Consistency Pays for Mary Walker and Perculatin at National Western in Denver

By Tanya Randall
2012 WPRA

World Champions Mary Walker and Perculatin ("Latte") were the models of consistency en route to winning the National Western Pro Rodeo in Denver, Jan. 16-26. The duo from Ennis, Texas, picked up $7,906 of the $64,192 total purse, of which $35,250 was generously added, for being the best of the 108 entries over three runs.

"I was just tickled to get around all three of them, three times," laughed Walker, who hails from Ennis, Texas. She and Latte had tipped a can in the first round of the Colorado versus The World rodeo at the opening of the National Western. "He did real good up there."

At the National Western, all contestants make their first and second round runs in back to back performances. Walker made her first and second runs on Friday night and Saturday morning respectively, so she didn't have a long layover until the Finals on Sunday—which just happened to be her birthday.

Just 5/100ths of a second separated all three of their runs. They were a 15.45 in the first round, good enough to finish fourth to Jane Melby and First Down Perk's winning 15.34. A 15.47 tied for ninth in the second, which was won by Paxton Segelke and HPQ Smokin Rascal in 15.21, the fastest run of the rodeo.

Incidentally, Melby and Segelke's round winning runs came in the last two back to back performances on Saturday. The top 12 making the cutoff for Sunday's Final run—in order of two-run average placing—were Lisa Lockhart and An Oakie With Cash, Walker and Latte, Shelly Morgan and Will Merada, Megan Williams and Mr JB

Vondette and Cache A Mount and Kendra Dickson and Dr Te Hancock.

The only hiccup Walker had was running to her third barrel in her second run.

"He was a little short at the third barrel, which a lot of horses do at Denver because it's so close to that back fence," said the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame member. "He kind of got me tilted off and I thought 'just sit up, don't fall off, ride your horse.'"

The setup at the National Western makes it a challenge.

"You run from a side alley so the pattern sits cock-eyed in the arena," explained Walker. "Like your third barrel is in the corner off the right side. Your first barrel is a little bit closer and your second barrel is a little bit further up and then third barrel is in the corner back there. It's a straight pattern; it's just not straight to the arena.

"It's really hard to make sure you finish your first barrel because

Vegas Keeps NFR Until 2024

Following unanimous votes by the Las Vegas Events Board of Trustees and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Board of Directors, both organizations jointly announced today that they have reached an agreement to keep the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas through 2024. The new agreement will begin following the 2014 Wrangler NFR.

Per the agreement, LVE will guarantee $16.5 million annually in purse and sponsorship for the Wrangler NFR. From 2015-19, the contestant purse will be $10 million, while stock contractors will receive $3 million annually. The contestants will be guaranteed $10,000 each year, which will not be offset by contestant winnings. From 2020-24, there will be cost-of-living increases to each purse and guarantee.

Additional elements of the agreement include a season-long sponsorship program with the PRCA, presenting sponsorships of the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo and 12 RAM Circuit Final Rodeos, as well as the National Finals Steer Roping, if it is held in Las Vegas.

"Perhaps the best aspect of this agreement," said PRCA Chairman of the Board Keith Martin, "is that it benefits every PRCA member - contestants, stock contractors, committees and contract personnel. There is an investment here to advance the PRCA's circuit system and help the sport continue to grow."

"For nearly 30 years, Las Vegas has built a strong partnership with the PRCA and its contestants," said Bill McBeath, chairman of the Las Vegas Events Board of Trustees. "This new agreement clearly demonstrates the commitment that Las Vegas has to the PRCA, to the overall growth of the sport of rodeo and to the contestants. We feel that the new agreement is beneficial to all parties, and we're very pleased to continue to host this iconic event for an additional ten years."

The Wrangler NFR, known as the richest and most prestigious rodeo in the world, has sold out 270 consecutive performances and attracts the top 15 contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding. Qualification is based on the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association World Standings. In 2013, the event had a total attendance of 176,558 over the ten days of competition in Las Vegas, resulting in a non-gaming economic impact of $87.9 million for the destination.

"Since 1985, more than one million visitors have traveled to the world's premier destination to experience the energy and excitement of two great brands - Las Vegas and the NFR," said Rossi Ralenkotter, president/CEO of the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority. "This new agreement will ensure NFR and its loyal fans will be back to Las Vegas for another decade of unrivaled experiences."

In 2014, the Wrangler NFR will run from Dec. 4 through 13 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Added Money for Paints at the 2013 BFA World Championship

During the 2013 BFA World Championships December 9-14, 2013 the Paint Barrel Racing Incentive Program (PBRIP) has introduced a new $5,000 incentive for the BFA Juvenile. To be eligible, the horse must be PBRIP enrolled and must have at least one Regular Registered Paint parent in the 1st generation. The Top 5 PBRIP Payout will be a two run average -- Wednesday, December 11th and Friday, December 13th and must be present for check-in on December 9th to receive number; no exceptions. The payout will be 1st-$1,650, 2nd-$1,350, 3rd-$1,000, 4th-$650, 5th- $350.

The PBRIP enrollment forms are available on the APHA barrel racing website, visit racing.apha.com/barrelracers. BFA Juvenile forms will be available in June. For more information about the APHA or PBRIP contact Karen Utecht via mail at 2800 Meacham Blvd., Fort Worth, TX 76137, via phone at 817.222.6444 or via email at kutecht@apha.com. For more information about the BFA contact Cindy Arnold via email at cindy@barrelfuturitiesofamerica.com.

BHN, Charmayne James and Kristie Peterson

Barrel Horse News, one of the equine industry's most trusted sources in the sport of barrel racing, recently announced a partnership to produce a three-day barrel racing clinic with multiple-time world champions, Charmayne James and Kristie Peterson. "A New Turn: Improve More Than Just Your Time" will be held in Wilmington, Ohio, May 9-11, 2014 at Roberts Arena.

The clinic experience will include a 5-D jackpot barrel racing for clinic participants, as well as a trade show with a range of vendors, providing a full weekend of education, product availability and fun.

Amanda Johnson, marketing coordinator for Barrel Horse News, says the extensive nature of the weekend gives attendees a unique opportunity to improve any area of barrel racing needs.

"A New Turn: Improve More Than Just Your Time" is an event we developed to allow women the opportunity to experience an all-inclusive weekend that truly is a barrel racer's dream," Johnson said. "We want to have the world champions there for educational purposes and to help the rider and their horse. We will have vendors available to help women with fashion needs like proper jean and boot fitting for their shape and size, while at the same time, they can get fittings for tack and saddles."

Tickets will also be available for "Night with the Champions" dinner during the weekend event, which will feature Patti Colbert as guest speaker. Colbert is known for her legendary career in the equine industry, having served in many roles including former executive director of the Mustang Heritage Foundation and creator of the "Extreme Mustang Makeover."

you have to aim and go up to your second barrel. You really have to be on your toes and guide your horse.”

In the finals, Dickson and Dr Te Hancock proved they were both well recovered from their near catastrophic fall at the Texas Circuit Finals with a round winning 15.23. Walker and Latte finished fourth with a 15.42 to wrap up the average win.

“The event was great,” said Walker, who is sponsored by Platinum Performance, Justin Boots, TheraPlate, Ice Vibe, American Hats, Panhandle Slim—Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Omaha Truck and Trailer, MGM Grand, VetLase, Relentless and Barrelhorseworld.com. “The fans and crowd were great. Denver puts on a really good show and they have a really great hospitality for the contestants. And, I got a really nice buckle.”

The victory added to Walker’s early season standings lead. Prior to the rodeo, she was in the No. 1 position with $9,305.

However, there is no rest in sight as the lucrative winter run as just started. Walker and Latte make their first round run at the Fort Worth Stock Show on Thursday—they won the Fort Worth Shootout Rodeo last Thursday before traveling to Denver—and then head to the $3,000-added Los Fresnos Rodeo on Saturday. She’s out at the Champions Challenge in Rapid City on February 4.

Walker also has two projects to season—4-year-old geldings A Frosty Please and Perkin For A Corona. She has A Frosty Please, by Bug In My Frosty out of Dash Ta Please, a full sister to Famous JR, by Dash Ta Fame, entered in the Old Fort Days Futurity in May. Perkin For A Corona, by No Mas Corona out of Canadian Rodeo Champion Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks, will be held until he’s 5.

“Hopefully this year will be as good as the last two year,” she said. “It’s been great. He’s working good and feeling good. We’ll go to all the building rodeos over the winter and then give him a break before we leave for the summer run.”

Fort Worth Super Shootout® Blazes New Trail

by Johna Cravens for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

A new era at the legendary Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo began Thursday night with a new tournament-style rodeo event, the Fort Worth Super Shootout®, presented by Cinch Jeans & Shirts.

The Fort Worth Rodeo was the world's first indoor rodeo and has been blazing a trail in the world of rodeo ever since.

Thursday's event featured champions from each of eight legendary rodeos, including the Calgary Stampede, Rodeo Houston, the Reno Rodeo, the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo, Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo, Rodeo Austin, the National Western Stock Show & Rodeo in Denver, Colo., and the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo®. The champions competed in bareback bronc riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing and bull riding in a tournament format with each rodeo's team wearing the same colored shirt for easy identification.

First, eight contestants competed in each event, with the top four qualifying for the second round where the winner of that round received a briefcase with $10,000 cash inside. Many of the contestants were current or former world champions and National Finals Rodeo qualifiers and much of the livestock was among the elite in pro rodeo.

While the team concept may have been new to rodeo fans, they knew when they were seeing outstanding rides and runs.

Volunteers from the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo® then presented each champion with a beautiful hand-tooled briefcase containing $10,000 cash.

The winning team from Cheyenne Frontier Days each received an additional $1,000 and even those cowboys and cowgirls who did not make the shootout round received $500 each.

The World's Original Indoor Rodeo begins its 29-performance run at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Will Rogers Coliseum.

Bauserman & Promise Me A Wagon Haul Home a Title

By Tanya Randall

Newly crowned BFA Superstakes Champions Cody Bauserman and Promise Me A Wagon ("Possum") picked up their first futurity championship of 2014 with a $4,499 victory at the 40-entry, $10,000-added East Coast Classic Futurity, held January 24-25 in Clemson, S.C.

"I was really pleased with him and glad to get him another win," said the Sallisaw, Okla., barrel horse and Thoroughbred racehorse trainer. "I'd like to thank the East Coast Classic for just putting it on. I know they didn't get they turn out they wanted (it was exceptionally cold that weekend), but they still put the money up for the entries they had."

In the first round, Bauserman and Possum had a touch of trouble at their first barrel that kept them from placing.

"He just wasn't quite on his game and got by the first barrel a little bit," said Bauserman. "I just wanted to make sure I didn't hit any barrels so I could stay in there for the average. He finished up like 12th in the first go, but he was in striking distance of what he needed to do. I wasn't disappointed in it, but I wasn't really happy with it either."

Before the second go, Bauserman used an opportunity to ride in the arena to school Possum on his first barrel. The result was 15.561, which won the second round of the futurity by more than 3/10ths.

"The next day, he really hooked up and had one of those runs you get every now and then, but I got it when he needed it. I was really tickled with that," he said. They also picked up $620 for placing sixth in the Open 1D Saturday with their carryover for total event earnings of $5,119.

Bauserman bought Possum as a yearling in 2011. The 4-year-old brown gelding is by leading racehorse sire PYC Paint Your Wagon and out of barrel racing blue blood Pie Sky Promises. A talented barrel horse herself, Pie Sky Promises is by Pie In The Sky out of one of the all-time great barrel horse producers Joyous Bug, by Bugs Alive In 75. Pie Sky Promises is also the dam of one of Bauserman's brightest aged event stars, Promises To Dash.

"He's just really similar to his brother that I ran some years back," said Bauserman. "I always thought that the other horse's first barrel was a little iffy early in the year and then he just got better with it. I think this colt is the same way. His first barrel is going to be perfect sometimes and other times you're just going to have to deal with what he gives you. But, I think he's going to get better as the year goes about the first barrel."

Bauserman also won the first round of the futurity with Bullseye Bullion for Alexia Mehrle, who raised the 4-year-old stallion.

"The first go he was really on his game," he said. They won $2,391 for winning round and placing second in the Open 2D with their carryover time. "He made a nice, smooth fluid run. The second day he got a little aggressive. I think just being a stud made him a little more aggressive the second day, and I was probably a little more aggressive the second day too. It's like I told his owner, I went for it. Even though I was winning it on the other horse, I was just trying to get that stud to the winner's circle."

Even though they finished out of the money in the average, Bauserman was pleased with the young stallion's performance, especially since he didn't get to showcase his talent in the BFA SuperStakes in Oklahoma City. Bauserman was only allowed to ride one horse and he had to choose between these two colts.

"I was having a hard time making a decision on which one I was going to run," he recalled. "It was hard but we had to put a rider on him for the City (Oklahoma City). I think he just started getting run happy at the City."

Bullseye Bullion is by leading barrel horse sire Bully Bullion out of Top Shawne, by Shawne Bug.

"There's not many of those Bully Bullions left and he's out of a really nice Shawne Bug mare," said Bauserman, who has messed with the colt off and on since he was a 2-year-old. "I think that horse will cross up well with any of those mares. He's got all kinds of options. You can breed pretty much anything to him. He's got some of that old school breeding and it shows because he's a tough little son-of-a-gun, too. He's gritty, really, really fast."

Next up for Bauserman's talented duo is the LG Pro Classic in Kinder, La., in mid-February and the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Bryan, Texas, mid-March.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A horse destined for a slaughter plant later became a champion and well known in the world of barrel racing. A very plain bay mare in Montana won every quarter-mile race she was entered in.

Appearances can be deceiving and things of this world are temporary and subject to change. God only is changeless and His Word is true. Study His word in the Bible and rely on His many promises. "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteous and all these things shall be added to you." Matthew 6:33. If you live by faith with a firm foundation on the Word of God, you will live the abundant life Jesus died to obtain for you.

Don't be quick to rush to judgement either. I knew an old rancher who served the Lord in his own way and brought quite a few to salvation. He wasn't much to look at and his personality was rough and crusty. He'd led a fast life filled with booze, car wrecks, women and fist fighting. Then he came face to face with the Lord, got baptized and changed his ways.

This unlikely man started reading the Bible every day and praying. He gave away countless Bibles and witnessed to others how the Lord had changed his life. His friends couldn't believe this was the same guy they knew, but he spoke their language and knew what low life was so he could reach those who others couldn't. He died a peaceful, Godly death a couple years ago and I know he is rejoicing in Heaven now. This just goes to show that you can't depend on what your natural eyes see in this world. God is in control and... "He has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty..." 1 Corinthians 1:27.

Make Jesus your Lord and Savior today if you've never done so before. He's waiting to hear from you!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
