Justine Elliot & Blondys Starlight Sweep Canadian Rodeo Championships

By Tanya Randall

Teenager Justine Elliot and her great mare Blondys Starlight won the Canadian Finals Rodeo, held November 3-7 in Red Deer, Alberta, en route the Canadian Barrel Racing Championship. Their CFR victory netted $33,240 for a year-end championship total of $51,818.

"When I came around the third barrel (in the final round), I started crying because I knew it happened," said Elliot, a three-time CFR qualifier.

The 19-year-old barrel racer from Lacombe, Alberta, and her 12-year-old mare went into the CFR leading the standings with $18,578. She was just $2,893 ahead of Lynette Broadway of Brooks, Alberta.

"Lynette was pretty close behind me," said Elliot. "I wasn't going in there to win any rounds. I just wanted to stay clean and consistent. If I placed in the rounds that was great, but I wasn't going for any wins."

She and Blondy placed in all but one of the six rounds. They, along with Mariah Mannering and Happy Hour Special, were the only barrel racers to make six clean runs. After the win she called Blondy "truly a once in a lifetime horse."

"She was absolutely phenomenal," said Elliot. "Every single run she tried her heart out! She put herself in the right spot every time. She was so honest. I don't think she's ever worked that good. To be that consistent in a small pen six runs in a row is incredible!"

Bred by Gerold and Maureen Arnold, Blondy is by Von Starlight out of Small Towns Gold by Small Town Baker. Von Starlight, a grandson of reined cow horse great Reminic is out of 2006 AQHA Super Horse RS Lilly Starlight, dam of 2018 NFR Champion Team Roping Horse Romancing The Chics, ridden by Trey Yates. Small Town Baker is Blondys Dude and Two Eyed Jack bred with a double dose of Leo Bar (Three Bars out of Flit) on his bottom side.

Elliot's brother Logan had purchased Blondy as a yearling out of the Supreme Horse Sale in Red Deer, Alberta. The mare made her competitive debut in the reined cowhorse as a 3-year-old but her big motor was better suited for barrel racing. Elliot's father Jody, a reined cow horse and rope horse trainer, started Blondy on the barrels.

"She took to it instantly," said Elliot, who started running the mare seven years ago.

Blondy, who took Elliot to Top 3 finishes at the National High School Rodeo Finals in 2017 and 2018, made the perfect rodeo horse as she's not bothered by the varying conditions.

"She doesn't care about the ground," Elliot said. "She'll run on concrete if she has to. Mud doesn't bother her at all. She's definitely more of a big outdoor pen horse than a small indoor pen kind. She likes to really free up and run."

Elliot, who is studying to be a teacher's assistant at Red Deer College, wanted to thank her sponsors Weaver Leather and Synergy by Weaver for "keeping Blondy protected and looking good with their tack all year," her father Jody Elliot, "for driving me everywhere and making sure she was working good and on top of her game," Cody and Kayla Wolbeck of Lucky Star Ranch for letting her run their stallion A Frosty Fling at a couple of rodeos and "being really great supporters."

Mundorf wins second straight Ruby Buckle futurity on DM High Roller

By Julie Mankin

“God said, ‘It’s been a while, Latricia – here’s a good one.’” That’s how veteran barrel-horse trainer Latricia (Duke) Mundorf of Three Rivers, Texas, describes her latest 4-year-old triumph that has already placed at several pro rodeos and whose lifetime earnings, she figures, are now over $200,000.

Mundorf, who trained such industry notables as Brittany Pozzi-Tonnozzi’s world-champion palomino Duke (Yeah Hes Firen) and NFR barrel horses Dial It Fast (Shada Brazile), Sign Of Passion (Tiffany Fox) and Heza Bug Leo (Angie Meadors & Jana Bean), last weekend won the futurity average and $38,633 (including breeder & sire money) at the Ruby Buckle Regional Race in Memphis, Tennessee, on the home-raised DM High Roller that she owns with her husband, Dillon.

Latricia actually repeated her win on DM High Roller from the previous Ruby Buckle futurity in Salina, Utah, this summer. A third Ruby Buckle race was held earlier this spring in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Collectively, the three events paid out $2.3 million this year.

“They put on such amazing shows,” said Mundorf. “From the time you get there, from the people in the office to the stalls, to the holding pen, to the person checking in the horses, just everyone is laid back and relaxed. That atmosphere maybe bleeds over to the contestants. When everything is positive from the beginning to the end, it’s a lot easier as a contestant to let your horse do its thing.”

In Memphis, Mundorf’s 30.133 seconds on two runs edged Cody Bauserman and Vegas Slashndash by about a tenth of a second. DM High Roller is by French Streaktovegas – one of the 150 stallions that are eligible sires of Ruby Buckle futurity entrants. The 14-year-old stud is by A Streak Of Fling and out of PC Frenchman’s Flirt. On the bottom side, Mundorf’s champ is out of her own mare, Happy To Run ’Em, the dark palomino by Firewaterontherocks, on whom Mundorf won the 2014 AQHA Junior Barrel Racing World Championship. Her stud colt looks like he has a similar turning style to the dam, but Mundorf says he doesn’t feel similar.

“He does some things like the mare but also some like his dad,” said Mundorf. “I think he took both of his parents’ traits and meshed it together.”

On the bottom, Happy To Run ’Em is out of Lady Rompin, who goes back to Tiny’s Gay, while French Streaktovegas bottom side boasts South Dakota’s magic cross of Sun Frost on the Louiseau family’s “French” line of mares.

“When you take that Sun Frost and mix it with what I’ve had success on in the past, the Fire Water Flits, Firewaterontherocks and Lady Rompin side, it all came together,” she said. “He’s just been fun. He’s been fun from the beginning.”

Although she’s ridden a handful of the best barrel horses in the world, Mundorf said this latest colt that she calls “Vanilla Wafer” is unique.

“He’s completely different than anything I’ve ever ridden,” she said. “He’s very round in his turns. Normally when a horse is round, it’s not as quick leaving a turn. But he’s round and can still blow you to the back of the saddle leaving a turn. He’s just so strong through his hock and loin. Even being down low and round, he gets away from a barrel so fast. And he doesn’t really have to prepare as early for the turn as most horses I’ve rode in the past. He’s almost clear to the backside of a barrel before he has to turn. On the GhostCam, when you put his run over the top of others, he shoots forward in front of other horses during the turns.”

In Memphis, the $200,000 futurity paid 20 places in the rounds and average, plus offered a $60,000 2D futurity, $10,000 Youth Incentive and $460,000 Haychix 4D with equal payouts in each division.

Vanilla Wafer regularly is asked to do ranch work on Mundorf cattle, and was roped on the week prior to the Memphis race. He’ll be entered in tie-down roping and breakaway futurities in 2022.

“He’s such a natural athlete that everything he’s done has been easy,” said Mundorf. “It doesn’t matter if he’s running barrels or roping calves, it’s like he’s ‘got this.’ I think that’s why he’s stayed so solid – he doesn’t have to try super hard because it’s all so easy for him. He just floats across the ground; stays on top of the ground, and is super quiet. There are not a lot of nerves, with him.”

She and her husband of two years, Dillon Mundorf, recently launched Roping Futurities of America (RFA).

“Our first roping futurity will be in Abilene, Texas, in February 2022 and will be set up similar to the BFA,” Mundorf said. “We’ll have a slot roping in tie-down, breakaway, heading and heeling. If it gets 50 horses, it’ll pay $225,000. And we’ll have a 4-year-old futurity in each event and a derby in the calf roping events.”

They also plan to schedule one in the fall, too, up north some-

"Incentive programs are the wave of the future," said Latricia. "I think those horses that are versatile will get more and more play as the roping futurities continue to get bigger and get more publicity. I'm excited that people have already booked calf-horse mares to him."

THE RUBY BUCKLE REGIONAL RACE

NOVEMBER 3-6, 2021
AGRICENTER SHOWPLACE ARENA

$730,000+ TOTAL PAYOUT

Ruby Buckle Regional Race 3 took place in Memphis, TN November 3-6th at the AgriCenter Arena. The $730,000+ Guaranteed Payout Barrel Race hosted 462 Open 4D Barrel Racers, 172 Barrel Futurity competitors and 25 Youth racers. All of our champions are based on a two-go average.

The Ruby Buckle Barrel Race is open to anyone riding a horse sired by one of the 150 Ruby Buckle stallions. The stallion owners are the heart of the program and the best way to showcase the world-class equine genetics that they have to offer is to give competitors of all skill levels races with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere.

Our races pay each 'D' equally! At each regional race, each 'D' has $115,000 guaranteed payouts and pays down 15 places. We publish all of our guaranteed payouts at the beginning of the year.

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on a nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. $2.3 Million dollars were paid out at 3 regional Ruby Buckle Barrel Races in 2021! Each year our payouts grow because of the nomination system. The 2022 guaranteed payouts will be $2.7 million!

All horses need to be nominated (paid in) annually to remain eligible to compete in future years, starting from the year of birth. Nominations are due Aug 1 for $200 OR Dec 1 for $300.

Race earnings totals include Owner, Stallion Owner and Breeder money paid.

VF Born Famous & Dustin Angelle Rock Ruby Buckle Open

Over past few years, the team of VF Born Famous & Dustin Angelle have been lethal at the bigger open races. After winning The Mega over the summer, the hot pair came back to win the 1st Round & Average of the 2021 Ruby Buckle Memphis. According to Equistat, before the $21,563 won at the Ruby Buckle this weekend; VF Born Famous was at Lifetime Earnings of $121,152. We caught up with the scorching fast pair to ask them about their Ruby Buckle Open win.

BRR: You had an amazing weekend; winning the 1st Round & the Average. Can you walk us through your two runs?

Angelle: My goal going into the Ruby Buckle was I wanted to win the average. It's been a goal for a little while now and I knew Ted could do it. We were blessed with a first go round win by two tenths so it left us for some cushion in the second round. Even though the second round didn't go as planned; he was still good enough to be fast and get the average but it was a tougher run for the both of us.

BRR: Together you and VF Born Famous seem to win all the time together. What are the keys to your success & consistency as a team?

Angelle: Ted and I have been very blessed together. I try hard to keep Ted happy and sound which is a major thing when you compete at this level. He's been blessed with having Clay as his vet; he's always hands on and watching Ted regularly. I also believe Ted's mental game is strong; he stays pretty relaxed and that helps me ride him better to his ability.

BRR: What qualities make him such a special horse?

Angelle: Ted's mind game I think makes him special. As well as his very quick feet and if he gets in the wrong position he's smart enough to get himself through it.

BRR: Do you prepare your horses any different for the bigger events like this different than during the rest of they year? Basically, are you peaking them here or what is your strategy?

Angelle: Our horses have a routine year around so I never really try to peak them for one thing more than others. I try to just always keep them fit and ready to compete.

BRR: What are your plans for yourself and VF Born Famous moving forward?

Angelle: I plan to keep Ted. We've had several offers to sell him or allow him to rodeo. He's very much ready. But, myself...I'm not. He's like my child and I'm happy with him being home every night. LOL.

BRR: How have the big incentive races changed your training program?

Angelle: I definitely see more and more horses in my barn that are in these incentives. Clients are more willing to spend money on those

Waiting to be "ready", will crush your dreams and rob the world of your creative power.
Do it NOW. Do it wrong. Then, do it again. BETTER.

Dash Ta Fame & Lanes Leinster Lines Earn Wilderness Circuit Titles For Macee McAllister & Marcie Wilson

By Tanya Randall

The magic cross between Dash Ta Fame and Lanes Leinster bloodlines dominated the Wilderness Circuit.

Macee McAllister topped the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 5-6 in Heber City, Utah, aboard TW Lane Ta Fame, a 16-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Lanes Leinster mare Lois Lane Dj.

A second round victory for Marcie Wilson and Our First Goodbye, an 8-year-old daughter of The Goodbye Lane, a son of Lanes Leinster out of the Dash Ta Fame mare, Swift Goodbye, pushed them to the top of the Wilderness Circuit Standings for the year-end championship.

"It is like Christmas," said McAllister, the Wilderness Circuit Rookie of the Year. "I came home with a lot of good stuff! They really spoiled us on the gifts, for sure!"

An occupational therapy student at Dixie State University in her hometown of St. George, Utah, McAllister hadn't expected to make the circuit finals in her debut season as a WPROA Cardholder.

"I was just excited to be able to go," said McAllister, who qualified in fifth with $12,772 won in the circuit. "It wasn't my goal to end up making it there, but I ended up doing well over the summer, so that was exciting!"

McAllister and Lainey had an exceptional circuit finals, winning the first round, placing second in the next two rounds and winning the aggregate.

"My first run I was a little nervous," said the 2019 National High School Rodeo Finals Champion Barrel Racer. "I had run in that pen before so that wasn't it. When I came out and had won it I thought, 'Wow, that's even more than I had expected!' That was super exciting! After that I wasn't nervous at all for the second and third round. We just went out there and made two more clean runs to win the average."

The victory was worth $8,175, which currently has her No. 2 in the WPROA World Standings. While she was initially planning on devoting 2022 to her two futurity horses—that she trained with her grandmother Wanda Anderson, who also trained Lainey—she might have to see what the early rodeo season brings with many of the winter rodeos using partial 2022 standings as entry eligibility.

"I don't really know yet," said McAllister, who wanted to thank her family for their help and support. "I'm still trying to decide what I want to do. I'm thinking I may go a little more next year."

Family horses also got Marcie Wilson of Lake Shore, Utah, her first Wilderness Circuit Championship in her second qualification. Wilson rode four horses during the season by the family-owned super stallion The Goodbye Lane.

Our First Goodbye, an 8-year-old mare, was her main rodeo horse. Wilson rode the mare at Circuit Finals and won Spanish Fork and Salt Lake City during the season on the daughter of Jessie James Agent (dam), by Jesse James Jr.

She won Manilla, Utah, on Slingshot Lane, an 8-year-old mare out of SKS Running Faucet, by Diamond Faucet. Slingshot Lane is mainly her niece's high school rodeo mount but made two rodeos for Wilson this summer.

She also picked up checks on CM Waitin On Lane, a 7-year-old gelding out of Tachina, by Dashair, and MJ Lola Lane, a 6-year-old mare out of Pappys Fools Ta Fame, by Easy Illusion.

her $22,237 to take the year-end circuit title.

“It was a weird futurity year for me,” said Wilson. “I got to go to more rodeos this year since I only had the one futurity horse.” Next year, she’ll work her rodeo schedule around the futurities. “I’ve got three futurity colts so I’ll probably rodeo around the futurities,” explained the mother of two girls, ages 6 and 2. “The futurities will be my main thing and when I can go to some rodeos I will. I’m for sure going to go to Colorado Springs (for the NFR Open, formerly RAM National Circuit Finals), but I’ll just have to work them in. I’ll mostly go to the circuit rodeos and a few outside of the circuit when there are no futurities.”

Wilson wanted to thank her parents Mark and Linda Jarvis as well as her sponsors Classic Equine and Zesterra. She also wanted to give a special thank you to McColee Land & Livestock and KVN Corona for sponsoring a drag halfway through each barrel racing performance and to her circuit director Julie Herman for all her hard work.

“She takes awesome care of us and makes sure the ground is good,” she said. “I love our circuit. All of the girls are super close. I really feel like we have one of the best circuits.”

Shannon McReynolds & Minie Gun Sweep Turquoise Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Shannon McReynolds and Minie Gun (“Harley”) nearly swept the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 5-6 in Camp Verde, Arizona. The nurse from La Luz, New Mexico, and her 6-year-old mare topped the two of the three rounds and finished second in another to win the aggregate and $8,006 and the Year End Championship as well.

McReynolds and Harley were also the only barrel racers to break the 17-second barrier on a WPRA Standard with their victorious 16.96 and 16.93 in the first and third rounds, respectively.

“I couldn’t believe it!” said McReynolds, who also placed second in the second round. “In the second performance, I didn’t ride her that good. I was afraid of her coming back around and hitting one. I’m running across the pen (to the second) and I’ve got my right hand on the rein! I was right beside the barrel when I switched my hands so it made her get by it and kind of V it. I thought ‘Oh well! At least I didn’t hit a barrel!’”

Her nemesis is usually the first barrel.

“She turns her first so hard that sometimes she’ll drag it with her butt leaving it,” she said. “When she gets back there (on the back-side) she comes really hard. She goes in on her approach perfect so you can’t fix any of that. All you’ve to do is throw your hand forward and squeeze.”

Having two good first barrels in a row actually helped make their third run easier.

“I thought that will teach her to take that extra step if I stay consistent with doing that,” she explained. “My third run I didn’t do anything. I didn’t throw my hand up there or kick her. She just nailed it. It felt like after the first two rounds it kind of helped her learn – ‘Ok, I’ve got go up there that next step.’”

McReynolds purchased Harley, a daughter of Fiestas Gotta Gun, a son of Playgun and Firewater Fiesta, out of the Marthas Six Moons, Rocket Wrangler mare Blazen Martha, as a yearling. Royal D Ranch, who bred the mare and owned Fiestas Gotta Gun at the time, consigned her to the 2016 Texas Best Sale, where she sold to McReynolds for $8,000.

“She’s just been a nice mare,” McReynolds said. “When I was breaking her and starting her, I thought she’d never make a barrel horse. She’s so lazy! She still is. My mom can ride her. It’s hard to get her exercised, but when you go down that alleyway she gives you 110!”

Harley won her first pro rodeo Mesquite, New Mexico—where the Turquoise Circuit had their barrel racing circuit finals between performances of the rodeo due COVID. She also won Payson, Arizona, and the first Socorro, New Mexico, rodeo. Harley also placed at Lovington, New Mexico.

McReynolds also won a check on Wood Bring Bullion (“Cleo”), a daughter of Woodbridge, at Socorro. Her daughter Hadley Tidwell has since claimed the mare and currently holds the top spot in the Southwest Region National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association standings.

She had originally planned on splitting the runs at Circuit Finals between Harley and Cleo. However, Cleo was a little sore after the Texas Tech college rodeo in Lubbock, Texas, so Harley had to go it alone.

McReynolds knows the mare had a little extra help—from her father who passed recently.

THE RUNDOWN w/Shannon McReynolds

Minie Gun, “Harley” 15.1 h., 1,200 lbs.
 BIT: Ed Wright Medium shanked lifter with a three-piece mouthpiece
 SADDLE: Shiloh
 SADDLE PAD: 5 Star
 LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four
 SHOING: Rims in front, flats in back
 FEED: Kool Speed
 HAY: Alfalfa
 ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiropractic care, PHT products
 TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I just long trot her.

“I think Harley had some angel wings on her,” she said. “I know he would have been proud because she was his favorite mare.”

McReynolds wanted to thank her parents and her husband, Kelly, for all their support. She also wanted to thank her circuit director Lacy Wilson and Mike from the award-winning Sorocco ground crew who maintained the circuit finals’ footing.

With circuit finals earnings counting toward the WPRA World Standings, McReynolds currently sits third. With several of the winter rodeos using early 2022 standings as entry eligibility, McReynolds has some decisions to make about rodeo next year.

“I don’t get to go a whole lot,” said the nurse at Scenic View Surgical Center. “I work full time. I’ve got a kid in college. I might try to enter some of the winter rodeos and see how it goes from there. If it’s meant to be, maybe I can go PRN on my job and hit some winter rodeos. I kind of want to see what happens. You never know what God has in store for you.”

WPRA Announces 2021 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

Every year since the early 1990s the Women's Professional Rodeo Association and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits that have went above and beyond to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRA about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRA membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members' voices saying "thank you" for a job well done. The WPRA recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits as well as the most improved ground committee in each circuit. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $350-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an addition $1,500 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRA Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 2 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2021 and the WPRA thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

Mask required at WNFR & The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas

The Regulation is in line with current state guidelines

Based on current State of Nevada guidelines that have been in place since September, Las Vegas Events announced today the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo at the Thomas & Mack Center and The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas at the Las Vegas Convention Center will both require masks for entrance. Proof of vaccination is not required to gain entry.

When proof of vaccination isn't a condition of entry for indoor events or in crowded outdoor settings throughout Clark County, all individuals, regardless of vaccination status are required to wear face coverings.

The Wrangler NFR will run from Dec. 2-11, while The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas will open Dec. 1 and run through Dec. 11.

Masks will also be required on the complimentary Teton Ridge NFR Express Shuttle buses that run from 24 sponsor hotels to the Thomas & Mack Center.

Known as the richest and most prestigious rodeo in the world, the Wrangler NFR returns to Las Vegas attracts the top 15 contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding to compete for a share of the $10.257 million purse and the coveted PRCA Gold Buckle. In 2019, the event had a total attendance of 168,289 over the 10 days of competition at the Thomas & Mack Center and has sold out more than 330 consecutive performances

The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas, the official gift show of the Wrangler NFR, is one of the highlights of the Western extravaganza that transforms Las Vegas in December. Traditionally, the show has been the focal point for rodeo fans during the day, before heading off to the Wrangler NFR at the Thomas & Mack Center or live viewing parties and concerts each evening up and down the Las Vegas Strip and Downtown.

Average attendance over the past four shows in Las Vegas (2016-2019) is just under 250,000 over the ten days.

Dr. Benjamin Espy named 2021 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year

Dr. Benjamin Espy, of San Antonio, Texas, was named the 2021 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year thanks to 25 years as a veterinarian at the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo.

The veterinarian of the year award was created in 2010 to spotlight and honor veterinarians who have dedicated time, talent and effort to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock.

"This award is such a big deal to me because it's nice for someone to recognize veterinarians for their behind-the-scenes work," said Espy. "Because once they're in the arena all of our work is done and from that point on it's all up to the cowboy and the horse.

"So, it's nice to be recognized, it's almost like confirmation that you did a good job and for this award it's not that you did a good job on one horse, it's you did a good job on a thousand horses over the year."

Over the years Espy has been tasked with maintaining and continually improving the operating procedures regarding livestock movement, transportation, and conveyance at the San Antonio Livestock Exposition. More than 60,000 animals move on and off the grounds during the 18-day run and under Espy's watchful eye.

"It meant a lot to me to even be nominated by the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, it's such a large and prestigious rodeo that I'm thankful to be a part of," said Espy. "Then of course the recognition by the PRCA is really cool as well. It's one of the top honors you can receive as a veterinarian."

He said the industry has come a long way in the sport of ProRodeo over the years.

"I think nowadays being able to show off our work in the public is a great tribute to these incredible animal athletes," Espy said. "We are not shy as presenting them as athletes and taking care of them how we would any other athlete."

Espy also works as an adviser to the students who receive the Veterinary School Scholarship through San Antonio Livestock Exposition. He is a member of the PRCA Livestock Welfare Committee and received his DVM from Texas A&M.

Espy will be honored at the PRCA Awards Banquet at the South Point Hotel, in Las Vegas, Dec. 1.

No matter how hard you train, somebody will train harder. No matter how hard you run somebody will run harder. No matter how much you want it, somebody will want it more.
I AM SOMEBODY.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last week we talked about children, this week let's talk about babies. . . . Okay. After 20 some years without one, Mike and I got a baby last week. We are exhausted! We have to take turns getting up in the night when she cries. She goes potty a lot.

Mike keeps saying he told me this would happen, but I kept insisting we needed one. HE forgets that I wanted a REAL baby! His reply? I'll get you a puppy, will that help????? We have a puppy!

She's really beautiful. And when she grows up, she's gonna be something! Friends, we all need to grow up in the Lord. I know there are people in church that have been babies for 40 years. They asked Jesus to be their Lord and that's as far as they got. They've never gotten past being offended with others. They want everyone to pray for them and help them and never return the courtesies.

They are touchy, always wanting someone else to make the first move. They want everything nice and clean and warm and dry and never lift a finger to help. They criticize how things are done, yet never do anything themselves. That's a baby.

I Cor. 3:2-3 says, "I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?"

BUT IT'S NOT TOO LATE! You can change today! Ask yourself. What have I done to help out at church? Have I ever volunteered, or helped my neighbor? Be the answer this week! You can do it!
