Namgis D 33 & Emily Beisel smoked a 13.60 to win Round 4. They actually would have won Rounds 2 & 3 if it weren't for some barely tipped barrels. They have run fast all week, 13.82, 13.57, 13.53 and now a 13.60. . . . Shes Packin Fame & Crowther continue to impress in their first time at the NFR winning 2nd in the Round. . . . Promise Me Fame Guys & Lockhart continue to improve getting 3rd in the round and move to #1 in the average. . . . Sister & Kinsel won another check to close the gap between her & Briggs in the World Standings to around $13k. . .

we look back at the final standings for 2022 at the end of 10 rounds of NFR; Round 6 may be the turning point... Tonozzi & Beisel were 2nd and 2nd from last on the ground and both flew through the pattern to a 13.57... On a night where she got her Rookie of the Year Buckle between the Tie Down Roping & Barrels and then had to immediately run to jump on her horse since she was the 1st barrel racer out, Bayleigh Choate rode Hail To Be Famous to a nice 3rd place check in pressure packed circumstances... Lockhart just kept being consistent running a quick 13.64 giving her a 4th place check and pushing her to an almost .6 second lead in the Average on a night where Briggs & Kinsel both hit barrels... could this be the year for 16 time NFR Qualifier Lockhart??... there were 6 hit barrels in Round 6...

Butler & TS Cinch Ta Fame Bank at All-In

Each year during the NFR the All In Barrel Race also descends on the town of Vegas. Some of the best horses in the country join in on the fun of running in Vegas in the beginning of December. This year a former National High School Champion Barrel Racing team; Ts Cinch Ta Fame & Amanda Butler claimed the Showdown victory of Race 1 and $15,000! The team brought home a total of $19,307 in the All In Race 1. This coming weekend is the All In Race 2 happening December 7-11. With Butler's big win we caught up with her to get more info on her win & horse!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the All In Barrel Race? Especially your Showdown run?

Butler: My goal this year was to just make three solid runs and I believe I did just that. Going into the showdown round, I really wanted to see my older sister (Lauren) win the whole thing. I just made my run and was going to be grateful wherever it landed. I was devastated after Lauren hit the second barrel.

BRR: I know you have won for a long time on TS Cinch Ta Fame? Can you tell us about some of your big wins on him and what his approx lifetime earnings are?

Butler: Tic currently has over $92,000 in his Equistat but I would estimate him to have over $150,000 in LTE. I have won several races and rodeos on him. Some of his biggest accomplishments have been winning the National HS Rodeo Finals in 2018, the Utah State HS finals in both 2018 and 2019 and setting 3 different arena records(14.511- SF indoor Utah, 13.158 Golden Spike Ogden UT, 15.972 Heber City Indoor UT) He also won the very first rodeo back after Covid... the cave creek Arizona pro rodeo.

BRR: Can you share with us what makes him such a special horse?

Butler: He has a heart of gold. There have been several instances where we thought he would never run again. At the end of my rookie year, he was diagnosed with severe arytenoid chondritis. We were all concerned when we didn't know what was wrong. I finally suggested having him scoped to see if he was maybe bleeding. My heart sank when I saw the inflamed red sores in his airway. He tried so hard with every run even with being in pain. Going forward... with each operation we did to remove the infected tissue, he would grow back a massive tumor(similar to proud flesh). We finally made the decision to remove the affected arytenoid only to find at the next scope that he had grown another lump in its place. He was on complete stall rest for over a year while we tried to get it all healed up. Finally with the help of Rood & Riddle, they sent me what I call a "life saving" solution. I nebulized Tic 3 times a day for several months with a few different solutions that they sent me. I finally got the clear to compete on him again. I went to have injections done on him to help him feel his best and he had an allergic reaction to the steroid. He was out for another 3 months. South Valley Equine has been amazing to only inject him with IRAP in order to prevent future reactions. I love that stuff!

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that is vital to keep Ts Cinch Ta Fame at the top of his game?

Butler: Tic does the best If he gets out frequently with light riding. I often use the water treadmill for his exercise.

BRR: What are you doing to get yourself and your horse ready prior to heading into the arena to run?

Butler: I do a light warm up and follow with lots of walking. I then like to let him stand for the drag before he runs so he can catch his air if he needs to.

BRR: What are your future plans throughout 2023 for you and your horse?

Butler: I plan to attend the MVP race this January in Buckeye, AZ. Im not sure where we will head after that. I may pull him out for a few pro rodeos but I'm going to be focusing on seasoning my 5-coming 6 year old this season.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Butler: Neutrabac PH, Dr. pepper. I get very cranky when I have gone more than 24 hours with out it! Alos a Nintendo switch. My sister drives... I game and keep her awake (LOL)

Neudorf & Escalating Sweep Maple Leaf Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Jennifer Neudorf and her 5-year-old mare Escalating topped the Maple Leaf Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 30-December 3 in Regina, Saskatchewan. The $3,445 victory was enough to move her past Bradi Whiteside, who had a $178 lead on Neudorf going into the Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Neudorf and Escalating split third in the first round, split the victory in the second and stayed clean on her next two runs to win the aggregate.

"That was the most honest she's ever been," said the 19-year-old from Grand Prairie, Alberta. "She was so calm going in the arena. Whatever little move I asked her to do, she did exactly that."

Neudorf attributed the mare's behavior to a change in her pre-rodeo protocol. Rather than giving the mare Lasix to prevent any potential episodes of "bleeding," Neudorf opted to up her dosage of Vetline's Race Today.

"I was a little nervous about it, but I always had a gut feeling that I didn't like the way she felt running her on Lasix."

Escalating has been in Neudorf's hands for almost two years now. The mare caught her mother Jodie's eye at the Arizona futurities in 2021.

"My mom has always had a really good eye for horses, finding ones that she thinks can really be something," said Neudorf. "Mom had seen one of the very first runs that she'd made and messaged them about her right away."

Taylor Hildreth was riding the Tres Seis mare out of Kickin Escalation, by Check Him Out, for her then owner Greg Torgerson. A precocious individual, Escalating lit the board in four of her eight starts on the track at 2, earning $6,370. In the summer of her third year, she was sent to Hildreth, who had the mare ready to run at 4.

Neudorf bought the mare right before she and Hildreth won the Classic Equine Futurity and started running her in May. Together they won the Yellow Rose and Chief Mountain futurities in Canada.

Escalating got her introduction to rodeo last year too when Neudorf's older horse was battling an abscess.

"Last year was my first year rodeoing too," said Neudorf. "My 6-year-old that I was running ended up getting a bad abscess so she was off for the rest of the year. I just had Escalating, who was just a 4-year-old. She did really well and handled everything. She would have won some rodeos without some rider errors."

This year, the pair made the Canadian Finals Rodeo. Now, they're going to try some of the winter rodeos in the United States in between futurities and bigger barrel races.

Neudorf grew up showing reining horses. In 2019, at just 16, she swept all levels of the prestigious National Reining Horse Association's Non Pro Derby aboard the stallion Shining In Town. When COVID mandates made crossing the border difficult—her reining horses were in Arizona with Craig Schmursal—Neudorf made barrel racing her priority.

"I still love reining," she said. "It was really hard to go to the States and I didn't want to get vaccinated. My mom had started breeding barrel horses when I was into reining, so I decided to go to barrels because my mom had so many horses that she had bred and wanted to get proven. It was way easier for me to be their jockey because she could tell me what she wanted and how she wanted them to be. I really enjoy it a lot."

Neudorf said her reining background comes in handy with the barrel horses. She and her mom are also crossing some of their barrel-bred mares on her reining stallion, who has lifetime earnings of more than $202,000.

Rider/Owner: Jennifer Neudorf; Breeder: Jose Antonio Flores

THE RUNDOWN w/Jennifer Neudorf

Escalating, 15.1-15.2 hands, 1,000 lbs.

BIT: "She can run in anything, but I usually run her in a three-piece twisted dogbone short shank bit loose in her mouth."

HEADGEAR: Usually nothing, occasionally a tiedown if she's starting to feel strung out.

SADDLE: Usher

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Equine

LEG GEAR: Prefers polo wraps because they look more professional but will use boots if she's running several horses

SHOES: Shod all the way around. Main farrier is Linden Rohloff but will use other when traveling.

FEED: Step 2 Sweet Peak

HAY: Alfalfa hay and cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Probiotics, Magnesium, Vetline Race Today & electrolytes, Zesterra lick tub

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "I'm a firm believer in MagnaWave for helping with overall soreness and making sure they feel their best. I also like to spoil my horses with poultice, BEMER, wrapping legs and liniment."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I don't like to do that much barrel work with my finished horses unless I feel they need a little tune up. When I'm riding, I mostly long trot and then work on making sure that they feel broke and super soft plus responsive in every part of their body. My main focus is making sure they are responsive and soft. When it comes to barrels, my goal is to get every one of my horses to be super easy to run with a point and go type style. If I make a mistake, I want them to know their job enough to cover for me."

SPONSORS: B Usher Brand Saddlery, Vetline Equine, The Medicine Shop Pharmacy-Grand Prairie, Shayna Dyrland Equine Dentistry, GP Brewing Co and Shining In Town

THANK YOUS: Her mom, Jodie; her sponsors and those who make the rodeos possible.

OKC Futurity This Week!

This week from Wednesday, December 7th through Sunday, December 11th the OKC Futurity will be happening in the Jim Norick Arena at the Oklahoma City Fairgrounds.

The event will kick off Wednesday, with the Derby and Futurity followed by the Slot Race for the spectacular 3 year olds that evening. On Thursday the Rookie Futurity for all the 3 & 4 year old futurity horses begins followed by Horse Sale demonstrations that evening. Friday is the 2nd Go of the Derby & Futurity followed that evening by the Horse Sale. Saturday, December 10th will be the 2nd Go Round of the Rookie Futurity followed by the American Qualifier/Sweepstakes/3D Youth that evening. And finally Finals Day is on Sunday! There will be $160k added between all the added money and stallion money available for the different classes combined.

The webcast will be carried on www.OKCFuturity.com. The draws, results, information on the horse sale and more is available there too! Lots of info on their Facebook page too at "OKC Futurity."

Champions crowned at Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping

The third annual Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping presented by Teton Ridge came to a close on Wednesday with fast-paced emotional action.

Taylor Munsell, the 2019 college champion from Alva, Oklahoma, set the pace in round six at 2.1 seconds for her second win in the 10-head competition. Munsell also tied with J.J. Hampton for the win in round 10. It was the first time in 2022 that Hampton got to make the victory lap, but the third final round win for the veteran roper from Stephenville, Texas resident. She also won round 10 in 2020 and 2021.

Round seven saw Joey Williams break the 2.0 second mark. Williams, from Volborg, Montana, stopped the clock in 1.9 seconds for the win. Round eight got even faster as world standings leader Martha Angelone got the win at 1.8. That added $5,080 to her impressive earnings and put the seal on her 2022 world championship. It also earned her the Betty Gayle Copper Fast Time Award from the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame. She finished the season with $130,303 and earned her first world title.

"This is awesome," Angelone said. "I left Virginia with nothing. When they started adding breakaway roping to the pro rodeos, I set a goal to go to as many as I could, win as much as I could and get a world title."

Cadee Williams from Weatherford, Texas, won the event championship by roping 10 calves in 31.9 seconds to get the second most prestigious title in rodeo. Williams grew up in Montana as Cadee Tew, married a Texan and now she and her family spend summers in Montana and compete at rodeos there.

"We all knew that Martha was going to win it (the world title) so going for the average was the next goal," Williams said. "My mare is just seven years old, so this was a real test. We do this as a family, so it's a win for the whole family."

The big money winner in the South Point Arena was Cheyanne Guillory, from Kingston, Oklahoma who collected $27,037.

Total On 10:

1, Cadee Williams, Weatherford, Texas, 31.90, $13,866. 2, Lari Dee Guy, Abilene, Texas, 40.1, $11,250. (on nine) 3, Cheyanne Guillory, Kingston, Okla., $8,895. 4, Beau Peterson, Council Grove, Kan., 36.3, $6,541. 5, Erin Johnson, Fowler, Colo., 43.40, $4,709. 6, Joey Williams, Volborg, Mont., 50.5, $3,401. 7, Josie Conner, Iowa, La., 51.7, $2,355. 8, (on eight) Taylor Munsell, Alva, Okla., 19.9, $1,308

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As we draw closer to Christmas, there can be a plethora of emotions that we go through. My personal Christmas feeling would be joy. I have always loved Christmas. Even when things were pretty yucky growing up in my family, other people were generally pretty nice. . . .and I needed that.

I discovered there was no Santa early in life, so that wasn't it. (If you still believe in Santa, please call me. I can help you with that!). It was more the good will in others I was so attracted to.

At 19, I asked Jesus to be my Lord and, from that day, Christmas took on a whole new, wonderful meaning! I wasn't alone any more. I had a new family in the Lord. And as the years go by, the peace, love and joy to be experienced with Jesus grows and grows.

Love, joy, peace. Three words you'll read on most Christmas cards, and a small part of the fruit of the Spirit listed in Gal. 5:22 that belong to us!

Arm yourselves with ALL nine of those fruit, and as you are out and about, shower people around you with it! I guarantee, if you do, you will be more blessed than they! And you never know, one of those people may really need what you have to give... like I did!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
