Improved Conditions Make For a Horse Race In Vegas

By Tanya Randall

Hold on your hats and put a magic seat on your couch because we've got a horse race in Las Vegas! With vastly improved ground conditions through the first five rounds on the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, held on a dirt-covered basketball court in the Thomas & Mack Center on the campus of the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, the best horses and riders in the world are making the most of this deserving opportunity and thrilling fans in the process.

"The ground conditions at the NFR for the whole rodeo have been amazing!" said WPRA President Doreen Wintermute. "There is a village to help make a rodeo great! With that said, the WPRA, our contestants and members appreciate all the efforts of Las Vegas Events, Shawn Davis and his team of professionals."

"The ground is amazing this year," noted Round 5 Winner Amber Moore.

This year it's not about standing up, it's about clocking from your position on the ground. It's been fairly even with some of the last runs on the ground drawing checks. The first round was won from the 11th hole on the ground, while rounds two through four were won by the third runner out that night. Moore was seventh on the ground for her winning run.

It's a true test of riders positioning their horses for optimal performance.

Even though Mary Burger of Pauls Valley, Okla., came in with a commanding lead the world title is still up for grabs. The rounds are paying $85,615.38 ($26,231 to win), while the aggregate ("average") pays a well-earned $253,846.15 ($67,269 to win).

Moore of Keizer, Ore., and her great mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") are currently leading the aggregate after the Round 5 victory on Monday. They've moved from 15th in the world to fourth with NFR earnings of $71,769.22. They are the only ones to have placed in rounds one through five.

Right on their heels in the aggregate is Lisa Lockhart of Oelrichs, S.D., and her great horse An Oakie With Cash ("Louie"). Lockhart and Louie currently sit second in the world with $70,076.93 won through five rounds.

Round 1 Winner Pam Capper and her homebred mare Sheza Smooth Flight ("Jessie") are the only other team to have successfully navigated five clean patterns. So, as of right now, the fastest times with one-downed barrel are still placing in the aggregate, and that includes Burger.

With optimal ground conditions a lot of horses are working to their full potential including both Paige and Louie, who look extremely comfortable in the pressure-cooked Cracker Jack box. "They're just going in there and doing the same thing every night," noted Moore. "It's just no big deal."

Moore said the 7-year-old daughter of Darkkelly is just having fun.

"That's her size pattern," she said. "That's what she grew up on. So, she feels comfortable on it."

She did note that running a left-barrel first horse at the NFR has been a little bit of a challenge. Given this year's good footing, the best horses in the world are able to use every inch of that ground, so sometime who has gone before her has chopped up Paige's launch pad off the first barrel.

"Every night she's had a little bit of a slip where everyone else pushes off to go to their third," she said. "She's got to go through it to go to my second. Even last night wasn't perfect, but she didn't slip that foot when she pushed off."

As she moves up to the top of the ground—she's on top in Round 8—Moore said she plans to continue with her strategy of "One run at a time and have fun."

"That's how I got here...having fun. That's the key, having fun," she said. "It's one run at a time, and that's what it's been all year. That's what I'm going to keep going with!"

When Moore started out in 2016, she plan was to attend several "bucket list" rodeos in order to win enough to be an NFR contender in 2017, but fate had other plans. Coming into the last month of the 2016 season Moore realized that she might get to cross the mega item off her list a year early.

"Those last two weeks were just miserable," she said. "My poor traveling partners!"

Sharon Gow, the Columbia River Circuit Rookie Champion, hauled with Moore that last month.

"She's a school teacher. She retired and then went back, but she told them she couldn't start until after October 1, because she had a journey to finish with me."

She also had help from Dakota O'Loughlin, who is currently helping care for Paige while in Las Vegas.

"She had a chemistry final this morning and I had her out until 3 in the morning!" said Moore, who was suffering from a lack of sleep too. "I said I'm so sorry girl! She said, 'Oh no, don't worry. It's worth it.'"

Moore wanted graciously thank her sponsors Tight Joints Plus, Earl's Garage, GJ Logging, Champion Feed, Katie's Coast To Coast, Murray Hay Sales, Be A Legend, Silver Lining Herbs, Purina, BRN4D, House Top H Ranch, CR Ranchwear, MR4 Activet, Belle Star, Double J Saddlery, 5 Star Pads, OE Nutraceuticals and Back On Track.

She also wanted to give a shout out to Cody Hyde, who had Paige lightly started when she bought her as a 3-year-old.

Hyde was in Oklahoma City for the Barrel Futurities of America's World Championship Futurity and had already fallen asleep by the time Moore and Paige made their victorious run.

"He said he woke up in the middle of the night and his phone was going crazy," she said.

Buckle up for a wild ride towards the world title in the last 5 Rounds of the WNFR!

Lisa Lockhart & Louie (An Oakie With Cash) are warming up into their usual WNFR form, winning Round 3. Dash Ta Diamonds & Sherry Cervi kept getting better & better winning 2nd and moving into the #1 spot in the Average. They also would have won the World if the WNFR ended after Round 3 and are the high money winning barrel team so far with $59,923 won already, placing in all 3 rounds.

Amberleigh Moore & Cp Dark Moon placed for the 3rd night in a row.

With Moore, Conrado, & Cayla Small placing in Round 3, 1st time WNFR qualifiers have been half of the money winners for all 3 rounds so far.

The top 6 in the round were within a tenth of a second of each other.

Stevi Hillman switched horses to Cuatro Fame in Round 3. Mary Burger switched back to Sadiefamouslastwords.

The first 3 girls out in the barrel racing were Lockhart with a 13.58, then McDonald came in and ran a 13.56, and then McLeod and Slick By Design blazed into the arena and ran a near record time of 13.49 (arena record is 13.37)! It was a pretty exciting start to the fastest round of the Finals so far. In fact, it took a 13.74 just to place. McLeod & McDonald were the two high money winners from last year's WNFR and now they are both heating up! Amberleigh Moore placed for the 4th night in a row & is the only barrel racer to win checks in all 4 rounds.

If the WNFR ended after Round 4, Lisa Lockhart would be the world champion.

After placing the first 4 rounds, Cp Dark Moon & Amberleigh Moore jumped up and won Round 5 with a fast 13.62! With that win, they moved to #1 in the Average, became the high money winning barrel racer of the WNFR ($71,769), moved clear up to #4 in the World and put themselves in position for a world title run through the last 5 rounds. Slick By Design & McLeod continued their winning ways with a nice second place finish after a Round 4 win. Sheza Smooth Flight & Capper won their 2nd check of the Finals with her 3rd place finish in Round 5. With a 4th place finish in Round 5, Burger put herself back in position to win the World Title, in fact, if the WNFR ended last night she would be your World Champions. Cuatro Fame & Stevi Hillman won their first check of the WNFR, winning 5th place. Doda Flit & Carley Richardson also picked up their 1st check of the WNFR grabbing 6th place.

Jackie Ganter switched horses to Blazin Baby J.

Williams Wins #13 Qualifier to The American Semi-Finals

By Hope Sickler

Victoria Williams piloted Three Jets Olena to the win in Memphis, Tennessee this past weekend at the 13th Qualifier for The American. The 22-year-old college student secured herself a trip to Fort Worth in February for the Semi Finals and hopes to see herself advancing to The American.

Three Jets Olena is a 10-year-old grey mare by Blazin Jetolena and out of Maggie Quick Dash by Royal Quick Dash.

"Three Jets has been an amazing mare for me and I am very grateful to have her, but she doesn't make anything easy. She is a hard mare to ride and be around but it is totally worth it to deal with her quirks because she is just that talented," explained Williams.

While this is Williams's first qualifier win, this is not her first time qualifying to the Semi-Finals.

"I qualified before at the Fiddler Turkey Run but I hit a barrel in the Semi-Finals, so I am hoping to have better luck this time."

Williams and the salty grey mare won the qualifier by over a tenth of a second with their time of 14.398-seconds. Youth barrel racer Karsyn Daniels and her great horse ZZs Jetting Muffin came in second with a 14.513.

"She had a great run in the qualifier. She went in there and worked smooth. I was tickled pink," Williams explained about her run. "We had a really weird third barrel on Friday night, so I was pretty nervous about how to ride her to it but she ran right to her spot in the qualifier."

Williams plan for the Semi-Finals is do the same thing that she has been doing all along.

"Three Jets and I kind of hit a point where we needed a little break from one another so my boyfriend Brandon Halterlein started riding her and running her for me. We will probably stick with that but I may go to an indoor rodeo or two before the Semi-Finals to make sure my timing is right before we leave for Texas."

Parker All Smiles at All-In Barrel Race

By Hope Sickler

Dally Parker and her great mare SR My Lucky Charm are a force to be reckoned with wherever they enter, including the All-In Barrel Race in Las Vegas last weekend. Parker and the gritty 19-year-old mare won the first round and ended up winning the Showdown Round for the 1D Championship.

SR My Lucky Charm or "Charm" as they affectionately call the mare with a heart the size of Texas is by Comprendre and out of Norma Deck by Rillito Deck.

"When we decided to go to Vegas for the All-In race, I wasn't sure if I was going to take Charm or not. She has had to overcome a few obstacles, especially in the last year, and I wasn't sure if I wanted to haul her to Vegas or not. But I decided that I couldn't go without her. She is my partner in crime and I am so grateful for her and her big heart," said Parker.

Winning the first round of the All-In Barrel Race with a 14.825-second run, Parker vouched to not run Charm the following day in round 2 since she had already qualified to the Showdown Round.

"She worked great. My plan in the first round was to take it easy but if you know Charm, there is no taking it easy with her! She ran and turned so hard that I about fell off on the second and third barrel."

In the Showdown Round, Parker was last to run and was unusually nervous.

"I was pretty nervous while I was waiting to run in the Showdown. I kept reminding myself that I needed to ride her quiet and let her do her job. Sometimes I try too hard and that has never ended well for us," Parker explained.

With a 14.984 on the leaderboard held by North Carolina's Laney Robinson, Parker and Charm entered the alley-way to see if they could change the lead.

"When I saw our time, I immediately started crying. I was so happy and thankful that we were able to get it done!"

Parker's 14.971 barely took over the lead but it was all she needed to edge out Robinson's 14.984.

"The producers and the crew were amazing. It was a very well ran production and something we will definitely travel back for. We loved everything about the race."

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you are hearing a groan coming from northeast Wyoming, it's because it's snowing and cold. We know winter is coming. It always does. But the fall was so nice that we really wanted it to last 180 more days..... Those of us who LIVE here know how to drive on slick roads, keep warm in it, feed in it, work in it and play in it. And if truth be told, we are a little envious of our friends and neighbors who get to go to Texas or Arizona for the winter. Happy for them...sad for ourselves. But we're tough. We just keep going.

Christians are like that, too. Tough. There are times when things go really good and we just love getting up every morning. We are basking in the glow of good times. Then....it happens. All hell breaks loose! So now what? P'LL TELL YOU WHAT!

Romans 8:37-39 – Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord!

John 6:33 – These things I have spoken to you that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world!

Phil. 4:13 – I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me!

And on and on and on and on. Promises from God to help us, encourage us, and fortify us. ALL day, EVERY day. Snow or no snow! HE'S A REALLY GOOD GOD!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
