Coming into Round 1 of the NFR, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi sat #1 in the World with the reigning World Champion Hailey Kinsel right behind her in #2. Many wondered if Kinsel would continue her NFR domination she has enjoyed with Sister in Vegas on the 13 second pattern the last 3 years, in the wide open standard pattern in Globe Life Field in Arlington. Kinsel & Sister didn't wait long to answer that question, winning the first round with a quick 17.18. Tiany Schuster and her amazing sorrel, Show Mance, smoked a 17.25 to be second. Not wanting to let Kinsel get to far out in front of her, Tonozzi put up a fast 17.32 to win 3rd in the round. With Kinsel's round win she moved to #1 in the world by $2,312 over Tonozzi!

The wide open arena for the 1st and 2nd barrel and the 3rd barrel with a yellow NFR banner and cattle close to it led a few of the horse to go a little off course, but they will be dialed in for Round 2! Lisa Lockhart & Rosas Cantina Cc barely caught the 3rd barrel, adding 5 to what would have been a round winning run.

Due to the changed prize money, from $10 million to $6 million, from Covid forcing the move from Vegas to Arlington, the NFR money is actually points for all the events, not reflecting actual money won. So the results, although showed as dollars, are actually points for 2020.

Another note, for the first time ever, there was a tractor drag at the NFR. After 8 girls the tractor came in and worked the pattern.

Jessie Telford replaced Dona Kay Rule due to Covid positive tests.

In Round 2, all these great barrel horses found their bearings in the huge dirt patch of Globe Life and smoked some fast times. After a bit of a trail ride on barrel 3 in Round 1, Lenaontherocks and 1st time NFR Qualifier Jimmie Smith executed a near perfect run of 17.04 in Round 2. They say smooth is fast, well this run was smooth and plenty fast! The pretty palomino pushed Smith up to #3 in the World with $101,252 with their round win.

Kinsel & Sister ran just a little faster than in Round 1 for 2nd in Round 2. With Tonozzi not placing, Kinsel pushed her lead in the World Standings to over $23k. It looks as though Sister & Kinsel are just as comfortable in Arlington as they are in Vegas.

Show Mance & Tiany Schuster and Hr Fameskissandtell & Shelley Morgan both placed for the second night in a row and moved up in the standings to #4 and #5 respectively. All clean barrel runs and the times from 1st to 15th were only .74 seconds apart!

Rosas Cantina Cc and Lisa Lockhart blazed through the first and second barrel, squeaked by the third and scooted home to win Round 3. The flawless run gave them the round win that a barely knocked over 3rd barrel kept them from getting in Round 1. Rosa & Lockhart won Round 2 in 2018 together as well. The round win moved Lockhart from 11th to 6th in the World. They sit $51,518 behind world leader Kinsel.

Ima Famous Babe used her run with Tonozzi in Round 2 to get the feel of the Globe Life dirt and came back with a strong 17.21 run. Her body clipping for the rodeo, made her look more like a red dun than her normal sorrel, but it didn't slow her down any! Tonozzi's strong showing in Round 3 while Sister & Kinsel had a few slips and didn't place, closed the gap in the world standings. After Round 3, Kinsel leads by only $2,313.

Shelley Morgan and Stevi Hillman both placed for the 3rd straight night. Morgan now sits #4, about $36,809 behind Kinsel, and Hillman sits #7, about $55,264 back.

Sister & Kinsel came back with a vengeance from a couple of slips in Round 3 to win their 2nd Round of the Finals by just .04 seconds over Katniss & Tonozzi! The Cowboy Channel laid the videos of the two runs over each other (it's pretty cool to watch) and they were separated by a head or short neck! Kinsel increased her lead over Tonozzi to $7,813 in the standings. Kinsel & Tonozzi have slowly started to separate themselves a little from the field with Tonozzi now enjoying a $45,818 lead over #3 Jimmie Smith. It is shaping up to be a shootout for the next 6 rounds!

Fiery Miss West & Jessica Routier have just gotten faster and faster in each round and tonight their 17.24 put them in third. Cuatro Fame and Stevi Hillman placed again for the 4th night in a row to bump them up to #6 in the World. They are just easing up the standings each night and are the only team to place in all 4 rounds so far.

As of Round 4 Kinsel and Tonozzi also sit 1-2 in the Aggregate as well with Kinsel leading by just .22 seconds (68.99 to 69.21).

Calmly walking in little figure 8s in the holding pen during the drag in the middle of the barrel racing, Sister & Kinsel looked primed and ready to do something special. They used the freshly groomed ground to run the first 16 of the week with a 16.92 on a standard. As can be seen throughout the Finals so far, that drag in the middle of the barrel racing has really changed the barrel racing and almost taken your position on the ground out of the equation. The blazing time from Sister & Kinsel was almost 4 tenths faster than the 2nd place team of Lena and Jimmie Smith (17.30) who keep running turning in great runs each night. Another interesting note, this was Sister & Kinsel's 13th round win together. The won 4 rounds in 2017 & 2018, 2 in 2019 and 3 so far in 2020!

Tonozzi and her cool mare Katniss, kept Kinsel in their sights by running a solid 17.35 and placing third in the round. Kinsel, Tonozzi and Smith sit 1-2-3 in the world and also in NFR earnings. Kinsel is #1 with $187,884 and $109,423 of NFR earnings; Tonozzi is #2 with $169,494 and $82,769 of NFR earnings; and Smith is #3 with $128,753 and $63,731. Kinsel leads Tonozzi by just $18,390 as we enter the last half of the NFR! It is going to be exciting to follow this battle!

Kinsel also leads the aggregate at 85.91 compared to Tonozzi's 86.56 through 5 runs with Shelley Morgan back in third at 86.98.

After having a tip to run a 16.98 in Round 5, Emily Miller-Beisel and her speedy grey, Namgis D 33, scorched a 17.01 in Round 6 to take the win on top of the ground. It was Beisel's first check of the NFR and could lead to a big finish for this team in the 2020 NFR! Right behind her to run and in the finish was Lisa Lockhart. After two nights riding Tres Movidas, Lockhart got back on Rosa and picked up $20,731 for their quick 17.07. Rosa has now run 4 low 17s so far.

It was definitely grey night in Round 6. 4 of the 6 placers were riding grey horses. Leading the pack was Namgis D 33 with Beisel; in 3rd place with a quick 17.11 MCM Imasharp guy with Stevi Hillman; 4th Lean Mean Blue Dean and Jill Wilson; and finally Famous Mic Guy Ver and Tiany Schuster grabbed 6th place.

Both 3rd place finisher MCM Imasharp guy and 5th place finisher Sr Industry Titan with Wenda Johnson were produced by blue hen mare Mulberry Canyon Moon.

Kinsel gave Sister the night off and rode a different PC Frenchmans Hayday horse, Outta Clear Blue. Neither her or Tonozzi placed so the gap remains just $18,390 between them; however Tonozzi did close the gap in the aggregate and now sits just 4 tenths behind Kinsel. It is close to an even up match between Kinsel & Tonozzi for the last 4 rounds! Get the popcorn, it's going to be good watching!

Teenager Brianna Woodmansee & CC Fancy Lil Cowgirl Bank $15K at All-In Race 1

By Tanya Randall

Preston Park, Pennsylvania, barrel racer Brianna Woodmansee and her 7-year-old mare CC Fancy Lil Cowgirl ("Fancy") saved their best run for last to win the $15,000 1D Shootout Championship at the Race 1 of the All-In Barrel Race, held December 3-5 at Lone Star Arena in Stephenville, Texas.

"I was definitely not prepared for it," says Brianna of her epic victory. "It's the biggest one I've ever won!"

Brianna also picked up $4,803 for placing third in the $20,000-added Youth Championships and placing in the second round of the open on AH Mias Cowboy (PT). Her total earnings for the weekend were $19,803.

She wanted to thank her parents and her family "watching at home" for all their support.

Brianna and her family—parents Brad and Jennifer—are currently spending the winter in Texas, so she can compete. The 13-year-old barrel racer had qualified for Jr NFR, being held at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, and her parents decided to use the All-In Race as a warmup. She runs at the Jr NFR on Tuesday and Thursday.

At the All-In, Brianna and Fancy had a little trouble finding negotiating the alleyway and approach to the first barrel and tipped a barrel. Their second run of 1 earned them a spot in the Shootout. "The mare just worked really good in that pen," Brad says. "The ground was really good. It wasn't deep and that mare runs really well on ground she can stay on top of. She got her done. She just rode really hard."

Brianna and Fancy didn't waste a single step on their victorious

Bred by Mary and Dale Moore, Fancy is by the cutting-bred stallion DMAC Cowboy out of the Ninnekah Bug mare Ninnekahs Lady Lexus. Brad inquired about the mare after Mechelle Jenks rode the mare to a top finish at the Mission Ranch Open 4D prior to the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas. She's been in the Woodmansee's barn almost two years.

"I got along with her right away," says Brianna, a homeschooled eighth grader. "The first barrel race I ever took her to, I got second both days. She's just the sweetest mare and so easy to ride."

Adds Brad, "We are so grateful and thankful for that mare."

Brianna is a lifelong horsewoman, a talent she inherited through her dad, who serves as coach and mentor.

"My grandmother barrel raced, my mother barrel raced, I barrel raced," says Brad. "I guess you could say Brianna's a fourth generation barrel racer. That's all we do. Horses are our lives."

Brianna has a long list of accomplishments, which includes winning the 13 & Under Barrels at the All-American Quarter Horse Congress, setting an arena record and garnering top finishes at the NBHA Youth and Senior Worlds and Josey Reunion. She hopes to be running at the National Finals Rodeo one day.

Her immediate plans though, include qualifying for RFD-TV's The American and Jr American, tasks she hopes to accomplish during her stay in Texas.

Jada Troser & Sun N Sevens All-In Youth Champs

By Tanya Randall

Ponder, Texas, teenager Jada Troser and Sun N Sevens topped the $20,000-added All-In Race Youth Championships, held December 3-5 at Lone Star Arena in Stephenville, Texas. The 15-year-old rider and her 7-year-old equine athlete also placed third in the Open 1D Shootout and topped the aggregate for total earnings of $8,963.

"The first day it wasn't the prettiest run," said the Ponder High sophomore. "We were kind of a hot mess, an extra hot mess. We ran a 14.9 but went to the hot dog stand and got a sweet tea on the first barrel. It was just not pretty."

On their second run, the one that locked up the Youth Championship, Troser and Seven posted the fastest time of the event, a 14.330.

"Just hearing everyone cheer after that run—I had never heard that or felt that," she said. "I just started crying. It was just overwhelming. I didn't think we'd be able to do that because the competition there was so tough!"

Their Shootout run of 14.496 picked up $2,000 for third.

Troser and Seven have been a team for seven months, although COVID kept them from going much until the last three. Bred by Frank Perkins of Tyler, Texas, Seven is by Mr Sun O Lena, an AQHA Champion son of Doc O'Lena, out of Play Miss Seven, by Chicas Playboy.

Troser purchased him from Shelby West after her older barrel horse was injured in the middle of her high school rodeo season.

"A friend of a friend had actually tried him but they said that he was too small," said Troser. "He wouldn't be able to hang because of his size, so they passed on him. But, my mom was like, 'Why not?'"

The two had an instant connection.

"I've always had mares, who are never nice, and he was so nice and calm," she said. "When things opened back up and we took him to our first jackpot, it was a hot mess, but he was so calm and athletic. I took a lot of time bonding with him, just spending time with him in the stall and us getting used to each other. He connected with me and the whole family."

Troser and Seven had their breakout moment at the WCRA's Women's Rodeo World Championships, where the two came up through the Challenger Pool to compete at AT&T Stadium during the televised PBR event. They ultimately finished fourth winning a $10,000 check.

"We weren't expecting anything," said Troser, recalling the experience. "When he came in his whole demeanor changed. His game shifted. He felt like a big guy. He just gave me everything and so much more. I wasn't expecting that. I was just expecting to go have fun, but when I realized that we could win and I could fulfil my dream of competing at AT&T Stadium, I just cried. I cried so much that weekend."

Troser says that the petite gelding has already taken her places she's never dreamed possible and that it's not likely he'll ever leave her family.

"He's done more than I could ever imagine in three months," she said. "I don't know where it comes from because he's so tiny. It has to come from his heart. He just does everything he can. His stride feels longer than a football field when he opens up. I've never had one that tries so hard. He's like a little lightning bolt. He just flies." Troser grew up in a rodeo family. Her mother Melinda ran barrels and her father Jason roped until the two put aside their own competitive desires to support those of Jada and her sister Tana, 13.

She wanted to thank her parents for all their support: "My parents have literally set aside everything they've wanted to do so my sister and I can compete."

She also wanted to thank West for training Seven and bringing him into her life: "She's been right with us through this whole journey. She's very supportive. If I ever have a question, I can send her a video. She's so willing to help us."

Next up for Troser and Seven is an American Qualifier, followed by the Texas Circuit Finals Youth Rodeo and the Jr American, where she's qualified in both barrel racing and pole bending.

Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping Off to a Fast Start

The long anticipated Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping (NFBR) got off to a fast start on Day 1 on December 8 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas

A familiar name, 19-time WPRA World Champion, Jackie Crawford took the first round victory lap stopping the clock in 1.9 seconds. Crawford, of Stephenville, Texas, was the second to last roper to go in the first round after finishing the 2020 regular season ranked No. 2. She was facing a stacked leaderboard with three 2.0-second runs leading the way. 17-time WPRA World Champion JJ Hampton set the bar early with a 2.0 second run, and was followed immediately by three-time WPRA World Champion Hope Thompson, who matched her time. The third roper to turn in a 2.0 was eight-time world champion Lari Dee Guy.

"This is so awesome and I am so excited about the Betty Gayle Cooper award," said Crawford, who has previously won two WPRA Breakaway Roping world titles. "When JJ (Hampton), Lari Dee (Guy) and Hope (Thompson) came out and made those two-flat runs, I was like man they are going to have that award split but I wasn't going to let them have it easy. We just went at it first round and it worked out. Calf was a little slow, I pulled and came down with the right time."

"Being here means so much to all of us being the first time for this and we can't thank everyone who has been behind it and involved in it enough. They have no idea how thankful all of us are."

Not only did Crawford win the first round but she was also awarded with the Betty Gayle Cooper Ratliff Fast Time Award presented by the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame. The award honored the late 1987 Cowgirl Honoree and a nine-time world champion that included being crowned the 1989 breakaway champion. Ratliff worked as a rodeo director of the WPRA to strengthen the sport and she coached the men's and women's rodeo teams for Southeastern Oklahoma State University to win national titles.

"This means so much to me to see this come to life," said Cooper Ratliff, son of Betty Gayle. "I want to thank everyone for making this possible. My mom worked her whole life for the western industry and women in it. To see this happen, I just know she is looking down on this smiling. For someone like Jackie to win this award means a lot because she knows the impact she had on women in rodeo."

Martha Angelone would match Crawford's time from the first round to win the second round. Angelone, originally from Virginia but now residing in Texas, added her name to the history books outdistancing Jordan Fabrizio who finished in a time of 2.4 seconds.

"It is starting off pretty good and I just hope I can keep finishing it," said Angelone after turning in a time of 2.3 and 1.9 to get the day started. "I like being able to rope one right after the other like this set-up is."

The third round victor would go to Tanegai Zilverberg stopping the clock in 2.0 seconds edging Shelby Boisjoli with a 2.1. Zilverberg is coming off a reserve world champion performance at the WPRA World Finals in the tie-down roping.

"I had some nerves today," said Zilverberg. "I was originally going to have my black horse and when I figure eighted eyes in the first round, I got on my yellow horse and figure eighted some legs in the second round for two no times, so my nerves left and it was more time to get my head in the right place and get it done."

The final round for today went to Hope Thompson with a 2.2-second run. Thompson was hoping to capture the first round title but would have to wait until the fourth round to take that victory lap. Thompson is also coming off a world champion run at the WPRA World Finals in the team roping. She and Whitney DeSalvo teamed up for the 2020 WPRA Team Roping World Champion title. Thompson has some work to do still over the course of the next several rounds if she wants to add another world title to her resume.

"I am thankful to get this win, thankful to be here and it has been so much fun," said Thompson, who was the big money winner on Day 1 with $10,309. "In the first round, I followed JJ (Hampton) after her two flat and we matched each other. We were cheering for each other and when Lari Dee (Guy) went, I said I hope we all get to stand up there together for the round win but we got second. Congrats to Jackie on the first round win."

Thompson, Guy and Hampton are traveling partners so they will be able to cherish that first round memory forever.

The first NFBR rolls on Wednesday, December 9 at 10 a.m. CT and can be seen LIVE and free on the Wrangler Network. Be sure to tune in for this historic event. Rounds 5-8 will be contested on the second day of the NFBR.

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Announces Plans for 2021 Rodeo, Now Scheduled for May 4 – 23, 2021

Today, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo announced its plans for the 2021 Rodeo. Originally scheduled for March 2 – 21, RODEOHOUSTON® competitions, concerts and entertainment, carnival and other attractions and activities are now scheduled for May 4 – 23, 2021, pending COVID-19 health status. The Junior Livestock and Horse Show competitions will still be held in March, as previously announced.

Pre-Rodeo events, typically held in January and February, are scheduled to move as well to coincide with the May Rodeo. These events include the Downtown Rodeo Parade, Rodeo Run, Trail Ride activities, the Rodeo Uncorked! Roundup & Best Bites Competition, and the World's Championship Bar-B-Que Contest. Details for these events will be announced once available.

"The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is truly a community event that Rodeo fans look forward to each and every year," said Chris Boleman, Rodeo president and CEO. "With the evolving health situation, we have made the decision to move the 2021 Rodeo from March to May, with the exception of our Junior Livestock and Horse Show competitions, to be held as planned in March. We remain dedicated to fulfilling our mission to support Texas youth and hosting a long-time Houston tradition."

There are no guarantees in the current environment but moving the dates of the 2021 Rodeo out by two months provides a better opportunity to host the events. Additional details surrounding the 2021 Rodeo will be shared by early March, as well as the full health and safety guidelines.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo promotes agriculture by hosting an annual, family-friendly experience that educates and entertains the public, supports Texas youth, showcases Western heritage and provides year-round educational support within the community. Since its beginning in 1932, the Rodeo has committed more than $500 million to the youth of Texas and education. HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are going to become very familiar with a four letter word this month. For some it will bring joy. For others, not so much. The word? "Gift." What am I getting? What am I giving? Well, what does God say about it? I can guarantee that if we look at it from God's Word, we'll enjoy every moment of this Christmas season! Of course, the greatest gift ever given is Jesus! And then let's remember that God gives us 'gifts' and we are to use them for the benefit of all.

Please read through them in I Cor. 12:4-27. You will find clear instruction there on how to appreciate the gift in yourself and in others.

But I believe that the Lord showed me something for you this week. In my heart I heard, "Don't study other people so closely that we become more familiar with the call on their life, then we are with the call on ours." Yes, we can learn from others. But NOT at the expense of becoming THEM!

You are a vital and wonderful part of the body of Christ. Consider giving of yourself this month. It'll be free. It'll be unique and one of a kind. It'll be fun and you'll be blessed!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
