Jamey Hunt & Gripe Gut Take Legends Of The South Slot Race For $80,000

By Tanya Randall

Jamey Hunt had an exceptional weekend at the Rob & Teresa Stopanio Memorial Barrel Race, held December 28-January 1 in Ocala, Florida.

The McAlpin, Florida, trainer and farrier topped the Legends of the South Open Slot race aboard Gripe Gut ("Juice") for $80,000.

"It's amazing to have an event this far East with that kind of payout," said Hunt, who wanted to thank event producer Angie Hammock for all her hard work. "I never would have thought to take an open horse to a barrel race and win $80,000. For years that was unheard of. It's getting to where you can have an open horse and win a lot."

Hunt also won the $4,000-added Kim Landry Memorial Futurity with KVS Hityoubackcash ("Coco"), owned by Rusty and Sally Young, for $4,112.

Juice, a 9-year-old gelding by the late stallion Little Jungle Jet, is owned by Hunt and his wife Ashley. The couple paid his sire into the program because of the lucrative payouts close to home. "It's crazy not to have him in it because there's so much stuff to go to here," said Hunt. "He's definitely won enough to pay to have him in it."

The Legends of the South Slot Race drew 123 entries and Hunt and Juice posted their 14.387 early in the draw.

"Honestly, when I ran him, he got a little straight going to the first barrel and he took a little half-step by the first," Hunt recalled of the run. "He came back really straight and was running really hard. I think he made up most of the time when he smoked the second barrel. When you watch the video, he left the second barrel in two strides as fast as I've ever seen a horse leave. He had a really good third barrel. Sometimes running up into a hole, he'll pick up his ears and quit running a bit, but for some reason he ran all the way to the back gate. I think the way he left that second barrel and running all the way through the clock is what helped him."

Hunt figures that Juice has won about $250,000 now. Most of that has come from open races.

"We've had him since he was a late 2-year-old," said Hunt of the solid Paint gelding, out of Redneck Gal, by Country Quick Dash. "Another guy had bought him off the track, and I actually traded $1,200 worth of shoeing for him. He was cripple and I took a chance on him."

Although he liked the way the gelding moved in the roundpen, Hunt wasn't too fond of the gelding once he started riding him, so Ashley claimed him.

"He was so funny about his face and quirky and goofy," said Hunt. "She took him over and started riding him really slow. She got him going pretty good. I climbed back on him one day and he was excellent, so I started riding him again. From then on, he's always been her horse."

Juice ran a little his futurity year, but Hunt said he was immature. The gelding has really come into his own as an older horse.

"The last couple of years, he's really come on and made a heck of a horse," said Hunt.

The weekend prior to Ocala, Ashley had done well on the gelding at Christmas in Dixie Barrel Race in Jackson, Mississippi. She'll

“The plan has always been to make him a solid horse for her to ride,” said Hunt. “He’s finally to that point. He’s always going to be right there at the top, if I don’t do anything too silly. He’s the most solid horse we’ve ever had. He’s honest, honest. He gives 110 percent every time he runs.”

Hunt, who was one of the leading futurity riders in the late 1990s through early 2000s, spent more time shoeing horses than going down the road until the past few years.

“I’m getting where I’m cutting back on my shoeing, because I’m back to full time training,” said Hunt. “We’ve picked up some really nice colts for this year and have a really good group going for next year. I’m keeping a few of the shoeing clients, but I’m really trying to get that narrowed down.”

It was focusing on training his own that built back his client base for outside horses.

“About five years ago, I told Ashley I’m going to shoe as many horses as I can and put that money into making our own horses,” he said. “In the midst of that, we got Juice and had some other horses that we made and made some money on. Those horses allowed us to pick up on the right kind of customers. I only have a few customers that I really trust.”

The customers are more likely to be close friends, like the Youngs, who owned his futurity winner. Hunt said all the training credit goes to Sally.

“She’s done a heck of a job,” said Hunt. “She’s a heck of a hand. She gets them really broke and riding around nice. She makes it easy.”

Coco came from his breeder Kurt Stone, who owns his sire Fame Ta Corona, a son of Dash Ta Fame out of the Corona Cartel mare DTV Bucky Cartel, a full sister to NFR mare Rosas Cantina CC. The gelding is out of the Redmaker mare Dinkys Double Cash.

“Sally’s done all the riding on him this last year. We ride together a lot. They’re really good friends of mine. She’d bring him to the house and I’d school him some. She’d haul him and exhibition him and every now and then I’d step on him.”

Young placed in a round at the BFA Juvenile on the gelding. She told Hunt the gelding was getting a little strong, so it was time for him to get back on. Hunt will ride him at the Golden Buckle in Waco, Texas, in two weeks.

Nellie Miller & Kathy Petska To Represent California at NFR Open

By Tanya Randall

Nellie Miller and her great mare Rafter W Minnie Reba (“Sister”) captured their third California Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship at Red Bluff, December 29-31.

The pair, who captured the 2020 RAM National Circuit Finals Championship, will represent the California Circuit at the NFR Open in Colorado Springs next July. Joining them is year-end California Circuit Champion Kathy Petska.

Miller and Sister, who have won three year-end championships to their resume, won the aggregate by more than a half-second. They were third in the first two rounds and second in the third to win $6,229.

“She did good this year,” said Miller, who lives in nearby Cottonwood. “We hit some barrels there last year, but this year she did really good.”

The circuit finals was Sister’s first rodeo back after coming up sore in July.

“She didn’t miss a beat,” noted Miller.

The home-bred mare, by KS Cash N Fame, out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike, had locked up Miller’s circuit finals qualification out of the spring, giving Miller the opportunity to run Sister’s full brother, Rebas Cash (“Cowboy”), the last offspring of Espuela Roan.

“He did really well for me,” Miller said of the 13-year-old gelding.

With Sister, a former AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year now 15, Miller has different travel plans from the ones that took her and Sister to four NFR qualifications, 2017-2019 and 2021. Miller’s first NFR qualification was with Sister’s half-brother Rebas Smokey Joe (“Blue Duck”) back in 2010.

“I’m going to take it easy this winter and probably just hang out until the spring rodeos out here in California,” said the 2017 WPRA World Champion and mother of two girls, now 10 and 7. “Then, of course, we’ll head to Colorado in July. We decided to pull it back this year with her getting older and stick closer to home. Just see how it goes.”

Miller wanted to thank the Red Bluff committee for hosting the circuit finals again this year.

“We changed venues a couple of years ago,” she explained. “They kept it going through COVID. They’ve put in a big effort to keep it going for us. They deserve a big shout out.”

Petska agreed and gave an extra shout out to Ken Cook, who worked tirelessly on the ground.

“They literally ran 400 girls the day before, 400 girls the morning before us and then us that night,” Petska said. “He kept that ground amazing. He made darn sure the ground was good for us and he didn’t even have a dog in the fight. He did an absolutely amazing job.”

Petska, the 2020 California Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, split her season between her two mounts—Dineromadefamous (“Jeffery”), aka “her baby” because he’s her favorite, and Bet On This Lion (“Bugsy”).

She did most of her winning on Jeffery, whom she’s had since he was a baby. She got him from Jeff and Andrea Busby, who raised the gelding by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Rebs Little Fame, by Dash Ta Fame.

“My husband had entered me at Woodlake,” Petska explained, “and I didn’t want to run my baby there. So, I pulled Bugsy up out of the pasture and said, ‘Please don’t embarrass me!’ She wins the rodeo by 2/10ths!”

Bugsy went back to the pasture while she made most of her runs on Jeffery, until he injured his suspensory at the Cow Palace in San Francisco in September.

“My vet said I could probably have him ready to go for the circuit finals,” said Petska. “I got permission to start riding him about three weeks ago, but I had a pretty good lead going into the circuit finals. I decided to leave him off until the first of the year to make sure he feels really good.”

It was Bugsy’s turn again.

Petska and Bugsy split a third-place check in the second round with Miller but clinched the year-end title.

“She’s just an amazing mare,” Petska said of the 13-year-old daughter of Lions Share Of Fame out of Mito Sure Bet, by Bet The Cash. “When the chips are down, she always shows up for you.”

Even though she trained the mare, it wasn’t smooth sailing from the beginning.

“When I went to running her, I had heck,” said Petska. “I just

Petska had even let a friend ride Buggy but had her back within three days. She was going to sell the mare, but her husband Monty Jo, a multiple NFR qualifier in the team roping, set her straight.

“He said that mare is trained,” said Petska, who hails from the central valley town of Turlock. “She knows what to do and she doesn't want you to train on her. She wants you to go run her.”

Of course, her husband had to run the mare himself before she believed him.

“So, I go to a jackpot and he says just sit there and ride her like a dude. Just sit there,” laughed Petska, who didn't even change hands during the run. “I thought, if he wants to see a dude, I'll show him a dude! I won that jackpot by 2/10ths and from then on she wasn't for sale.”

Other than running at the NFR Open this summer, Petska said she doesn't plan to leave the circuit.

“I'm mainly a circuit person,” said Petska, who wanted to thank her brother-in-law, Paul, for sending her his fabulous bits for her horses. “We've got property in New Mexico and Stephenville, Texas, and we usually go back there in the winter to check everything. I usually catch some Texas rodeos then, but it's hard to get me to rodeo outside of California.”

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

Barrel Racing Industry Alliance Releases 2023 Graded Races

The list of graded races for 2023 are now available on the BRIA website.

The Barrel Racing Industry Alliance recently announced the development of a system to grade barrel races that are consistently recognized as the highest level and quality of competition.

The list of graded races for 2023 is now available to view at barrelracingalliance.com.

Races receiving grades for 2023 were evaluated on total entry numbers, payouts and quality of competition by the BRIA Graded Races Subcommittee. Qualifying barrel races were ranked by Grade 1, Grade 2 and Grade 3, with Grade 1 being the highest grade.

Requirements for grading and graded status of races are reviewed annually by the BRIA committee, with a new graded barrel race list issued for each year based on that evaluation and assignment process.

As 2023 graded races are entered into the system, these grades will appear on AQHA's QData Database Online Reports. The wins and placings of horses in graded barrel races will then appear on catalog pages produced by the QData Catalog Builder.

This new system will more closely align barrel horse sale catalog pages with race-horse sale catalog pages and help breeders, owners and buyers better evaluate the caliber of the horse and its sire and dam.

Learn more about the graded barrel races and view the complete list of graded races at barrelracingalliance.com. For more information, contact BRIA@aqha.org.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We had a Kids Vacation Camp during the Christmas break. A few days before, Thad, 7, asked me if I was going to be there? I told him no. He said, "Well, if you're not there, then I'm not going!" LOL!

Then he asked his mom if they were going to have John 3:16 in the lessons? She said no, but they had a lot of other scriptures. He said, "Well, if you're not going to have John 3:16, then I'm not coming." He plopped down on the floor and recited John 3:16 word for word.

Can you say it without looking? Do you even know what it says? I've pondered that conversation a lot since then. I marvel at his faith and his convictions for one so young.

Friends, it would do us good to make that same statement. If Jesus isn't my Lord, then I'm not going!

2023. If you're not in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing, with the right people... go home!
