$38,056 Weekend For DaCota Monk & TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan at Kinder Cup Futurity

DaCota Monk and TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan, owned by Billy and Suzonne Franks, picked up $38,056 at the Kinder Cup Futurity, held February 7-11 in Kinder, Louisiana.

The Emory, Texas, trainer and 4-year-old bay mare topped the $20,000-added 5-year-old Futurity for $12,231, won the Breeders Challenge qualifier for $8,918 and took second in the slot race for an additional $12,000. They also picked up $1,157 in Breeders Challenge Open money and $3,750 for winning the Tomorrow's Legends Incentive.

Monk said he was just focusing on clean runs on the speedy mare. They were a 14.604 for fifth in the first round of the Futurity and a 14.489 to split second and third on their next run.

THANKS: "I can never thank her amazing owners Billy and Suzonne Franks enough for listening to me and buying her in October, because I refused for her to leave my training program because I believed in her so much and loved her so much.

"I would like to give a shout out to my sister Brittainý Hill for putting such a good foundation on her as a 2-year-old and Ty Cornelius for the rides you put on her as well. I want to thank each and every one who has had a hand in this filly's journey this far, Louie and Niki Saggione for purchasing her for me as a 2-year-old, Dr. Don Lee for always going above and beyond listening to her and myself to keep her feeling her best, Aaron Lohmann for her crazy fast feet even though she challenges you to do her back feet sometimes, Paula & Alisa for always helping me get her ready to fly and look beautiful doing it, Danny Ray for bringing this amazing animal into this world, and Luann Johnson, owner of the great Eddie thank you for all the support and paying him into all these incentives so that we have these opportunities!

"All my sponsors—thank y'all! I'm so honored to be on your team. And the good Lord above for the talent and passion and opportunity You blessed me with so that I can live my dream. Thank you Kinder Cup crew for yet another great show and the ground crew—Wow! Much appreciated."

"I was just mainly trying to stay clean because I knew she could place and possibly win the average," said Monk. "Obviously the second round was a lot faster, and I really had to be on my A-game, but it was fun. It was pretty neat that we did pull it off."

Bred by Victory Farms, Can Can is by $5.8 million dollar barrel horse sire Eddie Stinson out of proven producer Chase This Ivory, by Ivory James. She is a full sister to OKC Derby Champion and BFA Super Stakes Reserve Champion VF Chasin Cans ($136,179 in QData earnings) and a half sister to Ruby Buckle Memphis Open 1D Champion Born Ivory James ($89,193).

Monk's longtime client Niki Saggione purchased Can Can—who was then registered as VF A Star Is Born—at the 2021 Pink Buckle Sale for $38,500.

"She was one of my picks," said Monk. "I always really liked her full sister, and she looked the part."

Monk had always favored the Eddie Stinsons since he rode Go Sweet Eddie in 2013.

"They're definitely ones that you don't pick on," he said. "Their slow work is not that great. Pretty much every Eddie filly has cross fired in their slow work but when you ask them to run they always try."

After a few weeks off to decompress from the sale, Can Can was put into Monk's program.

"She has always been super cool," said Monk. "She wasn't one of the front runners as far as exhibition times last year, but I knew something special was there because she'd always step up when I needed her to."

her slow and let the mare pick her speed.

"She's definitely a typical Eddie but she has the rate and turn, but she's a little more free up into the turn. It's kind of neat to have that. It's a lot easier to win on them that way."

Last October, Monk was able to hand pick the mare's owners for this futurity season.

"(The Saggiones) have several horses with me and they'd always tell me everything is for sale," chuckled Monk. "They were always pressuring me to pick. I had a JL Dash Ta Heaven filly and her. Those were my two favorites. I wanted to keep them both and they wouldn't let me. Every time I'd send them a video, the Heaven mare was going faster, but I would tell them this mare is going to be a superstar, she's just not going to be a superstar in November."

Saggione had advertised the mare off and on, and when she found a potential buyer in October, Monk got on the phone to make sure it was a buyer that would keep the horse with him.

"I didn't want her leaving my barn," he said. "I had met the Franks about six months before and they told me to keep an eye for a prospect for them. When this came about, I called them first thing. They called me back within an hour and told me they would buy her. I was super excited about it. They've been really good to work for and they've been having a lot of fun with it."

Tyler Rivette & Slingin Firewater Top Kinder Cup Slot Race, Collect $33,367

By Tanya Randall

Tyler Rivette and Slingin Firewater ("Redman") posted the fastest time of the $20,000-added Kinder Cup Futurity, held February 7-11 in Kinder, Louisiana, to take top honors in the $52,650 Slot Race. The Maysville, Oklahoma, based trainer and the 4-year-old gelding took home $18,000 for the Slot Race victory, which was determined by the fastest time of an entered contestant's two runs in the Futurity. They also placed sixth in the Futurity, earning another $9,010 including open carryovers.

"The first day I just had a normal run," said Rivette. "It wasn't spectacular."

They were out of the money in the first round with a 15.0, but followed it up with a second-round winning 14.042.

"The second day, I just went for it," he said. "I knew he could do it. He's won money at every futurity that I've gone to. I just sent him in there and he worked amazing! He spun the first and ran hard between the barrels. I think it's a little bit of a turning game there, and he can really run too. They had Split Timing there and he made up a lot of time running home as well."

Rivette and Redman also picked up $6,357 in Breeders Challenge qualifier money for total earnings of $33,367.

"He qualified (at the Golden Buckle) in Waco for the Breeders Challenge Futurity and Open (Finals)," Rivette noted. "I went ahead and entered him again in Kinder because it pays so well. I think the way the industry is going with the incentives and everything allows you to pick and choose what you want to go to and still win great money.

Owned and bred by Rosemary Harrison, Redman is by $7.5 million dollar barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling, out of Harrison's homebred mare Firewater Traffic, a daughter of late leading sire Firewater Ta Fame out of Frenchmans Traffic, a full sister to leading performer Morning Traffic and sire Traffic Guy.

Rivette, who has a lot of success on A Streak Of Fling offspring, including Harrison Ranch's champion stallion Flingin Roses, said he likes that the Streaker babies tend to run willingly yet rate on their

"I think when you have to pull on a horse, it kills your clock," he said. "I don't have to handle them a whole lot. They run, yet they do rate for their turn, and I really like that style."

Redman got his basic training under saddle starting with Laura Alexander in the roundpen before moving on to Chase Miller, who was riding colts at the ranch at the time. Rivette said the gelding took to barrels easily.

"He's very sensitive," he said. "He's light and quick on his feet. He's a pleaser, so he wants to do good all the time. There's not much correcting. You just show him what you want him to do and he goes and does it."

Redman made his debut as a finalist at the BFA Juvenile Futurity. He was the reserve champion of the OKC Rookie Futurity. The gelding was a finalist at both the Lone Star Shootout Futurity and Golden Buckle before winning the slot at Kinder.

"He's shown up every single time I've ran him," said Rivette. "I can't complain. I think he's won close to $57,000 all ready."

Oh Canada! Kathleen Menard & Charmin N Rockin Win American East Region Final

By Tanya Randall

French Canadian Kathleen Menard and her 8-year-old mare Charmin N Rockin were the first gunners through the gate for The American Contender Tournament East Regional Final, held February 10 in the Alltech Arena at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Kentucky.

Their 15.294 held off the remaining 11 runners to capture the $10,000 Championship and the right to compete at The American Contender Tournament Final on March 9 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas.

"I was like, 'it's just another run. Do your best. You're just lucky to be in the Finals.' Never in my mind did I think I was going to get to go to Texas. I was just proud to be here. When I ran the 15.2, I was like, 'Oh my God! 15.2!"

Menard, who owns and operates Seven Saddles, waited in the back and as she heard 15.3, 15.4, 15.5, she knew with three remaining she was going to Texas.

"I was really happy about that," said Menard, who wanted to thank her family and friends for their support. "I was really proud of my mare."

Joining Menard at the Final on March 9 are Sable Miller Emerson, Jimmie Smith Tew and Bayleigh Choate, who had a WPRA Top 20 exemption, but still had to qualify back through the Redemption Round, a $1,000 one-run shootout for those that failed to advance through the two-run aggregate.

Initially, Menard had qualified two horses to the Region Semifinals, held February 8-9 in Lexington. She had automatic advancement on SR Blazin Jedi after finishing second at the Contender Qualifier in Tampa, Florida. With Charmin, she qualified on points from the Tampa event as well as in Pensacola, Florida.

In the Semifinals, she finished sixth in the first round with a 15.565 on Charmin.

"I was very surprised," she said. "From the beginning, I thought it would just be a nice experience for her to go. Then, it was like, 'Oh Wow!' For her to finish at the top with all the good horses, I was very proud of her."

Knowing they had a legitimate shot at advancing to the Region Final on the two-run average made Menard a little nervous for her next run.

"The second run, she did good, but she pulled off her shoe on the second. I lost a few tenths over there and she ran a 15.7. Well, I was eighth in the average, and for the last 50 horses, I was like, 'Oh my gosh!"

They ultimately finished ninth in the average and picked up $973 in the process.

Menard had purchased Charmin, a daughter of the Dash For Perks son CCS Last Warrior, out of Kristin Aus's homebred Firewaterontherocks mare, KAB Possum On Fire, sight unseen on the advice of legendary barrel racer and clinician Joyce Loomis Kernek. She and her friend Susie Parisee trained the mare.

"I took her to the BFA as a 4-year-old and she made the Top 50, and everything started from there," said Menard, who splits her time between the IPRA rodeos near Quebec City, Canada, home during the summer months and the jackpots and WPRA rodeos in the Ocala, Florida, area the remainder of the year.

Her goal this year is to make the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Path To The American

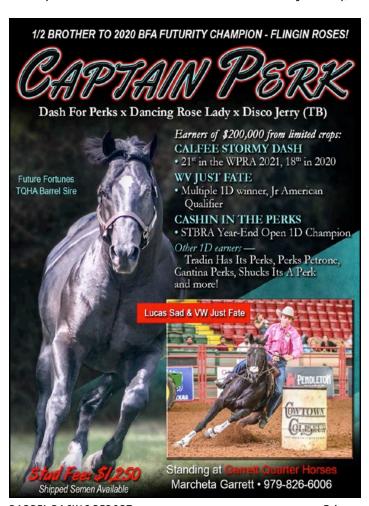

Tasha Welsh and her Tres Seis, Dash Ta Fame stallion Seis Smashin Fame captured the East Semifinals Championship with the best time on two runs to earn $3,352.

Rounding out the Region Finalist, who will advance to The American Contender Tournament Wild Card on March 8 at Globe Life Field, were Welsh, Dina Allred, Sabra Moore, Cassidy Brown, Kaylee Weaver, Emma Parr, Emily Wilkins and Jessica Routier. They will be joined by third through sixth in the Redemption Round and 11th through 40 in the two-run aggregate.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Royal Crown Buckeye This Week!

The barrel action kicks off this week at the Royal Crown in Buckeye, AZ. The Royal Crown Buckeye event held February 10-19 with $426,000 total added. The first part of the event just wrapped up the roping classes. The roping was held from February 10th until February 13th and all the results can be found at www.RoyalCrownRace.com under the Roping Results 2023 tab.

February 14th & 15th will be mainly exhibitions with a Warm Up Barrel Race kicking off the barrel racing action on afternoon of the 15th. From February 16th through February 19th the barrel racing will heat up. The events will include a Royal Crown Futurity & Derby, Open Futurity & Derby along with a Pewee, Senior and Youth. You can keep up with the action at www.XFactorBarrelRacing.com

As part of the event, there will be an online sale held as well. The Royal Crown Horse Sale runs online from Feb 13-Sunday Feb 19 at 6:30 pm MT. The information is available on http://bid.royalcrownrace.com or by downloading the "Royal Crown Horse Sale" app. There will be a Sale Preview in the Main Arena at the South Buckeye Equestrian Center at 6:30 pm Friday, Feb 17. There is great selection of well bred horses to chose from including short yearlings, prospects, performance horses to broodmares available.

For all the information, draws, results and such go to www.RoyalCrownRace.com

The Cowboy Channel to Broadcast All Performances of San Antonio

Let's Rodeo San Antonio! The Cowboy Channel is proud to broadcast once again all 19 ProRodeo performances plus the Xtreme Bulls, Ranch Rodeo, and Noche Del Vaquero live from the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo inside the AT&T Center in San Antonio, TX. Tune in starting Thursday, February 9th at 7:30pm ET/6:30pm CT for a 30-minute San Antonio Rodeo Pre-Show, which will air before every live performance, followed by two hours of non-stop ProRodeo action at 8:00pm ET/7:00pm CT. 2023 marks the 4th consecutive year The Cowboy Channel has called San Antonio home for the month of February, broadcasting live daily from the Alamo City.

Janie Johnson and Katy Lucas, behind-the-chutes reporters for The Cowboy Channel, will be on the dirt for every rodeo performance, interviewing the round winners in each event as the ProRodeo Tournament builds throughout the month. The San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo follows a tournament-style format with five separate brackets - three (3) rounds per bracket. The top four (4) money winners in each bracket then advance to one of two Semifinal Rounds, where then the top (5) out of each Semifinal advance to the Finals. Following the Semifinals there is one last chance to make the Finals, where the top 10 contestants in each event who did not advance to the Finals from the Semifinals compete, and the highest score and fasted time advances. The Finals for the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo are on Championship Saturday Night, February 25th at 8:30pm ET/7:30pm CT, and is when each event winner who has earned the most money at the end of the Finals will be crowned the San Antonio Rodeo Champion.

"San Antonio is such an iconic rodeo - from the beautiful city and riverwalk to the fantastic AT&T Center," said Janie Johnson, host for The Cowboy Channel. "Every PRCA athlete has it on their bucket list to win a San Antonio buckle. This rodeo makes a major impact in the PRCA standings and can set the momentum for the rest of the season as they compete to earn their spot in the top 15 at the National Finals Rodeo in December."

In addition to the ProRodeo Tournament at the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, The Cowboy Channel will also be broadcasting two special performances: Ranch Rodeo and Noche del Vaquero. The Ranch Rodeo is on Thursday, February 16th at 8pm ET/7pm CT and is a throwback to the old west when neighboring ranches would get together to see whose cowboys were the best riders, the best ropers, and generally the toughest hands. Teams of real working cowboys will compete directly with one another in events similar to the tasks cowboys face every day, such as steer loading, calf branding, roping, and more. The Noche del Vaquero is on Sunday, February 19th at 8:30pm ET/7:30pm CT and is a celebration honoring the traditions, artistic skills, and pageantry of South Texas heritage and culture. The evening performance will include Ballet Folklorico, escaramuzas, Bull and Bronc riding, plus charro and mariachi exhibitions.

The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo is part of The Cowboy Channel's "Texas Swing"

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

hen you love someone (Happy Valentines Day!), you treat them well, with respect. Right?

V God loved us sooooo much that He sent Jesus to die for us. To take our sin Himself so we wouldn't have to bear the sins we commit. John 3:16-17.

What a gift! What a sacrifice! What love! In my natural mind, it is hard to fathom. But I CAN tell you how much I love my husband, my family, my grandchildren, my friends. I know you can, too.

We know God loves us. Do we love God? I'm sure we're quick to say yes! But do we? Do we read His Word and obey it? Do we attend church regularly or do we only go at Christmas time and Easter? Hebrews 10:25.

Friends, the way we treat the Word of God, is how we'll treat the God of the Word. He gave us His all. Let's do the same. It will go well with us if we do!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
