Leaving Las Vegas – Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Crowned WPRA World Champs

By Tanya Randall

While signing autographs for countless young fans at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, Nellie Miller was taken back to her youth—a time when she was enamored with all the great barrel racers. Like all young riders, she dreamed of being a world champion.

“For it to actually happen, the stars have to line up perfectly. They did this week for me, which is kind of unreal. Even though I wanted it to happen, I didn’t know it actually would,” said the Cottonwood, Calif., barrel racer, who used a record-setting WNFR Championship aboard her homegrown star Rafter W Minnie Reba (“Sister”) to win the coveted World Championship with $308,498.

She was quick to thank her parents Sam and Roxy, husband James and their two young daughters and her extended family for giving her a chance to chase her dream.

“To get it accomplished is pretty special for us,” she said. “I would not be here without them. It takes a team of people to get this done. My whole family was just all in from the very beginning. I can’t thank them enough.”

WNFR Champion

Miller and 9-year-old Sister, who was named AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year by her peers, set a new aggregate record, turning in 10 clean runs in 137.32 besting Lisa Lockhart and An Oakie With Cash’s 137.98 set last year. It was the $67,269 first-place check that pushed her over the top for the World Championship.

“I had a game plan, and it wasn’t necessarily to keep the barrels up,” admitted Miller, who qualified for her first WNFR in 2010 aboard Sister’s older brother Rebas Smokey Joe (“Blue Duck”). “I wasn’t going to safety-up. I make mistakes when I do that. I told my dad and my husband under no circumstances would I be safety-ing up at any point during the 10 days. They both agreed. I think when people start thinking about playing it safe, mistakes happen, so I tried not to do that.”

Miller and Sister, who had not run much indoors outside of San Antonio and Houston earlier in the year, got tapped off right, winning the first round with a 13.64 from third on the ground.

“It gave me a lot of confidence going into the week, knowing what she could do in that arena,” she said. The proceeded to placed in six more rounds, with their slowest run a 13.93 from round six. “She’s so honest. Nothing phased her. She’ll do exactly what I tell her. I rocked a couple of barrels, and I was like, ‘Get it together, Nellie!’”

As the Finals wore on, Miller did her best to stay out of the loop as far as the world championship race.

“I didn’t want to know,” she laughed. “I didn’t want anything to distract me from making my runs. I just tried to stay away from

2017 NFR Records & Highlights

In Round 3, Kassie Mowry on Firewatermakemehappy broke the arena record (13.37 Taylor Jacob 2013, Amberleigh Moore 2016) with a 13.36. The 2 runs later Hailey Kinsel on Dm Sissy Hayday ran a scorching 13.11 to shatter the record. Kinsel & Dm Sissy Hayday came back in Round 10 and ran a 13.17 which was also faster than the previous arena record.

Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba and Ivy Conrado & Kn Fabs Gift of Fame both broke the NFR average record previously held by Lisa Lockhart & An Oakie With Cash of 137.98 from 2016. Miller's 10 run average was 137.32 and Conrado's 10 run aggregate was 137.40.

Hailey Kinsel & Dm Sissy Hayday broke the NFR earnings record for a barrel racer of $187,692 set last year by Amberleigh Moore. Kinsel ended the NFR with earnings of $189,385.

Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday won 4 go rounds (Rounds 3,6,9,10) and Amberleigh Moore & CP Dark Moon won 3 Go Rounds (Rounds 2,4, 8). Moore & CP Dark Moons have won 6 Rounds over the last 2 years.

Conrado & Kinsel both placed in 8 rounds and Miller placed in 7. With $107,096 of 2017 NFR Earnings, Lisa Lockhart and An Oakie With Cash (at age 14) earned over $100k at the NFR for the 6th straight year (2012-2017)!

Hailey Kinsel & Dm Sissy Hayday just completed an amazing year. In addition to their NFR earnings, they started off the year winning the barrels at The American and splitting the $1 million dollar bonus for qualifiers (they won $433k total), then won the College National Finals Rodeo in June, the $50k championship of the Days Of 47 at Salt Lake City, UT in July and then were the Reserve World Champion Barrel Racer for 2017. All told this pair won $750k+ in just 2017 alone. It is the richest year of barrel racing for one pair in history.

Lockhart Teams Up with Martin Saddlery

Martin Saddlery is excited to announce a partnership with the past decade's high money earner, 11-time NFR Qualifier, 4-time Canadian Champion, and 2-time RFD-TV's The American barrel racing champion, Lisa Lockhart. Martin Saddlery prides itself in quality. Along with Martin's quality, key partnerships with trusted professionals that cultivate ingenuity with craftsmanship, research, and expertise all work together to create a valuable tool that helps riders and their horses excel in and out of the arena.

Lisa Lockhart is a legend in professional barrel racing. Her rodeo and horsemanship roots run deep, growing up in Montana and raising a family in South Dakota. We believe Lisa's horsemanship and foundation parallels ours based on a love for what we do. Unlike many companies in the industry, Martin's management and designer's work and passion are one in the same; our tree engineers and leather craftsman are horsemen alike and live their work every day. Be sure and like Martin Saddlery on facebook, Instagram and visit www.martinsaddlery.com for updates.

that. Of course, I knew it was going well. You just have to make runs and not focus on that kind of stuff.”

By the ninth round, Miller was listed as the projected World Champion if she remained leading the average.

“It’s hard to believe, but the 10th round was pretty calm for us. We were all pretty relaxed,” she said. Running last on the ground, she finished just out of the round money in seventh, but suspected that she had won the average.

“I had stopped my horse about half-way down the alley and they said I needed to get on the flag horse. I knew I had probably won the average. So, I jumped the fence to get on the flag horse and one of the guys down there came up to me and said, ‘You won the world,’ and then they yelled at me to get in the arena!” she chuckled. “I knew right away when I was getting on that flag horse, but the rest of my family had no clue! They were like ‘Who won it? Who won it?’”

Family Affair

Miller’s World Championship actually began back in 1994, when her father Sam bred her future junior and high school rodeo horse Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike, to Mr Bar Truckle in hopes of gaining another rope horse for himself. The resulting foal, Blue Duck, would carried Miller through college and to her first NFR in 2010.

In 2008, Espuela Roan was bred to the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet stallion, KS Cash N Fame. And like Blue Duck, she underwent the same training program. Miller’s dad rode Sister almost exclusively through her fifth year. Miller climbed aboard when she was turning six.

“We team up when it comes to starting them on the barrels,” Miller explained. “He teaches them how to turn a barrel. He turns a lot of barrels on them, but not the pattern necessarily, until they’re older. I get on them when they’re ready to be patterned. I’ll start them on that basically. It’s a lot easier really, they already know how to turn—all you have to do is teach them which way to turn.”

Miller said that she knew Sister was special the first time she rode her, but she didn’t know just how much.

“I obviously wouldn’t have said world champion at that time, but she seemed to know what needed to happen,” she said. “She just always understood what she needed to do.”

The biggest issue was making the adjustment from Blue Duck, who is free-rolling, to a more ratey Sister.

“For me, it was trusting her,” she said. “Figuring out that you could totally trust that mare to do her job every time. With Blue Duck, I was always a little more cautious. With her, it’s so much fun because you can throw the reins at her and ask her for her life every time and she gives it to you.”

Miller’s initial goal was to get the mare seasoned, which can be challenging in Northern California as say compared to North Central Texas where there’s a jackpot nearly every day of the week.

“There’s not a whole lot to go to up here, so I set a goal to go to take her somewhere once a week at that stage,” she explained. “We either went to a jackpot or a rodeo. I ended up buying my amateur card and going to a few of those, but honestly, it didn’t last that long because she came on really fast and progressed. We started entering pro rodeos shortly after that.”

Sister made her pro rodeo debut mid-summer of her seventh year.

“In 2015, I took her to Salinas and that was her second rodeo ever,” she said. “She hit a barrel in the first round, but placed in the second two rounds. That was an eye-opener to me. That’s a tough rodeo and for her to go out and do that on her second rodeo ever was pretty impressive.”

They won Salinas the very next year, which set them up to win the California Circuit Championship. With that money counting toward the WPRA World Standings, Miller was able to use that money and a strong early fall in the Northwest to qualify for the building rodeos in 2017.

Strong performances at San Antonio, Houston and the RAM National Circuit Finals helped Miller and Sister move near the top of the standing going into late spring. A Reno Rodeo championship and a solid performance at Calgary, all but solidified her qualification. They essentially wrapped up their season with an Ellensburg Rodeo Championship. Her checks from 47 regular season rodeos—the fewest of any WPRA World Champion in recent years—put her third going into the WNFR with $130,537.

come increasingly hectic at the NFR since Miller’s first appearance in 2010, she drew on prior experience to make her second trip more productive and enjoyable.

“Oh my gosh! It was crazy!” she laughed. “In 2010, I didn’t have near as many commitments or sponsors. The whole thing in general...there’s just so much going on in Vegas at the same time. It’s just hectic. It’s good though, because it gives people different reasons for going. I think it’s bigger and better each year.”

Fellow California Circuit barrel racer Katie Pascoe was head horse wrangler for Team Miller.

“She brought my backup horse (the late Ruth Haislip’s pro rodeo winner Famous Scarlett, a half-sister to Tillar Murray’s Royal Star Commander),” explained Miller. “She stayed with the horses and took care of them and got them ready to go. She really saved us. We would have been run ragged if we had to do all of that stuff too.” Miller also stayed off grounds and hauled in each night. It was something she learned to do after 2010.

“We stayed at the Thomas & Mack the first time around and it wasn’t bad,” she said. “With her, our goal was to make her a comfortable as possible and stay at the best places possible. We just kept doing what we did all year.”

She also made use of every practice session.

“Before we went I set the goal to go to every practice, not necessarily run barrels, but just to get her in the arena and get her relaxed,” she explained. “We went to every practice they had, which was like every other morning. I just walked her a lot in the alleyway to get her calmed down. She got pretty nervous going to the alley on me. I don’t work the pattern a lot on her normally, so I’d just go in and ride around the arena and turn a few barrels, but not the pattern too much. I just wanted to take the pressure off her during those practice sessions.”

Miller was also able to have a lot of family and friend in attendance—including her two girls.

“My parents were there the whole time,” she said. “Lots of my family and friends showed up throughout the week to help. It was an awesome team of people to get it all done. I had such great help and wasn’t tired and miserable the whole time,” she said. “I wasn’t worn out trying to go do everything. Overall, we had a great time.”

Repeat?

Even though she grew up in a rodeo family—her dad was an avid circuit competitor—Miller didn’t start competing until she was 12. It’s been her love ever since.

“I just loved it because it gave me a direction; it gave me a goal,” she said. “Ever since, I’ve set rodeo goals. After 2010, I started a family and I thought I would be okay without going so much, but I wasn’t because I loved it so much. I took my family on the road this year and it was the best thing we could have done. It’s the way I want to raise my kids. It’s what makes good people and good family.”

Sister’s prowess and the rodeo schedule have helped her find balance between the rodeo road and motherhood.

“There are so many good rodeos to choose from now,” she said. “It works out well for us. I try not to spend the whole time in Texas during the winter. It’s hard being from California. I’ll only pick and choose a couple during the winter to go to and then I go during the spring and summer. That works well for us because the spring rodeos are in California and in the summer the kids are out of school.”

She hopeful that her daughters will grow up loving rodeo like she does.

“They ride the mom to Sister and Blue Duck,” she said. “She’s 26 now. That’s who I learned to rodeo on and that’s who taught me how to ride, for them to be able to do that ... My dad kept good horses under me as a I grew up and I hope to do that for my kids too.”

One of those good horses will likely be Sister one day, to which Miller replied, “I can’t wait! That’ll be icing on the cake!”

Miller won’t be afoot though, she still has more bullets in the gun—Sister and Blue Duck’s 7-year-old half-brother by Dashair and Sister’s 6-year-old full brother.

“I’m really excited about them,” she said. “I’m looking forward to spending the next couple of months getting them going.”

In Round 1, all 6 checks went to 1st time NFR horses. 2017 Horse of the Year, Rafter W Minnie Reba and Nellie Miller, showed they sure deserved that honor running a fast 13.64 3rd out on the ground and winning the round.

Taci Bettis’s saddle slipped on the way to the third causing her to go off pattern and receive a No Time.

NFR Fan favorites Louie (An Oakie With Cash) & Lisa Lockhart used the top of the ground to tie for the round win and run one of Louie's fastest ever times at the Thomas & Mack at 14 years young. Kn Fabs Gift Of Fame and Ivy Conrado kept improving their position in the rounds, tying for the win in round 5. It was this team's 3rd 13.5 in a row and their 4th check in 5 rounds. DM Sissy Hayday & Kinsel placed 3rd to place in all 5 rounds so far. Kinsel also leads the average with Conrado right behind her.

& Hillman, have not won a check through 5 rounds. There are 7 people left with all clean runs in the average.
Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi switched horses from Steele Magnolias to Freckles Ta Fame; Tillar Murray switched from Dirty Dan Stinson back to Royal Star Commander.

and organized and genuinely very nice people! Especially SamiJo! So I was super excited and Race 1 Run 1 did not go well! I hit a barrel or 2; can't remember now, so shook it off and was ready for the next day! Race 1 Run 2, Yugo, (aka SKS Pass The Cola) was ready! He smoked a run and won that race! He's so amazing; even with rider errors that boy can stop a clock! Just a gem! So we made it to the Shootout round and I was last...and .... you know what they say, "it ain't over til the last one runs!" And it couldn't be more true cause we won it by 6/1000ths of a second over my friend Kate Quast (on Eb Bank On The Money)!

BRR: Can you describe the experience and feeling of running at the All In during the NFR and all the other events going on in Vegas this past week?

Payntier: The experience was so cool! It was fun too cause all the energy in Vegas due to all the events going on! It was really neat to run with past NFR qualifiers too! That is really special and everyone is so kind and nice! This is a very special time in Vegas for sure!!

BRR: What can you tell us about your horse Sks Pass The Cola and what makes him so special?

Payntier: The story of Yugo! He is special! I always tell the story cause it's my favorite! I honestly feel that he was a special gift on my birthday straight from heaven! God gave me the best birthday present anyone could ask for! He's my best friend! He's more than a barrel horse; he is family! I got him from my friend Kassandra (Paprocki), she wasn't getting along with him at the time and she called me and said to come get him and it happened to be on my birthday, soooo I did! I had seen him the year before at the NBHA show in Vegas and she knew I liked him and I called about him as a rope horse the year prior for my son! Long story short; he had to have surgery and it was a 50/50 shot, everyone thought I was nuts except one friend! My trainer's husband, Vince (Montano), he sat at my table and said, "go for it" and I was gonna anyway, but it was just great to hear someone agree with me! (LOL) He then had rehab and we slowed him down for a year (Kathy did) and then he had an accident with another rider and he bounced back fast! Thank you God, Dr Schur, my acroscope and Kathy (Montano) and the rest is history! I've had him 3 years now and I cannot tell you how grateful I am to be his human! He truly is special! I will always be eternally grateful to Kassandra for calling me, knowing I liked Yugo!

BRR: What did you do to prepare yourself and your horse for this race?

Payntier: Well without Thrive I know I couldn't keep up with him! He is powerful and Thrive keeps me healthy and in shape and I feel better now than I did 20 years ago! I just keep him legged up and we do slow work! He too gets all his vitamins, in his grain! Thank you DAC and Silver Lining Herbs!

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule (times per wk/type of riding, type of riding etc.) with your horse leading up to a big race like this?

Payntier: I rode him in the arena 3-4 times a week and get out to the trail at least once to keep his mind happy.

BRR: What are your 2018 barrel racing plans?

Payntier: 2018 I plan to hit some rodeos and ride, ride, ride. My goal is to win in my division. When I got my permit; Yugo filled it in 2 weekends and then I got my card so now it's time to figure out how to do this rodeo thing!

Q&A with Sophie Palmore

BRR: Walk us through your run in the Race 2 Showdown...

Palmore: My mare, Wanda, completely surprised me with her showdown run. We made it back in the last hole of the 2D and ended up winning the whole thing. I never doubted that she could do it. She always shows up when it counts.

BRR: Can you describe the experience and feeling of running at the All In during the NFR and all the other events going on in Vegas this past week?

Palmore: I'm just so thankful to compete with such big names in barrel racing. It's a big confidence builder to know that me and my horses can run with the best.

BRR: What can you tell us about your horse Fortunes Flame and what makes her so special?

Palmore: Fortunes Flame (aka Wanda) is one of the grittiest mares I've ever ridden. I can take her to any setup on any kind of ground and she makes the same run every time.

BRR: What did you do to prepare yourself and your horse for this race?

Palmore: I prepared for this race just like I would any other. I feel like my horses work the best when I keep a consistent routine.

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule (times per wk/type of riding, type of riding etc.) with your horse leading up to a big race like this?

Palmore: I normally ride my horses 2 or 3 times a week, and put them on the exerciser all the other days. I try not to work my finished horses on the barrels too much, unless they really need tuning on.

BRR: What are your 2018 barrel racing plans?

Palmore: I just turned 18 this past October, so my sister and I are planning to pro rodeo this coming year. I would really like to make the finals, or at least win rookie.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Just a few days away from celebrating the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus! What an exciting time! It seems like everywhere you go now, people are nice! Smiling! Hopeful! Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and chatting up people that you don't know, but might be in line somewhere with you. It's somehow easier to ask a total stranger if all their shopping is done. It's probably someone you don't know and may never see again, but there you are. Wouldn't that be a great time to share Jesus? Not just shopping and gifts....but the real person Jesus? I think I just heard the brakes go on in a lot of people! Now listen. You do not have to whip out your Bible and start saying "thus" and "thou". If you were standing in a tack store discussing the latest bit or saddle, you would tell them how they may have worked for you on this horse or that horse. Easy. Telling someone what Jesus did for you today, yesterday or last week, or the benefits of personally knowing Him, should be easy. No one can talk you out of Him. He's real. He gets results. Just present Him, to them, with all His goodness. It could be fun!

From our house to yours, we wish you the most blessed Christmas ever!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
