Piel Goes For It at Southern Rebel

Southern Rebel Futurity

December 31-January 2, 2010, North Augusta, SC

Congratulations to Derek Piel and Go For The Fame, the 2010 Southern Rebel Futurity Champions. We grabbed a quick minute of Piel's time to learn more about the duo.

BRR: Where did Go For The Fame come from?

Piel: She is home grown. We (Piel and Crystal Shumate) flushed an embryo out of our mare, Go For It Frenchgirl (Frenchmans Guy) She is by Dash Ta Fame.

BRR: How was Go For The Fame to train and what is her style?

Piel: She is very athletic and natural so she was very easy to train. She is very smooth and covers a lot of ground. She turns a lot like her dam.

BRR: What are your plans with Go For The Fame for 2010?

Piel: We plan on taking her to a few futurities this year including the Good Times Futurity, Ft. Smith and OKC.

Kellogg Benefit Scheduled

Boe Kellogg (Barrel Racer/Trainer, and husband of Randa Kellogg Barrel Racer/Trainer) was recently diagnosed with colon cancer and underwent surgery to remove it over the holidays and is now recovering.

A $2000 added 5D benefit barrel race to help him and his family with these significant and unexpected expenses is set for January 30, 2010 at Jeff Smith's Cowboy Collection Arena, 11300 FM148 in Terrell, TX. Books open at 8:00 am and close at last 25 runners, Exhibitions from 9:00 am - 12:30 pm, Open Starts at 1:00 pm.

You can download the pdf flyer at <http://www.chasincans.com/boekellogggrace.pdf> for more information or call 972-563-3300, www.cowboycollectionarena.com.

There will also be a Silent Auction with items ranging from stallion breedings to Oxy-Gen products, jewelry, tack, artwork, and more. If you are unable to attend but wish to send a donation to the family, please contact Beckie Rockett-Merritt @ 469-556-5818. If you want to donate an item for the silent auction, please contact Lisa Baccus @ 214-549-3735 to arrange to have them shipped or picked up. There are additional contacts on the flyer.

Help us make this trying time a little easier for Boe & Randa and their family.

Southern Rose Ranch Loses Nutin Buta Houndog

The "barrel racing" community and all who are fans of the sport lost a great young talent that was robbed of his deserved career in this sport of highs and lows.

Nutin Buta Houndog finally gave up the fight due to complications from colitis on Dec 27, 2009.

He will be so greatly missed and we at Southern Rose Ranch appreciate all who have expressed their condolences. We know he was loved by many and feel extremely blessed to have been able to be apart of his short but extremely exciting journey.

Named for a song another great icon made famous, Houndog brought new life to an old familiar song. And like the great Elvis, he left us yearning for more, and truely heartbroken. Thanks again for everyones thoughts and prayers. God has a greater plan and we are fully aware of the briefness of this journey so staying ever so grateful, we continue to recieve blessings, and thankfully say a sorrowful goodbye to our beloved Houndog. --Southern Rose Ranch

Throw Me The Cash Rescheduled

Due to incimate weather the $6000 added Throw Me The Cash run will be rescheduled to January 22-24, 2010, same location.

All pre-entries will have the option to refund or to stay entered with the entry they sent in. You may contact Angie at (318)308-7668 or Kori at (337)316-4619 for information. Pre-Entries will be contacted.

The pre-entry deadline has been extended to January 12, 2010 (postmarked). Any mailed in late fees will be refunded and a new draw will be posted. Please disregard any draw positions posted.

New Barrel Racing Blog

Front Range Barrel Racing is a small snippet of life along the Rocky Mountains for barrel racers of all ages. It's a blog that talks to some of the personalities behind the names and introduces you to some racers that you might not have otherwise heard of. There will be event listings and short interviews, book reviews and links to other news stories.

The number of talented horse women and men in the Rocky Mountain area is outstanding. Front Range Barrel Racing will provide one place to meet these talents and get a list of links to area events. The areas to be covered include east of Pike's Peak and north to Wyoming and South to New Mexico. And with the love that racers have to travel we'll also cover Western Kansas and anywhere in between -- www.frontrangebarrelracing.blogspot.com.

Stars Show for TX Circuit Finals

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – Nobody is going to waste a lot of time arguing with Johnny Van Court's assessment that the Dodge Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo is "an NFR quality show in a circuit finals setting."

Van Court, the Texas circuit president, is looking at a Jan. 7-9 rodeo in Waco, Texas, that has 34 competitors who qualified for either the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo or the Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping in 2009.

When you add in Fred Whitfield, Allen Bach, Mickey Gee and Stran Smith – none of whom made it to the Wrangler NFR last year – the field accounts for 35 world championships.

The numbers should even be a bit stronger, but reigning World Champion Bull Rider J.W. Harris had surgery to repair his broken right (riding) hand on Dec. 31 and has doctor released from Waco, as has Reserve World Champion Bareback Rider Clint Cannon (groin, MCL), who is resting now so he can make a better showing at the National Western Stock Show & Rodeo in Denver later this month.

Seven-time World Champion All-Around Cowboy Trevor Brazile and 2005 World Champion Heeler Patrick Smith headline a team roping field that will also include David Key and eight-time World Champion Heeler Rich Skelton, Joel Bach and four-time World Champion Heeler Allen Bach and reigning Reserve World Champions Luke Brown and Martin Lucero.

Brazile, the reigning world champion tie-down roper, will not take part in that event at Waco, but the field is loaded nonetheless, with seven-time World Champion Whitfield and 2008 World Champion Stran Smith, plus current Wrangler NFR average champion Tuf Cooper and fellow Wrangler NFR qualifiers Scott Kormos, Justin Maass and Adam Gray.

Powell Warms Up at the Lone Star Last Race

Open 5D & the Last Race
January 1-2, 2010, Stephenville, TX

After Molly Powell swept the top two spots of "The Last Race" at Lone Star Arena in Stephenville, TX as a warm up to her 2010 campaign, the Barrel Racing Report caught up with her for a couple quick questions.

BRR: Tell us a little about your two horses, No Honor Left and Fire Water Kat.

Powell: No Honor Left, or Wittle, is a 14 year old gelding that I bought last fall from my friend Karen Renshaw. I leased Wittle last summer and he ran well for me. My other horse Firewater Kat, Kat, has been in my barn for 3 years. We made the NFR in 2007, where he won the 10th round with no reins (came over his head at second barrel). Then we had some bad luck with ground, and I've had to be careful with him the past two years. But he has matured now (11 years old this year), and I really feel like he's back to his full strength. I'm pretty excited to go out and compete at the rodeos on both of these solid horses!

BRR: How different are they to ride and how do you prepare yourself to ride two different horses?

Powell: Kat is an all out sort of do or die type of horse to ride. He is extremely athletic, and can turn on a dime. My main concern is to not hit a barrel, and to try to keep him on all four feet so he doesn't hurt himself. I keep him up into my hands more so I can keep him collected while he's running. Wittle is a very different mannered horse than Kat. He is very smart and cool when he's competing. But, we've struggled with slick ground too. Wittle is very well trained, but being a Jet Of Honor bred horse, he has a tendency to drop a little in his turns. Since Wittle is a 'clocker', I sometimes have to remind myself to make a clean run on him and not get him too tight when rating him for a turn as well.

BRR: What is the first rodeo for you in 2010?

Powell: Next week I am up in Odessa, and then I will go to Ft. Worth after that. I chose not to enter Denver this year after Kat wiped out there last year with me.

BRR: What are your plans for 2010?

Powell: I have set a goal for 2010 to get into the top 5 positions in the Final World standings. That's a tall order, but I believe you have to aim high to get there. I love to barrel race, and as long as my horses are healthy and I can travel with my husband Turtle, I will be enjoying the ride!

Ward Continues Winning Traditions

Sherry Lynn Johnson's 13th Annual Invitational
December 27, 2009, Tulsa, OK

When Kylie Ward won Sherry Lynn Johnson's Thirteenth Annual Invitational Barrel Race she was just carrying on a little family tradition.

Kylie Ward, a junior at Tarleton State majoring in Psychology & Counseling, is the sister of 2003 World Champion Barrel Racer Janae (Ward) Massey, her Mom, Renee was an NFR qualifier, her Grandma, Florence Youree was the 1966 All Around GRA (now WPRA) World Champion, her Grandpa is Dale Youree, legendary barrel trainer, and her Dad, James Ward, is a multiple futurity winning barrel trainer. That isn't even all of her family rodeo connections! Kylie is going to use her legendary family's knowledge when she hits the rodeo trail this year while balancing college classes and college rodeos along with WPRA/PRCA rodeos. Kylie and her mount, Diva In Red, will kick off their year in Odessa, Denver, and Fort Worth.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Miracles are happening around us all the time but too many times we don't recognize them.

Often when we think of miracles we think of God parting the Red Sea or making the sun go backwards. The smaller miracles going on are often labeled as luck. Why is it that when bad things happen such as destructive storms, they're called "acts of God" and when good things happen, they're called coincidences?

We need to give God credit for the miracles we experience every day and take for granted and not just praise Him for the spectacular ones.

An elderly widow lady, with limited means, living back East wanted very much to contact an old friend in Montana. She was living in a rooming house and wouldn't spend the money to make a long distance call. The widow prayed to God to show her how she could get her friend's address and write to her. Within a few days, the widow received in the mail a newsletter from a large ministry and stuck to her letter was a letter addressed to her friend in Montana. There was the address she'd prayed for! You might say it was just a mistake made by an office worker but the widow knew it was the Hand of God.

A prison minister in Texas felt led to give a Christmas gift to an "unlovely" woman who occasionally helped her. The minister thought not much can be done with $10 so I'll give her $20. Then as she was leaving her house, God spoke to her spirit and said, "Give the lady $30." It turned out that the lady badly needed $30 to pay for her heart medicine and she asked God to help her get the money. That was no coincidence.

We've seen miracles over the years, big ones and little ones. It's easy to remember the healings and answered prayers but when a cut finger or skinned knee heals, we just take it for granted that the body does that. Never forget it is a loving and merciful God who works miracles daily around us, even in the air we breathe, so that we can enjoy a satisfying life that Jesus died to give us.

"Those who fear the Lord lack nothing." (Psalm 34:9)

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own non-denominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
