Ashley Castleberry & Calfee Stormy Dash Victorious at Last Chance Qualifier for the American Semifinals

By Tanya Randall

Teenager Ashley Castleberry and her 6-year-old black gelding Calfee Stormy Dash survived a talent-laden field of 152 to win the last chance qualifier for RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo, held January 28 at the Dinosaur Classic in Glen Rose, Texas.

"There's not even words to describe it," said the 16-year-old barrel racer from Montgomery, Texas. "It's insane."

Knowing her young horse works better after he's seen the pen, Castleberry got her practice run in Friday's Open.

"He's the kind of horse if he doesn't see that first barrel, he's not going to fire at it too hard. I got him in there on Friday and we had a pretty good little run. We had a 15.2. We came back on Saturday, and I felt like he was ready. He just locked in and I knew we were going to have good run."

She and Stormy posted their 14.941 early in the Qualifier on Saturday night and had a long, restless wait.

"I had to wait for 123 runners," she said. "I was holding my breath with every run. There were a lot of nice horses that I had to watch."

The victory in the Qualifier was worth $3,272.50. They also placed second to Jolene Montgomery and JL Jamaican Me Rich in the Open for another $1,131.56. Their total weekend earnings were $4,404.06.

Castleberry, who started running barrels when she was 11, began riding Stormy in March 2016. She said riding him correctly was something that she's had to work at.

"I've been working my butt off with that horse," she said. "When it came to the qualifier I just wanted to make it. I didn't care if I came in last place; I just wanted to make it. I never thought I'd win it, that's for sure."

Bred by Holly Calfee, also of Montgomery, Stormy is by the up-and-coming young Dash For Perks stallion Captain Perk and out of Double Dog Dash, a daughter of Some Dasher out of proven barrel horse producer Destinys Child. Double Dog Dash is a half-sister to Gilt Tripper, a former futurity standout and Congress winner; Dash Larue, a 1D and pro rodeo money winner that Calfee owns and Hi Do Man, the barrel horse that Calfee's daughter and granddaughter ride.

As a 4-year-old with Jennifer Sharp, Stormy won several jackpots, won the first round of the Colorado Classic Futurity and was a finalist at the BFA World Championship Futurity. With Castleberry, Stormy qualified for the inaugural running of the Jr NFR, placed in the first round of the Texas High School Rodeo Finals, won Texas

High School Rodeo Founder's Invitational, and won the Senior Girl's Barrel Racing at the Texas Circuit Finals Youth Rodeo.

Castleberry, who wanted to thank Holly Calfee, Tami Sikes and her parents Gilbert and Michelle for all their help and support, is looking forward to the American Semifinals in the Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth.

"He loves those little patterns. He eats them up," she said. High 13- and low 14-second runs are the norm for the Cowtown Coliseum. After her high school rodeo this weekend, getting Stormy in the Coliseum is her No. 1 priority.

Castleberry is hopeful that Stormy is getting more seasoned to rodeo-type situations, too, as she plans to hit some open, amateur rodeos sanctioned by the Cowboys Professional Rodeo Association. "I'm going to go to some of the CPRAs this year," she said. "I went to one CPRA jackpot this year in Magnolia and won it. After the Semifinals, I'm going to start hitting the CPRA rodeos pretty hard. I like jackpots a lot. He's not really rodeo seasoned yet. At the Texas Circuit Finals, he locked in really well, so I'm really starting to like the rodeos a little bit more."

The American Semi-Finals Rodeo kicks off weeklong celebration

The American Semi-Finals Rodeo held in historic Fort Worth Stockyards will kick off a weeklong celebration of the Western lifestyle that is unlike any other.

Free entertainment for fans of all ages will be available in the FanZone prior to the three action-packed rodeo performances which begin at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 15 – 17. Nearly 3,500 rodeo contestants from around the world have competed at qualifying events hoping to advance to The American Semi-Finals where nearly $1 million in prize money will be paid.

The best contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding will leave Fort Worth with a good paycheck. They will also earn a chance to compete at RFD-TV's The American presented by Polaris RANGER on Sunday, Feb. 19 at AT&T Stadium in nearby Arlington.

Many of today's top rodeo athletes are already on the semi-finals contestant roster. Nowhere else will fans be able to watch seasoned veterans and top rodeo stars going up against high school and college rodeo champions as well as other young up-and-coming athletes.

When rodeo contestants compete for a year, qualify for a championship event and win it, they get a gold buckle to mark their accomplishment. Will Lowe, from Canyon, Texas, and Steven Peebles, from Redmond, Oregon, have both earned buckles in the bareback riding and are on the contestant roster for Fort Worth.

The steer wrestling also features two former world champions, Dean Gorsuch from Gering, Nebraska, and Hunter Cure from Holiday, Texas. Team roping, a very popular event across the nation, has more former world champions competing at the Semi-Finals than any other event.

They include headers Chad Masters from Cedar Hill, Tennessee; Aaron Tsinigine from Tuba City, Arizona; Matt Sherwood from Pima, Arizona, and Nick Sartain from Dover, Oklahoma. On the heeling end, Rich Skelton, from Llano, Texas, and Kollin VonAhn from Blanchard, Oklahoma, will be roping.

Tie-down roping world champion Monty Lewis from Hereford, Texas, and barrel racing titlist Lindsay Sears from Nanton, Alberta, are also on the roster. In the bull riding, four-time world champion J.W. Harris from Mullin, Texas and Cody Teel from Kountze, Texas, will be favorites to move on.

"The American Semi-Finals might be one of the best rodeos of the year," Lewis said. "When they added the $500,000 to the pot, they really upped the ante and gave us an incentive to come rope there. Qualifying for The American would just be the icing on the cake."

The combination of rodeo action, the FanZone in the Stockyards, live music and the overall theme of patriotism that will be evident at every performance is sure to make this a great event for contestants and fans alike. The three performances of The American Semi-Finals will be broadcast on Rural Radio, SiriusXM Chanel 147.

The American Semi-Finals Event Schedule

The Semi-Finals for THE AMERICAN will begin in early February with three days of slack events followed by the Semi-Finals competition at Cowtown Coliseum from February 15-17, 2017.

Don't miss any of the action as the week-long events determine who will go on to compete at THE AMERICAN on Sunday, February 19 at AT&T Stadium. Get the complete schedule below and make sure you buy your Semi-Finals tickets now. Each day of the Semi-Finals will include bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding competitions.

Black Hills Stock Show Features Diamond Rio

The 2017 Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo Cowboy Stampede in Rapid City, S.D., will feature four-time Country Music Association Vocal Group of the Year Diamond Rio Feb. 3. The Cowboy Stampede, located at the James Kjerstad Event Center, is a dance hall setting with live music. "We set out a few years ago to create a fun, party atmosphere for our Black Hills Stock Show guests," General Manager Ron Jeffries said. "In a few short years, the Stampede has become a staple to the 10-day event, and we're very excited to offer top Nashville talent for the first time this year at an affordable price." Tickets are $15 in advance, or $20 at the door, for the Diamond Rio concert. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Congrats #teamoxygen!

"I have used many Oxy-Gen products for the past several years, and have had great success. When I heard the Triple Threat had my favorite products in it, I had to try it.

It's extremely easy to use one tube that has everything you need in it! It was my first time to use it at the American qualifier, and we qualified for the Semi finals!

Harley felt great, he hadn't run that hard in a long time. Also, he recovered faster for his run the next day in San Angelo!

I'm a firm believer in this new product!!"

ADVERTISING HAS ALREADY STARTED FOR 2017. Don't be left out. The earlier you nominate, the more exposure your stallion receives prior to the 2017 breeding season with regional and national advertising.

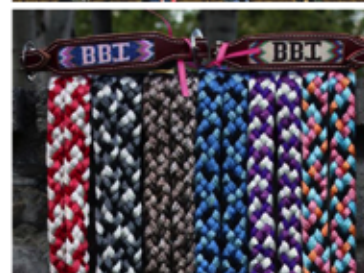

BBI was formed for stallion owners as an incentive program to breed barrel horses and sell barrel prospects. Now barrel racers are looking specifically for BBI horses.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote an Open Barrel race as well as Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or sire if of age) are eligible to run in BBI sidepots. Pictured are some of our 2016 BBI winners: Just Look Quix (JD Look) with Emily and Adi Keefer ("Q" won all 3 BBI futurity events), TS Mrsunpeppy Dash (PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Monica Gruel (Barrel of Gold Derby champs), Margaret Jones (Midnight Corona), Monica Gruel, Emily Keefer and Shelley Murphy (As Good As Nick Gets). 2016 handcrafted awards from JoBeth Hutchison, Gale Beebe and Sammy Jo Hall.

Ideal Performance State

by Ty Hillman
PrepareToWin.TV

Imagine it's an hour before you are getting ready to compete at a barrel race or rodeo. You are saddling your horse, putting on his boots, braiding your horse's mane, and getting prepared. As your mind starts to wonder about how you will perform, how your horse is going to do, how much money is on the line, and who is in the stands watching, you begin to feel the butterflies flutter in your stomach. You go to your pickup, reach into your console, pull out your earbuds, and find your favorite playlist on your phone. You don't know why, but you know listening to music like AC/DC, Metallica, or Eminem makes you feel less nervous and pumps you up. As the music starts, you begin to feel yourself loosen up, the butterflies calm down, and you feel more poised and actually start looking forward to your run. All you know is you feel relief from the anxiety that was starting to take over, but you have actually increased your odds of performing better by putting yourself into your Ideal Performance State.

Ideal Performance State, or IPS, is a state of mind in which an individual feels positive energy, extremely confident, poised, calm, instinctive, and prepared for the task at hand. IPS is synonymous with being in "the zone" or "in the groove." This state is unique for each individual as well as the task at hand and can be measured on a scale from one to ten, with one being the least amount of emotional intensity, or almost asleep, up to ten, which is being so full of energy, the person can hardly contain themselves.

If you want to perform more consistently, you need to be able to flip on your IPS like a light switch. First, you need to know what your IPS number is when you perform at your best. Do you ride your best when you are extremely chill and relaxed (2-3) or do you ride better when you are very aggressive (7-9)? When you are involved in an event like barrel racing, it is vitally important to know which IPS number your horse needs to be at when competing as well. Some horses need to stay away from the ally and kept calm until it is your turn (2-3) while other may need to be woken up and rode very aggressively in the run (8-9). If you compete at your best when you are at a seven on the IPS scale, but your horse is high strung and needs to stay very relaxed (2-3), you will have to train yourself to reach a seven in your mind and focus, but your body will need to be a three for your horse to do his best. The only way for you to get mastery in this area is figure out how to increase or decrease your emotional intensity on demand and then practice it until it becomes conditioned.

If you find yourself in a timid, fearful, tired, or weak state and your level of intensity is at a two, but your IPS is a six, there are numerous ways to increase your emotional intensity on command. Everyone is different, but one common way is to listen to music that inspires or motivates you. There are also some awesome videos on YouTube that are very inspirational. Check out the website FearlessMotivation.com. It has many videos with cool music overlaid with motivational speeches. Another way to increase your emotional intensity is to use carry your body as if you were confident, poised, and full of energy. Think about how a person who is confident and filled with energy would look like. What would their facial expressions look like? What would their posture look like? What would they have to focus on and believe in order to feel that way? Another method to raise your number is to breath differently. Inhale through your nose and exhale through your mouth quickly and with force. This brings more oxygen into your body while raising your heart-rate. Another strategy is to picture a powerful image in your mind like a lion, shark, or anything else you can identify with that is strong and confident.

There are also several ways to decrease your intensity and bring

Nunn and Casillas Take the Win at Sherry Cervi Youth Championships

By Hope Sickler

Sherry Cervi is a class act both inside and outside of the arena. She has a long list of accomplishments and many young barrel racers look up to her because of that and her obvious love for her horses. This past weekend in Marana, Arizona, many young barrel racers dreams came true when they were able to shake hands and take a picture with the tall, accomplished barrel racer at her very notable barrel race, the Sherry Cervi Youth Championships.

While the Sherry Cervi Youth Championships was born several years ago in Ceres, California, this was the first year Marana hosted an additional event. Since the conception of her event, Cervi has seen a substantial growth in contestant numbers and such positive feedback, she approached Jo and Joseph Parsons to host it at their Wentz Point Arena in her hometown. Along with cash awards, Cervi gives 12 Crown C Saddles, multiple scholarships, Oxy-Gen products, Classic Equine products, Renew Gold feed, Resistol hats, shirts and much, much more with awards to 6th places in 6D's in both age groups.

While barrel racers traveled from all ends of the country to Arizona for the inaugural event, in the end it was two Arizona barrel racers who got the W. 12-year-old Lilly Nunn from Wickenburg won the Junior barrels and 14-year-old Dallys Casillas from Thatcher won the Senior barrels.

Casillas ran her 8-year-old grade dun mare Harley to the victory. "We bought Harley when she was 4 and she is very smart and a fast learner. I could not ask for a better teammate or a better best friend. She has a big heart and absolutely loves what she does and I love that I get to be the one to do it with her," Casillas said.

Casillas made two consistent, smooth runs while in Marana, posting a 16.438 in the first round and a 16.552 in the second round. With her total time of 32.990 on two runs, Casillas found herself in the winner's circle at her very first trip to the event.

"I am super pleased with how we did and couldn't have asked for a better horse to get me to the winner's circle. Harley and I have an inseparable bond and it is so special that we get to share the experience together. She never disappoints me and never lets me down."

your level down if you perform better at a lower IPS. These methods are basically the opposite of the methods for increasing intensity. Listen to relaxing music or watch a video you know will make you laugh. Take long, deep breaths that slow your heart rate. Picture images in your mind that are peaceful and relaxing such as your last vacation spot. Talk to the other people in the warm up arena. Don't be so serious and stone faced. No one said you can't have any fun in the warm up arena.

The only way to perform consistently is to know your IPS number, your horse's IPS number, and then practice reaching that state on command. You don't even have to be on your horse to practice; you can practice anytime you want. First, ask yourself where on the scale is your emotional intensity right now? Then, pick a number you want to reach and practice the methods listed above to raise your lower your state until you reach your desired number. The more you practice, you will find which methods work best for you and you will be able to reach your desired state quicker. Also, remember to figure out your horse's IPS and train yourself to get into your desired state in your mind while helping your horse get into his. It can be a challenge if you and your horse's IPS numbers are on the opposite end of the scale, but with practice, you can condition your mind to reach your number while your body and communication with the horse helps him reach his optimal state.

Developing the discipline to reach your IPS on command is an important aspect in the mental game and if you make the effort to practice, you will be prepared to win.

to the championship in the Juniors division, a 13 year-old gelding by Other Brotha Daryl. "Clipper" as they affectionately called the APHA red and white overo gelding, is by the stallion that Nunn's mother, Betsy, trained and futurity'd and did well on before he got hurt.

"Daryl was an awesome horse and my Mom was really doing well on him right before he ended up getting hurt. It is very unfortunate because we all think he had NFR potential but I guess that is how things go. Since getting hurt, he has sired over 100 foals and has been an asset to our family," explained Nunn.

With this being Nunn's first trip to the classic event, she was very excited but equally overwhelmed about competing in front of her biggest idol's.

"It was super exciting but also pretty nerve-wracking because you want everything to be perfect from the quality of your run to the time of your run because you're running in front of one of rodeo's biggest celebrity's. One cool bit of information is that my mom and Sherry were best friends when they were my age and go way back."

Clocking a 16.640 in the first round and a 16.723 in the second round set Nunn up good for the average.

"We weren't sure how I was going to end up because another girl ran a 16.5 the first round and a 16.8 in the second round so it was definitely down to the wire. After the Juniors were done, my Mom couldn't stand it anymore and went up to the announcers stand and found out that I won it," Nunn said.

Nunn's total time on two of 33.363 was good enough to give her the win and a boat load of awesome prizes.

"I couldn't be happier with how we did and I knew that "Clipper" wouldn't let me down! The best part about this story is that my Nana owned "Clipper" until yesterday when she gave me the opportunity to buy him for a dollar! Now he is mine and I call him my unicorn!"

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

February. For some it's the love month. For others in the north, it's the one day closer to spring month!! The second one would be me. I've enjoyed reading about the January futurities, but I really wish I was there....warm....no ice.....

But since I can't do a thing about it, let's talk about love. I Cor. 13:4-8 in the Amplified Bible says, "Love endures long and is patient and kind; love never is envious nor boils over with jealousy, is not boastful or vainglorious, does not display itself haughtily. It is not conceited (arrogant and inflated with pride); it is not rude (unmannerly) and does not act unbecomingly. Love (God's love in us) does not insist on its own rights or its own way, for it is not self-seeking; it is not touchy or fretful or resentful; it takes no account of the evil done to it (it pays no attention to a suffered wrong). It does not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness, but rejoices when right and truth prevail. Love bears up under anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to believe the best of every person, its hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and it endures everything (without weakening). Love never fails (never fades out or becomes obsolete or comes to an end).

If this were on video and you could see me, there are parts in there that make me twitch. The parts that I haven't conquered yet. Like "taking no account of evil done" or the "not rude" section. That's still hard for me. But let's all practice the love walk this week. God will help us!!
