Yo Ho Ho - Jim Warner and Pirate Ben Capture Southern Rebel Title

By Tanya Randall

When most of today's barrel racers hear the name Warner, they automatically think of a hackamore, but they know little of the talented horseman and trainer that designed it. Although barrel horses have taken a backseat to the car business, Jim Warner is still turning out good horses.

At the 28th Annual Southern Rebel Futurity, held Dec. 27-29 in the Hippodrome at North August, S.C., Warner and Pirate Ben picked up a $3,933 victory.

"I knew I had a nice colt and knew I could win some money," said Warner, "but I wasn't going there expecting to win it."

Ben won the average by placing second in the first go and third in the second go.

"He just made two really consistent runs," said Warner. "I had a little help with other people having some bad luck."

Warner purchased Ben, a 4-year-old gelding by Ivory James out of the First Down Dash mare, Ima Ramblin Girl, at the Heritage Place Sale last January.

"I had heard good things about them," said Warner when asked why he picked the Ivory James colt. "I heard good things about the PYC Paint Your Wagons, and Ivory James is a full brother. I wanted to try one. I liked this colt's disposition. He seemed really laid back, and he ran AAA on the track."

Incidentally, Leslie Willis won the second go of the futurity on another Ivory James—Incendiary Ivory.

"About the time I find a bloodline that I like, they start taking off like crazy and get expensive," laughed Warner. "I think these are going to be hard to come by too."

Throughout the 1980s and 1990s, Warner was one of the dominate forces on the futurity circuit. These days, his family—wife Stacy and daughter Lana, 14—and the car business have taken priority over training multiple futurity horses year after year.

"Today, the car business is my income and the horses are a side-line," he said. "It used to be the other way around. My main goal now is making horses for my wife and daughter. I darn sure don't want to have to go buy one."

Warner doesn't take kindly to doing anything half-way though and not having a competitive futurity horse year after year has been a bitter pill to swallow.

"I've had a long dry spell," he said. "If I can't be competitive; it's not worth it to me. Instead of a barn full of horses, I might have four or five to colts to start each year. The guys doing this for a living will start 15 to 20 head. I know their odds of having a good futurity horse are way greater than mine. For me, it's not so much making a futurity horse anymore; it's about making something we can sell."

Unfortunately for Warner, the start of the futurity season conflicts with his busy season in the car business—January, February and March. As an owner-rider footing his own bills, he doesn't have a lot of plans to travel to every futurity. He'll go to the ones close to his Troy, S.C., home and Diamonds & Dirt in Bryan, Texas, but other than that, he has no definite plans.

"I'm going to play it by ear, really," he said. "If the they're doing good, I'll go. If not, I'll stay home."

LOT #37 - HUNK OF LUV
 2008 Gelding by High On Corona out of Dealing For Dee (Futurity & Rodeo Money Winning Barrel Horse)

We are bringing one of our best. Hunk is running barrels and heading steers and has been started on the poles. He has been clocked a handful of times and is doing awesome. He is big and strong and can move. He will eat a barrel up. Natural rate, very gentle and quiet. You can do anything you want on him. Paul Greimsman is heading steers on him and he will make a rodeo horse. Doesn't hurt that he is flat gorgeous. He is also eligible for a pile of futurities and is paid in full to the Future Fortunes. You may come try him at the ranch prior to the sale with appointment.

Congratulations to Emily Efurd

for winning 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year and finishing #23 in the world standings.

"I'm really liking Revitalize™! I've had my young horse out on the road with me on it and it's kept her from stressing so badly and going off her feed because of it. I know it works because almost every time I hauled her before, she would go off her feed. At the end of the season it even helped Fanny (Fantasia Fame) with this too.

I use the Cetyl M® Joint Action Cream for Horses on my horses' hocks, stifles, and pasterns every time before I run. I think it really helps to loosen them up if they've been standing around and are real tight or have been in the trailer for a long time. I also have my three main horses, including Fanny, on Cetyl M® granules for Horses and I think it has significantly reduced their maintenance." -Emily Efurd*

Cindy Lane and Phoebe On Fire

Once the NFR and Christmas are over the barrel racing world moves to the beautiful sunny state of Arizona while winter rears its ugly head across much of the country. That's why in the middle of December, Cindy Lane headed to the warm temperatures of Arizona with her former futurity standout, Frenchies Lil Phoebe (Phoebe).

On most weekends, if you win just one day of a weekend race it's a successful weekend but, if you win 4 days in a row at two different barrel races, that's a dream weekend. Well, Cindy Lane and Phoebe were living the dream this past weekend. They started off their weekend at The Classified Horse & Dunn's Arena Open 5D on Friday and won the race with a brisk time of 17.327. Then on Saturday, Lane & Phoebe moved to the NBHA New Years Bustin' Out Open race at Buckeye and this time they ran 17.266 to again win the day. On Sunday, the hot team came back to win the Open in a brisk 17.080. Even though she had just won 3 races in a row, Lane knew there was room for improvement.

"She had some bobbles her first 3 runs. She ran really hard when she ran the 17.0 (Sunday's 17.080) but she blew off the second and third barrels. So I took some time only on Monday morning before the race and worked her slow circling the barrels twice to help her finish her turn before she took off for the next barrel," said Lane.

Well, the slow work definitely worked to her advantage as Frenchies Lil Phoebe smoked the standard pattern in a very quick 16.867 on the bottom of the ground and she won their fourth race of the weekend.

"There wasn't much I can criticize!" said Lane when referring to her and Phoebe's fast time of the weekend. It was Phoebe's fastest run on a standard pattern, previously she had run a 16.9 at the BRN4D Finals as a 5 year old futurity horse.

The freshly turned 9 year old, Frenchies Lil Phoebe, was a former futurity standout as a 5 year old winning a little over $40k during her futurity year and continuing to win over the last couple years at barrel races. Her progress was stopped this summer, when she came up with a strained suspensory about July 1, ironically just after Lane had purchased her WPRC card! She was off until October, then Lane started bringing Phoebe back slowly. The first race back for Phoebe was close to home for Lane, Walla Walla (Washington) on December 1. Phoebe ran well and Lane knew she had her horse back. She arrived in Arizona in the middle of December and it was time to start getting Phoebe in better condition.

"Once I arrived in Arizona I was able to ride everyday and get her in better shape," recalled Lane. It is probably pretty safe to say that Phoebe is in good enough shape now!

As for the future, Lane has again purchased her WPRA card but hasn't really decided if or how much she will go to rodeos. "I have a futurity horse that is a half sibling to Phoebe (by Fire On Bug and out the same dam, Spiders Last) so I am focusing on taking her and I have just been bringing Phoebe along," Lane said.

Lane and her husband, Kit, actually raised Phoebe out of Lane's former futurity horse, Spiders Last, who got hurt during her futurity year so Lane immediately started breeding her.

For the immediate future, Lane plans on staying in Arizona, "I think Phoebe is really liking the sunshine!" Lane said of Phoebe's runs in Arizona so far. If Lane and Phoebe's $4,638 haul over the weekend is any indication, the competition in 2013 better be ready no matter where they show up!

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“My bucket List for 2013 isn't about things I want to do. It's about things I'm never going to do again!” That statement was made by a successful businessman in his 60s. He'd just come through a year filled with obstacles and tough challenges and, although he'd come through “on top”, he didn't want to repeat any of those experiences.

How about you? Are you facing the new year with hope and expectation or are you filled with fear and regret? You can make it what you want. If you're in the center of God's perfect will, you can't help but have peace and everything you need to do the job He has set before you. If you're doing things on your own, by God's permissive will, you'll probably have a much harder time. Sometimes, God allows us to go ahead with our own ideas and plans which don't always turn out so well.

So what's the answer? It's simple. Pray, pray and then pray some more. If you ask God for direction, He'll give it to you. James 1:5 says, “If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.”

This year, don't make a lot of silly resolutions that you don't keep after the first week. Instead, determine that you're going to spend more time deepening your relationship with your Heavenly Father. Read your Bible, attend Bible studies or get some through the mail or on CDs. Talk to God about everything and listen. He'll speak to you.

God knows what your needs are. It tells us in Matthew 6:33, “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.” If you diligently seek God, you'll experience peace, contentment and happiness beyond anything you've had before and you'll find your bucket list gets shorter and shorter as time goes on!
