Epic Future for Mallee Jones at The Richest Dinosaur

By Tanya Randall

Mallee Jones got her first career futurity victory at The Richest Dinosaur Futurity, held January 26-29 at Glen Rose, Texas, aboard Epic Future. Jones and the 5-year-old gelding collected $5,796 for the victory in the 80-entry, $10,000-added event.

"It's a good confidence boost going into some of the bigger things coming up," said Jones, a Nebraska native now residing in Texas. "Glen Rose is always tough."

Jones, who wanted to thank her parents Mike and Kerri Jones for their support, purchased Future from his breeders and trainers Justin and Jordon Briggs last July. Future is by Epic Leader and out of Frenchmans Future, by Frenchmans Guy.

Frenchmans Future, who was bred by Jordon's parents Kristie Peterson and her late husband Chuck, was the LG Pro Classic Slot Race Champion and ran out nearly $200,000 in her barrel racing career. She's also a three-quarter sibling to another $200,000 winner Stoli My Guy.

Jones, a junior business administration major through Arizona State University, was looking for another younger horse to season when she purchased Future.

"I wasn't looking to buy a finished horse," she said. "I was looking for something that I could season and go on with. I had tried two, but when I tried him, we just clicked. I just knew that was my horse. It worked out great because I've always wanted to futurity. This is my chance to do it for real with a nice horse to go on with." Jones and Future were second in the 1D on their very first run together at Glen Rose last November.

"He won his first futurity at the very first place he'd ever run," she noted.

They were reserve champions at their first futurity, the Go Fast Thanksgiving Classic in San Antonio, and later placed in the first round of the OKC Rookie Futurity.

"He's really been great all year," she said. "He's shown a lot of promise from the start. I knew he could go out and get the win, so I was super proud of him that he finally got out there and did it." A week after OKC, Future made his rodeo debut at the WCRA's Cowtown Christmas Classic.

"He actually got me enough points at this first futurity to qualify me," Jones said. "He got third in his performance against all those top horses and you needed to be in the top two to advance. I was pretty happy with that."

"He's shown so much promise. I just have so much confidence in him. He's amazing. I've very lucky to be able to own him."

At The Last Dinosaur, Future was extremely consistent, running a third place 14.972 in the first round and a second-place 14.868 in the next to win the aggregate.

Jones, 20, started riding when she was 10. She worked her way up from a Craigslist's horse that always bucked her off to a winning barrel horse purchased from professional competitor Deb Christy.

"I've just kept going," said Jones. "There's so many people who have helped me along the way."

She said she's always turned to the trainers of her horses for help. With Future, that's the Briggs. For her derby horse, Goodbye

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I don't do a lot on the barrels. He can be a little hot, so I like to just go out in the pasture or just ride him out. I'll work on things that will translate to the barrels, like I'll work on circles and collection. I'll also do hill work. He's very confident so I don't do much on the barrels. His training has been done right and he knows what he's supposed to do. I don't have to tune on him that much."

Brian Wheeler's Feelin Peachie With $4,760 One-Run Futurity Win at Aloha Acres

By Tanya Randall

Brian Wheeler nabbed his third futurity win of the 2023 season with a $4,760 victory aboard Feelin Peachie ("Jill"), owned by Kim Matthews, at Mikey Callahan's Put Up or Shut Up event at Aloha Acres in Union, South Carolina, January 27-28.

"Mikey tried to do something special, unique and fun but it paid good for all of us," said Wheeler, barrel horse trainer and farrier from Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

"It was fun to go and just hang out with friends. (Mikey) did a good job trying to accommodate everyone that came from a long ways. Jimmy and Jamie Cagle came (from Alabama) and he turned horses out of his barn and let them have some stalls. I went to Jason and Leslie Willis' and Brett and Nicole Monroe did too. Everyone tried to make it where it was fun."

The $10,000-added event featured the $5,000-added one-run 2D futurity with 100 percent payback on $400 fees, a $2,000-added Open, a $2,000-added High Stakes race and a $1,000-added warmup race.

Wheeler and Jill turned in a 15.068 to top a very salty 30-entry futurity. Less than 1/10th of a second separated first through fourth in the 1D money.

"She felt comfortable and put her head down and went finally," said Wheeler, who won the OKC Rookie and Jingle Bell Classic futurities earlier this season on Matthews' homebred Streakin Moon Flash. "At Mikey's I got to ride in the pen and piddle a bunch. I think it helped her a lot."

Bred by Brian's mom Stephanie, Jill is by leading sire and rodeo horse Heavenly Firewater out of the champion performer and producer SX Dr Peacharita, by Dr Nick Bar. She is a full sister to SBW Heavenly Peach, Wheeler's multiple futurity winner in 2022. Matthews got the mare in an embryo swap. She got Jill, while the Wheeler's got their BFA Juvenile Reserve Champion SBW Feelin-ThePressure, a No Pressure On Me gelding out of FeelintheFirewater, Heavenly Firewater's full sister.

Wheeler said Jill was easy to train.

"She's been pretty easy," he said. "She's a shorter compact horse, so she's a little stronger in the bridle than I'd like. She kind of ran the barrels from Day 1. She hasn't had a lot of 'Uh Ohs' yet. She hasn't really messed up and I don't really want that to happen."

The 4-year-old mare has been becoming more confident with runs, he said.

"She likes to look and throws her ears sometimes and doesn't go really hard, but she always works," he explained. "That's how she's been all year until the Ashley Brooks Memorial. She was sixth in the second go there. She finally put her head down and went pretty hard that day."

Next up for Wheeler and his trio of futurity horses is the Kinder Cup with its Breeders Challenge qualifier the second weekend of February.

The American Contender Regionals Kick Off in Tulsa

By Tanya Randall

The American Contender Tournament Regional Semifinal and Finals kick off this weekend.

The two-run, progressive after one, American Semifinals Rodeo was replaced with three regional rodeos—East, West and Central to create The American Contender Tournament. First up is the Central in Tulsa, Oklahoma, February 3-5. It's followed by the East in Lexington, Kentucky, February 8-10. Last is the West in Heber City, Utah, February 16-18.

Contender events—the ground floor qualifiers—within each geographic area determined the regional contestants. For example, McDade, Texas, barrel racer Jimmie Smith Tew qualified at an event in the East, so she will compete in Lexington. Marne Loosenort from Hazel, Kentucky, qualified at two events—one in the Central and another in the East—so she will compete in both the East and Central regionals.

The top finishers as per number of entries at the BBR's initial Contender events automatically advanced to a Regional. Competitors could also earn their way in via points awarded based on their finishes at one or more Contender events. The automatic qualifiers and regional point standings provide a minimum of 95 contestants for each Regional.

Also competing at the Regionals are various WPRA members, who finished sixth through 20th in the 2022 World Standings. Some opted to compete through the Contender events and others chose not to participate. Those making the $500 payment to compete are Bayleigh Choate, Jessica Routier and Michelle Darling, who will compete in the East; Emily Beisel, Margo Crowther, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Kassie Mowry for in the Central; and Ivy Saebens in the West.

Each Regional Semifinal has two full rounds of competition, one on each of the first two days. The purse consists of 25 percent of the original $500 entry fee as based on the number of entries at the initial contender events. The top 10 fastest times in the two-run aggregate of the Regional Semifinal advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals, held on the last day.

The Regional Finals has a guaranteed payout of $20,000 and the top four advance to The American Contender Finals, held on March 9 at Globe Life Field in Arlington.

Those failing to advance into the Regional Finals have two second-chance options. Those placing 11th through 40th in the two run aggregate will automatically advance to the Wild Card Round. The second option is the Redemption Round, formerly the Buy-Back. Each Regional will offer a Redemption Round for a $1,000 entry fee. The top two from the Redemption Round advance to the Regional Final, while places three through six advance to the Wild Card Round.

A new feature in 2023, the Wild Card Round on March 8 at Globe Life Field consists of places fifth through 12th in the Regional Finals, places third through sixth in the Redemption Round and places 11th through 40th in the Regional Semifinals. They will compete for 20 percent of all original fees. The fastest runner of this one-run rodeo will advance to the American Contender Finals on March 9.

The American Contender Finals features the top four contestants from each Regional Final plus the Wild Card winner. The 13 contestants will compete for a purse of $40,000 with all receiving checks. The top five fastest runs advance to the Round of 10 at The American on March 11.

At the American, the Top 5 in the WPRA World Standings—Hailey Kinsel, Jordon Briggs, Shelley Morgan, Lisa Lockhart and Wenda Johnson—are automatically seeded into the Round of 10. The top four advance to the $140,000 Finale with its $100,000 first-place check and chance at the $1,000,000 Contender bonus (available to only those who came through the Contender Tournament).

The Regional Semifinals and Finals will be streamed live and exclusively on TetonRidgePlus.com or on the TetonRidge+ app. More information on contestants can also be found on the site and app.

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare*PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpott as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I like one liner's. And I read every bumper sticker on vehicles in front of me. "If you don't like my driving, get off the sidewalk." "Lead, follow, or get out of the way!" "Welcome to Wyoming. Consider us all armed." (I wanted that one but Mike doesn't like bumper stickers.)

But, this one, right here in Wyoming, on Highway 59, on a car with Florida plates, IN WYOMING, made me bat my eyes. .... "Welcome to Florida. Now go home!" If they don't like tourists, why in the world are they in any other state doing that very thing????!!!!!! THE HYPOCRISY! LOL!

I wanted to throw the Wyoming armed sticker into the window and point at it!!!!

Okay, I got that off my chest. Division is everywhere. Our color, our sex, our churches, our jobs, our states, our counties, our families, and even our ages.

The devil is a master at causing division. Matthew 12:25-30 tells us that a house divided against itself cannot stand.

Pride will lie to us and tell us that we're smarter, stronger or whatever than the other guy. We are not. We are the BODY of Christ. I Cor. 12:12-31.

This week let's practice being "Better Together"!
