Don't Blink – WPRA World Title Still Up For Grabs

By Tanya Randall

With $1.1 million in prize money up for grabs at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, the World Standings can change in an instant.

No one was more shocked by this fact than first-time qualifier Emily Miller, who claimed the No. 1 position after her Round 4 victory aboard Nagmis D 33 (“Chongo”). The dental hygienist from Weatherford, Oklahoma, held back tears when learning of that fact during an interview with the Wrangler Network that night.

round wins yet, but they & Cp Dark Moon & Amberleigh Moore are the first teams over the $200,000 in earnings for 2019.

Another Prairie Circuit barrel racer who has been stealing the limelight in Las Vegas is Dona Kay Rule. The 61-year-old from Minco, Oklahoma, and her 10-year-old AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year High Valor have claimed two rounds and placed in another.

The only other barrel racer the Okies have been willing to share with is 2016 WPRA Reserve World Champions Amber Moore and CP Dark Moon (“Paige”). The duo won Round 3 with a 13.62.

Miller and Chongo kicked off their WNFR with a Round 1 victory. Since then, they've placed in every round but the fifth, where they were second to last from the bottom of the ground, and the sixth, where again they were toward the bottom of the order.

Although Miller still holds the aggregate lead, defending World Champion Barrel Racer Hailey Kinsel-Lockwood of Cotulla, Texas, has placed in four of the six rounds to reclaim the World Standing's lead at the conclusion of Round 6. She and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday haven't added to their collection of eight

Ironically, they won the same round last year with a 13.59. They won Round 6 with the fastest time of the rodeo thus far, a 13.55, running second on the ground.

Upon arriving in Las Vegas from Kiser, Oregon, Moore posted on Facebook that Paige knew where she was--the Thomas & Mack, also known as Paige's Playpen. As CBS Sports announcer Butch Knowles likes to say, “If they leave the barrels up, they're going to get a check.”

Moore and Paige have won nine rounds at the WNFR since

OKC Futurity in OKC This Week

The OKC Futurity presented by the Better Barrel Races is coming this week starting Tuesday, December 10 and finishing up Sunday, December 15. It includes a Slot Race, Rookie Futurity, Futurity, American Qualifier, Derby, and also a Horse Sale on Saturday, December 14. The draws, full schedule, and all the sale information are all available at www.OKCFuturity.com. There is also a webcast of the whole event available at www.Visworks.com.

PRCA Announces Launch of Jr. Rodeo Association and The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR

The PRCA is proud to announce today the introduction of the Jr. Rodeo Association to provide youth, ages 8-19, an opportunity to learn and participate in core rodeo events. The Jr. National Finals Rodeo, title sponsored by The Cowboy Channel, will make its debut March 3-7 in Texas at Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth with the finals to be held on March 7 at AT&T Stadium, in Arlington, Texas.

Jr. Rodeo, the new youth initiative for the PRCA, is created to identify the next generation of contestants through education, fundamental development and a one-of-a-kind competition series. The online membership portal is open, and youth may join by visiting www.jrrodeo.org. The first 1,000 Jr. Rodeo members to join will receive a gift card from National Roper's Supply.

"The Jr. Rodeo initiative is important for the future growth of rodeo, and it is important for us to develop the future stars properly," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "Our new association is fundamentally built to embrace and grow youth participation in rodeo events. All rodeo starts here, and Jr. Rodeo is responsible for providing opportunities for kids to learn, improve and compete alongside the best cowboys in the best arenas like AT&T Stadium."

Members will be able to select a membership level that best suits their interest. Jr. Rodeo members will have a number of benefits available that include: membership card; competition opportunities; secondary accident insurance; free registration for Jr. Rodeo Camps; ProRodeo Sports News online subscription; and more.

The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR returns in 2020 and will feature the best-of-the-best contestants from the major youth rodeo events. Jr. Rodeo will feature the Junior American and Patriot events as one of the major qualification pathways. The Junior American and all of its qualifiers are being folded into The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR, effective immediately. Jr. Rodeo will continue to attract other youth rodeo events as potential qualifiers.

For 2020, The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR includes over 1,900 contestants eligible for a gold buckle. The top place winners from the events below also qualify in 2020 for The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR and must be Jr. Rodeo members.

- 2019 National High School Rodeo Association Finals
- 2019 Little Britches Rodeo Association Finals
- 2019 International Youth Finals Rodeo
- 2019 Junior World Finals
- 2019 Junior American

The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR will guarantee at least $200,000 in added money. Jr. Rodeo's focus is on core rodeo events and will feature bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, team roping (header/heeler), girl's breakaway roping and girl's barrel racing.

The Cowboy Channel will provide a year-long national television platform in support of Jr. Rodeo. The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR is the only youth rodeo event on cable TV in 2020 and will be telecast exclusively on The Cowboy Channel which reaches 42 million homes.

"We are so proud to join forces with the PRCA to expand and grow the opportunities and exposure for youth rodeo," said Patrick Gottsch, Founder and President of The Cowboy Channel. "We are all in. Encouraging more young people and their families to participate and enjoy the sport of rodeo is a win for everyone. The Cowboy Channel is here to promote, cover, and support the Jr. NFR all year long."

The Cowboy Channel Jr. NFR is a tournament-style format rodeo where qualifiers will compete in the long go-round with the top 15 contestants advancing to the semifinals. The championship round will be held at AT&T Stadium with the top 6 place winners competing prior to RFD-TV's The American. The winners in the timed events also advance to RFD-TV's The American Semi-Finals for a chance to win $1 million. The Jr. NFR will feature contestants between the ages of 14-19 who must still be in high school.

Jr. Rodeo will continue to provide the popular Jr. Rodeo Camps program to members who are interested in learning about rodeo and further advancing their rodeo event techniques. National Finals Rodeo qualifiers typically serve as instructors at Jr. Rodeo Camps. The Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo will host the first 2020 Jr. Rodeo Camp on January 26.

Throughout 2020, Jr. Rodeo will work with individual PRCA Rodeos to showcase the sport to future cowboys and have an impact in identifying the next world champions. PRCA Rodeos will be able to qualify contestants directly from its rodeos for the 2021 The Cowboy Channel Jr. National Finals Rodeo.

World Champions Rodeo Alliance Announces Addition of Division Y

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) today announced the unveiling of the WCRA Division Y (DY), a youth division designed to give youth the most exclusive opportunity to qualify and compete in a one-day $1,000,000 major rodeo.

DY will feature athletes ages 13 and up from around the globe competing for their spot on the WCRA DY Leaderboard (age limit is determined by sanctioning bodies where DY athletes earn points). The top 24 athletes in each discipline as of April 12, 2020 on the DY Leaderboard will advance to the May 14-15 Youth Stampede At The E event in Guthrie, Oklahoma at the legendary Lazy E Arena.

The May 14-15 Youth Stampede at the E will host competitors in each of the six disciplines; girl's breakaway roping, steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping, and barrel racing, — each athlete competing for their piece of the $50,000 purse. The event format will be two rounds and an average. Athletes will not be required to pay an entry fee.

The average champions from each discipline from the youth event will advance to the WCRA $1 Million Stampede At The E on May 16. The one-day $1 million major rodeo will give one youth in each discipline the opportunity to run at more than $111,000, with the winners walking away with at least $50,000 each.

"Based on feedback throughout the rodeo industry, we have made the decision to add a youth division to give the youth a chance to earn big payouts on a large stage," said WCRA President, Bobby Mote. "While we realize the need for growth in rough stock, our first event will only feature the six major timed event disciplines. Rough stock disciplines will be added in a future segment."

WCRA also announced their first youth alliance—The National High School Rodeo Association (NHSRA). The NHSRA is an international, non-profit organization dedicated to the development of sportsmanship, horsemanship and character in the youth of our country through the sport of rodeo. The NHSRA membership consists of over 11,500 members from 43 states, five Canadian provinces, Australia and Mexico. The NHSRA also supports athletes dreams by annually awarding more than $550,000.00 in scholarships at the national level, and $1.8 million in scholarship cumulatively on the international level.

"NHSRA is always looking for ways to provide our members with opportunity to grow in and out of the arena, while striving to build a strong foundation for our members," said NHSRA Executive Director, James Higginbotham. "While there are roughly 1,800

2016. They have won money on 25 out of the 36 runs. On Sunday night, Moore and Paige surpassed the $1 million mark in career earnings and on the following night they surpassed $1 million mark in WPRA rodeo earnings.

Moore also leads the RAM Top Gun standings for the most money won at the WNFR with $114,923. The winner of the Top Gun award receives a custom wrapped RAM truck, a buckle and a commemorative firearm.

Steady As She Goes

Emily Miller has rocked but not knocked to currently hold the average lead, but 2017 Reserve NFR Champions Ivy Conrado-Saebens and KN Fabs Gift Of Fame (“J-Lo”) are right on their heels, behind by just .04 over six runs!

Last year, Conrado-Saebens & J-Lo placed in six rounds, winning one, but were taken out of the average battle due to one flu-hampered performance. This year, they’re back on track, placing in every round but the first to sit second in the aggregate.

2017 WPRA and WNFR Champion Nellie Miller is also lurking. She and Rafter W Minnie Reba have only drawn two checks—in the first and sixth rounds. They were one out in two other rounds, but most importantly they’ve stayed clean.

Shali Lord and Freckles Ta Fame didn’t draw a check until the Round 6, but they’re solid in the average.

Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi is also in the average. She’s made her first two runs on Ima Famous Babe (“Katniss”), by Dash Ta Fame, before hitting paydirt in the third round with her half-sister by Chasin Firewater, Babe On The Round 6 proved costly for several barrel racers. Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West, the defending WPRA and NFR Reserve Champions, tipped the second barrel, falling to the eighth and last hole in the average. Jennifer Sharp, who has been riding with a destroyed left knee, and KR Famous Tequilla caught two barrels. Lacinda Rose and RR Meradas Real Deal also tipped to fall out of the average.

Hailey Kinsel, who tipped in the first round on Sister, is now sixth in the average. Dona Kay Rule and High Valor are seventh with a tipped barrel.

Every barrel racer has picked up at least one NFR check to add to the $10,000 qualification money they all received. There are two more early morning practice sessions—Thursday and Saturday morning—to iron out the kinks.

If It Ended Right Now

If it all ended with Round 6, Emily Miller takes home the WPRA World Championship with Hailey Kinsel reserve. However, there's so much money left to be won, the world title will likely go down to the wire!

Dm Sissy Hayday & Hailey Kinsel-Lockwood won Round 6 in both 2018 & 2017; running a 13.63 in 2018 & a 13.49 in 2017. Moore has placed in 5 rounds in a row now earning $114,923.08 at the 2019 NFR. From our figures this now puts CP Dark Moon & Moore at 9 go round wins! Kn Fabs Gift Of Fame & Ivy Conrado-Saebens won 2nd to place in their 5th go round of the Finals as well, earning $68,384.62 and now only 0.04 second behind Emily Miller in the average. Moore was 2nd on the ground & Conrado-Saebens was 1st. With a 3rd place check in Round 6, Hailey Kinsel-Lockwood moved into the #1 spot in the World with $210,482 and is ahead of #2 Moore by just over $2,500 going into the final 4 rounds. It took a 13.88 to place in Round 6; it took a 13.90 in 2018 & a 13.74 in 2017. 7 mares, 6 geldings, 2 studs ridden in this round. After Round 6 only 5 barrel racers have no hit barrels. Tonozzi switched back to Ima Famous Babe; Lockhart switched to Rosas Cantina CC. Rose hit the 2nd barrel; Sharp hit the 1st barrel & the 2nd barrel; Hillman went off pattern for a no time; Routier hit the 2nd barrel.

Especially Mystic - A Special Horse Special Reasons

Written & Submitted by Cassidy Carpenter

At the Ogden Ranch, you have to have won quite a bit to get to be buried- "up on the hill."

Especially Mystic didn't meet the monetary cut off with his LTE of a little over $20,000, but for our family he's probably the most important one of all.

A trip to the horse races in Sallisaw, Oklahoma in May of 2002... My mom, Lisa Ogden discovered a horse named Especially Mystic. He was ugly, had giant ears, hadn't won anything at the races, but he was out of a Mystic Eye mare named Mystic Jolie. If you know us Ogdens', we have had a little success with the Mystic Eye breeding.

Lisa wanted him, but she didn't have the money and the owners didn't know if they were ready to sell. She got the trainers phone number and went on to the Old Fort Days Futurity in Ft. Smith Arkansas.

After a successful week at Ft. Smith, Randy and Lisa left early on the morning of May 26th to head home. They were traveling back to Texas directly behind Gail Shanahan and Maggie Green.

Lisa, with a little more money in her pocket than she had a few days prior decided to see if the owners of Especially Mystic were ready to sell. She recalls that she called the trainer and said "I'm coming to buy him today" and they agreed. Randy reluctantly turned and headed back to the racetrack.

Lisa paid $3000 for the horse that would affectionately be named "Fred", after lifelong family friend Freddie Fields, who also carries some large ears of his own.

That one hour detour to purchase Fred was ultimately a life saving decision.

On May 26, 2002 Southeast of Webbers Falls, Oklahoma on I40, (just 46 miles from Ft. Smith, Arkansas) a captain of a tow boat fainted and lost control of the tow. This caused the barges to collide with a pier and a 500'+ section of the I40 bridge fell into the Arkansas River. 14 people died that morning before the traffic got stopped.

Unfortunately, two of the people who passed away that day were barrel racers Gail Shanahan and Maggie Green along with the three horses they were hauling.

Especially Mystic was laid to rest UP ON THE HILL at my parents ranch in Borden County, Texas on December 4th, 2019.

While we still feel the loss of Gail and Maggie, we will forever be grateful to God for the series of events that gave us that big eared, bay horse, and spared my parents lives that day.

Rest in piece Especially Mystic - March 10, 1999-Dec. 4, 2019

Gorham Collects $24,523 at All-In Race in Las Vegas, Tops Shootout on Cashin Chicks

By Tanya Randall

London Gorham of Cotulla, Texas, pocketed a tidy $24,523 at the first of three All-In Races, held December 5-7 at The Orleans in Las Vegas during the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Gorham and Cashin Chicks ("Hitman") topped the Shootout for a $15,000 first-place check.

"He hasn't been working his best, and he didn't work too good those first two days," said Gorham. "You never know what he's going to do. He'll either work the pattern or he'll run everywhere. He's just so fast."

Hitman, a gray 7-year-old stallion, is by the Chicks Beduino son Time For For A God out of Star Dancer Victress, by Panther Mountain.

Gorham and Hitman tipped in round one but clocked a 14.512 in Round 2 to place sixth in the 1D of Race 1 to qualify for the Shootout and earn $375. That time also won them $1,596 in the $25,000-added Youth. All totaled, she and Hitman won $16,971.

Unfortunately, a tipped third barrel in the Shootout aboard Frenchmans Assassin, her favorite horse, kept her from taking first and second. The 10-year-old gelding, who carried her to the American Semifinals Championship in , is by Frenchmans Guy out of Huggys Spitfire, by With Great Ease. Gorham and Assassin tipped in Round 1, but came back to take second with a 14.306 in Round 2. Between the open and the carryover to the youth, Assassin contributed $3,921 to Gorham's total.

"Assassin usually makes the best runs out of all of them," she said. "He's my most consistent."

The Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer, who turned 12 in September, also won Round 1 of the Race 1 aboard Fortunes Flame ("Wanda"). Between the Open and the Youth, Gorham had earnings of $3,631 aboard the 8-year-old daughter of Tres Fortunes out of Ahsome Blossom Flame, by Mr HG Flame.

Incidentally, Wanda won the All-In Race two years ago with Sophie Palmore.

Gorham has a busy day on Wednesday as she and Wanda placed fifth in Round 1 of Race 2, earning another Shootout qualification. She also has the start of the Jr NFR, where she'll probably run Assassin.

NHSRA sanctioned rodeos throughout the year, WCRA will give our members a chance to compete, if they choose, on an additional platform."

Youth competitors can begin earning points through nominating their efforts beginning December 2, 2019 and concluding April 12, 2020. Athletes will be given the opportunity to nominate for $25 and earn points or the youth division. Nominating DY and the open division will not be permitted. Athletes who are under 18 years of age must chose to compete in the open VRQ division or the youth division.

"What better way to launch our youth initiative than with the largest youth rodeo association in the world," said Mote. "We could not be more proud to join forces with the NHSRA to take youth rodeo to new heights. You can't be all for rodeo- if you're not developing the next generation of the sport."

Triangle Sales and Future Fortunes Award $20,000 Pay Out to Eligible Horses

Triangle Horse Sales and Future Fortunes teamed up for the second year to award a $20,000 total payout to horses eligible for the John Read Foster Challenge sale incentive. Those eligible include barrel-bred yearlings sold in the annual Triangle Fall Barrel Classic Sale, and this year's incentive recipients were derived from yearlings sold in the 2017 sale.

First and second place sale graduates were awarded after performing in the 2019 Barrel Futurities of America Juvenile Futurity, held at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 18-23. The award was determined on a two-run average with sale graduates competing only against each other for the John Read Foster Challenge pay out.

The annual John Read Foster purse is sponsored by Triangle Sales, which has featured performance horse sales for more than 40 years, along with Future Fortunes, a leading barrel horse stallion incentive program. The two entities established the incentive to provide the barrel industry with a venue for successfully marketing yearlings. The goal for the bonus payment to 3-year-olds has been to help stimulate production by rewarding young prospects.

The challenge champion and winner of $12,500 was VR Bugsinthewind (Furyofthewind x VR The Last Bug by Shawnee Bug), ridden and owned by Rylee Shields, Cochran, Alberta, Canada, which sold as Hip No. 501 consigned to the 2017 Triangle Fall Barrel Classic Sale by Leah Rogers, Ventana Ranch, Noble, Oklahoma. Shields says she considered purchasing the gelding, called "Bug," for his breeding but also made the purchase with the incentive in mind.

"I won a lot of money on a Furyofthewind-bred horse out of a Pie In The Sky mare, so I was buying for his breeding," Shields says. "I was concerned about him being mature enough to make this trip— but he's fun and hopefully he will keep getting faster, and this was a great bonus."

"I was aware of the John Read Foster incentive but wasn't really familiar with it at first," Shields added. "After I read about the specifics, I recognized it as a great bonus. There are a lot of incentive programs out there, but this is among the biggest pay outs."

Reserve champion and recipient of $7,500 was Maximum Midnite Fame (Frenchmans Maximum x Destiny Ta Fame by Dash Ta Fame) owned by Ryan and Alicia Kirkpatrick and ridden by Michelle Noterman, Purcell, Oklahoma. "Gopher" was consigned as Hip No. 515 in the Fall 2017 Triangle Sale by Tommy Bradbury of Kentucky.

"Michelle told me about him, and I am so tickled with him," Alicia Kirkpatrick says.

"I am not necessarily a futurity person, so when Michelle suggested this horse and that she would run him, it was a new thing for me. We wanted to go for the John Read Foster money, so winning the reserve championship was a fun thing for myself and my family."

"Hopefully, he will work for my daughter someday," Kirkpatrick says.

"And, I just purchased another John Read Foster incentive-eligible horse in the last Triangle Fall Sale," she added. "Maybe we can do it again."

Triangle Horse Sales' annual Winter Sale is slated for Jan. 24 & 25, 2020 in its new Oklahoma State Fair Park location in Oklahoma City. For more information on this and other sale dates, visit www.trihorse.com.

World Champions Rodeo Alliance Earnings Now Count Towards IPRA

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) and the International Pro Rodeo Association (IPRA) are pleased to announce that all WCRA events will now be sanctioned by the IPRA. All athletes who earn money at WCRA events will be able to count up to $10,000 of those earnings per year towards the IPRA World Standings starting in 2020.

"WCRA is all for rodeo and we want to see rodeo grow and improve," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "Having the IPRA count earnings from WCRA events will open the door for more sanctioning and co-sanctioning opportunities, further breaking down the lines of division which I believe have held rodeo back."

In order to be IPRA eligible, athletes who complete in WCRA events must be IPRA members prior to the start of competition and must compete in more than 10 IPRA events in 2020 for their WCRA earnings to count towards IPRA Standings. The WCRA January and February 2020 Semi-Finals earnings will not count towards the IPRA World Standings- WCRA segment five events and beyond are only applicable.

Since announcing their alliance in May 2018, IPRA and WCRA's relationship has continued to grow. With hundreds of nominations from IPRA events in just over a year, IPRA members have had the opportunity to nominate and earn competition and consolation points. WCRA's alignment with the IPRA has maximized its members efforts to earn a spot in one of WCRA's $500,000 semi-finals events and possibly move onto a one-day $1,000,000 major rodeo.

IPRA is involved in sanctioning over 400 rodeos across North America and boasted a total membership of over 2,700. Numbers have been on a steady increase in recent years and the IPRA continues to offer new opportunities for its growing membership.

"I'm excited about this great opportunity for current IPRA members as well as the potential it has for new IPRA membership growth," said IPRA General Manager Dale Yerigan. "I believe this enhanced relationship with the WCRA will set in motion a new period in professional rodeo and create unprecedented opportunities for rodeo athletes."

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $5,700,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

Qualifying for events will be based purely on performance and on series points, rather than dollars won, through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). For athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA and the VRQ, or you're an event producer/promoter interested in aligning with the WCRA platform and the new expanded points initiative, please visit wcrarodeo.com or call 833-368-3787.

Headin' For Home

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison

Merry Christmas to you! We are fast approaching the day we celebrate our Savior's birth. What a great day for us, His kids. He has made everything good possible for us!

And it's the time of year that we give gifts. It's a mirror of the Fathers' gift to us. Your value to God is greater than you may know or think. He sent Jesus for YOU. It's high time that we quit thinking less of ourselves or comparing ourselves to anyone else.

He came for YOU. That's a concept that, when we are not at our best, is hard to grasp. After all, I wanted to ram someone in line at Wal-Mart on Black Friday! Surely that will disqualify me. No it won't! He loves YOU. Let's get that in the forefront of our thinking these next days, and when the 25th comes, you can say with confidence, GOD LOVES ME ENOUGH TO SEND JESUS! I'M SOMEBODY!

And lastly, a few days ago, God gave me a word for all of us. It is: "2020, better this year than last. White hot on fire. God first!" It got me so excited! I know who holds our future. Jeremiah 29:11 talks of our future. Read it and enjoy!

May God bless you and all you set your hands to do! We love you so much and pray the uninterrupted flow of blessings flood your lives like never before!
