Paige Jones and High Cotton Lane Win Inaugural XFBR Match Race

By Bonnie Wheatley

A unique barrel racing event introduced by X Factor Barrel Racing founder Pace Freed brought some of the biggest names in the industry to NRS Arena in Decatur, Texas, on January 25 for the inaugural XFBR Qualifier and Invitational Match Race. The race, which was livestreamed via pay-per-view, was held in part to help promote the launch of X Factor Barrel Racing, which is an online barrel racing training platform similar to Freed's popular X Factor Team Roping.

The Qualifier portion of the race was held the morning of January 25 to determine which 25 qualifiers would advance to the evening's main event and a chance to compete for a portion of the $50,000 payout. Women's Professional Rodeo Association world champion barrel racers Hailey Kinsel and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi were among 25 who received invitations to the Match Race.

Taking the Match Race championship and $11,500 home to Wayne, Oklahoma, was 2020 WPRA Rookie of the Year, Paige Jones. Jones and her exceptional equine partner High Cotton Lane, aka "Cotton," posted a 15.931 to edge Shelley Morgan riding HR FamesKissAndTell. HR FamesKissAndTell, by CEO and out of Fames Fiery Kiss by Dash Ta Fame, was ridden by Morgan to a 16.067 for reserve and $10,000.

ABOUT X FACTOR BARREL RACING

Launched in mid-January, X Factor Barrel Racing is an educational platform where barrel racers can go for instant access to advice from professionals. Xfactorbarrelracing.com houses some free video content, as well as premium content that is available to members only, such as access to individual coaching and video critiques.

"We started X Factor Team Roping about seven years ago," said Freed, X Factor Barrel Racing founder. "X Factor Barrel Racing is an extension of what we've done in the team roping world. Since so many of us seem to be visual learners it makes sense to offer the instructional videos and coaching from experts like Hailey Kinsel and Lisa Lockhart in order to help people within the barrel racing industry similar to what we've done in team roping."

Freed says that having the X Factor Qualifier and Invitational Match Race was a way to promote the sport while letting people know about xfactorbarrelracing.com. He anticipates producing another barrel racing event in the not-too-distant future, and while details are yet to be finalized, Freed says NRS is a possible venue to host a second race.

"The race went well, and so far, the feedback has been great," Freed said. "I think we had something like 83 in the Qualifier. Hailey [Kinsel] set up criteria for the invitational portion. In the Match Race it was a 100 percent payback of the entry fees."

"I think they did a great job putting it on," Jones said. "The entry fees were a bit higher than normal, but it paid higher too."

"He had an awesome first barrel," Jones said when asked about her winning XFBE Match Race run. "That set him up for a good second; he slipped a little there, but it didn't slow him down a lot. He inhaled third and then just really ran home."

Jones and her 2014 gelding by The Goodbye Lane and out of the Dash Ta Fame daughter Soon ToBe Famous are no strangers to the winner's circle. Jones estimates High Cotton Lane's lifetime earnings at more than $300,000 to date. In 2018, at just 16, Jones became the youngest Barrel Futurities of America World Futurity Champion riding "Cotton" to the victory. Jones and Cotton finished reserve at the 2020 Junior American. She looks forward to another chance to qualify for RFD-TV's The American at the upcoming Semifinals and hopes to enter as many professional rodeos as possible this winter.

Jones, who received an invitation to the Match Race by virtue of earning the 2020 WPRA Rookie title, entered two other horses in the Qualifier to advance, but was plagued with hit barrels in the Match until her trip aboard High Cotton Lane.

"I was relieved to get around the barrels on him since I'd been having some trouble keeping the barrels up," said the fulltime professional barrel racer.

Jones placed 2nd in the Qualifier riding her sister Ceri Ward's stallion Chasin Misty with a 16.298 worth $2,988. Chasin Misty is by Chasin Firewater and out of the blue hen producer Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. Jones was 5th in the Qualifier riding Famous Hayday, by PC Frenchmans Hayday and out of Jaxsons Olympic Fame by Poco Lijerito, to a 16.379 for $1,494. Reigning WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel won the Qualifier Race aboard DH Jess Stellar with a 16.277 for $3,735. DH Jess Stellar is by Mighty Jess and out of the Sun Frost daughter PC Frosted Stellar.

Jones thanked her sponsor MVP Equine Supplements for their support, as well as her sister Ceri Ward for allowing her to ride Chasin Misty.

Kelley Carrington-French & Slice Of PeachFame Sweep Southeastern Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Both the Southeastern Circuit Champion and Circuit Finals Championship went home to Boston, Georgia, with Kelley Carrington French, thanks to the efforts of her 9-year-old mare Slice Of PeachFame.

Like all competitors at the COVID-rescheduled Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo, held January 22-23 in David, Florida, French grateful to the committee for having the event that's traditionally held in November. She was especially appreciative for the added money and drag halfway through the barrel race.

"It was awesome—the fact that they had it and added so much money," said French. "I really didn't think there was going to be that much added since they couldn't have spectators. They really went above and beyond."

She was also extremely thankful for a drag halfway through the 12-barrel racer field each night.

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelley Carrington-French

Slice Of Peachfame, "Slice" 15.1 h, 1,100 lbs. "She's a tank."

BIT: An older C-gag draw bit. "I had been running her with a Sherry Cervi draw with a copper wrapped mouthpiece. She kept biting that mouthpiece and tearing up the bit and it would cut her mouth. I went digging back through all my stuff, like from 33 years ago, and found a bit that won a lot with. It's the same style bit but has a big smooth mouthpiece. She's been loving it."

SADDLE: Bob Marshall

SADDLE PAD: Cactus pad with a homemade build up at the withers

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front only

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, steel on back

FEED: KER Relieve

HAY: Local coastal

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Ultimate Oil, KER Slow Release Electrolytes, Red Cell, Immune and Hoof & Bone from Silver Lining Herbs

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magna Wave three times a week. Depending on the weather, she wears a Back On Track or XLR 8 Blanket. "She wears the XLR 8 the most. She wears it at night and when traveling in the trailer. It's kind of the best of both worlds. It's like a PHT and Back On Track combined. It can breathe in the summer. That's her go-to blanket. If it's really chilly out I'll put the Back On Track on her."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "She's not the easiest horse to ride as far as loping circles or things like that. I have a pattern here at my house. If I ride the border of our property it's one mile. I'll jog her and lope some circles in a corner where the trees are. If she's in the wide open space, she can get a little hot. At least two times a week, I ride her just bareback with a halter and lead rope. That's when she's most relaxed and rides along nice."

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine, OE Nutraceuticals, Ranch Dress'n, Silver Lining Herbs, XLR 8 Blankets, Elite Enhancements & Designs, Bob Marshall Saddles, KER

"Our sport is so tight," she said, while praising the willingness of the committee and Troy Weekley to drag after six runners. "The ground needs to be consistent for everyone all the way through. I thought that was a really good thing."

The Southeastern Circuit has a lot of its lucrative rodeos in the fall and early winter. French and Slice had capitalized on those events before COVID shut the circuit down in March.

"Our bigger rodeos are in January, February and March," French explained. "Slice did so good at the beginning of the year before COVID. The very last rodeo before COVID was Arcadia (Florida) and she won that one. She had done really well up to that point." The pair were winning the circuit until the very last rodeo of the season in Springhill, Louisiana, where Victoria Williams slipped past by $318. It was the only rodeo where French didn't run Slice.

"The year before when I ran her there, she fell," she recalled. "It was just apprehensive. It turns out the ground was beautiful. It was a bad move on my part. Victoria did very well there and jumped ahead of me."

French and Slice had their work cut out for them at the Circuit Finals. In the first round, they finished third to Margo Crowther's winning run of 15.14 on the NFR qualifying stallion Chicados Cash that she acquired at the Jud Little Dispersal last May.

"I felt pretty good going to bed that night, because Margo was third going into the Finals behind me," said French, who also noted that Slice had pulled a front shoe in the alley at the start of her run. "I didn't think it was going to pay that much since it was just two go's and an average. The next morning when I saw the payout I was like 'Oh my gosh!' Not only did she catch me, but she was also ahead of me and she had a faster time than me for the average and there was only one run left. I was like ‘Oh dear!’ It was an all or nothing deal the next night!”

French drew on her bad experience at the NBHA World last November to prepare for her second run at the Circuit Finals. “This time I did things differently than I did at the NBHA world,” she said. “At the NBHA World I let the pressure get to me. This time around I kept my eyes focused on God and the task at hand, and it worked out.”

They turned in the fastest time of the Circuit Finals to win the second round and aggregate for total earnings of $7,033. French says the “icing on the cake” was Slice being voted “Horse with the Most Heart.”

French had purchased Slice from Stephanie Wheeler and her son Brian, who trained the mare, as a 5-year-old. The daughter of Dash Ta Fame, out of the great Frenchmans Guy mare SX Frenchmans Peach, was bred by the partnership of Stephanie Wheeler and Carisa Shearer. Slice had a limited futurity career with the Wheelers, but French’s biggest question was how she would transition to rodeos.

“We were concerned if she could handle (rodeo): if she could take the atmosphere, the footing,” said French. But Slice erased her doubts at her very first pro rodeo. “I took her to Lafayette, Louisiana, and she got a check.”

Slice has been Kelley’s main rodeo mount for the past three years, including the last three of her eight appearances at the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo.

French, who also has five First Frontier Circuit Finals qualifications to her resume, has a busy schedule ahead. In addition to the available Southeastern Circuit Rodeos in Jackson, Mississippi, Perry, Georgia, and Kissimmee, Florida, she has the American Semifinals in Fort Worth, the RAM National Circuit Finals back in Kissimmee with Southeastern runner-up Margo Crowther, as well as the WCRA Rodeo in Corpus Christi, Texas.

... A NEGATIVE TO A POSITIVE

At the 2020 NBHA World Finals in Perry, Georgia, Kelley Carrington French and her great mare Slice Of PeachFame were riding a high. They were sixth in the first round and turned in the fastest time of the entire event to win the second round of the Open.

Right before the short round, French lost her focus.

“I got to looking around,” she said. “I looked at Tiany Schuster. I looked at Edwin Cameron. I was looking at all the other competitors and their great horses and I totally lost focus of just me and Slice.”

Their run in the short round was a mess. She rode with no confidence and crashed into the first barrel. French went home pondering what went wrong.

“I asked myself why that happened and just picked my brain,” she said. “It just came to me. Peter could walk on water as long as he was looking at God. Once, he realized what was going on around him, he sunk.” I thought, ‘That’s just what you did Kelley. You got to looking around and just sunk.’ I vowed that I wasn’t going to do that anymore.”

She first put her new found focus into practice at the American Semifinals Qualifier in Jackson, Mississippi.

“I didn’t look at the other competitors,” she said. “Everyone entered was in it to win and capable of it. You just stay focused on you and your dream and what God’s put before you.”

She won the Qualifier that day and then used that same mental focus to have a come-from-behind victory at the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo.

“If I hadn’t, I would have choked for sure,” she said. “I worked harder at just staying focused on God and us and not looking around.”

Always end the day with a positive thought, no matter how hard things were.
Tomorrow’s a fresh opportunity to make it better.

Caleb Smidt, Dona Kay Rule receive exemptions to RFD-TV's The American

RFD-TV's The American Rodeo presented by Durango Boots announced today two exemption invitees for this year's competition. Tie-Down Roper Caleb Smidt and Barrel Racer Dona Kay Rule have both been invited to compete as exemption invitees in this year's richest weekend in western sports March 6-7, 2021 at AT&T Stadium.

Due to an unfortunate turn of events last year and testing positive for COVID-19, both Smidt and Rule were sent home and unable to participate in the 2020 National Finals Rodeo (NFR) and interfered with the opportunity to be invited to compete at the 2021 American Rodeo.

"Just think how devastated you would be if you worked hard all year long to make it to the pinnacle of your sport to learn that you tested positive for COVID-19 and can't compete," said Randy Bernard, CEO of The American Rodeo. "We are very proud and honored to invite Caleb Smidt and Dona Kay Rule to compete at The American and have a chance to win a lot of money."

Now, both Rule and Smidt have a choice to make. Either accept or not accept the exemption invitation to compete at RFD-TV's The American Rodeo finals at AT&T Stadium. By accepting the exemption invitation, Rule and Smidt automatically advance to RFD-TV's The American Rodeo at AT&T Stadium as an invitee, which means they are eligible for the $100,000, but not the million dollars. However, as an exemption invitee, any money earned at The American Rodeo finals, does not count towards the PRCA world standings.

By not accepting the exemption invitation, Rule and Smidt have the opportunity to take their chances and qualify for RFD-TV's The American Rodeo through the American qualifier system. This means that both would have to first earn a spot as a qualifier, and then make their way through the Semi-Finals at Cowtown Coliseum to earn their spot to compete as a qualifier and be eligible for the million dollars at The American Rodeo at AT&T Stadium.

The American Rodeo is known as the world's richest weekend in western sports due to its tremendous prize offering of $2.3 million. Qualifying events are held across the country, throughout the calendar year, as ropers and riders hope to compete and make it to The American Rodeo Semi-Finals and Finals in Texas.

Caleb Smidt is a 2X PRCA World Champion and is no stranger to The American Rodeo as a past champion in the 2019 tie-down roping.

Dona Kay Rule who qualified for the NFR this past year posted an emotional response when she learned she wouldn't be able to compete. Rule competes on High Valor aka "Valor" and in 2020, won the AQHA / WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year. At age 62, Rule shows no signs of slowing down and is one of the oldest competitors in barrel racing.

Tune in to Road To The American on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV at 8pm ET Wednesday night to learn what Rule and Smidt decide – to accept or not accept an exemption invitation to the 2021 RFD-TV's The American Rodeo.

The 11-day rodeo competition kicks off on February 25th in the Fort Worth Stockyards for slack and semi-finals and the finals take place over the weekend of March 6-7, 2021 at the Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium in Arlington, TX. The American Rodeo unites the top athletes in the world from the PRCA and pits them against underdogs who advance from The American Rodeo Semi-Finals, together to battle for the biggest single, life-changing paycheck of their lives. All events will be broadcast live on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV. Tickets for The American Rodeo at AT&T Stadium March 6-7, 2021 can be purchased at SeatGeek.com. Standard ticket prices range from $20-$150, encompassing four pricing tiers for every level of rodeo fan. Due to current COVID-19 restrictions, only a limited number of tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-serve basis. Tickets will be sold in seating pods of 2, 4, or 6. Tickets to The American Rodeo Semi-Finals March 3-5, 2021 at Cowtown Coliseum in the Fort Worth Stockyards can be purchased at CowtownColiseum.com. Standard ticket prices range from $25-$55.

Designer Red passes at 26

Designer Red, the 1995 son of On The Money Red, passed away 1/26/21 in Brazil (per Danny Ray's Facebook) at the age of 26. Designer Red was the 2002 AQHA World Champion in Senior Barrel Racing after leaving the racetrack and quickly became a leading barrel sire there after.

He sired over $2.275 Million with an average of $18,056 per earner in the United States (per Equistat) plus he was a very successful sire in Brazil as well after being sold there in 2008. He sired the All Time Leading Money Earning Stud, Slick By Design (earner of over $618k per Equistat), NBHA World Champion Bully By Design, and Old Fort Days Champion VF A Sporty Design to just name a few.

Here is a Facebook post via Hallie Ray:

"We lost a Champion today. Designer Red passed away 1/26/21 Designer was a champion himself. His offspring have far exceeded any breeders dream. Slick By Design, VF Sporty Design, VF Red Rhinestones etc. Designer was by the immortal On The Money Red who passed away 1/25/2001. They both had the heart and courage of a lion. Smarter than most people Danny Ray would say. We are beyond blessed to have had such an amazing stallion. RIP my friend Always a champion."

Our thoughts and prayers are with the connections of Designer Red. —BRR

Womens Rodeo World Championship Announces Updates

The Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC) announced updates regarding Challenger classification for the Nov. 1-6 event, at South Point Arena, held in conjunction with Professional Bull Riders (PBR) World Finals in Las Vegas. In addition to the classification updates for 2021, there will also be a new technology release associated with the WRWC Leaderboard (Segment W21), which will separate athletes into Pro and Challenger - with a Leaderboard for each classification.

Last year, WRWC launched the inaugural event using this revolutionary Pro and Challenger classification system. Athlete classification is established under the Rodeo Logistics Athlete Classifications (RLAC); using Equi-Stat earnings in Barrel Racing, Global Handicaps Systems numbers in Team Roping and Virtual Rodeo Qualifier verified earnings in Breakaway Roping. Rodeo Logistics Athlete Classifications is a tiering process where athletes are ranked based on earnings in their respective WRWC disciplines.

"Instituting the Challenger is an effort to create more opportunities for all women rodeo athletes," said Associate Vice President of Athlete Initiatives Sami Jo Smith. "This effort will level the playing field by separating the Pro and Challenger athletes into their respective pools of competition in the WRWC qualifying rounds. This gives each group both a fair and direct path to compete at the WRWC."

Smith also stated that athletes classified as a Challenger are eligible to compete in either the WRWC Challenger competition or the WRWC Pro Competition. Athletes classified as Pros are only eligible to compete in the WRWC Open competition.

The newly updated earnings for Rodeo Logistics Athlete Classifications (classification) is as follows:

Barrel Racing: You are a Challenger if your earnings do not exceed the amount listed below in any one of the defined time periods:

2018-20 = $20,000 Annually; Lifetime Earnings = $100,000

Breakaway Roping: You are a Challenger if your earnings do not exceed the amount listed below in any one of the defined time periods:

2018-20 = $6,000 Annually; Lifetime Earnings = $20,000

Team Roping: You are a Challenger Team Roper if...

At or below a #4.5 Header, At or below a #4.5 Heeler

*Based on the Global Handicaps System. * All team ropers MUST have a current Global Handicaps membership

The announcement revealed an athlete's status as a Pro or Challenger will be determined based on known (verifiable) information as of January 1, 2021. The athlete's status will remain as classified following this date, regardless of their competitive efforts or earnings through the start of competition at the 2021 WRWC.

In addition to the Classification update, WRWC also announced that the 2021 WRWC Leaderboard will now be separated by Pros and Challengers using each discipline's Rodeo Logistics Athlete Classifications. For all athletes that nominate an event for the W21 Segment, and earn points, they will be placed on the respective leaderboard based on their individual classification.

Challenger athletes who are currently ranked on the W21 leaderboard as of today, will have the opportunity to choose the leaderboard on which they would like to compete by emailing support@wcrarodeo.com by Sunday, Feb. 28. New athletes on the W21 Leaderboard have until April 30 to choose their classification. Once an athlete has earned over 250 points on the Pro or Challenger leaderboard, they can no longer switch leaderboards.

Nominations for the November 2021 Women's Rodeo World Championship (Segment W21) will remain open until October 3. Women rodeo athletes from all over the globe are eligible to qualify to compete at the $750,000 payout event.

whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine,
you did for me.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I sliced the edge of my finger OFF with a rolling razor blade about three weeks ago. And the subsequent race to Urgent Care, then to the ER, was a wakeup call for me! Three hours later, I'm home. Urgent Care was busy.

Could they give me a bandaid and could I come back in the morning??? No! Off to the ER. Could they check to see which level of distress I was in and then wait in the pickup until they called me? Guess that'll have to work. But could I have some paper towels because it's still bleeding pretty good?

I WAS praying over my finger. Fervently! And I admit in the middle of the praying, I was asking myself, "WHAT THE HECK WERE YOU THINKING?" When I got home, my son said in his calm way, "Mom, we could have done that down in the arena." For sure.

My point this week? We are living in a time when we need to put our hope and faith in almighty God and not men. I'm not AGAINST any man or woman. I'm FOR God! Men and women can let us down, but God never will.

In prayer yesterday, I heard the question, "What are YOU and God going to do from this time forward?" Well, I'm going to pray like never before. I am not going to wring my hands and hope that SOMEONE, SOMEWHERE will DO something! No. You and God, and God and I, are a powerful force for good! We must stop WAITING for something to happen, we must MAKE something happen!

How? Please read Luke 6:45-49. In part it instructs us to build our house on the rock (Jesus). If we build our house on the sand (the World), when the storm comes, our house will fall. That's not us!

We survive and THRIVE in hard times because our foundation is the Bible and we do what God says! We are winners in Jesus! Let's help someone else win this week!
