Barrel Racing Review 2012

Nate Shilabar Passes

One of the greatest barrel horses of all time, Nate Shilabar, passed peacefully in his sleep on December 28, 2011 in Vinita, Okla.

Known by all who loved and adored him as "Hotshot," the 24-year-old buckskin gelding left this world with more than $1 million in earnings and the respect and admiration of barrel racers around the world.

LOT #37 - HUNK OF LUV
2008 Gelding by High On Corona out of Dealing For Dee (Futurity & Rodeo Money Winning Barrel Horse)

We are bringing one of our best. Hunk is running barrels and heading steers and has been started on the poles. He has been clocked a handful of times and is doing awesome. He is big and strong and can move. He will eat a barrel up. Natural rate, very gentle and quiet. You can do anything you want on him. Paul Greimsman is heading steers on him and he will make a rodeo horse. Doesn't hurt that he is flat gorgeous. He is also eligible for a pile of futurities and is paid in full to the Future Fortunes. You may come try him at the ranch prior to the sale with appointment.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are some people who become very depressed during the holiday season. While others celebrate the birth of our Savior and look forward to a new year, they dwell on past mistakes, the loss of loved ones and they focus on problems with health, finances, family and relationships.

These people fail to see the blessings in their lives and don't trust God to give them a good future. In John 14:27, Jesus said, "Peace I leave with youLet not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." God has seen your future and it is good!

Guard your mind and refuse all negative thoughts that the devil bombards you with. At the time you take Jesus as your Lord and Savior, He comes to live in your heart. He is the God of peace (1 Thessalonians 5:23) who cautions us not to "be anxious for anything" (Philippians 4:6) even when things look bad.

What the devil intends for bad, God can turn to good.

There will be school shootings, recessions, threats of nuclear attacks and rumors of war but, when you speak praises to God, He will lead you and guide you in all the affairs of your life. Watch what comes out of your mouth because we really do "get what we say." Jesus lived and walked on the earth during very dangerous and turbulent times and yet He constantly told us to be in peace and have joyful hearts.

Always be mindful why we celebrate Christmas but go out of your way to make someone happy. You don't have to spend a lot of money; that's not what Christmas is all about. Drop a card to an old friend, visit a shut-in, take cookies to the old folks' home, give someone a ride to church and make sure you go to church yourself and soak up some of the joy and good will that fills the air there this time of year. Hear the Christmas story read out of Luke and enjoy the coffee fellowships afterwards.

Most of all, set aside time to talk to God. Pray for peace in the world, pray for our military people so far from home and family and thank God that, no matter what happens, He is more than able and willing to keep you and your family safe in His "everlasting arms" (Deuteronomy 33:27). That should give a lift to your spirits!!
