NOTES: Wimberley & NFR newcomer Welsh tied for the first round win with a 13.77...3 horses with no NFR experience won money (Frenchman Fire Fly, Famous Lil Jet & Famous Lemon Drop)... World Leader Kinsel was just .01 behind to take third and keep her standings lead...the first ever hand raking during the NFR Barrel Racing after each run looked to keep the ground more even than in past years...5 of the 6 money winners had Sun Frost or Dash Ta Fame in their pedigrees...

Rule is out of the average with 2 hit barrels while Briggs sits 3rd in the average and is only a little over a tenth from the lead in the average. . . Kinsel has worked her way back up to 6th in the average with her hit barrel but if the NFR ended today Briggs' average money would push her in front of Kinsel. . . Tonozzi leads the average and is right there too. . . The race is on people!!!

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

3-Peat For Maggie Poloncic & Aint Seen Me Yet at Las Vegas All-In Race

By Tanya Randall

“She likes this race!”

That’s the understatement of the year from Maggie Poloncic. The Gillette, Wyoming, barrel racer and her 9-year-old mare Aint Seen Me Yet (“Puff”) have won three of Las Vegas’ All-In Races. They’ve also finished second twice.

Poloncic and Puff collected $17,597 for winning All-In Race 1, presented by Stetson, held December 3-5 at the Orleans Hotel & Casino.

“My plan was if I qualified back in the first round I wouldn’t run her in the second,” explained Poloncic. “She ended up winning the first by a couple of tenths so I gave her the next day off. We came back in the Showdown Round and were second to last—they run slowest to fastest. She ran another .4. She was really consistent.”

Their victorious 14.438 in the Showdown Round was worth $15,000. They collected an additional $2,597 for winning the first qualifying round, two-run aggregate and adult sidepot.

She wanted to give a shout out to the All In crew, spearheaded by Twisted Sisters, for a great race.

“They consistently ran 65-70 horses an hour,” she said. “I thought that was unreal! The ground stayed consistent. There were no issues. It was run very, very well! I wanted to give them some kudos for that!”

Poloncic also picked up a check on Puff’s paternal half-sister Aint Seen Her Yet (“JJ”).

“I didn’t get her qualified back for the short go, but she made two really consistent runs,” she said. “She was a few spots out of making it back each of the long go's. So, My goal with the second All In is to get her back to the short go."

Both of Polonic's mare are by Aint Seen Nothin Yet. Puff was raised by Chad and Shannon Wade out of their RR Milk Bone Shorts mare Jumping Sugar. JJ was raised by Janelle Osborne out of her First Wrangler mare Shakem Down First.

They've been down in Las Vegas since December 1 and have no plans to leave until December 13 thanks to the numerous lucrative races in the city.

On Tuesday, Polonic will run at The Big Time, held December 5-7 at The Plaza, and then it's back to The Orleans for All In Race 2. Polonic is also entered in Lucky Lotto's Race For The Ram, scheduled for December 9-11 at the Expo at the World Market Center.

"It's just crazy!" said Polonic, who is hoping to capitalize on the financial opportunities. "I've got to recoup some stallion fees and get some traveling money. Right now, we're in the black, so if we could stay there that'd be good!"

Polonic has split time all year between WCRA Rodeos, Montana circuit rodeos and select jackpots. Her objective of keeping Puff on good ground while running for significant paychecks has paid off handsomely.

"According to my bookkeeping, Puff's is now over $400,000 in earnings and she made a lot of that this year," she said. "I'm really proud of her. She makes my job easy and I just have to show up for her most of the time. It doesn't really matter where I take her, I know she can get us in there."

She said researching payouts and knowing where to enter helped this year be "more fruitful financially."

"I think I've made some better decisions on entering and knowing where to go and researching payouts. It takes time to learn those things and educate yourself on where you're going. We have so many more resources with social media and being able to talk to people."

In 2021, however, Polonic plans on stepping out further in the pro rodeos. After the Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo in Great Falls mid-January. She'll head to Texas, where she plans to stay through the spring.

"After circuit finals, we're pretty booked up," she said. "We've got Denver, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio and Austin. We set ourselves up to get into some of the big ones. I feel like I'd kick myself if I didn't at least try."

Polonic will be staying at Zerlotti Genetics in Pleasanton, Texas, where Puff will also be having embryos flushed. The mare is currently booked to Winners Version, Epic Leader and Tres Seis.

Jordyn Koonsman nabs Youth Championship, $11,140

Blum, Texas, high school junior Jordyn Koonsman picked up $11,140 at All-In Race 1. She claimed the $25,000-added Youth Championship with Ann Laurel Wild Card and also placed in the 2D with Shiners Gotta Spook ("Nellie").

Koonsman and Laural topped the second round of the All-In Race and had the fastest qualifying time of 14.443, which also gave them the youth championship. Her total earnings on Laural were $6,568.

"I hit a couple of barrels on my last run but my second run was pretty good," said the 17-year-old all-around competitor. "It was really smooth. She was kind of tight, but she still made a good run. She's a good horse."

Laural, who came to Koonsman via Kaitlyn Ward three years

Healthy Habits

At home Maggie Polonic's horses spend most of their time in a 20 acre pasture. While they're not unaccustomed to stalling at events, the length of time in Las Vegas has Polonic working overtime to keep her horses comfortable.

"We started at the Orleans during the event and then we found a place off sight," she said. "I really wanted them to be somewhere dark and quiet so we found someplace off sight for a few days. We'll come back to the Orleans for the second race."

While she admits Las Vegas has a lot of fun things to do, she said her focus is keeping her horses comfortable so they can be as successful as possible.

"My day revolves around them and nourishing my own body," she said. "My dad drove me out here so we've been out here the whole time. He's either working for stuff on his business or we're taking care of horses."

Her horses are walked several times a day and she tries to keep their stalls as clean as possible.

"We walk them as much as we can," she said. "We get up at 4 and go turn them out in the warmup arena because there's no one down there then. We let them be as long as we can. We also make sure their stalls stay as clean as they can so they're not breathing that ammonia smell and they're comfortable in them. Keeping them moving and keeping their stalls and environment as clean as possible is the best thing."

She also has a microcurrent machine that she's treating the horses with daily.

"It's very similar to an Acuscope or a myopulse machine, but it just doesn't give you the feedback on the tissues," she explained. "It's handheld so it's easier for me to travel with. They get that done as they need it, but down here since they've been in stalls, I've been doing it every day."

Gilbert Etches Name in History Books as 2021 WPRA World Champion Breakaway Roper

It was a two horse race from July to December with Shelby Boisjoli and Sawyer Gilbert battling back and forth. Boisjoli entered her second Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping as the No. 1 roper following her big win at the ProRodeo Tour Finale in Salinas.

Boisjoli held that spot until the 10th round of the Wrangler NFBR at the Orleans Arena when Gilbert moved in front by $86.32. Boisjoli was leading the average until a no time in the eighth round opened the door for Gilbert to win her first gold buckle. She didn't let that opportunity pass and not only won the world but went ahead and won the average title as well in a total time of 46.30 seconds on 10. Actually, Gilbert was the only lady in the top 15 to rope all 10 head.

"That is one of my strengths as I can always catch," said Gilbert about the average title. "I told myself even if I broke a barrier to get all 10 roped and this means the world to me."

Gilbert won the world with $71,654 compared to Boisjoli with $69,457.

"Holy cow," responded Gilbert when she learned she had won the world. "I knew I could do it and just wanted to catch that last calf. This has been a dream before I even knew it was possible on this big stage. I am so honored and glad to get it done."

Taylor Munsell, former college coach, finished third in the world with $57,896 after finishing second in the average in a time of 25.10 on nine head.

Kelsie (Chace) Domer and Gilbert got things started on the final day of the National Finals Breakaway Roping winning the sixth round after stopping the clock in 2.0 seconds. They each added $3,949 to their bank accounts.

The time of 1.8 seconds was the sweet spot for the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth rounds as that was the winning time for each. The seventh round won by Martha Angelone was just a tick off the fastest time of the event which came in the fourth round by Joey Williams with a 1.7. It would be Williams that took the eighth round victory lap after turning in her own 1.8 second run. Domer and Munsell were second in 2.1 seconds.

The ninth round was won by Cheyanne Guillory and Angelone with identical 1.8 second runs. Danielle Lowman a proud representative of the Navajo Nation was third in a time of 1.9 seconds.

She waited until the end like she did last year at the NFBR but better late than never. Seventeen time WPRA World Champion JJ Hampton took the 10th round win with her own 1.8 second run.

Another first for Gilbert was the average title as during the 2020 Wrangler NFBR an average was not awarded so she became the inaugural average champion.

Rodeo Corpus Christi Will Mark First Stop of 2022 WCRA Triple Crown

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) recently announced that Rodeo Corpus Christi will play host to the first stop to the 2022 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR). The first 2022 WCRA Major Rodeo will be held May 11-14 and will payout $550,000.

The TCR is a series of annual major rodeo events which includes an annual bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events are all featured in CBS Television network broadcasts each year.

"The exciting thing about the Triple Crown of Rodeo is the fact that every ride or run could have million-dollar implications, making the action more intense," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "Everyone lays it all on the line for a shot at that kind of money. That combination paired with an electric environment at American Bank Center makes it must see rounds of action."

Rodeo athletes from all over the globe are eligible to qualify to compete at Rodeo Corpus Christi through the innovative WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). The top athletes on the WCRA Leaderboard in each discipline will compete for their piece of the over $550,000 purse.

Rodeo Corpus Christi, hosted on the Corpus Christi Bayfront, takes place during the annual Buccaneer Days Festival in early-May, bringing together more than 120,000 attendees to promote tradition and community pride in the Coastal Bend by producing exceptional family entertainment that results in educational scholarships.

Format and Nominations:

WCRA will hold timed event qualifying rounds (May 9-10) and all steer roping rounds of competition (May 8) in Robstown, Texas at Richard M. Borchard Regional Fair Grounds.

The top 48 timed event athletes (excluding steer roping) on the WCRA leaderboard will be eligible to enter the qualifying rounds (May 9-10) while rough stock disciplines will feature 27 athletes in the progressive rounds (May 11-13).

Nominations for all Corpus Christi segment (RCC22, SR22, DY) are open now and will close April 10, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. For information on how to nominate and earn a position visit wcrarodeo.com.

The No. 1 athletes on the 2022 Rodeo Corpus Christi Leaderboard (RCC22, SR22) will be seeded directly into the Showdown Round (May 14) while timed event athletes ranked 2-4 on the Leaderboard will be seeded into the Progressive Round.

Division Youth Incentive:

Continuing its support of Youth Rodeo, WCRA welcomes Division Youth (DY) back to the timed event competition in 2022 with the Rodeo Corpus Christi WCRA DY Incentive. This gives Youth rodeo athletes ages 13-19 years of age an opportunity to compete in the timed event disciplines at this event as well. The top timed event athletes on the WCRA DY Leaderboard will compete in the qualifying rounds and be eligible for a $21,000 incentive purse as well as having the same opportunity to advance through the entire rodeo.

In 2021, 18 DY athletes advanced in over five disciplines to the Rodeo Corpus Christi progressive rounds at American Bank Center and netted a little more than $25,000. Team Ropers Luke Dubois and Corey Reid earned a position in the Showdown Round and cleared a combined $4,000.

Rick Smith named PRCA's Supervisor of Pro Officials

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) has named Rick Smith its Supervisor of Pro Officials. "This is an exciting opportunity," said Smith, a PRCA Gold Card member. "My heart is always with ProRodeo and the PRCA. It has given me everything I have got in life and now I have a chance to help out. I believe strongly in (PRCA's CEO Tom Glause) and I'm going to do the best I can with the knowledge I have."

Smith is slated to begin his new position Jan. 3. "Rick brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to this job and I'm excited for him to assume this position," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. For the last nine years, Smith has been the head rodeo coach at Cochise College in Douglas, Ariz. Prior to that he spent 17 years as the rodeo coach at Central Wyoming College in Riverton. Smith worked his way up the rodeo ranks before joining the PRCA in 1974 competing in saddle bronc riding. He qualified for the National Finals Rodeo in 1980-82 and in 1984 and 1986. Smith finished a career-best ninth in the world standings in 1981 and 1982. Smith won prestigious rodeos like RodeoHouston, San Antonio and Fort Worth, Texas. Smith retired from competing in 1989. Smith also was a ProRodeo judge in the early to mid 1990s. "I judged the Calgary Stampede the first year it went to the $100,000 payoff and I also judged in Denver, and some of the bigger rodeos in the PRCA and that's something I really enjoyed," Smith said. Smith and his wife, Lynn have two children, daughter, Jennifer, 30, and son, Will James, 17. Lynn is a breakaway roper and a college coach at Cochise. "I think I can bring a fresh view to officiating, and some new ideas," Smith said.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Christmas is coming! I asked my two granddaughters how many presents they wanted under their tree. One said 43, one said 27. Mostly they just liked seeing a lot of presents under their tree. I thought that was interesting. They like to feel the packages and guess what's in there.

On Sunday, Pastor Nathan talked about having EPD. Expected Promises Delivered. God's Word is full of promises for His children. We can expect them. He delivers them. I know that there have been times when I unwrapped a gift and was... surprised. Sometimes shocked. I'm not being ungrateful or unthankful. I just couldn't figure out why I was given that gift.

Has that ever happened to you? One year I was given golf clubs... I'd never played golf in my life. My passion was, and is, horses. Horses, golf clubs, horses, golf clubs. I can't think how the person got to golf clubs, but they did. I thanked them. Maybe they knew something I didn't. Nope. lol!

My friends, you'll never be disappointed in a promise of God. And He knows exactly what we need! EPD. Look in His Word and get those Expected Promises Delivered!
