me every time and she's proven that she can run with them, especially after the circuit finals this week-end. I honestly never thought she'd run a sub-17 run and she's done it twice now. To me that's huge!"

Yerrington got Fish in a three-in-one package from Megan Lewis, who bred the mare along with her parents. Fish was just a month old when Yerrington purchased the Doc O Dynamite mare Thiefs Of Diamonds, who was in foal to Slick By Design.

Incidentally, the Slick By Design—Hanks Slick Design was a very successful futurity horse for Yerrington too before selling to Tyra Kane and currently has lifetime earnings of more than $111,000, according to QData.

Yerrington, who showed reined cowhorses a little alongside her father, did all of Fish's training.

"I live on a farm and ranch so she grew up in that lifestyle," she said. "She's had to do some of the work aspects of it—moving cows and branding. That's a huge part of my program. They're not just put on the barrels from the get-go. I start them like a reined cowhorse. I do everything by myself."

She said she didn't realize what she had in Fish until her fourth year.

"Honestly when I got her I didn't know anything about The Goodbye Lane," she admitted. "I didn't know what I had at all. She's been unique ever since I got her. She's an all heart, all business type of horse, but she's super quirky. She was so easy to put on the barrels though, but you just have to tip-toe around her. Not everyone is going to get along with her, but you figure those things out when you basically raise them.

"I actually thought about selling her as a 3- coming 4-year-old. I didn't advertise her or anything. Then she just came on. Her 4-year-old year I was thinking, 'Oh my gosh! I really have something!' I just knew she had it."

Fish had an awkward futurity year as her season included a pause for the birth of Yerrington's youngest. She did win reserve at the BRN4D Futurity in Cave Creek that year. It was as a derby horse that Fish really started to come into her own. Now given her recent rodeo success, Yerrington is having to reevaluate her 2023 plans.

Prior to the Circuit Finals, Yerrington was contemplating breeding Fish and letting her have a year off to carry the baby. She was going to concentrate on her young horses and then bring Fish back for 2024.

"I can't put a baby in her if I'm going to the NFR Open!" she exclaimed. "I have kids at home so I can't go hard, but with an opportunity like that, you don't have to go hard if you can dominate there."

Farr, too, is excited about going to the NFR Open in Colorado Springs, which is much preferred over the long trip to Kissimmee, Florida.

"I'm so excited!" Farr exclaimed. "What an opportunity, especially having it so much closer after going to Florida twice. My husband said he's never hauling me to Florida again! Twice was enough!"

Farr, who has year-end titles from 2018, 2020 and now 2022, plus a circuit finals title in 2020, came from behind to win the circuit title. She was third going in with $22,231 and picked up $5,895 which moved her to No. 1 in the circuit standings.

"I didn't know how it would go," said Farr. "Our circuit is so tough and the girls are so amazing. Not only are the girls fierce, but the horses are just as fierce. The bloodlines and talent and horsepower that everybody has is just amazing. You cannot bobble. You bobble and you're out."

Farr's longtime equine partner with seven circuit finals qualifications is DD Dee Cee ("Woody"), a 13-year-old gelding, by DD Striker out of DD Gambling Suzy, by Gambling Plan.

"I came home and was reflecting on what an amazing little career he's had," Farr said of Woody. "What an amazing animal!"

"Hopefully when he's a little aged my little girl will be able to go on with him and have some fun. He's got that nice calm demeanor that way."

Farr said she was just grateful to stick with those talented teams at the circuit finals.

"On my first run, we kind of overran a little and I told my husband that I think he'll dial in on our next run," said Farr. "Woody did. He just got stronger as he ran. He never cheated me. He was honest the whole weekend. It was amazing. Sometimes if I run back-to-back somewhere he starts anticipating, but this weekend, he ran each run like it was his first time. I was really thankful. I couldn't have asked for a better weekend."

Farr also appreciated having a drag halfway through the barrel racing. She said it really makes a difference.

"I thought it was amazing, so many 16s!" she said. "The ground was amazing. We were able to get a drag added for the first time last year and that really gives you a great playing field for everybody. There's no bad draw after you get a drag. I'd rather run sixth (on the ground) than 12th any day! We were able to get a drag again this year. There were some beautiful runs in all three performances."

Farr, who works as a customer care representative for the airbag manufacturer Autoliv, wanted to thank her sponsors Kingsville Brand and Dr. Beau Beck at South Valley Equine as well as her family and friends for their support.

"If it wasn't for my husband and my daughter I wouldn't be able to do what I do," she said. "They're out here helping me so I can get horses rode, stalls cleaned and horses fed. My husband and I both work a fulltime job. We worked all week and then load up and go to a rodeo. When I say I don't know if I want to go, he's like, 'Yes, you and Woody need to go.' He's always the guy making sure it happens. I'm really thankful for my family."

That includes her extended family, who were at Heber City to celebrate with her, and her friends, like Tabitha Udy, who was holding down the fort back home.

Leia Pluemer & Cindy Smith Capture Turquoise Circuit Titles in Camp Verde

By Tanya Randall

Two former Turquoise Circuit Champions added more titles to their resume at the Finals Rodeo, held November 4-5 in Camp Verde, Arizona.

Leia Pluemer and her talented 13-year-old mare Famous French Bug ("Sister") earned their second Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship to earn $7,483. They were the only team to place in all three rounds, including a victory in the third and final round.

"It was a great time. It was a very tough barrel race," said Pluemer. She and Sister won their first circuit finals title in 2019.

Pluemer, who recently relocated from Bosque Farms, New Mexico, to Fillmore, California, has been partnered with Sister since the mare was 7. The daughter of NFR Champion Sire Frenchmans Fabulous is out of the Dash Ta Fame, Bugs Alive In 75 mare, Cricketts Fame.

"We bought her from Frankie Drullinger," said Pluemer. "She had partnered with Kenny Nichols to breed Cricket to Fab. Sister was born on Kenny's place."

Pluemer got Sister in 2017.

"Frankie had asked me to run her a couple of times for her," she recalled. "She was a handful. The first place I ever ran her was at a barrel racing Colorado Springs and we won the 3D."

Still a student at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Pluemer dominated the West Coast Region aboard Cricket. They even finished second in the nation behind Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday at the 2017 College National Finals in spite of being hampered by an unknown lung infection.

In 2018, Pluemer and Sister won the Turquoise Circuit Permit Championship. They contended for Rookie of the Year honors in 2019 and have been within the WPRA's Top 30 several times. This was their third appearance at the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier and WPRA Gold Card Member Cindy Smith of Hobbs, New Mexico, won her first year-end Turquoise Circuit Championship. The Lovington, New Mexico, barrel racer had previously won the Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2012.

A perennial Top 40 competitor, Smith stayed primarily in her circuit this year due to gas prices and the lingering effects of the COVID shutdown on the family business.

"We're still trying to recuperate our business," said Smith. "They shut us down for 13 months with the bar. Between trying to run a business, wrangle grandkids and ride outside horses, I didn't get to go as much."

Smith, who along with her mother Marion Gramith belong to the unique club of mother-daughter NFR qualifiers, went into the Circuit Finals in third.

"I really didn't even think I had a shot at the year end," said Smith. She was leading the aggregate after winning the first round and placing in the second, but she was last out in the third round. "After Leia and Jana had done so good, I let Barbie roll. I can't hold her back anyway. Afterwards, I was like 'Oh shoot!' I guess I rode too defensive."

Much to her surprise, she'd placed in the average and the $3,742 she'd won was enough to give her the year-end championship.

"Lacy Wilson, our circuit director, walked around the corner and said, 'You did it!'" Smith recalled. "I said, 'Did what?' She said, 'You won it!' I didn't have a clue! I was just hoping I could win some more in the average and take some money home."

When Wilson told her it was by $57, Smith replied, "I'm going to the trailer. When you know for sure let me know. That sounds too close!"

Rider/Owner: Leia Pluemer; Breeder: Dale & Francine Drullinger

THE RUNDOWN w/Leia Pluemer

Famous French Bug ("Sister") 15.1 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Curb bit with a small solid port with a roller in the middle. "I couldn't even tell you what it's called. I bought it at a yard sale for $5 and that is her absolute favorite bit. I ran her at Eagle Mountain, Utah, and it broke in my run. It broke about the second barrel and about the time I spanked her after the third barrel, I realized I had no more bridle. We had a Char-mayne James and Scamper moment. It wasn't the headstall that broke. It broke at the roller in the middle. A friend actually had one. Someone had given her a box of bits with one in it, and she gave it to me."

SADDLE: Tod Slone

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Rims all the way around

FEED: Purina Omolene 200 and oats

HAY: Alfalfa and grass

SUPPLEMENTS: Silver Lining Herbs, Canola Oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: ThermaTech blanket that she uses in the winter. Chiropractic care when she's able to visit hers in Las Vegas. Mainly focused on keeping her well fed and exercised.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I pony her or I lunge her 20 minutes a day."

SPONSORS: Best Ever Saddle Pads, Silver Lining Herbs, Horse Hydrator, Ride Rodeo Naked, Ride The Moon Equine & Appeal, Tres Rios Silver, Kenny Nichols, Rockin M Leathers, Riata Ranch Equine, HorseWear of Ireland

Smith did her yearlong winning on her homebred mare Wood B ASmokinBarbie. She raised the 10-year-old mare by Woodbridge out of Smokin Shuttle, by the Thoroughbred Shuttleman.

She said she hopes to have Barbie's siblings up and running to help the mare out, but between working and grandkids, the progress has been slow.

"I have a 5-year-old that I had planned to futurity," she chuckled, "and I think I loped around the first barrel for the first time the other day!"

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last week we talked about children, this week let's talk about babies. . . . Okay. After 20 some years without one, Mike and I got a baby last week. We are exhausted! We have to take turns getting up in the night when she cries. She goes potty a lot.

Mike keeps saying he told me this would happen, but I kept insisting we needed one. HE forgets that I wanted a REAL baby! His reply? I'll get you a puppy, will that help????? We have a puppy!

She's really beautiful. And when she grows up, she's gonna be something! Friends, we all need to grow up in the Lord. I know there are people in church that have been babies for 40 years. They asked Jesus to be their Lord and that's as far as they got. They've never gotten past being offended with others. They want everyone to pray for them and help them and never return the courtesies.

They are touchy, always wanting someone else to make the first move. They want everything nice and clean and warm and dry and never lift a finger to help.

They criticize how things are done, yet never do anything themselves. That's a baby.

I Cor. 3:2-3 says, "I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?"

BUT IT'S NOT TOO LATE! You can change today! Ask yourself. What have I done to help out at church? Have I ever volunteered, or helped my neighbor? Be the answer this week! You can do it!
