Shelley Morgan & Mary Walker Take Texas Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

The WPRA World Championship race wasn't the only one to come down to the wire. By a mere $105.03 (unofficial), Shelley Morgan surpassed Jana Bean for the Texas Circuit Championship, earning the right to compete at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla.

With her rodeo horse Will Merada ("Radar") recovering from sore front feet, Morgan was forced to ride Lees Yellow Gold ("Gunner"), a 5-year-old gelding making just his second rodeo appearance.

"He's making me a horse," said the former National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Eustace.

Although they didn't place in any rounds, their time on three was good enough to place third in the average for $1,044.29.

"He went in there and worked, every single time," said Morgan. Gunner's previous rodeo run was during a round at the All American Finals in Waco last October. "His barrels probably could have been a little tighter, but he worked really good. He definitely didn't embarrass me; he was right there with them. He's very consistent. That's his best thing. He did well enough to place third in the average and that's all it took. It just worked out."

Like most of Morgan's horses, Gunner was found by her father Bobby Bridwell as a 2-year-old. By Cee Heart Concho out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Parfait, Gunner was bred by Lee Lopez of Meadows, S.D.

"He's really, really good minded," said Morgan, who is sponsored by Cactus Saddlery, Soundhorse Technologies and The Muffler Shop. "He's always been a really nice horse."

Morgan is hoping to have Radar back up and going for the bulk of the winter rodeos, but the plans are for Gunner to help out a little bit more. She's also looking forward to the RNCFR.

"I've never been to Florida except for my honeymoon," laughed Morgan. "I'm kind of excited. Of course, I don't know who I'm going to run yet—it will either be Radar or Gunner."

Mary Walker, the 2014 Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, is no stranger to competing in Florida. She started her World Championship run with her great horse Perculatin ("Latte") in the Sunshine state back in 2012.

14 Chloe Hoovestall	$3,921
15 Mary Walker	$3,805

"I know my way down there," laughed Walker. "I know where to stop at the check points. If you don't, they come and get you!" Walker, who is sponsored by Justin Boots, IceVibe Boots, VetLase, Platinum Performance, Justin Discount Boots, Priefert, Omaha Truck and Trailer Sales, Panhandle Slim/Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Relentless, TheraPlate, American Hat Company, MGM Grand and Barrel Horse World, earned the right to go to the RNCFR by making a serious commitment to end her plus-five problem.

"I hit a ton of barrels to win a lot of money," said Walker. "I had a lot of things going on last year that I wished hadn't gone on. It kind of wears on you. Frustration sets in a little bit. Thinking it's me—I'm letting him hit barrels. I'm not riding him like I'm supposed to." Aiding Walker in her mental battle was a bit change that debuted in a victorious eighth round at the 2014 NFR.

Big Payout Jump for the 2015 National Finals

Contestants are going to have a few million more reasons to qualify for the National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, NV in 2015 as they are significantly increasing the purse money. The payout will jump from $6.375 million in 2014 to a whopping $10 million in 2015. That means a go round win will go from paying $19,002.40 in 2014 to $26,230.77 in 2015 and the Average win will go from $48,731.97 to $67,269.23. All told each round will pay out $23,317 more and the Average will pay $69,951.92 more.

Here are the actual payoff numbers:

Payoff Per Go-Round Per Event

- 1) $26,230.77 2) $20,730.77 3) $15,653.85 4) $11,000
5) $6,769.23 6) $4,230.77

TX Circuit Finals Continued From Page 1

"I've been putting off making a bit change for a long time," said Walker. "I ride him in it at home. I've always thought if I just had a little something that I could hold him up more... When I went into the Finals, I thought everything would be good. I had worked him at home. Then first round at the NFR I hit a barrel. I thought this is crazy. I fretted all week. He was probably the soundest he's ever been. He felt great. I just kept fighting my head, thinking he's too nice of horse to do all this."

Walker made a call to her good friend and fellow NFR qualifier Sue Smith. A noted futurity trainer, Smith always has a trailer full of her custom bits with her when she stays with Walker in Ennis, Texas, for the winter rodeos.

"The day of eighth round, Sue and I talked about 20 times," said Walker. "We decided on a bit change. I said, 'Gosh, Sue I hate to do that at the NFR, but I've got nothing to lose now.' I've got to win something. If I don't, I don't qualify for The American, I don't qualify for the Challenges and I won't qualify for Calgary. I didn't have a choice. I had to do something."

Walker switched from the Loomis that she'd ridden Latte in from the beginning of his pro rodeo career to a Dave Elliot-made Spur Up 06 with a twisted-wire mouthpiece with three pieces of chain in the middle.

"I don't know if he's a little bit worried about it," she said. "That's the bit that I ride with at home, and he gets in trouble in if he tries to buck me off or be silly. When I got ready to go the circuit finals, I decided to stay with the new bit."

Walker and Latte, an 11-year-old gelding by Dash For Perks out of Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck, placed in all but the third round and pocketed $4,177 plus her ticket to the RNCFR.

"I got around them three times at the circuit finals," she stated. "This is the beginning of a new year for me. I said, 'This is the year of no more hit barrels.' I'm sure I'm going to hit some because that's part of running barrels, but if I can help him along the way to not hit anymore..."

Walker is up in Odessa, Texas, on Thursday and then heads to

Average Payoff Per Event

- 1) $67,269.23 2) $54,576.92 3) $43,153.85 4) $31,730.77
5) $22,846.15 6) $16,500.00 7) $11,423.08 8) $6,346.15

As if that wasn't a jump enough, each NFR Qualifier will get $10,000 just for qualifying to the NFR, above and beyond any monies won during the year or at the NFR, and it will count towards the world standings and their career earnings. With these kind of payouts, there is a good chance the WPRA record books will be rewritten in 2015. We could see a barrel racer break the $200,000 earnings mark at the NFR alone and maybe challenge Lindsay Sears mark for Highest Single-Year Earnings of $323,570 in 2008.

*Thanks to the PRCA Media for the payoff information.

Denver for Colorado Versus the World on Saturday and the Cinch Shootout Rodeo next Thursday followed by her opening runs at the National Western PRCA Rodeo.

Additional stallion information and pictures are available online. Bidding parties are responsible for obtaining information on the availability of shipped/frozen semen for stallions they bid on. Fees for shipped cooled/frozen semen, standard mare care and veterinarian services are extra. The farm location and stud fees are believed to be accurate although VGBRA will not assume any responsibility for errors. Reference stallion services will not be sold through the auction, but get will remain eligible for Stallion Incentive Program. Stallions may be added or deleted prior to the beginning of the auction in January, so check the website often for updates.

Leslie Willis & Brookstone Forever Sweep 30th Southern Rebel Futurity

By Tanya Randall

East coast futurity competitors have been ringing in the New Year at C.D. "Jack" Giacobone's Southern Rebel Futurity for the past 30 years. The event has long been on the go-to list for 2015 Champion Leslie Willis of Chester, S.C.

"It's a great futurity to go to," said Willis, who first started entering the futurity in the late 1990s. "It's early in the year and everyone's horses are still pretty green, but they give you so much arena time it really helps. They have exhibitions the day before and open arena time before each go. It's very accommodating that way."

Willis, who is sponsored by Cox Veterinary Labs and Classic Equine, swept both rounds en route to the average victory at the 30th Annual Southern Rebel Futurity aboard Brookstone Forever ("Brooke"), a 4-year-old daughter of Brookstone Bay out of Bit Happens, by Feature Mr Jess. She and her husband Jason purchased Brooke as a 2-year-old for $3,200 out of the 2013 Heritage Place Fall Mixed Sale.

"Jason and I have always seemed to have better luck buying cheaper horses off the track," said Willis. "I had always wanted a Brookstone Bay, but couldn't afford any of the geldings. I wasn't really excited about her bottom side, but if she was going to be a (Mr) Jess Perry, I would rather it be Feature Mr Jess because of the Truckle Feature."

Willis said she was drawn to Brookstone Bay because of his breeding. The sire of All American Futurity Winner and AQHA Racing Champion Running Brook Gal is by First Down Dash and out of a daughter of noted barrel horse sire and broodmare sire Coup De Kas (TB). Willis, herself, had a lot of success with the Coup De Kas line with horses like barrel futurity champion Time To Coup.

"She's also a gray," laughed Willis. "That seems to be the color around our place."

The biggest strike against Brooke, in Willis's opinion, was her ovaries.

"I'm not a mare person," she said. "I'm coming around to it. Last year I had Me Me And Me, but I raised her, and she doesn't act like a mare at all. Brooke is all mare. She's constantly kicking the back wall of her stall and has to wear kick chains. She's also a cribber. When we first got her home, I told Jason, 'We need to find out if she's going to make real soon, and if not we need to sell her and let her be someone else's problem!"

Luckily for Willis, Brooke proved an easy study on the barrels. "She'd have to be nice for me to put up with all that!" she laughed. "She really wants to work and seems to like her job."

The victory in the $5,000-added Futurity was worth $3,971. Willis also placed sixth in the average with the Furyofthewind gelding Championofthehouse for $1,759.

VOTE
Amberley Snyder
for the 2015 Fan Choice Exemption into RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN

It's one thing to ride with your LEGS...
 It's another to ride with your Heart.
 Amberley Snyder

When it was announced they were letting one person in based on the fan vote we immediately thought of Amberley. She is an inspiration to everyone that meets her. We have been humbled by her spirit and the gift she shares to others with her courage and resilience. Win, Lose or draw anyone that sees Amberley ride will be forever inspired. This would be a dream come true for Amberley and all it takes is for our rodeo family to rally around this amazing young woman and VOTE! We might not be able to change the world but we can certainly change one life at a time, and this is a life changing opportunity!
 Sincerely, Jeff & Andrea Busby, Busby Quarter Horses - Home of Blazin Jetolena

Please join us in our mission to help Amberley Snyder become the 2015 Fan Choice Exemption into the greatest one day rodeo EVER on the world's biggest stage - RFD-TV's The American at AT&T Stadium!
 We have followed Amberley's story from the beginning and she is one of the bravest and most determined young women in our industry.
 After a tragic car accident left the rodeo champion paralyzed from the waist down, all she could think about was getting back in the saddle. Eighteen months after the accident, she was horseback again. Her horses have become her legs and give her freedom away from the confines of her wheelchair. She now competes in barrel racing and breakaway roping - she ended up 9th this past year in the Rocky Mountain Region in the barrel racing standings, rodeoing for Utah State.

Cooper Conquers at SherryLynn Johnson Invitational

By Hope Sickler

Jill Cooper was in for a big change when she and a close friend decided that Cooper needed a bigger, more free-running horse. "My good friend Ally Hayes of Oxy-Gen and I were talking about how I needed to find me a stronger horse that fit my style better, which would be more of a free-running horse," explained Cooper. Hayes immediately remembered a 5-year-old gelding down in Florida that a good friend of hers had trained that she thought would be the perfect fit for Cooper.

"Caryn Henry started and trained Credit Ta Fame aka Saturday, and as soon as I saw him work and got the chance to ride him, I was smitten. I immediately fell in love with him and also with Caryn's training style. I ended up buying Saturday in October but unfortunately didn't get to run a lot this past fall due to an ankle injury."

With the ankle all healed up, Cooper and Saturday took the 2014 SherryLynn Johnson Invitational by storm.

"This was the first time I had been to the invitational and I absolutely loved every minute of it. I didn't really know what to expect going into it and I was just hoping for a smooth, clean run in the first round," Cooper said, noting that making clean runs have been quite an obstacle for her in the past few years.

Cooper told herself prior to the first run that if she rode Saturday correctly, she knew she would have a pretty good shot at making it back to the short-go.

"I made a few rider mistakes in the first round, but Saturday compensated for them and we ended up third in the long-go. I immediately sent the video to Caryn for some tips and she got me doing a couple things differently when working him. Along with that and another dose of Oxy-Focus and Oxy-Zen, we were confident he would be ready for the short round."

Saturday and Cooper came in wheels-a-blazin' in the short round and ended up second in the short round.

"He went in there and gave me a really good ride. I just hung on."

and he did it all."

With a second place finish in the short round and a third place finish in the first round, that moved Cooper into the lead in the average.

"I couldn't believe it! I was just hoping for two smooth runs and winning it was more than I could've even hoped for. This was my biggest win to date, so it'll be something I will remember forever."

explained Cooper.

Cooper and Saturday left with $8,300, a 5-Star Saddle Pad, a Jacket and a pair of Justin Boots for their win. In addition, Cooper would like to thank the Johnsons for hosting such a phenomenal event and she encourages more girls to attend the invitational next year!

Parker and Charm SHINE

Young barrel racer Dally Parker and her wicked mount, SR My Lucky Charm, swept the competition at this year's SherryLynn Johnson Invitational, in both the open and the youth!

"Dally and Charm had four amazing runs. They made two runs in the Invitational and then came back the next morning and made two more runs in the SherryLynn Johnson Youth," explained Misty Parker (Dally's mother).

In the long-go of the open, Dally and Charm ran a 16.2 placing 4th, which was good enough for a check of $1,200 and qualifying them back for the short go that night. In the short round the pair rounded the cloverleaf pattern in 16.0 but unfortunately caught a barrel.

The next morning was the SherryLynn Johnson Invitational Youth and Dally and Charm were ready to set the world on fire. "They were first out in the long-go and were a 15.9, placing 5th and winning $450. A few hours later was the short round and they went back in there and ran a 15.571, winning both the short-round and the average," explained Parker.

Parker's time of 15.571 was not only the fastest time of the entire event, but also a new arena record! Winning the short-round paid $224.00 and winning the average paid $1800.00. In addition, Parker and Charm left with a new saddle, a pair of Soft Ride Boots, Ferrini Boots, a gift certificate to PixelWorx Photography and a jacket. Misty Parker noted that the bond that Dally and Charm share is one-in-a-million.

"Charm and Dally have such a great relationship and bond, it is truly amazing. Charm is so special because she always gives 110% no matter what. With each run at the SJI, she came back stronger and faster."

The Parkers will certainly be making the trek back to the SherryLynn Johnson Invitational next year and encourages other youth riders to make the same trip, you won't be disappointed!

In addition, they would like to thank Dally's sponsors- Outlaw Equine, Bar H Equine, Oxy-Gen, Dusty Rocker Boots, Raisin Cain Bits, Spurs, and Jewelry and Blitz Energy Services.

LISA NICHOLAS

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I get so excited when the New Year rolls around! For me, it's new beginnings, new goals, new adventures.

At The Barn last week, God spoke a word to us. It is:

2015 – Better this year than last. Be white hot on fire. God first!

I've had lots of time to think about that and I am ready for 'better than last'. As the days have gone by and I have endeavored to hear His voice more clearly, He has impressed upon me a word picture that I want to share.

Read John 10:10. We have an enemy, the devil. God showed me that our enemy is working 24/7 to bring bad things to pass in all our lives. He brings his A game. No messing around. No half hearted effort. Full on attack. Then God showed me that some Christians give their walk with God 'bench warmer' effort. We forget to read our Bible. We don't go to church because: we are tired, it's too cold, so and so is there, kids have homework (they have homework when time is taken to get them to a sport practice), I have a headache. Just a ho hum attitude about God and being His army. But let something bad happen and guess who's on speed dial.....someone who they know spends time with God.

It shouldn't be that way. We should have OUR A game on. Full on attack against the devil. I know that most of us that barrel race wouldn't presume to ride our horse once a week and expect them to perform to their utmost potential. We would get our butt kicked! How much more should we put effort into hearing and obeying God and His Word, to be fierce in our dedication to Him.

That's my prayer for all of us for 2015. God first. The devil defeated. God bless you richly!
