Homecoming Success For Ryann Pedone & HP Feel The Fame at Jingle Bell Classic, Triple Crown Slot

By Tanya Randall

Ryann Pedone and her gritty 4-year-old mare HP Feel The Fame ("Bradee") collected $68,915 at the Jingle Bell Classic, held December 15-17 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds in Perry, Georgia. The Sunset, Texas, based trainer took eight horses to the $100,000-added event hosted by Good Times Barrel Racing, and won $77,979 on the weekend.

"It was a really, great unbelievable weekend," said Pedone, who also won the $25,000 points bonus for the World Champions Rodeo Alliance. "I'm just grateful for it...being back East, kind of where I came from and getting to see my dad and my cousins and friends. It was just really great. It was one of those weekends that just flowed."

Pedone, a Florida native, said she's grateful for all the opportunities the breeding incentives have brought to the industry.

"I'm just grateful to be able to run at that kind of money," said Pedone. "Thanks to Jeanette Nelson and Triple Crown for having something like that back East. I love all the incentives. When you have that chance to run at that kind of money it's icing on the cake. It's helped our industry across the board. I'm so grateful to live in an era to be able to compete for that kind of money. I'm grateful to these programs that are allowing us to make money. It's been a big deal for me."

Pedone and Bradee started their weekend by placing eighth in the Derby with a 14.873.

"For whatever reason, I was struggling on my first barrel," she

BIT: D Ring from Ron and Patty Ralls

SADDLE: Martin Stingray

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy on front

SHOES: Rims, 3D half mesh pads on front. Shod by Cutter Holloway.

FEED: Purina Impact 12% pellets

HAY: Alfalfa morning and night and all the Bermuda she would like; hay is steamed due to her breathing issues

SUPPLEMENTS: Succeed on the road, Oxy-Pulmin before runs

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Lots of long trotting. I don't really have to school her. If I do, I'll walk her through the pattern.

SPONSORS: EquiBrand, Martin Saddlery, Classic Equine, HorseSwim.com, Double X Equine, Driven PCR, Succeed, NRS, Purina, Platinum Performance, SheFit, Oxy-Gen, Purse Victory Shirts.

THANKS: Husband and vet Don Lee, Dr. Peggy Fleming, farrier Cutter Holloway and his son CJ, helpers: Charlotte Hilton, Lexi Peaden and her lucky equine hairstylist Mary Claire, Eric Villarreal at Dominion Training, bookkeeper Lisa Downs, father Lee Pedone, mom and stepdad Ed and Diana, Jeye Johnson with Classic Equine, chiropractor Darryll Elliott, Horse Swim's Kimmi Byler. "Without these people and sponsors, I would be lost," said Pedone. "This is my team and I'm beyond grateful for them and my horses."

said. "Not just on her, but all more horses. She placed in the derby and ran .8. I was like, 'Oh yeah! There's a lot of time out there. I just need to ride better."

Pedone joked it took her ten runs to get her first barrel right by Bradee's second run in the Triple Crown Slot Race, which was open to all ages of horses paid into that incentive.

"She nailed the first," Pedone said. "She kind of slipped a little on the backside of the second but she kept moving forward. She had a good third. I felt like I rode good and the mare really fired hard for me."

Pedone had an early draw, No. 31, in the Slot Race that was limited to 150 entries at a $2,000 entry fee, so she had a while to see if her 14.646 would hold.

"There were still 120 really salty horses left to run," said Pedone. Great Lakes Circuit Finals Champions and OKC Futurity American Qualifier winners Sara Winkleman and her homebred Fairway Ta Fame made things interesting with a 14.648.

"That's a really nice horse," Pedone said of Fairway Ta Fame. "She came in right before a big drag and ran a .648, just 2/1,000ths behind me. I thought maybe it is my turn, because that's a dang nice horse. (Bradee's) time held all day, all night. When it's your turn; it's your turn. I was just extremely grateful."

Pedone purchased Bradee from her breeders Charlie Cole and Jason Martin of Highpoint Performance Horses. She is from the first crop of Feel The Sting, whom Pedone rode to her 2020 National Finals Rodeo qualification, and out of the blue-hen producer Rods Last Ladybug, an AQHA World Champion daughter of Sharp Rodney. Bradee is a half-sister to 2021 Prairie Circuit Finals Champion Makana, AQHA World Champion Rockette Ta Fame, multiple

A LITTLE BIT MORE...

HP FEEL THE FAME, from the 1st Crop of NFR Qualifier Feel The Sting, had earned $147,525 prior to this weekend. After earning the $60k win in Triple Crown 100 Crown Round and $8,915 in the Jingle Bell Classic Barrel Race; it pushed her earnings to $216,440 for her futurity year. (includes open & futurity money, total per QStallions.com) futurity finalist ConfederatesLastLady and Brazilian record setter Rollin In The Fame, just to name a few.

Bradee lived up to her pedigree, taking third in the BFA Super Stakes and winning the Juvenile at her first event. Although she picked up checks at other events, like a second-place finish at the Dinosaur Classic in February, Bradee was struggling with a mysterious breathing issue.

"It wasn't like a normal bleeder," noted Pedone. "It was like asthma."

After some time off, Bradee came back to take seventh at the Old Fort Days Futurity. Unfortunately, she was still struggling with her breathing. As a last resort, Pedone turned to longtime friend Dr. Peggy Fleming, a veterinarian with a homeopathic practice, in Florida for help.

Bradee, who had $147,525 in earnings prior to Perry, according to QData, made her first runs back after another layoff at the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, in August.

"She had limited runs up to that point," said Pedone. "She was green compared to everyone else. About the time I would get her sharp, I'd have to get off her again. The biggest thing was getting her sharp and seasoned."

They played catch up the rest of the year, taking third at the Breeders Challenge Finale Futurity and 11th at the BFA World Championships. They also picked up futurity checks at the Fizz Bomb, BBR Southern Territorial and WPRA World Finals.

"She's a completely different horse," said Pedone, who had Fleming re-check the mare following her runs at Perry. "I'm looking forward to running her as a derby horse, having her completely healthy."

WCRA Championship With CP He Will Be Epic Caps Off Kassie Mowry's Historic Year

All-time leading barrel racer Kassie Mowry capped off a recordbreaking year with a $15,000 World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) Cowtown Christmas Championship in the historic coliseum in the stockyards of Fort Worth, Texas. The Dublin, Texas, based trainer was extremely proud of her 7-year-old gelding CP He Will Be Epic ("Will") that carried her to the 13.226 victory.

"He never got any recognition because he never had a major win and he never got to finish a year," Mowry said of the 17-hand Epic Leader, Dash Ta Fame gelding, who was often plagued by injuries. "It was so cool at WCRA, there were girls and guys from other events, walking up to him, one to see if he's really as tall as he is, but they know him by name. It was just so special for me that people know who he is now. I never thought that was such a big deal for me, but it really is. He's one of my favorite horses and it means a lot that other people know who he is."

Mowry purchased Will as a yearling from his breeder Claire Powell.

"My shoer would trim for Claire, and he said that Claire has this horse that looks just like FM Radio," she recalled. "Well, that was another horse that I just loved. He showed me a picture and he did look just like Radio. He was huge. I literally bought him off that picture. When I picked him up I couldn't believe how big he was. As yearling he was nearly 16 hands!"

While Mowry was excited to have him, her fiancé Michael Boone thought he would be way too big to be a barrel horse.

"It was always in the back of my mind—what if he is too big? Now he's proven that big horses can do it."

Prior to the WCRA Cowtown Christmas Will had amassed $332,051 in career earnings according to QData.

"I've never planned on him being somewhere because he's had several major injuries," Mowry said of Will. "This is the first year he's made it through the entire year without having some sort of really long break for an injury."

Shockingly, Will had to replace Mowry's seasoned rodeo horse Famous Ladies Man ("Emmett"), who fractured a coffin bone wing, prior to her third appearance at the National Finals Rodeo.

"I had to put Will through a circumstance that I normally wouldn't have considered for him because he is more sensitive and I don't like to see him upset," she said. "I do tend to treat him like he's made of glass because I really think he is. He loves running barrels and is great at this job, but he's really insecure and he relies on me for his confidence. I did feel a little guilty throwing him in there like that. There are some years that he doesn't even run ten times in six months. I went there asking him to run 10 times in a row and he's never run three times in a row. It was asking a lot of him. I'm really proud of how he handled it. He handled it much better than I thought he would, both physically and mentally. I felt like he gave his best effort every time out of the gate and that's really all you can ask."

Mowry added that the NFR was a great learning experience for both horse and rider.

"I learned a lot about him there, doing that," she said. "I got to do a lot of little adjustments. I've never run him enough to remember how he felt the last time. We're just basically always winging it.

He's just so easy to ride that it's easy for me to do that, but I was able to dig deeper and learn more about him than I ever had. I learned he can handle a lot more than I ever thought he could. It was a great experience for both of us and I had a lot of fun."

Mowry nominated for WCRA's Cowtown Christmas segment because she thought it would be a good learning experience for her colts, but with Will coming off a strong NFR, she opted to run him in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round.

"It was a good opportunity for me to take colts to Fort Worth and have a rodeo atmosphere with a good payout," she said. "Will is Cowtown Christmas Continued on Page 24 feeling good and loves that pen so I opted to run him in the short go, but I did take Dove (KL Touch Of Heaven) there just to get his feet wet and see how he would handle the ropes and being around some bucking stock and whatnot."

Unlike the other events, the barrel racers didn't have a Show-down Round that pared the field of seven down to three. It was a more than welcome change to previous formats—including those by the WPRA and PRCA this summer—that put the barrel horses making multiple runs in a matter of hours.

"I commend the WCRA for a lot of things, and that's one of them," said Mowry. "They're looking out for our horses' best interests. I do not like running my horse and turning around running it back in an hour. I don't think it's fair to your horse. Some horses handle that better than others. I just think it's asking a lot."

Mowry also lauded the ground conditions.

3 Stevi Hillman, 13.564, $800; 4 Michelle Darling, 13.701, $400

"The ground was amazing there," she said. "They also drug after every four. I go to a lot of rodeos, and one recently that couldn't drag before 15 for time constraints or fear that the crowd might leave during a drag. I disagree. The crowd loves a good horse race and you have that when the ground is good and everyone has an even playing field. I think the WCRA is showing that it can be done. I really respect that they go out of their way for the contestants.

"That's just a few of the things that they do. They're all ears when you have a suggestion. I do love that about the WCRA. Unfortunately, a lot of their events are on top of futurities so it's not really feasible for me to follow right now. I had a lot of fun and it's a great group of people. It was a great experience for both of my horses."

Mowry, who became the first barrel racer to surpass the $1 million mark in yearly earnings when she did so after the Breeders Challenge in September, is grateful for the opportunities that have changed the industry in recent years, like the WCRA and the breeding incentives.

"The money and opportunities now are just incredible!" said Mowry, adding that she stayed to watch bareback rider R.C. Landingham win the $1 million bonus for winning three straight WCRA events. "I'm so glad I got to see that. What an awesome story. I don't think there was anyone there that wasn't rooting for him. It was amazing to watch."

Although yet unofficial, Mowry's yearly earnings between rodeos and aged events is nearly $1.3 million following the Cowtown Christmas. She has the $6 million mark within her sights with a projected $5.6 in lifetime earnings.

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available. Contact Shannon Fagerhaug - Shannongsm@hotmail.com - (605) 933-0997 and a chunk of bone broke off inside the joint.

Landingham's Career Leading Up To $1 Million Moment Was Met With Multiple Moments of Heartbreak

RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California) walked out of the Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas $1 million richer, taking home the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo, presented by the Lazy E Ranch and Arena on December 17. The 32-year-old bareback rider's career was beaten, bruised, bloody, and filled with tragedy leading up to this $1 million moment. Landingham went into the event with two wins under his belt, only needing to win one more event to earn the bonus. Landingham rode supreme and punched his ticket to $1 million WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo cash bonus. Landingham is the third athlete to be in contention for the Triple Crown of Rodeo, but the first victor of $1 million bonus.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete, or collection of athletes, who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

"It has taken me more than a decade to earn a near $1 million," said Landingham. "Thanks to this organization, it only took me three rodeos. This award has done nothing but raise the rodeo bar, and I hope it opens the eyes of others because they are truly making million-dollar opportunities over here."

Landingham's grit and determination was evident before the Californian even stepped into the Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo for the second annual event in Fort Worth, Texas.

He drafted Pickett Pro Rodeo Untapped, a 6x NFR (National Finals Rodeo) Bucking Horse in the Showdown Round. The soon to be new millionaire notched the top score in the round with an 84.5 score. Later in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, Landingham conquered his pick, Freckled Frog (Pickett Pro Rodeo), for a monstrous 89.5 points.

Landingham's road to this historic moment met tragedy at every corner beginning in 2010 when disaster struck in Houston while riding bulls. Landingham suffered broken ribs, fractured his back and shoulder on top of a lacerated liver and a collapsed lung.

After recovering from his injuries sustained in Houston, Landingham was dealt another sucker punch when he was involved in a gruesome car wreck in May 2011. The car was crushed, and Landingham shattered his left leg and broke two bones in his riding hand. The shattered glass from the accident also wreaked havoc on his musculature requiring a large portion of his triceps muscle to be removed after they were shredded. Landingham wouldn't awaken for two days after being transported to a Portland, OR, hospital.

Landingham rehabbed his broken body for 18 months. But the worst was yet to come. In 2013, his mom, Wendy, was diagnosed with ovarian cancer shortly after the same dreaded disease took her mom and Landingham's grandma way too soon. After a courageous four-year fight, with RC by her side, Wendy died in February 2017.

Shortly after the death of his mother, another curveball happened with a wreck in the arena when a horse fell over and dislocated his left shoulder. Much of his rodeo career was delayed until 2021 due to a series of three shoulder surgeries after a screw Landingham returned to riding again in February of 2021 and hit new heights in this comeback, which has included back-to-back return NFR trips in 2021-22 and five WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Events.

RC earning the $1 million or more in a single night has only happened three prior times in the sport of rodeo. The $1 million check he earned on December 17 equaled his 14 year career earnings combined. This milestone in RC's comeback career and landmark event in the rodeo world will forever be remembered in the sport of rodeo.

RC faced off against Mason Clements (Spanish Fork, UT) and Dean Thompson (Altamont, UT) in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round. Thompson earned an 86.5 score while Clements had 79.5 points.

A fiercely contested race in the Steer Wrestling unfurled as Cody Devers (Perryton, TX) landed a remarkable 4.21-second time to best Sam Power's 4.30-second time and Tanner Brunner's (Ramona, KS) 4.54-second run.

The Team Roping duo of Nelson Wyatt (Clanton, Alabama) and Buddy Hawkins (Stephenville, Texas) was unstoppable. The team notched the fastest time of the week. The Cowtown Christmas Champion Rodeo recorded a 3.68-second run in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, prior to delivering a lightning-fast 4.08-second effort in the Showdown Round. The victory is the pairs first WCRA Major win.

As the one of only three tie-down ropers to deliver a qualified run in the TCR Round, Kass Kayser (Ellensburg, WA) delivered a 9.70-second run. Besting the No. 1 roper on the Cowtown Christmas Championship Leaderboard and WCRA Champion Shad Mayfield (Clovis. New Mexico).

As the event continued, a hotly contested race in the barrel racing began to unfurl. Kassie Mowry, 3x NFR Qualifier, Andrea Cline (Springtown, Texas) and Laura Mote (Llano, Texas) finished the Triple Crown of Rodeo round edging each other's times. Mowry navigated the course with ease and ran the fastest time of the week with 13.226-second time edging out Cline's 13.331-second time and Mote's 13.339-second time

In the bull riding, 30-year-old Cole Fischer rode best. Capping his perfect 2-for-2 effort on Saturday evening. The 2022 NFR Qualifier rode for 90-points to net an equally impressive check for $15,000. Isaac Diaz (Desdemona, TX) won his second WCRA Major Rodeo after an 86.5 ride aboard Delta Hawks.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $14,100,000 in new money to rodeo athletes. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA or the VRO should visit wcrarodeo.com.

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them WELL to serve one another.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

erry Christmas! What a joy to celebrate the birthday of our Savior! I will say, it can be a fight to keep that foremost in our thinking. After all, we have parties to go to, presents to buy, family to see, businesses to run, meals to prepare, cattle to feed, movies to watch, songs to sing, school/church programs, vacations to take, horses to ride, and a partridge in a pear tree! It's exhausting just to list it all!

Friends, it would be to our advantage, in this time we're living in, to pause and thank Him. He came so we could have it all, life and life abundantly. John 10:10.

He lived a victorious life as an example for us, so we know it can be done no matter how bad things look from time to time. He made a way. He IS the way! We love you and bless you in Jesus name!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
