Heavenly IFR for Heavenly Firewater & Jaylie Matthews

Hope Raley

Wynne, Arkansas cowgirl Jaylie Matthews had quite the heavenly 2019 rodeo season. Although she still had her fair share of tough rodeos, Matthews kept her positive attitude and it all paid off when she was crowned the 2019 International Professional Rodeo Association Champion Barrel Racer this past weekend at the IFR (International Finals Rodeo) held at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The 18-year-old online college student grew up in Wynne, Arkansas on her family's sweet potato farm which is the largest in Arkansas. Jaylie and her younger sister Taycie are 5th generation sweet potato farmers, and along with their parents, Kim and Terris, they know a thing or two about growing the perfect sweet potato. Currently studying at East Mississippi Community College, Matthews is on the rodeo team and competes in the Ozark Region. She hopes to qualify to the 2020 College National Finals Rodeo, and with the way she is starting her 2020 rodeo season, I'd say she is well on her way to seeing much more success in the arena.

Matthews describes her 2019 rodeo season as tough yet fun and full of great memories. When asked what her favorite memory from her 2019 season was, Matthews says her time spent in St Tite, Quebec was probably one of her favorite memories of the year.

"I ran my mare Sis and she did phenomenal," said Matthews. "It was that run that secured me the opportunity to have a chance at winning the world. I will be forever grateful for that run."

Matthews piloted Feelinthewater "Sis" all year to qualify to the IFR. The 8-year-old mare is by the legendary JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Fire Water Fanny by Fire Water Flit. "Sis" full brother, Heavenly Firewater "Bud the Stud" was Matthews mount at the IFR,

WCRA Winter Timed Event Semi-Finals Pays Out More than $394,000 to athletes

More than $394,000 was paid out to timed-event athletes this week as the World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) concluded its Winter Timed Event Semi-Finals at the Lazy E Arena. The three-day event hosted 320 cowboys and cowgirls from around the globe and advanced 54 timed-event athletes to the Royal City Roundup, a one-day, $1 Million Major Rodeo, which will be held February 28 at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

The event began with 64 athletes seeded in the preliminary round, with 24 advancing to the progressive round where they met eight contestants seeded from the WCRA Leaderboard. The final round consisted of 16 total athletes (eight from the leaderboard and eight from the progressive round), with the top eight times in the round and the number one from the WCRA Leaderboard in each discipline advancing to the Royal City Roundup.

Breakaway roper Hope Thompson finds herself going to her fourth straight WCRA $1 million major after taking the number one spot in her pool with a 2.2-second run, while Sloan Anderson won first in her pool with a time of 2.3 seconds.

Minnesota cowboy J.D. Struxness earned the fastest time of the week in steer wrestling when he muscled a steer in 3.6 seconds. Cody Devers topped his bulldogging pool after notching a 4.7-second time.

The Sprint Center will see Ivy Conrado Saebens run barrels in her fourth straight WCRA major, after she clocked a 16.9-second run. Wenda Johnson surged to the top of her pool when the Arizona cowgirl locked in the fastest time of the week in barrel racing with a 16.7-second run.

Team roping duo Clay Smith and Jade Corkill, who own five world titles between them, will pack their bags for Kansas City after a 5.6-second go, good for the number one spot in Pool A. Cody Snow and Paul Eaves earned the top spot in their pool with a 6.3-second run.

The three-day event concluded with tie-down roping, as the final pool was neck-and-neck, with not a single run over 8.0 seconds. Ryan Thibodeaux went home in the number one spot in his pool after landing the fastest time of the week with a 6.9-second run. Caddo Lewallen is going back to Morrison, Oklahoma with $10,000 after winning his progressive-round pool and the final-round pool, with a 7.7-second run in the finals.

Making Waves with the New ShockGuard XPFTM Pad by Classic Equine

The ShockGuard Pad by Classic Equine is truly a revolutionary saddle pad boasting an unprecedented level of protection against concussion and impact. Its protection spans throughout the entire body of the pad.

The ShockGuard Pad is made with innovative XPFTM Energy Absorbing Technology that is incredibly dense yet breathable and lightweight. With a self-adjusting profile, the ShockGuard Pad smartly conforms to the contours of a horse's back filling in void spaces. This long-lasting pad will not compress even after extensive use, and it remains soft and pliable resisting sweat, dirt, and grime.

It also has a unique moisture wicking property that significantly reduces heat buildup under the saddle. Even during hot summer workouts, sweat is drying as you ride helping cool your horse's back.

Due to its dense, textured makeup and contoured design, the ShockGuard Pad stays securely in place to prevent unnecessary movement of the saddle. The ShockGuard is easy to clean and maintain while it lasts like no other pad on the market.

Feeling is Believing! Classic Equine Introduces New Aura Cinch

Feeling is believing! Introducing the Aura cinch by Classic Equine. The Aura is like no other cinch on the market. Its unique design is incredibly lightweight and breathable, but it provides soft, durable and long-lasting protection for your horse.

The Aura features a revolutionary three-ply, 100% breathable design using technical materials that provide long lasting comfort and performance. A soft jersey next to the horse's skin helps to prevent chafing and rubbing. The breathable, odor resistant foam center cushions and absorbs impact and pressure while resisting compression even with extended use. Last but most certainly not least, the Aura cinch has a revolutionary exterior shell made of a tear and abrasion resistant nylon mesh that stands up to the toughest treatment, even spurs! The combination of the Aura's breathable materials allows you to literally feel the air pass through the cinch providing maximum coolness and comfort for your horse in competition or practice. As air freely passes through, there is a lesser risk of bacteria transfer, girth itch, and galling.

The Aura cinch is easy to clean, dries quickly, and remains soft and supple even with extended use.

Available in both roper and straight styles, find the Aura at your favorite Classic Equine retailer. For product information please visit www.classicequine.com.

winning 3 Go Rounds & the Average. Heavenly Firewater was also the mount that WNFR barrel racer Kylie Weast piloted at the 2019 The American.

Both "Bud the Stud" and "Sis" are what dreams are made of when it comes to barrel horses and Matthews explains that it's the size of their heart and try that makes them both winners. "Both horses give it their all in every run, I am very blessed to have the opportunity to ride and run such incredible horses. I don't take any run for granted on either of them!"

Matthews won quite the boatload while in Guthrie, including the world champion barrel racing saddle and the high money winner saddle. She pocketed $12,499 at the finals and claimed the single season earning record with $57,165.98. She also won 5 buckles at the IFR- world champion buckle, aggregate buckle and 3 go-round buckles.

"It was definitely a meaningful year," Matthews explained. "I am proud of my horses for staying sharp and doing their job every time I pointed them at the barrel pattern. I really enjoy the IPRA rodeos and the fans and all my fellow competitors are great! I really enjoyed my 2019 season."

Matthews future barrel racing goals include a hopeful trip to the Casper, Wyoming for the College Finals along with hopefully a circuit finals berth and maybe one day a chance to make the WNFR.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Hebrews 10:24-25 instructs us to stir up love and good works and do not forsake assembling together. In other words, go to church. Why? You're needed there.

Someone needs YOU. Yes, YOU! When you get there, DO SOMETHING! Don't just sit in your pew/chair. Go interact with someone. The gift that God put on the inside of YOU is desperately needed.

Your pastor can't meet every need represented on any Sunday. We are the BODY of Christ. Do you think that you would be happy sitting in the bleachers watching other people run barrels and NEVER get to do it? I sincerely doubt it. It's absolutely thrilling to go fast and turn hard! Why just watch?

It's the same at church. We're a team! It's fun to be a part of the answer for someone! This week, get off the bench and get into the game... at your local church! Don't have one? Come to ours! Blessings on you!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
