Sherri Barnes & Racing For Perks Top WCRA's Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Sherri Barnes of Pilot Point, Texas, and her 9-year-old gelding Racing For Perks ("Donk") topped the inaugural running of the World Champions Rodeo Alliance's Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo, held December 15-18 at the historic Cowtown Coliseum (a.k.a. "Northside") in the Stockyards district of Fort Worth, Texas.

"He likes Northside and I like Northside," said Barnes, who collected $13,700. "That's my favorite place! To get a buckle that says 'Stockyards' on it—it couldn't have been any better!"

Barnes qualified for Fort Worth through the WCRA's nomination process. She nominated her weekly Stockyard's rodeos at Cowtown Coliseum and the Revolution Barrel Racing Finale in Texarkana.

"I barely got in," she admitted. "I quit going a little too soon. My son was getting married and I just couldn't do it all. So, I didn't expect to make it and I found out the day after he got married that I did."

Barely seemed to be Barnes' theme for the event as she advanced in the last qualification spot in every round—except for the one that really counted.

The top two contestants in each event in the three performances advanced to the Showdown Round, where they were joined by the top ranked contestant from the nomination period leading up the rodeo.

Barnes and Donk claimed the last qualifying spot in Wednesday night's performance with a second-place 13.78. In the Showdown Round, they were the last clean run at 14.04 to be the third, and last place qualifier into the clean-slate Triple Crown of Rodeo Championship Round.

The Triple Crown round was Barnes first time to run Donk back-to-back in one day.

"I've never run him back to back in a perf, and it's really hard to get past barrels at Stockyards," she said. "He walked up the alleyway half mad and on a mission to go home! I was thinking, 'Oh, you better hang on!' Honestly that's all I was thinking, 'Hang on and don't let him get short!'"

Britta Strain and London Gorham had both knocking barrels so staying clean meant victory. Barnes and Donk cut it a little close on the third, but gravity was in her favor.

"I didn't mean to cut it that close!" she said. "I don't really have a lot of control once we go down the alley. I can push with my legs, but I can't do much with my hands. He's just dialed in and he knows. He feels like a little rocket donkey!"

Barnes, who was the 2020 International Pro Rodeo Association Reserve Champion Barrel Racer and Rookie of the Year—proudly at age 58, said the experience was "surreal."

"When I turned the third barrel and it didn't fall over, I had the biggest grin on my face! It was pretty surreal. I'd never won anything big like that. I couldn't even believe this just happened!"

Barnes didn't even nominate the Cowtown Christmas event to count for the next WCRA qualification segment because she figured the competition was too tough.

"The field of horses that were there that I had to run against, I didn't feel like I had much of a shot, but I wasn't going to go home until they told me I had to," she said. "I just kept hanging in there."

Ironically, when Barnes started with Donk she didn't have very high expectations for the gelding. She had purchased the Perks Alive gelding, out of the Starlights Joy, Otoe's Wonder mare Starlight Wonder, from a neighbor.

"He acts like a Donk," she laughed. "It fits his personality. He can barely make it through life! He contains all his energy until he walks up the alley!"

Donk was turned out on pasture until he was 4 because he was on the smaller side. He was later sent to three different trainers—including noted reined cowhorse trainer and clinician Ron Ralls and barrel racer Kay Young—for 30 days each.

“I didn’t really have high expectations for him,” she chuckled. “I think our first out we were 5D, and I wondered why I was even going to run him. Half-way through his 5-year-old year, every now and then, he’d surprise me. I’d think, ‘I think he’s going to be a 2D-er!’ He’s been a complete surprise! He’s a rocket donkey for sure!”

Barnes grew up riding horses and rode English through junior high. In high school, she switched to rodeo, eventually earning a rodeo scholarship to college as a goat tyer and roper. It wasn’t until her mother took up barrel racing that she too picked up the sport toward the end of her college career.

She’s had barrel horses ever since.

With her husband Randy retiring in a few weeks, the couple will likely spend more time hauling. Randy ropes and competes at World Series roping events and her daughter Kasey, a talented barrel racer with Down Syndrome, is her No. 1 hauling partner.

It’s possible that a trip to the WCRA’s Days of ’47 might be in her future this summer.

“I love everything about the WCRA,” she said. “They cater so well to the contestants. Everybody is so nice. There’s a lot of money up without having to go rodeo, coast to coast. I don’t want to do that. The WCRA fits me perfectly. I think I have nice horses. I don’t always know if I can run with them, but I like the opportunity to try and step up. The WCRA allows me to do that.”

Barnes wanted to thank the WCRA, her sponsor Martindale Feed Mill and so many people that she “doesn’t even know where to start!”

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

Brian Wheeler and SBW Heavenly Peach Win Sweet Victory at GTBRA's Jingle Bell Classic

Over the past weekend, Brian Wheeler added a little extra joy to his Christmas; winning the Average of the Jingle Bell Classic Futurity on SBW Heavenly Peach and winning the 2nd Go on Stoli My Firewater. His two fillies come from some of the best known dams in the barrel racing business: SBW Heavenly Peach's dam is aged event superstar SX Dr Peacharita which Brian Wheeler won on throughout her career at some of the biggest events in the country, earning around $150k. Stoli My Firewater's dam is Stoli My Guy, the earner of over $200k, that Lisa Nicholas won money at futurities, derbies, opens and rodeos on across Texas & Oklahoma. Both fillies not only have big time mamas, but they are by young sire, Heavenly Firewater who himself has earned $279k+ at futurities, derbies and rodeos!

Wheeler has won at futurities, derbies across the country so we thought it would be fun to catch up with him and ask him some questions about his win!

BRR: You had an amazing weekend; winning the Average on SBW Heavenly Peach & winning the 2nd Go On Stoli My Firewater. Walk us through your winning runs...

Wheeler: My game plan for the weekend was just try to make 4 clean smooth runs and get an average check on both of them. After the first go was over Bonnie ended up placing second and Stoli had tipped the second barrel so my plan changed a little for the second go round. I had one horse I needed to make a clean run on and one I needed to try to clock as hard as I could so she could get a go round check. I ran Stoli first in the second go, so my plan was to try to make the fastest run I could on her and hope she would be good enough for some money! After she came out and took the lead I had about 30 horses before I ran Bonnie. I thought to myself I just needed to calm down now and go make a smooth run on this one so I could get an average check and leave here winning as much as I could. I knew my best friend Ty Marks was winning the average at the time. He told me before I made my run to go make a pass through there like I had all year in exhibitions and hopefully we could end up first and second at this thing regardless on who comes out first; we would have something great to celebrate!

BRR: SBW Heavenly Peach is out of your great mare SX DR Peacharita that you won so much on a few years back. What about this filly reminds you of her mother? What makes this filly such a winner?

Wheeler: This mare reminds me of her mom in many different ways but probably her look and style around a barrel is more like her mom then any of the others I've gotten to ride out of her. I think what makes her a winner is she has a ton of try and is always wanting to please you. If she gets in trouble, she will allow you to help her out of trouble rather than panic.

BRR: SBW Heavenly Peach & Stoli My Firewater are both by Heavenly Firewater. Do they have a lot of similar characteristics?

Wheeler: They actually are total opposites. Bonnie is little more high strung and Stoli is more chill! They both have a ton of try and want to about them though.

BRR: Do the two horses take different riding during the week and different warm up routines to run?

Wheeler: Stoli takes more riding during the week . She's always fresh and feeling frisky. When I warm her up at the shows I tune on her more and make sure she is really listening to what I want her to do . She just takes longer to develop the feel I want her to have before I make a run.

Bonnie is little easier when it comes to riding during the week and warming up . She doesn't take a whole lot. I'll just exercise her couple days a week. When I go to make a run on her I'll usually just lope a few circles each way and jog her through a set of barrels then she's ready to run!

BRR: What are your plans for yourself and SBW Heavenly Peach moving forward?

Wheeler: My plans coming up are to go to the Ashley Brooks Memorial Futurity at Memphis over New Years and hopefully have some luck on both colts.

BRR: You live and train back east. What are the advantages & disadvantages of training futurity horses based in the east?

Wheeler: I think the disadvantages to training in east is our arenas aren't as big as they are out west and it's harder to get colts ready for those pens when none of ours are like theirs in the west.

BRR: What are 3 non horse related things you must have when you head to a barrel race or rodeo?

Wheeler: I'm pretty simple and don't take anything extra that doesn't pertain to a horse.

Butch Webb of Isabel, South Dakota

October 8, 1956 - December 9, 2021

Funeral services Butch Webb, 65, of Isabel will be at 10 AM, Saturday, December 18, 2021, at the Webb Ranch north of Isabel. Burial will be at the ranch under the direction of Kesling Funeral Home of Mobridge. Visitation will start at 5 PM with a prayer service at 6 PM at the ranch. Butch passed away Thursday, December 9, 2021 in Loveland, CO.

On October 8th, 1956, Martin George (Honey) Webb and Gloria Joan (Hunt) Webb welcomed their second born, Martin Allen (Butch) Webb. Butch was born in Gettysburg, South Dakota and called Armstrong County his home for many years. These were the years that the Missouri River, which ran just below their house, was narrow enough to swim across. He often recalled winters so tough that they couldn't get to town so supplies would be dropped in by plane. There was excitement when the kids saw the plane overhead because they knew that there would be a bottle of Coca-Cola wrapped up carefully for them. This was tough country, but Butch often spoke of fun memories with his siblings and his cousins. Because of the distance to school in Eagle Butte, several years were spent living in the dorms. Butch did not like the dorms and soon moved in with "Old" John Holloway and his wife, Murphy. He talked fondly of those years, and the Holloway family remained true friends throughout his life. Following Butch's high school graduation from CEB (Cheyenne Eagle Butte) in 1974, he took a job at the tribal office and continued to work for the Holloway outfit.

Butch loved to rodeo and would get on anything that bucked. He made the National High School finals in all 3 rough stock events several times and prided himself on working both ends of the arena. He always made sure to point out that horses bucked harder and you had to spur one out higher in the shoulder in his day.

In January of 1975 his first born son, Deb Allen Ducheneaux, was born.

In 1976, he went to Bozeman, MT (MSU) on a full ride rodeo scholarship. His oldest daughter, Dee Colette was born in March of 1977. He then moved his family to the University Of Wyoming. He was very proud of his degree. He worked nights at the railroad, went to college during the day, and broke colts in the afternoon. He continued riding broncs during these years, making and meeting many friends along the way. Butch also became an auctioneer during these times and could be heard saying "Betty Botter bought a bit of butter, but the butter made her batter bitter. . .) After his graduation from UW in 1981, he moved his family to Moorcroft, WY and worked for the Federal Land Bank. His years of working for Federal Land Bank/PCA took him to Gillette, Wyoming, Thermopolis, Wyoming, Hot Springs, Lemmon, Belle Fourche, Rapid City and Piedmont, SD.

Butch continued to rodeo during these years winning the NRCA and SDRA Championships many times. In 1988 he bought some land down by Cherry Creek/Red Scaffold area. He started his small herd with some of the toughest Saler cattle that could be found. He spent time living with his cousin and best friend, Sean Deal, during these years. He worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs during this time and would get his cousins and friends to help him recoup cattle for the BIA.

In 1990, he bought the home place in Isabel and was appointed President/CEO of Western Dakota Bank of Timber Lake/Isabel. He was fair and honest in his position as bank president, growing the bank to include a branch in Eagle Butte. Many will tell you, had it not been for Butch they would not have prospered in the agricultural world.

In 1993, Butch hung up his bronc spurs with a final SDRA championship. This was a special win, as his daughter, Dee, was entered alongside of him.

In August of 1995, his second daughter Kailee Taryn Webb was born. Butch continued to grow his original ranch over the years, and put together a place that would take some 3 and 4 generations to do. Nobody ever gave him anything, he earned it all.

In May of 2004 his daughter Kenna Rydel was born. He was proud of his kids, cattle, and his horses and raised some of the best the west has ever seen.

One of Butch's best attributes was his propensity towards business. He was hard working and never backed away. He was a good neighbor and a good steward to the land. He never over grazed a pasture and never underfed an animal.

Some of his favorite past times included going to the Heritage Place sale, racing horses, going to bull sales and watching his kids and grandkids rodeo and compete in sports. If you ever asked him what he had been doing it was, "fishing", but we all knew better. Butch liked to work.

On November 12, 2013 Butch married the love of his life Stephanie Eagleberger. The couple started dating earlier that year after he sold Stephanie and her business partner a gray mare, Jess Tara, through the Heritage Place Winter Mixed Sale. They never looked back, Butch always saying it was "an outta the ballpark kind of love". He and Stephanie loved breeding, raising and selling horses. His one desire was to win the All American Futurity; in true fashion he purchased his hopeful for 2022 this fall. In November of 2014 his beautiful daughter Lakin Allyn Webb was born, a dad's girl through and through. Butch and Stephanie started the Breeders' Dynasty Premier Horse Sale in 2018, a lifelong goal of raising top quality performance and race horses. His son and "Pardner", Wynston Allen was born in December of 2019, a spitting image of his father.

Butch is survived by his loving wife Stephanie Webb, son Deb Allen (Heidi) Ducheneux of Timber Lake, SD. Daughters Dee Colette (Tyler) Haugen of Sturgis, SD, Kailee Taryn Webb, Isabel, SD, Kenna Rydel Webb, Timber Lake, SD, Lakin Allyn Webb of Loveland, CO. Son, Wynston Allen Webb, Loveland, CO. Grandchildren Morgan, Brandt and Cole Ducheneaux of Timber Lake, SD. Landry, Arina Dee and Blaisely Haugen, Sturgis, SD. Father and mother-in-law Steve and Krisanne Eagleberger, Colorado Springs, CO, Sisters Debbie (Clay) Claymore, Julie (Brad) Young, Brother Ernest (Bogie) Webb, Sister-in-law Pam (Will) Ebert and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents Honey and Joan Webb, grandparents Jack and Jenny Hunt, grandparents George and Ella Webb, Aunt Loraine (Beanie) Raeburn, and Uncle Dave Nelson

Our thoughts and prayers are with Butch's family

Tacy Kay Webb Wins Cowtown Christmas

As the event was down to one eligible athlete in the Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) at the Dec. 18 Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo, breakaway roping had the fans inside the Cowtown Coliseum on the edge of their seats. Tacy Kay Webb, the 24-year-old ICU Nurse was the undeniable star of the rodeo, delivering what would be the most groundbreaking performance of the event. As only one of two athletes remaining TCR eligible in the final round of competition, her 2.49-second effort elevated her to a $12,500 payday. For Webb, fresh off her win at July's Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo, the event marked her second consecutive WCRA Major, putting her in contention to be a millionaire. If Webb triumphs at May's Rodeo Corpus Christi, she will be the first victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

Not only did Webb emerge victorious but did so by defeating Women's Rodeo World Champion Hope Thompson (Decatur, TX) and Britta Strain (Davie, FL).

Sherri Barnes (Pilot Point, TX) rode in the Coliseum after Britta Strain and London Gorham (Cotulla, TX) both received a five second penalty. Barnes knew that all she needed to do was not knock down a barrel. She shattered the competition running one of the best performances of the evening with a 13.99-second run and earning a $12,500 paycheck.

On Dec. 25 and 2 p.m. ET fans will be able to tune into the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round at the Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo on a CBS network broadcast.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $10,860,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

Nominations are now open for WCRA's next Major rodeo- Rodeo Corpus Christi (RCC22) May 11-14. Athletes are eligible to nominate their competitive efforts in the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) until April 10 to earn a spot in the $550,000 event.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We wish you a very blessed Christmas! We pray you allow the gift of Jesus to flood you. Then, in turn, you let your gift shine and it draws others to Jesus.

Eternal life is the most wonderful present anyone can receive. It's the prettiest gift, the one wrapped in love. And inside that gift are many, many more. Healing. Prosperity. Friendships. Peace. Strong relationships. Mercy. Forgiveness. John 10:10.

And because it cost Jesus EVERYTHING, it costs us NOTHING! When we ask Him to be our Lord and Savior, we get it all! Romans 10:8-10.

We. Get. It. All. We don't have to pay for our sins, He did. Our life is secure. We have a hope and a future. Jer. 29:11.

From our house to yours, Merry Christmas dear friends!
