Three-Peat -- Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Win Third Consecutive WPRR World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Barrel racing fans across the country were moved to tears when newly crowned 2020 WPRR World Champion Hailey Kinsel took her victory lap for winning the aggregate title at the Wrangler National Final Rodeo, held December 3-12 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas.

The crowd rose to their feet in ovation—for Kinsel, but more so for her earthbound Pegasus DM Sissy Hayday, who also got to make the celebratory journey around the arena. “She has carried me through the worst of times,” noted Kinsel, “so she deserved to carry me through the best ones.”

Kinsel, who hails from Stephenville, Texas, but calls Cotulla, Texas, home, became the first three-time WPRR World Champion since Kristie Peterson and the great French Flash Hawk (“Bozo”) did so in the late 1990s. She set a new NFR earnings record of $279,615, won the RAM Top Gun Award as the highest money earner at the Finals, broke her and Sis’s own record time on a WPRR Standard Pattern at a rodeo with a 16.56 in Round 8 and nearly reset her own WPRR Season’s Earnings record in a year with fewer rodeos than ever.

“Ryder Wright broke the total season earnings record in a year that had no rodeos,” Kinsel chuckled, who collected $349,076 to win the World. “We got close to our record because (Sis) had such a great Finals. I think about what our year could have been if we had got to go Cheyenne and Calgary. She won a ton in a year not having those.”

At the WNFR, Sister made nine of the 10 runs, placing first or second all but once when she placed 12th due to the challenging footing in third round. After winning the fifth round with a 16.92, the fastest time of rodeo thus far, Kinsel made the decision to step off Sis and ride Outta Clear Blue (“Leroy”), a PC Frenchmans Hayday gelding owned by former NFR qualifier and mom-to-be Cassidy (Kruise) Deen.

“I was top of the ground for Round 5 (first out after the drag) and she was perfect,” said Kinsel. “Knowing her, that’s when you back off. When it’s perfect is when you back off. If you run her at the bottom and she loses her confidence, then Round 7, you’re pulling teeth. I didn’t want to do that halfway through the rodeo. She wasn’t sore but she was tired. I could just tell she was getting a little tired and it was worth taking a day knowing full well that Leroy could go make a clean run. It wasn’t perfect but it was clean and that’s all he had to do.”

Even though she didn’t run Sis that night, she did everything the same except make her run.

“I actually thought it was really good for her mentally to go through the motions, but when 8 o’clock came around, she didn’t go down the tunnel,” she explained. “She actually looked at me funny. She was confused. We were doing the same thing, but she didn’t go. When I came back with Leroy, she was like ‘What the heck!’ The next night, when I went to saddle her, she was like legit happy. It was so funny. I knew she was tired and knew she needed the night (off) but to make her go through the motions and not be asked for the pressure of it, I knew by the next day she was refreshed.”

It lit a fire in the tenuous mare and they never clocked slower than a 16.90 in the remaining four rounds.

She quick to credit Randy Spraggins, who supervised the ground for RFD-TV’s The American as well as the NFR, for making her record-breaking run possible.

“I know there were some nights that the ground wasn’t the best, but that’s just because they were having to figure out what to do,” she said. “Randy Spraggins was just the best. When I ran the 17.1 the first night my initial thought was this is good, it’s safe and it’s going to be fair as it moves along and it proved that.

“More than anything I thought it was mediocre speed. You were going to see 0’s and 1’s. You might see a 16.9. I didn’t expect it to get as great as it did. That’s a true testament to what he was able to do. Also, the fact that it was able to be worked in the middle, you didn’t see horses getting sore or tired or worn out.”

She also noted the drag allowed Jill Wilson and Lean Mean Blue Dean and Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West for placing second and third in the average without a horse change.

“The fact that Jill and Jessica were able to stay on their horses and finish second and third in the average is a bigtime testament to the drag,” said Kinsel. She also mentioned that the WPRR Top 15 got Spraggins and Troy Pruitt, who championed the drag to the PRCA Board of Directions, each a big bottle of Pendleton Whiskey in appreciation for their efforts.

Although she didn’t have to, Kinsel made sure Sis was capable of going the distance if she needed. She adapted her conditioning program to the larger course. Kinsel said it was the same mindset as in the movie Secretariat, when trainer Lucian Lauren told Penny Tweedy that he was going to do the opposite of what was expected and train Secretariat harder for the Belmont, the third and longest leg of the Triple Crown.

"I felt she was sound and could take the training so I did ask her for a good bit more, even knowing that I probably wasn't going to run her for all 10 rounds but if I had to I wanted to feel that I could," she said.

"I did make more runs, as far as jackpot runs than I have in the past. Normally, I don't go to any, maybe one right before. This year because it was a longer run I decided she needed to be more fit—in more summer shape, which is making more runs. It was kind of like going to Calgary. We're going to go make six runs on a Standard in Calgary and the week before I'm going to all the Fourth of July rodeos, and all of June, I'm making big runs in outdoor pens spread out across the month. With that thought in mind, she needed to be more in sprinting shape."

After the Gold Buckle Finale in Rapid City, Kinsel gave Sis a month off, which for her means no races just daily riding. She took her to three jackpots, two of which were on Standard Patterns. "I took her to one November 1 in Cleburne, just a mid-size pen. We went to Vernon the next weekend to a Standard Pattern. I took two weeks off and did just exercising, all her vet work and shoeing and stuff. I made one run at NRS on a Standard Thanksgiving Weekend. That was her run prep. I did a lot more winding and breezing at the house across the pasture. It felt like the exercise was more intense because I wanted her to be as fit as possible," she said.

The 9-year-old mare has been a part of the Kinsel family since she was a 2-year-old. A promising start with the Dillon Mundorf-bred DM Shaky Hand, by Hand Off Boy, out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shakem. Kinsel and her mother Leslie went in search of a sibling. While WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday certainly added to her desirability it was the fact that Sis was a sister to DM Shaky Hand that led the mother and daughter to purchase the mare from the Texas Best Sale in 2013.

Kinsel and Sis made their competitive debuts December 2015 and got their first rodeo win as a team at Elizabeth, Colorado, the following June. In 2017, the talented duo became the richest barrel racing team ever when they not only won RFD-TV's The American, taking home a share of the $1 million bonus, but they also set an NFR earnings record—the one they just broke in Arlington—en route to a WPRA Reserve World Championship. They even set the NFR Vegas arena record at an astounding 13.11. A year later, Kinsel and Sis won their first world championship and backed up with a second title in 2019.

"There's still a lot of good things ahead," Kinsel said. "Next year she's going to be 10 and I'd like to ride her for several more years if I could. I want to keep her fit and sound and running at this level as long as I can. I think that will lead us to more cool stuff. There's rodeos that we haven't been to, rodeos that we haven't won, that I'm looking forward to. I just want to keep her at the top as long as possible."

Kinsel says she has no plans to flush embryos out of Sister any time soon.

"She's been so solid the way she is and I know not to get too greedy," she said. "At this point, I think we have plenty of time with her being young. I'm not planning on it anytime soon. I'd like to, but I've got some full siblings and three-quarter siblings that I'm dabbling in."

She says getting to ride other horses like Leroy and Sally Con-

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I stayed on her the whole quarantine just to keep her in moderate shape. She wasn't in run shape until July. I took her to a barrel race in June, which was the first one she's been to in a year and a half. I just don't run them that much, but I needed a run. My conditioning has been about the same. Now that we're having two to three runs a week, she's back into a routine of being in firing shape.

way's Haydays Dashin Fashion, a futurity mare by PC Frenchmans Hayday, also gave her confidence moving forward with similarly bred horses.

"I'm not going to worry about her career as a mom anytime soon," she added. "When I do get to that point, it will be a big family decision as to what we decide to do."

With COVID still causing chaos in the world, Kinsel says she's looking forward to 2021.

"The difference between this year and last year is last year at this time we were expecting things to be normal and then we expected them to come back to normal at the end of April," she said. "We kept pushing back and pushing it back. Now that I can look ahead, I might start now. I might enter Odessa for the first time in three years. I can plan ahead that we're going to need every rodeo to make the Finals possibly. Now I can change my plans to fit what we think the year is going to look like."

Kinsel wanted to thank her parents Dan and Leslie, her brother and sister-in-law Matt and Macy and her close friends for their continued support as well as her sponsors and the equine professionals that care for her horses. She also wanted to commend all of those who made the 2020 NFR possible.

"It's just proof of what the associations were able to do by throwing an event together in two and a half months on a baseball field," she said. "Now that they know they can do that, I think they're going to realize they're capable of more than just their status quo."

"They've been trying to figure out how to create the best rodeo in the world and they finally figured out how to create the best barrel race in the world at this rodeo. That's awesome for us and I hope they stick with it."

Coming into Round 1 of the NFR, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi sat #1 in the World with the reigning World Champion Hailey Kinsel right behind her in #2. Many wondered if Kinsel would continue her NFR domination she has enjoyed with Sister in Vegas on the 13 second pattern the last 3 years, in the wide open standard pattern in Globe Life Field in Arlington. Kinsel & Sister didn't wait long to answer that question, winning the first round with a quick 17.18. Tiany Schuster and her amazing sorrel, Show Mance, smoked a 17.25 to be second. Not wanting to let Kinsel get to far out in front of her, Tonozzi put up a fast 17.32 to win 3rd in the round. With Kinsel's round win she moved to #1 in the world by $2,312 over Tonozzi!

The wide open arena for the 1st and 2nd barrel and the 3rd barrel with a yellow NFR banner and cattle close to it led a few of the horse to go a little off course, but they will be dialed in for Round 2! Lisa Lockhart & Rosas Cantina Cc barely caught the 3rd barrel, adding 5 to what would have been a round winning run. Due to the changed prize money, from $10 million to $6 million, from Covid forcing the move from Vegas to Arlington, the NFR money is actually points for all the events, not reflecting actual money won. So the results, although showed as dollars, are actually points for 2020.

Another note, for the first time ever, there was a tractor drag at the NFR. After 8 girls the tractor came in and worked the pattern. Jessie Telford replaced Dona Kay Rule due to Covid positive tests.

In Round 2, all these great barrel horses found their bearings in the huge dirt patch of Globe Life and smoked some fast times. After a bit of a trail ride on barrel 3 in Round 1, Lenaontherocks and 1st time NFR Qualifier Jimmie Smith executed a near perfect run of 17.04 in Round 2. They say smooth is fast, well this run was smooth and plenty fast! The pretty palomino pushed Smith up to #3 in the World with $101,252 with their round win.

Kinsel & Sister ran just a little faster than in Round 1 for 2nd in Round 2. With Tonozzi not placing, Kinsel pushed her lead in the World Standings to over $23k. It looks as though Sister & Kinsel are just as comfortable in Arlington as they are in Vegas.

Show Mance & Tiany Schuster and Hr Fameskissandtell & Shelley Morgan both placed for the second night in a row and moved up in the standings to #4 and #5 respectively. All clean barrel runs and the times from 1st to 15th were only .74 seconds apart!

Rosas Cantina Cc and Lisa Lockhart blazed through the first and second barrel, squeaked by the third and scooted home to win Round 3. The flawless run gave them the round win that a barely knocked over 3rd barrel kept them from getting in Round 1. Rosa & Lockhart won Round 2 in 2018 together as well. The round win moved Lockhart from 11th to 6th in the World. They sit $51,518 behind world leader Kinsel.

Ima Famous Babe used her run with Tonozzi in Round 2 to get the feel of the Globe Life dirt and came back with a strong 17.21 run. Her body clipping for the rodeo, made her look more like a red dun than her normal sorrel, but it didn't slow her down any! Tonozzi's strong showing in Round 3 while Sister & Kinsel had a few slips and didn't place, closed the gap in the world standings. After Round 3, Kinsel leads by only $2,313.

Shelley Morgan and Stevi Hillman both placed for the 3rd straight night. Morgan now sits #4, about $36,809 behind Kinsel, and Hillman sits #7, about $55,264 back.

Sister & Kinsel came back with a vengeance from a couple of slips in Round 3 to win their 2nd Round of the Finals by just .04 seconds over Katniss & Tonozzi! The Cowboy Channel laid the videos of the two runs over each other (it's pretty cool to watch) and they were separated by a head or short neck! Kinsel increased her lead over Tonozzi to $7,813 in the standings. Kinsel & Tonozzi have slowly started to separate themselves a little from the field with Tonozzi now enjoying a $45,818 lead over #3 Jimmie Smith. It is shaping up to be a shootout for the next 6 rounds!

Fiery Miss West & Jessica Routier have just gotten faster and faster in each round and tonight their 17.24 put them in third. Cuatro Fame and Stevi Hillman placed again for the 4th night in a row to bump them up to #6 in the World. They are just easing up the standings each night and are the only team to place in all 4 rounds so far. As of Round 4 Kinsel and Tonozzi also sit 1-2 in the Aggregate as well with Kinsel leading by just .22 seconds (68.99 to 69.21).

Calmly walking in little figure 8s in the holding pen during the drag in the middle of the barrel racing, Sister & Kinsel looked primed and ready to do something special. They used the freshly groomed ground to run the first 16 of the week with a 16.92 on a standard. As can be seen throughout the Finals so far, that drag in the middle of the barrel racing has really changed the barrel racing and almost taken your position on the ground out of the equation. The blazing time from Sister & Kinsel was almost 4 tenths faster than the 2nd place team of Lena and Jimmie Smith (17.30) who keep running turning in great runs each night. Another interesting note, this was Sister & Kinsel's 13th round win together. The won 4 rounds in 2017 & 2018, 2 in 2019 and 3 so far in 2020!

Tonozzi and her cool mare Katniss, kept Kinsel in their sights by running a solid 17.35 and placing third in the round. Kinsel, Tonozzi and Smith sit 1-2-3 in the world and also in NFR earnings. Kinsel is #1 with $187,884 and $109,423 of NFR earnings; Tonozzi is #2 with $169,494 and $82,769 of NFR earnings; and Smith is #3 with $128,753 and $63,731. Kinsel leads Tonozzi by just $18,390 as we enter the last half of the NFR! It is going to be exciting to follow this battle!

Kinsel also leads the aggregate at 85.91 compared to Tonozzi's 86.56 through 5 runs with Shelley Morgan back in third at 86.98.

After having a tip to run a 16.98 in Round 5, Emily Miller-Beisel and her speedy grey, Namgis D 33, scorched a 17.01 in Round 6 to take the win on top of the ground. It was Beisel's first check of the NFR and could lead to a big finish for this team in the 2020 NFR! Right behind her to run and in the finish was Lisa Lockhart. After two nights riding Tres Movidas, Lockhart got back on Rosa and picked up $20,731 for their quick 17.07. Rosa has now run 4 low 17s so far.

It was definitely grey night in Round 6. 4 of the 6 placers were riding grey horses. Leading the pack was Namgis D 33 with Beisel; in 3rd place with a quick 17.11 MCM Imasharpguy with Stevi Hillman; 4th Lean Mean Blue Dean and Jill Wilson; and finally Famous Mic Guy Ver and Tiany Schuster grabbed 6th place.

Both 3rd place finisher MCM Imasharpguy and 5th place finisher Sr Industry Titan with Wenda Johnson were produced by blue hen mare Mulberry Canyon Moon.

Kinsel gave Sister the night off and rode a different PC Frenchmans Hayday horse, Outta Clear Blue. Neither her or Tonozzi placed so the gap remains just $18,390 between them; however Tonozzi did close the gap in the aggregate and now sits just 4 tenths behind Kinsel. It is close to an even up match between Kinsel & Tonozzi for the last 4 rounds! Get the popcorn, it's going to be good watching!

For the second night in a row, Namgis D 33 and Emily Miller-Beisel eased up the alley and then blew through the standard pattern, winning Round 7 and joined Sister & Kinsel as the only two teams to run 16s on the standard pattern in Globe Life. An interesting side note; Beisel used a couple big rubber bands connected to the front of her saddle to keep both her hands in ideal position going down the alley to the first barrel allowing her grey beast to win. Winners are always willing to do the things it takes to win! The win pushed Beisel to $62,461 on her week.

Sister and Kinsel were breathing down the back of their necks, just 0.05 seconds behind winning second. Of the 6 runs Sister has run, she has won 3 rounds and 2 seconds and Kinsel has already won $130,153 and is winning the average by a full second after Round 7 and the world by just under $40k.

Both Shelley Morgan and Brittney Barnett switched horses and won 3rd and 4th respectively. Morgan switched to her neat little buckskin Kinda Heavenly and Barnett switched to her other speedy mare, Frenchmans Pick.

Kinsel & Tonozzi have separated themselves as the two front runners as Tonozzi in 2nd in the World sits $41k in front of #3 Jimmie Smith. 6 people have clean runs (no tips) through 7 runs. The rake after 8 barrels racers continues to keep an even playing field for everyone.

History was made in Round 8, Sister & Kinsel set the WPRA/PRCA standard pattern record for a rodeo, stopping the clock at 16.56. They also held the previous record of 16.63 from Dodge City, KS this summer. The flawless run showed how much Sister just loves to run barrels wherever they set them up! It was their 4th round win of the 2020 NFR. The record pushed her NFR earnings to $156,385 and her world lead to over $65k.

Namgis D 33 and Beisel scorched another 16 second run to push their way to second place in Round 8. The team now has earned $83,192 at the Finals and continues to push Sister & Kinsel in the rounds.

Lean Mean Blue Dean and Jill Wilson continue to just consistently put in solid run after solid run; winning 3rd in the round and moving into 2nd in the Average. The team is up to $42,153 and sits in a great spot to add to it with a sweet average check.

Rosas Cantina Cc and Lisa Lockhart picked up another check to push Lockhart's earnings to $78,961. It was their 4th check in their 6 runs together at the NFR. 5 barrel racers remain clean on 8 runs.

Another night, another 16 second run for Sister & Kinsel! They just cruised to another round win in Round 9. The 5th round win of the 2020 NFR for this team. In their 37 NFR runs together (she ran Outta Clear Blue in Rd 6 this year; Thunder Stones in Rd 10 of 2018 NFR) they have won 15 Rounds (5 - 2020, 2 - 2019, 4 - 2018, 4 - 2017). Going into Round 10 Kinsel has won $182k at the NFR, leads the average by just under 3 seconds, and leads the world by over $90k.

Wenda Johnson switched back to her main mount Macgyver Moonflash and ran a quick 17.18 to place them in second place. Her check pushed her to $44,269 in NFR earnings so far. Dash Ta Suz and Cheyenne Wimberley finished a pretty run in 17.22 to get a 3rd place check... It was the 3rd check of the 2020 NFR for Wimberley... Beisel and Namgis D 33 ran another fast run to get a 4th place check and now have $94,192 in NFR earnings. 4 people have clean runs through the NFR heading into Round 10.

With a close to insurmountable lead going into the 10th Round, many were wondering if Kinsel would ride Sister or switch to one of her back up horses, like she did previously in Round 10 of 2018 when she rode Thunder Stones. With the Ram Top Gun award on the line and an average title within their grasp, Kinsel chose to get on her legendary palomino and headed down the alley. Their crisp run of 16.88 placed them second in Round 10. With that run Kinsel secured the World Title, the NFR Average Title, the Ram Top Gun Award (high money earner in 1 event at the NFR), and set the NFR earnings record of $270,615. She also became the 1st Barrel Racer to win the World Title, Average Title, Top Gun and Fast Time award in the same year! Kinsel also gave the crowd and Sister a treat by using her for her victory lap given to the Average Champions after Round 10. Their final tally for 2020 was an amazing $349,076 (especially considering the rodeos cancelled due to Covid), just short of their 2018 season earnings record earnings of $350,700.

McM ImasharpGuy and Stevi Hillman smoked a 16.79 to win Round 10. Sharpie joined Sister and Chongo as the only 3 horses to run 16s through the 10 rounds on a standard pattern. That pushed Hillman's earnings to $84,885 for the 2020 edition of the NFR. As a side note, Sharpie's mother, Mulberry Canyon Moon, also won the 10th Round of the NFR during her career in 2010.

Lean Mean Blue Dean and Wilson had another solid, fast run to secure 3rd in Round 10 and the Reserve Championship of the NFR Average. Their NFR winnings of $112,384 pushed them to #3 in the World with $165,755.

Tonozzi held on to 4th in the Average race to push her NFR earnings total to $114,500. She ended the year as the Reserve World Champion Barrel Racer with total earnings of $201,225 for 2020.

An odd side note of the 2020 NFR, all ten rounds of the NFR were won by palomino, buckskin or grey horses! We may all never see another NFR run on a standard pattern, but it sure was fun to watch!

Molly Otto & Teasin Dat Guy Top OKC Futurity

By Tanya Randall

They were flirting with a major futurity victory all year, but Teasin Dat Guy (“Chewy”), owned and bred by Katie Lindahl and trained and ridden by Molly Otto, got their big win at the last major of the season—the OKC Futurity, held December 9-13 in Oklahoma City. The victory in the $30,000-added event was worth $33,144! “It was sweet to end the year on that!” said Otto, who was making the slow trek home to Grand Forks, North Dakota. “I hit a couple barrels to win the average at some really big ones and that was really disappointing.

“All year I kept telling myself I do not want to waste a run on this horse. This horse deserves to be paid every time she runs through the gate because she works her little butt off and is so amazing. I just really love her. She’s such a nice horse.”

Otto and Chewy finished third in the first round with a 15.472 after Otto had a little oops on her end running to the first barrel.

“When I don’t run her for a while and I just ride some of my other colts, I kind of forget to go fast,” she chuckled. “(Chewy) really likes to go fast to the first. We came up the alleyway just flying—and it’s kind of downhill, and I was like ‘Oh my gosh! She’s going way too fast! She’s going to miss the first barrel—which she never does. I go to my horn at the timer and said ‘Whoa’ and she was kind of like, ‘Really? We’re not even there! Just hang on! I’ve got this!’ She did exactly what she was supposed to do.”

A victorious 15.230 in the second round made them the fastest qualifiers to the 40-head Finals.

“In the second, I was like, ‘OK, you know how to go fast. You don’t need to go to your horn so early. Just sit up there and let her go to work!’ She worked really good. She was really tight on her third barrel and I really had to work to get by it. She was still honest. She didn’t lean on me or anything like that. She was just really tight.”

Otto says she was pretty nervous before the Finals, where a 15.306 gave the two-run aggregate victory.

“This was my last run of the year on her and I really wanted to go out there and make the same run,” she said. “I didn’t want to choke. I told myself I didn’t need to tune on her. I needed to go out there and try to win the round on her. When I try to play it safe and keep the barrels up, I tend to override. I thought, ‘Just leave her alone and go out there and try to win it!’ She did exactly that. She did exactly what she was supposed to do. It wasn’t a flawless run by any means but it was great! I couldn’t ask her for a better run to end the year on!”

Bred by Lindahl, Chewy is by the legendary Frenchmans Guy out of the Blazin Jetolena, Juno Dat Cash mare Teasin Jetolena. Nettie Baker started Chewy under saddle and Lindahl’s husband, Dustin, put some additional miles on the filly as a 2- and 3-year-old while working as a member of the Sheriff’s mounted patrol.

When it came time to train Chewy for barrels, Lindahl called Otto, who had briefly ridden Chewy’s mom and trained and campaigned Lindahl’s first futurity horse Sixappeal (“Jimmy”).

While Lindahl figured Chewy would run as a 5-year-old, having sent her to Otto in July of her third year, the mare proved her very wrong. Chewy set an arena record on her first outing just a handful of months later.

“I knew she was going to be a really good horse,” said Otto, looking back, “but I think she’s actually a great horse. She turned out a lot better than ever thought. She’s just so reliable. She just acts like an old soul that’s been hauled a million places. She knows and loves her job. She gives 100 percent every time she goes out there.” Chewy was the WPRA Futurity Year-End World Champion, had a clean sweep victory at the 5-State Breeders Futurity—running a 16.9 on a WPRA Standard Pattern to boot, and qualified for the American Semifinals Rodeo this coming February. The mare was also voted the Rising Star for the Badlands Circuit and helped Otto place third at the Circuit Finals.

The mare has more rodeos in her future and will likely run at a couple in the Badlands Circuit before coming down for the American Semifinals in February.

“Last year I went to Lance’s Futurity in Guthrie the week before and then I just stayed down there," Otto explained. "That will probably be my plan. I don't really feel like I need to make a lot of runs on my horses. I keep them in shape all winter. I feel like last year my plan worked out really well for my horse so I'm probably going to do the same thing.

"I won second on her at the pro rodeo in Fort Worth (held during the WPRA World Finals). I feel like it's not going to be a scary pen for her. She's already ran in there and done well. I don't think I need to get to Fort Worth early and run her a bunch of times in that pen."

Otto wanted to thank "Fonda Melby at Milestone Vet Clinic for always making sure Chewy is feeling her best and Ryan Melby for always doing a great job shoeing and putting fast shoes on her! And to all of my friends, family and sponsors for the support and encouragement all year long. To my husband, Andy, who is always holding the fort down, supporting my dreams. I also would like to give God all of the glory, because with Him all things are possible!"

Tricia Aldridge & Three Times The Fury Top OKC Slot Race for $75,000

By Tanya Randall

"It's still hard to believe!" said Tricia Aldridge of her $75,000 victory aboard Three Times The Fury ("Sway") in the OKC Slot Race, held December 9 in Oklahoma City. The duo went on to earn a $13,978 Reserve Championship in the AIP Rookie Futurity for total earnings of $88,978.

"This has been a super win for me because this is the first futurity horse that I've got to have a whole year before I got to run them down the alley," she said. "We are ecstatic with how she did." Aldridge purchased the Furyofthewind filly out of the Tres Seis mare Three And Out from her breeder Amy Schimke of Wessington Springs, South Dakota. She had noticed the 2-year-old filly on offspring showcase post on Copper Spring Ranch's Facebook page. Schimke initially wasn't keen on selling the filly, who had just come home from Rodney Yost's colt starting program, but finally agreed to sell her Aldridge in December.

The filly had barely made it to Sanger, Texas, before nearly dying. "She tried to kill herself like all winners do," lamented Aldridge. "She got pneumonia. She had cellulitis in her back leg. She cut her face. It's always the good ones that hurt themselves. I think I really started getting on her and starting her on the pattern in February."

Aldridge says the filly steadily progressed all year long.

"She's very compliant," she noted. "She never wants to do anything bad. She's always been a team player."

If Sway had one fault it was leaving her barrels too straight, which caused a lot of tipped barrels.

"She's 16.2 but she wants to turn so hard," she explained. "She never does anything wrong; she's just that athletic. I think I spent a solid month of kicking over the first barrel 100 times."

In September, Aldridge sold half of the mare to Dudley and proceeded to convince her that she was worth entering a slot race. They agreed to split the entry and went looking for a slot to purchase. Aldridge's good friend Tiany Schuster offered to sell her slot of the OKC Futurity, but when she found out which horse Aldridge was entering, she wanted in on the action.

"Catherine said Tiany was going to be good luck, so we all went in three ways on it," laughed Aldridge.

At Oklahoma City, Aldridge had her confidence a little shaken when Sway ducked the second barrel in exhibitions the morning of the Slot Race. It was also the first time her co-owners got to see the

"I was super nervous because she exhibited terrible, but I had a lot of faith in her and knew I could count on her," she said.

For much of the Slot Race, Kassie Mowry had the lead on A Splash Of Nick with a 15.418.

"I really did not think I was going to be able to outrun Kassie," she said. "She's such a hand on so many different horses. We had been listening to the futurity and derby all day and the fastest thing that had been run all day had been a .4. When she went in and made that amazing run I was pretty sure I wasn't going to be able to catch her. She was at the very beginning and I was at the very end."

Aldridge went in hoping to be at least a half-second off with a .9 but posted the fastest time of the day, a 15.284.

"Man, for a 3-year-old to go in there and work like an open horse is just unbelievable," she said. "That mare was 100 percent there for me. She was .2 and still had some mistakes. She overworked the second a little and stumbled coming out of the third."

Aldridge, who owns and operates Red Hot Running Horses, built her business on fixing problem horses and sales. She went back to school and got a degree in civil engineering so she could afford to buy and train for herself, but it wasn't long after she got her degree that her horse business took off. She still works part time for the paving company SPI Asphalt.

"I actually had to turn in a bid on Tuesday and we won that so I was just having a really good week," she added. Her engineering job allowed her to be able to afford Sway and in turn Sway was able to showcase Aldridge's training talents.

"I've been hoping for years to have enough of my own horses to where I could really focus on riding my own," she said. "We're just now to where we can do that. Sway was my first horse that didn't start as someone else's problem."

"I'm always fixing stuff so it was nice to show the work that I can do when I put the time in. That mare was a really nice prospect and I worked a lot of hours to be able to buy her. It was nice to be able to show the world how nice of a horse she is."

Mowry's OKC Run is Extra Epic

By Bonnie Wheatley

Held December 9-13 at Jim Norick Coliseum, the OKC Futurity was produced by Better Barrel Races featuring a projected $124,800 payout in the AIP Energy Rookie Futurity alone.

Leading trainer Kassie Mowry bred, raised and trained Extra Epic, champion of the $30,000-added AIP Energy Rookie Futurity for coming 4-year-olds at the Oklahoma City Futurity.

The 2017 gray gelding by Epic Leader and out of the JL Dash Ta Heaven daughter A Lil Bit of Heaven was expertly guided by Mowry to a total on two runs of 31.015, which banked $9,235 for owner Jessica Lewis. Mowry and Extra Epic posted a 15.480 to win round one and $6,926, then followed up with a 15.535 for fourth in round two and another $2,508. Their dominant performance yielded $18,669 in Rookie earnings.

Lewis, who was doing therapy work on Firewatermakemehappy, aka "Junior," when Mowry ran him at the 2017 National Finals Rodeo, was looking for a prospect and the rest, as they say, is history. "Jess Lewis asked me if I had any colts. I did, and I told her

KASSIE'S KEYS TO 3's

Achieving dominant performances riding 4-year-old futurity horses with no prior competitive experience before November 15 is no easy task, but Kassie Mowry consistently excels at it. She kindly shared three keys to her successful preparation of 3-year-olds bound for juvenile-style races.

1) We have them slow loping the pattern as 2-year-olds. That's to say that I'm consistently loping the pattern on them and not throwing a lot of unrealistic expectations at them at the end of the process to get ready for a big event. I add speed a little earlier in order to give them lots of time to react to what I'm asking of them. To step them up and see how they react to maintaining a little more speed is not an overnight process, it takes a lot of time getting them there.

2) I work with my vets. These colts will have growing pains. I think it's like little kids, as they grow there's no doubt they'll go to school and get sick or experience normal growing pains. Young horses don't necessarily have the highest pain tolerance either. When I notice any soreness, the vet goes through them and we make a plan. I cannot train one that's in pain, I'm not going to go there, so I keep very close tabs on how they're feeling.

3) I'd say I am very specific about the bloodlines I ride. I'm under a timeline so it does help to have horses that mature physically and mentally a little sooner because they'll naturally be able to peak a little earlier. The bloodlines I've had the most success with have that. I want horses with the right disposition to handle pressure and also stay good for a long time after their futurity year.

Mowry not only was the Champion of the Rookie Futurity but was Reserve Champion of the Slot Race and ended up with 3 horses in the Top 9 of the Rookie Futurity Average. All told she won $55,775 on 3 yr olds alone at OKC!

about Extra Epic, but I also told her that if she bought him, he was not leaving my place," laughed Mowry. "I've kept him the whole time. I bred and raised the colt. I always thought Epic Leader would cross well on JL Dash Ta Heaven and it worked out very well.

"I think a lot of him, and I'm really happy with the way it worked out. It's a cool story," Mowry said. "I'm thankful to Jess for believing in him and trusting me with him."

When asked which traits Extra Epic shares with his sire Epic Leader, Mowry says Extra Epic shares the same kind demeanor and ground-gaining stride.

"Extra Epic is a very agreeable horse to train," she said. "The trainability, the work ethic that Epic Leader had, Extra Epic definitely has those characteristics. The Epic Leaders tend to be really big-strided horses. Epic Leader had a huge stride and Extra Epic has that same really big stride."

After a little time off, Mowry plans to prepare Extra Epic for the Arizona futurities in January.

"He's handling the pressure well," Mowry said. "We're entered at Arizona, so that's the plan. We'll let him come down from this for a little bit and then build him back up for Arizona."

Mowry, well known for her tireless work ethic, hauled 11 horses to Oklahoma City, and expressed her appreciation to her fiancé Mike Boone, and good friend Whitney Godinez for their help with the horses.

"I had amazing help keeping all the horses taken care of," Mowry said. "Knowing that the horses were all taken care of kept me from having to worry about it and allowed me to focus on what I needed to do."

Brown and Jets Top Gun Clock Fastest Time in OKC

By Bonnie Wheatley

Held December 9-13 at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds in Jim Norick Coliseum, the Oklahoma City Futurity was produced by Better Barrel Races. The event featured a widely appealing slate of classes with a $59,525 projected payout in the $20,000-added MVP Derby alone. The MVP Derby was open to foals of 2013 that had not competed prior to December 1, 2017.

Jets Top Gun ("Benny") was expertly ridden by Janna Beam Brown, Mt. Pleasant, Texas, to the MVP Derby championship for owners Jeff and Andrea Busby of Busby Quarter Horses, LLC. Busby Quarter Horses also bred the 2015 gelding, Sired by their cornerstone stallion Blazin Jetolena and out of the producing mare GL Famous First Lady, by Dash Ta Fame, Jets Top Gun posted a total on two runs of 30.619 to top the aggregate for $8,810.

In the first qualifying round, Brown says Jets Top Gun worked nice, but didn't feel quite as comfortable as she would have liked him to on the ground.

"He didn't do anything wrong, just wasn't quite as snappy feeling," Brown said, adding that their second run was better, but still not perfect.

"I felt like I ran a little bit down the pen going to first and we were a .5, which was good but I felt I could improve."

Finishing out of the money in round one with their 15.794, Brown and Benny came back in round two with a 15.521 for fifth place, worth $536. Kassie Mowry topped the first round aboard Kristen Williams' gray gelding Epic Guy (Epic Leader x Frenchchilious x Frenchmans Guy) with a 15.401 for $1,191. Gripe Gut (Jungle Jet x Redneck Gal x Country Quick Dash) was ridden by Ashley Hunt to a 15.295—and the fastest derby finals qualifying time—for first in round two and $1,191.

Qualifying with the ninth fastest time to the MVP Derby Finals, Brown had a clear objective in mind for their third run.

"I just knew that if I came back in the finals and could nail the first that he could be really fast. I just told myself, 'Don't override you horse,' and that's what I was focused on," Brown said.

And fast he was. Brown jockeyed Benny to the fastest time of the event, a 15.098, in the MVP Derby finals.

Brown expressed her gratitude to Jeff and Andrea Busby for trusting her with Benny and staying patient with her program.

"They sent him as a 3-year-old," Brown said. "Bryce Manning had started him, then he came here and we were going to run him as a 3-year-old, but I ended up being pregnant with my little boy, Jake. He was exhibitioning as a 3-year-old before Jake was born, but they kept him with me and we waited to run him, which worked out great."

Brown estimates that Benny has barrel racing earnings well in excess of $150,000 to date. She looks forward to hauling the gelding to more derbies and perhaps an American Rodeo qualification. Brown says Andrea will eventually take Benny's reins to rodeo on him. The gritty gelding's speed and honesty on the pattern are two traits that Brown says make Benny an elite performer.

"Another cool thing about him is he has a full sibling, One First Class Lady, that's won a lot for Jordon Briggs. Obviously, Blazin Jetolena is great and GL Famous First Lady is a bigtime producer too," Brown said.

"He's turny, but also has a real strong forward motion," Brown said when describing Benny's style. "I know him so well that I obviously have my timing down with him, but I do feel like he's really honest and has no cheat. I just ride him straight and ride him to his points and he works great."

Brown thanked Jeff and Andrea Busby, as well as all the clients who send her horses to ride, plus the entire team that helps make her program successful.

"I thank my husband Jody for always helping me, and basically everyone from the babysitter to the barn help, because they're all a big part of making our program work," Brown said.

Woodruff and Raw Firepower Heat Up All In Race 2

When the NFR moved to Texas in 2020, the big payouts of the All In Barrel Race came with it and moved to Stephenville, TX just an hour down the road from the NFR in Globe Life. The exciting teams of Raw Firepower & Autumn Woodruff and Aint Seen Me Yet & Maggie Polonic captured the wins of the Showdown Rounds of Races 2 & 3 respectively. We caught up with them both to ask them a little more about their $15k wins!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the All In Barrel Race 2? And your Showdown Run?

Woodruff: After we ran in race 1, I felt Buck needed an extra day off. I didn't take him to do exhibitions on check in day & I turned him out of the first round of Race 2. The second round we had a really solid run & qualified for the Showdown Round with a 14.645.

BRR: And your Showdown Run?

Woodruff: We had the 5th fastest time so we were 5 from the end in the Showdown Round. I told him, "If your going to go fast, today's the day." I'm not sure if the run could have been much better. He fired hard the whole run and had really pretty barrels. We ran a 14.398! Buck tried his heart out & he knew he'd won. I knew we were fast but I knew the last few girls were just as competitive. My whole family & I were ecstatic about it. I'm super proud of him. He wanted to win just as much as I did.

BRR: Tell us about your horse. Any funny quirks? Any special things he likes or dislikes?

Woodruff: Buck is your typical Firewater Ta Fame. He's goofy & a handful & has so much personality. Buck LOVES his MVP Gastro-Plex paste, & when I say loves, I mean he sucks it out of the tube & then wants more! He gets really upset if he doesn't get his MVP. He only likes a specific kind of treat after he runs. We have to adjust him quite a bit because he is a big baby. He loves to play with the stall fork, ropes & any kind of little animals like calves and goats.

BRR: What was your favorite part of the All In & NFR events being in Texas this year?

Woodruff: I loved it!! My horses got to stay in their own runs at home & I think that helped them a lot. I know I liked being home every night. We've been producing the ALL IN for 5 years now and it's always been one of my dreams to win it one day. Texas held the NFR with pride and did an outstanding job, but nothing is like Las Vegas.

BRR: You and your horse have won quite a bit together, what are your barrel racing plans heading into 2021?

Woodruff: My main goal is to keep my horse sound and consistent leading up to the RFD TV American Semi-Finals. We qualified in Glen Rose a few months ago. I'm pretty confident about that. We ran a 13.9 at the Stockyards a few weeks back & we haven't been there in over a year. After that, I want to try to get into the WCRA. They are doing a lot for our industry and are great people. I like to save Buck for the bigger races. He's the type to really flourish after having a break.

BRR: Since it was in Stephenville, let's get down to the most important question; what did you eat at Hard 8 that we all need to try??

Woodruff: Oh man haha! Hard 8 is great. I don't think you have to eat for about two days when you're done at that place. Their ribs & cobbler are the bomb. Another good place is The Purple Goat. I think we ate there probably 15 times or more through the whole event for good reason. Everything on the menu was tasty and they had great coverage of the NFR every night.

THE RUNDOWN w/Autumn Woodruff

Raw Firepower, "Buck" 15.2 hands, 1,200 lbs.

LTE somewhere around $80k, but not much on Equistat.

BIT: A smooth mouth with a dog bone, no gag, medium shank.

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Flex all the way around

SHOEING: His shoes are weird. Caleb Sanders customizes them for Buck.

Fronts are normal. His rear shoes curve out in the back, and on the toe we put cuts in it to give him a bit more grip but not as much as rims.

FEED: HayRite mini alfalfa cubes only

HAY: HayRite mini alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Custom blend from Pure Equine Herbs, In-Sync from MVP, EO3 oil from Kentucky Equine Research

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: A lot of chiropractic work by Stidham Equine Sports Therapy. Equi-Resp before a run. PEMF Complete therapy weekly.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I ride Buck everyday if the weather allows. You can't expect to win if you're not making a daily habit of what you want to be great at. I want to know everything about him at all times. Lots of long trotting the fence and loping circles. If the fields are dry, I'll go trot fences for an hour or so. It's about 5 miles on average. I don't work barrels everyday. When a race is coming up, I'll work him the 2 days before and just make sure he's coming to his spot & finishing his barrels good. Usually it's just for my sake! haha!

SPONSORS & THANK YOUS: This was completely a God thing. I am nowhere near perfect or deserving of this but Jesus is a gracious, loving God. My parents are so supportive of this dream & I couldn't do it without them. Mickey Hayes holds down the fort at our Split Rein Ranch & is my wise mentor and a blessing. My boyfriend, Tanner Stroud, is my best friend & helps with anything I need to get done. My great vets, Steve Hard & Josh Harvey, literally keep us running. Robbie Stidham, Stidham Equine Sports Therapy, works on Buck when he needs an adjustment. Caleb Sanders is my knowledgeable farrier! Alissa Kelly with MVP supplements makes sure that Buck has everything he needs. PEMF Complete helps Buck always feel 100% & recover as fast as possible. JD Bits creates anything we need. Cody at Snap Fitness keeps me in shape at the gym. Darcy at Granbury Spine & Sport Center puts me back in line. Thank you all so much. It takes a village.

Poloncic & Aint Seen Me Yet Rocks All In Race 3

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the All In Barrel Race 2 & 3? And your Showdown Run in Race 3?

Poloncic: We made a couple big changes to this mare before coming to the All-In so I actually wasn't sure how it would go. She qualified us back to the Shootout on her Round 1 run in Race 2, but to up her confidence and my own I decided it best to run her in Round 2 as well. She clocked faster and won some 1D money. I over-rode her in the Shootout for Race 2, but even on a bad day Puff is still phenomenal, so we took 2nd.

In Race 3 I went into the first round just wanting to make a nice run where I could really step back; not try to be fast but just "see" and be proactive about everything that was happening in our run. She did great and we won the round. In the Shootout for Race 3 I knew I didn't have to change anything, so I came down the alleyway telling myself "just make a nice practice run". I didn't expect her to be a full 2 tenths faster much less win it, but it's nothing new for this mare to amaze me every time she shuts the clock off!

BRR: Tell us about your horse. Any funny quirks? Any special things she likes or dislikes?

Poloncic: She's a handful! People don't always believe it until they see her in the warm up pen since she walks up the alleyway really quietly most of the time, but she's a very hot mare. We joke that Puff has two speeds: standing still and 9-0.

She's a very sweet, willing mare but is very intense about her job. She loves neck scratches and doing her job! Those are her two favorite things!

BRR: What was your favorite part of the All In & NFR events being in Texas this year?

Poloncic: The hospitality in Texas is second to none! I don't come down here a lot but when I do I am blown away by the "yes ma'am"s and "have a blessed day"s I hear. Watching the NFR in a whole new venue was like a breath of fresh air! That was one of the coolest rodeos I've seen to date. We didn't get a chance to go to Fort Worth/Arlington to experience any of it in person but I heard nothing but positive things. I hope it comes back to Texas!

BRR: You and your horse Aint Seen Me Yet have won at rodeos and big 4Ds and everything in between in 2020. What are your barrel racing plans moving into 2021?

Poloncic: We set ourselves inside the top 50 of the world in the 2020 season in hopes of getting into some of the bigger rodeos in 2021. We will concentrate on doing our best there and see how the new challenge of REALLY trying to pro rodeo treats us.

BRR: Since it was in Stephenville, let's get down to the most important question; what did you eat at Hard 8 that we all need to try??

Poloncic: Hahaha! So my boyfriend went to Tarleton and we got the low-down on where to go! So obviously Hard 8 was our first stop. I had a rib-eye and about every side I could get my hands on! Every bit of it was delicious!

THE RUNDOWN w/Maggie Polonci

Aint Seen Me Yet, "Puff" 14.3 hands, 15 on a good day!

After the All-In she has total LTE of $197,000

BIT: Myllimaki long shank with a copper roller made by Dave Elliott

SADDLE: Master Lightweight

SADDLE PAD: 3/4" 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy2 on the front with No-Turn bells, polos on the back

SHOEING: Puff has run barefoot up until a couple weeks ago, it's a new feeling for her and I. But we like the changes so far!

FEED: Renew Gold and soaked beet pulp shreds

HAY: Free choice grass, Alfalfa morning and night

SUPPLEMENTS: Custom blend from Pure Equine Herbs, In-Sync from MVP, E03 oil from Kentucky Equine Research

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: She gets worked on by Jenn Evans weekly. I don't know her actual title but she is my go to person for all things bodywork, body mechanics and nutrition. So I just call her the horse wizard! Love Back On Track products in the colder months and PHT in the warmer months.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Puff very rarely sees a barrel if we aren't making a run. We have recently revamped our entire conditioning program for our horses and gotten down to the science of it. I'm excited to see how all these horses continue to excel using cardio interval training and more creative, proven strength training!

SPONSORS & THANK YOUS: Obviously my parents, brother and boyfriend! They have a front row seat to all the highs and lows and stay by my side through it all. God bless them. My saddle sponsor - Master Saddles, Patti Wellmon and Katia Yovanovic-Yaksic. They have been with me from the beginning and are my biggest cheerleaders. My vet - Dr Ted Vlahos and his beautiful wife Cathy. They always have the answers and I cannot ever repay them for what they've done for Puff and I! Jenn Evans with Pure Equine Herbs - she's become a very close friend of mine! I don't trust many people with Puff but Jenn is my go-to person when I have an issue or want to celebrate something, no matter the magnitude. Mackenzie King with Kingsville Brand shirts. She keeps this fashion-challenged gal looking professional at all times! I'm proud to call her a friend.

Crawford Wins Her Third WPRA Breakaway World Title and 20th Overall WPRA Title

By Ann Bleiker

A difference maker and major advocate for women's breakaway roping it is only fitting that Jackie Crawford would be crowned the 2020 WPRA World Champion Breakaway Roper on December 10 inside Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, as part of the first-ever National Finals Breakaway Roping (NFBR).

With the title Crawford now holds three WPRA world titles in breakaway roping, her 20th overall world title. She is the second most decorated member in the history of the WPRA, trailing the late Wanda Harper Bush, a member of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, who collected 32 WPRA world titles during her career.

"I make fun of my husband (Charly) for crying in interviews, so I've got to put my big girl boots on for a second," said a very emotional Crawford after learning of her recent world title. "I think all of us are put here for a reason and God places talents in our lives and we have a purpose. I am still trying to figure out why he is letting me be on this journey and have me win these things because I know it is out of my control. I just hope I can fulfill the purpose he has me here for because this is one amazing journey that I am getting to be on and little Journey (the baby girl she is carrying at six months pregnant) getting to be on it to. She was giving me some kicks today, so she was excited."

"I am fortunate to get to be here and be in front of the camera and be able to win this thing but the credit is due to so many people who have been behind this. You guys don't know how much we appreciate it, the fans, the people that have produced this and made this all possible and I just can't thank you enough from all of us from the bottom of our hearts. Thank you guys for adding breakaway roping to ProRodeos."

Crawford started off this historic event winning the first round of the NFBR in a time of 1.9 seconds to win the Betty Gayle Cooper Ratliff fast time award, presented by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame. Crawford would start the final day of the NFBR back in the winner's circle in a time of 2.0 seconds.

"I wanted to come out here and treat it just like I did on that first day and go at these rounds," said Crawford after the ninth round victory and second go-round win. "I don't think any of these are less meaningful right now."

She would come back in the 10th round and lay down a 2.3 second run which was good for second in the round. It wasn't the National Finals Breakaway Roping 17-time WPRA World Champion JJ Hampton was hoping for but she ended it on a high note winning the 10th round in a time of 2.2 seconds. Hampton a real estate agent in nearby Stephenville, Texas, was just honored to be a part of this historic event after being a member of the WPRA since the 1991.

"I want to thank everyone for coming and cheering me on. I have the best fans," said Hampton, following her round win. "This means a whole lot to me. I didn't perform as well as I wanted to this week and was just lucky to pull out the win in the tenth round. I am just glad I finally got a chance to rope on this stage."

Following the 10th round the top eight in the average advanced to the semifinal round. Crawford was fourth in the average in a total time of 22.2 seconds on nine head. Her only no time came in the fifth round when she roped a leg and being the honest competitor she is, she pointed the illegal catch out to the pro officials who had given her a time of 2.4 seconds.

Once in the semifinals things heated up quickly with three ladies, including Crawford, stopping the clock 1.8 seconds to win the semifinals and easily advance to the final round. Joining Crawford in the winner's circle of the semifinals was Martha Angelone of Stephenville, Texas, who finished second the average in a time of 34.8 seconds on 10 head, and Jordan Fabrizio of Canyon, Texas, who won the average in a time of 34.5 seconds on 10 head.

Eight-time WPRA World Champion Lari Dee Guy would round out the top four advancing to the finals after posting a 2.0-second run. As a result, Guy would be the first gunner out in the final round and knowing she would have to win the round to have any chance at the world title she came out fast, actually a little too fast breaking the barrier and ending with a time of 12.0 seconds.

Crawford was next out and she too would incur a speeding penalty breaking the barrier and finishing with an 11.8-second run. Angelone, the NFBR champion, performed with ice in her veins stopping the clock in a cool 2.3 seconds to take over the lead in the Finals with one roper to go.

Fabrizio would be clean but not quite fast enough to catch Angelone after finishing with a 2.5-second run.

When the dust settled and all the calculating was complete, Crawford would find her name atop the WPRA World Standings for the year with $47,185. She entered the first-ever NFBR ranked second but would leave No. 1 after winning $25,536 in Arlington.

Angelone was the reserve world champion with $45,261. Angelone entered the NFBR ranked third in the world and won an event best $29,343 during the three-day competition.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I heard a rifle shot early yesterday morning! I jumped out of bed, looked out the window, and saw a man walking up the ditch. I watched him walk past our driveway and into the pasture across the highway. When he turned around, I could see he had a rifle and it looked like he might be a policeman. (It seems a deer had been hit by a car and he was being merciful.)

Mike was in the living room and said it was the police. When I looked back out the window, I saw a Sheriff vehicle go by. It was then that the argument ensued. I said, "It was a Sheriff". Mike said, "No, it's a city policeman." I said, "I saw the Sheriff's car." He said, "The car has p-o-l-i-c-e on the side." I said, "No, it said s-h-e-r-i-f-f on the side." WE ARE NOW IN A SPELLING CONTEST! Well. Coincidence. The police car was parked out of my sight, but Mike could see it. I DID see a Sheriff vehicle go by.

I told Mike it was easy to see how police officers rarely get a consistent description of a crime when there are several people telling it from THEIR perspective!

It's the same when you have people tell you what they believe about God from THEIR perspective. Friends, it's not about our perspective. It's about what the Bible says.

You can never go wrong by believing the Word of God. But you have to put your eyes on the Word for yourself, and no matter how you may feel, you believe it because HE said it. Not because YOU think it seems right or not! For practice.

The wise men were not at Christ's birth. They arrived when Jesus was a child (not baby) and in a house (not the manger). Matthew 2:1-18. YET! Do you ever see a nativity scene WITHOUT the wise men? Yikes!

Get stirred up about God! Prove to yourself with the Word of God what you believe, or don't believe. You'll be glad you did!
