Jane Melby and First Down Perk Score At National Western In Denver

By Tanya Randall

Former Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and International Pro Rodeo Association Barrel Racing Champion Jane Melby got her year tapped off in the right direction with a $10,677 victory at the $35,200-added pro rodeo at the National Western, held Jan. 17-27 in Denver.

"I've always liked rodeos that I've done well at in the past," said Melby, who now calls Burneyville, Okla., home. "You have a more positive feeling towards the rodeo, and at Denver, I've done well in the past."

Melby was excited to take her 12-year-old black gelding First Down Perk to the challenging setup. The alley at Denver is offset and with the barrels set square to the alley, the pattern is crooked in the arena.

"It's kind of challenging, having that pattern cocked," said Melby, who is sponsored by Cowgirl Tuff, Formula 707, Logan Coach Trailers and 5-Star Ranch, "and if you really study it you can master it. If you don't pay attention when you leave that first barrel, it can really get you because you've got to move right to get to the second barrel."

Melby used her prior Denver experience to get "Perkulees" through with a solid run of 15.39 in the first round.

"My first run, he had a great first barrel," she said. "He felt a little short on two, so I had to kind of lift my hand. On barrel three, I knew from being in the pen earlier it feels like you are in a tight little corner. I remember when I ran Beauty (RC Back In Black) at Denver, she saw the sheep at the third barrel and that freaked her out. In my mind I know all these things and I kind of pushed him by three. I predicted that I would place around sixth or seventh and I ended up splitting eighth and ninth, so I was close."

Her second run, Perkulees jammed on his front end at the third but still stopped the clock in 15.20 to split third.

"I thought he could be really fast if I could have a perfect third like I had at first and second," she said. "My third run he felt a little short on one, so I felt I should whip him to two. I hadn't done that on my other runs. When I did I almost missed my horn on the comeback of two. It caused me to drop my head so he got a little lost going to three."

Laughing she added, "My thought was if you keep going forward you will be fine—forward and fast—and I kind of shot by it but I was going forward and he was going fast."

Their finals time of 15.37 gave them the average victory over Anesa Self and Tall Glass Of Fame.

EHV-1 Confirmed in Horse Stalled at Denver

The Colorado Department of Agriculture is investigating one confirmed case of Equine Herpesvirus (EHV-1) within the state. A quarantine has been placed on seven horses including the index case; a hold order has been placed on six additional horses who may have had direct contact.

The affected horse, a six year old gelding from Texas, is part of the team of quarter horses used during the National Western Stock Show (NWSS) rodeo to pull a stagecoach during rodeo performances. The horse began showing clinical signs January 27 and was transported to the Colorado State University Veterinary Teaching Hospital for diagnosis and treatment. The diagnosis of Equine Herpesvirus was confirmed January 28, 2013, the affected horse is isolated and in stable condition. The other horses from the team are under quarantine at the NWSS coliseum and hold orders have been placed on other contact horses.

"The Department is taking quick and appropriate actions to investigate, control and mitigate this disease," said State Veterinarian, Dr. Keith Roehr. "We will continue to trace the potential contacts of this horse in order to protect Colorado's equine industry."

The affected horse was housed in the coliseum at the National Western from January 7-28. Neither the gelding nor the rest of the team had any contact with horses being housed and shown in the Events Center and the Hall of Education. Horse owners who traveled to the NWSS and participated in events in the coliseum should monitor their horses for clinical signs and contact their veterinarian immediately if their horse becomes ill or has a fever. Owners who have horses with clinical signs consistent with neurological EHV-1 infection should consult their veterinarian.

Symptoms include fever, decreased coordination, nasal discharge, urine dribbling, loss of tail tone, hind limb weakness, leaning against a wall or fence to maintain balance, lethargy, and the inability to rise. While there is no cure, the symptoms of the disease may be treatable.

EHV-1 is not transmissible to people; it can be a serious disease of horses that can cause respiratory, neurologic disease and death. The most common way for EHV-1 to spread is by direct horse-to-horse contact. The virus can also spread through the air, contaminated equipment, clothing and hands. FMI: www.colorado.gov/ag

Mile Hi Expands To Western Slope

Mile Hi is proud to announce expansion to the Western Slopes of Colorado with our new, Mile Hi Western Slope Circuit. By special request and with the help of our Western Slope friends, we will be awarding the Western Slope Circuit barrel racers for their accomplishments this year at our D.R. Horton Finals along with those in the Northern Circuit (WY/NE/ND/SD).

Many of the Front Range barrel racers are very much aware of the "drive thru Denver" and don't or won't do it. Well, consider the Great Divide...you know those row of mountains that split the Front Range from the Western Slope. That's a huge barrier to attendance at our events. However, many of the Western Slope barrel racers wanted to be involved and participate with Mile Hi. With this in mind, we put our heads together and the Western Slope Circuit was designed. We are absolutely honored and thrilled to be more involved with this wonderful group of barrel racers!

Our awards program just got bigger. We will be awarding the Top 5 in each D (1D, 2D, 3D, 4D) in the Open with year-end awards at our D.R. Horton Classic. Champions in each D will receive a beautiful Western Slope Champion Buckle!

We are happy to announce the First Trifecta of events which are as follows:

- May 3-5, 2013-Rifle, CO, $500 added Each Day minimum
- July 27-28, 2013, Moab, UT, $500 added Each Day minimum
- Aug. 31-Sept. 2, 2013, Eagle, CO, $500 added Each Day minimum

Information and a schedule will be posted at www.MileHiBarrelHorse.com on the Western Slope Circuit Page later this week. There you can retrieve your membership application, updated information on points and etc, as well as an updated schedule.

Mile Hi is extremely proud to be "going west" as they say. We look forward to meeting new friends, seeing old ones we haven't seen in a while, and introducing new, exciting, fun barrel racing! I've solicited the help of a number of Western Slope barrel racers and producers to assist in this endeavor. Mile Hi has worked with many of your folks already. I have secured the agreement of two folks that will serve as representatives so to speak for Mile Hi that will be able to answer your questions steer you in the right direction for additional information and that you already know. Both Connie Lyster and Abby Zellar will be working closely with those of us involved in Mile Hi to ensure our policies, payoffs, rules, and etc are adhered to. Courtesy of Carol Crowder, Mile Hi Barrel Racing

Super Bowl Barrel Race

The University of Arizona Rodeo Team hosts the nation's oldest collegiate rodeo. With a rich history UA Rodeo looks to invest in their future. This Sunday, February 3, 2013 UA Rodeo hosts a fundraiser barrel race. All proceeds will go to the team's scholarship fund. UA Rodeo has exclusive access to the Tucson Rodeo Grounds. And with Tucson Pro Rodeo - La Fiesta De Los Vaqueros, February 16-24 - right around the corner this is a great opportunity to run your horse in this prestigious arena. UA Rodeo hosted the same barrel race last year so this will be the 2nd Annual Super Bowl Barrel Race. Come support the rodeo team and get in on a highly exclusive arena. You can also check out the silent auction that will benefit the team as well.

TOs - 9am, Race Start - 11am, $55 Entry Fee - Cash Only, Open 4D Barrel Race - $500 Added, Silent Auction on site, Tucson Rodeo Grounds, 4823 S. 6th Ave., Tucson, AZ 85714

Divine intervention put Perkulees in Melby's hands. She was a barrel race in Gene Autry, Okla., when she spotted the gelding while walking out of the arena during a drag.

"As I was coming out of the arena, she was walking up the alley," Melby recalled. "He was a really pretty black horse with an eye-appealing head on him. I made the comment to her that she had a pretty horse."

After that pretty black horse and his owner Kari Dawn Johnson of Sulphur, Okla., clocked the fastest time, Melby inquired about purchasing the gelding.

Melby related, "I rode up to her and said, 'I probably shouldn't ask you this, but I'm going to...would you consider selling this horse?' She looked at me, half out of air and says to me, 'You know I don't believe in coming to $25 jackpots but this was a benefit, and the Lord had been tugging on my shirt collar all morning that I need to go. Two weeks ago, I had put a note in my Bible, please send me a buyer for Perkulees. You must be that buyer and that's why I'm here.'"

By First Down Expected, a son of First Down Kelly out of Disco Jerry (TB) mare, and out of Perking Cash, a Dash For Perks-Juno Dat Cash mare, Perkulees didn't have any rodeo experience to Melby's knowledge when she bought him at the end of May. He survived being thrown to the wolves right off the bat.

She cracked him out at the Calgary Stampede because her other horse was sore. After watching her son compete at the National High School Finals Rodeo in Rock Springs, she head to the Cheyenne Frontier Days where Perkulees shined. Johnson was on hand to see her horse win on one of rodeo's biggest stages.

"She's been very supportive," said Melby. "When I made the finals in Cheyenne, they drove out and watched me. I did really well at Dodge City last fall and she went with me to that one. I think she's going to get to come to Houston and San Antonio. It's been

"When you purchase a horse you never know. Sometimes people are jealous of your success and others are happy. I was very blessed that she's been very, very happy. She just felt like she had a very nice horse but didn't have the time and drive to take him to his fullest, and he deserves that."

Perkulees is Melby's main stick for the 2013 season, but he has some help from RC Brooks A Streakin and DHR Perks Peppy Boy. Unfortunately, it looks like Melby's NFR mount Beauty won't be back in the arena.

"She had knee surgery and it doesn't look like she'll ever come back," said Melby. "After the surgery the knee calcified. The sad part is people say that rodeo is hard on a horse, and she actually chipped her knee running in the pasture. It can happen anywhere. What I learned is you never know how long a good horse is going to last, so you better make the most of it while it's working."

1. Futurity is open to any horse that is a foal of 2008 or younger. If the horse is registered, send a copy of both sides of registration papers. Unregistered horses must show proof of age by obtaining a veterinarian's affidavit. Any money won will be paid to registered owner of the horse.
2. To enter the futurity a horse must never have competed in a barrel race prior to December 1, 2012. This excludes time only and exhibition runs. Futurity horses may compete in any race after December 1, 2012. Failure to comply with this rule will result in elimination from the futurity and forfeiture of entry fees.
3. Maturity horses can be 5, 6, or 7 years old and compete multiple years as age eligible. No cross entry with Futurity. A copy of registration papers or veterinarian's affidavit of age must accompany entry. Any money won will be paid to registered owner of the horse.
4.  For eligible Future Fortunes horses only. No additional fees. For more information go to: www.futurefortunesinc.com
5. The Barrel Daze Futurity is approved by the BRN4D Futurity Program.

* The Barrel Daze Stallion Incentive Futurity & Maturity Side pots are provided exclusively for eligible foals sired by stallions that are enrolled in the VGBRA Stallion Incentive Program. A Stallion Service Auction is held in January each year where interested parties can bid on donated stallion services. Money generated from the auction (and reference sires that are paid into the program) are the source of the added purses for the Barrel Daze Futurity, Maturity and the Stallion Incentive side-pots which includes one for the Stallion Owners. For more information or to view a list of eligible stallions go to the www.vgbra.org website and click on the Stallion Incentive tab. Congratulations to Emily Efurd for winning 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year and finishing #23 in the world standings.

"I'm really liking Revitalize™! I've had my young horse out on the road with me on it and it's kept her from stressing so badly and going off her feed because of it. I know it works because almost every time I hauled her before, she would go off her feed. At the end of the season it even helped Fanny (Fantasia Fame) with this too.

*I use the Cetyl M® Joint Action Cream for Horses on my horses' hocks, stifles, and pasterns every time before I run. I think it really helps to loosen them up if they've been standing around and are real tight or have been in the trailer for a long time. I also have my three main horses, including Fanny, on Cetyl M® granules for Horses and I think it has significantly reduced their maintenance." -Emily Efurd

Hottest Chickin Town, Nicole Monroe Triumph at East Coast Classic Futurity

By Tanya Randall

It was the Hottest Chickin Town, ridden by Nicole Monroe for Casey and Margo Crowther of Fort Myers, Fla., taking top honors in the average at the 51-entry, $10,000-added East Coast Classic Futurity, held Jan. 24-26 in Pendleton, S.C.

Monroe, Gay, Ga., guided "Hotty" to a second place finish in the first go and a third place finish in the second go en route to the championship. She said the 4-year-old mare, by Identity Theft out of the Jody O Toole mare Hottesticketintown, just went in there and did her job.

"She worked pretty good," said Monroe, who also won the Kindergarten Futurity Reserve Championship with the mare. "They weren't perfect runs, but she can run pretty good so she can make up for the mistakes. I kind of handled her too much in the first go and it cost me a little bit at the third, but she turned the first two good. The second go she turned the first two good but kind of got caught up in the ground at the third. She trotted out of it and it cost her."

Monroe started riding the mare in February after buying her up at the LG Pro Classic Futurity last February.

"She was just race broke when I got her," said Monroe. "She started pretty easily. She's always been very willing. She's always been pretty good about trying; she doesn't fight you about much."

If Hotty continues to work well, it's likely that she'll become Margo Crowther's open horse.

"I've trained horses for her for a long time, since she was in high school," said Brown. "Now she's married with two babies. Her husband, who had never been involved with the horse business has really gotten interested in barrel racing because of her. He's really got into the futurities. This is the second one he's bought from us. The first one didn't pan out like a lot of them don't. Then he bought her. Now we have a couple of horses for them."

A three-time Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo qualifier in the WPRR, Monroe grew up showing horses in Florida before switching to barrel racing in her teens.

I showed Quarter horses and Paints for 10 years from the time I was 4 until I was about 15. I started running barrels after that. Of course, barrel racing back then was nothing like it is now. It wasn't the cool thing to do and was considered just gaming. I guess I just got bored with the pleasure horses.”

Monroe credited the late Walter Mann, and his wife Sadie, for giving her horsemanship skills.

“I rode with them for many years,” she said fondly. “They basically taught me how to ride. I cleaned stalls in their barn to get lessons. Walter was a hand; he could ride anything. He taught me pretty much everything when it comes to the horsemanship part of it.”

Her first good futurity horse was Headed For The Bank, that placed second at the San Antonio Futurity, however, being a single mom made it tough to travel much. Now, with her daughter grown and a training and hauling partner in her new husband, Monroe is getting her chance to shine on the national level.

She and futurity veteran Brett Monroe, who won the slot race and open at the East Coast Classic with Sissys First Title, tied the knot on December 23 with their two daughters Macy Brown and Trayli Monroe home from college.

“We decided to do it while they were both here. It was a little crazy, just being back from Oklahoma City, trying to Christmas shop with the whole family here and trying to pull the whole thing together. I think I found an ordained to do it like two days before. It was perfect. It was quick and easy, just family was there.”

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Horses have personalities just as people do. Some horses will bond with you immediately and training them is a beautiful experience but others, like people, will often "rub you the wrong way" and it's harder to teach them.

Notice the different methods used by the various clinicians. Some of those horse trainers are more bold and aggressive while others take a slower route to complete a training exercise. They are all very skilled and accomplish a lot in a short time to teach a horse that might not have had more than halter breaking. In addition to the different methods the trainers use, they take into consideration the disposition of the horse.

It's the same with evangelizing and spreading the Gospel. Different means work for different people. Ask the Lord for wisdom to know when to speak up and what to say. It tells us in 1 Peter 3:15 to always be ready to explain our faith and the peace and hope that we have in salvation through Jesus Christ.

Like the professional horse trainers, make your teaching fit the subjects. There is a time to be bold and a time to quietly show the better way to relieve pressure. Be on the lookout for opportunities because some people have a lot of questions but are too timid or embarrassed to ask them so they often cover up by making jokes.

This is an old saying, "Don't go to Heaven alone!" Besides letting your faith show, pray daily for the salvation of family and friends and you'll be amazed at what happens. Often there is Cowboy Church held in conjunction with horse events. These are good things to take part in and invite non-believers to go with you. Remember, "What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul?" (Matthew 16:26).
