NFR 2020 LEGENDARY

2020 NFR Heads to Texas...Are You Ready?

Its finally here, it's finally here!! After a crazy 2020, we all are ready to settle in and watch 10 great rounds of barrel racing!! Nothing about 2020 has been normal...and rodeo in 2020 was definitely not normal either.

After a blazing start to the year, Covid 19 shut down rodeo in the middle of Rodeo Houston in March and there wasn't another rodeo until the last week of May. Then, when rodeos did start back up, many were cancelled for 2020 which left fewer rodeos in fewer locations for contestants to enter. The rodeos forging forward saw record numbers and the competition for those checks out there was stiff! Between the tough competition for 2020 along with the extra driving to make all the available rodeos, those who qualified for the 2020 NFR definitely ran the gauntlet. Although tough on the contestants, the fans across the country had the opportunity to see the best in the world at their hometown rodeo!

After several years of record amounts needed to qualify for the NFR in Barrel Racing, the 2020 Earnings look like those from 10-15 years ago. Brittney Barnett earned the #15 spot with $39,565 earned. With the Covid restrictions in Nevada, the NFR was moved out of Las Vegas for the first time since it went there in 1985 and headed to Texas and Globe Life Field in Arlington.

The show must go on, but the payout will be a little less than in recent years. The total Wrangler NFR payoff will be $6 million instead of the $10 million of recent years. This means the go rounds will pay $15,738 for the win and the average will pay $40,362 (could increase if prize money increases); however the Championship points, which count towards the World Standings, will be the same as in the past years; $26,231 for a go round win and $67,269 to win the average.

All in all, everyone involved in rodeo in 2020 is just thankful for the opportunity to hold the 2020 NFR and on top of that, have it in a really cool place like Globe Life Field. The NFR being there added another wrinkle, running a standard pattern at the NFR! It is going to be a blast to see all these great horses run a big pattern similar to what they do all summer at the classic outdoor rodeos.

With the standard pattern are we going to see more horse switching? How will all the horses handle the wide open spaces of the 1st and 2nd barrels? It is going to be must see TV! Make sure you have the The Cowboy Channel, RFDTV or the Cowboy Channel Plus app! All the action is there!

We want to take this chance to thank these Top 15 barrel racers for always taking time from their so, so busy schedule to get back to us throughout the year. We really appreciated all their time and effort. They should all be commended for their fortitude and determination to get qualified for the 2020 NFR!

As in past years we thought we would include a few notes and insights into each of the Top 15!

#1 Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi, $86,725, 41 rodeos, 14 NFRs

The veteran competitor Tonozzi comes into the 2020 NFR with three really fast home raised horses, Kisskiss Bangbang, Ima Famous Babe, and Babe On The Chase. All 3 of her horses contributed to her #1 position throughout the year. The standard pattern fits her horses perfectly; Kisskiss Bangbang in fact set the North American record on a standard with a 16.4. With the new NFR setup, her vast experience is sure to come in handy! She has been winning along all fall with her crew and with a good week Tonozzi could cruise to her 3rd World Title.

#2 Hailey Kinsel, $78,461, 39 rodeos, 4 NFRs

Another year, another year with Hailey Kinsel right at the top of the pack. Kinsel has a fleet of horses coming to the NFR, but all eyes will be on Dm Sissy Hayday (Sister) and Kinsel. They have cruised to the last 2 world titles and along the way have won on every setup that a rodeo committee can come up with. Sister is now over $1.7 million in earnings and closing in on being the highest earning barrel horse of all time. This year at Dodge City, KS they set the PRCA/WPRA rodeo record on a standard pattern, running a 16.63 on the bottom of the ground. Like the last 3 yrs at the NFR, Kinsel & Sister will be the team to watch and could easily grab a 3rd world title by the end of the ten rounds.

#3 Dona Kay Rule, $67,454, 43 rodeos, 2 NFRs

The team of Rule and her speedy sorrel, High Valor, have become fan favorites over the last couple years. The smooth communication between Rule & Valor allows them to adapt to any set up. Valor, by Valiant Hero, is of course bred to be a top race horse, so the standard pattern will be no problem for these two. It will be fun to watch this team at Globe Life. If they get on a roll they are going to push Tonozzi and Kinsel for the world title!

#4 Jimmie Smith, $65,022, 54 rodeos, 1 NFR

Jimmie Smith comes to her first NFR with a horse she has been running for several years, Lena On The Rocks. She had a great winter before the Covid shutdown, so she was able to keep Lena fresh throughout most of 2020 and comes to the NFR fresh and ready for 10 rounds. Although Smith is competing in her first NFR, she has competed at all the big rodeos across the country, knows her horse really well, and thrived in the building environment over the winter. She is also an experienced breakaway roper; so her wide experience competing should help her take the Globe Life Field NFR and standard pattern in stride.

#5 Tiany Schuster, $55,060, 66 rodeos, 2 NFRs

Schuster comes in to the 2020 NFR with 4 horses, Show Mance, Famous Mic Guy Ver, Marysmoonshinebandit, and Version Six, that could all be the #1 mount on a standard pattern. She will start on Show Mance, a high octane proven horse who she rode to her 2017 NFR Qualification when she set the new WPRA regular season earnings record of $250,378. Show Mance set an arena record in Jerome, ID this summer on a big outdoor pattern, so he should love the standard. All 4 horses she knows well and they are all very fit and ready, so look for her to move up the standings.

#6 Jill Wilson, $53,371, 35 rodeos, 1 NFR

Over the last several years as we edited results, the names Jill Wilson and Lean Mean Blue Dean popped up over and over. It was only a matter of time until they went to a few more rodeos and hit a lick. They won Oakley City, UT and Big Ford over the summer and were the high money winners at the big outdoor rodeos over the 4th of July. Her big grey gelding is really deceiving, he will look like he is just loping around and then... boom to the lead!

#7 Shelley Morgan, $53,075, 49 rodeos, 2 NFRs

Morgan and her big strided mare HR Fameskissandtell placed consistently all summer long on those big summer setups. The 1st and 2nd barrels way off the fence in the Globe Life NFR arena won't be a problem for this team. Morgan has just brought this mare along slowly over the last couple years to prepare her for

Cowboy Channel to Broadcast 10+ Hours Daily From 2020 NFR

The Cowboy Channel, which is the official network of ProRodeo and the first 24-hour television network totally dedicated to western sports and the western lifestyle, officially announced today the broadcast schedule and talent reporting for its first live broadcast of the most coveted rodeo, the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, December 3-12, 2020.

For 10 nights, the NFR will showcase 10 rounds of professional rodeo competition where the top 15 cowboys and cowgirls in each event compete for a world championship.

"We have an incredible lineup of television hosts who will be covering some of the most iconic events and athletes for 10 days straight, and we have a few more surprises in the works," said Raquel Gottsch, The Cowboy Channel CEO. "If you've never seen a rodeo before on television, you don't want to miss out on this sold-out championship event. We are taking our broadcast technology and reporting to the next level to showcase the best of rural America, the western lifestyle and rodeo fans."

"This NFR has a level of excitement that I have never seen before," said Jeff Medders, main television host of the Wrangler NFR and The Cowboy Channel GM/President. "I think fans are excited for the Texas experience, but the wall-to-wall coverage planned on The Cowboy Channel is a complete game-changer! Even though this is the first time the NFR has been on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV, we will have a strong and familiar talent lineup. Butch Knowles, Joe Beaver, Luke Branquinho, Don Gay and myself have a few NFRs under our belts. This will be a great blend of old and new."

The Cowboy Channel, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Rural Media Group (RMG) announced earlier this year a multi-year agreement which had the NFR move to The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV beginning in 2020.

The Cowboy Channel NFR broadcast also will air on RFD-TV and Rural Radio. The simulcast will showcase new technological advances such as 4K, Sky Cam footage, 360 Degree cameras and Ghost cams to not miss one single second of the action. In addition to The Cowboy Channel's television network, the coverage will also be available for live streaming + on demand in three languages – English, Spanish and Portuguese – on the PRCA on Cowboy Channel+ app for $99.99 for the 10 days at www.cowboychannelplus.com. The mobile app will offer up-to-the minute scoring, news, highlight clips, standings, trivia, interactive games and more.

just this situation. It's close to home for Morgan and she will take advantage and win through all 10 rounds.

#8 Stevi Hillman, $52,389, 49 rodeos, 5 NFRs

Hillman throughout her 5 NFR years has relied heavily on Cuatro Fame (Truck) over the summer at those bigger summer rodeos to push her up the standings. This more wide open set up at Globe Life Field is quite similar to the set up right across the street at AT&T Stadium where this pair won the 2020 The American right before the shutdown. Recently, her main backup MCM Imasharp-guy and Truck ran 1-2 at a jackpot on a standard pattern. Her team is ready for a big 10 days!

#9 Jessica Routier, $51,371, 42 rodeos, 3 NFRs

Routier and her amazing palomino mare, Fiery Miss West (Missy) are prepared and ready for their 3rd straight NFR. Riding through the pastures of South Dakota is a great way to get some air in one! Routier knows how to have this mare ready for those bigger patterns when she leaves home, as she is very selective how many rodeos she goes to all year. This team should be one to look out for in the average as well as the rounds!

#10 Cheyenne Wimberley, $47,039, 65 rodeos, 4 NFRs

Wimberley is coming into her 4th NFR and second in a row. She is another one who won along all summer long and is yet another barrel racer with an amazing team of horses. She plans to start out on former Old Fort Days Futurity Champion, Kn Fabs Mist Of Fame (Misty) and also use Dash Ta Suz who has been a big part of her last two NFR Qualifications. Misty is a full sister to JLo (Kn Fabs Gift Of Fame) who has dominated recent NFRs and Misty really loves a big open pattern so this could be a team to watch in those go rounds!

#11 Ryann Pedone, $42,581, 70 rodeos, 1 NFR

Pedone and her main mount for 2020, Feel The Sting had a big time win at the Tour Finale in Rapid City, SD to qualify for the 2020 NFR on the very last weekend of rodeos for the 2020 season. Although Stinger is injured and will sit out the 2020 NFR, Pedone comes loaded with 3 talented horses, French Zone, HP Dash Ta Fiesta, and Js Milo And Stitch. French Zone set an arena record in Sikeston, MO and is winning form recently; HP Dash Ta Fiesta recently won the Northside rodeo and JS Milo And Stitch recently won the High Roller Race at the BFA. She is a veteran competitor in the futurity world and with the talented horses she has she should make some noise!

#12 Emily Miller-Beisel, $42,388, 47 rodeos, 2 NFRs

Beisel and her team of horses just kept getting stronger all summer long. Her young horse Biddin On Fame (Beau) really came on over the summer and he will be teamed up with Namgis D 33 (Chongo). Chongo was on fire at the 2019 NFR in Vegas but also has proven to run well in big set ups too. With the world championship being decided by the points; the $26k per round win and $67k for the average win will allow any of the Top 15 to make a run at the world title; so look out for Beisel and her team.

#13 Lisa Lockhart, $40,904, 46 rodeos, 14 NFRs

Lockhart comes to Arlington with two pretty famous mare; Rosas Cantina CC (Rosa) and Tres Movidas (Vida). Both of them love big patterns; Rosa has won Calgary and Vida recently won both rounds and the average of the Pink Buckle with Hallie Hanssen. Lockhart is a veteran competitor ($2.7 million in career earnings) and will know how to have her horses just right for this Globe Life NFR setup. Both these mares could win rounds and push Lockhart right to the top of the standings....

#14 Wenda Johnson, $39,953, 24 rodeos, 1 NFR

With only 24 rodeos, Johnson made the most of the rodeos she went to. She plans to start on one of her high octane First Moon-flash team, Macgyver Moonflash. He is bred to run 440s for big money in Ruidoso so the standard pattern isn't going to bother him. He is a 1st place type of horse and if he gets tapped off there, they will be an exciting team to watch. She also has Sr Industry Tital and Dreams First Flash to back up Mac if they are needed.

#15 Brittney Barnett, $39,565, 84 rodeos, 1 NFR

If you caught the rodeos on the Cowboy Channel through the year, you couldn't miss this team of Barnett with the little Paint (Chicks Keen O Pocopoo). The wild colored sorrel and white paint and Barnett give it their all every time they run through those gates. That try and grit got them into the 15th position and they are sure to bring that to Globe Life. They won't miss a barrel and they will put up a good time and the others are going to have to come try to outrun them every night. They will be another exciting team to watch.

All these girls have worked so hard all year to get here and each one of them have assembled an awesome set of horse to run at Globe Life. We wish all of you the best of luck! May you all have 10 fast, safe runs and see where the chips fall!

This year the standings are so close, it really will come down to who has the best NFR; so let's sit back, watch and enjoy a little bit of normalcy in a far from normal year!

WAIT LIST

Birdie is the old soul, she gets fired up when its time to run but she is easy to deal with on the ground and to be around.

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: I was fortunate to have a dream winter and 50k won before Houston which made a huge impact on my summer travel. I got to stay home a lot and picked when and where I wanted to go. It was a nice change from the hustle and bustle and really got to enjoy some time at home.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: My horse roster changed quite a bit from what I would run at Vegas. Mona is going to get to compete at her first NFR. She has always been the deciding factor that has gotten me there so now she is going to get to see the bright lights!

RUNDOWN w/KissKiss BangBang

Bit: Loomis gag (which I hate to run in but she loves)

Head Gear: none- she cant even take a curb chain

Saddle: Pozzi Pro Racer by Double J saddlery

Pad: Professional's Choice Good Medicine Pad

Leg Gear: Professional's Choice Ventechs on all four Shoeing: Scott Funston shoes my horses. She has aluminums on the front and nothing on the back

Feed: Purina Well Solve LS

Hay: Manzanola Top of the Rockies hay cubs

Supplements: Oxygen - Mag Select, Immune, Bio-Gut Oil daily

Alternative Therapies: Acuscope and RLT laser

Daily/Weekly riding program: Totally depends on where I am and what is going on.

Sponsors: Purina Feed, Tanner Equine, Professional's Choice, Oxy-Gen, Roper and Stetson Apparel, Equicare, Double J Saddlery, it matters if I'm happy with him. He wants everything to be fun and doesn't like to share me with other horses.

Juice is grumpy and picky about everything needs to be the same, he hated change in his routine. He acts mad at me but if I walk off he buckets like "where ya going?" (He's not as grumpy as he acts.

Cajun is silly, inquisitive and super sweet, also very intelligent. He LOVES his treats after the run, his eyes get big and his lips are already ready for them, it's quite comical!

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Rule: Lots of driving! The unknown was hard for me, not knowing where to park, where the arena is in town, where the secretary office is etc.... that's hard for me.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Rule: I added more conditioning to each day but really every new venue has it's challenges. I bet we'll all like it.

RUNDOWN

Bit: Daily I use an O ring or a Little S side pull but I run in a Sherry Cervi short shank 3 piece.

Saddle: John Rule Saddle

Leg Gear: Classic Equine boots all the way around

Shoeing: Dusty Franklin has been my farrier for 19 years and when in Utah I use Travis Swenson, when in Idaho I use Brian Nelson.

Feed: Koolspeed Feed

Hay: Alfalfa hay

Supplements: Nano Q 10 as an Anti-oxidant from Kentucky Equine Research

Sponsors: Express Ranches, Owl Manor, Immuvet Stop 20, Deanna Harrison Essential Oils, Flair Strips

WPRA NOTES: Husband, John. Met her husband inside the National Saddlery shop in Oklahoma City, a business they bought and ran together from 1980-2008. They even used to make the world champion saddles for the PRCA (1988-1998). Raised two kids – son: Marshall and daughter, Kayla... Has been a top trainer for years but would train and sell and never made a run for the NFR until High Valor came along. In 2017, she and her horse A Juicy Adventure were both injured at the Springville, Missouri Rodeo. The injury forced Rule to start using Valor a horse she had purchased from Lana Merrick as a four-year old... Her father passed away in the spring of 2019 and she plans to take his saddle to ride in the grand entry aboard A Juicy Adventure.

ground she is super laid back but knows when it's game time! Mini is the complete opposite. I rarely ever ride her I always pony her. She's not as enjoyable to ride at home! Haha!! She knows her job! I warm her up & get off of her until it's my turn! Pixie is very quirky! You can't hard tie her or she will set back. She will pull back when you tighten her saddle & won't walk on to a wash rack! But she is a seasoned veteran when it comes to running barrels!

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Smith: I was blessed to have a very successful winter! With that being said I was able to ride Pixie and Mini more throughout the summer and keep Lena rested! We had a ton of fun going to rodeos we have never been to before! Everywhere was extremely tough & there were a few weeks that were extremely tiring!

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Smith: I have never experienced Vegas, so I'm not sure how I would have prepared for that, but my horses are in the best physical shape

Age: 43 - Hometown: Krum, TX - Joined WPRA: 2008

Career earnings: $476,542 - NFR Qualifications: 2 (2017, 2020)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Schuster: Show Mance, 10 yo sor. gelding, 15.3 h

"Show Prancy" is how I affectionately refer to him.

Famous Mic Guy Ver (Micguyver), 5 yo gr. gelding, 15.3/16.0 h
Micguyver is a sexy good looking guy and he knows it! And loves to have his picture taken!!

Marysmoonshinebandit (Bandit), 5 yo ches. gelding, 15.2/15.3 h
Justaheartofawarrior x Bar Lotta Merri, Merridoc
Bandit is the New Kid on the block and he has a big ego!

Version Six (Six), 11 yo sor. gelding, 15.2/15.3 h
Latest Version x A Sixes Cowgirl, Stoli
Sixi is my solid rock. He always shows up. And is soooo fun to run!
Sixi is the most happy horse in the barn.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Schuster: Show Mance LTE $500k, Micguyver LTE $150k, Bandit LTE Approx. $50k, Six LTE $150k

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Schuster: Show Mance is definitely my horse... and I'm his person!
Its a connection I haven't had in a horse in a long time... and probably won't have for a long while again.

Micguyver needs Devin to do a Tic Tok of him. Lol!

Bandit.... well he just is a loud mouth Italian Kid. And well.... he is our Italian Kid! Hahahaha

And Version Six... he is just happy! Nickers and delighted every time he sees you. He makes my heart so happy.

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Schuster: I just went. Micguyver and Show Mance; they showed up and did the work. We just had a little lady luck on our side when we needed it this year. Show Mance was good and strong and closed the year out well.

#6 Jill Wilson, $53,371

Age: 43 - Hometown: Snyder, TX - Joined WPRA: 2012

Career earnings: $155,337 - NFR Qualifications: 1 (2020)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Wilson: Lean Mean Blue Dean (Blue Dean), 15 yr old gr. gelding
Fabulous In Bed (Sonny), 9 yr old bay gelding, owned by Stephanie Brewer

Plan to start on Blue Dean first couple rounds, then we will see!

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Wilson: Blue Dean LTE $203,137

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Wilson: Blue Dean does not like dogs, especially small ones!

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Wilson: We started this year just trying to check off some "bucket list" rodeos like San Antonio and Houston with really no realistic plans for the NFR. (We were looking forward to first year qualification to Calgary, however, that one got cancelled.) Luckily, we were sitting in a great spot at the end of the winter rodeos when everything got shut down... when the rodeos started back we placed pretty consistently through June; then we had an outstanding 4th of July so that pretty well sealed the deal for us. We continued to rodeo here and there but I didn't feel like I had to make every one they had after July.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Wilson: I don't know that we have prepared much differently because of the arena size. Blue Dean has had a good long break since September so we have been mainly focusing on fitness and stamina. The game plan on him is certainly different depending on the arena size. Like most he is pretty ratey in the small confined pens, but can be pretty free in the big ones so I just need to make sure I adjust my riding to give him the best opportunity to work like he can!

the NFR?

Morgan: This year I just tried my best to roll with the flow and make it count when I had the opportunity! My horses made it a lot easier this year by exceeding any expectations I could have ever dreamed of having! They ran amazing and therefore lessened the stress on us! I try to not to worry and would remind myself at each rodeo the verse that says "God has overcome the world!" And that God already knows the outcome all I need to do is mount up and be my best and be thankful! I also have an amazing husband who does 100% of the planning, driving, and any other little details and supports me beyond belief to where all I have to do is worry about me and my horses. I know how much I depend on him and I do my best not to ever take that for granted! He is amazing and makes rodeo easy for me!

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Morgan: I can't wait for the NFR at Globe Life Field! I think it's going to be amazing. The standard pattern doesn't bother me, when you add it all up, we still turn 3 barrels, it's just a few more strides in the straights so as long as we have safe ground I think the horses will be fine. I have done my best to get my horse in the best shape I can so her runs will be a walk in the park for her. Lol. If that's possible! I don't feel I changed a lot preparing for Globe Life Field vs Thomas and Mack!

Hillman: Cuatro Fame LTE $515,784, MCM ImASharpGuy is about $229,755

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Hillman: Well... having 3 Dash Ta Fames and funny little Sharpie makes for an interesting time!! Lots of patience, lots of egos and a lot of our time is trying to keep horses in a good mood. They are all 4 really funny, needy, and all want to be the main horse. They expect cookies and attention!

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Hillman: It was a difficult year for everyone. It was harder for us mostly because we were used to having the big rodeos to win good money at, so without those we had to drive a lot for smaller amounts of money and less runs, which for Truck, he does better with more runs. So it was definitely a different year of rodeo for us but we are so thankful for the ones who did have rodeos for us and now having the opportunity to run at the NFR after not knowing if they would even have it.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Hillman: We went to Tammy Kidd's barrel races at NRS 3 times, she had a standard pattern race there so it was nice to get some air in the horses lungs and let them feel that again. Thankful for that! Just kept their exercises a little longer, to help push them for the hard 10 days ahead.

My mother in law, Ceri, also used her Proscope machine daily and will continue to through the NFR.

WPRA NOTES: Husband, Ty...Serves as a radiologic technician, taking -x-rays, CT scans and working in surgery. ..Favorite rodeo is Salinas because you can get fresh fruit and the ocean all in one; if she wasn't a barrel racer she would probably be a pediatrician; actress that would play her in a movie is Reese Witherspoon because people say she looks like her...In 2020, she won the non-sanctioned RFD-TV's The American in Arlington, TX

#9 Jessica Routier, $51,371

Age: 37 - Hometown: Buffalo, SD - Joined WPRA: 2010

Career earnings: $560,962 - NFR Qualifications: 3 (2018-20)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Routier: Fiery Miss West (Missy)- 9 yr old palomino mare 14.3 hands. Owned by Gary Westergren. She is who has carried me to all 3 of my NFR qualifications

High on Smoothies (Nicki)- 5 yr old sorrel mare. 15 hands. Owned by me. She is out of Especials Smoothie, my mare who I won the CNFR on many years ago! I futurited Nicki a little this year but she has no rodeo experience.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Routier: Fiery Miss West, approx. $550,000 LTE

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Routier: She doesn't really have any quirks. She is very low maintenance and she loves kids. :)

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Routier: I took the same approach I've taken the last couple years. With only one horse running at the pro rodeo level, and with a busy family life, I always try to just go to what my horse can handle and try to be home for as many of my kids activities as I can. Fortunately the past few years it has worked out! I will say, though, that this year we did have to be willing to put on extra miles to hit one rodeo because that's all there was in that direction that week, but on the other hand if you were lucky enough to place high at those rodeos they paid good because they had so many entries.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Routier: The only thing I did a little differently was start getting her back in shape a little sooner, to hopefully have her air built up a little more.

Age: 45 - Hometown: Stephenville, TX - Joined WPRA: 1987

Career earnings: $331,655 - NFR Qualifications: 4 (1997-98, 2019-20)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Wimberley: I plan to alternate between KN Fabs Mist of Fame (Misty) and Dash Ta Suz (Smooch)

Misty is owned by Robin Weaver

12yr old, dark chestnut mare, 15 hands. She's the boss. It's Misty's way or no way Smooch is owned by Dr Steve Hurlbert. 9 yr old, brown mare, 15 hands. She's the pre-Madonna of the group. She loves all the pampering she gets.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Wimberley: KN Fabs Mist of Fame, $215,332 LTE

Dash Ta Suz, $61,919 LTE; Both horses have contributed heavily to the last 2 NFR qualifications

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Wimberley: Misty I'm sure is the one who cusses the most. She can't believe most of the time that we inconvenience her schedule. She gets fed first because she talks the most.

Smooch loves to be pampered. She loves all the bathing, brushing, and polishing. She is sweet but set in her ways. She's a girl that knows what she wants.

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Wimberley: I left July 1 and entered where everybody else did. I said if they won I would keep going and if not I would come home after the 4th of July. It was a tough year. You just had to stay the course of your goal and not get sidetracked.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Wimberley: We usually run on standards in the summer time and we all get "standard fit". I tried to go to a few standard patterns to get some air in them and my timing on a big pattern. I have increased there daily exercise and breezed them more than normal.

#12 Emily Miller-Beisel, $42,388

Age: 28 - Hometown: Weatherford, OK - Joined WPRA: 2013

Career earnings: $344,806 - NFR Qualifications: 2 (2019-20)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Beisel: The two main horses I plan to alternate between are:

Biddin on Fame "Beau" a 7 yr old bay gelding, 16 h

Namgis D 33 "Chongo" a 10 yr old grey gelding, 16.1 h

I'll also have Namgis D 35 "Pipewrench" and Namgis D 56 "Foxy" on standby. I'm the owner of all the horses.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Beisel: Chongo 300k, Beau has 40k, Pipewrench 100k, Foxy 60k

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Beisel: Chongo is very sweet but ornery at the same time. He's always untying himself! People love to watch him roll, he sits like a dog and walks himself around instead of rolling over.

Beau is the most interesting horse I've ever had. He's quirky about being cinched or seeing random things on the ground, but is very focused and gritty when it comes to his job.

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Beisel: I was really fortunate to have a tough horse that could handle the demands of this year. Beau continued to get stronger and stronger as the season went on, which helped keep me strong. I relied almost solely on him after the Fourth of July, and he never backed down. That stamina gave me a lot of confidence in him to keep driving and entering.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Beisel: I've spent more time focusing on foundational work/basics with my horses at the Youree-Ward ranch. I feel like keeping that element of their training fresh in their minds will be more instrumental at this years finals with a bigger set up and increased distance to fences. I also love riding in the fields. Beau does really well if I can breeze him out regularly.

Hay: brome, but usually mine are turned out on pasture so I don't have to feed a lot of hay at home.

Supplements: Vitalize Alimend and Recovery Gel, Stierwalt Superflex.

Alternative Therapies: nothing regularly

Daily/Weekly riding program: alternating days of long trotting/galloping/walking in the field

Sponsors: American AgCredit, Nutrien Ag Solutions, 12 Gauge Ranch, Vitalize, Purina, Cinch, Master Saddles, Schneider Performance Pads, Stierwalt Superflex, Ortho Equine, Signature Quarters, and RPX Enterprises.

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Lockhart: Rosas Cantina CC (Rosa), 10 yr old buck. mare, owned by Alan Woodbury, 15.1 hands, buckskin with a blaze, long mane & tail
Tres Movidas (Vida), 8 yr old ches. mare, owned by Tom Jacobs, star hiding under a lot of fore top & super long mane!

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Lockhart: Rosas Cantina Cc, $326,906; Tres Movidas, $265,000

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Lockhart: Rosa is super always super sensitive-to everything & all of the time, and she has the sweetest & most loving demeanor about her. She just gets nervous on her back, but truly she just wants to please & worries.

Vida is really easy going until she's not if that makes sense. If she doesn't like something you'll know right away. She acts very confident and cocky but really she's a softy. (from Lee & Hallie Hanssen who have trained and ridden Vida for her lifetime)

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Lockhart: Perseverance & determination! There were some crucial moments where I had to make it count, and somehow I managed to do so a few times! I struggled with keeping horses healthy this year more so than ever, so I spent a lot of weeks at home just wishing I could compete, so I am beyond thankful to have had it work out as well as it did in the end.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Lockhart: I feel like I basically prepare my horses and keep them prepared year-round for various situations, so I don't feel like I've really done anything differently now than in the past. My goal is always to have them fit and as healthy as I can, and I feel like I'm there! The only difference would be making a practice run in a more similar situation to replicate if possible, hence a bigger pattern.

(From Lee & Hallie Hanssen) She's (Vida) been swimming/and getting in the spa. She's been running recently so I guess she's just ready! (She recently won both rounds & average of the Pink Buckle on a standard pattern and won the Women's Rodeo Championship in Arlington a couple weeks ago.)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Johnson: Macgyver Moonflash, bay, 7 yr old gelding, 15.3 (owned by Tres Mesa Horses)

SR Industry Titan, 7 yr old, sorrel stud, 15 (owner Nick & Tom Wylie)

Dreams First Flash, black, 9 yr old gelding, 15.3

(owned by Tres Mesa Horses)

First Moonflash x First Down Dream, First Down Dash

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Johnson: Macgyver Moonflash $218,000, Dreams First Flash $180,000 & Sr Industry Titan $150,000+

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Johnson: Macgyver is a soldier, ready and willing to do anything I ask at anytime. He is kind and sweet but doesn't want to be forced to do anything. It takes a fine balance of asking him correctly. In turn, he goes out and works really hard for me.

BRR: How did you overcome the difficulties of 2020 to qualify for the NFR?

Johnson: This year was interesting because initially I didn't have the NFR as a goal, I just initially wanted to make top 40 to be eligible for the winter rodeos. After March 1, I was in the standings and decided to go to a few more rodeos to see where I ended up. I kept them all pretty close, I went to one in Arizona, but for the most part I tried to stay with rodeos that were close and made sense. I am grateful for the opportunity to make the NFR, and thankful there were events and rodeos to compete at this year. Even though it was a challenging year, I just stuck to my plan I had for me and my horses.

BRR: How have you prepared yourself and your horses for this years NFR at Globe Life Field on a standard pattern?

Johnson: In preparing for any event or finals, I continually work on the horses throughout the year to have them prepared for any pattern irregardless of the size. As for myself, I work towards eating healthy, staying active and keeping physically and mentally in shape to be prepared for the 2020 NFR. I will use the 2020 NFR as an op-

Gray and Miller Find The Right Tune at Fiddler's Turkey Run

By Tanya Randall

2020 Mega Champions Chloe Gray and Guys On Firewater ("Cross") and 2019 Fiddler's Turkey Run Futurity Champions Angel Rae Miller and Paint Me Dark ("Shotzie") took top honors at 18th Annual Fiddler's Turkey Run, held November 26-28 in Jacksonville, Florida.

Gray and Cross, owned by Kelly Carver, topped the American Semifinals Qualifier and Saturday's Open after placing second in the 2D on Friday to win $5,072 on the weekend.

Miller and Shotzie, owned by Cassy Morgan of Sweet Spot Ranch, won Friday's open by 3/10ths of a second with the fastest time of the event, a 14.645, and placed ninth on Saturday for a total weekend payday of $3,058.

Gray & Cross

"I've been super blessed lately. The horses all feel good and they're working good," said Gray, who also qualified for the American on Shake N Firewater, an 8-year-old daughter of her stallion Tomahawk N Firewater.

Since winning the Mega on Cross, a 6-year-old gelding by Frenchmans Six Dash out of the Fire Water Flit mare Firewater Annie, Gray has kept her winning horses on a regular diet of runs and rest.

"We're trying to keep them fresh but keep them sharp," she explained. "We'll go somewhere and take a weekend or two off; go somewhere else, take a weekend or two off. I have an A team and my B team. Local shows and everything around here just to keep me sharp I take my B team. Cross and Shake have just been going to the big ones."

Following the Mega win, Gray and Carver had some interest in Cross but ultimately decided to see where the gelding could take them for now.

"After the Mega, we had a few bites, offers on him," she said. "Then we went to the (Georgia) State Show and he did really well, so we thought we'd enjoy this ride for a little bit longer. We're just going to enjoy the ride and try to go to some places with him."

One of the places on Gray's list is RFD-TV's The American. She and Cross had missed a Qualifier in Kentucky due to an abscess so they had a lot riding on their run in Jacksonville. Gray also had the added pressure of getting Shake qualified too.

"We've been to a good many barrel racers there (in Jacksonville)," she explained. "It's funny because Cross and Shake have done well there, but they've never really shined. I went back there in September to the NBHA Shamrock Showdown. They both worked nice, but I know they work better their second run in a pen. I waited until it was kind of late in the year to start entering some qualifiers. I thought, 'Well, you know, it's the second day. They both worked well in Waco (at the WPRA World Finals), so let's just go for it.'

"They both worked well the first (day) in the open there. I was pretty excited for the qualifier, but I was a little nervous because they only ended up getting 23 entries. I entered two in it and they were only taking five. I knew we had to bring out our A-game for sure!"

Gray and Shake ended up fourth behind Cross's win.

"She's pretty funny," said Gray. "She's all or nothing. If we're running really fast and cutting corners, we'll tip over that first barrel. My goal on her was to run wild. I wanted to bounce around them and get a clean run because she usually clocks."

Gray, who hails from Yatesville, Georgia, wanted to thank event producer Sabra O'Quinn for a well-run event.

"Sabra is always a stickler so it was run very fast and efficient," she said. "It was great ground. I was bottom of the ground on Cross in the American and it held all day long. The ground was fantastic!"

Miller & Shotzie

When Miller was a little girl, she had dreams that she would be famous riding a spotted horse as it turns out, Shotzie is one of the fastest Appaloosas making the cloverleaf today.

"I always had a dream that I would be famous riding a spotted horse, but I always felt like it was a Paint horse," she admitted. "My dad is like, 'No, I know it was an Appaloosa the whole time!' My dad and grandfather used to raise Appaloosa's back in the '70s and had some really great cutting horses. It's definitely brought some excitement back into the house. My dad was like, 'I always told you to ride Appaloosas!'"

Shotzie, was bred by Jessica and Darin Meyers, who own her sire BP Phoenix Reign, a son of PYC Paint Your Wagon out of Dashing Mariah, a full sister to First Down Kelly, sire of Darkelly. Her dam Indigo Ice is an Appaloosa racehorse by Darkelly.

Morgan purchased the mare about the time she was a year old. She went to Miller in the latter part of her second year.

"Right off the bat, she was extremely willing and talented, and slightly naughty," said Miller, who owns the mare's 3-year-old sister Mother Of All Dragons. "She's definitely special and definitely spicy. She has a great attitude and work ethic, but she's very spicy. Most people think she's very naughty by the way she goes in the arena, but she's kind of like riding a Jack Russel, once she realizes she's going to run barrels, she's like leave me alone, let me do this!"

"As far as just riding her and warming her up, she rides like a Western dressage horse. She does flying lead changes and does everything one-handed. She's extremely broke. Shane Kuhn and Audra Tyson put a lot of miles on her."

Miller and Shotzie started their career together with a win at last year's Turkey Run and went on to have a solid futurity season in spite of COVID.

"I think we've gone to about 12 futurities and she's won 9 or 10 of them," said Miller. Some of their futurity championship titles include the Kindergarten Futurity, Pac West, World Barrel Racing League and BFA Summer Jam, just to name a few. "She won pretty close to $30,000 with just being able to go when we can. She's pretty much a unicorn and she knows it!"

Miller and Shotzie are also qualified for the 2021 American Semi-finals Rodeo.

"We're just trying to keep her prepared for that," says Miller, who lives in Micanopy, Florida. "We don't want to make too many runs on her, but she doesn't do well just sitting around. She doesn't tire easily and she clearly does better with more runs."

Miller is extremely grateful for her friendship with Morgan and the opportunity to ride and train Shotzie.

"I'm grateful that I met Cassy and she talked me into riding an appaloosa," she said. "Shotzie's definitely brought a lot of people together. I'm very blessed to be able to train her and ride her and be a part of her life."

Miller also wanted to thank her sponsors and her family, including her husband Chris and their son Shawn, 5, a.k.a. "her boss," and she commended O'Quinn on a great event.

"Sabra puts on a really great show every year," said Miller, who has attended the past 13 Turkey Runs. "She does a really good job making sure it's moving along and that the ground is really good and fair."

One day or Day One.
You decide.

— Paulo Coelho

Talent alone doesn't do it, and you can't rely on luck.

It's the guy who's willing to work harder than the next guy who will come out on top in the long run.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I trust you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Although at most stores, we've had Christmas now for several weeks, we are now OFFICIALLY in the correct month! LOL!

Celebrating the birth of our savior Jesus is the main theme of Christmas of course. For many, it also brings to mind giving and receiving gifts. That's even true for my chickens! I like to call them to me and throw them bread! To them it's a wonderful treat, if you go by the cackling!

So.....a few days ago my grandson stopped by. He was standing in the driveway and my chickens were surrounding him, which I thought was odd. He said, "Look Gramma! I'm teaching your chickens to fetch!"

Well..... Then he picked up a rock and threw it down the driveway! The poor clueless chickens, thinking in their bird brains that it was bread, took off at breakneck speed! They were trying to elbow each other out of the way with their wings as they wobbled back and forth in that funny run they do, trying to be first.....to the rock.

The looks on the chickens faces when arriving at the rock was pitiful! Soooo disappointed. Grandsons. They are hilarious.

Matt. 7-11 tells us that God gives us good gifts. Verse 9 even says He won't give us a stone for bread (see that?). God is so good! Verse 7 instructs us to ask and it will be given to us. No if's, and's or but's. Look to God for the gifts you desire! Love you!
