Every year we have a lot of fun catching up with the Top 15 to get a little more info from each of them. We send a few questions along with our Rundown to the Top 15. If you enjoy learning all about the top cowgirls in barrel racing; what equipment they use, their favorite restaurants, what their horses personalities are like and more, this issue is for you, Enjoy!

Also, Thank you to the WPRA for providing a lot of great information in their Media Guide. And for some more about this years Top 15 check out the little extra tidbits in our NFR Preview at the end of the NFR Interviews!

#1 Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, $270,563

Age: 39 - Hometown: Lampasas, TX - Joined WPRA: 2003

Career earnings: $3,122,225 - NFR Qualifications: 17 (2003, 2005-13, 2017-23)

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Tonozzi: Jets Top Gun (Benny) 8 yr old sorrel gelding, 16.1 hands — Benny has such a fun style and has been my main mount this year winning a lot over the summer. (owned by Jeff and Andrea Busby)

Babe On The Chase (Birdie) 12 yr old sorrel mare, 15.3 hands — Birdie loves the Thomas and Mack and won a bunch of money in the buildings for me. (owned by Teton Ridge)

SR Industry Titan (Titan) 10 yr old sorrel stallion, 15.0 hands — Titan really helped me finish off the year with the record (regular season earnings record) and I am excited to get to ride him. (owned by 70 Ranch)

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Tonozzi: Jets Top Gun: $584,994 (per QData)

Babe on the Chase $536,597 (per QData)

SR Industry Titan $315,864 (per QData)

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things the main horse you plan to run does.

Tonozzi: Benny is full of personality he will pin his ears at you and make you think he is going to eat your lunch and then you pet him and he melts like a puppy dog. Titan is so sweet and is not study at all, he has been great to haul even with a trailer full of mares. Birdie is rock solid she doesn't act like a mare and you hardly know she's there. She is so easy to be around and enjoys being pampered.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?

Tonozzi: I would say Calgary because it launched me to number one in the standings. This season has been a dream come true.

BRR: What are 3 things that you must have when you travel to rodeos?

Tonozzi: Coffee, my bridles, and my Pozzi Pro Saddle

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Tonozzi: I should probably listen to more podcasts but I don't so its music and Netflix for me. I like all kinds of music right now but I am hung up on Adele and Cody Johnson radio on Spotify right now.

BRR: When you are on the rodeo road, do you have a favorite restaurant that is a must to get to?

BRR: What is the best gas station chain to stop at on the road?

Tonozzi: When I am out west I love the Maveriks. They have fuel pumps that are easy to get into and the stores are always clean and if you go to one that serves food they have the best nachos.

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Tonozzi: Both - Monster and Starbucks

Beisel: Chongo: $815k

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things the main horse you plan to run does.

Beisel: He doesn't roll over very often, he sits like a dog and walks his front feet around to get to the other side. He's exceptionally talented at untying himself.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?

Beisel: I think the most important win this year was probably the Ponoka Stampede, even though Sioux Falls on Liza was the biggest win for us. Ponoka came at a crucial time when I wasn't in the Top 15 and really needed to get some money on the board to stay focused and driven the rest of the summer.

BRR: What are 3 things that you must have when you travel to rodeos?

Beisel: A spare spare tire, an impact wrench, and my dog Zara.

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Beisel: I listen to all types of music depending on my mood or the time of day I'm driving. All night drives definitely have its own playlist! I love The Gauge Podcast as well as The Money Barrel.

BRR: When you are on the rodeo road, do you have a favorite restaurant that is a must to get to?

Beisel: When in Canada, The Keg!

BRR: What is the best gas station chain to stop at on the road?

Beisel: Buc-ee's! It's self-explanatory once you've been!

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Beisel: I love a good Carmel Latte but sometimes the Zero Sugar White Monsters are necessary for long drives.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?

Mowry: San Antonio was important for us. We came back through the wildcard round from the bottom of the ground and won the Finals. It gave me enough of a head start in earnings to consider making the NFR.

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Championofthehouse (Champ) 12 yr old, blazed face Sorrel Gelding, 15 hh (owned by Slash Z Quarter Horses)

I plan to start out on Thriller and then run Champ when I am higher in the draw order.

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?

Riley: Thriller - he came from Canada so I am not exactly sure, He won about 40k with me this year at the rodeos

Champ - 82k LTE

Money - 140k LTE

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things the main horse you plan to run does.

Riley: Thriller is like a big dog 95% of the time until the second you step on his back. He hops like a rabbit the whole time I am trying to exercise or warm up. I usually pony him because I get a little tired of it haha!!

He loves to be scratched. If you are standing next to him he'll keep bumping into you until you give him his scratches.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?

Riley: Thriller won about 12k at the NFR Open in the middle of July. That was a very important week for me because I feel like it put me in a good position for the last two months of the year.

BRR: What are 3 things that you must have when you travel to rodeos?

Riley: Dr. Pepper, cordless impact wrench for tire changing, GPS!

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Riley: Music. I love all music genres!

BRR: When you are on the rodeo road, do you have a favorite restaurant that is a must to get to?

Riley: Me and my parents ate at a little Mexican food restaurant in Salt Lake City that was really close to the arena, it was called the Red Iguana. I am a Mexican food connoisseur and that was arguably the best I had ever had! I also love Culver's for fast food.

BRR: What is the best gas station chain to stop at on the road?

Riley: The Maverik! They usually have decently priced diesel and food made to order at the kitchen!

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Riley: Soda over both of those for caffeineation. If I'm really struggling I will drink a Celsius though.

BRR: What are your main horse(s) Lifetime Earnings approximately?
Winn: Scoop: $250k approximately King: $135k approximately

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things the main horse you plan to run does.
Winn: Scoop: loves his horse friends. Especially his mini pony Stormy. Does not like to walk over rubber mats or garden hoses. Also, he moves so funny when he is playing around in the pasture - like a really bad dancer ... or almost like he's hoping.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?
Winn: Langley was my most important win. It was a beautiful drive and a very long drive. We had to run in the rain. Scoop went from Ellensburg, WA pen to a very small pen. Lots of variables that made this a pivotal and special week for me.

BRR: What are 3 things that you must have when you travel to rodeos?
Winn: Pillow, Double Stuff Oreos, AirPods

BRR: Music or podcasts?
Winn: Music and Netflix for sure.

BRR: When you are on the rodeo road, do you have a favorite restaurant that is a must to get to?
Winn: I love Red Lobster and Olive Garden. Those are my go-to on the road. My parents are so sick of it... so now we only get to go on special occasions.

BRR: What is the best gas station chain to stop at on the road?
Winn: Whatever is closest to a Sonic! Usually Loves. I also really like Bucce's but those are primarily in Texas.

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?
Winn: I'm definitely the Dr. Pepper Queen!

I have to mention that what Centerfold (Dashes Centerfold) did for me this year was what dreams are made of and words can't express my gratitude for her. Heff is her son and has contributed as well this year in getting me to the Finals and I was really hoping that I could run them both at the Finals but unfortunately Center-

Thank you for making silver horse care part of your program!

fold won't be able to be there & Heff will just have to pick up the ball for his Momma this year at the Finals as he has done at the end of the rodeo season. (Centerfold had an untimely and unfortunate mishap the end of Aug that has her sidelined but she will be back!) (Smith won most of her 2023 WPRA earnings on Dashes Centerfold)

BRR: Tell us about a few of the funny things the main horse you plan to run does.

Smith: He's like having a pet for a barrel horse. He's like dog, he's really smart. Just the other day at a barrel race, a friend came up to give me a hug while I was sitting on him and he thought she came to hug him so he reached his head around and hugged her. He's just like that, he thinks everything is about him. He loves life on the road, loves his shavings and eating on the road.

BRR: What was your most important win of the 2023 rodeo season?

Smith: This year I didn't really set out to make the NFR but just kind of accidentally ended up in that position. So towards the end of the year when I was slipping in the standings towards the end of the year (the second to last weekend) I went to California and just walked up hoping there would be draw outs. Heff ended up winning Poway and placing at San Bernadino and that was probably the biggest win of the year for us. Also, when he placed in the first round at Sioux Falls and showed he could run with those horses, that was really big for our confidence too.

Winning Cheyenne was also a huge unexpected victory for me!!!! After Summer went out before me and set an arena record... I thought to myself, well someone's going to win 2nd - turns out Centerfold had a more positive outlook!

BRR: What are 3 things that you must have when you travel to rodeos?

Smith: Husband (because he drives, LOL), bridles, coffee in the morning!

BRR: Music or podcasts?

Smith: I listened to audiobooks and I like music too. I like all kinds of music. I love the audiobooks that have some history in them; true stories or inspirational stuff in it. The audiobooks with history in them are more interesting to me.

BRR: When you are on the rodeo road, do you have a favorite restaurant that is a must to get to?

Smith: Rib & Chophouse in Montana. I like to eat! Hard to drive by a Starbucks too!

BRR: What is the best gas station chain to stop at on the road?

Smith: We go to Maverik every chance we get. When we are in Maverik country; we go to Maverik. The fuel is not as expensive and if you have their card you can get it for a little bit less.

BRR: Coffee or energy drink?

Smith: Coffee. Carmel Macchiatto w/ whip cream at Starbucks.

Daily/Weekly riding program: Try to be conservative on the runs but I am running him. This week I got off my colts, didn't want to run him in training mode. I ride him daily and go trot out in the desert when I can to get him out so he can stretch out and move. Trying to get him fit but not tired. I don't work him on the pattern a lot but if I do it's real slow. Making him place his feet and be correct. I don't want to overdo the tuning and get him thinking about me too much; I prefer him in a run to be a controlled runaway. He needs to know his job and go do it and not be paying too much attention to me. Training mode is over; running mode is on!

2023 NFR Preview

Wow... What a year for barrel racing 2023 has been! It's been a wild year of big checks and awesome barrel horses. Now it's time to spend 10 nights in Vegas running down the alley of the Thomas & Mack to decide the 2023 World Champion Barrel Racer! Make sure you have the Cowboy Channel on your cable package or get the Cowboy Channel app because it is going to be must see TV.

Every year we like to do a quick little preview of the important information and a bit about each of the Top 15 vying for the world title before the action kicks off on Thursday night at 5:45 pm PST/8:45 pm EST.

With a red hot summer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi pushed her regular season earnings to $270,563 and set the record for earnings prior to the NFR (previous record, $250,378 Tiany Schuster in 2017). It also took a record $102,968 for Paige Jones to capture the #15 spot and qualify to the NFR. It was the first time it took over $100k to qualify for the NFR! This was an ultra tough year of rodeos with a good share of rodeos having only a tenth to 2 tenths separating the top 12 barrel racers. It was a joy to watch such amazing barrel horses battle all year long.

This year there are 4 first time NFR qualifiers; Paige Jones, Summer Kosel, Taycie Matthews and Ilyssa Riley. On the other end experience wise, both Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Lisa Lockhart qualified for their 17th NFR. They follow only Charmayne James & Sherry Cervi in the record books who both qualified to the NFR 19 times and hold the record for NFR Qualifications. Amazingly, Lisa Lockhart has qualified to 17 straight NFRs from 2007-2023. Charmayne James qualified to her 19 NFRs consecutively also from 1984-2002. There is an interesting mix of riders and horses for this 2023 NFR.

Going into the 2023 NFR Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi holds close to a $110k lead over Jordon Briggs who is #2. If Tonozzi continues on the hot streak she has been on throughout 2023 she may just roll to her 3rd World Title by next Saturday night. However; this year boasts yet another jump in the prize money; each round win pays $30,706.41 and the average pays a whopping $78,747.07. With that kind of prize money up through ten rounds anyone who gets on a roll could quickly close the gap and catch Tonozzi. In 2022, Briggs carried a $50k lead into the NFR, but a hot Dm Sissy Hayday & Hailey Kinsel closed the gap as the rounds passed and caught Briggs and moved ahead at the end to capture their 4th World Title which shows no lead is safe with the money available in Vegas!

Here is a little about each barrel racer:

#1 Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi — $270,563

Tonozzi has had a dream year in 2023. After a Reno win on Jets Top Gun, Tonozzi was just on a tear all summer long winning 8 major rodeo titles (or more depending on how you define major!). Among these major rodeo titles was Calgary which vaulted her into #1 spot in the World and she never looked back cruising to her 17th NFR and the regular season earnings record. At the same time Tonozzi was dominating in the futurity world as well. After her BFA Futurity win, in our BRR article Tanya Randall estimated Tonozzi had earned close to $1.3 million this year already prior to the NFR. In the futurity world she won the Royal Crown, and also ran 1-2 at the Pink Buckle and the BFA. For the NFR, Tonozzi is taking Jets Top Gun, Babe On The Chase and SR Industry Titan. All 3 of these horses are winners at the highest level in lots of different setups. Babe On The Chase won Round 6 at the 2022 NFR. Jets Top Gun racked up most her earnings over the summer so we expect her to start out on him; he just gets better with more runs in the same place so the NFR should fit him very well. Both Babe On The Chase & Sr Industry Titan are ready to roll there too. With 2 time World Champ Tonozzi and her team all very proven and ready to win, they will be tough to catch!!

#2 Jordon Briggs — $160,824

Briggs qualified to her 4th NFR in 2023. When Famous Lil Jet (Rollo) came along Briggs knew it was time to hit the rodeo trail again leading her to a World Title in 2021 in their first full year on the road together. In 2022, Briggs came into the NFR with the lead and even though they had a solid NFR they fell to #2 behind Hailey Kinsel. Rollo and Briggs only went to 30 rodeos over the course of 2023, and that is a similar pattern to what they did in 2021 & 2022, so Rollo should be fresh and ready to have a dominant NFR. This team is always tough in the rounds and always a huge factor in the NFR Average race. Rollo usually starts off quick, placing in the 1st Round in both 2021 & 2022. If Rollo & Briggs get off to a quick start again they can push Tonozzi to make this a very interesting 10 days! As a sidenote, Rollo crossed over the $1 million earnings mark this year and is the leading money earner for the All Time leading barrel sire, Dash Ta Fame!

#3 Emily Beisel — $158,752

Beisel is now an NFR veteran, qualifying for their 5th straight NFR. She was the high money earner over the 4th of July and ended the year with a $43,750 victory at the Governor's Cup on her young horse, Ivory On Fire. Over the past 4 years, she has won 7 rounds at the NFR and is always in contention through the 10 rounds. She plans to start out on her grey veteran horse, Namgis D 33 (Chongo). He has ran as fast as any horse over the last several years at the NFR. No one can head to South Point for the buckle ceremony until he runs. This year her young project, Ivory On Fire, has shown she is also among the fastest horses on the road and won her Governor's Cup victory in a very similar setup to the NFR; so if Beisel decides to give her a chance at some point to rest Chongo she may be a force to be reckoned with as well. Just like Briggs, if Beisel and her team get off to a fast start, things are going to get interesting!!

#4 Taycie Matthews — $144,161

Matthews heads into her 1st NFR high up in the standings. Her main mount for the 2023 rodeo season and 2023 WPRA Horse of the Year, Fame Fire Rocks, is out with injury still so she is turning to her family's super star stallion, Heavenly Firewater and his daughter Stoli My Firewater for her NFR mounts. Although Matthews hasn't been to the NFR before she won the College National Finals Rodeo on a similar sized 13 second pattern this past summer. Heavenly Firewater has won at every level from futurities to rodeos on every sized pattern and setup as well. His colts are already showing the same grit he has so Stoli My Firewater should make her sire proud. Matthews says she is splitting time on her two mounts. It will be fun to watch this crew get after it and see what they do! They could be dangerous in the rounds & average!

#5 Lisa Lockhart — $134,592

After a wild last weekend of the 2022 rodeo season to qualify for the 2022 NFR, Lockhart used a strong summer run to allow her to pick and choose her rodeos at the end of the year in 2023. She comes into her 17th straight NFR with Promise Me Fame Guys. In 2022, Lockhart & Promise Me Fame Guys had a breakout moment at the NFR, placing at 7 out of 10 round, winning Rd 5 and placing 3rd in the Average winning $168,326 at the NFR alone. That moved her from #14 spot to the #4 spot in the world at the end of the year. If Promise Me Fame Guys is on his game for the 2023 NFR it might be the year where veteran Lockhart finally grabs the world title she has been so close to so many times.

#6 Kassie Mowry — $133,802

Mowry won the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo and those earnings allowed her to leave her colts home for a couple week and go to enough rodeos to qualify to her 4th NFR. The All Time Winningest Barrel Racer, Mowry crossed $6 Million in career earnings this year. Like Tonozzi, Mowry also had an epic year at the aged events with her spectacular derby team. With one more year of experience for her NFR team of CP He Will Be Epic, Famous Ladies Man and Force The Goodbye this team may be lethal in the Thomas & Mack. She will split her time between CP He Will Be Epic & Famous Ladies Man for the most part depending on how they feel and do. She is of course an amazing rider and this team of horses has about $2 million in earnings so if they get rolling in Vegas they could be contenders!!

#7 Wenda Johnson — $120,506

It's the 4th NFR in a row on a First Moonflash horse for Johnson. This year Steal Money, a 7 yr old son of First Moonflash, carried the load for Johnson. This same team won Rounds 1 & 7 last year at the NFR and another year of experience will only help. This team can win at any time on any setup. Steal Money is capable of running the fastest time of the NFR, that's the caliber of horse he is. They won over $110k last year total at the NFR. With Steal Money being even more experienced they should be able to exceed that this year and be in contention for a world title!

#8 Jessica Routier — $118,973

This is the 6th straight NFR for this team of Fiery Miss West (Missy) & Routier. This year the win at the NFR Open vaulted them up the standings and their patented mid to late summer run pushed them in to their 2023 NFR qualification. Missy is just under a million in lifetime earnings (at $980k per Routier) and is considered one of the greatest barrel racing mares of all time. This team knows each other so well and are always a threat in the rounds and the average. It will be fun to watch this team push Missy over $1 million in earnings and push up the standings at the 2023 NFR!

#9 Summer Kosel — $115,682

Kosel and her speedy mount Firewaterfrenchfame (Apollo) burst onto the scene in 2022 setting the arena record at Cheyenne. In 2023, Kosel entered a few more rodeos and just kept winning all year long to qualify to their 1st NFR! They finished 2nd at Omaha at the end of the year on a short 14 second pattern. This is a fast, quick, athletic young horse that can adapt to all different setups so the NFR should be no problem for them. This will be a fun team to watch at this year's NFR and into the future!

#10 Ilyssa Riley — $111,473

Riley stayed solid throughout 2023, picking up checks and winning rodeos all year long to qualify to her 1st NFR. Riley's two NFR mounts are Themajorthriller (Thriller) and Championofthehouse (Champ). She plans to start out on Thriller and use Champ when she is higher in the draw order. These are both great horses. Themajorthriller was a proven rodeo horse in Canada before Riley got him so you know he can run in a variety of conditions. Champ has won at the futurity level, derby level and now rodeo level. Champ placed at Denver over the winter on a 14 second pattern. Riley and both her horses should be ready to roll to a great 2023 NFR!

#11 Sissy Winn — $109,022

Winn had a great 2023 to qualify for her second NFR. In 2023, Winn had a strong showing at Ft Worth & Houston to put her up in the standings and then followed that by finishing strong in September to keep her in the Top 15 for 2023. Her main mount for her earnings A R Dash Ta Flame (Scoop) is a wicked fast horse on any size pattern. Winn has won on all sorts of pattern sizes throughout the year so should adapt to the NFR arena quickly. Winn & Scoop have the experience from last years NFR so that should vault them to a strong 2023 NFR!

#12 Stevi Hillman — $109,015

Hillman used her signature summer run on her grand old 16 yr old gelding Cuatro Fame (Truck) to vault herself to her 8th straight NFR! It is pretty incredible to see Cuatro Fame winning at the highest level still at his age; he really doesn't look any different than he did when he helped her qualify to her first NFR. Throughout the year, Hillman has been seasoning Sand In My Socks and RV Brijett. Because Truck doesn't love the Thomas & Mack, Sand In My Socks and RV Brijett get the call at this year's NFR. Sand In My Socks will get first call as the main horse. Sand In My Socks was a BFA Super-Stakes Champion as a 3 yr old with Kassie Mowry and is a young, fast, super athletic horse. Hillman ran her last year at the NFR and she ran some really fast times. So with an extra year of seasoning this pair could be one to watch!

#13 Hailey Kinsel — $105,776

Kinsel comes in to the 2023 NFR for her 7th straight NFR on Dm Sissy Hayday (Sister). This 4 Time World Champion may be a sleeping giant for the 2023 NFR. She is riding Sister, the highest earning barrel horse in history at $2.8 Million and 4 world titles. Sister is widely seen as the greatest barrel racing mare in history! Sister has been lightly run really throughout her career but especially the last couple years so she should be fresh and ready for the NFR. She always just gets better with more runs as the week goes on. If this team gets going who knows what can happen. This team won $270k at the NFR alone in 2020 on their way to their 3rd straight world title. Together this team has won $968,274 at the just the NFR in their 7 trips there! A dynamite duo to watch for 10 rounds!

#14 Sue Smith — $105,644

Smith comes into 3rd NFR on a horse she not only trained but raised as well. For most of her big wins in 2023, including Cheyenne, Smith was riding Dashes Centerfold. Centerfold was a very successful futurity horse that transitioned flawlessly into the rodeo world. Smith had the foresight to pull an embryo from Centerfold during her futurity year and that son of A Smooth Guy, named Diamond Center (Heff) followed in his moms footsteps as a successful futurity horse and is now moving successfully into the rodeo world as well. When Centerfold had a setback and was sidelined later in the year Heff stepped up and won money at some crucial rodeos and the Governor's Cup to secure Smith's spot at the NFR. Smith has trained Heff from the ground up and they know each other so well, they should do really well this week at the NFR!

#15 Paige Jones — $102,968

2020 WPRA Resistol Rookie Of The Year Jones used a big push over the 4th of July to qualify to her first NFR. In 2022, Jones finished just $2k from making the NFR and ended up 17th. Over the past couple years, her team of Famous Hayday (Bazinga) and High Cotton Lane (Cotton) have become household names in the barrel racing world. Bazinga has been the main horse this year and will be at the NFR. Bazinga is a son of Pc Frenchmans Hayday who has already sire 2 World Champion Barrel Horses, Stingray & Sister; so he is definitely bred to win in the Thomas & Mack. This will be another fun team to watch that should really shine at the NFR!

Every one of these 15 girls could get hot and be the big winner at the end of the 10 runs down the alley. It's just an amazing group of horses and riders. Regardless of how the 10 rounds at the NFR go, just to qualify to the 2023 NFR among this group of horses going up and down the road is a career defining accomplishment. The NFR being 10 rounds in 10 nights in a small arena is the ultimate challenge for the barrel racers; but provides all of us spectators at home the best week and a half of entertainment of the whole year. It is going to be an exciting 10 rounds to follow!

We would like to thank all the Top 15 for taking the time to get back to us for stories and horse names all year long. We know how busy you are on the road; between all the driving, horse care taking and all the other details that going into winning at rodeos. We truly appreciate you time and efforts and really enjoy sharing your experiences and wins with the public. We wish you all 10 safe and fast runs! Good luck and God Bless!

Las Vegas Events & PRCA Agree to keep the NFR in Vegas through 2035

The Las Vegas Events Board of Trustees and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Board of Directors jointly announced today that they have reached an agreement to keep the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® in Las Vegas through 2035.

The financial commitment and breakdown by year will be announced at a later date. "This is a truly historic day for the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association," said PRCA CEO Tom Glause. "This extension will benefit all aspects of the PRCA, including our contestants, stock contractors, committees, contract personnel, and our fans. This commitment by Las Vegas preserves the momentum that we have established over the last 38 years."

"For more than a year and a half, I have worked with the PRCA and their representatives toward this extension that demonstrates Las Vegas' commitment to the NFR and the sport of rodeo," said LVE Chairman Bill McBeath. "Along with Michael Gaughan and the support of our entire board, we have made this a priority for our organization to secure the world's richest and most prestigious rodeo as a December fixture in our city. We appreciate all of the efforts of the PRCA to make this extension a reality."

"For 38 years, the NFR has transformed our city and brought millions of rodeo fans to Las Vegas to share in the NFR Experience," said LVE President Tim Keener. "We have built a strong partnership with the PRCA and its contestants and feel that this new agreement will be beneficial to all parties. We are pleased to host this iconic event for an additional ten years."

The NFR has sold out 360 consecutive performances and attracts the top 15 contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding. Qualification is based on the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association World Standings. In 2022, the event had a total attendance of 173,350 over the ten days of competition in Las Vegas.

In 2023, the NFR will run from Dec. 7 through 16 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Oklahomas 10 Richest Days of Rodeo Set to Storm Guthrie & the Lazy E Arena January 2024

In early January 2024, Guthrie, Oklahoma, will make history in Western sports as the 10 Richest Days of Rodeo in Oklahoma rides into the Lazy E Arena. The WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo series, The Stampede at the E, Presented by Purple Wave Auction, will kick off the western sports extravaganza January 3-6, followed by the International Finals Rodeo (IFR) Presented by Love's on January 11-14. During these events, top professional cowboys and cowgirls from around the country will compete for nearly $1 Million over the course of 10 thrilling days, bringing edge-of-the-seat action to Guthrie.

The WCRA Stampede at The E will host over 300 athletes competing in one of the most exciting live sporting events to witness, going head-to-head in the nine major disciplines of rodeo. A collective $400,000 will be on the line, with $42,000 being paid out in each discipline and each event champion, leaving Guthrie with a minimum of $15,000.

The event will be the first of four Major rodeos comprising the 2024 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Presented by Lazy E Arena and Ranches. Should the victor in any discipline at the Stampede at The E also take the top spot on the podium at the subsequent two WCRA Majors, the athlete will be eligible to win an additional $1 million cash bonus. The Lazy E Arena last hosted the Triple Crown of Rodeo in 2020, during the inaugural Stampede at The E.

In 2020, WCRA title holder and Medford, Oklahoma Native Michelle Darling (Medford, Oklahoma) captured her second consecutive WCRA title, propelling the 39-year-old nurse and mom of three to the top 15 richest athletes in the WCRA. Darling is the only athlete in WCRA history to win two barrel racing championships.

Fellow Oklahoman Stockton Graves (Alva, Oklahoma) also joined Darling in the winner's circle. The Northwestern Oklahoma State University Head Coach notched his second WCRA victory at the 2020 Stampede at The E. Graves is one of the two steer wrestlers to win two championships and is the highest earning in WCRA history.

The momentum will continue in the Sooner State when the IPRA (International Pro Rodeo Association) looks to crown ten new world champions during the 2024 IFR January 11-14. The top 15 from the IPRA world standings will compete in four rounds of competition in route to the world title.

Athletes from Canada and the US competed since January 2023 to qualify for the world finals event, which will award a record-breaking half million dollars in 2024.

One of rodeo's longest traditions, the 54th edition of the IFR hosts a western trade show and transforms the concourse of the Lazy E Arena into a shopper's paradise. The event will also host the 2024 Miss Rodeo USA ceremony and pageant.

Single-day tickets for the 2024 10 Richest Days of Rodeo are on sale now and start at $20 for adults and $10 for kids plus fees. Tickets can be purchased online at lazyearena.com, WCRArodeo.com, and IPRArodeo.com, at the Lazy E Arena Box Office or by calling the lazy E Arena at (405) 282-3004.

Their opinion of your potential has nothing to do with your opportunity to prevail.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Mike recently preached a great message on the church needing to grow up. Hebrews 5:13-14. Stepped on my toes for sure. The part that stuck with me, though, was when he said we need to "get out of diapers and get into our armor" so we can fight. That armor is described in Eph. 6:11-13. He taught us that there are some in the church who are 40 year old babies. Those 40 year old church goers need to be the ones in the front of the fight, not needing to be babied and pacified.

But by their choice, they are easily offended. They want to be pampered and held. And if you don't, they'll find someone who will. These are those described in 2 Tim. 4:3-4. You won't baby me, I'll go somewhere else. Yikes!

As we grow up, the armor might feel heavy at first, but we are powerful children of God and as we accept the challenge, we will get stronger and stronger. We'll wake up one day and shazam!, we are the ones doing the work of the ministry! Strong in the Word. At the front of the fight. Winning victory after victory! That's where I want to be.

I don't want to wake up 5 years from now and find I'm the one still believing in Santa Claus, and thinking Jesus is the fable... and I know you don't want that either!
