The Race Is On - Pierce Breaks Arena Record

Six rounds of exciting action are already in the books and we still really don't have a clear favorite to end up the World Champion on Saturday night.

Pozzi came into the WNFR leading the world standings and still leads the world standings after round 6. She and Duke have placed in 5 of 6 rounds so far.

However, the two trailing her coming into the WNFR, Sears and Cervi, have both had solid finals and aren't weakening.

Cervi is winning the average while Sears sits second. The average money looks to be the key in this race, so keep your eyes on the average standings as we roll through the last four go rounds.

All three of their horses are firing on all cylinders and placing in rounds along the way so they all look up to the challenge.

After a hit barrel in the very first round Lisa Lockhart and her mount, An Oakie With Cash, have climbed their way back into the championship fight by placing in four rounds. Also, Lockhart sits in 6th in the average right behind Pozzi. If Pozzi, Sears, and Cervi happen to have problems in the last 4 rounds, Lockhart may be the darkhorse.

It looks like these four are the only ones with a realistic shot at the World Championship. If the rodeo was over as of Round 6, Cervi would win the world by a few thousand and Pozzi and Sears would be in a deadheat for second.

The first six rounds may not have given us a world champion yet but we are well on our way. We do know for sure that on Saturday night the 2011 World Champion will be standing on stage in the middle of the Thomas & Mack!

2011 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo - Barrel Racing December 1-6, 2011, Las Vegas, NV (Still in Progress)

Round 1

- Brittany Pozzi and Lindsay Sears came into the NFR sitting first and second in the standings. Living up to our expectations, they tied for the win in Round 1. Duke & Martha look tough and ready for 10 rounds.
- Tammy Fischer and her 16 year old mount, Easy Dash Oak, showed they can still run with the younger crowd winning 3rd and $10,673.
- Angie Meadors chose to run Mulberry Canyon Moon and Jill Moody rode Chasin Firewater while everyone else came in on their expected mounts.
- There were 5 hit barrels in the first round.
- No one broke the 13 second mark in the round.

BRAT Holds Lost & Forgotten Angels Race

BRAT (Barrel Racing Association of Texas) is hosting their favorite barrel race this Saturday, December 10, 2011 at the Diamond W Arena in Alvarado—the “Lost and Forgotten Angels” race.

They will be awarding top 3 Prizes in each D including trophy buckles to the winners of each D in the Open and Youth (optional $10.00 award fee). Books open at 9:00 AM; exhibitions at 10:00 AM, 15 & under Youth 4D at 2:00 PM followed by the $100 added Open 5D. The entry fee for youth is $20 and $25 entry fee for the open. Exhibitions do fill up very fast so come early and sorry – we can’t take call-ins. As always, non-members are very welcome!

“The Lost and Forgotten Angels” is a program sponsored by the Salvation Army. BRAT will collect toys and money this weekend which will be delivered to the Salvation Army. This has been a huge hit with BRAT and they’re expecting a great turnout.

This weekend photographer Jon Baker, will be setting up a background and taking Christmas portraits during the exhibitions from 9:00-1:00. The cost is $10 for you and your horse and $5 for group shots. He has several Santa hats and reindeer antlers on hand to ensure a good time. The pictures will be available for download on his website and would be good Facebook profiles or Christmas cards. He is going to donate a minimum of 10% of sales to the Lost and Forgotten Angels! Thank you Jon!

Mark your calendars for the next couple of races:

*Saturday, January 7, 2012 - Cleburne Indoor Arena - Cleburne, TX – make-up race from September’s rainout

*Sunday, January 15, 2012- Diamond W Arena - Alvarado, Texas

Omaha to Host Justin Boots Championships thru 2014

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) has signed a letter of intent with Ak-Sar-Ben’s River City Rodeo & Stock Show (ARCR) that aims to keep the Justin Boots Championships presented by Wrangler in Omaha for at least the next three years.

The CenturyLink Center Omaha has been the home of the championships since 2009, and prior to that ARCR hosted the Summer Tour Championships. The Justin Boots Championships feature the top 96 cowboys and cowgirls in the world standings and awards more than $662,000 in prize money.

The 2012 Justin Boots Championships is scheduled for September 27-29, 2012.

“The Justin Boots Championships is recognized as one of the top five premier rodeos in the PRCA,” said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. “A trifecta of credentials establishes this rodeo as one of the sport’s best - the contestants must be the top twelve in the world in each event, prize money per performance tops other rodeos outside of the Wrangler National Finals (WNFR), and the level of stock set it apart.”

“ARCR and the City of Omaha are honored to host this Championship event for the PRCA. The committee and fans have proven their dedication and support of this event and we look forward to continuing to provide them with the best rodeo experience,” said Paul Jessen, Chairman of Ak-Sar-Ben’s River City Rodeo & Stock Show. “Annually, the ARCR has a $20 million dollar-plus economic impact on the City of Omaha and the Justin Boots Championships provides national television exposure for Omaha.”

The Justin Boots Championships serves as the finale of the rodeo regular-season. In 2011 alone, 84 of the 96 contestants that competed in Omaha qualified for the NFR. In addition, this year the Justin Boots Championships provided a ticket to Las Vegas for three contestants who otherwise would not have earned a trip to the Finals.

Steer wrestler Blake Knowles of Heppner, Ore., used the Championships as his stepping stone to the NFR in 2009 and again in 2011. He otherwise would not have qualified. “This is, as a competitor, what you love to do – show up at a place with a great venue, with twelve of the best guys in the world, and see yourself succeed,” says Knowles.

Ak-Sar-Ben’s River City Rodeo & Stock Show is an annual celebration of the region’s heritage that benefits and educates families and youth. For more information, visit www.rivercityrodeo.com or Ak-Sar-Ben’s River City Rodeo and Stock Show page on Facebook and River City Rodeo on Twitter. ARCR is managed by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation which was established in 1895 with a mission of leveraging collective business leadership to build a more prosperous Heartland.

The PRCA, headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colo., is the largest and oldest professional rodeo-sanctioning body in the world. The recognized leader in ProRodeo, the PRCA is committed to maintaining the highest standards. The PRCA, a membership-based organization, sanctions approximately 600 rodeos annually, and there are nearly 30 million fans in the U.S. The PRCA showcases the world’s best cowboys in premier events through the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour presented by Justin Boots, and its subsequent Justin Boots Playoffs, the Seminole Hard Rock Xtreme Bulls presented by B&W Trailer Hitches, the PRCA’s bull riding tour; and the world-renowned Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. Action from PRCA-sanctioned rodeos and its premier events appears on Great American Country (DISH Network 167, DirecTV 326) and Pursuit (DISH Network 240, DirecTV 608). Each year, PRCA-sanctioned rodeos raise more than $26 million for local and national charities. www.prorodeo.com

Correction:

In last week’s issue of the Barrel Racing Report a news story on the BFA Bouns mistakenly reported the current owner and rider of Niki Black. The current leader of the BFA Futurity Championship is now owned by Whitmire Ranch and ridden by Lanie Whitmire.

the week winning Round 2 with a 13.95.

- Angie Meadors and Mulberry Canyon Moon also bounced back from a hit barrel on the first night to win second with a time of 14.00.
- Brittany Pozzi kicked the second barrel down in a costly move while scorching a run of 13.71 that was turned into an 18.71. This may have a big effect on the world title chase later in the week as the average race shakes out.
- 5 Barrel Racers hit barrels in Round 2
- Everyone remained on the same mounts as Round 1

Round 2 Results

- 1 An Oakie With Cash, Lisa Lockhart, 13.95, $17,884.62

Round 3

- WNFR rookie Jane Melby and her mount Rc Back In Black scorched the fastest run of the week so far with a 13.83 to win the round.
- Brittany Pozzi and Yeah Hes Firen recovered from a hit barrel to win second in the round and put a little more cushion back between her and Lindsay Sears.
- There were 3 hit barrels
- Only 6 people have not hit a barrel at this point. This leaves Britany Pozzi 7th in the average and back in line to get average money.
- Sherry Cervi has taken over the average lead and is only $36,868 behind in the World Standings.
- Lindsay Sears sits second in the average, trailing Pozzi in the World Standings by $21k.

Rare Dillion figured out the setup and won the round in a quick time of 13.81. The pair had been putting up great times but had hit barrels in each of the first 3 rounds. In fact, the pair would have placed 3rd, 2nd, and 1st in the previous rounds if the barrels would have stayed up.

- Cervi, Sears, and Pozzi all got checks and are staying within striking distance of each other.
- Cervi and Sears remain 1 & 2 in the average.
- Angie Meadors switched horses and started riding Heza Bug Leo (Bugs) who she has ridden to the majority of her winnings throughout the year.
- Brenda Mays switched to her backup horse, Judge My Fame (Dora), who she rode through the late summer and fall while Judge Bug Cash (Jethro) recovered from injury.
- Pozzi, Sears, and Cervi are all within $28k of each other in the World Standings.
- Only 1 hit barrel in Round 4

Round 4 Results

- 1 Rare Dillion, Carlee Pierce, 13.81, $17,884.62
- 2 MP Meter My Hay, Sherry Cervi, 13.90, $14,134.62
- 3 Sugar Moon Express, Lindsay Sears, 13.95, $10,673.08

15 Dasher Dude, Britany Fleck, 19.87

Round 5

- Carlee Pierce and Rare Dillion really made up for lost time (or hit barrels in this case) absolutely scorching a run of 13.46 setting a new arena record. The previous record of 13.49 was set by Sherry Cervi and Mp Meter My Hay last year (2010) in Round 8.
- Lisa Lockhart and An Oakie With Cash won second in the round and boosted their WNFR earnings to $39,519 to keep them in the race for the world championship.
- An amazing 7 people ran 13s last night. Actually, 8 but Tammy Fischer and Roundpen caught a barrel to run a 13.96 (+5).
- Cervi and Sears remain 1 & 2 in the average.
- Only 4 barrel racers have made 5 clean runs placing Pozzi 5th in the average.
- Pozzi leads the WNFR earners with $45,432, 2nd is Cervi with $39,663, 3rd Lockhart with $39,519, 4th is Pierce with $35,769, and in 5th is Sears with $29,567.
- The world championship race is still within a margin of the average money after Round 5. If the rodeo ended after Round 5 Pozzi would win the world by a mere $200 over Cervi and Sears would be $4k behind them. It is going to be a close one.

Round 5

- 1 Rare Dillion, Carlee Pierce, 13.46, $17,884.62
(New Arena Record, Previous Record held by MP Meter My Hay and Sherry Cervi, 13.49 in 2010)
- 2 An Oakie With Cash, Lisa Lockhart, 13.79, $14,134.62
- 3 Yeah Hes Firen, Brittany Pozzi, 13.82, $10,673.08

Barnes and Spinemfastwincash Lucky Dog Series 1D Champions

By Tanya Randall

James Barnes and Spinemfastwincash wrapped up the Lucky Dog 1D Series Championship at the production company's Memphis, Tenn., event, held Dec. 2-4 in the Shelby Showplace Arena.

Barnes and "Spinner" won two Lucky Dog average titles during the year at Fort Smith, Ark., and Searcy, Ark.

"I've had him six months," explained Barnes, who hails from Crossett, Ark. "A friend sent him to me to ride and sell. The Gayla Milam Memorial in Fort Smith was the first race I took him to. He placed like 8th or 9th on Saturday and then came back Sunday and outrun everybody by 3/10ths of a second."

At Searcy, Barnes took the 1D average with Spinner in similar fashion, and finished reserve in the 1D average with his former futurity colt Cash Not Corona, that he rode to the 2011 Old Fort Days Futurity Reserve Championship.

"He's a great horse," the 30-year-old trainer said. "His first run he doesn't put out as great an effort, but the next day, he gets really excited and really fires. The more runs you make on him the better he is."

Spinner, 11, is a bay gelding by Cash Not Credit, Jud Little's senior stallion, and out of the great Fire Water Flit mare Gin N Firewater, dam of Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and AQHA World Champion barrel horse Flittin Firin Cash. Latricia Duke ran the gelding for Angela Ganter during his futurity year. Terris and Kim Matthews of Wynne, Okla., purchased Spinner in July. Barnes, who is enjoying his first year as a "professional" trainer, grew up running barrels. He credits his stepfather, Hank Sharp, for getting him involved with horses.

"My stepdad and mom married when I was 2," he explained. "He would put me up in the saddle in front of him when I was little and I was riding on my own by the time I was 5."

He was 7 when he started running barrels. At 13, he trained his first horse that ran in the 1D at the local level. He trained his first futurity horse as a teenager and narrowly missed making the finals at the prestigious Old Fort Days Futurity at age 18.

Barnes honed his skills while riding with reining horse trainer Mark Wilcher, Rayville, La.

"All my colts have a reining horse handle, where I can move their shoulders and hips," he said. "Mark still breaks my colts, or at least gets them to the point to where he knows that I can go on with them."

He also gives a lot of credit to perennial leading futurity rider Cody Bauserman, who is currently battling himself for the year-end BFA Championship.

"He taught me a lot about the mental game," Barnes noted. "Riding with him I got to see him work with a problem horse at home and then see how he handles that horse at show. If that horse is making a mistake at home, when he gets to an event, he doesn't worry about it. He just goes for it. That helped me a lot at Fort Smith this year. In the exhibitions, my horse stepped in a little on me, but when it came time for me to run, I didn't worry about those mistakes. I just went for it."

Barnes is currently at the BFA World Championship Futurity in Oklahoma City, where he just finished in the Top 20 in the Juvenile Futurity with Lookin At Lucky, a grandson of all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame through Cheyenne Fame and out of the blue hen mare Regional Champion, dam of the late great View This Jet and futurity standouts Nonstop Kokomotion and Katy Whipple.

"It's been a long slow process to get where I'm at," said Barnes, who lacks just three classes to have a degree in Mathematics. "I just praise the Lord for sending me good horses and good owners."

"The Flit Connection" disbursing due to Texas Drought Conditions! From the 1970s to present time the Flit Bar horse have been winning at all levels. Our breeding program has concentrated the Bud Warren bloodlines of Sugar Bars, Jet Deck and Leo. The cross of Sugar Bars and Leo produced Flit Bar and Sugar Bar Flit. We have continued to linebreed these bloodlines due to their amazing consistency in possessing a high level of barrel racing ability. Our program has produced such horses as Bobby Sox Flit, who was an NBHA Champion with an 8 year old rider when the horse was 4 and is now a top level rodeo horse with Angela Gilliam. This program has consistently produced top level barrel horses. We have all ages of horses for sale and this is a complete dispersal, so not a single horse will be held back. For more information about specific horses we are offering call 903.421.2455 or 903.357.8790

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Would you give preferential treatment to someone just because that person wore expensive clothes and looked rich? The Bible warns us in James, Chapter 2, to not let ourselves be motivated by a person's outward appearance and give them favor over someone who is dressed in a less fashionable manner. Maybe that bedraggled looking woman ahead of you at the checkout line has been sitting up nights at the hospital with a sick child. And maybe that scruffy looking man has been caring for an invalid wife while working full time. Appearances are deceiving.

Recently, a supposedly true story by Malcolm Forbes was printed in a newspaper. Years ago, a rather plain looking couple dressed in worn clothes visited a prestigious university back east asking to see the president. They had no appointment and, since they looked like a couple of hicks, the secretary felt they had no business bothering the president. But, as they patiently waited as the hours went by, the secretary didn't like them sitting in the outer office. How would that look to others coming and going? She finally asked the president to see them and get rid of them.

They told the president their son had happily attended a year at the university before being killed in an accident. They wanted to give a building to the university as a memorial to their son. The president rolled his eyes as he sized up their clothes and told them they had no idea of the fortune it cost for erecting a building on the campus. Rejected, the couple left and went to Palo Alto, California, where they established the university that bears their name, Stanford University, as a memorial to their son. They were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stanford.

Forbes closed the article with, "You can easily judge the character of others by how they treat those who they think can do nothing for them." Think about it.
