Headin' For Home

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU! My prayer is that we all carry the Christmas spirit into the new year! Not the 'Happy Holidays' deal, but the TRUE Christmas Spirit. I pray that the smile we've been sporting this last month just carry right on in to 2020. I pray that we never quit giving. I pray that we respect each other like never before. I pray that we use our words to bless and not curse. I pray that we never quit or give up when things are hard. I pray that we never lose our childlike faith and hope. I pray that when we mess up, we can laugh about it, correct it, and move on.

At church last week, Pastor Colleen asked the kids to come up and talk about Christmas and what it's about and what they are thankful for. One three year old little boy said, "I'm thankful for Santa!" His dad is a Bible teacher and immediately realizing what he had just said, he ducked his head and shook it, like 'oh, that's not it!' Colleen moved down the line and got to a little 6 year old girl. In the most matter of fact voice she said, "I understand that Santa is allergic to cats." Well, there you have it! Christmas laughter and joy! God bless you all!
