The Wait is Over - NFR 2019 is Here!

We really enjoy this time of the year here at the Barrel Racing Report! After following the winnings of all the hard working ladies all year long we get to watch them live out their dreams and fly out of that dark alley at the Thomas & Mack! We realize that this is not only the product of a lot of hard work rodeoing in 2019, but the product of years and years of hard work honing their craft; training and riding too many horses to count; learning and growing with each horse every day; riding in snow, rain, heat; all night drives and borrowed trucks. Some days they are having a blast winning big rodeos and I'm sure they couldn't imagine a better life and other days they are on the side of the road in the middle of Wyoming missing an axle on their trailer trying to figure out what to do next. There are buckoffs, broken bones and too many vet trips to recall; but through it all, the dream of that alley at Thomas & Mack has kept them going.

The famous "The Man In The Arena" quote by Theodore Roosevelt seems to fit their accomplishment of qualifying to the 2019 NFR so well:

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and short-coming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with the cold and timid souls who neither know victory or defeat."

We salute all you 2019 NFR Qualifiers on your amazing determination to continue through those failures and defeats with your enthusiasm to live out your dreams in Vegas running at the Thomas & Mack!

Below we will hopefully share a little extra special information about what we see coming into the 2019 NFR and following that will be all 15 interviews with the NFR Qualifiers! We truly hope that all 15 ladies can have 10 safe, fast trips and cash good checks. Good Luck Ladies & Congratulations on an already amazing 2019!!

$88,936...that's the record amount it took just to climb into the 15th position to qualify for the 2019 NFR in the barrel racing. It is such an even field that although the Top 3 (Miller, Kinsel-Lockwood, Lockhart) have about a $30-40k advantage on the rest going into the NFR; everyone in the field is within striking distance of a world title if they get hot in Vegas. This group of talented ladies are again quite varied with 5 first time NFR qualifiers; Lockhart & Tonozzi both with 13 qualifications; and the rest of the field has qualified 4 times or less.

For the second year in a row Nellie Miller and Hailey Kinsel-Lockwood come into the WNFR in the #1 & #2 position. Last year Hailey came in #1 and this year Nellie rides into the NFR in the #1 position. 2017 was the first time these two faced each other and even though Kinsel-Lockwood set an NFR earnings record for barrel racing ($189,385); Miller had an equally amazing NFR winning $177,961 and ended up world champions. In 2018 Kinsel-Lockwood came into the NFR with a nearly $50k lead and cruised to a world title. Both Kinsel-Lockwood & Miller ride a World Champion mare named Sister as well. Miller's roan Sister holds the NFR Average Record of 137.32 on ten runs and Kinsel-Lockwood's big yellow Sister holds the arena record time of 13.11. So for the second year in a row it is setting up as a showdown of Sister vs. Sister!

Miller & her little roan Sister, Rafter W Minnie Reba, come into the NFR as the #1 Barrel Racer off of a dream season so far where they won RodeoHouston, Cheyenne and won a bunch out of Calgary too, so with only 28 rodeos entered they go into the NFR in the lead. So the little roan & Miller are well rested and have basically been able to rodeo on the exact schedule of their choosing all year. After an amazing 2017 NFR (earning $177k, setting the NFR average record (137.32 seconds on ten runs & won the world title), their 2018 NFR was a little slower only winning only $41,308. However; now going into the 3rd year of Miller preparing Sister for the NFR and with the year they have had; Miller will have Sister at her very best in 2019 and could just continue the awesome year they have had, repeat their 2017 NFR, and cruise to a world title.

Kinsel-Lockwood and her Sister, DM Sissy Hayday, come into the 2019 NFR off of another amazing year. Kinsel-Lockwood only entered 49 rodeos and ran Sister at a lot less than that; so Kinsel-Lockwood, like Miller, basically could pick and choose her rodeos all year and winning rodeos consistently whenever they showed up. Sister & Kinsel-Lockwood have won 4 Rounds in each 2017 & 2018 at the NFR winning $347,249 over those two years just at the NFR. Sister has been running strong all year long and if they continue their tear in Vegas; we are all in for quite a show in this 2019 version of Sister vs. Sister!

13 time NFR Qualifier, Lisa Lockhart is only a few thousand back from Miller & Kinsel-Lockwood thanks to a big win at Calgary over the summer that allowed her to pick and choose her rodeos the rest of the year. Lockhart comes to the NFR with Prime Diamond (Cutter), Rosas Cantina CC (Rosa) & the lovable Louie (An Oakie With Cash). She won Calgary on Rosa over the summer; won the Ram National Circuit Finals on Cutter in the spring; and Louie...well he's Louie, the only $2 million barrel horse and a fan favorite for his consistency in Vegas; so which horse will she ride? Knowing Lockhart, she will choose the one who feels the best when she gets there. Rosa won a round at the NFR (Round 2) and has the experience there, but both horses have been running well all fall and should be ready to fire at the NFR. Lockhart is a veteran competitor who has a knack for having her horses firing for the NFR so whatever she decides to ride will give put her in the mix for her first world title to watch with her over $2.5 million in earnings and 2 NFR Average titles.

In the #4 position, Shali Lord comes riding the good stud, Freckles Ta Fame. They won Greeley and Cheyenne in the middle of a strong summer run to push their way in to the Top 15. Lord last qualified for the NFR in 2005; in the mean time with her 2 kids she continued to compete at a high level when she decided to leave home and compete. Freckles Ta Fame has won in all types of setups with her and Ashley Schafer as well and has even placed at the NFR before with Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi in 2017. Lord & Freckles Ta Fame have basically won wherever they have went over the past couple years and they know each other so well; they should really do well at the NFR and could easily close the $35k gap between her and the Top 3 and be in the mix for a world title.

Another veteran competitor, 2 time World Champion & 13 time NFR Qualifier, Brittany Tonozzi, comes into the NFR #5 with 3 really great horses that she raised and trained. Ima Famous Babe, Kisskiss Banging and Babe On The Chase all made the journey to Vegas and all 3 are big winners. Ima Famous Babe & Tonozzi are only a few weeks off of setting an arena record in Waco in an indoor arena with solid walls and banners & the team already placed in a round at the 2018 NFR so they should be ready for a big 2019 NFR. All 3 of the horses have won big events and as Stuart Scott would say on Sportscenter back in the day, Tonozzi is "as cool as the other side of the pillow" as a competitor so it will be interesting to watch Tonozzi and her home raised team at the 2019 NFR.

Stevi Hillman comes into her 4th NFR in the #6 position and she comes loaded with horse talent in tow. She has MCM ImaSharpGuy (Sharpie) back from injury and he is firing on all cylinders; recently winning an NFR race in Texas. Hillman will use the experience from her previous 3 NFRs to her advantage and paired with Sharpie, who can win anytime, anywhere; this could be a lethal team for the go rounds all week. When Sharpie has his run, he wins. She also has 3 other top notch horses if she needs them, so she is locked and loaded for Vegas!

Emily Miller qualified to the NFR in the 7th spot in 2019 after falling out of the standings towards the end of the year in 2017 when she had some horse injuries sideline her near NFR run (she ended up #17) and in 2018 she slowed her rodeo schedule. This year she was the high money earner over the 4th of July to catapult her up in the standings where she stayed for the rest of the year. She will start on her great gelding Namgis D 33 (Chongo), he is a proven winner over a number of years and he should handle the setup well. We should see this team run consistent and they may be one to watch in the average as the 10 days progress.

On the heels of a huge 2018 NFR, Fiery Miss West (Missy) & Jessica Routier qualify for their 2nd NFR in a row in 2019. At the 2018 NFR this team ended Reserve World Champion for the year and Reserve WNFR Average Champions; placing in 7 rounds and winning $153,000. Although this is only Routier's 2nd NFR, she is a veteran competitor who has won at every level. Missy & Routier are used to running in a bunch of smaller arenas so the NFR fits them perfectly. This pair should build on their success from last year; look for them to place along in the rounds, maybe they can get that average title to add to their resume this year while pushing their way into the world title race!

In #9 is the fan favorite story of Dona Kay Rule at 61 yrs old and her 2019 Horse of the Year, High Valor (Valor). Rule has slowly brought along this oh so talented gelding over the past several years just so he would be ready for this sort of setup. She has trained this horse herself and she will use her years of experience to keep him just right over the ten days in Vegas. This team is able to win rounds or average checks so they should be a fun team to watch. If you haven't seen Rule & Valor run, you are in for a real treat!

In the #10 spot, Ericka Nelson and Goodfrenchmanfriday (Friday) come into Vegas ready for their chance at the big money. Nelson finished 28th in 2017 & 26th in 2018 before increasing the size of their circle of rodeos in 2019 and securing their first NFR berth. Nelson & Friday are very amazingly versatile; placing at Pendleton with a 28 second run then winning Albuquerque, NM with a 14 second run in the same week this fall! This team, like many at the NFR, have had several years to gel together, so they know each other so well and they should have a big week!

A very familiar face over the last several years, Ivy Conrado-Saebens comes into her 4th NFR riding her trusty mount Kn Fabs Gift

Of Fame (JLo). JLo is the 2018 & 2019 Reserve Champion AQHA/WPRA Barrel Racing Horse of the Year and is a proven winner at the NFR already. Saebens & JLo were Reserve NFR Average Champions in 2017 winning $154,339 at the NFR; placing in 8 rounds & tying for the win of Round 5. In 2018 the pair won $98,000, placed in 6 rounds, and won Round 5 again. This year Saebens was very careful with the rodeos she took JLo to so JLo is rested and ready and just won a barrel race on their way to the NFR! If you are looking for a barrel racing team for you fantasy team, this team is a proven team to look at that won't break the bank!

CP Dark Moon (Paige) & Amberleigh Moore are very familiar names with anyone who has watched the NFR over the past 3 years! This team only goes to enough rodeos to get qualified to the NFR and then they go home so that is why they arrive in the #12 position. In their first trip to the NFR, Paige & Moore won $187,692 and held the NFR earnings record for Barrel Racing until Kinsel-Lockwood broke it in 2017. They then won $120k in 2017 and followed that up with $157,231 of earnings at the 2018 NFR. That means this team has won $464,923 in 3 years at the NFR, placed in 20 of 30 total rounds and won 7 rounds (and some tipped barrels kept them from winning several more!). This team loves the Thomas & Mack, Paige is fresh and ready, and now Moore has 3 years of NFR experience; another team that would fit your fantasy team on a budget as well!

In #13 headed to Vegas is another first time qualifier, Jennifer Sharp. KR Famous Tequilla, a Dash Ta Fame stud she owns will get the first call. Unfortunately, Sharp sustained an injury before the NFR and is having to do all she can to get herself to where she can run at the NFR; however, anyone that has been around her knows she will be ready to win on Thursday night when she runs down the alley. She wins at everything from local barrel races to rodeos across the country and she knows how to win in a variety of setups. She rode Slick By Design to an AQHA World Championship in 2012 so she is used to pressure situations and should thrive in the NFR environment.

21 years after her first 2 NFR appearances, veteran competitor Cheyenne Wimberley qualified to her 3rd NFR with a group of talented horses. She has VQ Sucker Punch (Rocco), Kn Fabs Mist Of Fame (Misty), Streakin Images (Lex), & Dash Ta Suz (Smooch) all with her and ready to go. All the horses have helped her to an amazing year. Above and beyond her WPRA earnings this year she won the WCRA Windy City Roundup and $50k on Streakin Images in January. A steady summer run and a great fall pushed her into the #14 position and secured her NFR berth. She is going to start out on Rocco who has made the Final 4 at The American with Brandon Cullins and won a Pool Round at Calgary with Kassie Mowry and now he has won with Wimberley throughout the year. The horse and Wimberley are both versatile winners so they should do well in the Thomas & Mack and if she needs them she has 3 other top notch horses to turn to!

$88,936...that's the record amount of earnings it took to just make the 2019 NFR. Lacinda Rose on her cool gelding RR Meradas Real Deal earned their way to that 15th spot; placing all year long. Watching the results over the last years, we just saw this team show up more and more as the years went by. She trained her horse, who was a product of their father-in-laws breeding program; so she is very familiar with her horse and that should help her in the tight confines of the Thomas & Mack. This team is just so good & solid; they should get checks in the round and be a contender for those big average checks at the end of the 10 rounds.

We hope that everyone enjoys your 10 days of watching this talented group of ladies at the 2019 NFR!

Thanks to the WPRA for their great information provided in the 2019 WNFR Media Guide to give us a few extra tidbits to add to our preview and all the info for the records and info below.

Rider: Nellie Miller, Owner: Williams & Miller, Breeder: Sam Williams

#1 Nellie Miller, $154,611

Age: 31 - Hometown: Cottonwood, CA - Joined WPRA: 2008
Career earnings: $876,021 - NFR Qualifications: 4 (2010, 2017-19)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Miller: I am taking Rafter W Minnie Reba aka "Sister", My dad Sam Williams owns her. She is an 11 yr old blue roan mare. She is 15 hands tall. My back up horse this year is Cinco De Cash (Dash For A Clark Bar-Waganet Twist, Oregon Twist) he is owned by Colleen Kingsbury.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Miller: Rafter W Minnie Reba — $800,000+/-

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Miller: She is a very confident horse which is nice as a rider, she doesn't like to be brushed and she will eat every blade of grass we pass along the way like a little pony.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Miller: At the start of the year I made a mini resolution to read more books this year so I have bought several different books and really enjoyed getting back in the habit of reading (as opposed to reading social media) and it has been a lot more positive and enlightening for me.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Miller: I have the bit I use to run in which is the Sherry Cervi bit and I also have a bit that a guy made for me that is a correction bit with a small port in it and every horse I ride in it seems to pack it really well.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Miller: I like to make a little mini side trip while I am on the road if I have the time. There are so many wonderful spots to visit in each state that we go to. It is a pretty unique opportunity to travel as much as we do so I don't like to just drive by everything without getting to see some of the cool stuff along the way.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Miller: Sister doesn't get too much rest time because she gets rather large when she is off and it is hard to get that weight back off of her so I stay on her exercising and I don't run her a lot before Vegas but I do like to get a few runs under our belt before we go. I think she and I both do a little better if we make some runs going into it.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Miller: I just try to stay focused on the task at hand. It is easy to get caught up in things that are out of our control so I try to block that extra stuff out as much as possible.

Pie In the Sky) 16 years old, sorrel - owned by the Aasbo family, formerly owned by Copper Spring Ranch/Lisa Anderson

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Sister - $1.6 million; TJ - $70k+, Guy - $100k+

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Sister is very sweet, but sassy. She is a little pushy and demanding, and still spooky, no matter how old she gets it seems. She runs with a confident, honest style. TJ is a goofy horse, and very kind. He has that "elephant-mouse" thing going on -- he is very big, but little things scare him. He is very honest in the pattern.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Kinsel-Lockwood: My blue heeler puppy, Steely. I lost my dog that was my best buddy and traveling partner in January, and was so bummed about the way 2019 started. Animals are a gift from God and they bring me the most joy, and Steely has done that for me and lifted my spirits.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Twisted O-ring, 3-piece short shank gag

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Rest! For myself and my horses. I love getting to see family and friends, whenever possible.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Sister tends to fire hard in the first few runs back from a long rest. TJ, being older, takes some warming up. Getting them both in tip-top shape before the NFR is the goal!

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Kinsel-Lockwood: Being prepared is what helps me feel the most positive and ready to win. I enjoy listening to good music and podcasts, and striving to constantly learn. I do a lot of praying and try to stay in the word, reading good books when I can, and talking to people wiser than me. Being outside with my animals or with my family is what helps me enjoy life the most!

RRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Lockhart: I love my short shank gag bits, (I would have to say the Dave Elliott is my favorite) and I use them on almost all my horses with barrel work, and a sidepull hackamore (Classic Equine) when I exercise & in my warm up.

RRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Lockhart: It doesn't seem like there is ever any downtime because I have a tendency to keep myself busy as I like to piddle with my horses...waaaay too much! Being a wife & mom keeps me pretty busy too!

RRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Lockhart: I don't think there is any right or wrong answer, but more so I think you have to know your horse and what best suits them... I always maintain the same basic exercise routine year round. Prior to competing, Cutter & Louie need more runs to be sharp than Rosa does.

RRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Lockhart: I love listening to "The Message" on Sirius XM, and reading inspirational quotes. Being thankful for all that God does & for the endurance to run the race he has set before us is what motivates me.

Career earnings: $2,321,480 - NFR Qualifications: 13 (2003, 2005-13, 2017-19)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: Ima Famous Babe "Katniss" 6 years old, chestnut, 15.3 Katniss may be young but she has been so solid at the rodeos and has won a lot this fall.

Kisskiss Bangbang (Dash Ta Fame-CD Nick Bar, Dr Nick Bar) "Mona" 9 year old, sorrel mare, 15.1 Mona has never made the trip to the NFR but I think she has finally grown up enough and become solid. Look for her to make a few runs.

Babe On The Chase (Chasin Firewater-Streakin Six Babe, Streakin Six) "Birdie" 8 year old sorrel mare 15.3 Birdie made a few runs last year and got checks. I'm excited to have all three going

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: All my mares are a little bit on the wild side but Mona is the boss and Katniss is the over active teenager. None of them require special attention as far as stalling or riding in the trailer but they are all divas and totally act like it.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: This is a hard one but I am very ocd and can't stand when little things like tie rings or latches are broke on my trailer so when I get those little things fixed it makes me happy.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: I love the Pozzi long shank lifter 3 piece twist and I also really like the Hemi made by Kerry Kelly.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: We love to find good places to eat and take Tinlee somewhere she can run around and blow some steam off.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: I usually rest my horses before the NFR but this year I took a little different approach and kept running them. I wanted everyone at the top of their game and we seem to do the best in the summer when we are making a lot of runs so I kept that going.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Pozzi-Tonozzi: Garrett (Husband) is my go to if I need a mindset change or some positivity.

Age: 33 - Hometown: Weatherford, TX - Joined WPRA: 2012
 Career earnings: $683,472 - NFR Qualifications: 4 (2016-19)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?
Hillman: MCM ImASharpGuy "Sharpie" 7 yr old grey gelding, 16 hands. He is SO incredibly fast, it's a crazy ride and you better be paying attention bc he makes crazy quick and athletic moves.
One Perfect Ruby (One Time Pepto-Cats Ruby, High Brow Cat)

"Perfecto" 8 yr old sorrel gelding by One Time Pepto, 14.2-14.3 hands. He's small but a fast red rocket, it's intimidating when he takes off!

Guy R A Mystery (Frenchmans Guy-Disarray, Dash Ta Fame)

"Sherlock" 15.2, 9 yr old palomino gelding by Frenchmans Guy. Stout horse that runs strong.

DTF Mellowdoc (Dash Ta Fame-Waynadoc, Merridoc)

"Millie: 16 hands, 9 yr old chestnut mare by Dash Ta Fame. BIG mare.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Hillman: Truck (Cuatro Fame) got me to Vegas so I'll share his LTE too! $380k; Sharpie, around $175-$180k; Perfecto, not sure; Sherlock, around $65k; Millie, around $75-$80k

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Hillman: Sharpie is a rocket and so quick, so he's one you want to be so focused and sharp in your riding. He's soooo playful and full of himself. People think he's so sweet, he can be but he's very ornery! He loves to roll a million times and rolls like a cat lol Perfecto- He is watchy and has to have your trust, he's very attentive to everything you are doing. And that rolls over into running him, I have to be careful how and when I cue him, he's more sensitive. But a very strong horse to run. You better be ready when he takes off. Full of personality! He loves to chew on anything and everything.

Sherlock- Has been with me all year. He's kind of a grumpy guy (lol) he's all business. He's one you have to ride all the way, he can be more setty and ratey. He's just a spooky horse so you gotta stay on your toes with him. He's been a fun, reliable one to have.

Millie- We just bought her this year so I'm still getting to know her but she's such a sweet talented mare. She's a big girl that can turn so fast. I really love her style, she's been fun. She's intense so we work on keeping her relaxed and chill.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Hillman: I'll have to say KahmCBD products for both me and my horses. Allowing us to rest better and them to be able to stay more chill and relaxed.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Hillman: Kathy James two piece twisted, I use this bit on pretty much everything I run! Truck, Sharpie, Millie, and a few others Also my chain and port Petska bit, it's just handy to have when you need it!

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Hillman: They'll get some rest after the summer run, then they get back in shape, lightly running just keeping them going. Then in Oct. they start getting intense workouts and more runs to get ready. Quicker more intense workouts for the NFR quick set up.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Hillman: Remember what my purpose is and why I do what I do. Also I make sure to listen to positive and encouraging podcasts. Ty has a lot I like. The main thing really is to stay focused on what I do have control over.

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Miller: Namgis D 33 "Chongo" 9 year old Gelding, Grey, 16.1 hands. Spunky/personable. Very deceiving style!

Namgis D 56 (Bucks Hancock Dude-Central Station, First Down Dash)

"Foxy" 7 year old palomino, 15.1. She's a pleaser, very honest, and loves smaller indoors.

Biddin on Fame (PC Frosty Bid-Jaxsons Olympic Fame, Poco Lijerito)

"Beau" 6 year old bay gelding, Quirky but very athletic. I own all of them.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Miller: Namgis D33 lte: $125,000; Namgis D 56 lte: $50,000; Biddin On Fame lte: $10,000

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Miller: Chongo is a doll, he has such a kind nature, but is extremely playful and ornery at the same time.

Foxy is a rarity. She is so gentle and sweet, anyone can handle her. My future step son Rowan (4 years old) rides her around right after she's made a run at a rodeo.

Beau, well his nick name is bad Beau haha! He can be a teddy bear 99% of the time and then get scared of his own shadow. That quirkiness is also what makes him so fast so we embrace it.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Miller: I think my Canadian membership was right around that (once converted to American dollars). I won $40k up there. Those earnings are what took me from the 16-20 hole, to the top 5 in less than a month.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Miller: Original Petska. L&W no gag twist with a dog bone.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Miller: I love to go hiking/floating the river/any thing outdoors. Even if it's just going for a run through the city park. We are so fortunate to travel all over the country, therefore I try to make the most of it.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Miller: My horses don't see the barrels much between runs. I don't have an arena at my house so I ride a lot of pastures, mainly long trotting, to keep them legged up. All three of my horses were trained by the Ward girls, they know their job. If we go to a jackpot it's usually because their rider needs the tune up :)

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Miller: I travel by myself most of the time. This has made it easier for me to focus on my journey and my horses, instead of exerting my energy on someone else's. I've always been pretty independent and stubborn, especially when it comes to the horses, so having my "me time" helps get me in the right mindset and focus on what I need to do. I also have an awesome support system, FaceTiming my family regularly keeps me from getting lonely!

greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Routier: Audible subscription. Audio books make long drives a little more bearable.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Routier: Carol Goostree Delight chain Snaffle. Most of my horses love running in it and a ring snaffle to soften up when needed.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Routier: See the local sights.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Routier: I like to give them as long a rest as possible but still allow about a month to get back in running shape. That month includes a week of long trotting/pasture riding, a couple weeks of swimming, and then another week of riding and ideally one or two competition runs to get back in the swing of things.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Rule: Not 100% sure on Valors earnings. I would say at least $200K. Not everyone reports to Equistat.

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Rule: Valor is very happy most of the time. If he gets grumpy then I know something is going on with him. He likes his stall, no matter where the stall is, if I turn him out he will play a little but then will go back to his stall and stand in the doorway.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Rule: Oh my gosh, anyone who knows me knows I am a thrift store girl haha. I have bought a lot of interesting books and blankets for my trailer there this year. I got several things to organize my trailer there too.....if it was over $300 I would probably opt to pass and live without it!

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Rule: An "O" ring snaffle and a Little S hackamore. I can always go back to basics and correct one with it and if I do my job correctly, it is all I need to run in. The Little S hackamore is my other go to bridle. I can shape a body with it and keep them relaxed at the same time.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Rule: I like to read. It can be fiction or documentary/biography type, I like both. I don't like being idle so I'll clean my trailer or trail ride if I can. I also enjoy museums and historical points of interest but it is hard for me to drive off and leave my horse in an unfamiliar place.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Rule: Valor is not one to "go hang out" in the pasture. He prefers "a mission" so I do different things with him. Sometimes I will pony him, sometimes we will go check cattle or go ride at someone else's place. I like to take him to jackpots and ride around and NOT run, I think that is good for their minds.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Rule: I listen to Christian music mostly, I enjoy the reminders I get from Christian radio, we all can get a little caught up in the sourness of the world so it keeps me centered. There's nothing like good old classic country either, keeps you grounded. I also like to study other horsemanship disciplines, it keeps me interested and it is not the same ol' thing. I will often apply what I learned from Dressage or Working Cow to my program.

Age: 39 - Hometown: Century, FL - Joined WPRA: 2001
Career earnings: $199,491 - NFR Qualifications: 1 (2019)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Nelson: Goodfrenchmanfriday "Friday" 12 year old, sorrel, 15.2, spoiled but so cute, owned by Darren Scholl
PC Cash (PC Frosty Bid-Cashini, Bet The Cash) "Bud" 9 year old, Palomino, 15.1, rotten but also very cute, owned by Beth Miller

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Nelson: Friday has won about 280k.

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Nelson: Friday is on guard a lot of the time, so getting him to really rest is sometimes a challenge. He is also really scared of big trucks, school buses, dump trucks, etc. Bud likes to play and is not serious ever. He also will only tolerate wraps on his back legs only to run in, no boots on the back end.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Nelson: I recently bought a hand held massager, that thing is fabulous. I hope the horses like it as much as I do.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?
Nelson: 3 piece draw is my go to for sure. I exercise almost everything in it and start all the baby horses in it, they all seem to like it too, it's definitely my fav.

And a 3 piece O ring, I like it because it's light and keeps them soft.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Nelson: Sleep, I require a lot of sleep so when I have a chance to catch up, I do. If Rainey is with me, we find a water park and we've found some really good ones.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Nelson: We have been exercising and hitting the therapy pretty hard since we've been home. We'll see if it was the right thing to do very soon!

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Nelson: The mind game is the hardest sometimes, I listen to lots of preaching on Sirius while in the truck, pray for direction and try to stay in peace with each decision whether it worked out as planned or not.

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Conrado-Saebens: KN Fabs Gift Of Fame "JLo" 10 yrs old palomino mare, Owned by Kenny Nichols & Dale Barron

Positively Streakin (Streakin Boon Dox-Positively A Coyote, Coyote Colonel)

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Conrado-Saebens: JLo, roughly 750k — Salty is maybe 50k so far!

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Conrado-Saebens: JLo has a huge personality & has a huge stride! She's a pretty moody thing. When she doesn't want to do something she acts like her knee itches & dramatically throws her head down to scratch it. It's like a bratty impulse, she'll even do it at a lope. Salty is young! She's just starting to come my way. She runs left & is pretty square like JLo. They're both strong in the face. I like that they are similar. Salty rides around like a rope horse, hauls like a rope horse & pretty much sleeps all day!

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Conrado-Saebens: Is Adequan less than $300??? Just kidding. Electrolytes probably! Injectable Vitamin C & B12 as well!

Conrado-Saebens: Sleep!!!

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Conrado-Saebens: I'm still learning! I sent JLo to Equicare in 2017 before going to the NFR but I didn't in 2018 because I had my circuit finals not too soon before. I sent her for 6 weeks to Equicare this year. I know people hate to hear it but the only way for them to be in "running shape" is to run them. The only way to have timing is to make runs as well. JLo takes a couple runs to get quick. I don't think she likes breaks! I'd like to think she loves her job.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Conrado-Saebens: All of the above! (inspirational quotes, music, podcasts) There are lots of different ways to stay positive. Just depends on the kind of person you are.

Moore: Come September 30th every year it's time for me and the horses to take break and relax. I get to spend time with my family to travel and get caught up riding the up and coming young ones. The horses still on the same exercise program year around, just without all the road miles. We go to local races to keep us both in sync with each other and to prepare for Vegas.

Rider: Cheyenne Wimberely; Owner: Robin Weaver; Breeder: Randy Ray Hulsey

BRR: What are some of your horse(s) fun & unique personality characteristics?

Wimberely: Rocco must have a buddy and he doesn't care who it is but he will scream at the top of his lungs if he doesn't. He's the clown of the trailer. He will untie himself about as fast as you can tie him. He will just about try any of your snacks.

Misty is the Boss. It's her way or no way. She likes what she likes and could care less about the little things.

Lex doesn't require much attention and would rather you just let her be, but don't forget the treats.

Smooch is the Diva and thinks the world revolves around her.

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Wimberely: For sure the fold up wagon. I can't imagine how many buckets of water ours has hauled. It's a back saver.

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without and why?

Wimberely: The Elliot 3 piece with a roller. 2 horses run in this bit and it's the only bit they have ever ran in. Jim Edwards correction slide. I like to exercise in this and one runs in it.

BRR: What is your favorite fun thing to do when you are on the road and get some down time?

Wimberely: I would like to think there was down time. Reality is the couple days you have your catching up and getting the rig ready for the next weekend. If possible we do like to site see and eat at all natural food places.

BRR: What schedule of rest, runs and exercise best suits your horse(s) between the end of the regular season & the NFR to have them at their peak during the NFR?

Wimberely: All the horses got a couple weeks off once the season was over. Then each horse ran every 2 weeks just to keep some air in them. They kept all of their same exercise routines and therapies.

BRR: What do you do when you are on the road to stay in a positive & winning mindset?

Wimberely: I eliminate all negativity and stay around positive people. I learned a long time ago you have to forgive and forget quickly to stay on the road.

Famous Illusion — He is very playful until you go to a barrel or steer then he gets intense about doing his job. He's crazy talented!

BRR: What purchase over the last year of less than $300 has had the greatest impact on your rodeoing?

Rose: I have 2. First is Cowgirl Tuff button up pullover rodeo shirts. They're so comfortable and cool during the summer, sewed up in the front so they don't hook on my horn and long tail in the back.

Second is Sprint Combo paste for my horse. When I have to make runs several days in a row and it's hot outside, it gives my horse an extra boost of energy!

Canadian Champs Brooke Wills & Fames To Blame Take Maple Leaf Titles

By Tanya Randall

Brooke Wills of Kamloops, British Columbia, and her tough mare Fames To Blame ("Famey") will go down in history books as the first Maple Leaf Circuit Champions.

The recently crowned Canadian Champions swept both the year end and average titles at the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals held with the Canadian Western Agribition in Regina, Saskatchewan, November 27-30.

"It went really smooth and great," she said. "They were really great to us competitors. The stalls were great and the arena was good. It was a really great weekend. My parents were there. They helped and watched. It was nice to have them out. It can be really cold in Regina, especially at the end of November and we really lucked out this year. It actually wasn't very cold, so we were really lucky."

The top 10 contestants in the Maple Leaf standings qualified for the Circuit Finals. However, only card-carrying WPRA members were eligible to earn the right to compete half a continent away at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo, April 2-4, 2020 in Kissimmee, Florida.

Both Wills and reserve aggregate champion Rylee Trehnholm of Chetwynd, British Columbia, meet the requirements to compete in Kissimmee.

"It's a huge temperature swing and a long way to go," said Willis. I had already figured I'd be down in Texas going to some rodeos, so I'll be a little bit closer."

Her horse is also southern bred. By Lions Share Of Fame, Famey,8, is out of SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy. The breeding was a part of a foal share between Stephanie Wheeler of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, and Carisa Shearer of Wall, South Dakota. She was trained and futurity by Wheeler's son Brian.

Famey later ended up with Ivy Conrado-Saebens and helped her qualify for the 2018 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Conrado-Saebens basically hand-picked Wills to be her owner.

"She text me out of the blue that her uncle, who owned Famey, wanted to sell her, and if I knew of anyone that would be interested or if I would be interested because she thought we'd be a perfect fit," Wills told Barrel Racing Report following her Canadian Championship just a month ago. "She knew I would give the mare a really good home," Wills said. "At first, I was like no. I wasn't even looking for a horse, but then I thought this is way too good of an opportunity to pass up. She's an incredible horse. We just made it work. We just had to have her."

Wills hadn't made a run on Famey since winning the Canadian title in Edmonton at the first of November. There was little rust to chip away. They took second in the first two rounds and won the next two, the last round with the fastest time of the rodeo.

"Those were her first runs back," she said. "I knew she was probably going to work really good. She was just nice and smooth. She just thrives on those multiple run events. She gets faster and faster. Her last run wasn't as smooth, but she was running so hard."

Wills picked up $6,805 at the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals. Unlike their American counterparts, the money will count toward the 2020 Canadian Standings.

"It's nice that it counted for our Canadian standings because it's a nice boost for next year," she said. "I'll get to pick and choose my rodeos up here a little bit more and free up some weekends to hit

We didn't have any snow where we live so I was able to ride outside to exercise her and keep her air up. If it got a little colder, I'd go to a little indoor and lope circles in there. The day before I had to leave (for Regina), I just walked and trotted the pattern once or twice. I never ran her and just figured she'd run really good. She felt really great."

As the Canadian Champion, Wills will get into Rodeo Houston and the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals got her into Fort Worth. She's also likely to make it into San Antonio. She finished the 2019 WPRA season ranked 41st in the standings with $32,551.

I haven't really got a schedule yet because not all the rodeo approvals are up yet," she said. "I do think I'll be in Texas for a lot of the winter. I'm very excited."

Let's pretend this week! Let's pretend that there ISN'T a Santa Claus! LOL!

If some people, mostly children, thought that he wasn't coming on Dec. 25, there would be a lot of sad faces out there. Who would bring us presents? Why would we put up all these decorations? There wouldn't be any parties to attend so we could play dress up! It would be a dark world. BUT WAIT! That's not what Christmas is about!!!!

Jesus! Did we forget Jesus??? The one who was born, lived, and died on the cross for our sins so we could rule and reign with Him in heaven? It's supposed to be His birthday. Yet, so many people consider it a nice vacation.

Instead of "Christmas", lots of people sign their cards "Merry Xmas". Took "Christ" right out of the day. Oh. And what about "Happy Holidays"? We sure don't want to offend anyone by wishing them a "Merry Christmas".

When you read this, it will be the first week of December. Let's be the example of putting Jesus back into the festivities!! Blessings on you!
