2017 WNFR Preview & Top 5 Interviews

It is about that time...the dirt is hauled in the Thomas & Mack; all the barrel racers are in Vegas getting a feel for the ground at a practice session as this is written. It is now time for the ultimate test which will decide our World Champion Barrel Racer this year; the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (WNFR)!

This year of barrel racing was definitely one for the record books. Tiany Schuster, the #1 ranked cowgirl, set a regular season earnings record, winning $250,378 before she even gets to Vegas! She pulverized the previous record of $190,977 set by Mary Burger just last year by close to $60k. Just to make the WNFR this year it took $76,294, which was just a little less than the record $79,068 it took in 2016 to qualify to the WNFR. For some perspective, as recently as 2012 Christy Loflin (now Hefley) qualified 15th with $54,851. The reality of barrel racing now is it will take close to a whopping $80k to just make the Finals and close to $90k to be safe.

That reality has changed the way most barrel racers rodeo. In the past, most WNFR qualifiers had one top horse they earned most of their way to the Finals on and then had a backup horse if the ground conditions were bad or they drew bad etc. This year as we go through the preview, you will see there are still some one horse barrel racers but more and more of the top barrel racers have 2-3 horses that are all A-Team type horses. What does this mean for the WNFR? In past years, if a person's horse didn't like the Thomas & Mack setup it would be a tough week for them, but now most of them can just simply switch horses and keep rolling. That should also lead to some very tough rounds and the times will most likely be fast and close together. In fact, last year we saw this happen in several rounds (Rounds 2, 3, 10) where there was only around a tenth of a second split between first and sixth (the lowest check).

This year also features only 2 barrel racers, Brittany Pozzi-

2017 WNFR CONTESTANTS

1 Tiany Schuster	$250,377 93
2 Stevi Hillman	$185,952 96
3 Nellie Miller	$130,536 47
4 Amberleigh Moore	$120,806 50
5 Kassie Mowry	$115,162 25
6 Kathy Grimes	$111,785 45
7 Hailey Kinsel	$98,706 68
8 Taci Bettis (R)	$97,023 70
9 Lisa Lockhart	$96,454 59
10 Brittany Tonozzi	$92,929 95
11 Sydni Blanchard	$91,361 74
12 Tillar Murray	$86,019 89
13 Kellie Collier	$83,337 99
14 Ivy Conrado	$78,180 86
15 Kimmie Wall	$76,294 63

Tonozzi and Lisa Lockhart, that have more than 3 WNFR qualifications. So 13 of the 15 have been to the WNFR 3 times or less, with 6 making their first appearance. On top of that many of the people have different horses than they qualified on previously, so it will be a really interesting year where about anyone could be become the talk of the town the next 10 days!

#1 cowgirl Tiany Schuster comes into the WNFR after a record setting year where she started out the year last October after the WPRA Finals in #1. She never let go of that position and just kept winning to the tune of a quarter of a million dollars. (As a side note isn't that cool that a barrel racer can now win a quarter of a million BEFORE the WNFR?) She goes into the WNFR with a $65k lead over #2 Stevi Hillman and a $120k lead over #3 Nellie Miller. She also comes into the WNFR with a trailer full of amazing horses. Her top two horses, Show Mance and JSYK Im Famous, she could have made the WNFR on either horse alone, so both these horses have proven they are amazing in different setups and conditions. Show Mance was her mount to win Calgary and was the big winner for most of her big summer run (he also ended up 3rd in the Horse of the Year voting), but JSYK Im Famous won a bunch last fall and throughout the winter.

She didn't indicate which horse was getting the call for Round 1, but the best guess would be Show Mance. As amazing as JSYK Im Famous is, Show Mance, in his first year of rodeo competition, has shown the grit and determination that all world champion horses do. Throughout the year, he would just get better every time he ran and adjusted quickly to conditions. Through the rounds at Calgary

(where Schuster won the $100k) you saw that, and the RNCFR he did it as well; which would indicate the 10 rounds in a row in one location should suit him great.

In 2016, 8 people won over $65k so Schuster does need to win at the Finals to secure her World Championship, but throughout the year she has placed in about 2/3 of the rodeos she runs in (62 of 95) and if she places 2/3 of the time at the Finals, she should continue to "place" her way to a world title.

In #2, Stevi Hillman qualified to her 2nd WNFR in a row and is the most likely to give Schuster a realistic run for the world title. Like Schuster, she comes to the WNFR with a trailer load of talented horses and both of her top horses, Cuatro Fame and MCM Imasharpguy, could have been Finals qualifiers on their own. Hillman rode Cuatro Fame to all her WNFR earnings of $51,885 last year and also rode him primarily for the early part of the 2017 rodeo season, putting Hillman in 5th position by the end of May.

Then over the summer, she jumped on MCM Imasharpguy and they went on a tear. MCM Imasharpguy set and scared arena records and won big checks as Stevi slowly climbed to #2 in the world and kept winning along to keep the pressure on Schuster. Hillman has indicated she will run both horses at the Finals. Cuatro Fame ran some fast times last year including a 13.59 in Round 9 to place 3rd and has run well all year and now both him and Hillman have more experience with the Thomas & Mack and should do even better than last year. MCM Imasharpguy is coming to the WNFR after setting an arena record at Northside (in Ft. Worth) on a very similar setup to the WNFR. If this horse likes the Thomas & Mack, the 13.37 arena record may be in trouble. Even though Sharpie is just a 5 year old, his mother, Mulberry Canyon Moon, won 3 rounds at the WNFR back in her day and he just doesn't seem to be phased by anything up to this point.

The #3 barrel racer, Nellie Miller, did pretty much all of her winning on one horse, Rafter W Minnie Reba (Sister). Sister happens to be out of the same dam as Rebas Smokey Joe, who she made the WNFR with in 2010 and he happened to be the other horse she won a check on this year at 22 years young! Sister was the 2017 AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year and was raised by her Dad. Sister has just won all year long and has adapted to every setup. She did very well through the rounds at Calgary, ending up the Reserve Champion there indicating Sister will do very well running in the same conditions for 10 nights straight. This team won all their money in just 47 rodeos. Sister & Miller recently won an NFR setup barrel race in their area and look to be in great shape to make a big splash at the WNFR.

Coming into the WNFR in the #4 position, is the star of the 2016 WNFR, Amberleigh Moore. Cp Dark Moon (Paige) and Moore came into the 2016 WNFR in 15th place and were a barely tipped 3rd barrel in Round 7 away from winning the World Title. They set the WNFR earnings record at $187,692 and also tied the arena record of 13.37 (Round 8) on the way to their Reserve World Title. Paige and Moore went into 2017 season hot off their record NFR and didn't look back. With only 52 rodeos this team earned $120,806 on the season and come into this year's WNFR in top form. If Moore and Paige get on another roll this year, they will give Schuster a run for her money for the world title race. They may also look to lower the arena record a bit as well!

In #5, Kassie Mowry, the futurity barrel horse trainer from Dublin, TX, turned an invite to Rodeo Houston into her 2nd WNFR qualification. After her 2005 WNFR qualification, she has mainly stayed home and been a top ranked barrel futurity trainer year in and year out until her and Firewatermakemehappy (Junior) sprinted to a Rodeo Houston win in March of this year. With only 25 rodeos under her belt this year, Mowry made a whopping $115,163 (that's over $4,606 per rodeo by the way) and is within striking distance of Schuster. Mowry & Junior thrive in indoor setups and are very consistent. Last fall, Mowry & Junior won all 3 rounds and the average of the ERA World Finals on a NFR type setup and just a couple weeks ago they won both Main Races at the Elite Barrel Race in Waco, TX. Mowry is a great competitor and so is Junior so they will be a team to watch and could be one of the teams in the thick of the average race after 10 rounds.

#6 cowgirl, Kathy Grimes qualified to her 1st WNFR on her two homebreds, Kg Justiceweexpected (Issy) and Kg Blazin Nine Oh (Ruby). With only 45 rodeos under her belt she comes into the WNFR in the #6 position with $111,785. She has won throughout the year on both horses. She is another cowgirl with two horses that could each make the WNFR on their own. It will be interesting to see which horse she decides to ride as we go through the 10 rounds. Issy is a very fast horse that loves indoor pens and Ruby is very consistent and has won in lots of different setups. Although this is Grimes first time at the WNFR, her "real" job is a veterinarian so the high stress/low sleep environment shouldn't bother her one bit! It will be exciting to watch her and her two horses as they get used to the Thomas & Mack and see what they are capable of.

When you talk about a dream season of barrel racing, you have to think of Hailey Kinsel's 2017. Coming into the WNFR #7 in the World with $98,707 is a great year in itself, but her and DM Sissy Hayday (Sister) also won $433,000 for winning The American earlier in the year. So this team has won over $500-550k just this year along with being the 2017 National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association Barrel Racing Champion. This team has done exceptionally well in setups where they get more than one run and Sister seems to actually get faster with more runs. She also recently won an NFR setup barrel race and this team should be ready rock n roll in the Thomas & Mack.

In #8 is the 2017 WPRA Barrel Racing Rookie of the Year, Taci Bettis. Bettis and Bogie Is A Smash (Smash) came into the 2017 season just wanting to make their circuit finals but as soon as they hit the rodeo trail over the summer there was no looking back. They claimed check after check over the summer and continued to climb the standings until she knew she was safe to go back home and wait for the WNFR. Bettis may be a rookie, but her mentor, Tammy Fischer, has been there and done that, and has a bunch of buckles to show for it! With Fischer helping she will be ready for everything that comes her way at the WNFR. This team has won throughout the year on 12 second patterns to 17 second patterns under all kinds of different conditions and should do very well in Vegas. This team has been together for several years and that trust for each other should lead to a great shot at average money at the end of 10 rounds.

In a year with lots of new people and new horses, Lisa Lockhart and Mr. Consistent (An Oakie With Cash aka Louie) make their 8th appearance at the WNFR together in a row and this is Lockhart's 11th straight WNFR. According to our math, Lockhart and Louie, have earned around $810k at the WNFR alone in the last 7 years and Louie is now over $2 million in lifetime earnings. At the 2016 WNFR, at the age of 13, Louie & Lockhart won the average while setting a WNFR average record of 137.98 and also won $151,731. After some time off to recover from an injury after the WNFR, Louie returned to the arena over the summer and within just a few weeks Lockhart was in position for another WNFR qualification. Lockhart rode her other buckskin, Rosas Cantina CC, through the winter and spring to keep herself in position (if you see Lisa and a buckskin go left first, it's Rosa!). Louie & Lockhart are one of the top teams in the history of barrel racing; so it would be nice for them to get a world title together and be forever remembered in the history books as they should be. They have over $150k just to catch Tiany, but it could happen and you can never bet against Lockhart & Louie! This will be the team to beat in the average!

In #10 is another WNFR veteran Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi. After qualifying 10 times to the WNFR between 2003-2013, Tonozzi stayed home a few years running futurity colts and now she qualifies back to her 11th WNFR with horses she trained and futuriated, Steele Magnolias along with Kisskiss Bangbang were her main mounts through the year. She used a $20k win over the 4th of July to boost herself up in the standings and never looked back. Pozzi will most likely start out her WNFR on Steele Magnolias (Steeley). Steeley placed in a couple rounds of WNFR last year with Jana Bean so should really take to the setup there. Tonozzi is one of the greatest rodeo competitors of our time and knows every little nook and cranny of the Thomas & Mack. Along with Steeley, she also has the very talented, Freckles Ta Fame, in Vegas with her and he loves those indoor rodeo setups and has won at rodeos for Ashley Schafer and Shali Lord. With her group of horse and her experience, Tonozzi should have a big week.

In #11, Sydni Blanchard makes her 3rd trip to the WNFR. She previously qualified in 2010 and 2013 and now comes into the WNFR this year on her great Dash Ta Fame mare, Famous Heartbreaker. Famous Heartbreaker has been consistent all year and winning checks at a variety of setups. In fact, this pair ran the fastest time at Rodeo Houston this year, a 13.95. She also takes Mr Famous Jess (Jesse) who has spelled Famous Heartbreaker throughout the year and is also very talented. With Sydni's experience at the WNFR and other pressure packed situations and Heart's royal breeding and talent, they should take to the Thomas & Mack. This will be a fun pair to watch and if they get on a roll, look out!

In #12 is another NFR rookie, Tillar Murray. She is another one with a group of A-Team talent, Dirty Dan Stinson (Dirty Dan), Royal Star Commander (Commander), and Lil Gracie Dude (Tic Tac). All these horses are top level Prorodeo winners and Murray will be able to feel out which horse takes to the environment at the Thomas & Mack the best. Murray also enjoys help with her horses from barrel racing veteran, Martha Wright, that is sure to be an advantage as she prepares for the rigors of Vegas. Like several others in the field, this will be the first time most people get to see Murray on this big stage and it will be fun to see how her horses adapt. She has been consistent all year and that should continue through the WNFR.

In #13 Kellie Collier, has a dynamic pair of mounts for the WNFR. Her main horse is Streakin Easy April (Lolo), who has previously ran at the 2014 NFR with Carlee Pierce placing in 5 rounds and winning $63,749. Lolo is very fast and powerful and fits the Thomas & Mack very well so Collier and her should be getting checks all week long. Collier's other main mount, Jig French Truckle, may not be as familiar to everyone, but this horse has been winning for years in Canada and Collier left this mare up in Canada this summer and had great success, qualifying for the Canadian Finals Rodeo too. The experience of the CFR should help Collier be ready for a big week at the WNFR!

In #14 is second year WNFR competitor Ivy Conrado. She brings 3 top notch horses to this years WNFR, 2016 AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year, Cfour Tibbie Stinson, KN Fabs Gift Of Fame and Fames To Blame. All 3 of these mares have won rodeos throughout the year and deserve to run at the Thomas & Mack. Each could possibly be a big winner at the Finals for Conrado. She is gelling with the three mares and they are all improving and thriving going into the WNFR. At the 2016 WNFR she won $50k and gained valuable experience to be able to attack the pattern this year. It will be fun to see which mares she runs and which ones take to the Thomas & Mack! If you are playing any of the fantasy rodeo games, she is a great value! Look for her to place throughout the week and improve her position in the world standings.

Finally, in #15 is a real bargain if you are a fantasy rodeo player! Kimmie Wall comes into the WNFR in the 15th position after a hot fall run moving her back up the standings after a liver infection in the middle of the summer run sent them home. TKW Bullsfamous Fox (Foxy) & Wall stayed home, got healthy and then made a late season charge to head back to their 2nd WNFR in a row! Foxy was looking as good as she ever has through the fall and now they head back to Vegas after winning $134,808 last year. Foxy & Wall ran fast times all through the 2016 WNFR and had a couple bad breaks to win even more through the week. So with Foxy feeling great and using their experience from last year, this could be a team that tries to repeat Amberleigh Moore's 15th to 2nd move last year!

Well there you have it, a short preview of the Top 15 barrel racers for 2017! According to the WPRA standings, there were 747 money earners at Prorodeos this year, so these 15 are truly exceptional. With the $65k lead that Schuster carries into the WNFR, the race for the world title might be over by Round 5 if she gets on a roll, but this year there are a big group of young, talented horses to contend with. After these 10 rounds in Vegas, we are going to know the next generation of stars in the barrel racing world. If one of those stars has everything fall their way, this could be the year a barrel racer earns $200k at the WNFR??

If you compete and run yourself you know how tough it is to be one of the horses or riders at the WNFR. Everyone competing there is an amazing talent and it has been fun to watch throughout the year!

Make sure you all get CBS Sports Network on your TV package or tune into to ProRodeoLive on Rural Radio Sirius XM Channel 147. There is more viewing information in the rest of the Barrel Racing Report this week.

We say this every year but it is so true again this year: On a personal note, the Barrel Racing Report would like to congratulate each and every barrel racer in the Top 15. To make it to the NFR this year, you had to outrun the most talented horses to ever grace the barrel racing world. We would also like to thank each of you for taking the time out of your busy schedules to get back to us for stories, horse information, and whatever else we needed from you. As a fan reading this at home, you should know that at this year's NFR you are represented by a group of wonderful people who happen to also be very talented barrel racers. I wish everyone had the chance to get to talk to these fine women because they truly are all very special people.

the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the Champion who initiates and perfects our faith.' Hebrews 12:1-2
Quote: 'Be relentless in Pursuit of what sets your soul on fire'

BRR: If your horse was a famous celebrity, which one would it be?

Hillman: Oh gosh, Truck would be like Mark Wahlberg, Mr Tough Guy, overly confident but can be a dork too, and he knows he's handsome and needs hugs, they just have to be his idea. Sharpie would be more like Robert De Niro, more cocky and sure of himself, can be such a jerk and smile while doing it, doesn't really want to be tougged on but I do it anyway!

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule with your rodeo horse leading up to a big rodeo?

Hillman: I try not to change anything with my normal rodeo routine. I keep them legged up by lots of long trotting, and normal exercising, but with a small pattern, I have tried to train for quickness, and short distance and not so much endurance. They usually get a day off during the week.

BRR: What quality or qualities does your horse posses that makes him/her an NFR horse that is different than other horses you have had or trained?

Hillman: They both are challenging, but I am fully confident that both my boys can do really well in Vegas. Sharpie is super quick footed so I think he could do amazing things at the T&M (Thomas & Mack), and Truck has been there and did great. Looking forward to giving them both a shot at it, they earned that.

Miller: I am taking Rafter W Minnie Reba ( Sister), 9yrs Blue Roan 14.1. Owned by my dad Sam Williams. Famous Scarlett (Jewel) Sorrel owned by Jim Haslip and I'm also taking Reba's Smokey Joe (Blue Duck) 22 year old Blue Roan also owned by Sam Williams.

BRR: What are your horse(s) approximate lifetime earnings?

Miller: Sister's lifetime earnings are around $200,000

BRR: What two bits do you have that you can't live without?

Miller: I'm not one to switch bits around very much so I literally rodeoed with two bridles in my trailer the whole year. I have the bit I run in which is a Sheri Cervi with a twisted wire mouthpiece. And I have a bridle that I ride her around in I'm not even sure what brand it is but it has a small ported mouthpiece and every horse I ride in it loves it.

BRR: If you could have one quote or Bible verse on your trailer as you went down the road to share with people, what would it be?

Miller: It's not really a quote but I have this in my bathroom and I look at it every day as a reminder about what's important don't think it would fit on my trailer though.

"Live beneath your means. Return everything you borrow. Stop blaming other people. Admit it when you make a mistake. Give clothes not worn to charity. Do something nice and try not to get caught. Listen more; Talk less. Every day take a 30-minute walk. Strive for excellence not perfection. Be kind to unkind people. Let someone cut ahead of you in line. Take time to be alone. Cultivate good manners. Be humble. Realize and accept that life isn't fair. Know when to keep your mouth shut. Go an entire day without criticizing anyone. Learn from the past. Plan for the future. Live in the present. Don't sweat the small stuff. It's all small stuff."

BRR: If your horse was a famous celebrity, which one would it be?

Miller: I guess I would say Reba McEntire because that is who we named her mother after and we put Reba in her name as well. They both have a flashy hair color and they both have a lot of confidence when they take the stage.

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule with your rodeo horse leading up to a big rodeo?

Miller: Getting ready for the NFR is challenging because there is a big break for us between the end of the season and the finals. I am riding my horse almost every day and plan on running her at a few jackpots to keep her in running shape. I mostly just try to keep her exercised, she doesn't require a lot of drills or hard work so right now we are just keeping her fresh and feeling good.

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule with your rodeo horse leading up to a big rodeo?

Mowry: I don't really do things much different than normal. He is a very sensitive horse and I don't want to have him on high alert for no reason. Him working calmly really goes a long way for us in competition, so I do more suppling exercises at a slower pace and make sure he is being very responsive with a light feel.

BRR: What quality or qualities does your horse possess that makes him/her an NFR horse that is different than other horses you have had or trained?

Mowry: My horse is pretty passive so that enables me to set him up differently depending on the circumstances. A lot of finished horses are not as adaptable as he has been so far. He also seems to run freely up into the turns which I believe helps us in small setups. He has also been remarkably sound. Knock on wood!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I heard a long time ago, that people will be able to tell what you are full of by what comes out of your mouth when you are under pressure. And the Bible tells us in Matthew 12:34 that out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. Yikes! Say it isn't so Lord! Okay then! Let's start listening to what we say, and that will help us gauge what's in us. Am I confident of the Lord and His provision? Am I scared? Do I act like the world acts or am a seasoned with the goodness of God? Am I acting all spiritual then fall totally apart when something happens? Check yourself.

I had to check myself Sunday morning when my 91 year old Dad went home to be with Jesus. He was so ready. I was not. I thank God for the peace He gave me and the hope. I know that "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." But it still hurt. Those around me were saying that God needed another angel. No He doesn't. That God took Dad. No He didn't. God RECEIVED my Dad because my Dad had asked Him to be Lord and when Dad's body was no longer fit to live in and it gave up, Dad got to shift his weight and go right on. I comfort myself with that.

We need to remind ourselves of the goodness of God in the hurting times. He never leaves us or forsakes us. Isn't that wonderful?
