2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 1

The 40th anniversary of the National Finals Rodeo to Las Vegas looks a little different for a lot of the WPRA's Top 15 with the equine herpes virus (EHV-1) outbreak changing their horsepower game plans at the last minute.

The Top 15 also changed with an injury to Anita Ellis. The first-time NFR qualifier was injured at a first of the 2026 season futurity in South Jordan, Utah, and was forced to turnout. Julie Plourde, who finished 16th, replaced her in the field.

Round 1

Defending WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry was the first gunner through the gate and clocked a victorious 13.66 with a textbook run aboard CP He Will Be Epic. The 17-hand Epic Leader, Dash Ta Fame gelding was Mowry's main NFR mount back in 2022 and 2023. Force The Goodbye (Jarvis) ran the last few rounds those two years and then went the distance for Mowry's title run in 2024.

Four-time WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel and her 3.5 million dollar earner DM Sissy Hayday were second. Lisa Lockhart and Blazin Ta Betty, a full sister to Jordon Briggs' 2021 World Champion Famous Lil Jet, were third. NFR first-timers Katelyn Scott and Justa DFT Frenchman and Tricia Aldridge and Adios Pantalones were fourth and fifth, respectively. Three-time WPRA World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Sir Epic—a product of Mowry's aged event program—rounded out the placings.

Most of the round money was won within the first six on the ground with Aldridge and Scott running 10th and 14, respectively. Four horses went to the left barrel first and all but one hit leaving the turn.

BARREL RACING REPORT

Even though there are nine NFR veterans competing, just three of the first round horses had ever run in the Thomas & Mack: Mowry's Will, Kinsel's Sister and Emily Beisel's Ivory On Fire.

No matter how many mistakes you make or how slow you progress, you are still way ahead of everyone who isn't trying.

2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 2

Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday, the 14-year-old daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday, took advantage of their draw, second out, to win the round in 13.53. That victory marked their 26th round win, making them the winningest team in NFR history. They had previously been tied at 25 with Sherry Cervi, who won rounds aboard five different horses with 10 going to Sister's paternal sibling MP Meter My Hay ("Stingray"), and Charmayne James, who won rounds aboard three different horses with 20 aboard Scamper (Gils Bay Boy) alone.

Kinsel and Sis's victory also temporarily bumped them to No. 1 in the WPRA World Standings, surpassing Kassie Mowry, who guided CP He Will Be Epic to a split of fifth and sixth with Emily Beisel and Ivory On Fire.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Sir Epic, a JL Sirocco out of an Epic Leader, Streakin Six daughter, took second place from very last on the ground, 15th. Katelyn Scott and Justa DTF Frenchman, the third gelding by Aint Seen Nothin Yet to grace the Thomas & Mack, were third from 12th on the ground. Tricia Aldridge and her record-setting Adios Pantalones were fourth.

The Top 15 barrel racers, spearheaded by Julie Plourde, honored Anita Ellis during the round by wearing black, her favorite color.

2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 3

Carlee Otero and AM Regina George found their groove in the third round, turning in a victorious 13.54 running third on the ground. Otero and the fleet-footed daughter of A Smooth Guy pulled barrels leaving the turns in the first two rounds.

Emily Beisel, who switched to 4M Equine's Teasin Dat Guy, finished second. She and "Chewy" were second to last on the ground, running after Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Sir Epic, who fell at the second barrel. Chewy's wrappy, but upright style, came in handy as the mare held her balance in the exact spot where Sir fell to be just .02 behind Otero and "RG."

A third-place effort by CP He Will Be Epic bumped Kassie Mowry back to the top of the WPRA World Standings. Katelyn Scott and Justa DTF Frenchman, owned by her sister Lorissa Merritt, stayed consist, taking yet another fourth-place check.

NFR rookies split fifth and sixth. Megan McLeod-Sprague and Seis Corona, a Dash Ta Fame out of 2012 NFR qualifier Tell Em Belle, and Hayle Gibson-Stillwell and her homebred Buncha Dine-ro, clocked 13.72 to each take home their first ever NFR checks.

Thus far into the aggregate race, Mowry took over the No. 1 spot from Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Haday, who barely pulled the first barrel leaving. Mowry was followed by Scott, Tricia Aldridge, Julie Plourde, who has been running Waterrock RC, and Tonozzi—the remaining field with three clean runs. Kinsel was sixth, followed by Beisel and Sprague, who each had one tip a piece.

2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 4

NFR Rookie and social media favorites Tricia Aldridge and Adios Pantalones, the first Tres Seis to earn NFR money, had their breakthrough victory in Round 4. Running fourth on the ground, they turned in a 13.42, the fastest run of the NFR thus far, to record the fastest run ever made by a stallion in the Thomas & Mack.

They were immediately followed by Hayle Gibson-Stillwell on her palomino Buncha Dinero with a 13.55.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi opted to give the Pete Carr and Morgan Bagnell-owned Sir Epic the night off to recover from his fall in Round 3. She rode former futurity standout JL Roc Lost A Sock "Mo," a Mark Bugni trained JL Sirocco out of Reddy To Rebound, a barrel racing earning Thoroughbred daughter of NFR sire Red.

Tonozzi and Mo were 11th out on the ground and were making their first rodeo run to a new direction to place 3rd. The three-time world champion switched the gelding to the left barrel first just six weeks ago.

Emily Beisel and Teasin Dat Guy remained consistent, placing fourth.

Katelyn Scott and Justa DTF Frenchman placed in their fourth straight round. They're the only team to have placed in every round to this point.

Defending NFR Champion Andrea Busby and her youngster Hanksntheftastlane got their first check of the NFR. The Sarah Rose (McDonald) Waguespack trained gelding, by The Goodbye Lane gelding, is out of Taylor (Jacob) Hanchey's former NFR mount Sissy B Gold.

In the aggregate, first through third got tighter between Mowry, Scott and Aldridge with Plourde, Tonozzi, Beisel, Kinsel, who had switched to BCK Spyder Monkey for the fourth round, and Stillwell following. Only Mowry, Scott, Aldridge, Plourde and Tonozzi have been clean for four runs.

Round 4 was memorial night at the NFR and the barrel racers

2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 5

The barrel racers brought the heat in Round 5 with Carlee Otero and AM Regina George taking their second victory lap of the NFR. Otero and RG clocked a 13.43 from 14th on the ground.

The bottom of the ground proved to be wicked fast as four of the six places came from 11th or better on the dirt.

Tricia Aldridge and Adios Pantalones were second out and led the field with 13.61 until Hailey Kinsel jumped back on DM Sissy Hayday and clocked a 13.56. Two runs later Lisa Lockhart and Blazin Ta Betty (“Sasha”) nipped Kinsel and Sis by .01 to take the lead with a 13.55, only to be outshined by Otero and RG on the very next run, Halyn Lide got her first check of the NFR, splitting second with Lockhart and Sasha. Lide’s great horse Jettin Ta Heaven (“Keeper”) came down with equine herpes myeloencephalitis, the neurologic form of EHV-1, which left him battling for his life at Texas A&M University’s Large Animal Hospital, her husband Aaron’s alma mater.

Although Keeper is now on the mend, Lide was forced to scramble for horses. She made her first run ever on her newest acquisition, Halos Frosted Fame, in the first round. Halo is grandson of former NFR qualifier Nina Moore’s Nita Knight. In Round 2, Lide jumped on Smooth As Rico Suave, an A Smooth Guy gelding, owned by Kappie Bryant. They steadily improved each round and hit paydirt with a gutsy run on the very bottom of the ground after 14 of the best horses in the world.

Lide’s sister-in-law Katelyn Scott and Justa DTF Frenchman picked up yet another check, 6th on the night, but moved to No. 1 in the aggregate with 68.63 on five runs. Scott also graciously loaned Tayla Moeykens, who has struggled without her superstars, one her backups, Heaven Sent Fame (“Kian”). Moeykens and Kian caught the second due to a mere timing fault in their first run together but had a really nice pass to be hopeful for the runs to come. Aldridge and Kassie Mowry, who rode Heavens Got Credit, owned Julie Plourde and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who rode Mo again, rounded out the barrel racers still clean on five runs. They’re followed by Kinsel, Emily Beisel and Megan McLeod Sprague in the aggregate.

2025 NFR Round Recaps - Round 6

The sixth round was the tightest one yet with the field bringing the heat. Just .37 separated the top 13 runs and only one barrel was tipped.

Kassie Mowry became the 2nd barrel racer to win rounds on two different horses at the same NFR with a 13.42 victory on Heavens Got Credit ("Cornbread"). Janet Stover was the first to win rounds on two different horses in 1990. It was Mowry's second competitive run ever on the JL Dash Ta Heaven out of a full sister to Chicados Cash that belongs to Mindy Holloway.

Mowry, who was the sixth gunner of the night, also reclaimed the aggregate lead over Katelyn Scott and Justa DTF Frenchman, who were just .07 from winning their sixth straight round check.

Hayle Gibson-Stillwell and her PC Frenchmans Hayday mare Buncha Dinero were the first gunners through the gate and posted a 13.49 to take an early lead until Mowry's run on Cornbread. Ultimately, Stillwell and "Piper" were third.

Halyn Lide and Smooth As Rico Suave ("Pancakes"), owned by Kappie Bryant, were giving off "Hotshot" vibes with a 13.47 for second in the round.

Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday had another solid run for fourth with Lisa Lockhart and Blazin Ta Betty .01 behind for fifth, Megan McLeod-Sprague and Seis Corona rounded out the top six.

In the aggregate, only four barrel racers remain clean on six runs: Mowry, Scott, Julie Plourde and her horse Wateverock RC, and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who has made her last three runs on JL Roc Lost A Sock ("Mo"). Kinsel, Tricia Aldridge, Emily Beisel and Sprague finish out the money spots in the aggregate, respectively with one hit barrel each.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are easing our way toward Christmas. Well, some of us are, and some, not so much! And it doesn't really matter if we are ready or not, Christmas is coming! It's quite like the coming of our Lord Jesus. Some will be ready, and some will not. Hebrews 9:28 tells us, "To those who eagerly wait for Him, He will appear a second time.."

It's easy to get caught up in the holiday planning, shopping and cooking. So easy, in fact, that we forget why we are doing these things in the first place. It's a celebration!

We celebrate that Jesus was born to take away the sins of the world. . .to take away OUR sin. What a relief! What a blessing!

We give gifts because He is the greatest gift ever given! As we plan the festivities, let's tell someone else about Jesus! Don't take for granted that the people around us know Him. Find out!

The best gift you can give this year, is helping someone come to know Jesus! And it won't cost you anything!
