Halyn Lide & Hailey Kinsel Co-Champions In Denver

By Tanya Randall

A pair of Texas A&M University graduates split the barrel racing championship at the National Western in Denver. Halyn Lide of China Spring, Texas, and four-time WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel of Cotulla, Texas, posted identical 14.73 in Sunday's Final to split the win.

"I asked Hailey if she would just do the interview," laughed Lide, who rode her homebred gelding Jettin Ta Heaven ("Keeper"). "How do you speak after Hailey speaks, right?"

Lide, a mother of two boys with husband Aaron, a veterinarian, picked up $7,397 after placing in the first round, her semifinals and splitting the win in the final round.

"That semifinals round was tough!" said Lide, who just made the cut in fourth place after Tessa Arnold and Ditto, a clone of Mary Walker's World Champion Perculatin, posted the fastest time of the rodeo. World Champion Tonozzi and NFR qualifier Ilyssa Riley also finished ahead of her.

Following her winning run in the Final, Lide wasn't sure that she had won, thinking that ground rules had a tie break.

"After I ran, they told me that I needed to stay up there because I was currently the fastest time," she recalled. "I was like Hailey and Brittany (Tonozzi) still have to go. So I waited around and then Hailey ties me. The gal tells me it will probably go to a tie-break of the fastest run during the week. Well, that's going to Hailey then. Then they told me we were both going (to do the interview)."

If they went back to the semifinals, which were all held on the same day, Lide and Kinsel had tied again with identical times. It was only in the rounds that Kinsel had faster times.

Lide, who was making her first appearance at the National Western, said the arena was a little intimidating because it seems crooked, although it's not.

"It can be a little intimidating and overwhelming because it looks so crooked," she said. "I thought I needed to prepare for coming off the first barrel and heading uphill to the second, but in reality, it really is centered."

Lide, who wanted to thank her husband for his support and her sister-in-law Katelyn Scott for going with her, did take advantage of practice time, especially after Keeper got a little short on his second run.

"I ran those two runs on the same day, so I wasn't able to get in there between them," she explained. "Every practice session I was there for, I did go in and go all the way to the walls. He's funny. He knows his practice routine, so he'll almost do that on his own."

Lide raised Keeper, a 12-year-old gelding by NFR qualifier and sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of her high school and college rodeo mount Zeros Gypsy Jet, by Three O Jones.

"Keeper is easy," she said. "He just goes and does his job."

Last year, she and Keeper finished No. 27 in the 2023 WPRA World Standings, so they got into all the lucrative winter rodeos. She's out at the Fort Worth, Texas, rodeo, later this week.

As far as chasing her first NFR berth, Lide's not looking too far ahead, saying, "I'm going to go to these and see how it goes."

Kinsel, who was making her first appearance in Denver since 2020, and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") collected $11,658 after winning the first round, placing sixth in the second, second in their semifinal and splitting the final.

She said improved ground conditions made her return and made the rodeo a horse race.

"When we know the ground is good, we're able to throw down like that," said Kinsel, who commended Lee Lancaster and his ground crew. "The horses are going in there confident, and that makes for such a good barrel race."

Kinsel, who currently sits No. 7 in the 2024 WPRA World Standings, said circumstances from last season also made her put the rodeo back on her list.

Sister missed the later part of the season due to fractured splint bone in a hindleg after kicking a pipe fence the weekend before the Governor's Cup at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, at the end of September. Luckily it just needed time and not surgery.

"She had a big rest physically and then going into the NFR she was fit and sound, but she wasn't ready to win," said Kinsel of the 13-year-old daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em. "It felt like by the end of NFR she was finally ready to win and ready for 10 more. I got to thinking about the winter rodeos, I thought I might as well take her back to Denver. I know she likes it and know she does well there. She's fresh and sound, and NOW she's in shape."

Kinsel said Sis, who has nearly $3 million in earnings, will likely run at Fort Worth on Tuesday and Wednesday depending on how she feels after the trip home. Houston and San Angelo are likely rodeos for Sis too, but San Antonio is still a question mark.

"I just try to take her where she likes to go, which is pretty much everywhere," said Kinsel, who wanted to thank her family for their support, Abigail Larson for taking care of her horses while she was gone and the Stevens family for providing her with a place to stay in Denver.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER. "It's the only thing she'll tolerate because it doesn't make noise. Everything else looks funny, smells funny or makes noise! So my strange little horse isn't scared of her BEMER."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: Day off post run. Daily riding. 40 minutes to an hour of interval style exercise. Usually walk, trot. I'll add lope sessions every other day. It's usually targeted toward her next run. Whatever her next run is, I'll work backwards to whatever day I'll get her winded or I'll add a gallop or two on an exercise track, maybe 10 days out before a run. Other than that it's just maintaining her condition. She has a propensity to get chubby, so she really doesn't get breaks and then rebuild. We kind of maintain her condition the whole time. That's part of the reason why she was so chubby at the NFR this year, because it was the first time, she had time off."

Welsh & Frenchman Fire Fly Soar at Fort Worth Champions Challenge

To kick off one of the biggest rodeos of the year, the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo held the Ft Worth Champions Challenge on the night of January 18th at the Dickies Arena near downtown Ft Worth, TX. Two NFR Qualifiers, Amanda Welsh and Emily Beisel, advanced back to the Head to Head Round with Amanda Welsh topping the shootout! Welsh and her huge sorrel gelding, Frenchman Fire Fly, have been running together for 9 years now including qualifying to the 2021 NFR together. Firefly (as he is better known) has come back from injury and is now back to running at the highest level so we thought we would quick catch up with Welsh and talk to her about that journey.

BRR: Can you walk us through your two runs at the Champions Challenge?

Welsh: I had Alex Daigle and Katheleen Daigle work together on him before the rodeo. I adjusted what I do before our runs and he stayed more focused, as did I. He was a ball of fire in the warmup pen so I knew he was going to fire. His first run was his typical Firefly run, I held my breath on the 3rd barrel because that's where he was injured there in '22. I didn't realize that we ran back to back like that until it was later. I didn't have enough time to go get my other saddle to saddle another horse I had with me. Emily ran first so I knew right away what I needed to do. Firefly doesn't like being handled in his runs and I handled him the 2nd run more than I ever do and I think it made him mad but I knew he didn't need to give me his everything that run.

BRR: What is it like running in the brand new Dickies Arena?

Welsh: It's a beautiful arena and there so much history behind Ft Worth and it was just an honor to have the invite to compete there. As Bob Tallman says "It's legendary!"

BRR: We know you have brought back Firefly from injury, tell us about that journey?

Welsh: The last two years has been a roller coaster for sure. Last August I came home early with a very crippled Firefly. I had Katheleen communicate with him and found out his feet were hurting. His front feet were severely bruised and his hind feet had such negative angles and was putting strain on everything else. God brought the right team to us and our farrier JB Cox and vet Dr. Molly Bellefeuille worked together to get him back. Dr Don Lee has also helped! It's a God thing he's back and without those 3 I'm not sure where we would be!

BRR: What are a few things you did with him to have him at his best for Ft. Worth?

Welsh: To get Firefly feeling like he is now we've done Prp in his stifles, normal maintenance on his front feet and hocks. And Alex Daigle does all his body massaging!

BRR: I know you have been running Fire Fly for a long time. How has Fire Fly changed in how he runs over the years? And also how has how you prepare him changed?

Welsh: I've been running Firefly for 9 years now but my family raised him. I don't really work him on barrels. With him being 14 now I just exercise him now. If I feel like he needs work to get his feet faster I work poles every so often. When I get in him at rodeos I do a lot more walking than I used to do before trotting or loping.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and Fire Fly through this year of rodeo?

Welsh: As of now, I'm taking it run by run. I don't have a lot of big plans, God has His plan and it will see itself through!

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like that prior to entering the arena?

Welsh: I picture one of my best runs and it's usually the run of the 1st round at the NFR we won (Round 1 2021). And I pray a lot!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Welsh: My phone, because I don't ever know where I'm going. My Bible is usually always with me and my dog Emma goes a lot with me.

BOGIE BIANKUS X JOAKS LUCKY CHICK
(MAUDIES JOAK)

This is an incredible opportunity to own some of our life's work. We have put a lot of blood sweat and tears into Roller And A Shaker. The buyer will own a stallion bred like nothing else in this entire world! He will cross on anything you breed to him. He has an impressive set of mares he has bred for many years here at 88 Ranch as well as clients horses. He's set up for long term success as a stallion. We have saved several nice mares out of him that we intend to ride, promote and breed.

Brandon Cullins And MJ Segers Fast Lane Are One Step Closer to the American Dream

By Britany Diaz

The road to the American is now shorter for Brandon Cullins, of Dublin, TX. Cullins and MJ Segers Fast Lane, better known as Seger. The pair topped a tough field of competitors on January 18-20 at the Central Region Finals held in the historic Jim Norick Arena in Oklahoma City, OK. This was the second of three Regional Finals to progress to The American Contender Tournament Regional Finals held in Abilene, TX on February 10. The ultimate goal is to make it to Globe Life Field in Arlington, TX for a chance at $1 million.

Cullins and Seger, a 7-year-old mare, owned by Grant and Rayel Little, didn't come through the regional finals the easy way. The duo tipped a barrel in round one, while running a time of 15.0 seconds, which would have been the fastest time of that qualifying round. It was an average on two runs to make it back to the Sunday finals. They also had a Redemption Round, where competitors could buy back in for another chance to make the Finals. Cullins bought back into the Redemption Round, where he ran a 14.964 to win that round and advance to the final round of competition, earning $1,680. In the final round, Cullins and Seger ran the fastest time of the weekend by over two-tenths with a 14.747 and another paycheck for $10,000. Joining Cullins in Abilene for The American Contender Tournament Finals from the Central Region is; London Gorham, Merrick Moyer, Grace Hancock and Latricia Duke. The top 15 from the three regions will compete there, where the top five will move on to Globe Life Field for The American.

Seger is such a talented mare. "I didn't exhibition Seger as she doesn't need to see the barrels. So the first round, I knew if I could get her around the first two, we would be in good shape. We did, but then I sort of let up going to the third and caught that one. Before the finals, I found some trash cans and set them up in the back arena to keep her driving and moving bigger around them," shared Cullins. "She is just a freak. She can win on accident. It sort of feels like cheating on her because she is so fast and turny. She has gotten to where I can help her now, so I feel like if I can do my job, she will give me a chance to win. I don't even know how to describe one like her. She is probably the best horse I have ever rode." Cullins has trained, jockeyed and won on some very nice horses at the highest levels, so to hear him say this, you know Seger is special.

Cullins, the Clements, Maryland native, has his sights set on an American Championship Title. He has made five trips to the American Finals in the past on three different horses, A Cornerstone, MCM Imasharpguy and VQ Sucker Punch. He made the final four two times on VQ Sucker Punch. Cullins really enjoys The American and what it offers. "The money is great, but it is also something that my family, that is not that into horses, can follow. They get excited about it and will come to TX if we make it to Globe Life Field," shared Cullins. Cullins learned to ride from two of his aunts. He started at 4-H rodeos and went from there. He laughed, "My foundation came from somebody telling me not to hold onto my saddle horn. You go faster if you don't hold onto the horn." He is now one of the best trainers in the barrel racing industry, yet he is always willing to learn more. Since his time in Maryland, Cullins has rode with renowned trainers such as; Kelly Conrado, Cody Bauserman, Kassie Mowry, Michael Boone, Craig Brooks and many more. Cullins obviously has a gift, but credits a lot to those that have answered his questions.

Winning the American can do a lot for a person. "Winning would help tremendously as we are building on our place. Past that, me aside, this mare deserves it. She ran the three fastest times at Oklahoma City. In the first round, we hit the barrel coming into it, so she had to run around the down barrel to go on and still clocked a 15.0. This mare is just incredible and deserves the attention more than anything. She deserves to win it," said Cullins.

There is no doubt that pairing up a team like Brandon Cullins and MJ Segers Fast Lane would result in anything less than amazing runs after more amazing runs. Cullins, a very achieved trainer and rider, has won the BFA derby four times, the BFA Futurity and the BFA Juvenile, and The Fort Smith Derby twice. Matched up with Seger, the duo holds the arena record for the fastest time on a standard at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK with a 16.521 ran during the Pink Buckle Barrel Race in October, numerous arena records and wins at both the Pink and Ruby Buckle Derbys.

Cream rises to the top at NWSS Rodeo Championship Finals

The 118th edition of the National Western Stock Show came to a close on Sunday and a highlight of the day's events was definitely the championship finals of the rodeo. It took 19 performances to determine who the players would be for the titles.

Contestants competed in brackets, advanced to Semi-Finals and then the Final round. With 12 of rodeo's best in each event, it was a great day for rodeo fans in the Denver Coliseum as well as those watching the competition on The Cowboy Channel.

Garrett Shadbolt, a bareback rider from Merriman, Nebraska, has had success nearly every time he has entered this rodeo. He has risen to the top twice winning titles in 2023 and 2024. This year, he rode Cervi Brothers Rodeo's Dream Machine for 86.5 to win the championship. His earnings on Sunday along with earnings from preliminary competition saw him adding $12,183 to his checking account.

To keep the excitement going at the rough stock end of the arena, Brody Cress, from Hillsdale, Wyoming matched his own arena record of 91 points. He shared that with other saddle bronc riders in 2020 and now adds his name to that list again. Cress rodeo Cervi Championship Rodeo's R Watson's Ed Bishop and earned a total of $11,147.

The bulls have had the edge over bull riders throughout the competition and that also held true on Sunday. T Parker from Winnie, Texas, was the only man to make it to eight seconds so he got all the money. He rode Cervi Championship Rodeo's Bull Dirty Mike for 83 points to earn $16,003.

There was a tie in the barrel racing with four-time world champion Hailey Kinsel, from Cotulla, Texas, and Halyn Lide from China Spring, Texas both stopping the clock in 14.73 seconds. Kinsel won more money in preliminary rounds so collected a total of $11,086. Lide's total was just under $5,000.

Other winners were Tyler Pearson from Atoka, Oklahoma in steer wrestling, 3.3 seconds; Dustin Egusquiza, Marianna, Florida, and Levi Lord, Sturgis, South Dakota, team roping, 4.0 seconds; and Tanner Green, Cotulla, Texas, tie-down roping, 7.3 seconds.

This year's National Western was among the top 10 highest attended in the event's 118-year history.

Fort Worth's Texas Champions Challenge Pays $114K

by Johna Cravens for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

The 2024 edition of the Texas Champions Challenge Rodeo presented by Holt Cat paid $10,000 to six winners Thursday night at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR.) The event featured winners from five iconic Texas rodeos — Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, San Angelo and Austin — competing in six events. The night also featured four contestants vying for a $6,000 first-place paycheck in freestyle bullfighting.

Winnings at the invitational rodeo do not count toward world championships, but the $114,000 awarded to 34 competitors in bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, breakaway roping, barrel racing, freestyle bullfighting and bull riding can help pay the expenses of a professional rodeo athlete.

The rodeo format began with an elimination round of five contestants in each event. The top two returned almost immediately for a head-to-head round with the winner taking home $10,000 and a bottle of Fort Worth-based TX Whiskey. The runner-up received $4,000 and the three other contestants from the elimination round each received $1,000. In the bullfighting, second place received $4,000 and the two individuals who did not make the head-to-head round each received $1,500.

Leighton Berry of Weatherford, Texas, and Jacob Lees of Caldwell, Idaho, scored 88 and 86 points respectively to advance to the head-to-head round in bareback riding — edging out reigning world champion Keenan Hayes, last year's Fort Worth champion Rocker Steiner and South Dakotan Andy Gingerich.

Lees dominated the head-to-head round, scoring 87.5 on Macza Pro Rodeo's bucking horse named Mary Jane to win the first $10,000 of the night.

The steer wrestling competition was tight with a pair of Oregonians — Jesse Brown of Baker City and Dalton Massey of Hermiston advancing to the head-to-head round. On his second steer Brown stopped the clock in 4.18 seconds. Massey caught his steer quickly but missed the nose on his first attempt. His time of 7.6 meant Brown took home the winner's $10,000.

Dawson Hay of Wildwood, Alberta, was the first saddle bronc rider and he tallied 85.5 points on Macza's horse named Pearl Harbour. Wyatt Casper of Miami, Texas, scored 85 on another Macza horse — Texas Tough and looked good for the head-to-head round until reigning world champion Zeke Thurston nodded his head. Thurston, who lives in Big Valley, Alberta, showed the skills that have earned him four world championships with a 90-point ride on Macza's horse Squash Blossom Steely Dan.

In the head-to-head match Hay scored 87.5 points on Korkow Rodeos' bucking horse named Joker Poker. Thurston countered with 90.5 points on Brookman Rodeo's bronc called Ragin' Lunatic. The horse was featured at the National Finals Rodeo in December and bucked off two of the top 15 riders in the world standings.

The barrel racing featured five NFR qualifiers in the elimination round. Amanda Welsh of Stephenville, Texas, and Emily Beisel of Weatherford, Texas, advanced to the head-to-head matchup with times in the 16.6-second range. Because of the short time between rounds, Beisel chose to change horses for her second run while Welsh stayed on Frenchman Fire Fly, a horse raised and trained by her father. That proved to be a good decision for Welsh. The mother of two won the match and $10,000 with a time of 17.560.

For the second consecutive year the breakaway roping winner at the Texas Champions Challenge was an Angelone from nearby Stephenville. Sarah Angelone, a former National High School champ, won the event this year with a time of 1.91 seconds to advance to the head-to-head round, followed by a 1.86 to win the title and $10,000. Her sister Martha won the event here last year.

Freestyle bullfighting was back at Texas Champions Challenge for the third year. Tyler Mansell of Caldwell, Idaho, and four-time Bullfighters Only World Champion Weston Rutkowski of Haskell, Texas fought the first match. The two cowboys faced off at last year's event with Rutkowski advancing to the finals. This year was Mansell's turn to advance to the final match.

The second match featured Californian Cole Bates and Kansan Luke Ballard. Bates advanced to the finals where Mansell was victorious.

In the elimination round of bull riding, all five of the riders bucked off with Florida's Ernie Courson Jr. and Louisiana's Jace Trosclair advancing to the head-to-head match by virtue of staying on their bulls the longest.

In the final matchup Courson lasted 4.97 seconds on Macza Pro Rodeo's bull Little Bill. Trosclair brought the crowd to their feet when he rode Brookman Rodeos' bull High Maintenance to the whistle and scored 88 points.

The event was also part of Texas A & M University system day at the FWSSR and featured some of the 90-member Texas A & M Cavalry and members of the university's rodeo team in the grand entry and an appearance by the school's yell leaders to start the competition. Representatives from Tarleton State University, part of the A & M system in nearby Stephenville, also participated with members of the cheer squad and rodeo team featured on the arena floor.

The 2024 FWSSR Pro Rodeo Tournament rides into Dickies Arena Friday night at 7:30 p.m. for the first of 16 performances. The event culminates with the Championship Finals on February 3.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This week, let's give them something to see! Something good!

Mike was preaching on Sunday and he said something that has been rolling around in my head since. He said, "Jesus was so attractive, that three fishermen IMMEDIATELY LEFT THEIR BUSINESSES to follow Him."

Matthew 4:18-20. In the time we're living in, a lot of Christian people won't even leave their bed to go to church! I've been wondering why that is.

I can think of all sorts of reasons in the natural. But what does God say about it? In Revelation 3:14-18, Jesus describes that particular church as lukewarm. That's not good! I don't want to be lukewarm! Lost people will see Jesus in you and me.
