Wicked Fast -- Jimmie Smith Tew & A Valiant Nicky Top National Western

By Tanya Randall

2020 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jimmie Smith-Tew and A Valiant Nicky, owned by Merritt Potter and Deda Kyle, turned in the fastest run of the rodeo to win the sudden death final at 80-entry, $45,000-added National Western, held January 12-22 in Denver.

"I was not expecting that!" said the McDade, Texas, barrel racer, who pocketed $4,783 for winning the four-run, tournament style rodeo. "That was crazy! Like two days before, I said I wasn't going. It's pretty amazing. I have the buckle here on my dashboard and it's really pretty."

Tew made her first two runs on Wednesday. She actually started the rodeo on her 13-year-old solid palomino Paint mare Lever Action ("Mini")

"I was just going to take Mini because Mini likes Denver," said Tew of the daughter of Another Hero out of Katys Luck (APHA), by Eternal Mount (APHA). "I fought and fought and fought; I wasn't going to take a backup horse to Denver! We were going to save Stella (Sipping On Firewater) for Fort Worth and other things coming up. They said I have to take a backup, so Nicky has to go."

Still, Tew had no plans on running Nicky.

"I took her to practice and I thought why am I even practicing on her?" she laughed. "I'm not going to run her. That's how it started."

After Mini tripped during their first run and they got a hand-time after a timer malfunction in the afternoon performance, Tew switched to Nicky for her run that night.

"It just wasn't good," she said. "It was just an off run. I didn't think I had a chance to make it back but I got on Nicky. It still wasn't a great run, but everyone else hit barrels so we still made it back."

With the tournament-style format, the top three on two runs advance to one of three semifinal performances. Tew, who finished third in her bracket, just made the cut for the next round.

Given the weather and short turnaround time until the semifinal performance on Saturday, Tew stayed in Denver. She took advantage of the practice times to get Nicky more comfortable with the setup.

"We practiced every morning," said Tew. "I went in and showed her the walls. I think that was pretty beneficial to what she needed." For the semifinal during Saturday's matinee performance, Tew was seventh out, so she had time to see which horse she was going to need to ride.

"I had both of them saddled in the back," she explained. "If it turned into 'you just have to go around the barrels' again, I was going to run Mini. It had stacked up pretty good. Brittany (Pozzi Tonozzi) had ran a 14, so I went ahead and put my rubber bands on (my feet in the stirrups), Nicky was the one."

The top 4 from each of the three semifinals performances advanced to Sunday's Final. Tew and Nicky, again, just made the cut, finishing fourth with a 15.28.

In the Finals, Nicky dialed in and fired, turning in the fastest time of the entire rodeo, a 14.83.

"That's what Nicky is known for," laughed Tew. "She's known to be fast. We don't know where we're going sometimes but it's going to be fast!"

Bred by the late Jud Little, Nicky is by champion racehorse sire

Valiant Hero out of Nicky Brick House, a Brick House Bouncy, Dr Nick Bar mare that helped Tiffany Fox qualify for the NFR. She started her career by winning the reserve championship at the 2016 BFA Super Stakes as a 3-year-old. Her current lifetime earnings, according to QData, are $88,168.

Tew started riding Nicky in 2021. They found instant success but it wasn't just a walk in the park.

"She's definitely an extremely hard mare to ride," said Tew, who wanted to thank the Potter family for the opportunity to ride Nicky. "When I first got her in 2021, I took her to a jackpot and we won it. At our second one, we set an arena record."

Unfortunately, the mare cut her foot, so she missed the first part of the 2021 summer run.

"I had her from about Gooding, Idaho, (in mid-August) until the end of the year," said Tew. "She won checks almost everywhere we went. That's when I ended up 16th (in the world standings)."

Tew got to keep the mare through the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo in January 2022 before she went back home for Merritt Potter to ride. In September 2022, Tew started running Nicky again and she's been with her ever since.

The National Western victory moved Tew to 33rd in the WPR World Standings with $6,169.

"I said I wasn't going to rodeo as much this year," she said. "I really don't have a plan. I'm up in Fort Worth next week. We'll see where we end up after that."

Tew also has all three of her mares—Stella, Mini and Nicky—qualified for the American Contender Regional Finals. Since they all qualified in Gifford, Illinois, she will compete in the Eastern Contender in Lexington, Kentucky, after Fort Worth.

FUN FACT...

Right before Christmas, the National Western had a qualifier for the rodeo. The top 10 in each round plus the top 20 in the aggregate—that hadn't qualified in the rounds—were eligible to enter the rodeo.

Of those 40 contestants, six advanced all the way to the Finals—reserve champion Kalli McCall, Timber Allenbrand, Darby Fox, Sophie Nolen, Sara Winkelman and Kristi Steffes. Of the eight checks awarded in the Finals, they took five of them.

Blazin Jetolena

*Lenas Sugar Daddy x Blazin Jennie Jet,
Jet Of Honor SI 102*

Words can not express the gratitude we feel for the outpouring of love and support after the passing of our beloved Blazin Jetolena.

He changed our lives and he changed the horse industry forever.

We find comfort knowing his legacy will live on for generations to come.

Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Win Texas Champions Challenge $10K

Fort Worth's Texas Champions Challenge // Jan. 19, 2023, Ft. Worth, TX

Head to Head Round:

1 Famous Lil Jet	14 s. g.	Dash Ta Fame-Blazin Black Beauty, Blazin Jetolena	Jordan Briggs	Justin & Jordan Briggs	16.851	$10,000
2 Jets Top Gun	15 sor. g.	Blazin Jetolena-GL Famous First Lady, Dash Ta Fame	Brittany Tonozzi	Busby QH	16.902	$4,000

Elimination Round:

1 Jordan Briggs	16.662
2 Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi	16.961	(rode Born On Derby Day in this round)
3 Cheyenne Wimberley	17.048
4 Hailey Kinsel	21.735

Cool Stuff from Ft Worth Champions Challenge

- The Top 2 Finishers Famous Lil Jet & Jets Top Gun were both raised by Busby QH.
- Both have the same granddam, daughter of Dash For Perks, Lady Perks. (Canadian Champion & earner of $250k)
- Famous Lil Jet is by Dash Ta Fame out of Blazin Black Beauty (Blazin Jetolena-Lady Perks) & Jets Top Gun is by Blazin Jetolena out of GL Famous First Lady (Dash Ta Fame-Lady Perks). So basically they have the exact same names in their pedigrees, flipping BJO & Fame between sire and dam.
- Famous Lil Jet now has $895,750 of earnings & Jets Top Gun has earnings of over $334,137 (per QData)!
- It was definitely a Champions Challenge as winner Jordan Briggs is now a $2 million Rider and Brittany Tonozzi is a $3.6 Million rider (per Equistat)!
- Briggs is a World Champion (2021) & a Reserve World Champion (2022) with 3 NFR Qualifications & Tonozzi is a 2 time World Champion (2007, 2009) with 16 NFR Qualifications!

Five L Farms Hits the Jackpot With Cfour Darkpatchpatsy Foals

By Tanya Randall

At the Golden Buckle, held January 12-15 in Waco, Texas, two full brothers shined in the Futurity. Five L Rockin Heaven, ridden by Mark Bugni for Jeff Varner, won the futurity, while Five L Dark Hangover, ridden by Dale Long for Sidney Kirkpatrick, finished third in the aggregate.

"That was pretty awesome," said Bugni, after the win on Five L Rockin In Heaven. "I've seen Dale Long exhibition that colt and he's been phenomenal. Both of those colts are just exceptional to have both of them run that close together is pretty amazing."

Both 4-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven geldings were raised by Peggy Long on her Five L Farm in Portage, Pennsylvania.

"I was unable to watch, but my phone lit up when they did so well," said Long, a lifelong barrel racer until she handed her horse over to her son more than 15 years ago.

The two horses were Long's first foray into the breeding business. On the advice of friends Roger and Kelsie Grow, Long had purchased Cfour Darkpatchpatsy for her youngest son, Jarrett. They were looking to step up in competition that had breeding potential "Patsy" fit the bill.

"We bought her as a broodmare and so our son could be competitive at a higher level," said Long. "It just seemed to go together if we got a mare we could get some babies out of her. Jeff Varner and Roger and Kelsie Grow were such a big part of the decision to get her. They really helped us because we were so new to this process."

Patsy, a daughter of the late leading barrel horse sire Darkelly, and out of Mp Holy Patch, by Baynors Pivot, a race-winning grandson of Easy Jet.

Mp Holy Patch, who is out of Winken Back Atya, by Lay A Patch, sire of Sherry Cervi's first world champion Sir Double Delight ("Troubles"), is a full sister to Todd Suhn NFR dogging horse Mp Right Back Atya, better known as Maximus.

Patsy was bred by Patsy Alexander, Mel Potter's oldest daughter, and raised by Kelly Conrado, who owned a share of Darkelly and gave the mare the Cfour moniker in her name.

Robin Weaver of Mahaffey, Pennsylvania, purchased Patsy as a yearling. She was trained and campaigned by Brandon Cullins, who put most of the $109,000 on her earnings record at aged events. Long purchased Patsy in January of 2018, and promptly hit the jackpot in the breeding shed. When bred to leading sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, Patsy double ovulated resulting in two foals that hit the ground on April 13, 2019.

Five L Rockin Heaven gets his name from Weaver's Rockin Robin Barrel Horses, and Varner purchased him before he was born. Five L Dark Hangover was named in honor of Jarrett's 21st birthday. They also bred her to Dash Ta Fame, and again the mare double ovulated. Unfortunately, one of the recipient mares lost one of the foals.

"We only had three born that year—the two Dash Ta Heaven colts and a Dash Ta Fame filly," said Long.

She still owns the filly, Five L DarkDashNFame, who is in training with Caroline Boucher, and she'll run as a 5-year-old.

"She was supposed to run at the BFA and OKC futurities, but she got hurt," said Long. "She's being rehabbed and is coming back, but she's going to be flushed too. She's going to be bred to Winners Version."

After her lucky first year with the four embryos, Patsy gave them nothing.

"For her to come up double ovulating the first time with those top stallions, it was unbelievable," said Long. "Then the next year, she gives us nothing! It's very humbling. This whole thing is very humbling."

Long said they pick two stallions for the mare each year in hopes of getting at least four recipient mares in foal.

"With Patsy we never know how many embryos she's going to give us," said Long. "It can be anywhere from zero to one, two, three or four. We usually pick two stallions to breed her too. We bring four recipient mares home—those four become eight! We aren't big enough for that!"

They currently have two two-year-old geldings, a Shawne Bug Leo and a Dash Ta Fame. Patsy double ovulated with The Good-bye Lane and both of those sold as weanlings. They've got a BHR Frenchies Socks due this February. Long also kept a Bullseye Bullion filly out of Patsy.

"She was born on St. Patrick's day and she's absolutely beautiful," said Long. "I like to keep the fillies."

Patsy is still running with Jarrett. This past fall they won the prestigious Amateur Barrel Racing title at the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

"She's been competed on by my son and my son's girlfriend," said Long. "She's not Pink Buckle or anything so when we go out for stuff like that my son's girlfriend rides her. She's done really well for both of them."

Double, Triple Tough

The 2023 futurity season seems to be the year of the multiple embryos. Not only are the two Five L horses doing well, but several other mares have produced multiple futurity money earners this season.

High Point Performance Horses great mare Rods Last Ladybug has a slew of money winners this year. At the Golden Buckle, the world champion performer and producer had HP Rollin Rollin, by Dash Ta Fame, place seventh in the futurity and Chrome Plated Fame, also by Dash Ta Fame, won the first round. The two also placed in the aggregate at the Lone Star Shootout Futurity the weekend prior.

Rods Last Ladybug also had HP Feel The Fame, by Feel The Sting, place in the second go of the derby.

Two-time NFR Champion and champion producer TR Dashing Badger also had two money earners in the second round of the derby—TR Heavensilluminated, by JL Dash Ta Heaven, and Dollys Streaknbadger, by A Streak Of Fling.

Champion performer and producer Hip Swinging Gypsy, has two futurity money earners this year Slick Swingin Gypsy, by Slick By Design, and Streak Gypsy Streak, by A Streak Of Fling.

NFR qualifier and champion producer RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine, has several foals winning at all levels, from futurity money earner to Odessa Pro Rodeo winner RC Black In Famous, by Famous Gold Coin, to futurity money earners Brookstone Is Back, by Brookstone Bay, and RDC Backwithfireball, by Fire Water Flit. Babe On The Chase has two Tres Seis winning money at the futurities--Seis On The Chase and Tres Chasin Babe PZ.

Champion Sire & Performer Blazin Jetolena Laid To Rest

Blazin Jetolena, a champion performer and all-time leading barrel horse sire, passed away on January 17 due to a sudden cardiac event at 24. The 6.4 million dollar sire was buried at the headquarters of Busby Quarter Horses in Millsap, Texas.

"It is impossible to convey something that has forever changed your life," wrote Andrea Busby after the stallion's passing. "The magical ride he has taken us on was more than anything we ever dreamed of. We were so honored to own him, care for him and to simply be in his presence.

The hole this leaves in our hearts and at the ranch is immense. There are a million things that could be said to describe him, but the legacy he leaves us with is more than words could ever say."

Jet, as he was affectionately known, was bred by Randy and Sue Rist and hit the ground on April 28, 1999. The stallion was by Lenas Sugar Daddy, a locally known all-around performance sire, and out of the Jet Of Honor mare Blazing Jeannie Jet.

Randy Rist started the well-mannered colt under saddle before handing him over as an early 3-year-old to trainer, and now clinician, Ryan Lovendahl.

Together Jet and Lovendahl won more than $95,000, mostly in aged event competition. He won six futurity championships and was a finalist at the Old Fort Days, BFA World Championships and Gold and Silver Cup futurities. Jet was named EquiStat's 2003 leading futurity horse even though he won many of his futurities in the west as a 4-year-old running against 5-year-olds.

As a 5-year-old Jet started his rodeo career, winning two pro rodeos in the Northwest with Katy Bremner. The following year he won four rodeos for Melanie Southard to seal her National Finals Rodeo qualification. Although he didn't win any money, Jet did run at the Thomas & Mack as a 6-year-old.

After several years off from competition, Jet returned to the arena to run with his first foal crop in 2009. He won the Sweepstakes at the Fizz Bomb Classic before entering permanent retirement due to colic surgery.

Jet was an EquiStat leading sire even with small foal crops with horses like multiple NFR qualifier Sheza Blazin Move, who is his richest offspring to date with more than $385,000, according to QData. During his early career he also sired futurity finalist and top rodeo horse JR Naughty Jet, who has won $224,000 and is still competing, and Three Jets Olena, a winning youth mount that transitioned with his rider to the pro ranks for earnings of $172,000.

His popularity reached new heights under the ownership of Jeff and Andrea Busby, who purchased the stallion in April 2013.

The Busbys were first introduced to Jet through his Grant Littlebred daughters Blazin Black Jet and Blazin Black Beauty, who later produced the 2021 WPRA World Champion Barrel Horse Famous Lil Jet, ridden by Jordon Briggs. They were so impressed with the mares that they had to have their sire.

Under their ownership, the Busby's built Jet's reputation as an aged event sire by put his colts with the best trainers in the business. Janna Brown trained and campaigned Jets Top Gun to more than $330,000 in earnings. Jolene Montgomery won over $235,000 aboard Jets Heart N Soul.

His other aged event standouts include Jet O Red, the 2014 Old Fort Days Derby Champion, 2021 Run For The Rose Futurity Champion RV Brijett, who just won money at the Fort Worth pro rodeo with Stevi Hillman, 2021 Pink Buckle Derby Champion Blazin Superior, 2019 OKC Rookie Champion Jet Fuel Only, and 2017 BFA World Champion Folsom Prisoner just to name a few.

With Jet being a founding stallion in the Pink and Ruby Buckle programs, his offspring earnings continued to rise at an incredible rate with professionals and youth and amateur riders as well. Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi won $175,000 on her homebred Jet mare Blazin Babe Olena last year. The year before youth rider Izzy Conklin won $150,000 with the Jet futurity mare I Can Dee.

"It doesn't take a professional trainer to make them winners," said Andrea Busby in a 2014 interview. "They're kind horses and they want to do their jobs."

Their grittiness and try made them great rodeo horses. In addition to Sheza Blazin Move, Jet also sent two others to the NFR: Kathy Grimes' KG Blazin Nine Oh and the late Blazin Ta Fame, ridden by NFR rookie Vickie Carter.

Jet's daughters are also proving to be champion producers with horses such as NFR qualifier and futurity champion Teasin Dat Guy and rodeo and aged event champion Tres Movidas, who is out of Sheza Blazin Move.

Just two days after his passing, Jet's offspring topped the Texas Champion's Challenge at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo. His grandson Famous Lil Jet took top prize of $10,000 for Jordan Briggs, while his gelded son Jets Top Gun carried Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi to $4,000 in second. They ran only 5/100ths of a second apart.

Jet would have been pleased.

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

Jordon Briggs' horse Rollo named PRCA | AQHA Horse of the Year

Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet "Rollo" have taken the ProRodeo world by storm the past two seasons. Rollo was named the Nutrena Barrel Racing Horse of the Year presented by AQHA in both 2021 and 2022.

Now in 2023, the dominant duo can add another impressive title to their resume. After a vote by fans, Rollo was named the overall winner for PRCA | AQHA Horse of the Year. The voting included all seven of the 2022 Horse of the Year winners by event.

Riding Rollo, Briggs captured the 2021 PRCA World Championship. Over the past two seasons she earned $571,980 aboard the nine-year-old horse. Briggs said she never imagined Rollo would be able to accomplish what he has in his short career.

"It's truly an honor, especially given that we didn't have the Finals we exactly hoped for," said Briggs, a three-time NFR qualifier. "There were definitely some other horses of the year that did have great NFRs. So, I just appreciate so much that people saw how hard he still tried and that he's still an amazing horse no matter what.

"He has done amazing things the last three years that I didn't even think were possible to accomplish in that short amount of time. For him to be the soul income of my family right now and to just enjoy that process while we can has been a huge blessing."

Briggs and Rollo will hit the rodeo road again this winter with their sights set on their third consecutive trip to Las Vegas next December.

"He's only nine years old, so he still has a lot of his career ahead of him hopefully," she said. "We are just getting ready for the winter rodeos and hoping we can do good at those. So, that we can have an easy year and I can take care of Rollo the way he deserves to be taken care of."

Wrangler NFR Payout Rises Again; Now $14.9 million

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association® and Las Vegas Events announced the 2023 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® presented by Teton Ridge will see an increase in the payout for the third consecutive year.

The Wrangler NFR, which is at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas Dec. 7-16, will have a record-setting payout of more than $11.5 million. This amount includes guaranteed prize money of $1.2 million for NFR qualifiers.

Between 2015 and 2020, the NFR paid out a total of $10 million – $8.8 million in competition prize money and $1.2 million in guaranteed prize money to qualifiers. The total purse increased to $10,257,048 in 2021 and $10,900,098 in 2022.

Based on the updated purse in 2023, the increase will see round winners take home $30,706 per round and average winners earn $78,747. Each go-round will pay a total of $99,053, while the average total will pay $297,159 per event.

The stock contractor pay – which is 30% of the contestant payout – increased to $3,450,451.

Known as the richest and most prestigious rodeo in the world, the Wrangler NFR attracts the Top 15 contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding to compete for a share of the increased purse and the coveted PRCA World Champion Gold Buckle. In 2022, the event had a total attendance of 173,350 over the 10 days of competition at the Thomas & Mack Center and has sold out more than 350 consecutive performances in Las Vegas.

Winners take home $119,000 from Fort Worth's Texas Champions Challenge

by Johna Cravens for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

Seven individuals earned $10,000 paychecks at the 2023 Texas Champions Challenge rodeo in Dickies Arena Thursday night. The event featured winners from five iconic Texas rodeos in six events, plus four contestants in freestyle bullfighting.

The 126th edition of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR) paid out $119,000 to 34 competitors in bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, breakaway roping, barrel racing, freestyle bullfighting and bull riding.

The format of the rodeo featured an elimination round in each event where five contestants competed. The top two returned almost immediately for a head-to-head round with the winner taking home $10,000 and a bottle of Fort Worth-based TX Whiskey. The runner-up received $4,000 and the three other contestants from the elimination round each received $1,000. In the bullfighting, the two individuals who did not make the head-to-head round each received $1,500.

The event was also part of the first Texas A & M University day at the FWSSR and featured some of the 90-member Texas A & M Cavalry in the grand entry and an appearance by the school's yell leaders to start the competition.

The first contest was bareback riding. Reigning world champion Jess Pope scored 86 points on Korkow Rodeos' horse Ringworm. Jess's younger brother Ty, the reigning collegiate champion, finished second with 85.5 points on Korkow's Zoowee Mama to join his brother in the final round.

The two broke into big smiles when they realized they would be in a head-to-head match for the $10,000 prize. Ty was first to ride, and he scored 87 points on Brookman Rodeo's horse 3:10 to Yuma. Jess rode another Brookman horse, Boozy Beaver, for 89 points. The Pope brothers took $14,000 back home to Garnett, Kansas, with Jess winning $10,000 and Ty $4,000.

Tristan Martin of Sulphur, Louisiana, was the only reigning Fort Worth Pro Rodeo Tournament champion to win his event at the Texas Champions Challenge. He clocked the only time under four seconds in steer wrestling – 3.97 – to win the elimination round, then bested fellow National Finals Rodeo (NFR) cowboy J.D. Struxness by three-tenths of a second in the final round.

Talking to broadcaster Pam Minnick in the spotlight on the Dickies Arena floor, Martin said, "I love this place. This is my favorite rodeo."

That sentiment was seconded by saddle bronc riding winner Lefty Holman of Visalia, California. The newlywed finished second in the elimination round behind reigning world champion Sage Newman of Melstone, Montana. Newman scored 90.5 points on Mazza Pro Rodeo's horse Ima Winner while Holman scored 87 on Korkow's horse Meat Coma.

In the final round Holman and Newman both competed on horses from the Brookman string with Holman edging Newman 89 to 88.5. "This is the best rodeo all year," Holman told former world champion turned broadcaster Dave Appleton.

2021 World Champion Barrel Racer Jordon Briggs of Tolar, Texas, and her horse Rollo stopped the clock in 16.662 seconds to win the elimination round. Two-time world champ Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi was second with a 16.961 time.

In the final round, Tonozzi changed horses and turned in a time of 16.902. Briggs again rode Rollo and won the $10,000 payout with 16.851.

Briggs told Minnick that the Fort Worth rodeo, then held in Will Rogers Coliseum, was her first big win in 2009. "I love this rodeo," she said, "and Rollo and I will be back Tuesday and Wednesday of next week."

Newly crowned world champion Martha Angelone dominated the breakaway roping. A Virginia native who now lives in Stephenville, Texas, Angelone set a near arena-record time of 1.87 seconds in the elimination round. The only other roper to connect was 2021 reserve world champ Shelby Boisjoli, a Canadian who also lives in Stephenville, with a time of 12.15 -2.15 with a 10-second penalty.

Boisjoli again broke the barrier in the final round, giving Angelone plenty of room to make a solid run to win first. But Angelone again went all out, again stopping the clock in 1.87 seconds. The almost unbelievable feat proved the reigning champ is at the top of her game as the 2023 season gets into full swing.

Freestyle bullfighting returned to the Texas Champions Challenge for the second year. Californian Alex McWilliams and Canadian Aaron Mercer fought the first match, with McWilliams' score of 81.5 moving him to the finals.

The second match featured four-time Bullfighters Only World Champion Weston Rutkowski of Haskell, Texas, and Tyler Mansell of Caldwell, Idaho. Rutkowski showed why he's one of the best freestyle bullfighters in the world with a score of 87, three points better than Mansell.

McWilliams and Rutkowski fought a close duel in the final round with McWilliams scoring 86 points and Rutkowski earning 87.5 to win the event and $10,000.

The bull riding proved to be a two-man match. In the elimination round only NFR cowboys Trey Kimzey of Cheyenne, Oklahoma, and Josh Frost of Randlett, Utah, managed to stay on for the required eight seconds. Kimzey scored 85.5 points on Mazca Pro Rodeo's bull Thunder Dome. Frost was a point behind at 84.5 on Brookman Rodeo's bull Silver Tongue Devil.

They came back in the finals with Kimzey scoring 88 points on Brookman's bull Devils Eye and Frost conquering Mazca's Rock Salt & Nails for 90 points to win the event.

Frost voiced a sentiment that many cowboys and cowgirls have made since the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo moved to Dickies Arena in 2020 when he told Appleton and the crowd "Dickies Arena is the nicest arena I've ever rode in."

The third FWSSR Pro Rodeo Tournament rides into Dickies Arena Friday night at 7:30 p.m. for the first of 16 performances. The event culminates with the Championship Finals on February 4.

Champions Crowned at National Western Stock Show Rodeo

By Susan Kanode For the National Western Stock Show

Championship Sunday at the National Western Stock Show Rodeo presented by Centura Health came to a close in the Denver Coliseum.

The winners were crowned based on how well they did during Sunday's rodeo with the highest scores and fastest times in each event leaving as the champion. A sold-out crowd saw outstanding performances in each event.

It started with Garrett Shadbolt's 89.5-point score in the bareback riding. The Merriman, Nebraska, resident rodeo Cervi Brothers Rodeo's horse named On Second Thought for the title and earned a total of $6,181. It was a special win for Shadbolt who has been coming here nearly every year since joining the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association in 2018.

Clay Smith and Jake Long have each won team roping titles in the Denver Coliseum, but the one in 2023 was the first that they earned together. They had a picture perfect run at 3.9 seconds and left here with $6,821 each.

In the Women's Professional Rodeo Association, the win went to McDade, Texas, barrel racer Jimmie Smith and no one was more surprised at the outcome. Smith barely advanced to the semifinals out of her bracket, then was in the last spot to get to the finals.

Riding her mare A Valiant Nicky "Nicky" she stopped the clock in 14.83 seconds, the fastest run of the whole rodeo. Smith-Tew has ridden Nicky at outdoor rodeos most of the time, but with her success here, she may be changing her mind. They earned nearly $5,000.

Stetson Wright added his name to the list of family members who have won here when he rode Cervi Brothers Rodeo's horse named Ed Bishop for 90 points. His father, uncle and older brother all have their names in the National Western history books.

Other winners were Jace Melvin, from Fort Pierre, S.D., in the steer wrestling, Riley Webb, from Denton, Texas, in the tie-down roping and Bryce Burnell from Sheridan, Wyoming in the bull riding.

Plans are already underway for the 118th National Western Stock Show in 2024, the best 16 days in January.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

At the risk of causing trouble, I want to tell another knife story. We have established that Mike likes knives and seems to be acquiring them like barrel racers acquire horses and bits.

Well, a certain little boy is very impressed with Mike and his knives. This little boy has his own pocket knife and loves to show it... and mimic Mike flicking it open... although his does not do that. Sooooo at church the other night he tried the maneuver and promptly cut himself.

Knowing this was a no no at home, he tried to hide the blood. Donnie, our sound man, came and got a bandaid and helped him clean it up. Does anyone out there think his parents don't know what happened? Of course not!

And we are equally ignorant if we think that God doesn't know when we sin.

HE'S RIGHT THERE! You didn't leave Him home and go be dumb. You took Him with you! Hit yourself on the forehead several times and say, "Dumb! Dumb! Dumb!" Sheesh.

If you are guilty of sinning, let's all turn in our Bibles to 1 John 1:9-10, read it, repent and start again. We're going to get this! Have a blessed week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
