Anzick is Scooten Ta Victory

By Hope Sickler

When the Livingston, Montana cowgirl and former NFR qualifier, Shelly Anzick loaded up her main mount for this year in the trailer and headed south, she knew she had something special riding in her trailer and it didn't take long for her to share that news with the rest of the pro rodeo world. Now, after winning the prestigious Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo, she and her big brown gelding can add another win to their impressive resume.

Anzick and 9-year-old Scooten Ta Fame (Dash Ta Fame x The Buzz Machine, by Kipadeucy), also known as Scooter, who is owned by Tommy and Shirley Martin, Oregon, and Dr. Carl Conroy, Washington, have started 2014 off with a bang. After winning the Montana Circuit Finals back in January and being crowned the Ram Montana Circuit Champion along with Montana Circuit Horse of the Year, Anzick and Scooter made their way south to the Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show held January 24-February 8 in Fort Worth, Texas.

"Our first run at Fort Worth was not very good. He wasn't focused and I didn't get a good start going to the first barrel. I think he was a bit nervous running into that big coliseum, but we still made the progressive round so we had a chance to come back and redeem ourselves," said Anzick.

Anzick finished in the top 40 in the first round with a time of 14.93 and she and Scooter were coming back to the second round with a new game plan and a positive attitude.

"Our run in the progressive round was much better. He was absolutely flawless and set the arena on fire. I was tickled with him!" Anzick and Scooter stopped the clock in 16.41 seconds, the fastest time of the rodeo thus far. With a good run under their belt, she and Scooter had to wait out a few more performances to see if their time of 16.41 would hold and if they would come back to the short round.

"I knew we had a great run but I wasn't sure if it would hold or not. It was a bit nerve-wracking but no matter what happened, I was still so proud of him."

Anzick, who had only been running Scooter for a year, spent 2013 seasoning the former stallion before deciding they were ready to go play with the wolves.

After the final run of the progressive round was ran, Anzick heard the great news. Not only did she and Scooter make the short round, but their time of 16.41 won the second round, good enough for a $4,667 paycheck. Shelly Morgan came in a close second with a time of 16.53 for $4,001 and Danyelle Bassett, who was leading the average going into the short round, finished third in round 2 with a time of 16.56, good enough for $3,334.

With the short round running slowest to fastest and a hand rake by the committee following each barrel racer, the top 12 girls had only 4 tenths of a second separating them.

Anzick and Scooter blazed through the Will Rogers Memorial

Melby Wins $5,000 Jerry Ann Taylor Best Dressed Award

by Johna Cravens for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo
Jane Melby of Burneyville, Okla., won the $5,000 Jerry Ann Taylor Best Dressed Award at the final championship round at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo on Saturday, February 8.

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association and the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame present the award. Jerry Ann Taylor, a 1986 honoree of the hall, was a flamboyant trick rider and roper who was known for her sense of style.

Melby, who also qualified for Fort Worth's championship round last year, said she realized then that the judges for the award were looking for something that catches the audience's eye.

The National Finals Rodeo (NFR) barrel racer partnered with last year's winner of the Jerry Ann Taylor award, Kendra Dickson, for her winning look.

"When I left (after my second round run), I was second in the average and Kendra was tenth. I saw her and said 'if you don't make it back (to the championship round), would you be willing to dress me and we'll split the award if I win.'"

Dickson was excited about the opportunity, especially since she donates ten percent of all her winnings to the fight against childhood cancer.

Melby was competing at the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo and told Dickson, "You're going to have to do all the work."

Dickson asked Melby for a pair of her pants and went to work. On Saturday, the two met at the Fort Worth rodeo. Melby's husband Ryan got her horse ready and she put on her new wardrobe. Melby's, whose quiet personality is usually reflected in her wardrobe, surprised many who have known her for years by wearing colorful magenta.

"What I learned is that it was amazing how I turned everybody's head just walking from my trailer to the arena," Melby said, "and not in a bad way, when I walked through the parking lot they noticed me. It put smiles on people's faces."

"Even my husband was excited," she said, "he said 'it made your cheeks rosy. It made you shine.'"

Dickson's wardrobe assistance extended to Melby's tack and included a saddle cloth, leg wraps, breast collar and headstall accents. Although Melby finished just out of the money in all three rounds at the World's Original Indoor Rodeo, she won $2,000 in the average.

Melby plans to sell her seasoned horses within the next few weeks and spend the summer close to home working with young horses. "My kids are 17 and 18 and I want to stay home for this last summer with them," she said.

Search for Best Buds Horse Tales for Calgary

In two shakes of a tail, Budweiser's touching Puppy Love Superbowl 2014 advertisement went viral, as more than 47 million folks just can't get enough of the adorable puppy and Clydesdale horse friends who are determined to stick together.

The ad resonated with the Calgary Stampede and its community of horse-lovers. It's not uncommon to see horses visiting the Stampede with unlikely four-legged buddies in tow. There's a thoroughbred chuckwagon horse that performs best when travelling with a miniature pony pal. Stampede audiences may have glimpsed a Dalmatian dog who rides sidesaddle with the team of eight massive Clydesdale horses that pull the stagecoach at the grandstand each evening.

The Stampede is collecting and sharing more of these unusual horse buddy stories. Anyone with a horse-related Best Buds story is invited to email it to the Stampede. We will share these heart-warming stories and pictures on a new Best Buds page at the My.Calgarystampede website and on our social media sites throughout 2014, the Year of the Horse. My.CalgaryStampede website is a repository of community stories launched during Stampede's 100-year anniversary year in 2012.

Coliseum, posting a time of 16.53, but Anzick was left to wait it out in the back holding pen while the rest of the cowgirls ran.

"I knew we had a good run but I couldn't hear my time. The coliseum was so loud and everyone was whooping and hollering. I knew Shelley (Morgan) had a really good run and last to go was Danyelle," explained Anzick.

Bassett had a beautiful run going until a slip at the third barrel cost her the win. She posted a time of 17.11, which took her out of the contention for the average.

With the unfortunate slip, the title went to Anzick, making it two years in a row for a lefty.

"I was in shock! It felt like I was in a dream. Scooter worked absolutely phenomenal in the short round and he was spot on. There was no picking that run apart whatsoever. He was flawless."

Anzick's total time on three of 49.87 edged Morgan's total time on three of 49.88, for the championship title and a paycheck of $7,001, boosting her winter run to $15,126.

"Scooter is a phenomenal athlete. I am very blessed and lucky to get the chance to ride such an amazing horse. He definitely has what it takes and I am just going to be along for the ride and if he wants to go to the NFR, then by golly we will go to the NFR. Right now we have the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo to think about, which I am very excited for and I think he will do great in that arena," Anzick exclaimed.

In addition to winning Fort Worth, Anzick and Scooter are currently winning the Dixie National Rodeo held in Jackson, MS with only two days left and have made the progressive round at San Angelo, Texas, Monday morning.

Cline Clenches Championship Title

by Hope Sickler

Andrea Cline and her great horse Stitches Streaknfame, a 6-year-old gelding by Firewater Ta Fame, and out of a Streakin Six mare, were crowned the champion barrel racer at Rapid City's Wrangler Champions Challenge held in conjunction with the Black Hills Stock Show and Rodeo. Wranglers Champion Challenge, presented by Justin Boots, was held February 4th at the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center in the Barnett Arena, and was an event that hosted the best in the business all hoping to get a chunk of the $108,000 added prize money. This was the first of the Wrangler Champions Challenge but definitely not the last.

Cline and Moses, as she affectionately calls her winning gelding, turned in a time of 12.41 to secure the win and pocket a nice paycheck of $5,440. The field was tough, as 4 former NFR qualifiers finished up 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th, respectively. Trula Churchill ran a time of 12.46, good enough for a second place check of $4,160, while Britany Diaz was third with a 12.55 for $3,040, fourth was fan favorite Fallon Taylor with a 12.81 for $2,080 and rounding out the top 5 was Lisa Lockhart with a time of a 12.82 for $1,280.

"I was very excited to be given the opportunity to run at the Champions Challenge and the atmosphere and crowd in the building was unreal. It was a lot of fun and my horse worked awesome," explained Cline.

Cline and Moses are known more in the futurity arena than in the rodeo arena but that is slowly changing as Moses gets more accustomed to the rodeo scene.

he was going to handle the loud noise and the crowd in that arena that is so small but he certainly surprised me in a good way. While we were waiting to run, we had to sit back in the holding pen and I was nervous that he was going to be a ball of nerves. In true Moses fashion, he proved me wrong and stood their great and went in the arena and ran great. I was very pleased with him.”

Cline bought Moses as a weanling and has done all the work herself and says she’s known for a while that she has a one in a million horse.

“He is definitely special. He truly loves his job and that is what makes it so much fun. He loves traveling and eats and drink great on the road too, especially for still being a ‘colt’. I am very excited

Miller Keeps it in the Family at the Black Hills Stock Show

By Hope Sickler

When Jessica Miller's, Panguitch, Utah, sister Josie Busk, won the Black Hills Stock Show and Rodeo held in Rapid City, SD, in 2005, she didn't know that she would be bringing the championship home to the family yet again in 2014.

Miller and her horse, MTH Fleet Street, who she affectionately calls Zorro, ran the cloverleaf pattern in 12.65, clenching the victory in Rapid City, for a paycheck of $4,342.

"I was very pleased with my run," said Miller of the 7-year-old gelding that she has owned since he was 2. "My whole game plan was to take it slow and be smooth, since that pattern is so small. I was never expecting to come out of slack leading it, nor did I think we would win it. I was very happy with him."

Before entering the Stock Show, Miller took the runs that her sister, Josie, had recorded when running at Rapid City, and studied them to get a game plan of her run. She also entered slack because in past years, the committee has allowed the barrel racers to warm up in the arena before slack started. Since Rapid City is typically very cold in February and the coliseum has virtually nowhere to warm up, Miller thought this was a great game plan.

While their time in the arena went smooth, the drive to Rapid City could've gone a bit smoother.

"We had a lot of truck problems going to Rapid City and the weather on the drive there was certainly not cooperating, getting down to negative 20. We were just happy we were able to make it. I talked my mom into coming with me and after the drive we had getting to Rapid, I was sure glad that Zorro and I were able to put together a nice run to redeem the drive there," laughed Miller.

Miller and Zorro were able to edge out another Wilderness circuit team, the super star team of Sammi Bessert and her phenomenal gelding Tommy, in addition to multiple NFR qualifier Lisa Lockhart and her outstanding gelding Louie.

"This year has definitely started out well. Last year we barely missed making circuit finals which was ok since last year was the first year that I started hauling him. This will be our second year and we are going to see where it takes us."

Miller has high hopes for hers and Zorro's future, hoping to qualify for the Wilderness Circuit Finals on him this year, along with a hopeful trip to the NFR in December.

"I have 4 children, 2 little boys, a 13-year-old and a 14-year old and they are set on their mama making the NFR. It is a family goal and we are going to try and make it happen. I am hoping to go out to California to Red Bluff and some of those bigger ones and do well there so we don't have to haul all year. That would be fantastic but we will see what happens along the way. I am just very grateful and fortunate that I am able to do what I love, and follow my dreams with my family."

2014 BHSS Horse Sale Results

2014 Black Hills Stock Show Exiss/Sooner Horse Sale
January 31 & February 1, 2014, Rapid City, South Dakota
By Larry Larson for the Black Hills Stock Show

Rapid City, SD – Records are meant to be broken and once again the Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo, now in its 56th year, has proven it can be done. The 2014 edition of the Exiss/Sooner Horse Sale attracted buyers and sellers from across the Nation to the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center here in Rapid City. The sale was presented during the opening weekend of the BHSS on Friday, January 31 and Saturday, February 1.

Following a daily preview each morning at the James Kjerstad Event Center at the Central States Fairgrounds, the consignors converged on Rushmore Hall at the Civic Center in downtown Rapid City. The 171 select consignments were carefully screened and sold through the Crystalyx BioBarrel Sale Ring. Standing room only crowds again filled the facility to capacity and the active bidding also involved Internet bidding provided by Alan & Cindy Taylor of www.horseauctions.com. They also provided nonstop live webcast coverage for the horse and rodeo events at the Event Center for the entire duration of the Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo.

Auctioneer Lynn Weishaar, Reva, SD, and Announcer John E. Johnson from Piedmont, SD rolled through the rapid paced sale each afternoon with record books tallying 565 buyers registered from 16 states. Corporate sponsorship for 2014 included Exiss/Sooner; Ravelette Publishing, Inc.; Cattle Business Weekly; Scoggins Veterinary; and Larry Larson Photography, Inc.

Setting a new BHSS sale record was Shiners Oakie Val - a proven producer of NRCHA and 1D barrel money earners consigned by Justin & Leslie Hill from Peyton, Colorado. Leaving the ring on a bid of $35,000, the 1999 Sorrel Mare was sired by Leading Performance Sire Shining Spark and out of Smokum Sam, a granddaughter of Doc's Oak. Safe in foal to NCHA Open Finals Champion WR This Cats Smart, she has joined the broodmare band of Mark & Deb Pieper. Located Southeast of Hay Springs, NE, the ranch stands Shiner Smart Cat, a son of WR This Cats Smart out of the great producing daughter of Shining Spark named Miss Shiner Dear. Their band of mares includes the bloodlines of Doc O Dynamite, Playgun, Tiger Handy and Sixes Pick among others.

Also consigned on the Saturday sale was One Time Big Boy, sired by 2004 NCHA Open Futurity Finalist and 2012 NRCHA #1 Leading Sire One Time Pepto by Peptoboonsmal. The Garrett Ranch from Pierre, South Dakota had the final bid of $20,000 on the 2008 Red Roan Gelding out of an own daughter of Doc O'Lena. Consignor was JD Gerard from Kennebec, South Dakota.

Complimenting the 2014 BHSS Horse Sale was the presentation of 20 of the regions leading stallions on Stallion Row. The stallion owners had the opportunity to showcase their stallions to the public, parade them prior to the sale each day and book 2014 breedings during the event.

Prior to the first horse entering the ring on the Saturday sale, a fundraiser was held with 100% of the proceeds benefiting the Rancher Relief Fund. The fund was initiated following the devastating early October blizzard known as 'Atlas' that caused enormous losses in the cattle and horse industries throughout this region. Haythorn Land & Cattle Company, Arthur, NE, donated their sale consignment adding over $6,000 to the fund. Wyoming artist and rancher Allyson Shoun offered an original framed and matted painting and Leo & Sam McDonnell from McDonnell Angus, Columbus, MT, offered a metal 'child-proof' hand crafted children's corral set. Their generous donations were greatly appreciated.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

God is good and He's good all the time! He cares for the smallest detail of your life so don't hesitate to talk to Him about your troubles, your concerns and hopes and dreams.

God already knows everything about you anyway so don't try to hide anything from Him because you can't. Place yourself in God's hands and claim Jesus as your Lord and Savior and let Him work everything out in ways you haven't even thought of.

Jeremiah 29:11 tells us that God has good thoughts about us for our hope and our future. Romans 8:28 tells us that all things work for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

Some will say that God won't help them because they have no special talents and they are just ordinary people. Well, the good news is God loves the ordinary person just as much as He does the great preacher or singer! God is no respecter of person. (See acts 10:34). A good example is Andrew, one of the disciples of Jesus. He was just an average follower of Christ who was willing to work for the kingdom of God and simply be know as Andrew, the brother of Peter.

There is nothing wrong with being average. The backbone of society and the Christian Church is made up of average people. Abraham Lincoln once said, "God must love the common people, He made so many of us."

So praise God and be happy! God is in control and He has your back! In the words of Corrie Ten Boom, "Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God!"

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
