Hailey Lockwood & DM Sissy Hayday Win Second Straight Fort Worth Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

A new venue and format didn't change the outcome at the 2020 Southwestern Exposition & Livestock Show, better known as the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo. Two-time and defending WPRA World Champions Hailey Lockwood and DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") took home their second straight barrel racing championship from the historic Texas winter rodeo, held January 24 through February 8.

Held in the newly constructed Dickies Arena, the Fort Worth Rodeo opted for a bracket-bracket style event with 56 entries split between seven two-round pools. The top two on money won advanced directly to one of two semifinals, while the third richest competitor went to the Wild Card Round. The fastest two competitors joined the two semifinals from which the top four from each advanced to the finals. All runs were clean slate and the championship was determined by the fastest run of the finals.

Lockwood's run to a $24,080 Fort Worth Championship was actually set up by her horse management at the National Western in Denver, where she split the runs between Sis and Thunder Stones ("TJ").

"I took both of them to Denver, knowing that'd I probably be going back and forth," she explained. "You got two guaranteed (runs in the first and second round), but the next two were progressive, so you didn't know if you were going to make three

I think I gave her three days off from the day that we left the Finals. After that I went back to ponying her. She gets fresh really easily. I ponied her for about two weeks and went back to riding her about a week and half before just to get her air back up. I wanted to stay in shape, but just rest from making runs. She didn't get on a trailer until Denver. We put shoes back on her five days before my first run at Denver."

runs or four. I just knew I was prepared to run him at some point."

Sis, making her first run back since the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, placed in the first round at Denver, earning $1,750.

"I thought I'm first out on my first run in the morning, calm performance," Lockwood said. "I'll run her for her first run back after the finals on top of the ground. Let her have one good run. She kind of skidded around a little on the ground but clocked really good and placed in the round."

With the two run average not paying anything, Lockwood knew she just needed a solid run to make it back to the Denver Semifinals, so she opted to run TJ since she was on the bottom of the ground and would have a tough time placing in a very tight second round from that position.

She got back on Sis for the Semifinals after watching how the ground held during the prior two performances. They finished second in the Semifinal, earning $2,552. However, once learning of her draw position for the Finals—12th out of 12—she opted to run TJ and give Sis a break.

"I knew I had bigger fish to fry than to win the Denver finals," she said, knowing she had Fort Worth and San Antonio—two rodeos she won in 2019—right around the corner. "It was one of those perspective things. You don't run your good one too much when it's January. You can panic in September and see if you need to make those calls."

TJ, as it turns out, was the unsung hero of the Fort Worth win because of him, Sis was able to be fresh and rested.

"The unsung heroes are the backup horses," she said. "He's

Smith wins second place plus $5,000 Jerry Ann Taylor Award at Fort Worth

by Johna Cravens; for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

For the second consecutive year barrel racer Jimmie Smith of McDade, Texas, finished second in the championship finals at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR).

Once again Smith finished second, behind repeat champion Hailey Kinsel Lockwood on Saturday, Feb. 8. Smith earned $12,000 in the new FWSSR ProRodeo Tournament format for her runner-up finish, then found out she would leave the 124th FWSSR with a $5,000 bonus.

The annual Jerry Ann Taylor Best-Dressed Cowgirl Award is a $5,000 cash award given to a barrel racer during the Championship Finals at Fort Worth. The award is also given to a barrel racer at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR). Taylor, a 1986 National Cowgirl Hall of Fame honoree, was a flamboyant trick rider and roper who was known for her sense of style.

Smith wore turquoise and pink, with plenty of shimmer for her run. Her outfit was made by Natasha Roberts, who works with Smith's mom, and Roberts' mother.

"There's a lot of well-dressed women who have won this award before me," Smith said, adding that the Fort Worth rodeo is special to her.

"It's one of my favorites. Last year it was my first win at a big winter rodeo," she said. "I love Fort Worth, San Antonio and San Angelo."

The Texas A & M graduate was the 2018 Women's Professional Rodeo Association Rookie of the Year. Last year she finished 19th after her palomino mare Lena on the Rocks was injured at the Calgary Stampede.

This year she was ranked third before her Fort Worth earnings were tabulated and is aiming for her first NFR. The bonus money will help keep her on the road and chasing that dream.

Pam Minick of Fort Worth, a National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame board member and honoree and former WPRA vice president, said the award is to encourage women in professional rodeo to carry on the tradition of wearing colorful western attire in the rodeo arena. Barrel racing has a long history at the FWSSR. The Fort Worth rodeo began holding an invitational ranch girls barrel race in 1955, not long after barrel racing competition started.

never going to win the big checks and get all the credit, but he does make it possible for her to do all of that.”

Having TJ to handle questionable ground conditions and pick up extra runs from time to time helps Sis staying firing.

“She just came off the NFR and the ground was so bad and she tried so hard. We’ve made some pretty good runs with minimal ground trouble (in Denver), but Mom and I were both like you don’t create a bad scenario in the minds if you can avoid it. I wanted her to be confident and throwing down runs.”

The ground in Dickies gave Sis a bit of the “wee” factor on her first run, a 16.58, that placed second in the first round of their bracket.

“When I went to Fort Worth, she fired harder in that first run than I’ve felt in forever because she felt the dirt,” said Lockwood, adding with a chuckle, “She floored it to the first barrel...all the way to fence, but she had fun! I don’t get to feel that very often because we have to run on such interesting dirt most of the time.”

They got the wee-factor under control to win their second round with a 16.37 and advance to the Semifinals. They were a 16.59 to just make the top four cut in their semifinals after slipping on the first barrel.

“I was first out in the semifinals and the finals, which usually doesn’t make any difference,” she said. “Friday night it felt a little firm, probably from just packing over time. It wasn’t dangerous but mine did slip a little when she tried to come back on the first barrel.”

She was first out again in the finals, where Sis posted the fastest time of the rodeo, a 16.30 to win the championship.

“My times were all pretty comparable,” chuckled Lockwood. “I’m just glad she saved the fast one for the last one.”

The Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer makes the first of her three bracket runs at San Antonio on Thursday, but the rest of her February is pretty relaxed with nothing but the American before Rodeo Houston in March.

She is currently No. 1 in the WPRA World Standings with $33,691.

Bobbi Grann & CD Trix Fly In For A Rodeo Rapid City Win

By Tanya Randall

"That was probably my most memorable win yet—the most meaningful," said barrel horse trainer and professional barrel racer Bobbi Grann of Sheyenne, North Dakota, of her $4,266 victory at the $10,000-added Rodeo Rapid City, held February 1-8 in South Dakota.

Grann, who has spent the winter down in Texas training horses, was quick to credit to her sister Lacey, who kept her horse CD Trix ("Delfin") going through the North Dakota winter back home.

"All the credit goes to my sister," she said. "Everyone in my corner knows that. It was a really fun experience. I came to Texas for the winter and he stayed home. My sister started riding him a couple of months ago and she said he felt really good. I decided to enter Rapid City. Since it was 20-hour drive, I wanted to just fly. My sister Lacey agreed to take him down there."

Lacey had taken Delfin to a couple of jackpots to get him ready for Rapid City.

"She sent me her videos from a couple of weeks ago and I thought he looked great," said Grann. "I know him pretty well. It had been a long time since I rode him but I thought he looked fantastic. I thought, 'Gosh, we might even have a chance!'"

Grann flew in on Friday morning and the sisters quickly went to looking for a place for Grann to ride the gelding she hadn't sat on in a year-and-a-half.

"We went to the fairgrounds but they were already setting up for a concert," she explained. "So, we went to the outdoor arena there and set the pop-up barrels on top of the snow. I trotted around and that was the best I could do."

That night they turned in a 12.38 to win the rodeo by nearly a tenth. Having won the rodeo two years ago on DMO Dashin Honey, Grann said they shrunk the pattern a little more.

"That rodeo has been really good to me," said Grann, adding that committee did an excellent job on the ground and it was very much appreciated. "I won it two years ago with a 12.7 and this year I won it with a 12.3. They pulled the barrels off the fences and shortened the score a little bit is what I was told. It's very small, but it doesn't feel really squished."

She added that it was Delfin's first major short-run win.

"This is my first big win on him in a small setting like that," she said of the diminutive 12-year-old gelding. "He actually prefers big outdoor pens."

Grann purchased the gelding as a broke 4-year-old. He was bred by Jesse and Faith Fahnestock and is by the Sun Frost, Royal Quick Dash stallion PC Sun Dasher out of Trixie Lena Scott, by CD O Cody. Grann's father put some time on Delfin before she started on the pattern when he was 5.

He helped her qualify for at least three of her six Badland Circuit Finals Rodeo appearances.

"I've had a lot of great pro rodeo wins on him," she said. "He's a really great horse."

She has his full brother with her in Texas getting seasoned. While she thought about bringing Delfin down for the Texas rodeos, she opted to wait for the summer Badlands Circuit to get underway.

"I'm not rodeoing," she said. "I'm just going to jackpots. I've got colts and some to sell. I didn't plan to rodeo down here; it's hard to pass up Rapid City. It's such a great circuit rodeo.

"Flying in like that and not riding him for that long, it was such a long shot. It was a very memorable win. My sister and I were both crying when it was over; we just couldn't believe it. It was fun."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This week, I'd like to encourage you to not limit God in your life. This might seem like a silly statement but I believe that in many ways, we all limit Him.

If you have ever wondered just how you were going to pay that bill, or receive healing from the most recent attack on your body, then you are limiting Him.

God PROMISED us that He would take care of it all. Eph. 3:20 says, "Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think..." ABOVE ALL WE CAN ASK OR THINK. That is huge!

And where did WE set the bar? We can believe we'll get over the flu, but just not sure about heart failure. Our paycheck will cover the normal expenses, but there's not enough for a vacation.

We need to STOP making His promises SMALL enough for us to wrap OUR head around and throw open the door to the flood of Blessings He wants to give us!

OVER AND ABOVE ALL WE CAN ASK OR THINK! Let's chew on that this week. Better yet, let's receive the Blessing!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
