Sissy Winn & Chewingthehotwire Claim Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Sissy Winn of Chapman Ranch and her 8-year-old gelding Chewingthehotwire claimed the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship over New Year's Weekend in Waco, Texas.

"Circuit Finals is a big deal," said Winn, who wanted to thank her parents and sister for their support. "I've always wanted to win it. I knew he could do it because he's Mister Consistent, but to actually do it, is something else. It's a good feeling."

Winn and Chewy got their Finals started off right, winning the first round in 15.67. They were third in the second round with a 15.77 and second in the third round with a 15.69 to win the aggregate.

"I wasn't thinking, 'Oh I've got to win this rodeo,'" she said. "I've always wanted to, but I was just focusing on driving him to my spots. I knew if I did that he'd put me up at the top."

The victory was worth $7,906 and bumped her to No. 1 in the WPRA World Standings with $15,696 won since October 1, 2021.

"It has been the best fall and winter ever," she said. In addition to the circuit finals, they've won Lubbock and placed second at both Rosenberg and Waco's Heart of Texas Rodeo in October. Winn had purchased Chewy in the spring of 2019 from Shelby Ridling, who had trained and campaigned the gelding as a 5-year-old futurity horse. Chewy was raised by Ridling's dad and stepmom, Brad and Kenna Squires, who bred the Royal Quick Dash mare Native Quick Dash to NFR sire Flaming Fire Water.

Some physical issues forced Winn to give Chewy almost two years off but during that time the gelding matured. While her good mare Flashy Red Flame ran at most of the rodeos in early 2021, Winn opted to give Chewy a chance mid-summer.

"After the Fourth of July, I got on him and stayed on him," she said. "We had our little things that we had to get over. Shelby had mostly ran him in indoor things his futurity year. This summer I had to figure out some bits and headgear but once I found the right one it just clicked and it's been great since."

Chewy also had a significant part in getting Winn qualified for her third Texas Circuit Finals.

"Halfway through the summer, I knew I wanted to come home and get my circuit count," she said. "I was 15th or 16th, way down. I needed to win when I got back from the summer. I wanted to give myself a chance to get in."

At the last Texas rodeos of the season, Chewy placed third for Winn at Abilene, second at Amarillo, eighth at Stephenville and won New Braunfels.

"New Braunfels was last," said Winn, who finished the year 20th in the WPRA World Standings with $48,648. "I knew I had to win it to make the circuit finals and he did it!"

With Chewy working well, a capable backup in Flame and an up-and-comer in JL I Am Reddy, Winn has put off studying for the LSAT to get into law school to focus on rodeo. She's got Odessa, Texas, this Saturday, Denver, Colorado on the 20th and is waiting on her callback for Fort Worth, Texas.

"I'm really excited about the winter rodeos," she said. "Please have everything!"

Megan Champion Sweeps California Circuit Titles, Wins Finals With Miss Dual Smartee

By Tanya Randall

When Megan Champion found out the 2021 California Circuit Finals were going to be held in the Frank Moore Arena in Red Bluff, December 30-January 1, she got really excited.

"They have a lot of jackpots there," she said. "I was really excited when I found out they were having the circuit finals there because my little mare Smarty loves that pen."

Smarty—Miss Dual Smartee—turned in the fastest time of the rodeo to win the first round and went on to place third in the second from the bottom of the ground and second in the third to win the aggregate.

"She's just the easiest horse," Champion said of the Babcock Ranch-raised 13-year-old daughter of Mister Dual Pep out of the Elans Playboy mare Elans Smartee. "I just have to stay out of her way and allow her to make her best runs. She's so honest and consistent."

Champion will head into the 2022 season with $6,906 in earnings from her California Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship.

"I'm excited the circuit finals count toward the (world) standings," said the Ukiah, California, barrel racer. "I had a clean sweep of the circuit finals my rookie year but none of that money counted. I'm happy this year I'll be able to start out with a little bit of money."

She also had the year-end championship well in hand before the rodeo started with $22,695 won at California rodeos in 2021. She finished 30th in the WPRA World Standings with $35,859.

"Last year I had a really great winter and spring, but I broke my foot going into the Fourth of July," she explained. "I missed all the Fourth of July, starting at Reno. My horse Katy (Tivito-satthegogobar) got hurt right after we won Clovis (California). Not even a month after I started up again after I got hurt, Smarty got hurt. Then I took my daughter's horse (SFW Wonder Woman) and finished out the season on her. It was a rough year."

Although she had plans on making on an NFR run—she's been in the Top 30 the past three years since she finished reserve for the Rookie of the Year title in 2019—she knew by late summer she had to switch gears.

"Once I realized that (making the NFR) was really far out for me, I turned out of Caldwell and Ellensburg, rodeos that I normally would go to, so I could go to Ramona and San Bernardino down here just because I wanted to secure the year-end for California."

Champion said she's probably not going to go as hard as she has the last three years.

"I've figured out a lot in the last three years," she said. "I'm going to try to do what some of the girls do—less is more. I'm still going to go, but I'm going to be a little more picky and choosy."

"My horses work so good out here in the California circuit, and Utah, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. I feel like I have figured out where they run good and where they don't. They don't love those setups back there (East) that much."

Champion wanted to thank the California Circuit Finals Rodeo Committee for their great effort, including dragging halfway through the barrels, and her circuit director Katie Pascoe for all her hard work. She also wanted to thank her daughters—twins Oceana

Jolene Montgomery Dominates Come & Take It Futurity, Wins With MCM Firewater Dixie

By Tanya Randall

Perennial leading futurity rider and trainer Jolene Montgomery dominated the 2nd Annual Come & Take It Futurity, held December 31-January 2 at the Brazos County Expo in Bryan, Texas.

Montgomery and Dunn Ranch's homebred MCM Firewater Dixie swept the $10,000-added futurity and placed in the Open 1D on Saturday for $10,174.

The Purdon, Texas-based trainer also took the reserve championship in the futurity and placed in the Open 2D both days on Mike Sokol's Fantastic Spitfire ("Melania") for $8,889 and finished fourth in the futurity average on Busby Quarter Horses' homebred Jetto Mooned Me for $2,019.

All totaled, Montgomery rode horses to earnings of $21,083. "I love the ground at Bryan," said Montgomery. "I know some people don't because it's a little firm for some of their horses. Mine are like 'Let's do this!'"

Montgomery, who made all of her runs sporting a Happy New Year's 2022 party favor on her hat, turned in runs of 15.424 and 15.715 on Dixie for the winning average of 15.570.

"She's been good every run we've made, just a few little bobbles here and there. I knew from her runs at Guthrie and Oklahoma City if she could go through there without any mistakes she'd be sitting good," Montgomery said.

The first run, the firmer ground played right into Dixie's favor, allowing the mare to be really quick on the backside of her barrels.

"Her first run, she gained a lot of ground being really quick on the back side," she said. "She didn't have any mistakes. She's super gritty and tries her guts out every run. The first run was great."

Their only hiccup was bumping the third barrel, so Montgomery took out a little insurance on her second run.

"For the second run I didn't quicken up her feet quite as much," she explained. "I didn't want her getting too tight. Her second run she was a little more free and I put a little more bend in her, so she didn't quite have the quick speed on the back side, but it was still really smooth. I was just taking out a little insurance to make sure I didn't hit a barrel. I knew I had some wiggle room. She made a nice, super smooth pass the second run."

Dixie, a 4-year-old gray mare, is full sister to barrel horse sire Firewater Canyon. She is by the great Fire Water Flit and out of champion performer and producer Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons.

Montgomery started training the filly last fall after she was started under saddle by Katie Luttrell.

Dixie is one of the eight Mulberry Canyon Moon babies that Montgomery had trained or ridden. In addition to riding Mulberry herself for a brief time, Montgomery has thrown her leg over MCM ImasharpGuy (A Sharp Frenchman), SR Industry Titan (Firewaterontherocks), Darksideofthemoon (Firewaterontherocks), MCM Drop Your Socks (BHR Frenchies Socks), MCM Mulberrys Fling (A Streak Of Fling), Guys Canyon Moon (Frenchmans Guy) and MCM Homemade—Sharpie's full sister for next year.

Melania, Montgomery's reserve champion, is also Mulberry Canyon Moon-bred. The 5-year-old mare, bred by Ryan and Wilma Coy, is by Guys Canyon Moon out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Famed Spitfire.

"She basically wasn't even broke until this past March," said Montgomery. "She was really, really quiet. I'm not even going to lie, before she could even lope a circle right I started her on the barrels. She wanted to turn a barrel so bad it was kind of 'a get her broke as we go' kind of deal. I normally wouldn't recommend that but you could tell from Day 1 that she was going to turn."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She's pretty easy really. She's ornery and likes to play. I really just exercise her and lope the barrels. Sometimes I make her high lope because she really wants to baby lope and not go anywhere! We trot the poles some. She's pretty solid so it doesn't take much."

SPONSORS: Horse Hair Analysis, Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, Chrome Girl Accessories, Forco, Big V Feeds, J&C Bits, J&C Bookkeeping & Tax Services, Pursue Victory.

Rounding out Montgomery's money winners was the 4-year-old First Moonflash gelding, out of the champion Blazin Jetolena mare Jet O Red.

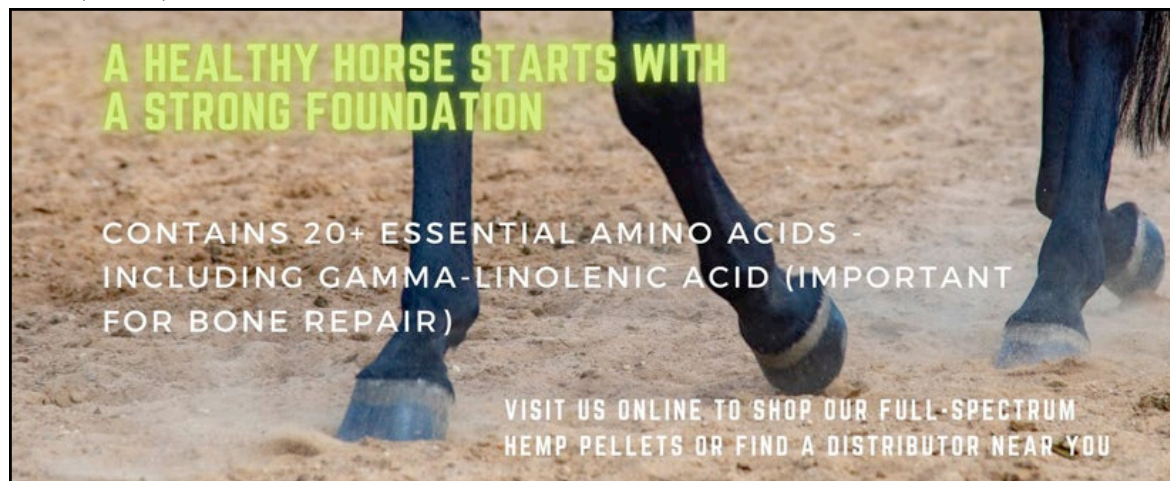

"I love him," she said. "He's been my favorite all along. He's really kind and wants to be good. He's a little more fragile than the two mares so I haven't stood on him like those two mares. I kind of let him go through the barrels. I think he's going to be awesome."

Farewell to a Legend—World Champion Barrel Horse Yeah Hes Firen Laid to Rest

By Tanya Randall, from BarrelRacingMagazine.com

Two-time World Champion Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi said goodbye to her great gelding Yeah Hes Firen, known near and far as “Duke,” on December 23 at the age of 18. The flashy palomino gelding carried Brittany to the 2009 Women’s Professional Rodeo Association World Championship and at least seven of her 15 National Finals Rodeo qualifications.

“He’s a legend and always will be,” Brittany from her home in Lampasas, Texas. “When I was running him, social media wasn’t what it is now. The public in general only got to see him on TV at the NFR. I don’t think they got to comprehend his greatness. His dominance was just incredible.”

Something Special

Duke was bred by Phyllis Wells of Harrah, Oklahoma. He was by her homebred stallion Alive N Firen, a son of Fire Water Flit out of the Bugs Alive In 75, Thoroughbred mare WhichWitch S Witch. His dam was the double-bred Jet Deck mare Splendid Discovery, by the Easy Jet stallion Shoot Yeah.

Latricia Mundorf, then Duke, had ridden an Alive N Firen for a friend. Taken with the mare’s talent, she contacted Phyllis and her husband Tommy about prospects. She came home with a gangly, big-headed gelding she called “Ardy,” which was short for aardvark.

“He was not a pretty 2-year-old,” said Latricia. “He was fat and looked good, but he had that big ol’ head and little 2-year-old body. I’d later joke with Brittany saying, ‘Oh, you won by a nose!’”

Latricia said the gelding was “a hot mess” from the beginning. He never felt very “broke” to ride and he pranced everywhere.

“He was a hot mess from the get-go,” she said. “He was a teddy bear on the ground, but he pranced when he was 2 before he ever saw a barrel. From Day 1 though, he wanted to run barrels.”

She said the most difficult thing about Ardy was his tendency to hang his hip to the inside when going to the right.

“Doing anything to the right, he really stuck his hip to the inside,” she explained. “I would kick him in the flank going to the first barrel so I could get it behind me instead of beside me.”

Ardy made his debut at the 2006 Barrel Futurities of America Juvenile Futurity and placed deep in the average.

“He wasn’t really good at the first futurities and then I just decided that I was just going to try to go fast,” Latricia said. “I wasn’t going to worry about keeping him quiet. I wasn’t going to worry about him hanging his hip. I was just going to go fast because I knew he was going to turn his barrels.”

Ardy won the San Antonio Futurity and never looked back. Brittany, who was working her way to her first world championship with Sixth Vision (“Stitch”), was intrigued by the gelding.

“He was a beautiful color yellow with the whitest mane and tail,” said Brittany. “His tail drug the ground. He was a flashy horse. He was an eye-catcher.

“His flashy way of turning a barrel and his flashy color caught my eye. He wasn’t always a futurity winner but he always placed and he was very consistent. I liked the way he turned because he would stand up, and I was like, ‘Oh man, he’ll make a rodeo horse!’ When they stand up in a turn like that, they’ll make a rodeo horse.”

When Brittany first inquired about the gelding, Latricia told her she was waiting to hear back on a prior offer. When that buyer didn’t respond in the given timeline, Brittany got her chance at the Speedhorse Futurity in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 2007.

Lethal Destiny & Cody Bauserman Win Betty Leek Memorial Futurity For Sharon Bryant

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion trainer and rider Cody Bauserman and Lethal Destiny swept the futurities at the 2nd Annual Ashley Brooks Memorial Race, held December 31-January 2 at the Agri-center Showplace Arena in Memphis, Tennessee.

Bauserman jockeyed the 4-year-old mare to wins in the $15,000-added Betty Leek Memorial Futurity and $5,000-added BFA Sidepot for 4-year-olds for the mare's owner and his longtime client Sharon Bryant of Appomattox, Virginia.

All totaled, the mare won $11,743.

Bauserman purchased Destiny on behalf of Bryant last January at the Heritage Place Winter Mixed Sale, where she had been consigned by Matt Dunn and Mike Castanon.

"I had bid on a Tres Seis mare at the Oklahoma City sale but I stopped because I thought she was going too high," he admitted. "She was the only one I picked out of the Heritage."

The Sallisaw, Oklahoma, based trainer was lucky to have got the mare bought. Daughters of leading sire Tres Seis are as in demand in the racing industry as they are in the arena. Destiny is especially appealing to racehorse breeders—including those who tried to buy her after Bauserman did for double the money—because of her blue hen mother Miss Lethal.

A daughter of Chicks Beduino out of a Tolltac mare, Miss Lethal is the dam of 2016 AQHA Racing Champion Filly Volcom Bay si 99 ($420,703) and stakes winner Lethal Delight si 106 ($453,701 G1), the dam of 2014 All American Futurity winner JM Miracle si 101 ($1,507,962).

Lethal Delight is by Dean Miracle, a son of Streakin Six out of Our Third Delight. Tres Seis is a grandson of Streakin Six through his son Sixarun and out of Our Third Delight.

"I told Sharon she had the opportunity to make some good money on this mare right after we bought her because the racehorse people wanted her as a broodmare," Bauserman said. "She said, 'I don't want to sell her because it took us so long to find her.' It all worked out like it was supposed to. She's been really fun."

Bauserman had figured that Destiny would be a little on the hotter side and had prepared for it only to find out the mare had a great temperament.

"She's very quiet especially for the way she's bred with the Chicks Beduino on bottom," he said. "She's not hot at all. She's got a great mind and laid back demeanor."

Destiny started her career at the BFA Super Stakes and later ran at the OKC Rookie Futurity. She was clocking right but had some tipped barrels that kept her from the bigger checks. At Memphis, she ran to her potential, Bauserman said.

They won the opening round with a 14.698, which also placed fourth in the Open 1D with a carryover. A hiccup at the second barrel in the next round slowed them to a 15.024, which still placed seventh and gave them the aggregate.

"The first run was pretty much flawless," Bauserman said. "She gave me everything she had at this point in time. The second go, I was up pretty early. I didn't want to hit a barrel but I knew I needed to be fast because Kassie Mowry and some others were right there behind me. I had a little trouble with the second barrel, which cost me a couple of tenths. I was a little worried, but they've got to come after you when you set the pace. Luckily, I held on to win the average—barely—but it was a good win."

The margin of victory was extremely tight. Pete Oen and Trump Cardd were just .004 behind in the Betty Leek and Kassie Mowry and KL Touch Of Heaven were .026 back in the BFA Sidepot.

Bauserman wanted to thank Betty Leek's husband Jimmy and daughter Kim Matthews for sponsoring the futurity in her memory and the BFA for the extra added money for the 4-year-olds. He also wanted to thank Bailee Snow for helping with the horses at home.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As we begin the new year, I would like to put in writing what the Lord gave me for 2022. It began a few weeks ago with His question to me, "Who do YOU say that I am?"

2022 will be the year that we will have what we say. When Jesus asked His disciples in Matthew 16:15-19 who they said He was, He praised Peter for saying that He was the son of the living God. He went further to say that the gates of hell would not prevail against the church! Awesome!

Let's begin by saying that Jesus is our healer, our financial source, redeemer of relationships and everything else good. Then in the last few days, Mike added to it by telling us what God gave him for the new year. We are to step on the throttle and surge ahead of the pack through prayer.

Pastor Nathan encouraged us to write down the promises of God that we are believing Him for this year and watch them manifest! Pastor Elgin saw us harvesting from the seeds we've sown and to be a doer of the Word and not a hearer only!

My friends, this is our year! Let's take it by faith and be the blessing God intended us to be and receive the blessing/reward He promised us in Hebrews 11:6.

Happy blessed New Year!
