Kelsey Lutjen & KN Fabs Gift Of Fame Shine at Greg Olson Memorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kelsey Lutjen and KN Fabs Gift Of Fame ("I Lo") have won nearly $40,000 at the Arizona futurities the first three weeks of January. They started off winning $1,308 for the New Year's Bustin Out Futurity Championship. They followed it up with a $6,390 Reserve Championship at the Classic Equine Futurity, by the narrowest of margins—just 1/1000ths of a second.

The bulk of their earnings, an impressive $31,462, came just this past weekend by winning the 15th Annual Greg Olson Memorial Futurity and Slot Race, held Jan. 9-11 in Buckeye, Ariz. They won the first go with an impressive 16.999 and took fourth in the second with a 17.210 for the average victory.

"I was 281 out this weekend and it had gotten fast, an .0 was winning it," explained Lutjen, who hails from Casa Grande, Ariz. "She'd been stepping a half-stride past her first barrel every run. I normally don't run her in spurs, but I put my little nubby spurs on and gave her a little bit bigger arc to the first barrel and that's when she ran the 16.9. The second run, I could only think to keep the barrels up because I knew she would clock if she was smooth." Lutjen, who is sponsored by Usher Brands, RES Boots, Panhandle Slim, Flair Nasal Strips, Formula 1 Noni and Silver Lining Herbs, was able to add $20,000 to her $11,462 by winning the $45,000 Slot

Her friend and client Teri Murphy had encouraged her to enter the Slot Race after doing so well the previous two weekends.

"I knew what I had but that was a lot of money," said Lutjen, who was able to obtain a spot in the Slot Race from Busby Quarter Horses. "I'm just in college and have to pay for my stuff myself. After she had done so good the weekend before, Teri Murphy told me she's won all that money, to reinvest it because she had a feeling that it would all work out. She was right."

Bred by Kenny Nichols, Waco, Texas, J Lo, a 5-year-old Palomino mare, is by Nichols' stallion Frenchmans Fabulous, a leading sire and performer. She is out of Mistys Dash Of Fame, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the great mare Misty Blurr, by Murrtheblurr (TB), making I Lo a full sister to Old Fort Days Futurity Champion KN Fabs Mist Of Fame, owned by Robin Weaver, Mahaffey, Pa and also bred by Kenny Nichols.

Although Lutjen is the papered owner, she partners with Nichols and Dale Barron on the mare.

"Kenny had actually saved her to be a rope horse," said Lutjen. "He ended up sending her to me to run barrels on and we decided to go ahead and futurity on her this year."

A decorated all-around hand, Lutjen started riding I Lo in the fall of the mare's third year.

"I had her cruising through the barrels and then that summer

I sent her up to Idaho with my boyfriend and he rode her on the ranch some," said Lutjen, who credit's Jo Lynn and Patsy Alexander, Sherry Cervi's sister and niece, for stamping her program. "She didn't even see the barrels. I brought her back and finished her out on the barrels this fall. She made really fast. She's just really smart." Lutjen had always wanted to ride a Frenchmans Fabulous ("Fab"), and she first got the opportunity to ride the stallion himself when Nichols had sent the horse to Arizona for his father, Nick.

"I went to go rope with Nick and he asked if I wanted to head a few steers on Fab," she said. "After that, I just had to take him around the barrels. We had a video of it and sent it to Kenny." The next thing she knew, Lutjen had Fab to ride at her high school rodeos. She used the stallion in heading, breakaway roping, and barrel racing. Started tying goats off the stallion after her friend Jordan Bassett suggested it.

"I was thinking with him being a stud that it wasn't probably wasn't an ideal thing," she said. "I won the National High School Finals in the goat tying with him in 2012."

Fab also earned National Reserve High School Rodeo Girl's AQHA Horse of the Year honors and Arizona High School Rodeo Girl's AQHA Horse of the Year.

Since then, Lutjen's gone on to win with several of Fab's off-spring. She won the Amateur Futurity in 2012 with KN Fabulous N Khaki, and she won the second round of the goat tying at the College National Finals Rodeo off of KN Fabulous Chit Chat, who also serves as Kelsey's head horse and is a barrel horse for Lutjen's mother Lisa.

Lutjen, a sophomore ag business major at Central Arizona College in Casa Grande, hopes to go to the bigger futurities and finish out the futurity year with J Lo.

"I've just gone to the Arizona futurities before because they're close," she said. "I'm going to Diamonds & Dirt. I'd really love to go Washington in April. I'd like to start taking her to some rodeos this summer. She's got a great mind, but she's very cocky. She knows when she's done good."

Finishing out her training in the roping arena is also on the agenda.

"I've heeled on her a little bit, but eventually I'd love her to be a head horse," she said. "But, I don't want to do that until her futurity year is over. I think the roping has made a big difference with her. Kenny's always after me to rope on them."

Lutjen is eternally grateful to Nichols and Barron for entrusting her with J Lo.

"Kenny and Dale have been awesome," she said. "They've been 100 percent supportive. They've been really good to me. I don't have the money to pay $20,000 for babies that aren't even broke. Without them it wouldn't be possible. They've trusted me with their horses. Kenny's trusted me with his stud. They've definitely been there for me and made sure I was on the nicest horses possible."

Anzick and Horse of Year Dominate Montana Finals

By Julie Mankin

Shelly Anzick has been relatively quiet on the national scene since she made the 2006 NFR aboard Harney's Last Look ("Buster" was just 13 when he died in 2009). But her latest big bay gelding could very well be the fastest rodeo horse on the road today.

Scooten Ta Fame, coming 9 this year, is actually owned by Carl Conroy, DVM, who stood him in Washington at stallion until 2012, and Tommy and Shirley Martin of Oregon. Now they have babies and semen straws by a gelding that is surely NFR-bound in 2014 – barring any unforeseen circumstances.

"Scooter," who was campaigned as a 5-year-old by Brenda Mays, first turned heads at Cheyenne Frontier Days when he laid down a 17.3 but barely caught a barrel – in a performance of 17.8s and 17.9s. In 2014, he set a new arena record with a blistering 16.7 at Copper Springs Ranch over the first week of January. His next performance would be in the 12-second pattern at the RAM Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo in Great Falls, Jan. 10-12.

This marked Anzick's 11th time to run at the Circuit Finals, which she last won in 2006. This time, Anzick and Scooter won the first round over fellow former NFR qualifier Shelley Murphy by a ridiculous four-tenths of a second. Then they won the second round by three-tenths. Anzick played it very safe in round three and still placed third to win the average by a whopping eight-tenths.

"A lot of random people at the Circuit Finals were like, Wow, that horse is something else to watch!" she said. "They used to say that about Buster, too."

In addition to fast-time awards, Scooter won Montana Circuit Horse of the Year and deservedly so. Anzick earned $6,624 in addition to two saddles, two buckles and a host of other prizes. Her great weekend pushed her into first in the year-end standings, as well, with $19,599. Anzick will return to try to repeat her National Circuit Finals Rodeo championship from 2005.

In the meantime, watch for her at the winter rodeos, which Scooter qualified for with a top-50 finish in 2013. His style may remind fans of Mary Walker's great Latte, although Scooter runs to the left barrel first.

"I just played around with him last year in the circuit," said Anzick, who with her husband, Bud, owns a construction company

Connecticut Native Wins Title at First Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

Nicole (Crotta) Yost is married to pro-caliber header Justin Yost, but she had her own rodeo background even before their wedding six years ago.

The 28-year-old cowgirl grew up in Bethany, Conn., where her father and his father before him all competed in rodeo. With no high school rodeo program there, she traveled to rodeos in Pennsylvania. And she's still doing that.

At the RAM First Frontier Circuit Finals on Jan. 9-11 in Harrisburg, Penn., Yost placed in all three rounds to sweep the average title by a couple of tenths of a second over Jennifer Oberg. She hauled $4,069 – plus a saddle, two trophy buckles, a headstall and breastcollar – back to Mount Morris, Penn., where she lives with Justin and her two dogs.

The Yosts had lived in Texas from 2007 through 2012 while Justin pursued a career in pro rodeo. Last March, however, they moved back to Pennsylvania so Justin could work in the family drilling business, Yost Gas and Oil.

But while he was rodeoing in Texas, his wife figured she might as well find a horse to season, as well.

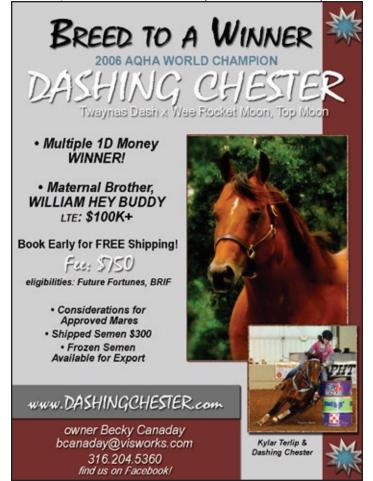

"I had a horse but wasn't getting along with him," Yost said. "Mi-and has two children, Kahley and Dylan. "He's a fabulous horse. Last year he hadn't been to any of those places, but he's getting pretty confident now."

Scooter is, of course, by Dash Ta Fame, and he's out of The Buzz Machine. She is by Kipadeucy – a grandson of Rocket Wrangler with a smidgeon of Depth Charge on the bottom side – and out of CCS Buzzndella. Both sides of The Buzz Machine's papers are heavily loaded with double and triple Three Bars and Top Deck blood. Incidentally, Scooter's three-quarters sister, Easy Kipa Dash, set a record at the 2010 DNCFR under NFR qualifier Sue Smith.

Many might wonder why such a fabulous athlete as Scooter was gelded, but Anzick assures us the owners know what they're doing.

"They handed me the halter and I've treated him like he's mine ever since the fall of 2012," she said. "We've qualified for the American. We have a lot going on."

Anzick and Scooter are scheduled to run in Denver on Thursday, and will make the whole winter circuit from Fort Worth through Houston.

"He's absolutely a dream," Anzick said. "He's just a dream."

chelle Hicks just threw me on Peso and I kicked butt. I had to have him."

They bought Red Hot Peso in 2009 when he was just 4, and Yost finished him. He's huge. At 1,300 pounds and 16.3 hands, it's a wonder he can turn so much like small horse, but he's as smooth as a Cadillac, Yost said. He is by Red Hot Pursuit – a son of On The Money Red out of a Rebel Cause/Tiny Charger mare.

And Peso is out of a mare named Indian Passion, Yost said. Indian Passion is a three-quarter thoroughbred Paint mare by Cherokee Arrow – a full brother to Hempen. On the bottom, she's out of her own half-sister by Cherokee Arrow, out of a Tonto Bars Hank daughter.

"He's finally coming into himself now," Yost said of 11-year-old Peso. "I can get on him now and not worry about anything. I just have to ride."

Yost hadn't entered the rodeo in the lead for the year-end championship, but when Taylor Young didn't have the Finals she had hoped, Yost scooted past her.

"I just wanted to really win the average and guarantee myself a spot in Oklahoma City," said Yost. "But with me winning both the average and year-end, I was able to pull Taylor in with me, anyway." Yost earned $13,214 this season at 28 rodeos and the Finals. The drives throughout the season aren't bad, she said, as the First Frontier Circuit tries to host more than one rodeo per weekend in a location.

She and Justin took off for Ocala, Fla., just after the Circuit Finals to hit the good winter rodeos in Florida, with Justin going back to heeling for his old high-school partner. Peso originally came from Florida, so recently Yost went down and purchased a yearling that's a full brother to him.

"I'm pretty pumped for Oklahoma City," she said. "When Justin was rodeoing I was able to run against most of those girls in Texas, and was able to peck away at them consistently. As long as Peso is on his game, I'm confident."

by Mike Morrison Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

y horses are just expensive lawn ornaments!"
That's what a man said recently about the half dozen horses he kept in a lot along the lane leading up to his house. The horses were well bred and the man took good care of them. He hired someone to trim their hoofs and to keep their vaccinations current. He made sure thy had mineral and good feed

The man had thought he would get his kids interested in riding and had spent a small fortune in tack for them but he had waited too long. His kids were all in high school and college and had developed other interests. Still, he kept the horses as a status symbol.

Do you know any Christians like that?" Their religion is all show. They dress up and go to a church on Sunday and make sure everyone knows it, too. It looks good on paper to show that they belong to a church and perhaps serve on a board. But, do they have a personal relationship with Jesus? Have they made Him their Lord and Savior? Do they spend any time reading His Word in the Bible?

How much time do they spend praying and talking to God?

Remember the Bible tells us repeatedly to pray about everything and if we ask, we shall receive. The Bible is full of exciting promises to help us live the abundant life Jesus died to give you. And, don't forget to thank and praise the Lord for the wonderful things he has done for us.

Don't let your faith become a "show piece" like that man's horses. Use your faith to live a peaceful and contented life which can be even better than you can think or imagine. Psalm 46 says, "God is our shelter and strength, always read to help in times of trouble." Make Him your best friend!

ike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
