Mark Bugni & Five L Rockin Heaven Pocket $38,334 at Golden Buckle in Waco

By Tanya Randall

Fresh off a historic 11-win futurity season with JL Roc Lost A Sock, Mark Bugni is back in the winner's circle with Five L Rockin Heaven ("Solo"), owned by Jeff Varner. Bugni and Solo collected $38,334 at the Golden Buckle, held January 12-15 in Waco, Texas.

They topped the $35,000-added Futurity for $15,456, won the best of two run slot race for $14,000 and picked up $8,878 in Breeders Challenge bonus money.

"Really, my goal with him was to be more aggressive and be with him and leave the barrels up," said Bugni. "It's hard to win something if you don't leave them all up."

Bred by Peggy Long at Five L Farm, Solo is by JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Darkelly mare Cfour Darkpatchpatsy, an earner of more than $109,000 in the arena. Bugni started riding the gelding last year for Varner.

"I've actually had him a little while," Bugni said. "He was actually started by Shian Blackburn, who rides for Jolene Montgomery. She did an excellent job. He was one of the most broke horses that I've ever had. When I got him, he was so easy. I just started following behind her pattern and doing my thing. I had a really good horse last year, so my focus was on him, so these colts had to do a little on their own. He just came along so easily and so naturally. He was very little work, honestly.'

Solo made his competitive debut at the BFA in November but tipped barrels kept him out of the money. He placed in the first round of the OKC Rookie Futurity but tipped again in the second. His third futurity, the Lone Star Shootout the weekend prior to the Golden Buckle, he placed in the first round again, only to tip in the second.

"I've struck a little bad luck with tipping barrel because he is so ratey and turny," Bugni said. "So, at every futurity up to this point, I've tipped a barrel in one or each round to do really well."

While equally as talented as his great horse "Mighty Mo" last year, Solo is completely different to ride, leaving Bugni to make

"Mighty Mo is severely honest," Bugni said. "I can sit up and go to my horn three strides before a barrel and he's still going to go to his spot. He really made it easy on me when I wasn't on my game or didn't have my timing perfect. This horse has so much rate and so much turn that you've got to drive him up into the turn. He's not impossible to get around the turn, but it's been a while since I've had to ride one like that."

With clean runs in mind, Bugni turned in a 15.952 to take third in the first round in Waco and followed it up with a second-place 15.919 on their next run to win the aggregate.

"I really needed this for my confidence to know that he is going to go in that second round and work clean and correct as he does in the first round," said Bugni. Today (Saturday) he showed me that. I feel like now the program is to ride him up deep in the hole and let him turn his barrels. I don't feel like I have to do so much or think so much."

Bugni said at the first barrel, he'll sit down two strides before the turn and let Solo work. At the second and third barrel, he

"He's more aggressive physically than a lot of horses that I've ridden in the past," he said. "I find myself having to be a little more involved with the run. It's taken me a little bit to get there, but we're finally starting to click."

Bugni was tickled to get the first win at a Golden Buckle race on American soil.

"I love it," Bugni said. "It's fun to have more of an international theme. Great ground, great production. I really enjoy the production a lot. It feels like a really important, cool win to get that first win for the Golden Buckle."

About the Golden Buckle

The event originated in Italy and was held last October in Malta. Along with the futurity, derby and open race, the event hosted the Golden Buckle Cup, a team competition between riders from Europe and the USA.

Team Europe was composed of riders who did well at the Malta Golden Buckle. Team USA was determined by the eight fastest times from the first rounds of the futurity, derby and open at Waco's event. Those lucky contestants also won an all expenses paid trip to represent the USA again in Malta this October.

The fastest runners in the first round were Ashley Schafer, Halyn Lide, Kelly Sparks, Stephanie Fryar, Wenda Johnson, Merrick Mowyer, Sharin Hall and Latricia Mundorf. Tyler Rivette and Pete Oen, who had previously competed in Malta, ran in place of Hall and Mundorf in the Gold Buckle Cup at Waco so the two ladies could make it to Uvalde, Texas, where they both advanced in the upcoming San Antonio Rodeo.

Abigail Knight & Mable Draws A Pistol Hit Bullseye at Montana Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Abigail Knight of Charlo, Montana, and her homebred gelding Mable Draws A Pistol swept the titles at the Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo (MCFR), held January 12-14 in the Four Seasons Arena at Great Falls.

Knight went into the MCFR with a $5,400 lead over defending MCFR Champion Brittany Sporer and practically dominated the rodeo, pocketing $9,150 for their efforts. She won the year-end title with $30.684.

Having attended Providence University in Great Falls, Knight was well acquainted with the Four Seasons Arena. She was second in aggregate to Sporer last year in her first circuit finals appearance. "It's crooked and a little wonky," she said of the arena. "If you go to the right or left barrel first there are downfalls. At least if you go to the right barrel first you can see. The left barrel is completely blind. It's really important to be dialed in on that first barrel because if your pivot point is off at all, you come right back on top of that barrel then you have to run back up the pen for the second." She and Pistol won the first two rounds with times of 13.02 and 12.91.

"He will never run by a barrel," Knight said of her 10-year-old gelding. "Sometimes he'll get a little tight. I got lucky and he fired just the way I needed him too."

They were fourth in the last round with a 13.02.

"My mindset going into a last run like that is just to go make the same run," she said. "When you start overthinking, start to safety up or add padding, that's when things go wrong and you quit riding the way you normally do. I thought just go make the same run, if you win go-round money-great-but I knew I had a little padding on that average. He still went in and made a run."

Pistol, by Instant Income out of Tinka Rocket Command, by Brown King Command, was raised by the Knight family. His mother was her father's rope horse.

"We still has his mom," said Knight. "She's 36 and still going strong. He's the first horse I fully trained by myself. I've been with him since Day 1. He's been easy from the get-go. He wants to work and has been as honest as they come. I've been pretty lucky."

Knight didn't hit the pro rodeo trail with Pistol until last year when they "really started clicking."

"I'm realizing now I need to start venturing out and using my horsepower because he's exceptional," said Knight. Former Montana Circuit Champion Lindsay Kruse thought so highly of the horse that she borrowed Pistol for the 2021 Calgary Stampede. "I think the next pro rodeo I'll hit is Rapid City, South Dakota. It's been a whirlwind of a weekend. I had to go back to my job today. I've got to sit down and do some bookkeeping and really think about what this year's goals are going to be. I know I have to venture out and hit those Washington and Idaho rodeos. Do more with the horsepower that I've got."

Knight, who has a degree in biology, works in an agricultural lab where she's a tissue collection technician.

"We clone plants," she said. "It's a perfect job because I don't have to work in the summer. My boss is great and knows my love of rodeo, so it works."

She's looking forward to competing at the NFR Open in Colo-

Christina Mulford & PanamasCharlieHarly Clean Sweep Another First Frontier

By Tanya Randall

Christina Mulford and the ageless wonder PanamasCharlieHarly made a clean sweep in the First Frontier. For the second straight year the Franklinville, New Jersey, barrel racer and her 23-year-old steed swept every round of the First Frontier Circuit Finals Rodeo, held January 12-14 in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and took the year-end title.

"He's such a cool dude," Mulford said of the gelding, owned by Joe Merola and his late wife Judy. "He's a lot of fun. He's spoiled me in so many ways."

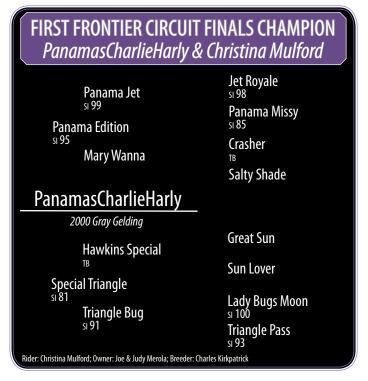

Mulford and Harly more than doubled their season's earnings of $8,456 with a $9,572 circuit finals championship.

They typically rule at the Cowtown Rodeo in Woodstown, New Jersey, just 35 miles from their home, but this year the duo got off to a slow start to the season.

"We kind of had a bad year this year," Mulford said. "We did do Cowtown all season, but we didn't start placing until August. We might have won one Cowtown. What helped us this year was Gerry (New York). This year they counted it as four separate rodeos, where it's been one in the past. That made a difference for us. He won three out of four there."

Earlier in the year, Harly came home from the American Semifinals with a bug that left him hospitalized for a few days. Although they barely missed making the second round at the Semifinals, the trip was more than eventful for the pair.

"Before our first run in the Semifinals I thought he was stolen, so obviously my mindset wasn't there," she said. Mulford had stepped into her living quarters for a few minutes only to find

Harley's lead rope missing a halter and a horse. "The snap wasn't broken. There wasn't a sign of a struggle. I panicked!"

Luckily she found out he was tied to someone else's trailer. "I don't know what happened or how it occurred," she said. "He never left my sight after that. He actually had two halters on him at that point. I put a rope halter on him too so there wasn't a snap. If he went in the trailer, I put a combination lock on it. It was a crazy experience. He got to come home with me so I feel like I won it anyway at that point!"

Mulford and Harly have been a team since late 2016.

"The very first time I ran him at Cowtown in 2016 we came around the first barrel high and went straight across to the left side of the second barrel and he didn't even want to go around it," recalled Mulford. "So, we went back to the drawing board. It was the end of the season and I just went to a couple little jackpots. It took us a little while in the beginning of '17. He was making clean runs but they weren't as fast as he's capable of. We've just gone on from there."

The gray gelding, by noted East Coast barrel horse sire Panama Edition out of Special Triangle, by Hawkin's Special (TB), had already been to the First Frontier Circuit Finals with the Merola's granddaughter Amanda Lloyd and Lorraine Bytheway before taking Mulford to six straight qualifications.

"It's just crazy how our paths crossed," Mulford continued. "I had a yellow horse that I was always a tenth or two out of placing everywhere. I asked Judy to help me. Maybe she could see something that I was missing. I went over there for a few weeks. She and Joe said, Why don't you hop on the gray? He's just out in the field doing nothing."

They've won the finals and year-end titles four times—2017,

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I think he enjoys being ridden, even if it's just to go on a trail ride or push the cows around. I don't think he likes to sit around."

SPECIAL THANKS: "Harly's owner Joe Merola, my parents Amy and Sandy Jess and my boyfriend Brian Frattaroli. They're always there for me. "Joe's is at every single Cowtown. He might not watch the whole rodeo, but he'll watch his horse run. I think this horse helps keep him going. Brian and I went over there yesterday to show him the buckles and stuff. I think he enjoys still being a part of it. For him and Judy, that was their whole life."

2020, 2021 and 2022. They were the year-end champions in 2018. "Everything he's accomplished is just amazing," Mulford said.

Manning Makes Moves at Greg Olson Memorial Futurity

By Hope Raley

After watching fellow Canadian barrel racer and personal idol, Rayel Little, win the Greg Olson Memorial years ago, Taylor Manning had a dream of someday running at the same futurity and winning it herself. After the curtain had dropped on this year's event, Taylor had gotten her wish. She and her 2023 futurity colt, A French Nick, by As Good As Nick Gets were crowned the 2023 Greg Olson Memorial Futurity Champions.

Taylor has had a thing for the Nick (As Good As Nick Gets) colts for years, her first trip to the Canadian Finals Rodeo aboard another Nick kid- Good Little Nick. After Good Little Nick, Taylor was hooked. Winning the Greg Olson on another As Good As Nick Gets baby is just icing on the cake, described Taylor.

A French Nick, also known as Ozona, is described by Taylor as a 'team player' who has some quirky tendencies at times.

"Ozona can get in his head, its either his way or no way, so with him I have had to learn a lot of patience," said Taylor. "Lots of sitting on him and riding it out. He loves people and wants to please." Taylor had run at the MVP Futurity the weekend before and although the duo had done particularly well, Taylor went home this past week and did her homework.

"I spent time with Rayel (Little) and we worked on a few things together more than anything, just sitting and taking that extra time to get him to relax and softer thru his body."

After the first round of the Greg Olson, where Taylor and Ozona won the round with a time of 17.025, Taylor headed back home and rode the gelding again.

"Rayel had said when we worked him the past week, that for every fast run, ten slow runs, so that's what I did. I got home, saddled him and walked and trotted the pattern to try and prepare him as best as I could for the following day."

After a second round run of 17.242-seconds which landed them fourth in the round and first in the average, Taylor would be the first to say that she was shocked that Ozona was going to work as well as he did at these past futurities.

"With young horses, I always try to remember it can either go good or bad," Taylor said. "But the most important thing to do is to віт: I work him in a long shank Carol Goostree to get him soft and I run him in a twisted snaffle mouth w/ long shank by Dave Elliott.

HEADGEAR: Leather tie-down

SADDLE: Raylee Racer Red Tree

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone Saddle Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Front Boots and Classic Equine Polo Wraps for hind SHOES: Eventers on the front and rims on the hind. Kirsty White shoes him for me.

FEED: Omolene 200

нау: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Probiotic and electrolyte mix

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiro and Osteopath work from Kaydee Olsen as well

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Ozona gets round penned, pole bended, and lots of slow work on the pattern. Will do a line of three barrels as drills. If he has time off and you get on him, you must get on nicely. You can't just get on and move the saddle around, he will get broncy. He also destroys blankets if they are anywhere that he can reach.

SPONSORS: Frontier Western Shop, Cross Country Pipelines, Back on Track

Canada, and Shayna Dyrland Dentistry.

SPECIAL THANKS: My family and friends and mentors keep going and to try and make the horses as confident and solid as I can as their trainer. My mom always says to trust your homework and we will fix any problems tomorrow. That has stuck with me." Coming into these winter futurities, Taylor's only goal was to try and get Ozona prepared for the Royal Crown in February. After two stellar weekends in the same pen that is going to host the Royal pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

Julie Thomas & The Cool Zippy Zevi Win Third Straight IPRA Barrel Racing Championship

By Tanya Randall

Julie Thomas and her war horse The Cool Zippy Zevi ("Amos") won their third straight International Pro Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship at the 53rd International Finals Rodeo, held January 12-15 in the Lazy E Arena at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

"It's amazing!" said Thomas, an assistant principal and mother of two college-age boys.

Thomas didn't quite have the IFR that she wanted. She and Amos only picked up $1,111 for fourth in the aggregate.

"My first two runs were a little slower," she said. "I don't know if I had him prepared as well. We've had so much rain around here I didn't get to ride him and work him like I wanted to before I got there. He just made safe little runs. The third and fourth rounds he kind of woke up and got to his normal gritty self. He bumped it up and took about 3/10ths off of our runs after that. He'd been off for several weeks and it's hard to get him rolling again. He's better after he's been run a little bit. We got a few runs in and he was back to his old self."

They still won the championship by $8,671 over IFR Champion Julie Plourde of Quebec, Canada. Thomas' total earnings for the year were $38,340, most of which she won within four hours of home.

"I maybe went on one big trip, but I pretty much stayed close to home," said Thomas, who went into the IFR with a commanding lead. "I'm pretty fortunate that we have a lot of IPRA rodeo here around north Georgia. Most are two or three hours from the house. I don't ever set out to accomplish the year end, but it all seemed to fall into place and the momentum kept going."

Thomas and Amos also placed at a few WPRA Southeastern Circuit Rodeos, but her job at Calhoun Primary School made it difficult to travel very far during the week.

"Most of our circuit rodeos are in Florida," she explained. "A lot of our slacks are in the middle of the week or Thursday or Friday. I'm an assistant principal and that makes it really hard to take off and go whenever. I didn't get drawn up like I needed to and I ended up not going to many. I just had to give it up early. Most of our good rodeos are in February and March, and after that, you kind of know if you have a chance of making it (to the circuit finals rodeos). I just knew I needed to stay around home." With Amos being her sole rodeo money earner, Thomas knew with his age—he's now 17—and the lack of a backup was another good reason to stay closer to home. She's had the gray gelding by Zippy Zevi Dasher out of Linda Gail Stewart's 1992 AQHA Senior Barrel Racing World Champion The

He gets injected once a year or so and that's about it. He just hasn't really needed it, and I'm very thankful for that!" TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I have 50 acres. I generally ride in the pasture. I didn't get to ride as much because it would rain in the evenings. Instead of riding five days a week, I was riding three or four. If I needed to ride him in the dry I had to haul. After you get off work it's hard to want to load up and haul somewhere to ride for a couple of hours."

She and her dad Handley Driver had purchased the gelding with plans on tuning him and selling him for a profit, but that was four Southeastern, four IFRs, one Southeastern Circuit Finals Championship and three IPRA World titles ago.

Plourde & KF Epic Ta Fame Capture IFR Championship

By Tanya Randall

Chicoutimi, Quebec, Canada's Julie Plourde and her talented young gelding KF Epic Ta Fame ("Hugo") put nearly 6/10ths on the best barrel racers in the International Pro Rodeo Association in a four run aggregate to claim the championship at the International Finals Rodeo, held January 12-15 in the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie,

"I was expecting him to do well because he does well in an average," said Plourde, who was making her first IFR appearance. "He gets stronger with every run. But, I wasn't expecting him to be so consistent, win two rounds and win the average by such a large margin! I was very surprised about that!"

Plourde and Hugo won the first two rounds and placed fourth and second in the remaining two to win the aggregate. They collected $11,111 for the victory and captured the IPRA's Barrel Racing Reserve Championship with $29,669.

She entered the IFR in seventh with $18,558.

"My first rodeos were in Georgia and North Carolina," she said. "Most of my rodeos were in Quebec. I won the Festival Western de St-Tite—the Canada Cup. We won over $6,000 there and made a huge step in the standings."

Plourde purchased Hugo from Tiany Schuster and Edwin Cameron in March 2022. The 2017 gelding is by 2.5 million dollar barrel horse sire Epic Leader out of Mark Kendall's Dash Ta Fame mare Gotta Go TaFame. Hugo was trained and campaigned as a 4-yearold futurity horse by Todd Holder. He got his first rodeo experience under Schuster's guidance.

"The fit (between) me and him is awesome," said Plourde, who grew up running barrels. "I took him to 26 rodeos and a few jackpots. I've only hit one barrel on him. He's been so solid and consistent. It was totally my fault when I hit that barrel. I kicked it with my foot when I left the first barrel."

Plourde splits her year in half between Canada and the United States. She's down in the States through the WCRA's Rodeo Corpus Christi in early May before returning to Canada for the IPRA Canadian Finals in early June.

Her long-term plans are to develop a team of horses worthy of making an NFR run in 2024.

"I'm planning on going to more IPRA rodeos this year," she said. "I'd like to win the (IPRA) World title. I want to pro rodeo in 2024. I want to fill my (WPRA) permit this year and make sure my horse is really solid. My horse is really young. He turns 6 in April and I want to give him another year before we go pro rodeo.'

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Champs Repeat at Fort Worth's Cowboys of Color Rodeo

The Cowboys of Color Invitational Rodeo presented by T39 Telemundo took center stage in Dickies Arena on Monday at the 126th edition of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR).

Held annually on Martin Luther King Jr. Day, the multi-cultural event features African American, Hispanic and Native American athletes competing in traditional rodeo events from bronc riding to roping to bull riding.

The event includes a rodeo opening ceremony and incorporates traditional rodeo pageantry and patriotic music along with "Lift Every Voice and Sing," often referred to as the black national anthem.

Special featured performances included virtuoso violinist Armando Vance from Fort Worth, the Escaramuza — a group of eight women riding sidesaddle in beautiful traditional dresses as they perform synchronized maneuvers that require perfect timing and concentration, and the Circle L5 Riding Club, Forth Worth's all-black riding club formed more than 70 years ago, with their precision horseback drill team.

The theme of this year's competition seemed to be repeat champions and winners in three events were also winners here last year. Trevor McCaslin of Glenpool, Oklahoma, scored 73 points to tie for first place in the ranch bronc riding with Marcus Verser of Spencer, Oklahoma. McCaslin was the sole event winner in 2022.

Grady Payne of Stephenville, Texas, was the next repeat winner, taking first in steer wrestling with a time of 4.3 seconds. Payne's time was three-tenths of a second faster than second-place finisher Chase Crane of Clearview, Oklahoma.

While the tie-down roping was the first event to crown a new champion in 2023, the winning name was a familiar one. John Douch of Huntsville, Texas, qualified for his first National Finals Rodeo this past December and finished fifth for the tie-down roping world championship. His younger brother Koby was the champion at the 2023 Cowboys of Color Rodeo in Fort Worth.

Liza Shannon of Kilgore, Texas, was the only barrel racer to best the 17-second mark. Her time of 16.99 seconds earned her a second consecutive Cowboys of Color championship here.

Mason Spain of Forney, Texas, and Dakota Smith of Kaufman, Texas, tied for first in bull riding. They both scored 74 points on young bulls from the Rafter G Rodeo string. Last year's bull riding champion Colton Burhard of Ivanhoe, Texas, finished third.

The competition was also tough in the junior bull riding with Evan Grubaugh of Forney scoring 74 points to win first place. Second was Caden McClain of Floresville with a score of 71.

The Cowboys of Color Rodeo, founded by Cleo Hearn, brings cowboys and cowgirls of all races and cultures together for events which help fund scholarships to assist young competitors in attending college.

The 126th edition of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo continues through February 4 at the Will Rogers complex. Tuesday is Dickies Day at the Stock Show. Those wearing Dickies apparel receive free grounds admission. The first night of the audience favorite Bulls' Night Out — PRCA Xtreme Bull Riding begins at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Dickies Arena.

Ranch Bronc Riding: (2 qualified rides) 1, (tie) Trevor McCaslin, Glenpool, Okla., and Marcus Verser, Spencer, Okla., 74 points, $2,500 each.

Steer Wrestling: 1, Grady Payne, Stephenville, Texas, 4.3 seconds, $2,000. 2, Chase Crane, Clearview, Okla., 4.6, $1,500. 3, Brother Gilder, Kaufman, Texas, 4.9, $1,000. 4, Tremaine DeBose, Anderson, TX, 5.0, $500.

Tie-Down Roping: 1, John Douch, Huntsville, Texas, 10.6 seconds, $2,000. 2, Rodney Jackson, Angleton, Texas, 11.5, $1,500. 3, J.D. Freeman, Dallas, Texas, 11.7, $1,000. 4, DeWeldon Watson, Huntsville, Texas, 13.6, $500.

Barrel Racing: 1, Liza Shannon, Kilgore, Texas, 16.99 seconds, $2,000. 2, Brittney Jones, Lipan, Texas, 17.24, $1,500. 3, Kanasha Jackson, Hempstead, Texas, 17.40, $1,000. 4, Chelesa White, Angleton, Texas, 18.58, $500.

Bull Riding: 1, (tie) Mason Spain, Forney, Texas, and Dakota Smith, Kaufman, Texas, 74 points, $1,750 each. 3, Colton Burkard, Ivanhoe, Texas, 73, $1,000. 4, Kaidion Loud, Kaufman, Texas, 69, $500.

Junior Bull Riding: 1, Evan Grubaugh, Forney, Texas, 74 points. 2, Cade McClain, Floresville, Texas, 71. 3, Achilles Guyton, Spencer, Okla., 70. 4,(tie) R.J. Jackson, Terrell, Texas and Payte Polito, Tulsa, Okla., 67.

Cowboy Channel to Broadcast All Rodeo Performances of the FWSS Rodeo Live

The Cowboy Channel will exclusively air all rodeo performances for the legendary 2023 Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR) live from Dickie's Arena January 13 - February 4. The FWSSR broadcast series on The Cowboy Channel will kick off today, Friday, January 13th at 8:30pm ET with back-to-back nights of the Best of the West Ranch Rodeo, where the top ranches from across the country compete in seven exciting events. Following the ranch rodeo performances will be the Best of Mexico Celebración rodeo performance on Sunday, January 15th at 8:30pm CT and then the Cowboys of Color Rodeo on Monday, January 16 at 2pm ET.

The ProRodeo competition officially bucks straight out of the chutes on Tuesday, January 17 and Wednesday, January 18 at 8:30pm ET with Bulls Night Out PRCA Xtreme Bull Riding where the world's toughest bull riders take their shot on some of the rankest bulls in the country.

The Texas Champions Challenge follows on January 19 at 8:30pm ET when athletes representing Rodeo Houston, San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, Rodeo Austin, San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo and the FWSSR will compete for the prestigious Texas Champions Challenge titles.

Then, the $1.1 million-dollar FWSSR PRORODEO Tournament starts with Bracket 1, Round 1 on Friday, January 20 at 8:30pm ET and runs for 18 straight performances leading into Championship Finals on Saturday, February 4th at 8:30pm ET. A FWSSR Rodeo Pre-Show will air nightly beginning with Bulls Night Out. Hosted by Anthony Lucia and Amy Wilson along with Katy Lucas and Scott Schiffner, the program will air 30 minutes prior to the ProRodeo performances.

The Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo was recently named PRCA Large Indoor Rodeo of the Year in 2022 and is the official kick off to the Texas Swing primetime programming line-up on The Cowboy Channel. Following FWSSR will be the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo (February 9-26), Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo (February 28-March 19), Rodeo Austin (March 10-25), and San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo (March 31-April 2 and April 6-15).

All performances of the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo will air exclusively on The Cowboy Channel, the Official Network of ProRodeo, in addition to livestreaming and on demand available for subscribers of PRCA on Cowboy Channel+. This will be The Cowboy Channel's third year broadcasting FWSSR rodeo. Additional events around the FWSSR grounds will also be available for livestreaming on Cowboy Channel+ including Mustang Magic, FWSSR Heritage Sale, Timed Event Challenge, Junior Steer Show and more.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

'm saying right up front that Mike is a better driver than me. I know that because he tells me he is! LOL! Seriously, he is a better driver.

I was driving in Billings last week, looking for the perfect parking spot on a oneway street. Spying one on the left, I froggered over two lanes of traffic and slid smoothly into the spot! Freaked. Mike. Out!!

I said, "Babe, no one flipped me off and no one honked their horn!" He yelled, "I WOULD HAVE BEEN HONKING MY HORN IF I HAD ONE OVER HERE!" LOL!

Oh how easy it is to spot a flaw in someone and completely ignore our own. I don't even think we do it on purpose, it's just natural. Judging ourselves by our good intentions and others by what they do.

The Bible to the rescue! Matthew 7:1-6 is the account of the speck in your brothers' eye and the plank in your own. The answer? YOU remove the plank from your eye and then you'll be able to see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Correction comes to you and I FIRST. This week, before we wax eloquent on just how we would do something, let's let God show us our faults. Might be we won't even see the fault in others!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
