Duke Goes Insane For Fame in LG Pro Classic Slot Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Laticia Duke became the first repeat winner of the $220,000 LG Pro Classic Slot Futurity with a $100,000 victory aboard Insane For Fame ("J Lo"), owned by John and Kristi Schiller of Schiller Ranch in Millican, Texas.

The LG Pro Classic, held at the Coughatta Casino in Kinder, La., Feb. 9-12, is one of the richest barrel races in the country. The Slot Futurity features 50 head competing for a total purse of $220,000. All 50 compete in a $20,000 time trial with the fastest 25 qualify-taking in her guilty pleasure of a quiet evening at the fishing hole at the time of this interview. "So many people get caught up in trying to go as fast. They ride different than they normally would and they make mistakes."

Lucky for Duke, going fast isn't something that she has to worry about with J Lo.

"You know that saying, 'No substitute for speed?'" said Duke, who posted a 17.0 with the mare on a WPR Standard Pattern while in Arizona. "That's her. She can run so fast, I don't have to ing for the $170,000 Championship Round and the remaining 25 competing in the $20,000 Consolation.

BFA Juvenile Champion Miss JB 0842, ridden by Kassie Mowry for Joe and Dee Lynn Braman of JB Quarter Horses in Refugio, Texas, turned in a 14.030, the fastest time of the event to win the $5,000 first-place check in the Slot Futurity Time Trails. Duke and J Lo posted, a 14.585, the 12th fastest qualifying time.

Running 14th out in the Championship Round, Duke and J Lo posted a 14.310 for the victory. They edged the 14.323 turned in by Pac West 4-Year-Old Slot Futurity Champion Epic Leader, owned by Kassie Mowry and Karma Loftin and ridden by Mowry.

"I've always been really good about trying to make the best run my horse can make and leaving it at that," said Duke, who was par-ask her to be fast. I just have to keep her framed up. I don't think I kick her until I get around the third barrel. I just try to be as quiet as I can with her."

The Schiller's purchased the daughter of all time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Insanely Jealous, by Le Tusk, sight unseen off of the internet. J Lo is their first futurity horse.

Duke said J Lo was off the track and had about 30 days riding when she got her in May. She noted that J Lo isn't a typical Fame mare. They tend to have a reputation for being a little on the feisty side.

"She's really been pretty easy," she said. "She's pretty quiet for a Fame mare. She's got a really good work ethic. She shows up for

Eagleberger Injured in Jackson

Jessi Eagleberger was injured on Saturday, February 11 in an accident in Jackson, MS. The accident happened while Eagleberger was taking her horses out of their stalls to let them roll. A team of horses pulling a wagon came by on their way to the parade and Eagleberger's horse was startled and knocked her down.

Eagleberger sustained a slight concussion and after an MRI the next morning found out she also strained some ligaments in her neck. She has been fitted with a neck brace and is supposed to rest for two weeks. However, when you make your living rodeoing there is no rest so, she competed at San Angelo on Monday and will compete at San Antonio starting Sunday. Although she is sore, she is doing well and expects to be back to a 100% very soon.

Wrangler NFR Ranks No. 1 in the World

The Wrangler National Finals Rodeo ranks No. 1 in the world as the highest-grossing ticketed event for venues with seating capacity of 15,000-30,000 in the just released Venues Today Year-End Report.

Venues Today, a trade publication for sports and entertainment facilities, ranks venues internationally, by total gross revenue from October to October. The rankings are based only on special, one-time or multiple-performance ticketed events.

The Wrangler NFR has sold out every performance of its 10-day run each December for nearly a quarter of a century.

The Thomas & Mack Center, where the Wrangler NFR has been held annually since 1985, placed fourth overall on the Venues Today list of highest-grossing venues of its size in large part because of the "Super Bowl of Rodeo" being held there.

"We operate the most unique set of facilities in the United States," said Gerry Bomotti, Senior Vice President for Finance and Business at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas (UNLV). "There is no other example I know of where facilities on a university campus host the depth and breadth of events we do, while still giving a great experience for all the (UNLV) Rebel fans." --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com work every day. She wants to go down the alley. She wants to run barrels."

The mare's only hole, said Duke, is she's extremely confident in herself.

"She's a little arrogant," she said. "She thinks she can turn as hard as she can run, so she's had some trouble with the ground. It won't hold her at the speed she wants to turn.

"The ground was the best it's ever been since I've been since I've been going to Kinder, and it held her."

Making the victory extra special was the entire Schiller Ranch was on hand to see J Lo's victory.

"It was the first futurity that John had ever seen," said Duke. "It couldn't have been any more fun."

As an added bonus, Duke's son, Bravid, passed his board exams at Culver Military Academy, where he's a Jud Little Scholarship recipient, that same day.

Grey Gelding, 4 Years Old, 15.3 hands, 1175 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: We bought Hip E at the mare's side as a weaner. We raised him, trained him and he has been at our place his whole life. Hip E has won close to $19k so far in the 4 events he has been too. We have had several of his full siblings that I started and sold. His full brother is our stud Phame, who I trained and rode throughout his career as well, he won over $60k. Another full brother (gelding) to them is Silver Spur, we bought him and trained him after he had run on the track. We sold him in March of his futurity year (as a 5 year old) and he went on to have lifetime earnings of $50k+. Another full brother (gelding), Running Red Lites, Angie Meadors ran and won the Champion of Champions Juvenile Futurity and then BFA Juvenile Futurity the week after, he earned over $100k during his career. Angie bought him from me in the summer of his 3 year old year. We also had a full sister I started, Dorothy, she placed in the BFA Juvenile Futurity and then I sold her to Dale Rankin and Fernando Costa (in Brazil), she had won enough in her career to be eligible for export. They have all been similar but they have all definitely been individuals as well. Hip E is probably the most laid back out of the group. He will drink beer out of can or lap it up out of your hand. He holds his tongue out and wants you to rub it. Hip E just kind of fits him, he is just a character and a really personable horse. He is going to be hard to part with but

DO YOU LOOK FOR ANYTHING SPECIFIC WHEN BUYING AND STARTING HORSES TO SEEL? I try to train user friendly horses. So, I try to have horses that are easy to train and get along with. I love a horse that looks like he isn't doing it but he is, you just basically can just catch a ride on them and still win. Really, I like simplicity.

WHAT IS THE KEY TO TRAINING HORSES TO FIT ALL LEVELS OF RIDERS? Keep it simple and keep the horse loving what he does.

WHAT IS YOUR PLAN WHEN YOU START AND SELL PROSPECTS AND FUTURITY HORSES? Ideally, I like to sell the horses in the spring of their 3 year old year somewhere around March, April, or May, but if I get too many I will sell some in the summer of their 2 year old year. I don't have a saddler or helper so I have to keep my numbers down. I feel they get more trust in me if I am the one who does everything with them. I know other people have helpers and do very well but this is just the way I like to do it. I try to keep my numbers to 10 or less that I am riding. I might have 14-15 between 2-3s but I try to only ride about 8 per day. This last year I had Loren Odell put 15-20 rides on all the 2 year olds here at our place. They were all just halter broke when he got here. It works pretty well because he starts them right her so the horses aren't stressed at all and get RODEO NOTES: In this new age of breeding where frozen semen and embryo transfers are becoming more common, many of the horses on the rodeo trail are pulling double duty. Here are just a few examples.

Firewaterontherocks, a stallion owned by Rance & Robyn Herring, won Belton over the weekend and is currently winning Jackson, MS as of press time. Meanwhile, this stud's first crop of colts (from 2008) were running and winning money at the LG Pro Classic on the same weekend. Actually 3 of his colts, Rock On Ta Fame, LK Watch Me Rock, and Flame Of Fame were all in the top 13 in the BFA Futurity Average there. Firewaterontherocks (Fire Water Flit-Rock N Roll Rona, Ronas Ryon) will be one of several horse pulling double duty through the breeding season.

Benette Little and her current mount JL Dash Ta Heaven (Dash Ta Fame-Dynas Plain Special, Special Feelins), a stud owned by Jud Little, are also pulling double duty. Little won the first round at San Angelo, is currently sitting second as of press time at Jackson, MS and is sitting #2 in the World standings. JL Dash Ta Heaven's oldest foals are yearlings and he will continue to compete at pro rodeos this spring as well as breed his book of mares.

On the female side of the equation, Nikki Steffes, Ft Worth Champion, made the semifinals at San Antonio and is currently #4 in the World, is competing on the mare Dash Ta Vanila owned by Alan Woodbury. Dash Ta Vanila (Dash Ta Fame-SX Frenchmans Vanila, Frenchmans Guy) through the miracle of embryo transfer has already produced a 3 year-old, two 2-year-olds, and has two foals on the way for 2012. She will be embryo transferred as the rodeo schedule allows this spring. Woodbury hopes to breed her to PYC Paint Your Wagon. However, for Dash Ta Vanila, this year's rodeo schedule is the most important so the embryo transfer will be done if time allows.

These are just a few example of the many horses on the rodeo trail pulling double duty.

Headin' For Home

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever had a bad day when it seems you can't do anything right? Most of us have from time to time. You lose or misplace things. You forget important things. You can't seem to accomplish anything and, then to top it all off, you cut your hand by accident and that requires a bulky bandage!

It's important how you react to one of those days. Don't go saying a lot of negative things because what you say is what you get! Don't say, "I never do anything right," or "If it weren't for bad luck, I'd have no luck at all."

Those are the times when you need to give God a "sacrifice of praises". Thank Him for all the good things in your life. You don't thank Him for all the unpleasant things happening around you, but you thank Him that He's seeing you through them and that He has a good plan for your life. If you submit yourself to God and resist the devil, he has to flee and stop bothering you (James 4:7)

The Bible tells us how great men "encouraged themselves in the Lord". We need to do that. "Thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ..." And keep in mind that all things are possible with God. He can turn your situation around in the blink of an eye and turn what satan intended for evil into something good. Get up in the morning and say, "This is going to be a good day! I'm blessed to be a blessing and I have the favor of God and man!"

Expect good things to happen to you and pray, pray, pray, Meditate on Mark 11:24 where Jesus said "...whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them and you will have them." Now that's in red letters in the Bible and the words of Jesus in red letter trumps everything in the world! You're a winner!
