Texas Circuit Titles Send Schuster & Flynn to RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Tiany Schuster and Ari-Anna Flynn will represent the Texas Circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla. Schuster won the year end championship, while Flynn won the Circuit Finals Rodeo, held over New Year's Weekend in Waco, Texas.

It was the first Texas Circuit Finals qualification for Schuster, who had the event made early in the 2016 season.

"It wasn't even a plan or a goal," said Schuster, who wanted to thank her significant other Edwin Cameron for his support. "Being centrally located allows me to go any direction and hit a lot of those tougher than nails Texas rodeos. Those were the rodeos I went to and I happened to do well, really well.

"I don't know how the outside world looks at it, but when I was a member of the Southeastern Circuit I always looked at the Texas Circuit like the cream of the crop, per se. When I was in the warm up pen, Kelly Bruner asked me how I was enjoying my first circuit finals, was it everything I thought it would be. I said even if everyone here was in their Rookie year, it's the Texas Circuit. Just look around at who was there! The Texas Circuit holds so much prestige. It was just so exciting for me to be there and I was really grateful for the opportunity to have that chance."

At the circuit finals, Schuster started off with 12-year-old Reclaim Fame, the talented Dash Ta Fame gelding who carried Madeleine Green to the International Pro Rodeo Finals and Michael Duffie to numerous wins and arena records on the East Coast while under the ownership of Southern Rose Ranch. She ran JSYK Im Famous—who was her biggest winner throughout the season—in the second and third round to finish third in the average. She added another $3,070 to her early 2017 WPRA World Standings lead. (Updated WPRA World Standings weren't available at press time.)

She credits the purchase of JSYK Im Famous, a 9-year-old gelding by the late Famous Jr out of the Fire Water Flit daughter Firewater Fueled, with blazing her path to the Texas Circuit Finals.

"It started when we bought JSYK Im Famous," she said. "He runs in there and does his job. He's just a good horse. He never lets me down. I can always count on him to be there for me. I just channel my inner Mary Walker and ride that perfect ride that I've seen her do. JSYK and I...we consistently manage to get to the pay window and that's the way to the NFR—gathering checks. If we keep gathering checks hopefully we will see everyone there at the end of the season.”

Both geldings along with Hoosier Fame and a handful of others will rotate through Schuster's trailer throughout her first run at the lucrative limited-entry winter rodeos.

“This is the first year that I've been able to get into everything and anything,” said Schuster, who will run at upcoming winter rodeos in Odessa, Texas, Denver, Colo., Lafayette, La., and Rapid City, S.D. “Last year, I got into Austin because of my Texas Circuit standings, which was really exciting. That was the first year that I ever got to go there. The Texas Circuit has opened up a whole lot for me.”

Flynn, who calls Charleston, Ark., home, also had the Texas Circuit open new doors for her.

“My goal last year was to try to make the All-American Finals,” said the daughter of NFR qualifiers Denny and Lynn Flynn. “I wanted to rodeo all down in Texas during the winter and just stay there. I ended up staying around Stephenville. I was in the Prairie Circuit last year and it's great, but I wanted to do something different. I like the Texas rodeos. I think it's a little tougher and I wanted to see if my horses and myself could compete with all those girls.”

She rode two full brothers raised and trained by her family—Sunnys Two Socks (“Hollywood”) and Tobys Poco Misterio. Both are by Quick Little Lena and out of the Sticks An Stones mare Ms Janes Stone.

“I decided to run Toby because my goal was to try to win the average to make it to Kissimmee,” she said. “Toby is my consistent horse. My first run, I went in and was just focused on one barrel at a time, one run at a time. That was my new motto.”

In the first round, Flynn and Toby finished second to Jana Bean and Dashing Klee. They didn't place in the second round, which was won by Alexa Lake on Sure Down Dash.

“My first run was great,” she said. “The second run I was just concentrating on first barrel, second barrel, third barrel, run home.” Going into the third round, Lake had the lead in the average and Flynn was sitting second.

“It was super close,” said Flynn. “I was sitting in there watching; I was second to last. She hit the first barrel and I was super sad for her. I just told myself to just get around the barrels—one barrel at a time. It ended up paying off. It wasn't the prettiest run we've ever made, but it worked.”

Jill Voss and Lean Mean Blue Dean won the third round with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 15.86. Even though Flynn and Toby didn't draw a check, it gave them an average victory and total earnings of $4,605, which counts towards the 2017 WPRA World Standings.

“My third run was nerve-wracking,” she added. In 2016, she and Toby hit the first barrel to win the Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo. “He was acting a little more hyper than normal. I really checked him down for the first and about hit the first barrel. He had a good second barrel and I thought was going to hit the third barrel. I was so nervous, when I turned the third barrel I felt this calm come over me.”

Flynn, whose goal is to follow in her parents' footprints to the NFR, wanted to thank her mother and aunt, Lana Clark, for all their help at the circuit finals. She also wanted to give a special thank you to her parents for all their support and guidance.

“I've been so blessed to have two parents who have been there and done that,” she said. “It gives me a head start. The wisdom and experience passed down from them is just awesome. My dad is one of the most calming people to talk to when something is going wrong or you're going through a dry spell.”

Flynn, who is sponsored by Bayou West Saddle Pads, Charlie 1 Horse Hat and Fast N Forward Stirrups, also wanted to give a shout out to Lois Ferguson, the Texas Circuit director.

“She does a great job as a director,” she said. “I called her a lot during the year. She's always super helpful.”

Jordon Briggs & KN Hoppy Ta Be Win Futurity at Inaugural Texas Extreme Barrel Classic

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jordon Briggs of Lott, Texas, added another win to her illustrious resume with a $7,122 championship at the $15,000-added, 163-entry Famous Bugs/OE Nutraceuticals Futurity at the inaugural Texas Extreme Barrel Classic in Edna, Texas.

Briggs was riding the 5-year-old mare, KN Hoppy Ta Be ("Kinder"), who just happens to be the first Dash Ta Fame that she's ever trained and ridden. She purchased the daughter of the all-time leading barrel horse sire at the 2015 LG Pro Classic Barrel Horse Sale in Kinder, La., for $22,000 from her breeder Kimi Nichols of Brownwood, Texas.

Kinder's maternal line is what drew Briggs to the mare. She is out of Docs Smooth Gold, by Smooth Herman. Docs Smooth Gold is the dam of pro rodeo and futurity winner KN Docs Gray Gold.

"I'm really good friends with Whitney Baker, who ran KN Docs Gray Gold," Briggs explained. "I had been wanting a Dash Ta Fame for years, but I was wanting one that would fit what I was used to instead of buying a 16-hand one. I wanted to be picky so it wasn't completely out of the box for me. When I saw her pedigree, I knew she was the one that I wanted to buy."

After bringing the 3-year-old mare home, Briggs decided that she would hold the mare for the 5-year-old futurities in hopes of avoiding some of the issues that come along with the extreme athleticism of the Fames.

Kinder made a spectacular debut running at the BFA World Championship Futurity in December.

"She ran a 15.4 in the first round and placed," recalled Briggs. "She ran another 15.4 in the second round, but I barely caught the

Their runs at Edna were their first back since the BFA. Briggs said the set up at Edna, which she described as "practical for colts," helped Kinder excel. She placed second in both rounds to win the average.

"My first run, she locked on to that first barrel a little too soon so I had to pull on my outside rein to keep her going forward," Briggs explained. "She wants to drag her butt and get on her belly and turn. That was the only mistake she made. She did that at BFA too, which is why I hit a barrel one of the days. That's the only thing I'm really dealing with—her fading into her first barrel a little bit and overdoing her job. She feels really comfortable loping around to the left, so her second and third barrels are really easy for her. It just comes natural to her."

Briggs also said that Kinder's style has forced her to change her riding a bit, but for the better. While she's used to riding forward and hustling horses with a lot of rate, Briggs has had to take a different approach with Kinder.

"Honestly, if you get up over her hustling, you're probably going to fall off when you get to a barrel," she laughed. "She reminds me a lot of cutting horse. She just drops on all four.

"I've had some bad habits from riding ratey horses since I was kid, so you always look at people who are better than you and you work on things to get better. This mare helps me to be the rider I'd like to be...to where I ride the hind end instead the front end." Briggs said that Kinder is pretty special because she helped Briggs get passed the abrupt end to her great mare Frenchmans Future's competitive career due to a fractured hock

"We were able to afford her because of the money Stoli (Frenchmans Future) won," she said. "To have Frenchmans Future and Cinnamon On Top and now this mare, I wouldn't think I could have that many nice ones in a row. She was my saving grace going through all I did with Frenchmans Future. One time I exhibited her at Glen Rose and she ran a 14.7, and I just started crying. I'm so glad that I deserve another horse like this."

Briggs wanted to thank her sponsors—Classic Equine, Horse

Hair Analysis, Shiloh Saddlery, Panhandle Slim/Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Rodeo Rigs, PHT Magnets—as well as event producer Renee Spiller.

"Renee Spiller is a great producer," she said. "She runs a tight ship. She's always been one of my favorite producers in Texas. I'm glad she got sponsors to have a big futurity this year."

Stallion Incentive Program Information and Enrollment:
Tara Lawrence (509) 520-9869

Additional stallion information are available online. Bidding parties are responsible for obtaining information on the availability of shipped/frozen semen for stallions they bid on. Fees for shipped cooled/frozen semen, standard mare care and veterinarian services are extra. The farm location and stud fees are believed to be accurate although VGBRA will not assume any responsibility for errors. Reference stallion services will not be sold through the auction but they remain eligible for Stallion Incentive Program. Stallions may be added or deleted prior to beginning of the auction in January, so check the website often for updates.

Cayla Small & Shameon U Lead American Qualifiers in Buckeye

By Tanya Randall

2016 WPRA Rookie of the Year Cayla (Melby) Small and her talented 8-year-old gelding Shameon U (“Gator”) topped a salty qualifier for the upcoming American Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas.

Small and Gator turned in a 16.830 on a WPRA Standard Pattern in the 79-entry Qualifier held on December 30 in conjunction with the Bustin’ Out New Year’s Barrel Race in Buckeye, Ariz. It was their first run back since the little 10-header in Las Vegas earlier in the month.

“I warmed him up and was sitting watching a couple and I thought I haven’t even taken him around the barrels since the 10th round of the NFR,” laughed Small. “This might not be such a good idea.”

Her husband NFR qualifier Zac Small, who went with her, watched Ivy Conrado’s run on her great mare Cfour Tibbie Stinson, and commented, “See all you have to do is run in straight lines and turn tight, and you’ll be fine.”

Small fired back, “If you only knew how hard that was!” Despite her worries, she and Gator did just fine.

“My run was easy,” she said. “When the ground is good, he’s generally really easy to ride. He actually had time to remember where to place his feet instead of stepping all over himself like he did at the NFR. He was like, ‘Oh I know what to do here!’ He was little confused out there. We both got better towards the end (of the NFR).” Although her mother had wanted her to arrive in Arizona a day early to get Gator in the pen, Small was in Oklahoma with her husband at a team roping qualifier for the American. Luckily, Gator had prior success at Buckeye. It was at a 2014 futurity there that Small and her mother NFR qualifier Jane Melby, first saw Gator with Shannon Tidwell, who bred and trained the gelding.

sire Eddie Stinson, by Dash Ta Fame out of a Sixarun daughter. Tidwell raised the gelding out of Ronna Bryant’s mare Gay Sunny Delight, a granddaughter of Gay Bar King.

Small, who finished 13th in the 2016 WPRA World Standings with $133,698, said she doesn’t plan to haul as hard in 2017, but will hit most of the major winter rodeos, starting off with the National Western in Denver. At the time of this interview, she was in the process of moving to Tennessee with her husband, who is a student at the Lincoln Memorial University College of Veterinary Medicine in Harrogate.

“I’m not going to rodeo as much as I did last year, but I’m going to go to the winter rodeos and go from there,” she said. “I’m going to work on getting my colts rode to where they’re ready to go to the futurities.”

Rounding out top 10 qualifiers were Megan Lewis, Sydni Blanchard with two head, Ivy Conrado, Brianna Braun, Blyth Beshears, Wylee Mitchell, Sara Cheeney and Mindy Goemmer. The last chance to qualify for the semifinals rodeo of RFD-TV’s The American is January 28 in Glen Rose, Texas.

ADVERTISING HAS ALREADY STARTED FOR 2017. Don't be left out. The earlier you nominate, the more exposure your stallion receives prior to the 2017 breeding season with regional and national advertising.

BBI was formed for stallion owners as an incentive program to breed barrel horses and sell barrel prospects. Now barrel racers are looking specifically for BBI horses.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote an Open Barrel race as well as Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or sire if of age) are eligible to run in BBI sidepots. Pictured are some of our 2016 BBI winners: Just Look Quix (JD Look) with Emily and Adi Keefer ("Q" won all 3 BBI futurity events), TS Mrsunpeppy Dash (PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Monica Gruel (Barrel of Gold Derby champs), Margaret Jones (Midnight Corona), Monica Gruel, Emily Keefer and Shelley Murphy (As Good As Nick Gets). 2016 handcrafted awards from JoBeth Hutchison, Gale Beebe and Sammy Jo Hall.

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last week we talked about “making 2017 count”. This week, let’s talk about more how to’s.

At The Barn, God often has me talk about using our talents. Often people will come and ask me what their talent is. I..... DON’T.....KNOW. But God does. Usually it’s NOT HARD to figure it out. Ask yourself what you are good at. YOU know what you’re good at. If you like to have people over and socialize, you are gifted at hospitality. If you want to get the job done and help others get THEIR job done, you are a gifted server. If you want to encourage people and help them to feel better, you are probably an exhorter. See? Not hard. And you can read this in I Cor. 12:6-12.

Then go and read Matt. 25:14-29. It’s an account of what God thinks about your talents. You can be a 5 talent person or a 2 talent person or a 1 talent person. Simple. Just use them. He commended the 5 talent and 2 talent people because they used what He gave them. He called them “good and faithful”. The 1 talent guy hid his.

God called him “wicked and lazy”. I’m choosing “good and faithful”. You can, too.

In 2017, ask yourself, “Will I be USEFUL or USELESS” to God. You pick. God won’t ask you to do my job and He won’t ask me to do yours. It’s up to us!

Enjoy the adventure of being about your Fathers business and 2017 will truly be the year that counts!
