The Wait Is Over — 2024 NFR Kicks Off this Week!

For most people, this time of year means Thanksgiving and decorating or shopping for Christmas, but in the rodeo world it is the best holiday of the year, the 10 amazing days of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo!

In the barrel racing, it was a record breaking year where it took an astounding $111,189 to just qualify. The competition was fierce throughout the 2024 season. NFR berths were up for grabs until the very last rodeos on the very last weekend of the 2024 rodeo year. Just as an example of the level of competition through 2024, there were several rodeos held on a standard pattern where long 16s didn't even win checks! Many of the rodeos 1-12 places were separated by on a tenth or two tenths or less. The many barrel horse breeding programs and improved ground conditions have lead to just an unbelievable level of competition all year long.

This years NFR Field is a mixed bunch of 5 - 1st Time NFR qualifiers, a few with a couple NFR berths and a number of veteran NFR competitors. Of the veterans, Lisa Lockhart is heading into her 18th NFR (all consecutive 2007-2024) which sits her as the 2nd Most NFR Qualifications All Time behind only Charmayne James and Sherry Cervi who have 19 NFR Qualifications. Lockhart is also the All Time Leading WPRA Career Earnings Leader with $3,658,954 (per WPRA 2024 NFR Guide) and Brittany Pozzi Tonoizzi is right behind her with $3,425,259. The other interesting angle of this year's edition of the NFR is #1 Hailey Kinsel is only $92,914 ahead of #15 cowgirl Shelley Morgan; so with each round paying $33,687 to win and the Average paying $86,391 to win it is truly a wide open world title race!

As we followed the results all year long putting together the Barrel Racing Report every Tuesday night; we noticed how even the field was as we were following in the Top 15. For example, the last rodeo of the year, the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls; #1 Hailey Kinsel won it, #3 Ashley Castleberry was 2nd, #8 LaTricia Duke was in 3rd and #15 Shelley Morgan was 4th in the Finals there. Basically, that was the story of 2024, any of the barrel racers in the Top 15 could win that week! That should make for must see TV on the Cowboy Channel (TV Schedule on page 29) all 10 days in Vegas!

The 4 Time World Champion and 2 Time Reserve World Champion Hailey Kinsel and her amazing mare, DM Sissy Hayday (aka Sister) come into the NFR in the #1 position and are looking to add to their resume as one of the greatest barrel racing duos of All Time! As a pair they also have over $3 million in earnings. It will be interesting to watch them battle it out with this really talented group of horses and riders!

Once again we caught up with all the Top 15 to get a little more info about them before you all watch the NFR! We would like to take a minute to thank all the Top 15 for their time and effort to send these to us and also for being so great to get with for stories and horse names all year long. We are very lucky in barrel racing to have such a great group of ladies to represent our sport. We hope you all have safe, fast runs at the Thomas & Mack for those 10 nights!

We hope you enjoy the interviews!

Also a big Thank You to the WPRA for the great job with the 2024 Wrangler NFR Media Guide we used to add additional info into our interviews and for payout info and such!

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Beisel: Liza 300k. Chongo 850k. Chewy 525k.

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Beisel: Liza is very composed and to the point. She doesn't have a ton of patience or tolerance for immaturity, and cattle are definitely the enemy. Chewy and Chongo are extremely ornery. They're constantly getting into things they shouldn't and causing chaos when possible.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Beisel: Probably winning St. Paul on Chewy. It was a great way to kick off our summer run and start July with momentum!

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Beisel: I love Abbyville, Ks. The people, the ground, but most importantly the pie haha! That was Chewy and I's first performance together and the crowd there is awesome. It was one of the most fun runs I've ever made.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Beisel: Both! I love The Gauge. The Money Barrel is very informative. Music, just depends on the mood! All night drives call for a different playlist than Sunday morning.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Beisel: My mom's monster cookies, they're life changing.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Beisel: They love to be home and turned out together. They all get along so well and I'm blessed to have nice pastures for them to be horses in. Chongo has his favorite sand pit to sunbath in!

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Beisel: Both are required to put in the hours and inconsistent schedule we have. Death Wish and Community coffee. Monster zero sugar.

butt scratch! His flight response is excessive, so I have to giggle in every stupid thing he spooks at!

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Lockhart: I feel like my Semifinals run at Fort Worth was very propelling for me as it was Rosa's first run back, running a fast time indoors, as indoors usually is not her forte. It gave us the confidence we needed as a team to run at Houston as well.

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Lockhart: I think that the August "fair rodeos" are hidden gems, whether in South Dakota, Montana or anywhere in the Midwest.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Lockhart: I love listening to music, and I'm kind of a channel surfer, switching genres. Music is good for the soul!

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Lockhart: Peanut butter and celery or popcorn.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Lockhart: My horses are treat mongers, but their favorite is definitely Nicker Makers!

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Schuster: Famous Mic Guy Ver - $212,594 (per QStallions 12/3)

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Schuster: Micguyver turns his head and wants me to put his finger in his mouth; makes him move his tongue and relax. He really loves cookies but we don't give them right before or right after he runs because I don't want him to choke on them.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Schuster: There's probably 3 really. The first one was Belton. Show Mance was fat, fat and still won Belton. It was one of the funnest most smooth runs, like dancing with Fred Astaire, he did it effortlessly. That was his first run back that let me know to not count him out. The second one was San Angelo. Micguyver always does good there but he placed 2nd in the 2nd Go, won the Finals and was Reserve Champion there and put us in the Top 15 and put us on the NFR path. The third important win was the Salinas win on Shines By Design. It was the final piece that pushed me to finish out the year strong and make the NFR. The last rodeo of the 2024 regular season was winning Mandan on Show Mance so that was an important one too!

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Duke: Vanilla Wafer - $516,000

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Duke: He will nicker if he hears me before he sees me or if he is at the breeding farm and I am on speaker phone he will nicker for me. He also loves his picture taken.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Duke: Not a first place check at either place but two stand out to me: Pendleton got me inside the top 15 and qualified me for Sioux Falls and then 2nd in the first round of Sioux Falls is what got me to the finals.

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Duke: Vanilla Wafer loves the northwest rodeos and I agree with him. I can't pick just one but we love it up there. The weather is great and the rodeos are fast with big checks to win.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Duke: I'm the weird person that can drive hours in silence. I do listen to the radio but don't mind some alone time thinking either.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Duke: Jordan Driver and I probably ate 50lbs of cherries last summer and another 50lbs of pistachios this summer and never forget the gum.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Duke: Vanilla Wafer is food motivated for sure so any treat other than peppermint he is game for and some booty rubs go a long way with him

Lide: Keeper's LTE is about $267,000

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Lide: Keeper is confident, and he loves his job. The bigger the rodeo, the more fun he has with it, usually. He likes to be in charge, and lets everyone know that.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Lide: This is hard, because each one meant so much. Maybe Oakley, UT. I've been to the rodeo a few times, and I've never placed. I've continued to try it, because it's a great rodeo with a welcoming committee in a beautiful town. Keeper had already had a great start to the 4th of July. high-money earner. I wasn't sure if he would excel, so it was an exciting surprise. After he won, I was able to turn out of a few rodeos and give him a few days off.

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Lide: I really like Window Rock because it has a fun but relaxed atmosphere, the committee is amazing and appreciative of the competitors, and Keeper loves Arizona in the summer.

Marwayne/ Lea Park, AB is special because the spectators camp out, watch the rodeo from a grassy hill, and everyone gets pie from the concession stand. There's a river behind the contestant parking area, and you can watch otters swimming.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Lide: Podcasts mostly. I like Radiolab and Radiolab for Kids when my boys are with me. I listen to true crime podcasts when I'm alone, but mostly ones about the wrongfully convicted and scams. Not super scary true crime.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Lide: Is coffee a snack?

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

#12 Andrea Busby, $115,838

Age: 47 - Hometown: Millsap, TX - Joined WPRA: 2008

WPRA Career earnings: $328,918 - NFR Qualifications: 1 (2024)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Busby: Jets Top Gun aka Benny 15.3, sorrel gelding, 9 years old - fast, consistent and really strong - crazy athletic the way he can gather and turn

Blazing With My Dude aka Tito 15hh 9 year old sorrel mare, super easy to ride, quick footed, does exactly what you ask her to do
Born on Derby Day aka Derby - 7 year old 15hh red roan mare, very sensitive very athletic mare - tries 110% percent every time she runs down the alleyway

The current plan is to start out on Benny and the we will go from there!

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Busby: Benny is $850k +, Tito is $150k +, Derby $370-$400kish

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Busby: Benny - He loves to eat!!!! He loves his cookies & he loves to roll. And he loves to pin his ears and act like he doesn't want you close to him and then will warm up and does like to be loved on and get belly scratches

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Busby: Probably killdeer ND - I think I ended up 3rd but it was Benny and Is first run together in over a year and it was a huge confidence builder which then carried us through the rest of the Fourth of July and that fed the rest of the summer

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Busby: Westcliff, Colorado has turned into a great rodeo! The committee has put so much effort into their rodeo and really jumped up their added money - it's a great one to try and get to.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Busby: Music - AM tends to be worship music, daytime tends to be my playlist which is a vast array - everything from George Strait to hip hop just no rap, late night drives turn into some pretty serious rock and roll - AC/DC sessions!! I enjoy the Joe Rogan podcast or the Money Barrel but i like to do books on tape too.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Busby: Bigs Dill pickle Sunflower seeds or chips and salsa or atmosphere is like, she's focused on the task in front of her. Now you take her out of that work element and she's as quirky as they come. I've never seen a horse who is so sensitive and hates change in her everyday life. She knows where her feed bucket is supposed to be hung and if it's hung anywhere but that spot she refuses to come in her stall to eat.I mean like full on - the world is ending and someone is out to get her. Another funny thing she does is she's obsessed with stretching.everyday 2-3 times a day she will put her front feet out in front of her and stretch completely to the ground.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Phillips: All of Andi's wins this year were so special and important in their own ways, but I think the most important win was Sundre and Wainwright, AB. I can remember sitting in my trailer after getting the win in Wainwright and that was truly the first time I thought I had a real shot at making the NFR. I knew I still had a lot of work to do, but in that moment it clicked for me. I knew I had to do everything in my power as a jockey to take advantage of every opportunity I had until September 30th.

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Phillips: I would say a hidden gem rodeo for me is Salinas, CA. It's a well known rodeo but it's during the very busy week of the big Utah rodeos and Cheyenne so a lot of people don't go. Great payout and the weather is always beautiful! The barrel pattern is setup on a track so it's pretty different and unique from the arenas we run on all summer.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Phillips: I'm a music girl most of the time and the artist depends on the time of day and how long I've went without sleep, LOL! My poor dad has heard it all, but he's a trooper, LOL!

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Phillips: Lifesaver gummies or chips

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Phillips: Nicker Makers treats all day. They are sad if it's anything else!

WPRA Career earnings: $795,404 - NFR Qualifications: 4 (2011-12, 2024, 2024)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Otero: I am taking Sly (Blingolena) and Leroy (Hb Firewater Vanila) my plan is to make one run at a time and stay on Sly for as many runs as he is comfortable with.

Sly (Blingolena) sorrel, 6 years, gelding, 14.3 and very much a goof-ball and Leroy (Hb Firewater Vanila) 5 years old, palomino, 15.2, gelding and easy going

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Otero: I believe Sly should be around $275-300k including incentive races and rodeos.

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Otero: Sly is very human like. He is a big goofball and a bit arrogant. LOL! We love him that way too. He has a very loyal heart and truly loves his family. Sly likes to be in charge and pick on everyone. He nibbles on everyone.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Otero: The most important wins for me were the last three rodeos of the season in Mona, Poway and San Bernardino; they were the critical rodeos. After hitting barrels at a few other good rodeos, I needed to place to stay in the Top 15 and Sly showed up and won all 3.

BRR: What is a hidden gem rodeo that people may not know about?

Otero: I love going to Florida and competing at Okeechobee every year because the weather is great and the people in that area are so nice.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Otero: Music 100% I listen to all types of music and I don't really have a favorite. I listen to Jentezen Franklin sermons a lot as well.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Otero: I am a candy girl and I love gummy bears. I also like to snack on Chex mix and fruit.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Otero: Cookies of any type.

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Morgan: HR Fameskissandtell (Kiss) 10, sorrel mare, 16 hands Bucky Wonder Horse (Bee) 7, buckskin mare? Guessing around 15 hands

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Morgan: Little over $850,000

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things about your horse!

Morgan: She has a sweet puppy dog personality when it's just you and her and you are taking care of her, feeding her, petting her or giving her treats. She has a grouchy dragon personality if you pet her stomach, try to put any kind of blanket on her or another horse gets closer to her than what she thinks they should. She's serious and very intense about her job, but she seems to dearly love doing it!

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2024 rodeo season?

Morgan: Probably the first one was the Semifinals at Puyallup that sent me to the final four, which qualified me for the Governor's Cup at Sioux Falls, followed by qualifying for the four round at Sioux Falls, that rodeo clinched my fifth trip to the NFR this year.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Morgan: Music, Loretta Lynn and George Strait and the good old classic country will always be my favorite.

BRR: What is your favorite road snack?

Morgan: Even though I hate to admit it, I would probably have to say Mike And Ike/Hot Tamales while traveling.

BRR: What is your horse's favorite treat or reward?

Morgan: Paddock cakes with peppermints.

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Morgan: I like both, depending on whether it is hot or cold. The Celsius is probably my favorite.

Rylee Jo Maryman Pockets $35K at Fiddler's Turkey Run

By Tanya Randall

Talented youth rider Rylee Jo Maryman guided four horses to a nearly $35,000 payday at the 22nd Annual Fiddler's Turkey Run, held November 26-30 in the posh World Equestrian Center in Ocala, Florida.

The high school senior from Saint Francisville, Louisiana, won $17,998 aboard Lindsey Netterville's JL Dash Ta Heaven geldings Heaven Help Me Fly (Fly) and Holy Flitin Fireman ("Junior"). She won $16,822 on her two mares One Cupa Tees Sis ("Ruby") and WYO StarlightSpecial.

Maryman's biggest winner was Fly, an 8-year-old gelding out of Gin N Firewater, by Fire Water Flit. He won the $25,000-added Derby for $11,283. Fly placed in the Open, Youth, American Qualifier and Pumpkin Pie Slot race for total earnings of $16,720.

"He's not the horse that you think of to be the fastest on his first run," said Maryman, who is sponsored by Rocket Donkey Apparel and Circle Y Saddles. "He was 2/10ths off of Ruby (who won the first round of the Derby). It was really good for him. He's very good for the average. If you want to go make 10 runs, he's that kind of horse."

"He's very hard to get around the barrels, but he's going to make the same run every time. He's just going to get a little bit faster. I knew going into Saturday if I could get him by the barrels—even if he was a tad slower—he'd be fast enough to win the average."

Maryman also picked up $1,278 on Junior after placing in the 2D of the Pumpkin Pie Slot Race. Her first run on the gelding, out of Flitin Firin Cash, the National Finals Rodeo qualifying daughter of Cash Not Credit and Gin N Firewater, was just her fourth run ever on him.

"Fly is more of your push style and he's a little bit more forgiving," she said. "Junior is forgiving but you've got to ride him right, but you ride more conservatively on him. I haven't really figured him out yet, compared to Fly, where you just let him go as hard as you want."

Maryman, who lives 30 minutes to the south of Netterville's Woodville, Mississippi, home, started riding Fly this summer. They made their debut at the All American Youth where they finished fourth. She started riding Junior later.

"I go up there two to three times a week and I ride them," Maryman explained. "She does most of the exercising with them."

Netterville's been tickled with the arrangement.

"It's been so awesome!" Netterville exclaimed. "I like to do their slow work, and she likes to run them—a perfect combo! She is the hardest working, most responsible kid that I know!"

Maryman's personal big winner was Ruby, her American Contender Tournament East Region Champion. The 8-year-old red roan daughter of One Cupa Cats out of Im W Tees Sis, by Sugar Trix Leo, won the first round of the Derby and set a new arena record, a 15.552, to win the Pumpkin Pie Slot Race for $15,314 with carryovers included.

Acquired as a 2-year-old, Ruby was quite the handful to train and had kissing spine surgery before she turned the corner as a 7-year-old.

Maryman's 10-year-old mare Starlight won $1,508 after placing in the first division of the Open on Thursday and Saturday.

"She wasn't necessarily the easiest," Maryman said of the daughter of Very Special Playgun out of Royals Star, by Royals Diligents, that she's had since she was a yearling. She won the Josey Jr World and All American Youth on the mare earlier this year. "With her from the time she was 5 until she was 8, you were taking the biggest

18 Year Old Blake Molle Wins Maple Leaf Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

She's only 18, but Blake Molle of Shauvin, Alberta, won her first Maple Leaf Circuit Finals in Regina, Saskatchewan and $4,752 on Nov. 27-30.

She and her 14-year-old horse, DHR Oh Mercy Moon ("Mercy"), won the average over four runs by .16 seconds over Lisa Groves, and they blanked the rest of the field by three seconds. Brooke Wills won the year-end circuit championship after winning both of the first two rounds, worth $3,167. Molle placed with every run after Round One, earning $2,376 to add to her identical average check of $2,376.

"I was worried he was petering out," she said of the aging gelding. "But he showed me this weekend he sure wasn't."

Mercy is by the Dash For Perks son Oh Whatta Boy, that was also a maternal grandson of Disco Jerry. And he's out of a daughter of the Tiny's Gay grandson Merganser, out of a Top Moon daughter.

"He loves small, indoor rodeos," said Molle. "Those are his jam. And he loves a crowd."

Blake's mother, Wendy, had purchased the horse through Pete

Oen as a 5-year-old and ran him for a couple of years. Blake stepped on him when he was turning 8. In 2019, they won the big Open race at the CBHI with spectacular runs. Mercy is so honest, she said, that if she pointed him all the way out of the arena, he'd go there.

They also made the Canadian Finals Rodeo in 2023, where Molle won the first round and placed in the average despite fighting a bad illness. The 2025 NFR Open is over the Calgary Stampede, but Molle won't get another invite to Calgary anyway, she said, having not made the 2024 CFR. Missing that this year was very motivating, she said.

"It made me want it ten times more," she said. "This fall I was going to college every day and riding horses until midnight."

Molle, who's learning to be a hair stylist at Lakeland College in Lloydminster, Alberta, said she plans to ride young horses all winter and hit some college rodeos this spring on her backup horse. Checkers has already won the Super Stakes Derby and placed deep at her fall college rodeos. And then, she said, this summer she hopes to "dabble in the summer rodeos in the States."

Conner Slides into Breakaway Roping World Standings Lead by Just $91

With some of the greatest tie-down ropers in ProRodeo history packed inside the South Point Equestrian Center, the ladies of the WPRA were busy putting on a show during the opening day of the Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping presented by Tito's Handmade Vodka.

When the dust settled, six combatants are in position to leave Las Vegas on Wednesday afternoon with rodeo gold, and it all came to a head while calf-roping legends Joe Beaver, Fred Whitfield and Cody Ohl looked on from the red seats. That trio of super stars accounts for 22 world championships, and they watched as the top 15 breakaway ropers set the stage for a championship shootout in the Nevada desert.

"This is really fun," said Josie Conner, who entered the two days of competition second in the world standings but shot past season leader Shelby Boisjoli-Meged with a powerful display Tuesday, placing in three of five rounds and earning $13,679 in the process. "There is a bunch of talented girls, and it's cool to be able to compete with them."

Conner pushed her season earnings to $152,778 but owns just a $91 advantage over reigning world champion Boisjoli-Meged. Here's the kicker: Kelsie Domer is sixth in the world standings, but she's just $11,511 behind Conner. That difference could be made up in two go-rounds as the ladies close out the 2024 campaign.

"I had a pretty good day placing in three out of the five rounds, and I think by the time it comes down to the 10th round, if I keep catching them, I'll be in a good spot in the average," said Conner, who was saddled with a no-time in the third go-round. "I'm excited for tomorrow."

She should be. Seven women caught all five of their calves, so Conner remains in position to catch some money in the aggregate race. Macy Young of Wittman, Arizona, leads the average with a five-run cumulative time of 10.7 seconds; Domer sits second at 12.4.

Newcomer Rylee George of Oakdale, California, is doing everything she can to win the Betty Gayle Cooper Fast Time award. As the second roper Tuesday afternoon, George stopped the clock in 1.8 seconds. Four rounds later, she upped the ante, finishing off her day with a 1.7-second run. She was then matched by Danielle Lowman of Gilbert, Arizona, so the tandem head into the final five rounds as the frontrunner for the honor.

The National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame has partnered with the WPRA in presenting the Betty Gayle Cooper Fast Time award, which honors the late 1987 Cowgirl Honoree and a nine-time world champion that included being crowned the 1989 breakaway champion. Cooper worked as a rodeo director of the WPRA to strengthen the sport, and she coached the men's and women's teams for Southeastern Oklahoma State University to win two national titles. For the first two years, the award was given to the fast time in the first round of the NFR. It's been given to the fastest time of all 10 rounds since 2022. The 2024 winner will receive a set of earrings and a matching scarf slide designed and made by Ryan Liggett of Loreena Rose Jewelry as well as a $1,000 cash award.

"I told Joe B (Beaver) yesterday that I was going to go for all the rounds and have a lot of fun," said George, who won the first round, shared the fifth-round win with Lowman and shared second place in Round 4, earning $17,419 on the opening day. "He said, 'If you're winning a lot of rounds, it's a lot of fun.'"

"I'm having a good time out here."

Part of the fun is riding good horses, something George doesn't take for granted. She has confidence in her mounts, including Deputy, a horse that ProRodeo legend Trevor Brazile rode for many years.

"He loves Vegas," she said of Deputy. "He has all the confidence in the world here, and he gives me that (confidence) also. I knew my last calf fought the chute pretty bad, and he just stands there like a rock in the box, so I decided to get on him."

Lowman had her struggles at times during Tuesday's performance, but she came out with a bang to close out here day.

"After not doing so good in the first rounds, I thought there was no backing off the wall just because I'm out of the average," said Lowman, who had posted a 2.1-second run in the fourth round. "That's what I told Rylee: 'I'm coming for you; either I'm going to tie you or I'm going to beat you,' and she goes, 'OK, you can tie me.'"

"It worked out."

It was a fast-paced ending and the perfect setting for the final day of the season.

Watch all the action live on the Cowboy Channel.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's official. I've had an unusual upbringing. And it's taken me all these years to figure it out. Recently at The Barn, there were a few of us in the kitchen and the subject of "running with scissors" came up. Did you know there is a way you are supposed to hold scissors while moving???

I DID NOT! And was shocked when Miss Megan showed me how! She actually got taught the proper way! Someone loved her enough to tell her the truth! Now, I'm not saying my parents didn't love me. But back then, it was called 'tough love'.

I learned that if I was bleeding from an appendage, that it was "a long way from my heart". I was frequently asked if I had "learned anything" when I had been in a horse wreck. "Now get back on!" I was taught not to fear man or beast, and it started with roosters! I guess it taught me to be tough.

I wish someone early on had loved me enough to teach me the Bible. Oh, the trouble I could have avoided! Unfortunately, we hesitate to tell people the truth about things. After all, they could be offended.

A lot of Christian people want to do things their own way, and then ask "Why did God let that happen to me?" He didn't. You picked.

Jesus came to be our savior. He came so we wouldn't have to learn from our mistakes. And He put it all down in the Bible, so we could avoid disaster at every turn. Read your Bible. Go to church and listen to the Word preached! But more, much more, do what the Bible says.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
