Great Barrel Racer - Great Woman

A great barrel racer, mother, grandmother and friend, Julie Swanson, lost her battle with leukemia on January 16, 2012. Julie was a big asset to the barrel racing community and to her family.

Among Julie's accolades include Canadian Finals Barrel Racer & 1966 Calgary Stampede Champion.

Julie played a big part in daughter Molly Powell's barrel racing career helping her train and season many horses over the years.

"...now she is on to greener pastures, and I know that she has already found some awesome horse to ride, and I only hope that she kicks their butt up there! It's her turn." said Powell according to Molly Powell's Facebook page.

We are truly sorry for the Swanson and Powell family's loss and will continue to pray for them during this difficult time.

AQHA Announces New Novice Championships

AQHA announces classes to be held at the inaugural Novice championships and state qualifying methods for the event.

AQHA recently announced the classes that will be offered at the inaugural AQHA national Novice championship shows, which will be held October 5-7 in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and Las Vegas. Also, state qualifying methods for the Novice championships have been determined.

Novice amateur and Novice youth competitors may qualify for the Novice championships in the following classes: Halter: yearling, 2-year-old, 3-year-old, aged and performance halter geldings and mares; Showmanship; Horsemanship; Hunt seat equitation; Western pleasure; Hunter under saddle; Trail; Western riding Reining; Barrel racing; Pole bending; Stake race.

Several opportunities exist for Novice competitors to qualify for the Novice Championship Show Weekend.

AQHA initially announced that two national invitation opportunities exist for competitors. Those include a top-10 placing at an AQHA regional championship show in one of the above-listed Novice classes or to show at 20 AQHA shows throughout the year throughout the national qualifying period of May 1, 2011, to June 30, 2012.

In addition, a competitor may qualify through his or her state/province for the Novice championships.

The AQHA Affiliate Council has helped coordinate with the state and provincial affiliates to determine the method of state/provincial qualifying. Methods of state/provincial qualifying will vary by affiliate – if you are interested in state/provincial qualifying for a 2012 Novice championship show, refer to your affiliate's qualification rules at www.aqha.com/showing.

The AQHA Show Council says there will be no restriction on which Novice championship show an exhibitor may attend. If a competitor residing in the East wishes to attend the AQHA Western Novice Championship Show, he or she may do so. The same goes for competitors residing in the West who would like to compete at the Eastern Novice championship. However, a competitor may only compete at one Novice championship show per year.

For more information on the Novice championships, visit www.aqha.com/showing.

Million Dollar Tour Set for 2012

The schedule for the 2012 Wrangler Million Dollar Tour presented by Justin Boots includes nine Gold stops and 10 Silver events that will attract the top contestants in ProRodeo.

The Tour officially kicked off last year with the American Royal Rodeo in Kansas City, Mo., in late October (which counts in the 2012 world standings), and resumes Feb. 9-26 with the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, a seven-time winner of the PRCA's Large Indoor Rodeo Committee of the Year award. After another Gold stop in Austin in March, the Silver Tour takes over for April and May as cowboys make their traditional spring runs through California.

The Reno (Nev.) Rodeo – the unofficial kick-off for the busy summer run – gets the Gold Tour back in action in late June with stops to follow in Cody, Wyo., and St. Paul, Ore. Later in July, California Rodeo Salinas and Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days take center stage. The Gold Tour wraps up in Ellensburg, Wash., over Labor Day weekend.

All 19 rodeos on this year's schedule were part of the Tour in 2011, as well. One major change this season is the way in which ProRodeo cowboys qualify for the Justin Boots Playoffs and Justin Boots Championships at the end of the 2012 regular season. The PRCA World Standings will determine the field for both the Playoffs and the Championships, while Tour standings will be used to determine cash bonuses which will be paid to the top six contestants in each event. As always, money won at Tour rodeos will count in both the world standings and the Tour standings.

ADDITIONAL HORSE

CARE: Charm is on a strict Adequan and Legend schedule and we use the Back On Track products. We use their ceramic leg wraps. We also use the Equinix Photonic Torch and the Equi-sports Massager. We use PLR racing plates on the front and she is barefoot on the back. Soft Ride boots on all fours when hauling.

PERSONAL HISTORY:

I'm 18 years old and currently a freshman on a full ride rodeo scholarship at Odessa College, Odessa, Tx for barrel racing. I am taking 17 hours of online courses so that I can keep rodeoing while going to school. I am sitting 4th in the Southwest Region right now. I have been barrel racing my entire life. Both my parents are barrel horse trainers (Dad, Kelly Conrado and Mom, Cody Denton). I am new to the prorodeos but barrel racing it not new to at all. I grew up going to the futurities with my parents. I won the Colorado Junior Rodeo Association in 2008, my sister and I went Colorado Pro Rodeo Association (CPRA) rodeos and won the year end championship in 2009 when I was 15 or 16 and had an 8k lead most of the year and my sister (Ivy) of won second. I also won the BFA Junior World Championship in 2010.

PLANS FOR 2012? We are going to try to make it to the NFR this year, that's what the owners want so that's what we are going to try to do. I was originally entered in Houston but got drawn out so now I will try to be the high money earner at San Angelo so I can get back into Houston. I will go to all the winter rodeos I can get into. As long as we are winning we are going to keep on going.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING ROUTINE DURING THE WEEK: I always give Licorice a day off after the weekend then just long trot and lope her during the week. I don't work her much but if I do I just do slow work to help her relax.

WARM-UP BEFORE RACE: I long trot and lope her to warm her up.

WHAT IS YOUR HORSE'S GREATEST STRENGTH? Her heart! Licorice is all heart and she tries her hardest every time she goes in the arena.

BIGGEST WEAKNESS? Her manners!

IF ONE WEEKEND YOU COULD TRAVEL WITH ANYONE IN HISTORY (LIVING OR DEAD) WHO WOULD IT BE AND WHY? I would love to travel with my Grandpa and Grandma for a weekend. My grandpa watched me ride and train Licorice. In November of 2006 my grandparents were killed in a car wreck. Licorice's career started in the spring of 2007 when I ran her at the futurities. They never got to see her run and I just know they would have both been so proud of the way that she turned out.

WHO HAS BEEN THE BIGGEST INFLUENCE IN YOUR RODEO CAREER? My parents were my biggest influence they gave me the important foundation. My dad taught me horsemanship, which is the backbone of everything I do in barrel racing. There is so much more to HORSE HISTORY: She came of the track as a 2 year old out of Texas. This big guy (6'4") was holding her and she was bucking at the end of the lead line and I bought here because I got a kick out of her. She just had something that caught my eye. I bought my other gelding (Shock Blocker (by Reckless Dash) there at the same time. They came from Bradford Farms in Texas. We didn't take her off the trailer all the way from Texas until we got to Pennsylvania because we didn't know if we would get her back on the trailer. I just took my time on her and she just is an awesome mare. I just had to wait for her to grow up a little, she is the sweetest mare. If she hits a barrel it would be only because she fell down. When people tell me I did good somewhere, I just tell them I held on good! She loves cows as well. I don't practice barrels on her, I just chase cows on her to keep her in shape.

BIT: Hodges Futurity Bit, two piece

HEADGEAR: Leather tiedown, I think it helps on rodeo ground

SADDLE: Caldwell Barrel Saddle

PAD: Wade Barrel Pad

LEG GEAR: Legacy Boots by Classic Equine bell boots and splints and polo wraps on back with rundown patches underneath them

GRAIN: Feed store here does a special mix of sweet feed and a pellet

SUPPLEMENTS: Lubrisyn

HAY: Alfalfa and grass/alfalfa mix

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: I have a very good blacksmith that shoes them, but nothing out of the ordinary.

WHAT ARE SOME OF THE CHALLENGES OF RODEOING IN THE EAST?
To try to rodeo back here you have to adapt to the rodeos. In other areas the rodeo grounds are bigger setups that are usually similar. Back here you have to have a horse that can adjust to different setups. For example, they may put the barrel pattern on a little racetrack at a fair and the next day you might be on a big pattern. This year I won a rodeo with a 12.8 second run! Another example you could run the Painted Pony rodeo on a 14 second pattern on normal ground on Friday night and then run at Cowtown, NJ the next night on a 18 second patter in deep, sandy ground. I would say it is probably a similar amount of traveling than it would be in the other circuits but just probably a wider variety of conditions to run in. I have a full time job too,so I pretty much go from sun up until sun down between work, riding and rodeos. You get out of it what you

Bull's-eye for Coelho's Fairlea Lucky Gun at Greg Olson

By Tanya Randall

The reined cowhorse-bred, 4-year-old gelding Fairlea Lucky Gun ("Jerry") was right on target at the 13th Annual Greg Olson Memorial Futurity, held Jan. 12-14 at Buckeye, Ariz. Owned by Kim Coelho of Turlock, Calif., and ridden by Mary Jo Camera of Oakdale, Calif., Jerry turned in the fastest time of the futurity en route to the average win and $9,339 in total earnings.

"I knew I had a nice horse, but I was just going to be happy getting our entries back," said Camera. "I'm just dumbfounded." Jerry currently leads the Arizona Triple Crown Futurity standings, having taken reserve championship honors at BRN4D's Classic Equine Futurity with runs of 17.5 and 17.4 the prior weekend. The Triple Crown concludes this weekend with the Pac West Futurity. Now knowing that she had a more than capable mount, Camera was more nervous for the second futurity. On their first run, they turned in a 17.379, which placed third to Haley Wolfe's winning run of 17.200 on Mia Fabulous Fame.

"I had watched my video and I felt like I was over kicking him coming home," said Camera. "I taught him to run when I smooched to him. On my next run, I still helped him to his first. I lost my left stirrup around the second barrel. I told myself not to worry, to keep riding because I could stay in the middle of him. I leaned down and kissed to him on the way home."

Jerry cut the clock of in 17.043.

"I didn't even touch his reins around the barrels," she said. "That run was just amazing. It STILL IS amazing! For him to keep getting faster was just amazing."

Coelho and Camera work together at the Turlock Livestock Auction Yard. Coelho purchased Jerry as a yearling to use as a work-horse at the sale.

"I take a lot of colts there too," said Camera, who competed mainly in team penning until six years ago. "They see a lot and they have to be patient."

When Jerry was 3, Coelho decided she wanted to try barrel racing. Camera was giving her pointers in Jerry's training until Coelho handed her his reins at the end of July last year.

"He just likes the game," said Camera of Jerry. "I rode him out a lot. I took him to ranch sortings and team pennings. I try not to punish them too much (on the pattern). They've got to want to do it."

The sorrel gelding is by Silver Gun, a son of Playgun, out of Jills

Solitaire, by Lenas Jewel Bars. He traces to Jewels Leo Bar three times, twice through his sire and once through his dam.

Jewels Leo Bar, who ran AA on the track and earned his Certificate of Ability with the National Cutting Horse Association, may be better known among Western performance horse circles, but his bloodlines are revered in the barrel racing industry. He is by Sugar Bars and out of a daughter of Leo just like the great Flit Bar. Ironically, Jerry also traces to the great mare Flit through her son King's Pistol.

The 15-hand cowpony with "a lot room to grow" has Coelho and Camera making big plans for the future.

"We're in disbelief right now," said Camera. "We might go to Texas in March (to the Diamonds and Dirt Classic in Bryan, Texas). I think we have the talent to go there."

PERFORMANCE HORSES

McCaffery and Patricia Setting Records

CC5D - Lone Star Arena
January 13-15, 2012, Stephenville, TX

Open

1D 1 Miss Patricia, Ceri McCaffery, 14.862, $1,792
2 Miss Patricia, Ceri McCaffery, 14.915, $1,567

THE RUNDOWN: CERI MCCAFFERY

HORSE: Miss Patricia N "Patricia"

Sorrel Mare, 12 Years Old, 15.2 hands

HORSE HISTORY: We bought her at the Heritage Place sale 6-7 years ago. As we were walking out we saw her and like her so we went back in and bought her. I didn't start her on the barrels for the first year and a half that we had her because I just didn't like her that much. She just got used as a ranch horse, she drug calves to the fire and did other ranch work. We got to the point where we needed to either sell her as a ranch horse or start her on barrels, so we started her on barrels and she just went to winning. Now I wouldn't sell her for anything. She just tries really hard and never hits barrels. We qualified to the National High School Finals Rodeo all four years of high school, we won it in on her in 2008, in 2009 & 2010 won a round in each of those years, this year (2011), we were 2nd in the Short Go and 3rd in the Average. In 2010, I won second in the barrels on her at the IFYR in Shawnee, OK.

BIT: Reinsman Sharon Camarillo Tender Touch

HEADGEAR: Very loose tiedown

SADDLE: Triple Creek Saddlery Barrel Saddle

PAD: Professional's Choice SMX Air Ride

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice

GRAIN: Ultium and Omolene 200

SUPPLEMENTS: Lubrisyn, Woody's Dominator/C

HAY: Alfalfa

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: I use a Game Ready and my shoes are handmade but they are similar to rims on all four feet.

WHAT WAS IT LIKE TO SET AN ARENA RECORD: It was awesome, this is my rookie year to Prorodeo and I have been waiting for this year forever. It is just really rewarding that I trained her and she is running with the greatest horses around. It is exciting that she is running that good and I am heading to prorodeos. I placed 4th in Mesquite and then hit a barrel at Odessa, but got into Ft Worth so I am looking forward to that.

It was my first time to go to Lone Star. Saturday night I late entered and that is when we ran a 14.915, that was the fourth fastest time ever ran there and then Sunday she ran the arena record (14.862), we ran about tenth from the end of the race. She really took to the arena. It is a pretty good run to the first and a good open arena and she likes the bigger, more open pens but I don't know really, she just really worked good.

RIDER/OWNER: STASSI PYNE; BREEDER: DAVID DALTON

THE RUNDOWN: STASSI PYNE

HORSE: Super De George "Georgy"

Black Gelding, 8 Years Old, 15.1 hands, 1100 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I have had him since he was 2 years old on the track. He wasn't great on the track (he only earned a speed index of 68). It was funny because I saw him right after he was born and told the lady that raised him that he was my next barrel horse, but she wanted to take him to the racetrack.

When I started him everyone told me he was too lazy and laid back to be a barrel horse. He is quiet and laid back but he loves barrels and does it well. This is his second year to qualify to the IFR. Part of the time I ride my other horse, Hey Bill, and he helped me qualify to the IFR. Super De George DHD has lifetime earnings probably so

BIT: Reinsman Junior Cowhorse Twisted Dog Bone Snaffle

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Bob Marshall Treeless Barrel Saddle

PAD: Reinsman pad with Foam insert, round

LEG GEAR: Polo Wraps on all four feet, they have to have the perfect amount of stretch for me. Polo wraps stay flexible in all different weather conditions which is why I like using them.

GRAIN: Purina Omolene 500

SUPPLEMENTS: Fastrack Probiotics, Acti-Flex 4000

HAY: Grass/Alfalfa mix

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: In the summer I use the Magnetic blankets (fly sheet) and in the winter I use the Back On Track blanket. I also use the Back On Track Ceramic Quick Wrap boots. I use a Back On Track Cooler to warm up my horse's muscle before I run. I leave it on him all the time before rodeos. I also use the neck wraps. He has them pretty much head to toe. My husband does special shoeing for my horse, he puts aluminum race plates on front with Equi-Pak (because he is a little tender in the front) and just aluminum rims on the back feet.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As we begin 2012, a new year full of resolutions for some, fresh hope for most, we also leave behind a year that can never be brought back except in memory.

To some it's a relief to be finished and to others there is a feeling of unfinished business, unresolved situations and unaccomplished goals. We want to learn from our past but we don't want to dwell on the past. Philippians 3:13 says, "But one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead."

Each new day is an opportunity to see God's promises manifested in our lives. Jesus promised us in John 10:10 that He came to give us an "abundant" life that is full till it's over-flowing if we only believe in Him. We might not have experienced that kind of life yesterday but it is waiting today for all those who believe the truth of God's Word and receive it.

Scripture tells us not to look at our present condition but to do what Hebrews 12:1-2 says, "...let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith." Stay connected to Jesus and when we focus on Him we can lay aside the things of this natural world that bogs us down. Through Jesus, God gave us whatever we need to accomplish His purpose for us. What God ordains, He sustains. Where God guides, He provides. Where He leads, He feeds. God has a plan for each of our lives and we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us! (Philippians 4:13)

So face this new year full of God's Word and high expectations. Pray often and remember to thank and praise the Lord from whom all blessings flow! Romans 8:31 says that if God be for us who can be against us? We have nothing to fear in 2012!
